RE: SS# [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Subject: CP-515
Year(s) in Question: 1996

Dear Sirs:

Mr. Pope and I have Power of Attorney for [REDACTED] and are authorized to resolve the instant matter.

We have before us your CP-515. Before we can proceed to settle this, we have some documents we need you to provide to us.

In reviewing the documents sent by the IRS we do not find any citation or reference to the specific tax you are claiming our client, [REDACTED] liable for. Since there are numerous types of taxes enumerated in the Internal Revenue Code, we need to know which specific type(s) of tax or taxes the records show that the IRS has determined our client allegedly liable for in the specific year(s) in question.

We also need to know what specific tax form(s) the IRS records claim or show [REDACTED] was required to file for the specific year or years in question.

Specifically, the documents we need you to send are:

- 1) the documents used to determine what tax [REDACTED] is liable for,
- 2) the documents used to determine what form [REDACTED] is required to file for that tax, and
- 3) the documents used to determine what type of class of taxpayer the IRS records indicate that [REDACTED] is, for the specific year(s) in question.

Since our client has never been given documents by the IRS which clearly state what specific tax(es) the IRS claims [REDACTED] is liable for and which specific form he/she is required to file, it is imperative that we must be able to obtain a true and correct copy of these documents before we can begin to resolve this matter.

Dear Mr. Roberts:

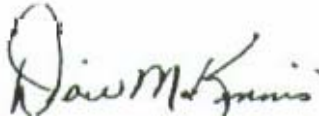

RE: Privacy Act Request for Virgil I, and Debora A.

This letter is in response to your privacy Act request dated October 21,1998.

In response to your items 1,2 and 3 our records indicate that Mr. and Mrs. have filed a Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. The return was received on January 8, 1997. Mr. And Mrs. Have therefore, determined the sources of Income, the type of form to file and the particular tax they are liable for.

Thank you for your inquiry.

Sincerely,

Dianne McKimmis
Sr. Disclosure Specialist
