According to our records, you have not filed your form 1040 for tax year 2004 and have not paid the amount of tax, penalty and interest you owe on that form.

If you have filed the form and paid the full amount you owe within the last 6 weeks, you may disregard this notice.

If you filed the form more than 6 weeks ago, please send us a copy of the form and any attachments to the address shown at the bottom of this letter. Important: Please sign the copy of the return and include the tear-off stub from the bottom part of this letter to help us identify your account.

If you think you are not required to file this return, please explain why on the back of the tear-off stub at the bottom of this letter and send it to us.

If you are required to file, but have not done so please:

- (1) Complete and sign your tax form and attach any supporting schedules or statements;
- (2) Attach your payment for any amount you owe;
- (3) Attach the tear-off stub from the bottom of this notice; and
- (4) Send all these items to the address shown at the bottom of this notice.

 Important notice about backup withholding ******

If you do not respond to this notice, you may become subject to backup-withholding. This means that we may notify your bank or other dividend and interest payers to withhold 28% of these payments. To avoid this action, please respond to this notice promptly.

Thank you for your cooperation.
