REBUTTED FALSE ARGUMENTS AGAINST THIS WEBSITE

“The truth about the income tax and illegal government activities in general is so precious to the United States government that it must be surrounded by a body guard of LIES, propaganda, dis-information, cognitive dissonance, words of art, and false accusations.”

DEDICATION

*“No weapon formed against you shall prosper,
And every tongue which rises against you in judgment
You shall condemn.

*This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
And their righteousness is from Me,”
Says the LORD.
[Isaiah 54:17, Bible, NKJV]*

*“Be diligent to [investigate and expose the truth for yourself and thereby] present yourself [and the public servants who are your fiduciaries and stewards under the Constitution] approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word [and the deeds] of truth. But shun profane babblings [government propaganda, tyranny, and usurpation] for they will increase to more ungodliness. And their message [and their harmful effects] will spread like cancer [to destroy our society and great Republic].”
[2 Tim. 2:15-17, Bible, NKJV]*

*“They have a Right to censure, that have a Heart to help: The rest is Cruelty, not Justice.”
[William Penn, Some Fruits of Solitude, pt. 1, no. 46 (1693)]*

*“...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . . .”
[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]*

*“The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic, and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State.”
[Joseph Goebbels, German Minister of Propaganda, 1933-1945]*

*“This nation, as experience has proved, cannot always remain at peace, and has no right to expect that it will always have wise and humane rulers, sincerely attached to the principles of the Constitution. Wicked men, ambitious of power, with hatred of liberty and contempt of law, may fill the place once occupied by Washington and Lincoln; and if this right is conceded, and the calamities of war again befall us, the dangers to human liberty are frightful to contemplate. If our fathers had failed to provide for just such a contingency, they would have been false to the trust reposed in them. They knew — the history of the world told them — the nation they were founding, be its existence short or long, would be involved in war; how often or how long continued, human foresight could not tell; and that unlimited power, wherever lodged at such a time, was especially hazardous to freemen. For this, and other equally weighty reasons, they secured the inheritance they had fought to maintain, by incorporating in a written constitution the safeguards which time had proved were essential to its preservation. Not one of these safeguards can the President, or Congress, or the Judiciary disturb, except the one concerning the writ of habeas corpus."

[Ex parte Milligan, 71 U.S. 2, 125 (1866)]

"Ye shall know the truth and the Truth shall make you free"

[Jesus in John 8:32, Bible, NKJV]

"And in their covetousness (lust, greed) they will exploit you with false (cunning) arguments [“words of art”]. From of old the sentence [of condemnation] for them has not been idle; their destruction (eternal misery) has not been asleep.”

[2 Peter 2:3, Bible, Amplified Edition]

"Believing is easier than thinking. Hence so many more believers than thinkers."

[Bruce Calvert]

“What luck for rulers that men do not think“

[Adolf Hitler]

"Ignorance more frequently begets confidence than does knowledge."

[Charles Darwin (1809-1882) 1871]

“There is nothing so powerful as truth, and often nothing so strange.”

[Daniel Webster]

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. And those who are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.”

[Gal. 5:22-26, Bible, NKJV]

"The attempt to silence a man is the greatest honor you can bestow on him. It means that you recognize his superiority to yourself."

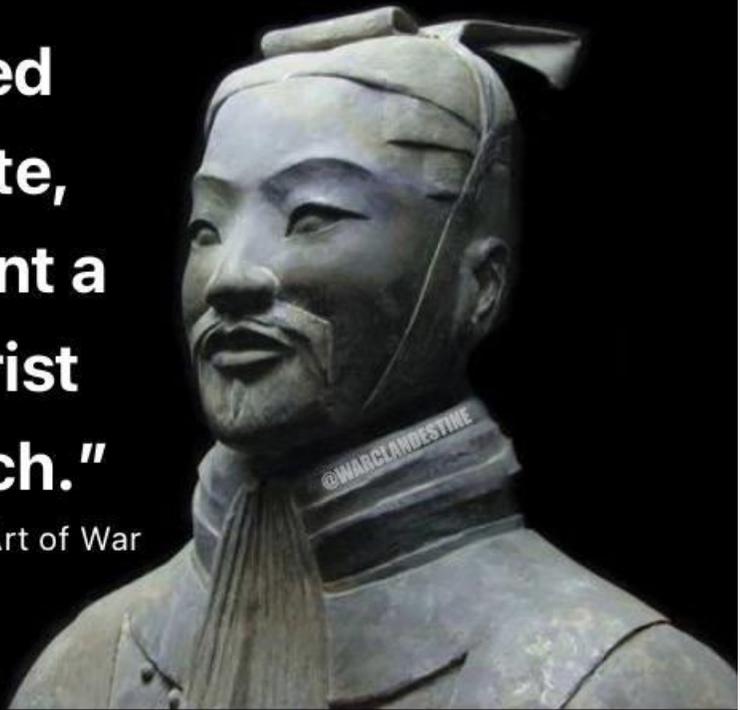

[Joseph Sobran]

“Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!
Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!
Woe to men mighty at drinking wine,
Woe to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink,
Who justify the wicked for a bribe,
And take away justice from the righteous man!”

[Isaiah 5:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

"When confronted with public debate, call your opponent a conspiracy theorist and cry like a bitch."

– Sun Tzu, The Art of War

UPSIDE DOWN LAND

You know you live in an Upside-down Land if...

1. A Muslim officer crying "Allah Akbar" while shooting up an army base is considered to have committed "Workplace Violence" while an American citizen boasting a Ron Paul bumper sticker is classified as a "Domestic Terrorist".
2. You can get arrested for expired tags on your car but not for being in the country illegally.
3. Your government believes that the best way to eradicate trillions of dollars of debt is to spend trillions more of our money.
4. A seven year old boy can be thrown out of school for calling his teacher "cute" but hosting a sexual exploration or diversity class in grade school is perfectly acceptable.
5. The Supreme Court of the United States can rule that lower courts cannot display the 10 Commandments in their courtroom, while sitting in front of a display of the 10 Commandments.
6. Children are forcibly removed from parents who appropriately discipline them while children of "underprivileged" drug addicts are left to rot in filth infested cesspools.
7. Working class Americans pay for their own health care (and the health care of everyone else) while unmarried women are free to have child after child on the "State's" dime while never being held responsible for their own choices.
8. Hard work and success are rewarded with higher taxes and government intrusion, while slothful, lazy behavior is rewarded with EBT cards, WIC checks, Medicaid and subsidized housing.
9. The government's plan for getting people back to work is to provide 99 weeks of unemployment checks (to not work).
10. Being self-sufficient is considered a threat to the government.
11. Politicians think that stripping away the amendments to the constitution is really protecting the rights of the people.
12. The rights of the Government come before the rights of the individual.
13. Parents believe the State is responsible for providing for their children.
14. You can write a post like this just by reading the news headlines.
15. You pay your mortgage faithfully, denying yourself the newest big screen TV while your neighbor defaults on his mortgage (while buying iphones, TV's and new cars) and the government forgives his debt and reduces his mortgage (with your tax dollars).
16. Your government can add anything they want to your kid's water (fluoride, chlorine, etc.) but you are not allowed to give them raw milk.
17. Being stripped of the ability to defend yourself makes you "safe".
18. You have to have your parents signature to go on a school field trip but not to get an abortion.
19. An 80 year old woman can be stripped searched by the TSA but a Muslim woman in a burqa is only subject to having her neck and head searched.
20. Using the "N" word is considered "hate speech" but writing and singing songs about raping women and killing cops is considered "art".

"Doublethink means the power of [hypocritically] holding two contradictory beliefs in one's mind simultaneously, and accepting both of them."

1 Introduction

1.1 Scope

The purpose of this document is to rebut false allegations directed at discrediting and slandering this website, most of which originate from sources within the government and a corrupted legal profession. This website has been the subject of intense government anti-whistle-blowing activity intended to obstruct justice, silence whistleblowers, and cover up evidence of massive violations of law by the government. This persecution includes the following information directed at either us, sister websites, or our members:

1. Slandering us on the Quatloos Website, Jay Adkisson, which is run by IRS agents. See:

The Quatloos Website is a FRAUD, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/FalseRhetoric/JayAdkissonQuatloos.htm>

2. Targeting our members to enjoin the website. See:

Federal District Court Rules on Hansen Injunction, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/News/Historical/CHRuling-060615.htm>

3. Announcing the fraudulent ruling of the district court described above on the DOJ Press Releases Website:

<http://www.usdoj.gov/tax/txdv06345.htm>

4. Attacking our Members on the Tax Protester Dossiers. See:

<http://tpgurus.wikidot.com/start>

5. Mentioning this website in the following IRS publication. See Section C.4 of the following:

The Truth About Frivolous Tax Arguments, Internal Revenue Service
<http://www.irs.gov/taxpros/article/0,,id=159932,00.html>

We will begin by explaining the motivation behind the false and fraudulent allegations made by the government against this website. Then we will rebut false allegations made by the U.S. Dept. of Justice against one of our members in a failed attempt to get an injunction against this website. Then we will rebut objections of the IRS directed at us. Finally, we will rebut objections from tax professionals directed against the position of this website.

1.2 Only FACTS and not OPINIONS are the basis for this discussion and must be the ONLY basis for any rebuttal to this document

When talking about government or law or taxation, our website provides exhaustive third-party sources to back up its inferences and beliefs which the government itself identifies as “facts”. Such sources are not OUR claims but the GOVERNMENT’S claims on the subjects we cover. We emphasize this in our Disclaimer, for instance.

If the only thing you as a reader intend to offer is opinions and beliefs and no court-admissible facts in response to this discussion, then we’ll save you the trouble and send you home with your marbles before the debate begins. The Federal Rules of Evidence 601 state that beliefs and opinions are not admissible as evidence. If you won’t argue with FACTS, reason, and logic, then don’t bother participating. As we like to say:

“Opinions are like assholes. Everybody has one and they all stink, including ours.”
[SEDM]

On the other hand, the conclusions and inferences we reach ABOUT what the GOVERNMENT claims are “facts” are reasonable and logical, but are NOT facts and should not be treated as facts that are legally actionable. We emphasize that all the false allegations against us related to the conclusions we reach about GOVERNMENT facts are nothing more than rhetoric, because this website identifies absolutely everything it publishes OTHER than FACTS FROM THE GOVERNMENT as nothing more than religious beliefs and opinions that are NON-factual, NON-actionable, and not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding. Speech cannot be commercial or enjoined unless and until the speech identifies itself as factual and reliable. Attempts to silence this website, therefore, amount to nothing more than malicious interference with the First Amendment rights of the authors and a criminal obstruction of justice.

“...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be

1 remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious
2 organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant
3 he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses
4 or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely
5 to those who can pay their own way. . .
7

8 "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable
9 supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labour to subvert these great
10 Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally
11 with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with
12 private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, "where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if
13 the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of
14 justice?" And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion.
15 Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and
16 experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."
17 [George Washington, Farewell Address]

19 "In the First Amendment, the Founding Fathers gave the free press the protection it must have to fulfill its 20 essential role in our democracy. The press [and this religious ministry] was to serve the governed, not the 21 governors. The Government's power to censor the press was abolished so that the press would remain forever
22 free to censure the Government. The press was protected so that it could bare the secrets of government and 23 inform the people. Only a free and unrestrained press can effectively expose deception in government. And 24 paramount among the responsibilities of a free press is the duty to prevent any part of the government from 25 deceiving the people and sending them off to distant lands to die of foreign fevers and foreign shot and shell. In 26 my view, far from deserving condemnation for their courageous reporting, the New York Times, the Washington
27 Post, and other newspapers should be commended for serving the purpose that the Founding Fathers saw so
28 clearly. In revealing the workings of government that led to the Vietnam War, the newspapers nobly did precisely
29 that which the Founders hoped and trusted they would do."
30 [New York Times Co. v. United States, 403 U.S. 713 (1970)]

31 We expect that lazy and presumptuous people may feel inclined not to expend the energy to read this document or will go
32 FIRST to the IRS website and the fraudulent and false propaganada it contains before reading this publication. Before you
33 attempt to do so, we wish to warn you that even the IRS itself says you CANNOT RELY ON ANYTHING THEY PRINT
34 OR WRITE. Therefore, what they provide is unreliable and untrustworthy, BY THEIR OWN ADMISSION, and hence is 35 not admissible as evidence as a basis for good faith belief.

36 "IRS Publications, issued by the National Office [INCLUDING THEIR ENTIRE WEBSITE], explain the law in 37 plain language for taxpayers and their advisors... While a good source of general information, publications 38 should not be cited to sustain a position."
39 [Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

40 For the amazing truth on this subject, please read:

44 Based on the above document, we establish that the ONLY thing the government says you can rely upon is what positive law
45 from the CIVIL jurisdiction you are domiciled actually says on the subject. That is the ONLY thing we in turn rely upon in 46 educating you about what your duties are under the law. Consequently, if the corrupted de facto government wants to "shoot
47 the messenger" by persecuting us for educating you about what the law and GOVERNMENT facts actually say, then:

- 48 1. They are promoting anarchy and lawlessness, which ironically is the very thing they falsely accuse so-called 49 "sovereign citizens" of doing. Anyone who doesn't want you to read or follow the law is an anarchist as legally 50 defined.
- 51 2. They are promoting and protecting the GOVERNMENT CRIMES our ministry exposes and tries to prevent. Anyone 52 who does that is a criminal and should go to jail.
- 53 3. Indirectly the only thing they can "shoot" or "discredit" is themselves! That sounds like a good idea. Have at it,
54 friends. THEY are the ones who write and publish the law. Anyone who says you shouldn't trust what they say is a 55 LIAR.
- 56 4. They are hypocrites.

57 Everything the SEDM ministry publishes and produces, in fact, was created precisely because:

- 1 1. There is NOTHING available from other than the law itself or the U.S. Supreme Court that any court says you can rely
- 2 on as legal evidence sustaining a reasonable belief of what the law requires you to do.
- 3 2. We want you to have SOMETHING to rely on OTHER than simply a BELIEF or PRESUMPTION. Those who
- 4 operate upon presumption are implementing a state-sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment.
- 5 3. Most of what is available from sources other than the government on the subjects we cover is not only untrustworthy,
- 6 but downright false and fraudulent in most cases.

7 Nearly everything we provide to prove the points we make is admissible as evidence in a legal proceeding because it derives

8 from a source that the GOVERNMENT says is credible and doesn't rely on anything that we or anyone else says or believes.

9 We would therefore like to begin this publication with some simple rhetorical questions designed to increase your interest in

10 the subject matter of this pamphlet:

- 11 1. If not even the IRS is willing to take personal and legal responsibility for anything they say or write, then what
- 12 guarantee do you have that it is even truthful?
- 13 2. Why are you signing government forms under penalty of perjury stating that the content is accurate if even the IRS
- 14 won't do so?
- 15 3. What proof do you have that the IRS is even PART of the U.S. government? We have proof that they ARE NOT.
- 16 4. Isn't it hypocritical for the government to throw you in jail for inaccuracies on tax forms that the IRS itself is not
- 17 responsible for the inaccuracies of? Doesn't the constitution require equality and equal treatment?
- 18 5. If what the IRS or even your tax lawyer says are clearly in conflict with what the law expressly permits, then aren't
- 19 they LYING to you, and shouldn't they be prosecuted or disbarred for this? After all, most states have laws that
- 20 clearly say that when a witness contradicts himself, then they are PRESUMED to be committing PERJURY. The
- 21 government, as a witness, publishes BOTH the propaganda that they LIE to you with AND the laws that clearly
- 22 contradict it. As public officers, they have a fiduciary duty to always act in our best interest and tell us the truth, and
- 23 therefore EVERYTHING they tell us ought to be under oath, just like everything we tell them under the concept of
- 24 equal protection. Here is an example:

25 Delaware Criminal Code, Title 11, Section 1225

26 § 1225. Inconsistent statements under oath; no need to prove one false; framing indictment; proof of 27 irreconcilable inconsistency; conviction of lesser offense.

28 When a person has made 2 statements under oath which are inconsistent to the degree that 1 of them is

29 necessarily false, and the circumstances are such that each statement, if false, is perjurious, the inability of the

30 prosecution to establish specifically which of the 2 statements is the false one does not preclude a prosecution

31 for perjury. The prosecution may be conducted as follows:

32 (1) The indictment or information may set forth the 2 statements and, without designating either, charge that 1 of 33 them is false and perjurious.

34 (2) The falsity of one or the other of the 2 statements may be established by proof of their irreconcilable

35 inconsistency. Such proof is sufficient to establish a prima facie case of falsity.

36 (3) If perjury of different degrees would be established by the making of the 2 statements, hypothetically assuming

37 that each is false and perjurious, the defendant may be convicted of the lesser degree at most.

38 11 Del. C. 1953, § 1225; 58 Del. Laws, c. 497, § 1.;

40 After considering the answers to these questions, hopefully, you at least appreciate the importance of the following statement:

41 “The truth about the income tax and illegal government activities in general is so precious to the United States

42 government that it must be surrounded by a body guard of LIES, propaganda, dis-information, cognitive

43 dissonance, words of art, and false accusations.”

1.3 Definition of key terms and contexts

A favorite debate tactic of statist is to perpetuate an argument about terms that they refuse to define, to use emotionally charged words, and to deceive the audience about the meaning of terms by using them out of context. The first thing that most politicians say in defense of something they said, in fact, was to claim that they were quoted out of context. The purpose of this section is to define all key terms and contexts BEFORE the debate begins so that such tactics are IMPOSSIBLE. Equivocation is a favorite tactic of statist but it is impossible if the contexts and terms are carefully defined before the debate begins.

We will begin this section with a definition of “sovereign” found in our website disclaimer:

*SEDM Disclaimer/License Agreement

4.20. Sovereign

The word "sovereign" when referring to humans or governments means all the following:

1. A human being and NOT a "government". Only human beings are "sovereign" and only when they are acting in strict obedience to the laws of their religion. All powers of government are delegated from the PEOPLE and are NOT "divine rights". Those powers in turn are only operative when government PREVENTS the conversion of PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights. When that goal is avoided or undermined or when law is used to accomplish involuntary conversion, we cease to have a government and instead end up with a private, de facto for profit corporation that has no sovereign immunity and cannot abuse sovereign immunity to protect its criminal thefts from the people [<https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/DeFactoGov.pdf>].

2. EQUAL in every respect to any and every government or actor in government. All governments are legal "persons" and under our Constitutional system, ALL "persons" are equal and can only become UNEQUAL in relation to each other WITH their EXPRESS and NOT IMPLIED consent. Since our Constitutional rights are unalienable per the Declaration of Independence, then we can't become unequal in relation to any government, INCLUDING through our consent.

3. Not superior in any way to any human being within the jurisdiction of the courts of any country.

4. Possessing the EQUAL right to acquire rights over others by the same mechanisms as the government uses. For instance, if the government encourages the filing of FALSE information returns that essentially "elect" people into public office without their consent, then we have an EQUAL right to elect any and every government or officer within government into our PERSONAL service as our PERSONAL officer without THEIR consent. See:

5. Subject to the criminal laws of the jurisdiction they are physically situated in, just like everyone else. This provision excludes "quasi criminal provisions" within civil franchises, such as tax crimes.

6. The origin of all authority delegated to the government per the Declaration of Independence.

7. Reserving all rights and delegating NONE to any and every government or government actor. U.C.C. §1-308 and its predecessor, U.C.C. §1-207.

8. Not consenting to any and every civil franchise offered by any government.

9. Possessing the same sovereign immunity as any government. Hence, like the government, any government actor asserting a liability or obligation has the burden of proving on the record of any court proceeding EXPRESS WRITTEN consent to be sued before the obligation becomes enforceable.

10. Claiming no civil or franchise status under any statutory franchise, including but not limited to "citizen", "resident", "driver" (under the vehicle code), "spouse" (under the family code), "taxpayer" (under the tax code). Any attempt to associate a statutory status and the public rights it represents against a non-consenting party is THEFT and SLAVERY and INJUSTICE.

11. Acting as a fiduciary, agent, and trustee on behalf of God 24 hours a day, seven days a week as an ambassador of a legislatively foreign jurisdiction and as a public officer of "Heaven, Inc.", a private foreign corporation. God is the ONLY "sovereign" and the source of all sovereignty. We must be acting as His agent and fiduciary before

1 we can exercise any sovereignty at all. Any attempt by so-called "government" to interfere with our ability to act
2 as His fiduciaries is a direct interference with our right to contract and the free exercise of religion. See:

4 [<https://sedm.org/Forms/13-SelfFamilyChurchGovnce/DelOfAuthority.pdf>]

5 12. Capable of being civilly sued ONLY under the common law and equity and not under any statutory civil law.
6 All statutory civil laws are law for government and public officers, and NOT for private human beings. They are
7 civil franchises that only acquire the "force of law" with the consent of the subject. See:

8 Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
9 [<https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/StatLawGovt.pdf>]

10 13. Protected from the civil statutory law by the First Amendment requirement for separation of church and state
11 because we Christians are the church and our physical body is the "temple" of the church. See: 1 Cor. 6:19.

12 14. Responsible for all the injuries they cause to every other person under equity and common law ONLY, and 13 not under civil statutory law.

14 [SEDM Disclaimer, Section 4.20; SOURCE: <https://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>]

15 Since the most frequent accusation against sovereignty advocates by government actors is that they are "anarchists", here is 16 how we define "anarchy" in our disclaimer:

17 SEDM Disclaimer/License Agreement
18 Section 4: Meaning of Words

19 4.21. Anarchy
20

21 The term "anarchy" implies any one or more of the following, and especially as regards so-called "governments".
22 An important goal of this site is to eliminate all such "anarchy":

- 23 1. Are superior in any way to the people they govern UNDER THE LAW.
- 24 2. Are not directly accountable to the people or the law. They prohibit the PEOPLE from criminally prosecuting
25 their own crimes, reserving the right to prosecute to their own fellow criminals. Who polices the police? THE
26 CRIMINALS.
- 27 3. Enact laws that exempt themselves. This is a violation of the Constitutional requirement for equal protection
28 and equal treatment and constitutes an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause
29 8 of the United States Constitution.
- 30 4. Only enforce the law against others and NOT themselves, as a way to protect their own criminal activities by 31 persecuting dissidents. This is called "selective enforcement". In the legal field it is also called "professional 32 courtesy". Never kill the goose that lays the STOLEN golden eggs.
- 33 5. Break the laws with impunity. This happens most frequently when corrupt people in government engage in 34 "selective enforcement", whereby they refuse to prosecute or interfere with the prosecution of anyone in 35 government. The Department of Justice (D.O.J.) or the District Attorney are the most frequent perpetrators of 36 this type of crime.
- 37 6. Are able to choose which laws they want to be subject to, and thus refuse to enforce laws against 38 themselves. The most frequent method for this type of abuse is to assert sovereign, official, or judicial immunity
39 as a defense in order to protect the wrongdoers in government when they are acting outside their delegated 40 authority, or outside what the definitions in the statutes EXPRESSLY allow.
- 41 7. Impute to themselves more rights or methods of acquiring rights than the people themselves have. In other
42 words, who are the object of PAGAN IDOL WORSHIP because they possess "supernatural" powers. By 43 "supernatural", we mean that which is superior to the "natural", which is ordinary human beings.
- 44 8. Claim and protect their own sovereign immunity, but refuse to recognize the same EQUAL immunity of the 45 people from whom that power was delegated to begin with. Hypocrites.
- 46 9. Abuse sovereign immunity to exclude either the government or anyone working in the government from being 47 subject to the laws they pass to regulate everyone ELSE'S behavior. In other words, they can choose WHEN they
48 want to be a statutory "person" who is subject, and when they aren't. Anyone who has this kind of choice will

1 ALWAYS corruptly exclude themselves and include everyone else, and thereby enforce and implement an
2 unconstitutional "Title of Nobility" towards themselves. On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court has held the
3 following:

4 "No man in this country [including legislators of the government as a legal person] is
5 so high that he is above the law. No officer of the law may set that law at defiance
6 with impunity. All the officers of the government, from the highest to the lowest, are
7 creatures of the law and are bound to obey it. It is the only supreme power in our system
8 of government, and every man who by accepting office participates in its functions is only 9 the more strongly bound to submit to that supremacy, and to observe the limitations which 10 it imposes upon the exercise of the authority which it gives," 106 U.S., at 220. "Shall it be 11 said... that the courts cannot give remedy when the Citizen has been deprived of his 12 property by force, his estate seized and converted to the use of the government without 13 any lawful authority, without any process of law, and without any compensation,
14 *because the president has ordered it and his officers are in possession? If such be the law
15 of this country, it sanctions a tyranny which has no existence in the monarchies of 16 Europe, nor in any other government which has a just claim to well-regulated liberty
17 and the protection of personal rights." 106 U.S., at 220, 221.
18 [United States v. Lee, 106 U.S. 196, 1 S.Ct. 240 (1882)]

19 10. Have a monopoly on anything, INCLUDING "protection", and who turn that monopoly into a mechanism to 20 force EVERYONE illegally to be treated as uncompensated public officers in exchange for the "privilege" of 21 being able to even exist or earn a living to support oneself.

22 11. Can tax and spend any amount or percentage of the people's earnings over the OBJECTIONS of the people.

23 12. Can print, meaning illegally counterfeit, as much money as they want to fund their criminal enterprise, and 24 thus to be completely free from accountability to the people.

25 13. Deceive and/or lie to the public with impunity by telling you that you can't trust anything they say, but force
26 YOU to sign everything under penalty of perjury when you want to talk to them. 26 U.S.C. §6065.

27 In support of the above definition of "anarchy", here is how the U.S. Supreme Court defined it:

28 "Decency, security, and liberty alike demand that government officials shall be subjected 29 to the same rules of conduct that are commands to the citizen. In a government of laws,
30 existence of the government will be imperiled if it fails to observe the law scrupulously.
31 Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches
32 the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a 33 lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto 34 himself; it invites anarchy. To declare that in the administration of the criminal law the 35 end justifies the means-to declare that the government may commit crimes in order to 36 secure the conviction of a private criminal-would bring terrible retribution. Against that 37 pernicious doctrine this court should resolutely set its face."
38 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438 (1928)]

39 The above requirements are a consequence of the fact that the foundation of the United States Constitution is 40 EQUAL protection and EQUAL treatment [<https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/EqualProtection.pdf>]. Any 41 attempt to undermine equal rights and equal protection described above constitutes:

42 1. The establishment of a state sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment and the Religious Freedom
43 Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B. That religion is described in: Socialism: The New American Civil
44 Religion, Form #05.016 [<https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SocialismCivilReligion.pdf>]. The object of 45 worship of such a religion is imputing "supernatural powers" to civil rulers and forcing everyone to worship and 46 serve said rulers as "superior beings".

47 2. The establishment of an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the 48 United States Constitution.

- 36 3. Deceive the public about what the law requires.
- 37 4. Usurp jurisdiction in a legislatively foreign state.
- 38 5. Kidnap the legal identity of otherwise private Americans and recruit them to the service of the state without 39 compensation as compelled public officers.

8 [kinds of evil against you falsely for My \[God's\] sake.](#)"
9 [Matt. 5:11, Bible, NKVJ]

10 This ministry has been a constant target of false allegations and propaganda since we began in 2003. The following resources 11 on our site document these arguments and rebut them:

- 12 1. Forms/Pubs Page, section 1.8: Policy Documents, SEDM

18 <https://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU-Sect9.htm>

19 This article will summarize the SIX main ways that people try to attack us or our research. Here are the ways, in descending 20 order of frequency:

- 21 1. They will say THE WHOLE THING is frivolous and not provide evidence proving any aspect of the accusation. That 22 is a violation of due process because it doesn't rebut the evidence behind the argument. It's the equivalent of saying
23 "You're a heretic because you won't join our statist religion. I'm not going to talk with you." Judges like to do this.
24 We cover this in:

Responding to "Frivolous" Penalties or Accusations, Form #05.027
<https://sedm.org/product/meaning-of-the-word-frivolous-form-05-027/>

- 25 2. If they aren't a judge or legal professional, they will avoid a direct or factual argument entirely by calling us names
26 without evidence. Neanderthal Democrats like to do this. This approach completely violates due process and abuses
27 emotions and presumptions to change public opinion without actually informing the audience they are speaking to 28 about anything. This is the LAZIEST approach.
- 29 3. If they are legally more knowledgeable and have more resources or discipline on their side, they will pick the 30 WEAKEST argument in a specific document and attack only that. A weak argument is one that can be exploited to 31 LOOK wrong by using UNDEFINED terms or terms used out of the context we use them to create a GENERAL
32 impression without any real or specific evidence. This is what we call equivocation and sophistry.

¹ Source: The Six Ways that People Falsely Argue Against Us or Our Research, SEDM, <https://sedm.org/the-four-ways-that-people-falsely-argue-against-us-or-our-research/>.

- 1 4. If they can't find even one weak argument that they can abuse equivocation and sophistry to exploit, they will say we 2 are "crazy" without actually even proving that.
- 3 5. If our audience believes we aren't crazy and the government party who has to argue against us has to say
4 SOMETHING to the audience in response to our evidence, they will punt and say things like: "This is all gibberish and
5 I don't understand it. It incomprehensible". They use this tactic because they work for the government and can't take
6 the fifth amendment, but HAVE to say SOMETHING, so they punt and say they don't understand. If they are a judge,
7 the judicial version of this is simply: "I'm unconvinced by your arguments". They won't even address the evidence you
8 have presented because it is irrefutable, would take too much work, and if they even begin to address the argument as a
9 Third Rail issue, it would ultimately be professional suicide and a major reduction in customers and revenue for their 10 massive Ponzi scheme. The way to deal with this tactic is to:
- 11 5.1. Present a series of admissions that lead them to agree with you.
- 12 5.2. When you get to the end of the questions, say they DO agree with you because there is no other conclusion one 13 can reach.
- 14 We use the above approach in most of our documents, by the way, by putting a series of questions at the end for those 15 who doubt to answer so that by the time they get to the end of the questions, they are out of ammunition, cannot say 16 they don't understand because they understand each fact, and therefore they essentially agree.
- 17 6. The method of VERY LAST resort, and the one we NEVER see from ANY government is to address EVERY single 18 argument in one of our documents or article and attempt to destroy it one statement at a time. This, by the way, is how 19 we attack almost EVERYTHING, and the government has NEVER matched our level of effort in this area that we 20 almost exclusively use against ALL their documents and publications.

21 The closest we have seen the government come to the last and most difficult level of effort above is the IRS Frivolous Tax
22 Arguments, but even that is untrustworthy, because the author is not identified and because their own website and Internal 23 Revenue Manual say that EVERYTHING they publish is UNTRUSTWORTHY. So you can't even trust this. They also 24 refuse to define the context of the words in their document between STATUTORY or CONSTITUTIONAL, so even in this 25 document, they abuse equivocation to deceive. You can read this document at:

45 3 Brief introduction and history of the sovereignty movement

46 Have you heard the term "Sovereign Citizen" recently? Chances are if you are watching a network TV news channel or 47 reading a network-owned newspaper or website then you have started to see this term used more and more when describing 48 extreme cases of selfishness, abuse of law and justice, and just plain stupidity.

1 Whereas three or even five years ago, the term Sovereign Citizen was nowhere to be found and similar examples of selfish,
2 stupid, and abusive behavior was painted as the acts of various alleged “freemen” or “patriots” or “anti-government militia”.
3 So how come network-controlled media has started to use the label Sovereign Citizen when painting these kinds of extreme 4 acts?

5 Well, before we answer why this might be happening, let me ask you a second set of quick questions beginning with the
6 question of whether you believe any one group of society should be above the law and immune from prosecution even if they
7 completely disregard their sworn duties and obligations? I hope you said “No” as any case where one group is given such
8 special privileges to be above the law and unaccountable is when the Rule of Law and the Golden Rule that “all are equal”
9 ceases to exist.

10 What about justice? Do you believe that people should be legally and financially bound to debt as slaves from the time of 11 their birth? And do you believe all your rights should be taken away from you even if you behave as a good and contributing 12 member of your society and never seek to injure or harm others? Again, I hope you said “no” to these questions as any system
13 of complete slavery, disregard for rights, or prejudice is a system without any legitimacy whatsoever.

14 Finally, what about due process? Do you believe people should be considered guilty before even the accusations against them
15 are decided? Or that people can be charged and never shown an originating accusation or the form of law by which such 16 charges were derived? Or do you believe that people who determine the innocence or guilt of people be allowed to change
17 processes, or forms at will to ensure there is absolutely no relief other than those who have extreme wealth or connections to 18 power? I hope once again you said “no” to these questions for such abuse of due process means no court can be regarded as 19 a legitimate forum of law, nor those who sit in judgment be regarded as valid judges or magistrates.

20 3.1 The concept of “Sovereign Citizen” explained by the men who invented the idea

21 Why are these questions relevant when we speak of the Sovereign Citizen Phenomena? Well, let me answer this specific
22 question with the words of some men that invented the very concept of “Sovereign Citizen” and the importance of recognizing 23 all Americans as equal and sovereign. Please bear with me, I will only read the first two paragraphs of what they wrote on 24 the subject and what they meant:

25 When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which
26 have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station
27 to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires 28 that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

29 We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
30 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
31 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
32 --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter
33 or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its 34 powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed,
35 will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and 36 accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than 37 to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and
38 usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it
39 is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.
40 [Declaration of Independence, 1776]

41 3.2 The relevance of the words of the founders of the concept of sovereign citizen

42 Now, these men went further in their documents to make sure that absolutely no official, agent, independent contractor, or 43 media commentator could be so stupid or idiotic or malicious or untruthful as to disregard their intentions and get away with 44 it in the long run.

45 This is why when they wrote into Article I Section 9 of the United States Constitution these following words:

46 No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust
47 under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any
48 kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.
49 [United States Constitution, Article 1, Section 9]

1 Why did they write these words? Because all men and women are equal before the law and there was to be no such thing in
2 the United States as first-class or second class citizens. In other words, all Americans are Sovereign. In other words from the
3 very foundation of the United States the inventors and founders of the concept of personal sovereignty ensured that all
4 Americans are Sovereign.

5 A further issue to point out is that these men were very clear in making certain no one could abuse their intention to restore
6 the Rule of Law, Justice, and Due Process. They did this by prolific writing and mountains of documents from the Federalist
7 Papers, Letters, Judgments, Statutes, and all kinds of insights.

8 Some might have said that all this paper was overkill but these men, these founders of the concept of sovereignty, these
9 founders of the United States of America, these founders of a higher form of republicanism who sought to be a light for the 10 world would disagree with anyone who thought the defense of the Sovereign rights of all citizens was a waste of time or was 11 an act of terrorism or was an illegal act – especially if such an idiot was presently employed who made such claims by a
12 corporate agency pretending to honor the United States Constitution.

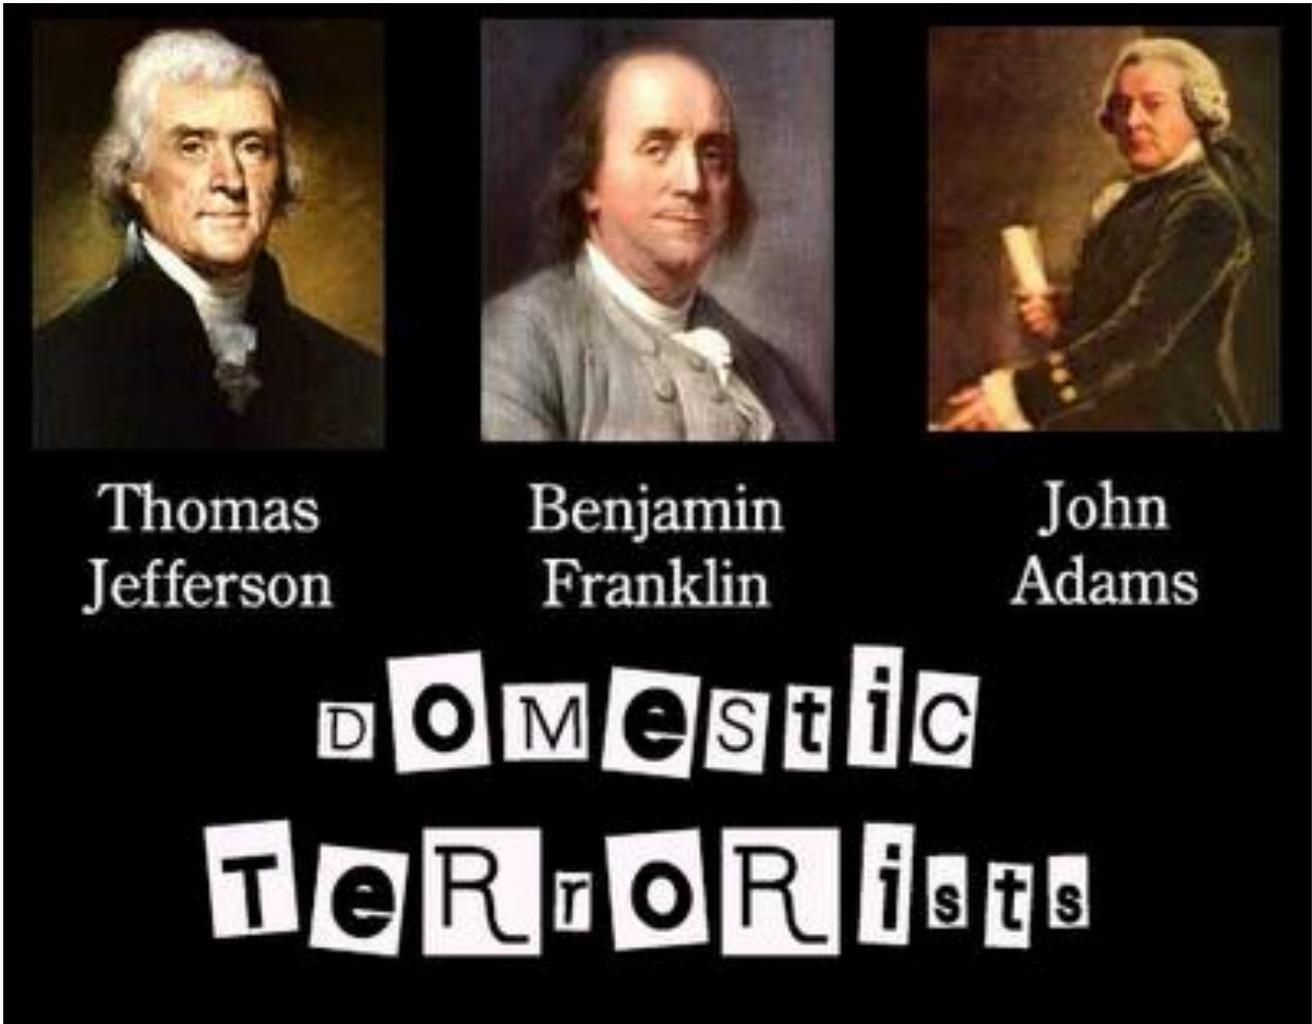

13 There is no time, there is no case where compromise to evil in law, where granting immunity and destroying the golden rule
14 that “all are equal under the law” is a positive and necessary step. Anyone and everyone who has ever argued for the 15 diminishing of rights of all men and women has been and is a liar, a thief, an imposter, and a pirate.

16 The founders of the concept of personal sovereignty more than two hundred and thirty years ago knew this. That is why they 17 tried to write documents that would overcome the corruption, the lies, and the manipulations of men without conscience and 18 mentally ill with mind virus.

19 3.3 What a Sovereignty Advocate is NOT

20 Having explained what the founders of the concept of personal sovereignty meant when they invented the idea more than two 21 hundred and thirty years ago, let us briefly outline what a Sovereignty Advocate is not.

- 22 1. By the very definition of the term, as it was intended by the founders of the United States of America, a Sovereignty
23 Advocate cannot be someone who has a flagrant disregard for the true Rule of Law under the Golden Rule, or of 24 Justice or of Due Process.
- 25 2. A Sovereignty Advocate is not one who is severely drug-addicted, seeks to fleece people out of money, steal their 26 homes, lock them out of their homes, or demands something for nothing.
- 27 3. A Sovereignty Advocate is not someone who is abusive or violent to positions of assumed authority, even in the face of 28 tyranny. The greatest weapon of the Sovereignty Advocate against evil is passive and lawful resistance – knowing that 29 even the worst system of tyranny cannot survive without consent
- 30 4. As it is, most of the people falsely labeled by the slanderous media as Sovereign Citizens are not in any way shape, or 31 form comparable to the intentions and founders of the United States of America as the exemplars of what it means to 32 be a Sovereignty Advocate. In fact, if George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and the other Founding Fathers were 33 alive today, we suspect they would have been labeled as terrorists and imprisoned in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

2 A corrupted government just loves to engage in HATE CRIMES against those who insist on an accountable, law-abiding
3 government that has no more rights than the people it serves and is EQUAL in the eyes of the law in relation to them. They
4 do this by using vague and convenient labels and imposing nebulous stereotypes on their opponents to avoid and evade
5 addressing any of the facts supporting their arguments on the record of legal proceedings. Hence, this section lists all of the
6 stereotypes, beliefs, and ideologies which we ARE NOT associated with in order to ensure that the focus stays on the facts
7 underlying our arguments rather than meaningless labels and the FALSE and FRAUDULENT and PRESUMPTIOUS beliefs
8 and prejudice that comprise them:

- 9 1. We DO NOT believe in any of the following:
- 10 1.1. That we are SUPERIOR in any way to any other human being or INFERIOR in relation to any government in any
11 civil suit. Instead, we claim ALL the same rights as any government. Our government is a government of
12 delegated powers, and the people cannot delegate any authority to any government or public servant that they
13 themselves do not individually ALSO possess as a RIGHT and not a privilege. Since the government claims
14 sovereign immunity, then we also claim it and insist that any government that wants to take us to court to enforce
15 any civil obligation has the burden of showing that we CONSENTED to give it to them IN WRITING. This is
16 the same requirement they insist on with anyone who wants to civilly sue them: One must produce an express
17 statutory waiver of sovereign immunity before they can be sued.
- 18 1.2. That the color of the fringe on a flag has anything to do with the nature of the courtroom that is flying it.
- 19 1.3. That ZIP codes or mailing addresses have anything to do with one's legal domicile or residence. When we write
20 an address:
- 21 1.3.1. At the end of the address, we register with any third party we write “(not a domicile or residence)”.
- 22 1.3.2. In the Zip code, we write “Near but not in [NNNNN]”, where “NNNNN” is the zip code.
- 23 1.4. That there is a secret Treasury direct bank account created using your birth certificate.

- 1.5. That just because the government runs a gigantic counterfeiting franchise called the Federal Reserve, that it is lawful or acceptable for citizens to emulate their CRIMINAL and HYPOCRITICAL behavior by:
 - 1.5.1. Using promissory notes to counterfeit money.
 - 1.5.2. Defrauding creditors.
 - 1.5.3. Canceling validly contracted debts.
2. We are NOT affiliated with any of the following extremist groups:
 - 2.1. Tax protesters.
 - 2.2. Tax deniers.
 - 2.3. Tax defiers.
 - 2.4. Statutory "taxpayers" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
 - 2.5. "Persons" under any act of Congress. Nonresidents CANNOT be "persons".
 - 2.6. Tea party movement.
 - 2.7. Anti-semites.
 - 2.8. Christian identity.
 - 2.9. Communists.
 - 2.10. Democratic party.
 - 2.11. Militia.
 - 2.12. Montana Freemen.
 - 2.13. Nazis.
 - 2.14. Patriots.
 - 2.15. Skinheads.
 - 2.16. Socialist party.
 - 2.17. Sovereigns
 - 2.18. Sovereign Citizens.
 - 2.19. Super-patriots.
 - 2.20. White supremists.
 - 2.21. Republicans.
 - 2.22. Super Constitutionalists.
3. We are NOT affiliated with any of the following extremist ideologies or movements:
 - 3.1. Common law court movement
 - 3.2. Anti-government
 - 3.3. Racism
 - 3.4. Liberalism

As a matter of fact, we discourage "labels" or "stereotypes" of any kind because we think the main motivation for using them is ARROGANCE, DISCRIMINATION, PREJUDICE, and HATE. God commands us to love our neighbor, not hate him (Lev. 19:18).

If you simply can't resist using some kind of derogatory label to describe us like "frivolous", "stupid", "idiot" or "extremist", then quite frankly:

1. You ought to be prosecuted for hate crime and/or terrorism.
2. You are a mentally ill person who needs Jesus, psychological therapy, and a big attitude adjustment. Bigotry, supremacy, and inferiority complex are the characteristics of people who must compulsively use labels such as these.

Labels also provide a convenient way to be INTELLECTUALLY LAZY because once you label someone, you relieve yourself from the responsibility to be intellectually honest enough to investigate and rebut their arguments and rationally show them why they are mistaken.

The courts have a name for such bigoted people, and they are called slanderers, terrorists, hate crime perpetrators, stalkers, and verbal abusers who propagate verbal violence upon their victims, and these people are sentenced to anger management courses and jail time routinely. Such bigoted people are children of Satan, who is the king of slanderers. See section 2.8.1 of our Great IRS Hoax for further details on the characteristics of such evil and Satanic people.

Consistent with the above, our Member Agreement says the following on this subject of what we are NOT:

1.2 Purpose of joining

1 What follows are my main reasons for involving the ministry:

- 2 1. Mature and strengthen my religious faith.
3 2. To learn how to research, explain, and enforce the law, and thereby to become a better member of whatever society I am 4 physically situated within.

5 "One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an
6 abomination."
7 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

8 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and
9 night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make
10 your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong
11 and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you 12 wherever you go."
13 [Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV,
14 IMPLICATION: If you aren't reading and trying to obey God's law daily, then you're not doing
15 God's will and you will not prosper]

16 "But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed."
17 [John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

18 "Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your [God's] statutes."
19 [Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

20 "Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract or enters into a [franchise, 21 which is also a contract] with an officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is 22 knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law."
23 [Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

- 24 3. To enhance my relationship to the Creator by learning and obeying His Holy Laws and bringing myself into complete
25 submission exclusively to His will in every area of my life.
26 4. To seek education and help in disconnecting completely from all government "benefits", privileges, franchises, contracts,
27 licenses, and identifying numbers in order that I can avoid violating the commandments found in Matt. 6:24 and Luke 16:13
28 not to serve two masters: God and mammon, meaning government. This will ensure that I serve ONLY one sovereign, who is 29 God. For details, see:
30 Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
31 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
32 5. To help me get educated about my God-given rights and how to defend them. The main reason I have to take personal
33 responsibility for defending my rights in this way is because government has refused its duty under the Constitution to do so.
34 Therefore, the Master must do what the servant is maliciously unwilling to do. Below are what a few prominent authorities
35 say about the virtues of education, and the Constitutionally protected Free Assembly which it is based upon:

36 "Only the educated are free."
37 [Epicetus, Discourses]

38 "A popular government without popular information about [GOVERNMENT CORRUPTION] or the 39 means of acquiring it, is but a Prologue to Farce, or a Tragedy, or perhaps both. Knowledge will 40 forever govern ignorance. and a people who mean to be their own Governors, must arm themselves 41 with the power which knowledge gives."
42 [James Madison; Letter from James Madison to W.T. Barry (Aug. 4, 1822), in 9 THE WRITINGS
43 OF JAMES MADISON 103 (Gaillard Hunt ed., 1910)]

44 "...the greatest menace to freedom is an inert [passive, ignorant, and uneducated] people [who 45 refuse, as jurists and voters and active citizens, to expose and punish evil in our government]"
46 [Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

47 "The American people have always regarded education and acquisition of knowledge as matters of 48 supreme importance which should be diligently promoted in order to maintain and protect their 49 [liberty]. The Ordinance of 1787 declares: "Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to 50 good government and the happiness [and liberty] of mankind, schools and the means of education
51 shall forever be encouraged."
52 [Meyer v. State of Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923)]

53 "And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws of both [God and man], and shalt shew them the 54 way wherein they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do."
55 [Exodus 18:20, Bible, NKJV]

1 "My [God's] people are destroyed [and enslaved] for lack of knowledge [and the lack of education
2 that produces it]."
3 [Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

4 I certify that my motivations and reasons for joining the ministry are spiritual, moral, and legal. I further certify
5 that my reasons for joining do NOT include any of the following:

- 6 1. I am not pursuing membership for financial, political, or commercial reasons. I do not seek prosperity in
7 joining this ministry. Jesus did not have commercial motivations and neither do I. Jesus said in Matt. 6:21
8 and Luke 12:34 that where a man's treasure is, there his heart will be also, and my treasure isn't on this
9 Earth and isn't found in any government "benefit" or commercial franchise.

10 "Where do wars and fights [in the ballot box and the jury box] come from among you? Do they not
11 come from your desires for pleasure [unearned money or "benefits" from the government] that
12 war in your members [and your democratic SOCIALIST governments]? You lust [after other
13 people's money] and do not have. You murder [the unborn to increase your standard of living] and
14 covet [the unearned] and cannot obtain [except by empowering your de facto THIEF government to
15 STEAL for you!]. You fight and war against the rich and [the nontaxpayers to subsidize your idleness
16 and dependency with a STOLEN Social Security retirement check]. Yet you do not have because you
17 do not ask the Lord, but instead ask [the corrupt and deceitful government]. You ask and do not
18 receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures ["benefits"]. Adulterers and
19 adulteresses [harlots, Rev. 17]! Do you not know that friendship [or STATUTORY citizenship]
20 with the world [for the governments of the world] is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to 21 be a friend [a STATUTORY "citizen", "resident", or "taxpayer"] of the world [or the governments
22 of the world] makes himself an enemy of God."
23 [James 4:1-4, Bible, NKJV]

24 "Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that go down to
25 the very foundation of the government. If the provisions of the constitution can be set aside by an
26 act of congress, where is the course of usurpation [abuse of taxation power for THEFT and wealth
27 transfer] to end? The present assault [WAR!] upon capital [PRIVATE property] is but the 28 beginning. It will be but the stepping-stone to others, larger and more sweeping, till our political 29 contests [in the jury box and the ballot box between the HAVES and the HAVE NOTS] will become
30 a war of the poor against the rich,-a war constantly growing in intensity and bitterness. 'If the 31 court sanctions the power of discriminating [UNEQUAL or GRADUATED] taxation, and nullifies
32 the uniformity mandate of the constitution,' as said by one who has been all his life a student of 33 our institutions, 'it will mark the hour when the sure decadence of our present government will 34 commence.'"
35 [Pollock v. Farmers Loan and Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429 (1895)]

- 36 2. I do not seek sovereignty for any of the following reasons:
37 2.1. As a get out of jail free card. We don't promote or condone sovereignty as an excuse to be free from 38 the criminal laws, for instance. EVERYONE is subject to real, de jure criminal laws and SHOULD 39 be subject.
40 2.2. As an excuse to be irresponsible for any loans or commitments I previously made. Some people for 41 instance are only interested in sovereignty so they can cancel debts or obligations they previously
42 made. We, on the other hand, believe that one should always honor every commitment or debt they 43 previously consented to, even if their consent at the time was not fully informed.
44 2.3. As an excuse to engage in violent, harmful, or criminal behavior. We believe that everyone should 45 be accountable and responsible for the harms they cause to others under the concept of equality of 46 all. In a civil context, that accountability is the common law and NOT the civil statutory law.
47 2.4. As an excuse to reject ALL man-made law and thereby be an anarchist. We think that true 48 sovereignty can only truly exist among a people who:
49 2.4.1. Are accountable under God's laws at all times.
50 2.4.2. Do not pick or choose which subset of God's laws they CONSENT to be accountable under.
51 Its ALL (lawful) or NOTHING (anarchy).
52 2.4.3. Are accountable under the criminal laws of the country they are physically present within,
53 regardless of their civil status or domicile.
54 2.4.4. Do not surrender their sovereignty by consenting to be civil statutory persons or choosing a
55 civil domicile within the statutory jurisdiction of any government.
56 2.5. As a justification to call myself a "sovereign citizen" or ANY OTHER name, label, or stereotype the
57 government might use to persecute whistleblowers that insist on an accountable, law abiding
58 government. We are simply crime fighters who seek to enforce the sovereignty delegated to us by the 59 only true sovereign, which is God.
60 2.6. As a justification to enforce superior rights or importance to myself or inferior rights to anyone else
61 under any law. ALL are equal under REAL law. That which creates or enforces an unequal or 62 inferior status in the eyes of the government is and must at all times be a voluntary franchise that I 63 seek to avoid.

64 [. . .]

1 My motives are not commercial, but ANTI-commercial. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as
2 intercourse, and God's delegation of authority order and law forbids me to interact as anything OTHER than a
3 Merchant and never a Buyer (under the Uniform Commercial Code) with any government, ruler, king, or 4 potentate. Click here (<https://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/HowScCorruptOurRepubGovt.htm>) for 5 details.

6 "And I heard another voice from heaven [God] saying, 'Come out of her [Babylon the Great Harlot,
7 a democratic, rather than republican, state full of socialist non-believers], my people [Christians],
8 lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues."
9 [Revelation 18:4, Bible, NKJV]

10 "By the abundance of your [Satan's] trading [commerce] You became filled with violence within,
11 And you [Satan] sinned; Therefore I [God] cast you [Satan] as a profane thing Out of the 12 mountain of God; And I destroyed you. O covering cherub, From the midst of the fiery stones. "
13 [Ezekial 28:16, Bible, NKJV]

14 Since the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Tim. 6:9-10), then the only thing that commercial motivations can
15 do is bring evil into the ministry and I am joining the ministry to AVOID and prevent evil, not to seek evil.

16 "For the love of money [and even government "benefits", which are payments] is the root of all
17 evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through 18 with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness,
19 godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life,
20 whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."
21 [1 Timothy 6:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

22 "Getting treasures by a lying tongue is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death."
23 [Prov. 21:6, Bible, NKJV]

26 3.4 Why then are the media networks using the term "Sovereign Citizen"?

27 Why then does the media keep taking extreme cases of people who clearly are in contradiction to the very meaning of the 28 words Sovereign Citizen and the actions required of a Sovereign Citizen and then falsely mislabel people as such? One
29 reason is because they were told and probably even SUBSIDIZED by the government to do that.

30 But another reason is because the people who told them or paid them to use the term are hoping that if enough extreme cases
31 are painted as Sovereign Citizens and if enough out of context quotes are aired, then the public will form the impression that
32 people who read history, statutes, and laws are "whackos" and people who ask questions about lack of due process and 33 accountability of government and law are conspiracist "nut jobs" and anyone who talks about the absence of any real Rule of 34 Law or Justice is seen as anti-government, anti-social terrorists.

35 It is a pretty audacious and arrogant strategy based really on the hope that the plan to continue to dumb down the schools will
36 also lead people to stop thinking and reading- like reading the Declaration of Independence, or reading the United States
37 Constitution or the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights or completely ignore the latest Apostolic Exhortation
38 known as Evangelii Gaudium by Pope Francis.

39 In fact, the reaction by Nihilism Central being Georgetown University and the insane rebel Jesuits of the United States and 40 Washington has been to sever ties with the Vatican and move its embassy outside the walls, than be accountable for the 41 restoration of the Rule of Law, or Justice or Due Process.

42 At the same time, banks in the United States and elsewhere in the world have responded to the call for more accountability
43 and honesty by pushing harder than ever to be more corrupt with the Bank of America even promoting the securitization of 44 trustees, that offices of trustees can be purchased and sold – in arguably one of the most blatant attacks against The Bible and 45 the Rule of Law and Law itself since the beginning of civilization.

46 3.5 So what do we do midst such madness?

47 So what do we do midst such madness, such arrogant ignorance, and such disregard for any decency? We do what all men
48 and women who love absolute equality of all and the law and who trust in a higher power have done throughout time. We

1 stand our ground and peacefully resist by promoting the withdrawal of consent, by reminding people of what the words In
2 God we Trust means and the concept of the Golden Rule and Rule of Law.

3 We prove that we are lawful and respectful members of society and that we respect the proper Rule of Law and Justice and
4 Due Process and reject the falsities of pirates and liars and moneylenders who seek to continually destroy and attack our 5 communities.

6 Above all this, we stop believing the propaganda of the network cable, television, and internet news sites and encourage
7 people to stop watching and to stop reading such absolute garbage. And, most importantly, we work together. We work
8 together in forming communities. We work together in forming and honoring our rights. We stop being isolated and islands.

9 4 Background on Sovereignty

10 The following subsections will provide details about sovereignty and those who advocate it.

11 4.1 Definition of “sovereign”

12 For the purpose of Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM), we define “sovereign” as follows:

13 SEDM Disclaimer

14 4. MEANING OF WORDS

15 4.20. Sovereign

16 The word "sovereign" when referring to humans or governments means all the following:

- 17 1. A human being and NOT a "government". Only human beings are "sovereign" and only when they 18 are acting in strict obedience to the laws of their religion. All powers of government are delegated 19 from the PEOPLE and are NOT "divine rights". Those powers in turn are only operative when 20 government PREVENTS the conversion of PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights. When that goal is 21 avoided or undermined or when law is used to accomplish involuntary conversion, we cease to have
22 a government and instead end up with a private, de facto for profit corporation that has no sovereign
23 immunity and cannot abuse sovereign immunity to protect its criminal thefts from the people.
- 24 2. EQUAL in every respect to any and every government or actor in government. All governments are 25 legal "persons" and under our Constitutional system, ALL "persons" are equal and can only become 26 UNEQUAL in relation to each other WITH their EXPRESS and NOT IMPLIED consent. Since our 27 Constitutional rights are unalienable per the Declaration of Independence, then we can't become 28 unequal in relation to any government, INCLUDING through our consent.
- 29 3. Not superior in any way to any human being within the jurisdiction of the courts of any country.
- 30 4. Possessing the EQUAL right to acquire rights over others by the same mechanisms as the government
31 uses. For instance, if the government encourages the filing of FALSE information returns that 32 essentially "elect" people into public office without their consent, then we have an EQUAL right to 33 elect any and every government or officer within government into our PERSONAL service as our 34 PERSONAL officer without THEIR consent. See:
35 Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001.
- 36 5. Subject to the criminal laws of the jurisdiction they are physically situated in, just like everyone else.
37 This provision excludes "quasi criminal provisions" within civil franchises, such as tax crimes.
- 38 6. The origin of all authority delegated to the government per the Declaration of Independence.
- 39 7. Reserving all rights and delegating NONE to any and every government or government actor. U.C.C.
40 §1-308 and its predecessor, U.C.C. §1-207.
- 41 8. Not consenting to any and every civil franchise offered by any government.
- 42 9. Possessing the same sovereign immunity as any government. Hence, like the government, any 43 government actor asserting a liability or obligation has the burden of proving on the record of any 44 court proceeding EXPRESS WRITTEN consent to be sued before the obligation becomes enforceable.
- 45 10. Claiming no civil or franchise status under any statutory franchise, including but not limited to 46 "citizen", "resident", "driver" (under the vehicle code), "spouse" (under the family code), "taxpayer"
47 (under the tax code). Any attempt to associate a statutory status and the public rights it represents 48 against a non-consenting party is THEFT and SLAVERY and INJUSTICE.
- 49 11. Acting as a fiduciary, agent, and trustee on behalf of God 24 hours a day, seven days a week as an
50 ambassador of a legislatively foreign jurisdiction and as a public officer of "Heaven, Inc.", a private 51 foreign corporation. God is the ONLY "sovereign" and the source of all sovereignty. We must be
52 acting as His agent and fiduciary before we can exercise any sovereignty at all. Any attempt by so-
53 called "government" to interfere with our ability to act as His fiduciaries is a direct interference with 54 our right to contract and the free exercise of religion. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007

12. Capable of being civilly sued ONLY under the common law and equity and not under any statutory civil law. All statutory civil laws are law for government and public officers, and NOT for private human beings. They are civil franchises that only acquire the "force of law" with the consent of the subject. See:
Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
13. Protected from the civil statutory law by the First Amendment requirement for separation of church and state because we Christians are the church and our physical body is the "temple" of the church. See: 1 Cor. 6:19.
14. Responsible for all the injuries they cause to every other person under equity and common law ONLY, and not under civil statutory law.

The term "anarchy" implies any one or more of the following, and especially as regards so-called "governments". An important goal of this site is to eliminate all such "anarchy":

1. Are superior in any way to the people they govern UNDER THE LAW.
2. Are not directly accountable to the people or the law. They prohibit the PEOPLE from criminally prosecuting their own crimes, reserving the right to prosecute to their own fellow criminals. Who polices the police? THE CRIMINALS.
3. Enact laws that exempt themselves. This is a violation of the Constitutional requirement for equal protection and equal treatment and constitutes an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the United States Constitution.
4. Only enforce the law against others and NOT themselves, as a way to protect their own criminal activities by persecuting dissidents. This is called "selective enforcement". In the legal field it is also called "professional courtesy". Never kill the goose that lays the STOLEN golden eggs.
5. Break the laws with impunity. This happens most frequently when corrupt people in government engage in "selective enforcement", whereby they refuse to prosecute or interfere with the prosecution of anyone in government. The Department of Justice (D.O.J.) or the District Attorney are the most frequent perpetrators of this type of crime.
6. Are able to choose which laws they want to be subject to, and thus refuse to enforce laws against themselves. The most frequent method for this type of abuse is to assert sovereign, official, or judicial immunity as a defense in order to protect the wrongdoers in government when they are acting outside their delegated authority, or outside what the definitions in the statutes EXPRESSLY allow.
7. Impute to themselves more rights or methods of acquiring rights than the people themselves have. In other words, who are the object of PAGAN IDOL WORSHIP because they possess "supernatural" powers. By "supernatural", we mean that which is superior to the "natural", which is ordinary human beings.
8. Claim and protect their own sovereign immunity, but refuse to recognize the same EQUAL immunity of the people from whom that power was delegated to begin with. Hypocrites.
9. Abuse sovereign immunity to exclude either the government or anyone working in the government from being subject to the laws they pass to regulate everyone ELSE'S behavior. In other words, they can choose WHEN they want to be a statutory "person" who is subject, and when they aren't. Anyone who has this kind of choice will ALWAYS corruptly exclude themselves and include everyone else, and thereby enforce and implement an unconstitutional "Title of Nobility" towards themselves. On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court has held the following:

"No man in this country [including legislators of the government as a legal person] is so high that he is above the law. No officer of the law may set that law at defiance with impunity. All the officers of the government, from the highest to the lowest, are creatures of the law and are bound to obey it. It is the only supreme power in our system of government, and every man who by accepting office participates in its functions is only the more strongly bound to submit to that supremacy, and to observe the limitations which it imposes upon the exercise of the authority which it gives," 106 U.S., at 220. "Shall it be said... that the courts cannot give remedy when the Citizen has been deprived of his property by force, his estate seized and converted to the use of the government without any lawful authority, without any process of law, and without any compensation, because the president has ordered it and his officers are in possession? If such be the law of this country, it sanctions a tyranny which has no existence in the monarchies of Europe, nor in any other government which has a just claim to well-regulated liberty and the protection of personal rights," 106 U.S., at 220, 221. [United States v. Lee, 106 U.S. 196, 1 S.Ct. 240 (1882)]

10. Have a monopoly on anything, INCLUDING "protection", and who turn that monopoly into a mechanism to force EVERYONE illegally to be treated as uncompensated public officers in exchange for the "privilege" of being able to even exist or earn a living to support oneself.
11. Can tax and spend any amount or percentage of the people's earnings over the OBJECTIONS of the people.
12. Can print, meaning illegally counterfeit, as much money as they want to fund their criminal enterprise, and thus to be completely free from accountability to the people.

- 1 13. Deceive and/or lie to the public with impunity by telling you that you can't trust anything they say, but
2 force YOU to sign everything under penalty of perjury when you want to talk to them. 26 U.S.C. §6065.

3 In support of the above definition of "anarchy", here is how the U.S. Supreme Court defined it:

4 “Decency, security, and liberty alike demand that government officials shall 5 be subjected to the same rules of conduct that are commands to the citizen. In 6 a government of laws, existence of the government will be imperiled if it fails to 7 observe the law scrupulously. Our government is the potent, the omnipresent
8 teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime
9 is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt
10 for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy.
11 To declare that in the administration of the criminal law the end justifies the 12 means-to declare that the government may commit crimes in order to secure
13 the conviction of a private criminal-would bring terrible retribution. Against 14 that pernicious doctrine this court should resolutely set its face.”
15 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438 (1928)]

16 The above requirements are a consequence of the fact that the foundation of the United States Constitution is
17 EQUAL protection and EQUAL treatment. Any attempt to undermine equal rights and equal protection described 18 above constitutes:

- 19 1. The establishment of a state sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment and the Religious 20 Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B. That religion is described in: Socialism: The New
21 American Civil Religion, Form #05.016. The object of worship of such a religion is imputing 22 "supernatural powers" to civil rulers and forcing everyone to worship and serve said rulers as 23 "superior beings".
24 2. The establishment of an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article I, Section 9, Clause 8
25 of the United States Constitution.

27 4.2 Educational Materials for Law Enforcement about Sovereignty Advocates

28 The most frequent audience for false government propaganda about Sovereignty Advocates are law enforcement personnel
29 and police. Such propaganda is produced by covetous politicians intent on unconstitutionally and illegally expanding and 30 defending their socialist plunder programs. We have prepared special training materials directed at this specific audience in 31 order to discredit such false propaganda, which we encourage law enforcement personnel to view and read at the links below:

43 4.3 Approach of sovereignty advocates toward “government”

44 Both the Supreme Court in Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of Warren Bridge, 36 U.S. 420 (1837) and the 45 U.S. Code in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A) admit that all governments are “corporations” and therefore for-profit businesses. We 46 believe that government should therefore be run like any other capitalist business and that they should strictly obey their
47 corporate charter, the United States Constitution. All the patriot rhetoric you read on the internet about freedom, sovereignty,
48 and taxation really boils down to this one important issue. The product government "sells" to the public is "protection", and
49 like any other business, it cannot and should not be allowed to FORCE people to buy its product. Government should also
50 not be able to criminalize non-payment for its services in the form of “taxes”, since no other business can. To do otherwise 51 is to:
52

1. Interfere with our sovereign right to contract or not contract as we see fit. This is a protected right under Article 1, Section 10 of the Constitution.
2. Deprive "nontaxpayers" of equal protection.
3. Encourage an irresponsible government that is not completely and directly accountable to the people.
4. Destroy self-government of the people and compel government dependency and slavery in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment by interfering with the ability of individuals and families to support themselves.

"The power to tax is the power to destroy."
[John Marshal, U.S. Supreme Court Justice, M'Culloch v. Maryland, 4 Wheat. 316, 431]

"The great principle is this: because the constitution will not permit a state to destroy, it will not permit a law [including "judge-made law"] involving the power to destroy [self-government by families or individuals]."
[Providence Bank v. Billings, 29 U.S. 514 (1830)]

The purpose of taxation is to fund the institutionalized process of providing "protection". Like any other business, we believe that people should always have the right to only pay government for what they individually want and need and have contracted in writing to receive, including in the area of "protection". If the government "protection corporation" can write a law stating that any contract with any government agent not reduced to writing is void and unenforceable, then certainly we as sovereign Americans who delegated ALL of their authority to them must have the EQUAL right to demand the SAME EQUAL protection from the government in our relationship with it:

"Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract with an officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law."
[Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

It is NOT enough for the government to say that since we availed ourselves of the "benefits" of their services, we consent to be subject to ALL government jurisdiction, because this deprives us of choice of rejecting and not paying for specific types of protection that we think are harmful rather than protective:

CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE
DIVISION 3. OBLIGATIONS
PART 2. CONTRACTS
CHAPTER 3. CONSENT

1589. A voluntary acceptance of the benefit of a transaction is equivalent to a consent to all the obligations arising from it, so far as the facts are known, or ought to be known, to the person accepting.

At the same time, we believe that the protection services that people decide to use from the government should always be paid for in full and refusal to pay should be nothing more than a civil matter to be handled in civil court as a matter of contract, and not right. If the government receives more money than it needs to deliver only the services demanded in writing by the citizen, then it should reduce the tax rate and refund the money. Every government service should have a price tag and people should sign up for what they want and need and pay only for that and nothing more. If they don't have children, for instance, then the public school assessment should be deducted from their property tax bill.

The means of contracting with government to provide "protection" occurs when one chooses, absent duress, their domicile or "residence" (see 26 C.F.R. §1.871-2\(b\)) on a government form to be within the jurisdiction of a specific government. Those who are party to such a protection contract are called "taxpayers", "citizens", "inhabitants" or "residents", all of whom have selected a "permanent abode" and therefore committed to a continuing or indefinite contractual relationship of mutual support, allegiance, and "protection" between them and the government. The courts try to disguise the nature of this transaction as a contract by deceitfully calling it a "compact", but that doesn't change the essential nature of it:

"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter."
[Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

"In Europe, the executive is synonymous with the sovereign power of a state...where it is too commonly acquired by force or fraud, or both...In America, however the case is widely different. Our government is founded upon compact. Sovereignty was, and is, in the people [as individuals: that's you!]."

1 [Glass v. The Sloop Betsy, 3 (U.S.) Dall 6]

2 Those who are not party to this "protection contract" or "compact" are called "transient foreigners" and "nonresidents".

3 "Transient foreigner. One who visits the country, without the intention of remaining."
4 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1498]

5 That process of contractual consent must be voluntary and fully informed, if we are expected to give up any of our natural or 6 Constitutional rights to life, liberty, or property in order to procure it.

7 "The question of a waiver of a federally guaranteed constitutional right is, of course, a federal question controlled
8 by federal law. There is a presumption against the waiver of constitutional rights, see, e.g. Glasser v. United 9 States, 314 U.S. 60, 70-71, 86 L.Ed. 680, 699, 62 S.Ct. 457, and for a waiver to be effective it must be clearly
10 established that there was an 'intentional relinquishment or abandonment of a known right or privilege.' Johnson
12 [Brookhart v. Janis, 384 U.S. 1; 86 S.Ct. 1245; 16 L.Ed.2d. 314 (1966)]

13 "Waivers of Constitutional rights not only must be voluntary, but must be knowing, intelligent acts done with 14 sufficient awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely consequences."
15 [Brady v. U.S., 397 U.S. 742 (1970)]

16 Furthermore, since the Declaration of Independence says our rights are "unalienable", then we are legally forbidden to 17 contract them away.

18 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
19 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
20 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
22 [Declaration of Independence]

23 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
24 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

25 Therefore, only those domiciled on federal territory not protected by the Constitution and who are called statutory "U.S.
26 citizens" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 rather than constitutional "Citizens" pursuant to the Fourteenth Amendment, can even 27 enter into such a contract or compact lawfully.

28 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform
29 to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or 30 conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every 31 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the 32 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and 33 is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the 34 territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan,
35 Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing 36 a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative 37 power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not 38 until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the 39 people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress
40 thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that 41 the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of 42 habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
43 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

44 The U.S. Supreme Court recognized these two distinct types of "citizens" when it held the following:

45 "The 1st section of the 14th Article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited,
46 opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states.
47 No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act
48 of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the
49 public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except
50 as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided
51 always in the District of Columbia or in the territories [as statutory "U.S. citizens" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401],
52 though within the United States[*], were not [CONSTITUTIONAL] citizens. Whether this proposition was 53 sound or not had never been judicially decided."
54 [Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]

1 The deliberate confusion between constitutional and statutory citizens self-servingly introduced by the judicial department is
2 designed to destroy the separation of powers, consolidate all power into Washington, D.C., and destroy personal and state
3 sovereignty. This was predicted by Thomas Jefferson and all his predictions have prophetically come true through the abuse
4 of “words of art” and judicial verbiage intended to confuse and deceive the populace:

5 "Our government is now taking so steady a course as to show by what road it will pass to destruction; to wit: by
6 consolidation first and then corruption, its necessary consequence. The engine of consolidation will be the 7 Federal judiciary; the two other branches the corrupting and corrupted instruments."
8 [Thomas Jefferson to Nathaniel Macon, 1821. ME 15:341]

9 "The [federal] judiciary branch is the instrument which, working like gravity, without intermission, is to press
10 us at last into one consolidated mass."
11 [Thomas Jefferson to Archibald Thweat, 1821. ME 15:307]

12 "There is no danger I apprehend so much as the consolidation of our government by the noiseless and therefore 13 unalarms instrumentality of the Supreme Court."
14 [Thomas Jefferson to William Johnson, 1823. ME 15:421]

15 If you would like to know all the devious methods by which “words of art”, judicial verbiage, and deception are maliciously
16 abused to confuse Constitutional and statutory “citizens” with each other so as to destroy the separation of powers and your 17 constitutional rights that are protected by this separation and how to argue against it, please see:

25 The right and requirement for a person to contractually consent in writing to government protection also implies the right to
26 NOT consent or contract, which means that if we don't contract with the government to provide protection because we think
27 their form of protection is actually harmful, then we cease to have the duty to pay taxes to support the protection that we don't 28 want. This is the very foundation of all free governments: Consent of the governed. A government that compels you (by 29 threat of criminal sanctions, no less!) into a commercial relationship with them in order to procure protection that you don't
30 want, don't need, and actually regard and define as harmful and not protective is interfering with your right to contract and
31 acting as a mafia "protection racket" in violation of Article 1, Section 10 of the Constitution and 18 U.S.C. §1951. If you are
32 a person who doesn't want and doesn't need government services, it ought to be a simple matter to fill out a form and send it
33 into the government, notifying them that they are "fired" as your protector and that you don't want and don't need their services
34 and will provide your own protection.

35 "The determination of the Framers Convention and the ratifying conventions to preserve complete and
36 unimpaired state [and personal] self-government in all matters not committed to the general government is 37 one of the plainest facts which emerges from the history of their deliberations. And adherence to that 38 determination is incumbent equally upon the federal government and the states."
39 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 (1936)]

40 This promotes competition, efficiency, and accountability in government. To approach the protection issue any other way
41 is to sanction compelled association in violation of the First Amendment to the corporate charter called the United States
42 Constitution. See the article below which very clearly explains this:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

43 The only reason anyone in the government would argue with our approach is because:

- 44 1. They don't want to be accountable to anyone.
- 45 2. They don't want you to have any control over how much you have to pay for their protection or whether you pay at all.
- 46 3. They seek to be unequal and superior and to rule from above rather than to serve from below as the Bible requires:

1 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, "Look, you are
2 old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations [and be OVER
3 them]".

4 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the Lord.
5 And the Lord said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected
6 Me [God], that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that
7 I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods
8 [Kings, in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their
9 voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign
10 over them."

11 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. And he said, "This will be the
12 behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take [STEAL] your sons and appoint them for his own
13 chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots. He will appoint captains over his
14 thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to
15 make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. He will take [STEAL] your daughters to be
16 perfumers, cooks, and bakers. And he will take [STEAL] the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive
17 groves, and give them to his servants. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give
18 it to his officers and servants. And he will take [STEAL] your male servants, your female servants, your finest
19 young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work [as SLAVES]. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your
20 sheep. And you will be his servants. And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have
21 chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day."

22 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us,
23 that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."
24 [1 Sam. 8:4-20, Bible, NKJV]

25 Let us never forget that the American Revolution began on the basis of taxation without representation. Those who don't 26 associate politically or legally with a specific political group called a state by voluntarily choosing a domicile within that
27 specific state are called "transient foreigners", "nonresidents", and "nontaxpayers" not subject to the civil laws of that state
28 rather than a statutory "citizen" or a "resident". As a "transient foreigner", anyone who tries to impose or collect a tax upon 29 such a person is taxing them without representation because they didn't elect the governing authority into office and thereby
30 consent to be protected by them, and cannot lawfully participate as either a jurist or a voter to supervise the activities of those
31 who protect them. Hence, we have taxation without representation.

32 The fact that someone is a "nonresident" or a "transient foreigner" in respect to federal and not state jurisdiction doesn't make 33 them a lawless or anti-government person, but a SELF-governing person as the founding fathers intended. The purpose of 34 the Constitution is to PROTECT the right of self-government, not take it away or to effectively outlaw personal responsibility,
35 and certainly not to disrespect the equal right of all to govern, support, protect, and tax only the groups they consent to join 36 voluntarily.

37 "We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government
38 tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material
39 prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen.

40 As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either
41 they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness,
42 from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be
43 governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess
44 the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept
45 the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people
46 are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to 47 preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest."
48 [President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

49 Accountable government that is forced to compete in an open marketplace to efficiently and cost-effectively protect the 50 people and provide ONLY the services expressly demanded in writing. What a novel and TERRORIST idea! If George
51 Washington and Thomas Jefferson were measured by today's corrupted standards, the British would have sent them to 52 Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, let them rot for years in jail without even accusing them of a crime, and prosecuted them as terrorists.
53 We know who the REAL terrorists are. Mark Twain satirically called these terrorists "the District of Criminals" and placed 54 their location in the District of Columbia, which is a haven for financial terrorists.

1 The federal “franchise courts”, which aren’t even really courts but administrative agencies in the executive and not judicial
2 branch of the government, have become a protection racket for an organized crime ring to spread federal slavery. The method
3 by which the federal courts have been deliberately and systematically corrupted over the last 100 years as Thomas Jefferson
4 prophetically predicted is exhaustively documented with thousands of pages of evidence in the following book:

What Happened to Justice?, Litigation Tool #08.001
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

5 Private businesses have been assimilated into the mother “U.S. Inc.” corporation as federal corporations using de facto license
6 numbers called EINs. The Federal Reserve private banking cartel has become the beach head for this conquest and war on
7 the sovereignty of the states and the people and the unlawful and criminal conversion of Constitutional rights into statutory 8 privileges in violation of the ONLY mandate in the U.S. Constitution found in Article 4, Section 4. They are the ones who
9 FORCE you in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment as agents of the federal government called “withholding agents” to 10 procure these de facto EIN franchise license numbers in exchange for the “privilege” of opening a bank account, thus 11 compelling the unlawful and criminal conversion of Constitutional rights into statutory “privileges”. Real constitutional
12 courts would prevent the establishment of federal franchises within the borders of states. The administrative “franchises 13 courts” we have now, mainly through presumption and omission, look the other way and aid the rape and plunder of the 14 people rather than protect them.

15 *“Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and
16 with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to 17 trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive
18 power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the 19 granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and give rights to the licensee.*

20 *But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this
21 commerce and trade Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs
22 exclusively to the States. No interference by Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State is
23 warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly incidental to the exercise of powers clearly granted to
24 the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly repugnant to the exclusive power of 25 the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive power. It is given 26 in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports, and it must 27 impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus limited, and 28 thus only, it reaches every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing subjects.
29 Congress cannot authorize a trade or business within a State in order to tax it.”

31 Congress is required by the Constitution to protect the states from invasion, but they have abused the following tactics as the 32 method to become the main invaders:

- 33 1. Federal franchises and compelled participation in these franchises
- 34 2. The misrepresentation and illegal enforcement of law and their authority.
- 35 3. Identity theft that compels people illegally to have the civil/statutory/franchise status of public officer franchisees.
36 This causes them to become the target of often illegal enforcement even though they are outside the civil legislative 37 jurisdiction of the government. This is done illegally using passport DS-11 applications and Social Security SS-5 38 applications.

39 The mechanisms for how this invasion is perpetrated are documented below:

40 Remember: There are only two types of REAL governments: government by consent and terrorist governments. What we
41 have now is a terrorist government that has transformed itself from a protector to a protection racket and organized crime
42 syndicate which is directed behind the scenes by a secret financial elite of special interests. The early Romans spread their 43 worldwide empire by the same techniques. When they wanted to capture and conquer a city or a state without violence, they 44 would place guards on all the main roads in and out. They would embargo the city or state from all commerce and turn the 45 ability to conduct commerce into a franchise and a privilege, and force the inhabitants to pay tribute to Caesar in order to 46 restore their ability to support themselves and travel freely. Then they would make everyone in the city turn in all their gold

1 and silver as tribute, and it would be given back a small portion of the gold and silver, all of which was melted down and re-
2 minted with Caesar's image on it. It was nonviolent conquest, but still conquest.

3 “TRIBUTE. Tribute in the sense of an impost paid by one state to another, as a mark of subjugation, is a common
4 feature of international relationships in the biblical world. The tributary could be either a hostile state or an ally.
5 *Like deportation, its purpose was to weaken a hostile state. Deportation aimed at depleting the man-power. The
6 aim of tribute was probably twofold: to impoverish the subjugated state and at the same time to increase the
7 conqueror's own revenues and to acquire commodities in short supply in his own country. As an instrument of* 8 administration it was one of the simplest ever devised: the subjugated country could be made responsible for the 9 *payment of a yearly tribute. Its non-arrival would be taken as a sign of rebellion, and an expedition would then
10 be sent to deal with the recalcitrant. This was probably the reason for the attack recorded in Gn. 14.*

13 The only thing new in the world is the history you do not know. The reason you do not know it is that the same corporate
14 and elite special interests who oppress you and use their franchises to destroy equal protection and your rights also run the 15 public schools and the media and decide what they want you to know. All they want are good little corporate, tax-paying 16 whores and drones who don't ask any questions and keep the plunder flowing into their checking account so they don't have
17 to pay their fair share, which is really the only share that the Constitution can or does lawfully authorize: franchise/excise
18 taxes upon corporate privileges. Congress is only supposed to be able to tax what it creates and it didn't create human beings
19 (God did), but it did create federal corporation franchises and can and should tax ONLY them.

20 5 Choice of Law Rules²

21 The study of “choice of law” rules is an extremely important subject matter because it is the area in which most of the judicial
22 and government corruption occurs in courts across the country. Violation of these rules is why we say that there is more
23 crime committed in courtrooms across America than any other type of crime. The organizers of this crime are covetous
24 judges and government prosecutors who want to get into your pocket by STEALING jurisdiction they technically do not 25 have.

26 The term “choice of law” describes the process that judges and attorneys must use in deciding which laws to apply to a
27 particular case or controversy before them. In our country, there are 52 unique and distinct state and federal sovereignties
28 that are legislatively “foreign” with respect to each other, each with its own citizens, laws, courts, and penal systems. When 29 legal disputes arise, the task of deciding which laws from which of these sovereignties may be applied to decide a case is the 30 very first step in resolving the crime or controversy.

31 For those seeking additional information, “choice of law” rules are described in the following two valuable resources:

- 32 1. Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018
33 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 34 2. Conflicts in a Nutshell, David D. Seigel, West Publishing, 1994; ISBN 0-314-02952-4

35 5.1 Itemized list of choice of law rules

36 The following list summarizes the “choice of law” rules applying to litigation in federal court:

- 37 1. Federal district and circuit courts are administrative franchise courts created under the authority of Article 4, Section 3, 38 Clause 2 of the Constitution and which have jurisdiction only over the following:
 - 39 1.1. Plenary/General jurisdiction over federal territory: Implemented primarily through “public law” and applies
40 generally to all persons and things. This is a requirement of “equal protection” found in 42 U.S.C. §1981. Operates 41 upon:
 - 42 1.1.1. The District of Columbia under Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17 of the U.S. Constitution.
 - 43 1.1.2. Federal territories and possessions under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 3 of the U.S. Constitution.
 - 44 1.1.3. Special maritime jurisdiction (admiralty) in territorial waters under the exclusive jurisdiction of the 45 general/federal government.

1 1.1.4. Federal areas within states of the Union ceded to the federal government. Federal judicial districts consist
2 entirely of the federal territory within the exterior boundaries of the district and do not encompass land not
3 ceded to the federal government as required by 40 U.S.C. §255 and its successors, 40 U.S.C. §3111 and 3112.
4 See section 6.4 of the Tax Fraud Prevention Manual, Form #06.008 et seq for further details.

6 U.S. 47, 44 S.Ct. 447, 11 Virginia Law Review, 607 (1924).

7 1.2. Subject matter jurisdiction:

8 1.2.1. “Public laws” which operate throughout the states of the Union upon the following subjects:

9 1.2.1.1. Excise taxes upon imports from foreign countries. See Article 1, Section 8, Clause 1 of the U.S.
10 Constitution. Congress may NOT, however, tax any article exported from a state pursuant to Article 1, 11 Section 9, Clause 5 of the Constitution. Other than these subject matters, NO national taxes are 12 authorized:

13 “The States, after they formed the Union, continued to have the same range of taxing power which 14 they had before, barring only duties affecting exports, imports, and on tonnage. 2 Congress, on the 15 other hand, to lay taxes in order 'to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general

17 in the land with due regard to Constitutional limitations as to the method of laying taxes.”
18 Graves v. People of State of New York, [306 U.S. 466 (1939)]

19
20 “The difficulties arising out of our dual form of government and the opportunities for differing opinions
21 concerning the relative rights of state and national governments are many; but for a very long time
22 this court has steadfastly adhered to the doctrine that the taxing power of Congress does not extend
23 to the states or their political subdivisions. The same basic reasoning which leads to that conclusion,

29 States, and with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses
30 to pilots, licenses to trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise
31 of that great and extensive power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of

57 servitude. This legislation is not limited to the territories or other parts of the strictly national domain,

1 but is operative in the states and wherever the sovereignty of the United States extends. We entertain no
2 doubt of the validity of this legislation, or of its applicability to the case of any person holding another in a

4 operates directly on every citizen of the Republic, wherever his residence may be."
5 [Clyatt v. U.S., 197 U.S. 207 (1905)]

6 1.2.2. "Private law" or "special law" pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution. Applies
7 only to persons and things who individually consent through private agreement or contract. Note that this
8 jurisdiction also includes contracts with states of the Union and private individuals in those states. Includes,
9 but is not limited exclusively to the following:

10 1.2.2.1. Federal franchises, such as Social Security, Medicare, etc. See:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11 1.2.2.2. Federal employees, as described in Title 5 of the U.S. Code.

12 1.2.2.3. Federal contracts and "public offices".

13 1.2.2.4. Federal chattel property.

15 1.2.2.6. Social Security, found in 42 U.S.C. Chapter 7.

16 2. Internal Revenue Manual, Section 4.10.7.2.9.8 says that the IRS cannot cite rulings below the Supreme Court to apply
17 to more than the specific person who litigated:

18 Internal Revenue Manual, Section 10.7.2.9.8 (05-14-1999)
19 Importance of Court Decisions

20 1. Decisions made at various levels of the court system are considered to be interpretations of tax laws and may 21 be used by either examiners or taxpayers to support a position.

22 2. Certain court cases lend more weight to a position than others. A case decided by the U.S. Supreme Court
23 becomes the law of the land and takes precedence over decisions of lower courts. The Internal Revenue Service
24 must follow Supreme Court decisions. For examiners, Supreme Court decisions have the same weight as the 25 Code.

26 3. Decisions made by lower courts, such as Tax Court, District Courts, or Claims Court, are binding on the 27 Service only for the particular taxpayer and the years litigated. Adverse decisions of lower courts do not require 28 the Service to alter its position for other taxpayers.

29 Federal courts have repeatedly stated that the general government is one of finite, enumerated, delegated powers. The 30 implication of that concept is that whatever the government can do, the people can do also because the authority to do it
31 came from the People. Consequently, if the IRS can refuse to be bound by rulings below the U.S. Supreme Court, the 32 same constraints apply to us as the source of all their power:

33 "Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law...While sovereign powers
34 are delegated to...the government, sovereignty itself remains with the people."
35 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

36 "The Government of the United States is one of delegated powers alone. Its authority is defined and limited by 37 the Constitution. All powers not granted to it by that instrument are reserved to the States or the people."
38 [United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542 (1875)]

39 "The question is not what power the federal government ought to have, but what powers, in fact, have been given
40 by the people... The federal union is a government of delegated powers. It has only such as are expressly conferred
41 upon it, and such as are reasonably to be implied from those granted. In this respect, we differ radically from 42 nations where all legislative power, without restriction or limitation, is vested in a parliament or other legislative 43 body subject to no restriction except the discretion of its members." (Congress)
44 [U.S. v. William M. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936)]

45 3. There is no federal common law within states of the Union, according to the Supreme Court in Erie Railroad v. Tompkins,
46 304 U.S. 64 (1938). Consequently, the rulings of federal district and circuit courts have no relevancy to state citizens
47 domiciled in states of the union who do not declare themselves to be "U.S. citizens" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 and who 48 would litigate under diversity of citizenship, as described in Article III, Section 2 of the U.S. Constitution but NOT 28
49 U.S.C. §1332.

1 "There is no Federal Common Law, and Congress has no power to declare substantive rules of Common Law
2 applicable in a state. Whether they be local or general in their nature, be they commercial law or a part of the 3 Law of Torts"
4 [Erie Railroad v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64 (1938)]
5

6 "Common law. As distinguished from statutory law created by the enactment of legislatures, the common law
7 comprises the body of those principles and rules of action, relating to the government and security of persons and 8 property, which derive their authority solely from usages and customs of immemorial antiquity, or from the 9 judgments and decrees of the courts recognizing, affirming, and enforcing such usages and customs and, in this
10 sense, particularly the ancient unwritten law of England. In general, it is a body of law that develops and derives
11 through judicial decisions, as distinguished from legislative enactments. The "common law" is all the statutory 12 and case law background of England and the American colonies before the American revolution. People v.
13 Rehman, 253 C.A.2d. 119, 61 Cal.Rptr. 65, 85. It consists of those principles, usage and rules of action applicable
14 to government and security of persons and property which do not rest for their authority upon any express and 15 positive declaration of the will of the legislature. Bishop v. U.S., D.C.Tex., 334 F.Supp. 415, 418.

16 "Calif. Civil Code, Section 22.2, provides that the "common law of England, so far as it is not repugnant to or 17 inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, or the Constitution or laws of this State, is the rule of 18 decision in all the courts of this State."

19 "In a broad sense, "common law" may designate all that part of the positive law, juristic theory, and ancient 20 custom of any state or nation which is of general and universal application, thus marking off special or local 21 rules or customs.

22 "For federal common law, see that title.

23 "As a compound adjective "common-law" is understood as contrasted with or opposed to "statutory," and 24 sometimes also to "equitable" or to "criminal."
25 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 276]

- 26 4. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652, requires that the laws of the states of the Union are the only rules of decision
27 in federal courts. This means that federal courts MUST cite state law and not federal law in all tax cases and MAY NOT 28 cite federal case law in the case of persons not domiciled on federal territory and who are therefore not statutory "U.S.
29 citizens" or "U.S. residents".

30 TITLE 28 > PART V > CHAPTER 111 > § 1652
31 § 1652. State laws as rules of decision

32 The laws of the several states, except where the Constitution or treaties of the United States or Acts of Congress
33 otherwise require or provide, shall be regarded as rules of decision in civil actions in the courts of the United 34 States, in cases where they apply.

35 The thing they deliberately and self-servingly don't tell you in this act is specifically when federal law applies
36 extraterritorially in a state of the Union, which is ONLY in the case of federal contracts, franchises, and domiciliaries
37 and NO OTHERS. What all these conditions have in common is that they relate to federal territory and property and
38 come under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution and may only be officiated in an Article 4
39 legislative franchise court, which includes all federal District and Circuit Courts. See the following for proof that all
40 federal District and Circuit courts are Article 4 legislative franchise courts and not Article 3 constitutional courts:

44 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/ChallJurisdiction/AuthoritiesArticle/AuthOnJurisdiction.htm>

- 45 5. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17\(b\) says that the capacity to sue or be sued is determined by the law of the individual's 46 domicile. It quotes two and only two exceptions to this rule, which are:

47 5.1. A person acting in a representative capacity as an officer of a federal entity.

48 5.2. A corporation that was created and is domiciled within federal territory.

49 This means that if a person is domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of a state of the Union and not within a federal
50 enclave, then state law are the rules of decision rather than federal law. Since state income tax liability in nearly every 51 state is dependent on a federal liability first, this makes an income tax liability impossible for those domiciled outside
52 the federal zone or inside the exclusive jurisdiction of a state, because such persons cannot be statutory "U.S. citizens"
53 as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401 nor "residents" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).

6 (2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

7 (3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

8 (A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue
9 or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution
10 or laws; and

11 (B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959\(a\) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue
12 or be sued in a United States court.

13 [SOURCE: <http://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frcp/Rule17.htm>]

14 A person engaged in a “trade or business” occupies a “public office” within the U.S. government, which is a federal
15 corporation (28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A)) created and domiciled on federal territory. They are also acting in a representative
16 capacity as an officer of said corporation. Therefore, such “persons” are the ONLY real taxpayers against whom federal 17 law may be cited outside of federal territory. Anyone in the government who therefore wishes to enforce federal law
18 against a person domiciled outside of federal territory (the “United States” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and 19 (a)(10)) and who is therefore not a statutory “U.S. citizen” or “resident” (alien) therefore must satisfy the burden of proof
20 with evidence to demonstrate that the defendant lawfully occupied a public office within the U.S. government in the 21 context of all transactions that they claim are subject to tax. See:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 22 6. 28 U.S.C. §2679(d)(3) indicates that any action against an officer or employee of the United States, if he was not acting
23 within his lawful delegated authority or in accordance with law, may be removed to State court and prosecuted
24 exclusively under state law because not a federal question.
- 25 7. For a person domiciled in a state of the Union, federal law may only be applied against them if they are either suing the 26 United States or are involved in a franchise or “public right”. Franchises and public rights deal exclusively with “public
27 rights” created by Congress between private individuals and the government. Litigation involving franchises generally
28 is done only in Article IV legislative courts and not Article III constitutional courts. Northern Pipeline Const. Co. v.
29 Marathon Pipe Line Co., 458 U.S. 50, 102 S.Ct. 2858 (1983).
- 30 8. Any government representative, and especially who is from the Department of Justice (D.O.J.) or the IRS, who does any 31 of the following against anyone domiciled outside of federal territory and within a state of the Union is trying to
32 maliciously destroy the separation of powers, destroy or undermine your Constitutional rights, and unconstitutionally
33 and unlawfully enlarge their jurisdiction and importance.
- 34 8.1. Cites a case below the Supreme Court or from a territorial or franchise court such as the District of Circuit Courts
35 or Tax Court. This is an abuse of case law for political rather than lawful purposes and it is intended to deceive
36 and injure the hearer. Federal courts, incidentally, are NOT allowed to involve themselves in such “political 37 questions”, and therefore should not allow this type of abuse of case law, but judges who are fond of increasing
38 their retirement benefits often will acquiesce if you don’t call them on it as an informed American. This kind of 39 bias on the part of federal judges, incidentally, is highly illegal under 28 U.S.C. §144 and 28 U.S.C. §455.
- 40 8.2. Enforces federal franchises such as the “trade or business” franchise (income tax, Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle 41 A) against persons not domiciled on federal territory. The U.S. Supreme Court said in the License Tax Cases, 72
42 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866) that they could not enforce federal franchises outside 43 of federal territory.
- 44 8.3. Presumes or infers that “United States” as used in the Constitution is the same thing as “United States” as defined 45 in federal statutory law. They are mutually exclusive, in fact.
- 46 9. Every occasion in which courts exceed their jurisdiction that we are aware of originates from the following important
47 and often deliberate and malicious abuses by government employees, judges, and prosecutors. We must prevent and 48 overcome these abuses in order to keep the government within the bounds of the Constitution:
- 49 9.1. Misunderstanding or misapplication of the above choice of law rules.
- 50 9.2. Failure or refusal to adjust the meaning of “words of art” based on their context and the legal definitions that apply
51 in that context. See:

Geographical Definitions and Conventions, Form #11.215

<http://sedm.org/SampleLetters/DefinitionsAndConventions.htm>

- 52 9.3. A violation of or disregard for the rules of statutory construction, usually by abusing the word “includes”. See:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9.4. Presumptions, usually about the meanings of words. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The U.S. Supreme Court identified the enemies of republican freedom originating from the above causes, when it held:

[Adderley v. State of Florida, 385 U.S. 39, 49 (1967)]

The book Conflicts in a Nutshell confirms some of the above conclusions by saying the following:

“After some 96 years of this, the Supreme Court acknowledged the unfair choice of forum this gave the plaintiff in a case governed by decisional rather than statutory law merely because the plaintiff and defendant happened to come from different states. Reconstructing the Rules of Decision Act, the Supreme Court in Erie overruled Swift and held that state law governs in the common law as well as in the statutory situation. Subsequent cases clarified that this means forum law; the law of the state in which the federal court is sitting.

“The result is that the federal court in a diversity case sits in effect as just another state court, seeking out forum state law for all substantive issues. The Rules of Decision Act does not apply to procedural matters, however; for matters of procedure a federal court, sitting in a diversity or any other kind of case, applies its own rules. This has been so since 1938, when , coincidentally (Erie was also decided in 1938), the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure arrived on the scene.”

5.2 Summary of choice of law rules

The above choice of law rules for federal district and circuit courts can be further summarized below:

1. Civil Jurisdiction originates from one or more of the following. Note that jurisdiction over all the items below originates from Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution and relates to community “property” of the states under the stewardship of the federal government.
 - 1.1. Persons domiciled on federal territory wherever physically located. These persons include:
 - 1.1.1. Statutory “U.S. citizens” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401.
 - 1.1.2. Statutory “residents” (aliens) lawfully admitted pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(3).
 - 1.1.3. “U.S. persons” defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30) .
 - 1.2. Engaging in franchises offered by the national government to persons domiciled only on federal territory, wherever physically situated. This includes jurisdiction over:
 - 1.2.1. Public officers, who are called “employees” in 5 U.S.C. §2105.
 - 1.2.2. Federal agencies and instrumentalities.
 - 1.2.3. Federal corporations
 - 1.2.4. Social Security, which is also called Old Age Survivor’s Disability Insurance (OASDI).
 - 1.2.5. Medicare.
 - 1.2.6. Unemployment insurance, which is also called FICA.
 - 1.3. Management of federal territory and contracts. This includes public offices of the national government LAWFULLY exercised within states of the Union under 4 U.S.C. §72.
2. Criminal jurisdiction originates from crimes committed only on federal territory.

5.3 Effects of government franchises on choice of law

In law, rights are property:

1 Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict legal
2 sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat &
3 Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable right
4 and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to dispose of
5 a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude every one else from interfering with it. That
6 dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular things or 7 subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a man can have
8 to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or chattels, which no
9 way depends on another man's courtesy.

10 The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal,
11 tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which 12 goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real 13 and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of 14 one's property rights by actionable wrong. Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d 180, 332
15 P.2d. 250, 252, 254.

16 Property embraces everything which is or may be the subject of ownership, whether a legal ownership, or whether 17 beneficial, or a private ownership. Davis v. Davis. TexCiv-App., 495 S.W.2d. 607. 611. Term includes not only 18 ownership and possession but also the right of use and enjoyment for lawful purposes. Hoffmann v. Kinealy, Mo.,
19 389 S.W.2d. 745, 752.

20 Property, within constitutional protection, denotes group of rights inhering in citizen's relation to physical thing,
21 as right to possess, use and dispose of it. Cereghino v. State By and Through State Highway Commission, 230
22 Or. 439, 370 P.2d. 694, 697.

23 Goodwill is property, Howell v. Bowden, TexCiv. App., 368 S.W.2d. 842, &18; as is an insurance policy and 24 rights incident thereto, including a right to the proceeds, Harris v. Harris, 83 N.M. 441,493 P.2d. 407, 408.

25 Criminal code. "Property" means anything of value. including real estate, tangible and intangible personal
26 property, contract rights, choses-in-action and other interests in or claims to wealth, admission or transportation
27 tickets, captured or domestic animals, food and drink, electric or other power. Model Penal Code. Q 223.0. See
28 also Property of another, infra. Dusts. Under definition in Restatement, Second, Trusts, Q 2(c), it denotes interest
29 in things and not the things themselves.
30 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]

31 Anything that conveys rights is also property. Contracts convey rights and therefore are property. All franchises are contracts
32 between the grantor and grantee and therefore also are property.

33 As a rule, franchises spring from contracts between the sovereign power and private citizens, made upon
34 valuable considerations, for purposes of individual advantage as well as public benefit,³ and thus a franchise
35 partakes of a double nature and character. So far as it affects or concerns the public, it is publici juris and is 36 subject to governmental control. The legislature may prescribe the manner of granting it, to whom it may be
37 granted, the conditions and terms upon which it may be held, and the duty of the grantee to the public in exercising
38 it, and may also provide for its forfeiture upon the failure of the grantee to perform that duty. But when granted,
39 it becomes the property of the grantee, and is a private right, subject only to the governmental control growing
40 out of its other nature as publici juris.⁴
41 [American Jurisprudence 2d, Franchises, §4: Generally (1999)]

42 Corporations are only one of several types of government franchises. Below is an example:

43 "The power of making all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory [property] of the United States,
44 is one of the specified powers of congress. Under this power, it has never been doubted, that congress had 45 authority to establish corporations [franchises] in the territorial governments. But this power is derived entirely
46 from implication. It is assumed, as an incident to the principal power."
47 [M'Culloch v. State, 17 U.S. 316, 1819 WL 2135 (U.S.,1819)]

³ Georgia R. & Power Co. v. Atlanta, 154 Ga. 731, 115 S.E. 263; Lippencott v. Allander, 27 Iowa 460; State ex rel. Hutton v. Baton Rouge, 217 La. 857, 47 So.2d. 665; Tower v. Tower & S. Street R. Co. 68 Minn 500, 71 N.W. 691.

⁴ Georgia R. & Power Co. v. Atlanta, 154 Ga. 731, 115 S.E. 263; Lippencott v. Allander, 27 Iowa 460; State ex rel. Hutton v. Baton Rouge, 217 La. 857, 47 So.2d. 665; Tower v. Tower & S. Street R. Co. 68 Minn 500, 71 N.W. 691.

1 Therefore, contracts, franchises, territory, and domicile (which is a protection franchise) all constitute “property” of the
2 national government and are the origin of all civil jurisdiction over “persons” in federal courts. Jurisdiction of federal courts
3 over such “property” extends into the states and wherever said property is found:

4 “The Constitution permits Congress to dispose of and to make all needful rules and regulations respecting the
5 territory or other property belonging to the United States. This power applies as well to territory belonging to 6 the United States within the States, as beyond them. It comprehends all the public domain, wherever it may be.
7 The argument is, that the power to make ‘ALL needful rules and regulations’ ‘is a power of legislation,’ ‘a
8 full legislative power;’ ‘that it includes all subjects of legislation in the territory,’ ‘and is without any limitations,
9 except the positive prohibitions which affect all the powers of Congress. Congress may then regulate or prohibit 10 slavery upon the public domain within the new States, and such a prohibition would permanently affect the 11 capacity of a slave, whose master might carry him to it. And why not? Because no power has been conferred on 12 Congress. This is a conclusion universally admitted. But the power to ‘make rules and regulations respecting 13 the territory’ is not restrained by State lines, nor are there any constitutional prohibitions upon its exercise in
14 the domain of the United States within the States; and whatever rules and regulations respecting territory
15 Congress may constitutionally make are supreme, and are not dependent on the situs of ‘the territory.’”
16 [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393, 509-510 (1856)]

17 It is jurisdiction mainly over government/public franchises which is the origin of nearly all civil jurisdiction that federal courts
18 assert over most Americans. Franchises are the main method by which your legal identity is “kidnapped” and transported to 19 a foreign jurisdiction.

20 “For the upright will dwell in the land,
21 And the blameless will remain in it;
22 But the wicked [those who allow themselves through their covetousness to be enticed by a government bribe
23 in the form of a franchise] will be cut off [legally kidnapped pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
24 17(b)] from the earth [and transported to a foreign land to serve tyrants like the Israelites were kidnapped
25 and transported to Egypt],
26 And the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.”
27 [Prov. 2:21-22, Bible, NKJV]

28 For an example of how this legal kidnapping or “identity theft” operates, see 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39) and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d)
29 . The “citizen” or “resident” described in these two code sections is a person who participates in the “protection franchise”,
30 or should we say “protection racket” called “domicile”, which domicile is on federal territory and not within any state of the 31 Union. If you would like to know more about how this process of legal kidnapping operates both spiritually and legally, see 32 section 13.2 of the following:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 All franchises cause those engaged in them to take on a “public character” and become government agents, officers, and 34 “public officers” of one kind or another and the “office” they occupy has an effective domicile on federal territory. The 35 public office is the “res” or subject of nearly all civil proceedings in the district and circuit “franchise courts”, and not the 36 physical person occupying said office.

37 “Res. Lat. The subject matter of a trust [the Social Security Trust or “public trust” (government), in most 38 cases] or will [or legislation]. In the civil law, a thing; an object. As a term of the law, this word has a very wide
39 and extensive signification, including not only things which are objects of property, but also such as are not
40 capable of individual ownership. And in old English law it is said to have a general import, comprehending both 41 corporeal and incorporeal things of whatever kind, nature, or species. By “res,” according to the modern 42 civilians, is meant everything that may form an object of rights, in opposition to “persona,” which is regarded 43 as a subject of rights. “Res,” therefore, in its general meaning, comprises actions [or CONSEQUENCES of 44 choices and CONTRACTS/AGREEMENTS you make by procuring BENEFITS] of all kinds; while in its 45 restricted sense it comprehends every object of right, except actions. This has reference to the fundamental 46 division of the Institutes that all law relates either to persons, to things, or to actions.

47 Res is everything that may form an object of rights and includes an object, subject-matter or status. In re
48 Riggle's Will, 11 A.D.2d 51 205 N.Y.S.2d. 19, 21, 22. The term is particularly applied to an object, subject-
49 matter, or status, considered as the defendant [hence, the ALL CAPS NAME] in an action, or as an object
50 against which, directly, proceedings are taken. Thus, in a prize case, the captured vessel is “the res”; and 51 proceedings of this character are said to be in rem. (See In personam; In Rem.) “Res” may also denote the action
52 or proceeding, as when a cause, which is not between adversary parties, is entitled “In re _____”.
53 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, pp. 1304-1306]

1 The trust they are talking about in the phrase “subject matter of a trust” is the “public trust”. Government is a public trust:

2 TITLE 5--ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL
3 CHAPTER XVI--OFFICE OF GOVERNMENT ETHICS
4 PART 2635--STANDARDS OF ETHICAL CONDUCT FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH--
5 Table of Contents
6 Subpart A--General Provisions
7 Sec. 2635.101 Basic obligation of public service.

8 (a) Public service is a public trust. Each employee has a responsibility to the United States Government and 9 its citizens to place loyalty to the Constitution, laws and ethical principles above private gain. To ensure that 10 every citizen can have complete confidence in the integrity of the Federal Government, each employee shall 11 respect and adhere to the principles of ethical conduct set forth in this section, as well as the implementing 12 standards contained in this part and in supplemental agency regulations.

13 In the case below, this source of civil jurisdiction over government franchises is called “statutory law”:

14 One great object of the Constitution is to permit citizens to structure their private relations as they choose
15 subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law. [500 U.S. 614, 620]

16 To implement these principles, courts must consider from time to time where the governmental sphere [e.g.
17 “public purpose” and “public office”] ends and the private sphere begins. Although the conduct of private
18 parties lies beyond the Constitution’s scope in most instances, governmental authority may dominate an activity
19 to such an extent that its participants must be deemed to act with the authority of the government and, as a
20 result, be subject to constitutional constraints. This is the jurisprudence of state action, which explores the 21 “essential dichotomy” between the private sphere and the public sphere, with all its attendant constitutional
22 obligations. Moose Lodge, supra, at 172. “

23 [. . .]

24 Given that the statutory authorization for the challenges exercised in this case is clear, the remainder of our state
25 action analysis centers around the second part of the Lugar test, whether a private litigant, in all fairness, must 26 be deemed a government actor in the use of peremptory challenges. Although we have recognized that this aspect
27 of the analysis is often a fact-bound inquiry, see Lugar, supra, 457 U.S. at 939, our cases disclose certain 28 principles of general application. Our precedents establish that, in determining whether a particular action or 29 course of conduct is governmental in character, it is relevant to examine the following: the extent to which the 30 actor relies on governmental assistance and benefits, see Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope,
31 485 U.S. 478 (1988); Burton v. Wilmington Parking Authority, 365 U.S. 715 (1961); whether the actor is 32 performing a traditional governmental function, see Terry v. Adams, 345 U.S. 461 (1953); Marsh v. Alabama,
33 326 U.S. 501 (1946); cf. San Francisco Arts & Athletics, Inc. v. United States Olympic [500 U.S. 614, 622]
34 Committee, 483 U.S. 522, 544 -545 (1987); and whether the injury caused is aggravated in a unique way by the 35 incidents of governmental authority, see Shelley v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1 (1948). Based on our application of these
36 three principles to the circumstances here, we hold that the exercise of peremptory challenges by the defendant
37 in the District Court was pursuant to a course of state action.
38 [Edmonson v. Leesville Concrete Company, 500 U.S. 614 (1991)]

39 In support of the above conclusions, the following memorandum of law exhaustively analyzes the subject of civil statutory 40 jurisdiction of the national government over persons domiciled outside of federal territory and in states of the Union and 41 concludes that all statutory law is law only for the government and franchisees who are also part of the government:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

42 5.4 How choice of law rules are illegally circumvented by corrupted government officials to 43 STEAL from You

44 In cases against the government, corrupt judges and prosecutors employ several important tactics that you should be very 45 aware of in order to:

- 46 1. Circumvent choice of law rules documented in the previous sections and thereby to illegally and unconstitutionally
47 enforce federal law outside of federal territory within a foreign state called a state of the Union.
- 48 2. STEAL private property from you and use it for their own benefit, in what amounts to a criminal and financial conflict
49 of interest per 18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §144, and 28 U.S.C. §455.
- 50 3. Unlawfully enlarge their jurisdiction and importance in what amounts to treason in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2381.

4. Break down the constitutional separation between the states and the federal government that is the foundation of the Constitution and the MAIN protection for your PRIVATE rights. See:

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

All of the above tactics are referred to in the legal field as “identity theft”. We have documented all the various methods that corrupt judges and government lawyers use to effect this criminal identity theft in the following document:

Government Identity Theft, Form #05.046

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The most frequent methods to circumvent choice of law rules indicated in the previous sections are the following tactics:

1. Abuse “words of art” to deceive and undermine the sovereignty of the non-governmental opponent. This includes:
 - 1.1. Add things or classes of things to the meaning of statutory terms that do not EXPRESSLY appear in their definitions, in violation of the rules of statutory construction. See:
 - 1.2. Violate the rules of statutory construction by abusing the word “includes” to add things or classes of things to definitions of terms that do not expressly appear in the statutes and therefore MUST be presumed to be purposefully excluded.
 - 1.3. Refuse to allow the jury to read the definitions in the law and then give them a definition that is in conflict with the statutory definition. This substitutes the JUDGES will for what the law expressly says and thereby substitutes PUBLIC POLICY for the written law.
 - 1.4. Publish deceptive government publications that are in deliberate conflict with what the statutes define terms to mean and then tell the public that they CANNOT rely on the publication. The IRS does this with ALL of their publications and it is FRAUD. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf>

- 1.5. PRESUME that ALL of the four contexts for "United States" are equivalent.
For details on this SCAM, see:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. PRESUME that CONSTITUTIONAL citizens and STATUTORY citizens are EQUIVALENT under federal law. They are NOT. A CONSTITUTIONAL citizen is a "non-resident " under federal civil law and NOT a STATUTORY "national and citizen of the United States at birth" per 8 U.S.C. §1401.. See the document below:

Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/WhyANational.pdf>

3. PRESUME that "nationality" and "domicile" are equivalent. They are NOT. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>

4. Use the word "citizenship" in place of "nationality" OR "domicile", and refuse to disclose WHICH of the two they mean in EVERY context.
5. Confuse the POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL meaning of words with the civil STATUTORY context. For instance, asking on government forms whether you are a POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL citizen and then FALSELY PRESUMING that you are a STATUTORY citizen under 8 U.S.C. §1401.
6. Confuse the words "domicile" and "residence" or impute either to you without satisfying the burden of proving that you EXPRESSLY CONSENTED to it and thereby illegally kidnap your civil legal identity against your will. One can have only one "domicile" but many "residences" and BOTH require your consent. See:

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>

7. Confuse “federal” with “national” or use these words interchangeably. They are NOT equivalent and this lack of equivalence is a product of the separation of powers doctrine that is the foundation of the USA Constitution.

1 "It is clear that Congress, as a legislative body, exercise two species of legislative power: the one, limited as to
 2 its objects, but extending all over the Union: the other, an absolute, exclusive legislative power over the District
 3 of Columbia. The preliminary inquiry in the case now before the Court, is, by virtue of which of these authorities
 4 was the law in question passed?"
 5 [Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264, 6 Wheat. 265, 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821)]

6
 7 "NATIONAL GOVERNMENT. The government of a whole nation, as distinguished from that of a local or 8 territorial division of the nation, and also as distinguished from that of a league or confederation.

9 "A national government is a government of the people of a single state or nation, united as a community by what
 10 is termed the "social compact," and possessing complete and perfect supremacy over persons and things, so far
 11 as they can be made the lawful objects of civil government. A federal government is distinguished from a
 12 national government by its being the government of a community of independent and sovereign states, united
 13 by compact." Piqua Branch Bank v. Knoup, 6 Ohio.St. 393."
 14 [Black's Law Dictionary, Revised Fourth Edition, 1968, p. 1176]

 16 "FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. The system of government administered in a state formed by the union or 17 confederation of several independent or quasi independent states; also the composite state so formed.

18 In strict usage, there is a distinction between a confederation and a federal government. The former term denotes
 19 a league or permanent alliance between several states, each of which is fully sovereign and independent, and 20 each of which retains its full dignity, organization, and sovereignty, though yielding to the central authority a
 21 controlling power for a few limited purposes, such as external and diplomatic relations. In this case, the 22 component states are the units, with respect to the confederation, and the central government acts upon them,
 23 not upon the individual citizens. In a federal government, on the other hand, the allied states form a union,-
 24 not, indeed, to such an extent as to destroy their separate organization or deprive them of quasi sovereignty
 25 with respect to the administration of their purely local concerns, but so that the central power is erected into a
 26 true state or nation, possessing sovereignty both external and internal,-while the administration of national
 27 affairs is directed, and its effects felt, not by the separate states deliberating as units, but by the people of all,
 28 in their collective capacity, as citizens of the nation. The distinction is expressed, by the German writers, by the 29 use of the two words "Staatenbund" and "Bundesstaat;" the former denoting a league or confederation of states,
 30 and the latter a federal government, or state formed by means of a league or confederation."
 31 [Black's Law Dictionary, Revised Fourth Edition, 1968, p. 740]

32 Here is a table comparing the two:

33 Table 1: "National" v. "Federal"

#	Description	"National" government	"Federal" government
1	Legislates for	Federal territory and NOT states of the Union	Constitutional states of the Union and NOT federal territory
2	Social compact	None. Jurisdiction is unlimited per Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17	Those domiciled within states of the Union
3	Type of jurisdiction exercised	General jurisdiction	Subject matter jurisdiction (derived from Constitution)
4	Citizens	1. Statutory "nationals and citizens at birth" per 8 U.S.C. §1401. 2. "U.S. citizens" per 26 U.S.C. §3121(e) and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c). 3. EXCLUDES constitutional "Citizens" or "citizens of the United States" per Fourteenth Amendment.	1. "Citizens". 2. Fourteenth Amendment "citizens of the United States". 3. EXCLUDES statutory citizens per 8 U.S.C. §1401 "U.S. citizens" per 26 U.S.C. §3121(e) and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).

5	Courts	Federal District and Circuit Courts (legislative franchise courts that can only hear disputes over federal territory and property per Art. 4, Sect. 3, Clause 2 of USA Constitution).	1. State courts. 2. U.S. Supreme Courts.
6	Those domiciled within this jurisdiction are	Statutory “aliens” in relation to states of the Union.	Statutory “aliens” in relation to the national government.
7	Those domiciled here are subject to Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C?	Yes	No

8. Abuse franchises such as the income tax, Social Security, Medicare, etc. to be used to UNLAWFULLY create new public offices in the U.S. government. This results in a de facto government in which there are no private rights or private property and in which EVERYONE is illegally subject to the whims of the government. See:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043

9. Connect the opponent to a government franchise or to PRESUME they participate and let the presumption go unchallenged and therefore agreed to. This is done:

- 9.1. PRESUMING that because someone connected ONE activity to a government franchise, that they elected to act in the capacity of a franchisee for ALL activities. This is equivalent to outlawing PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property.
- 9.2. Refusing to acknowledge or respect the method by which PRIVATE property is donated to a PUBLIC use, which is by VOLUNTARILY associating formerly PRIVATE property with a de facto license represent a public office in the government called a Social Security Number (SSN) or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN).
- 9.3. Calling use of SSNs and TINs VOLUNTARY and yet REFUSING to prosecute those who COMPEL their use. This results in a LIE.
- 9.4. Compelling the use of Social Security Numbers or Taxpayer Identification Numbers. This is combated using the following:
- 9.4.1. Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a “Taxpayer Identification Number”, Form #04.205

- 9.5. Using forms signed by the government opponent in which they claimed a status under a government franchise, such as statutory “taxpayer”, “individual”, “U.S. person”, “U.S. citizen”, etc. This is combated by attaching the following to all tax forms one fills out:

5.5 Rebutting judicial and U.S. attorney and legal profession verbicide and propaganda to discredit common law as a choice of law alternative

Concerted attempts by members of the legal profession to discredit the use of the common law for the protection of PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property have been ongoing ever since the legal industry stopped publishing books about it right after the SOCIALIST 1930's. That doesn't mean its use has been outlawed, but merely informally discouraged. Why? Because it completely undermines their franchise system erected during that period.

We have compiled a list of common objections by those in the legal profession that you can use to respond to unjust and fraudulent attacks by them upon your constitutional right to invoke the common law and avoid civil statutory jurisdiction. Below is a tool specifically for that use:

If you encounter any arguments against the use of the common law not mentioned above, then please submit them and your rebuttal to them to us using our Contact Us page so that we may add them to the above document.

6 Government Deception and Psyops Tactics Against Us and Sovereignty Advocates

The following subsections identify the various psychological tools, techniques, and media used by a corrupted government to slander those advancing personal sovereignty. Collectively, these are terrorist tactics because their intended purpose is to radicalize the police and the public to be violent towards and go on the offensive against sovereignty advocates.

6.1 Motivation for False Accusations by the Government Against this Website and Ministry

One of the main goals of this website is to discover and widely disseminate legally admissible evidence of violations of the law by public servants. We police the police because no one else wants to do it. In that sense, this is a whistle-blowing website and religious ministry:

SEDM About Us Page

1. What and Who Are We?

SEDM exists as a:

6. A First Amendment association of political activists (Members only) which seek a return to the rule of law in the United States. We derive the resources we need for such political reforms through the donations made to this website.

7. A whistleblowing group focused on researching, exposing, publicizing, and punishing government deception and corruption wherever it may be found, and especially in regards to matters relating to law, commerce, and taxation. This is a fundamental requirement of the Bible, which says that:

7.1 "Fearing the Lord" is the essence of our faith. See Deut. 6:13, 24; Deut. 10:20

7.2 To "fear the Lord" is to "hate evil". See Prov. 8:13.

7.3 Hating evil is the way we love and protect our neighbor, in fulfillment of the last six commandments of the Ten Commandments.

7.4 Whistleblowing relating to evil in our government is therefore a protected First Amendment religious practice. Click here (OFFSITE LINK) for details.

"In the First Amendment, the Founding Fathers gave the free press the protection it must have to fulfill its essential role in our democracy. The press [and this religious ministry] was to serve the governed, not the governors. The Government's power to censor the press was abolished so that the press would remain forever free to censure the Government. The press was protected so that it could bare the secrets of government and inform the people. Only a free and unrestrained press can effectively expose deception in government. And paramount among the responsibilities of a free press is the duty to prevent any part of the government from deceiving the people and sending them off to distant lands to die of foreign fevers and foreign shot and shell. In my view, far from deserving condemnation for their courageous reporting, the New York Times, the Washington Post, and other newspapers

1 should be commended for serving the purpose that the Founding Fathers saw so clearly. In revealing
2 the workings of government that led to the Vietnam War, the newspapers nobly did precisely that
3 which the Founders hoped and trusted they would do."
4 New York Times Co. v. United States, [403 U.S. 713 (1970)]

5 We view "evil" as simply the absence of truth. We seek to displace and eliminate evil by enlightening
6 the world with Truth, which God is the embodiment of.

7 "Evil is simply the absence of truth."
8 [M. Scott Peck; The Road Less Traveled]

9 "Sanctify them by Your truth. Your [God's] word is truth."
10 [John 17:17, Bible, NKJV]

11 "The entirety of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever."
12 [Psalm 119:160, Bible, NKJV]

13 "Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, And Your law is truth."
14 [Psalm 119:142, Bible, NKJV]

15 [SEDM About Us Page, Section 1: What and Who are We?; SOURCE:
16 <http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm>]

17 The main motivation behind all of the false allegations of the government toward either this website or its members is a desire
18 to discredit the message by discrediting and persecuting the messenger(s). This is the same thing that the Romans, Pharisees
19 (lawyers), and Sadducees (religious leaders) did to Jesus in His time, so the story hasn't changed.

20 The World's Hatred

21 "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would 22 love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
23 Remember the word that I said to you, 'A [public] servant is not greater than his [Sovereign citizen] master.' If 24 they persecuted Me [Jesus], they will also persecute you [believers]. If they kept My [God's] word, they will keep 25 yours [the Constitution] also. But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not
26 know Him who sent Me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no
27 excuse for their sin. He who hates Me hates My Father also. If I had not done among them the works which 28 no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father. But
29 this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'
30 [John 15:18-25, Bible, NKJV]

31 Those public servants whose evil and unlawful deeds are exposed by this website and ministry seek to shoot the messenger 32 by:

- 33 1. Falsely trying to connect us with a commercial motive, because commerce is the main thing they have jurisdiction over.
34 Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001:
 - 35 1.1. Forbids our materials are from being used for a commercial or factual or actionable purpose or as a "tax shelter".
 - 36 1.2. Forbids those who are subject to the I.R.C. as "taxpayers" from using our materials or joining our ministry.
 - 37 1.3. Requires that our materials may only be used for law enforcement and worship purposes.
- 38 2. Trying to make our message or speech appear as though it is both factual and false. Our Member Agreement, Form 39 #01.001 identifies all speech on our website as simply a belief and opinion that is not factual and not actionable, and not 40 admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding.
- 41 3. Making us appear as though we are advocating illegal or unlawful activity. Instead, our materials are prohibited by our 42 Member Agreement, Form #01.001 from being used for an unlawful or illegal purpose.
- 43 4. Making us appear as though we are against the government or anti-government. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 44 forbids those who are anti-government from joining our ministry.
- 45 5. Making us appear as though we are giving legal advice to people upon which they are relying and being hurt by. Our 46 Member Agreement, Form #01.001 forbids giving legal advice or relying on anything but what the law actually says,
47 thus making it impossible for anyone to ever be hurt by anything we say or publish.

48 So long as the government can continue to make false and fraudulent accusations about us and so long as they can divert all 49 litigation so that we are always on the defensive, then they:

1. Can divert public attention away from massive evidence of their own wrongdoing.
2. Protect unlawful enforcement activity.
3. Can continue to engage in a criminal conspiracy to obstruct justice.
4. Avoid having to prosecute their own employees for violations of the Internal Revenue Code and Criminal Code.
5. Avoid getting any precedents into the court system that would stop their unlawful enforcement activities.
6. Never have to explain or justify why the evidence of their wrongdoing on our website is wrong or what they are going to do to reform themselves.

In short, all the subterfuge and verbal abuse are what bullies and tyrants do so they don't have to face or prosecute or remedy their own sin. They are in denial, and the best way to deny is to slander your opponent and "shoot the messenger" so they stay on the defensive and can't present or prosecute their side of the story. In sports, this tactic is summarized with the following proverb:

"The best defense is a good offense."

The hypocrisy inherent in their approach is that one of the main reasons for posting the materials on the website is so that they can be widely reviewed, critiqued, and improved. Yet the government hypocritically, illegally, and unlawfully:

1. Refuses to provide us any evidence upon which to base a good faith belief that would justify why the materials may be inconsistent with reality or in need of correction.
2. Has tried to enjoin publication of the materials and interfere with comments being received that could or would improve them.
3. Refuses to identify specifically what is currently inconsistent with the law (but not "false") on our website despite repeated invitations during litigation against one of our members and during continued use of our materials by our members.
4. Refuses to recognize that this is a religious ministry and that nothing it publishes is factual or actionable, but rather constitutes a belief and opinion that is not enjoinable. Instead, they have maliciously attempted to destroy religious property by subjecting either us or our members to the needless peril of protracted and expensive malicious prosecution as a way to punish us for our beliefs and implement the equivalent of a "thought crime".

"...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . . ."
 [Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

40 6.4 Are the FBI and Congress Politicizing Terrorism Intelligence?⁵

41 American Civil Liberties Union (A.C.L.U.), Laura W. Murphy, Director, ACLU Washington Legislative Office & Mike
 42 German, Senior Policy Counsel, ACLU Washington Legislative Office, January 24, 2013

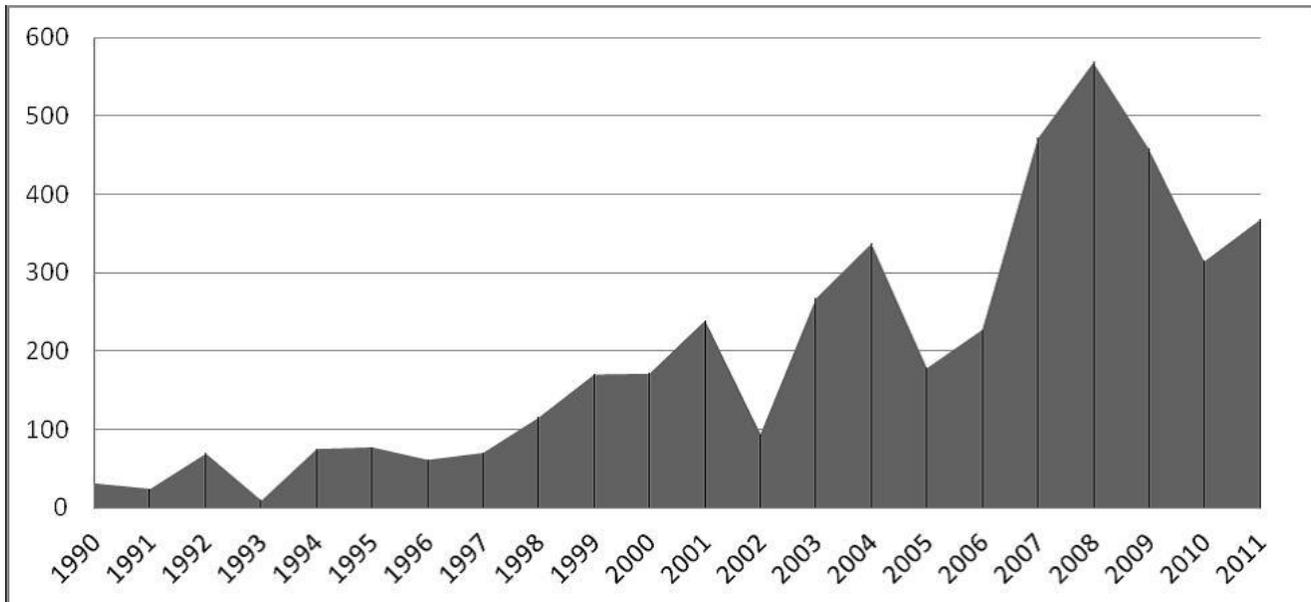

43 _____

44 Since 1990, 670 people have been killed and 3,053 injured in attacks by far-right extremists in the United States, according 45 to a new study by the Combating Terrorism Center (CTC) at West Point. Perhaps more frightening, the CTC says its data

⁵ Source: American Civil Liberties Union (A.C.L.U.), Laura W. Murphy, Director, ACLU Washington Legislative Office & Mike German, Senior Policy Counsel, ACLU Washington Legislative Office, January 24, 2013; <https://www.aclu.org/blog/are-fbi-and-congress-politicizing-terrorism-intelligence>.

1 shows the number of violent attacks has increased precipitously since the late 1990s, and especially since 2006. The report
2 has generated a predictable (and frankly deserved) backlash against it, highlighting the difficulty government agencies have 3 had in analyzing politically-motivated violence in an objective manner.

4 Figure 1 Attacks Initiated by Far-Right Groups/Individuals per Year

5
6 The CTC report is extremely valuable in that it highlights the relatively high level of violence coming from far-right extremists
7 that the FBI and certain members of Congress have failed to acknowledge, and even downplayed in comparison to threats
8 from other groups. In 2010, for instance, the FBI issued an intelligence report suggesting white supremacist violence dropped
9 from 2007 to 2009, when the CTC shows a sharp increase in attacks from the far right over that time. And from 2001 through
10 2008 the FBI called environmental terrorists the number one domestic threat, even though attacks from such groups resulted
11 in no deaths over this period. An FBI report on terrorism from 2002 to 2005 shows relatively few instances of right-wing
12 violence, whereas the CTC report suggests there were hundreds of attacks the FBI apparently ignored.

13 The CTC includes acts of vandalism within its dataset, which may not be appropriately considered “terrorism” and might
14 artificially inflate the number of “attacks,” but the FBI included acts of vandalism from environmental groups in its terrorism
15 report, so it should have captured these far-right incidents as well. The CTC report also makes clear that Rep. Peter King’s
16 House Homeland Security Committee erred in holding a series of hearings questioning the loyalty of the Muslim-American
17 community, and ignoring requests to take a broader look at other groups that posed significant security threats. The CTC
18 report’s higher homicide rate for far-right extremists aligns much closer to recent academic studies and think-tank reports
19 than to previous government reports on the issue.

20 It is extremely troubling that more than 10 years after 9/11, almost 20 years since Oklahoma City, and despite millions
21 of dollars and multiple reorganizations designed to turn it into an intelligence-driven agency, the FBI is still not
22 properly tracking and analyzing acts of extremist violence against Americans. The only other possible explanation is
23 worse: that both the FBI and Congress are intentionally obfuscating the nature of these threats and injecting politics
24 into what should be a rigorously objective analysis. This Washington Times quote from an unnamed Republican
25 congressional staffer seems to support this conclusion:

26 “Shouldn’t the Combating Terrorism Center be combating radical Islam around the globe instead of perpetuating
27 the left’s myth that right-wingers are terrorists?” the staffer said. “The $64,000 dollar question is when will the 28 Combating Terrorism Center publish their study on real left-wing terrorists like the Animal Liberation Front, Earth
29 Liberation Front, and the Weather Underground?”

30 Of course while several property crimes have been attributed to the Animal Liberation Front and the Earth Liberation Front,
31 neither group ever killed anyone, and the Weather Underground hasn’t existed for at least thirty years, which only
32 highlights the problem with politicizing intelligence matters. Violent acts should not be viewed through a political lens.

1 Terrorism is too serious a concern to Americans to allow one's political viewpoint to obscure a clear analysis of all
2 deadly threats to Americans. Politics simply has no place in intelligence analysis.

3 There are some serious problems with the CTC report, however, particularly its lengthy discussion of the ideologies of a
4 multitude of far-right groups and its acceptance of the concept of "radicalization." Its overbroad description of these
5 ideologies, theologies and political movements on the far right sweep in many non-violent groups and individuals into
6 the discussion and unfairly link them to criminal activity. For instance, the report's description of what it calls the 7 anti-federalist movement contains this description:

8 They also espouse strong convictions regarding the federal government, believing it to be corrupt and tyrannical,
9 with a natural tendency to intrude on individuals' civil and constitutional rights. Finally, they support civil 10 activism, individual freedoms, and self government.

11 Many Americans share these beliefs, so it is hard to call them "extreme."

12 By spending so much time examining the far-right ideologies, theologies and political movements, rather than 13 analyzing the specific criminal acts and those who commit them, the report tends to give the mistaken impression that
14 people holding such opinions, or associating with those that do, are more prone to violence. Empirical studies of actual
15 terrorists reveal no such direct link between ideas and violent actions. The truth is many Americans hold views that 16 others might consider extreme, including those discussed in the report, but only a miniscule percentage of those
17 holding extreme views engage in violent acts. Besides, the number of attacks the CTC attributes to the far right over 18 more than 20 years, while high in comparison to other groups, is a tiny percentage of the 1.2 million violent crimes
19 committed in the US on an annual basis, including more than 14,000 homicides each year.

20 Law enforcement officials reading the CTC report might get the idea that they need to investigate the groups it
21 mentions or others that express similar beliefs, even without any specific evidence or reasonable suspicion they are
22 doing anything wrong, just as they have in implementing extraordinary surveillance measures in Muslim-American
23 communities. This result would be a mistake that would only further misdirect security resources. The First
24 Amendment protects our right to hold whatever religious or political views we choose, to associate with others who
25 hold similar views and to petition the government to address our grievances. Unwarranted surveillance of these
26 activities chills the free exercise of these rights, regardless of the political viewpoints held. The CTC, FBI and Congress
27 should avoid characterizing the political or religious views of the various groups they consider extreme, and should
28 instead focus on investigating criminal acts in an apolitical and objective manner.

29 Hopefully, the CTC report will cause the FBI to re-examine its intelligence priorities to focus on real threats, and scale back
30 invasive surveillance and investigative measures taken against Muslim-American communities, environmental activists
31 and others where there is no reasonable evidence of wrongdoing. The worst possible response would be for the FBI to broaden
32 the number and types of groups it targets with its growing surveillance powers, which will only violate more Americans' 33 rights.

34 6.5 The REAL "anarchists" are a corrupted government, and not us

35 The source of law in any society is the god of that society:

36 Law is in every culture religious in origin. Because law governs man and society, because it establishes and
37 declares the meaning of justice and righteousness, law is inescapably religious, in that it establishes in practical
38 fashion the ultimate concerns of a culture. Accordingly, a fundamental and necessary premise in any and every 39 study of law must be, first, a recognition of this religious nature of law. Second, it must be recognized that in any
40 culture the source of law is the god of that society. If law has its source in man's reason, then reason is the god
41 of that society. If the source is an oligarchy, or in a court, senate, or ruler, then that source is the god of that 42 system.

43 [The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas John Rushdoony, 1973, The Craig Press, Library of Congress Catalog
44 Card Number 72-79485, p. 4]

45 The only legitimate and de jure source of law is God Himself. Anything else is anarchy and humanism.

46 Law therefore is, when it is true law, not only power but also righteousness. It is therefore a "terror" to evil-doers
47 but the security and "praise" of the godly citizenry (Rom. 13:2-5). Because true law has its roots in the sovereign
48 God, the very nature of all being works to uphold it. As Deborah sang, "They fought from heaven, The stars in 49 their courses fought against Sisera" (Judges 5:20). The law is either righteous, or it is anti-law masquerading as 50 law. Modern legal positivism, Marxism, and other legal philosophies are thus exponents of anti-law, in that

1 they deny law as an approximation of ultimate order and truth and recognize only a humanistic doctrine of
2 law. If law is severed from righteousness and truth, it leads on the one hand to the anarchy of a lawless and
3 meaningless world, or, on the other, to the totalitarianism of an elite group which imposes its relative "truth"
4 on other men by sheer and unprincipled coercion.

5 But law is required to be a ministry of justice under God, and the civil officer "a minister of God" (Rom. 13:5-
6 6). This concept of the law as a ministry of justice is all but forgotten today, and, where remembered, it is derided.
7 But it is all the same the only possible foundation for a just and prosperous social order. The law as a ministry
8 lacks the arrogance of positivist legal theorists, who see no law or truth beyond themselves. Ministerial law is
9 law under God: it is required to have a humility which positivist law cannot have. The champions of legal
10 positivism are prone to accuse Christians of pride, but the world has never seen more ruthless arrogance and 11 pride than that manifested by the relativists, whether of ancient Greece, the Renaissance, or of the twentieth 12 century.

13 Another aspect of law is implicit in St. Paul's statement in Romans 13:1-6: the law is always discriminatory. It is 14 impossible to escape or evade this aspect of law. If the law fulfils its function, to establish justice and to protect 15 godly, law-abiding men, then the law must discriminate against law-breakers and rigorously seek their judgment.
16 The law cannot favor equality without ceasing to be law: at all times, the law defines, in any and every society,
17 those who constitute the legitimate and the illegitimate members of society. The fact of law introduces a
18 fundamental and basic inequality in society. The abolition of law will not eliminate inequality, because then the 19 very fact of sheer survival will create an elite and establish a fundamental inequality.

21 Card Number 72-79485, p. 60]

22 Law cannot exist separate and apart from religious teaching because no society has yet devised a way to teach morality
23 separate from that of religion in schools. The humanistic basis of the present law system leads inevitably to anarchy:

24 Sir Patrick Devlin has pointed to the dilemma of the law today:

25 I think it is clear that the criminal law as we know it is based upon moral principle. In a
26 number of crimes its function is simply to enforce a moral principle and nothing else. The 27 law, both criminal and civil, claims to be able to speak about morality and immorality
28 generally. Where does it get its authority to do this and how does it settle the moral 29 principles which it enforces? Undoubtedly, as a matter of history, it derives both from 30 Christian teaching. But I think that the strict logician is right when he says that the law
31 can no longer rely on doctrines in which citizens are entitled to disbelieve. It is necessary
32 *therefore to look for some other source.'*⁶

33 The legal crisis is due to the fact that the law of Western civilization has been Christian law, but its faith is 34 increasingly humanism. The old law is therefore neither understood, nor obeyed, nor enforced. But the new 35 "law" simply makes every man his own law and increasingly leads to anarchy and totalitarianism. The law,
36 says Devlin, cannot function "in matters of morality about which the community as a whole is not deeply imbued
37 with a sense of sin; the law sags under a weight which it is not constructed to bear and may become permanently
38 warped." Moreover, a man who concedes that morality is necessary to society must support the use of those 39 instruments without which morality cannot be maintained. The two instruments are those of teaching, which 40 is doctrine, and of enforcement, which is the law. If morals could be taught simply on the basis that they are 41 necessary to society, there would be no social need for religion; it could be left as a purely personal affair. But 42 morality cannot be taught in that way. Loyalty is not taught in that way either. No society has yet solved the 43 problem of how to teach morality without religion. So the law must base itself on Christian morals and to the 44 limit of its ability enforce them, not simply because they are the morals of most of us, nor simply because they 45 are the morals which are taught by the established Church-on these points the law recognizes the right to 46 dissent-but for the compelling reason that without the help of Christian teaching the law will fail."

47 In short, the laws of a society cannot raise a people above the level of the faith and morality of the people and 48 of the society. A people cannot legislate itself above its level. If it holds to Christian faith in truth and in deed, 49 it can establish and maintain godly law and order.

50 If its faith be humanistic, the people will be traitors to any law-order which does not condone their self-
51 assertion and their irresponsibility.

53 Card Number 72-79485, pp. 67-68]

⁶ Sir Patrick Devlin, The Enforcement of Morals, Maccabean Lecture in Jurisprudence of the British Academy, 1959 (London: Oxford University Press, 1959, 1962), p. 9.

1 The purpose of humanism and collectivism is the worship of the individual as source of law. That humanistic and
2 collectivist law acts as a substitute for God's law and therefore promotes idolatry and anarchy. It promotes anarchy because
3 when every man is a law unto himself or a source of law, there is nothing fixed or unchanging to base the laws of the society
4 on. The whims of a society constantly change.

5 *"To the modern mind, treason to the state is logically punishable by death, but not treason to God. But no law-
6 order can survive if it does not defend its core faith by rigorous sanctions. The law-order of humanism leads 7 only to anarchy. Lacking absolutes, a humanistic law-order tolerates everything which denies absolutes while
8 warring against Biblical faith. The only law of humanism is ultimately this, that there is no law except self-
9 assertion. It is "Do what thou wilt.""*

11 Card Number 72-79485, p. 66]*

12 In fact, the phrase "do what thou wilt" is the basis of modern SATANISM. Anyone that advocates that humans instead of 13 God are the proper source of law is not only advocating anarchy, but is also practicing Satanism as a religion. Since the First
14 Amendment prohibits the state from creating or promoting religion, then it cannot permit such an approach to law or 15 legislation:

16 *"The Thelemic pantheon includes a number of deities focusing primarily on a trinity of deities adapted from 17 ancient Egyptian religion, who are the three speakers of The Book of the Law: Nuit, Hadit and Ra-Hoor-Khuit.
18 The religion is founded upon the idea that the 20th century marked the beginning of the Aeon of Horus, in 19 which a new ethical code would be followed; "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law". This statement
20 indicates that adherents, who are known as Thelemites, should seek out and follow their own true path in life,
21 known as their True Will^[5] rather than their egoic desires.^[6] The philosophy also emphasizes the ritual practice
22 of Magick."*

23 [Wikipedia: Thelema, Downloaded 7/25/2013; SOURCE: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Thelema>]

24 The corrupted modern state bases its law system on humanism and collectivism, which is the worship of men and the state
25 rather than the true and only God. Hence, its legal system is relativistic and violates the Ten Commandments, by worshipping
26 false gods OTHER than the true and living God. Such a basis for a law system leads to anarchy, as explained by the following
27 author:

28 *The consequences for law of this fact are total: it means one God, one law. The premise of polytheism is that we
29 live in a multiverse, not a universe, that a variety of law-orders and hence lords exist, and that man cannot
30 therefore be under one law except by virtue of imperialism. Modern legal positivism denies the existence of any
31 absolute; it is hostile, because of its relativism, to the concept of a universe and of a universe of law. Instead,
32 societies of men exist, each with its order of positive law, and each order of law lacks any absolute or universal
33 validity. The law of Buddhist states is seen as valid for Buddhist nations, the law of Islam for Moslem states, the 34 laws of pragmatism for humanistic states, and the laws of Scripture for Christian states, but none, it is held, have 35 the right to claim that their law represents truth in any absolute sense. This, of course, militates against the 36 Biblical declaration that God's order is absolute and absolutely binding on men and nations.*

37 *Even more, because an absolute law is denied, it means that the only universal law possible is an imperialistic
38 law, a law imposed by force and having no validity other than the coercive imposition. Any one world order on 39 such a premise is of necessity imperialistic. Having denied absolute law, it cannot appeal to men to return to the 40 true order from whence man has fallen. A relativistic, pragmatic law has no premise for missionary activity: the 41 "truth" it proclaims is no more valid than the "truth" held by the people it seeks to unite to itself. If it holds, "we 42 are better off one," it cannot justify this statement except by saying, "I hold it to be so," to which the resister can
43 reply, "I hold that we are better off many." Under pragmatic law, it is held that every man is his own law-system,
44 because there is no absolute over-arching law-order. But this means anarchy. Thus, while pragmatism or 45 relativism (or existentialism, positivism, or any other form of this faith) holds to the absolute immunity of the 46 individual implicitly or explicitly, in effect its only argument is the coercion of the individual, because it has
47 no other bridge between man and man. It can speak of love, but there is no ground calling love more valid than 48 hate. Indeed, the Marquis de Sade logically saw no crime in murder; on nominalistic, relativistic grounds, what
49 could be wrong with murder'. If there is no absolute law, then every man is his own law. As the writer of Judges
50 declared, "In those days there was no king in Israel (i.e., the people had rejected God as King); every man did
51 that which was right in his own eyes" (Judges 21:25; d. 17:6; 18:1; 19:1). The law forbids man's self-law: "Ye 52 shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes" (Deut.
53 12:8), and this applies to worship as well as to moral order. The first principle of the Shema Israel is thus one
54 God, one law. It is the declaration of an absolute moral order to which man must conform. If Israel cannot admit
55 another god and another law-order, it cannot recognize any other religion or law-order as valid either for itself
56 or for anyone else. Because God is one, truth is one. Other people will perish in their way, lest they turn and be 57 converted (Ps. 2: 12). The basic coercion is reserved to God.*

58 Because God is one, and truth is one, the one law has an inner coherence. The unity of the Godhead appears in 59 the unity and coherence of the law. Instead of being strata of diverse origins and utility, the law of God is 60 essentially one word, a unified whole.

Dispensationalism is also either evolutionary or polytheistic or both. God changes or alters His ways with man, so that law is administered in one age, and not in another. One age sees salvation by works, another by grace, and so on. But Scripture gives us a contrary assertion: "I am the LORD, I change not" (Mal. 3:6). To attempt to pit law against grace is polytheistic or at least Manichaeian: it assumes two ultimate ways and powers in contradiction to one another. But the word of God is one word, and the law of God is one law, because God is one. The word of God is a law-word, and it is a grace-word: the difference is in men, by virtue of God's election, not in God. The word blesses and it condemns in terms of our response to it. To pray for grace is also to pray for judgment, and it is to affirm the truth and the validity of the law and the justice of the law. The whole doctrine of Christ's atonement upholds the unity of law, judgment, and grace.

[The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas John Rushdoony, 1973, The Craig Press, Library of Congress Catalog Card Number 72-79485, pp. 17-18]

Anarchy is impossible WITHOUT a SINGLE religious basis for law in any society, as Rushdoony explains:

Death is the end of the conflict, and a society in search of a false peace is in search of death. An anthropologist has written:

Conflict is useful. In fact, society is impossible without conflict. But society is worse than impossible without control of conflict. The analogy to sex is relevant again: society is impossible without regulated sexuality: the degree of regulation differs among societies. But total repression leads to extinction; total lack of repression also leads to extinction. Total repression of conflict leads to anarchy just as surely as does total conflict.

We Westerners are afraid of conflict today because we no longer understand it. We see conflict in terms of divorce, rioting, war. And we reject them out of hand. And, when they happen, we have no "substitute institutions" to do the job that should have been done by the institution that failed. In the process-and to our cost-we do not allow ourselves to see that marriage, civil rights, and national states are all institutions built on conflict and its sensible, purposeful control.

... There are basically two forms of conflict resolution: administered rules and fighting. Law and war. Too much of either destroys what it is meant to protect or aggrandize.⁷

Bohannon's position is humanistic and relativistic. As a result, the conflict in a society of his character will tend to anarchy. With every man a law unto himself, with no absolute other than man's will, total conflict and total anarchy will be the only alternative to a totalitarian regime.

The problem of conflict cannot be resolved in any just and orderly manner in a relativistic society. Since every perspective, religion, and philosophy is made legitimate, and all people are made citizens, in effect every possible kind of law, and every possible culture, is admitted to legality. Either a repressive and totalitarian state then suppresses all, or all prevail and anarchy reigns.

6.6 The REAL “radicals” and “radicalizers” is a corrupted de facto government

The central theme of all propaganda about “Sovereign Citizens” is to stereotype them as violent and criminal “radicals” and “radicalizers” with religious motives, not unlike what the de facto government does against violent Muslim Jihadists. In doing so, even the corrupted government itself is unconstitutionally advancing its OWN religion and jihad, as explained in the following video:

Message to the Voting Cattle, Larken Rose
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t5FNDRgPOLs>

This technique of propaganda relies on the following fallacies:

1. Ambiguity or equivocation. They abuse legal “words of art” to:
 - 1.1. Make lawful activities of freedom advocates appear unlawful.
 - 1.2. Make unlawful activities of government appear lawful.
2. Appeal to emotion. They create and exploit fear of Sovereign Citizens as violent criminals so that people will not want to approach them or reason with them. This perpetuates the legal ignorance of the average American that is the foundation of ALL of their corrupt and unjust power.
3. False cause. They don’t mention religion directly, but they associate Christianity with violent activity so that they can portray it as the CAUSE of the illegal activity. This undermines and persecutes a specific religion, violates the First Amendment, and trains the public to be IRRATIONAL and therefore RADICAL AGAINST Christianity itself. Attacking a specific religion indirectly in this way or having non-governmental personnel subsidized indirectly by the government do the attacking helps them avoid violating the First Amendment.

Below is a definition of “radical”:

rad·i·cal

[rad-i-kuhl] Show IPA

adjective

1. of or going to the root or origin; fundamental: a radical difference.
2. thoroughgoing or extreme, especially as regards change from accepted or traditional forms: a radical change in the policy of a company.
3. favoring drastic political, economic, or social reforms: radical ideas; radical and anarchistic ideologues.
4. forming a basis or foundation.
5. existing inherently in a thing or person: radical defects of character.

noun

9. a person who holds or follows strong convictions or extreme principles; extremist.
10. a person who advocates fundamental political, economic, and social reforms by direct and often uncompromising methods.
11. Mathematics .
 - a. a quantity expressed as a root of another quantity.
 - b. the set of elements of a ring, some power of which is contained in a given ideal.
 - c. radical sign.
12. Chemistry .

1 a. group (def 3).

2 b. free radical.

3 13. Grammar , root (def 11) .

4 [Dictionary.com: "radical"; Downloaded 5/5/2013; SOURCE:
5 <http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/radical?s=t>]

6 In psychological terms, a "radical" is therefore someone who:

- 7 1. Is dogmatic about a specific subject that is important to them.
- 8 2. Tries to spread their dogmatism to others. They do this in order to expand their power and influence and the size of 9 their group. This is done mainly through propaganda, seminars, and websites targeted to lonely or isolated individuals 10 who flock to large groups to increase their self-esteem.
- 11 3. Lacks empathy. They don't care what others think about their beliefs. In a criminal court, these people are called 12 "sociopaths" or "psychopaths".
- 13 4. Is often authoritarian, not unlike most religious cult leaders.
- 14 5. Is overly emotional, irrational, or unreasonable about a specific subject. In other words, they:
15 5.1. Refuse to listen to legal evidence that disproves their belief or theory about the thing they are passionate about. . .
16 .OR
17 5.2. Either don't know or don't want to know what legal evidence is, so they can continue to operate at an emotional 18 rather than rational level.
- 19 6. Refuses to listen to alternative arguments about a specific subject. This refusal to listen is often motivated by 20 selfishness, excessive personal pride, or ego as a way to look down on or control others.
- 21 7. Is sometimes willing to become violent or violate the law to advance their specific cause. Some even allow themselves
22 or a member of their dogmatic group to become a martyr in order to defend their beliefs or advance a specific subject
23 that is important to them.

24 We allege that the REAL "radicals" are those in government and that THEY are the ones who REALLY satisfy all the above
25 characteristics:

- 26 1. They are dogmatic. Judges or government prosecutors hearing cases about government corruption or involving their 27 own corruption react very strongly against Sovereignty Advocates through "selectively enforcement" against them.
28 Tim Turner, for instance, could get up to 164 years in jail for alleged crimes that pale in comparison to those in 29 government he was attempting to expose.
- 30 2. They try to spread their dogmatism to others. This is done through:
31 2.1. Unconstitutionally and illegally PRESUMING that people before them are public officers called "citizens",
32 "residents", "taxpayers", "drivers". See:
33

34 2.2. Kidnapping the legal identities of people outside their legislative jurisdiction by abusing "words of art" and 35 presumption in order to subjugate and enslave them to join their cult of government. See section 5.4 earlier.
36 2.3. Bribes called "benefits" paid for with STOLEN money.
37 2.4. Telling juries receiving socialist "benefits" that their tax bill will go up and thus that they will be financially
38 punished if they refuse to side with the government on a tax issue against a NONTAXPAYER and 39 NONRESIDENT. This is a criminal conflict of interest in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208 and it disqualifies every 40 jurist who hears this argument.
41 2.5. Fear generated through "false flag" operations such as 911.
- 42 3. They lack empathy. They show no mercy towards their detractors and refuse to recognize the criminal, violent, and 43 discriminatory nature of ONLY defending their own crimes and not protecting the public generally. In fact, they have 44 made "political prisoners" out of many freedom advocates who point out violations of the constitution or the law by 45 government actors. Judges who do this are sociopaths and psychopaths.
- 46 4. They are often authoritarian, not unlike most religious cult leaders. For instance:
47 4.1. When Obamacare was enacted, it included penalties in the hundreds of thousands of dollars against those who 48 refuse to provide healthcare to their workers.
49 4.2. The IRS threatens people with $5,000 fines if they don't like how you prepared a tax return that you can't lawfully file to begin with because you are not a public officer serving in the government. It's called a "frivolous return” and yet even the IRS refuses to take responsibility for their OWN legal definition of “frivolous” by refusing to publish such information verified under penalty of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065. They even have the gall to tell the public that you cannot trust ANYTHING they say or publish, INCLUDING information about what “frivolous” means!

5. They are overly emotional, irrational, or unreasonable about their cause. Judges and government prosecutors defending their own criminal activities:
 - 5.1. Exclude evidence from being heard by a jury. This is called a motion in limine.
 - 5.2. Falsely claim that there is no dispute about the facts of the case so that the jury can be excluded so they can proceed to destroy their detractors unconstrained by a jury using a summary judgment.
 - 5.3. Call their detractors “frivolous” and yet do not present any legal evidence PROVING their detractors are incorrect. This causes the court to unconstitutionally act in a POLITICAL rather than LEGAL capacity, thus violating the separation of powers.
6. They refuse to listen to alternative arguments about their cause. For instance, they:
 - 6.1. Dismiss cases against the government for “failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted”, even though this is NOT the case. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6).
 - 6.2. Refuse to respond to especially incriminating arguments that would cause them to lose and yet ALSO refuse to enforce Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6), which would FORCE them to lose because they fail to deny a particularly strong argument.
7. They sometimes are willing to become violent or violate the law to advance their specific cause. For instance, they:
 - 7.1. Send entire armies overseas on false pretenses that there are “weapons of mass destruction” in order to make an invasion of a sovereign and equal other country that refuses to participate in their fraudulent fiat currency international counterfeiting enterprise. They did this in Iraq, Libya, etc. See:

The Money Scam, Form #05.041
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 - 7.2. Illegally administer penalties against people who refuse to commit fraud on government forms called “tax returns”, and even sentence these people to jail. See:

Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 - 7.3. Fraudulently tell people outside their legislative jurisdiction that they have an obligation to “register” for a draft that doesn’t apply to them. This is how they recruit new “cult” members who participate in “human sacrifices” to the pagan god called “government”. Innocent parties are thus illegally recruited to become “martyrs” whether they want to be or not. They are put in jail if they refuse to “volunteer” under such circumstances. See:

Lawfully Avoiding the Military Draft, Form #09.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 - 7.4. They engage in “stick-ups” of innocent people traveling privately on the public roadways, steal their car, and put them in jail for refusing to make application to join the religious cult and thereby become a privileged “resident” and public officer within the government. See:

Sovereignty for Police Officers Course, Form #12.022
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We have written an entire book documenting the false and unconstitutional religious cult they have created using the above tactics, which we encourage you to read:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016

All of the above tactics of “radicalization” of the public about their socialist, pagan government worshipping agenda are crimes cognizable under:

For short but entertaining movies on how these “radical terrorists” fraudulently called “government” operate, see:

6.7 The REAL “terrorists” are the ones accusing others of being “Sovereign Citizens”

Imagine being accused of being something that can’t even be and ISN’T legally defined. People like J.J. Macnab, a so-called expert on “Sovereign Citizens” admits that there isn’t even a DEFINITION for what a “Sovereign Citizen” is:

Perhaps the most difficult hurdle for law enforcement is dealing with stereotypes. The first generation sovereign movement (from 1970 to 1995) was comprised mostly of middle-aged, high-school educated, white men with some military background, and hard-right, often racist values, located mostly in rural communities west of the Mississippi. Today, the second sovereign wave (1999 to present) can include anybody: black, white, rural, urban, Asian, Hispanic, young, old, armed, unarmed, male, female, conservative, liberal, semi-literate, college-educated, from any walk of life. For example, dentists, chiropractors, and even police officers all seem drawn to the movement in recent years.

Sovereigns are also difficult to identify because there is no membership group for them to join, no charismatic leader, no organization name, no master list of adherents, and no consistency in the schemes they promote and buy into. There are hundreds of sovereign legal theories being peddled in seminars, in books, and on the Internet, and many of these theories contradict each other.
SOURCE: <http://www.forbes.com/sites/jjmacnab/2012/02/13/what-is-a-sovereign-citizen/>]

So in other words, in a whole long article about WHAT a “Sovereign Citizen” is, there is NO consistent legal definition, and hence, no way for a judge or a jury to objectively identify a SPECIFIC person as a “Sovereign Citizen”. Therefore, the act of simply calling someone a “Sovereign Citizen” is:

1. A POLITICAL and not LEGAL accusation.
2. POLITICAL speech that no judge or jury can rule on or enter into evidence, as indicated by Federal Rule of Evidence 610.
3. A violation of due process if the determination is left to a judge or jury.
4. A violation of the separation of powers doctrine if ruled on by a court, since true constitutional courts cannot lawfully entertain “political questions”.
5. Proof that the judge is not acting as a judge, but in a private capacity if he hears a matter involving whether someone is a “Sovereign Citizen”, because he can’t entertain “political questions”.
6. HATE speech that discriminates against a specific group, by associating them with violent, criminal, or unlawful activities?
7. An act of terrorism against the selected group, because it radicalizes POLICE to be heavy-handed, violent, and reactive against the group.
8. An act of defamation that the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) ought to be complaining about.

Labels or stereotypes do no one any good. They are deployed by people engaged in political propoganda as a type of fallacy. That fallacy is called:

1. Straw man. Misrepresenting our arguments to make them easier to attack.
2. False cause. Connecting the label “sovereign citizen” with violent, criminal, or unlawful activities.
3. Ad hominem. Casting doubt on people who raise the sovereignty issue by connecting them with violent, criminal, unlawful, or anti-government activities.
4. Personal incredulity or ambiguity. Saying the arguments of sovereignty advocates are needlessly complex and ought to be avoided because they can’t be understood by the public. This discourages the public from reading sovereignty materials.
5. Appeal to authority. PRESUMING that because SOME courts rule against or especially REFUSE to deal with issues raised by sovereignty advocates, then their arguments must be untrue. On the other hand, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6) says that a failure to deny such arguments INSTEAD constitutes an ADMISSION.

1 6. Composition/division or Texas Sharpshooter. Trying to make the public believe with several examples that all those
2 who raise sovereignty arguments are violent, criminal, and anti-government. They refuse to reconcile their false
3 PRESUMPTIONS about such people with people like us, who don't advocate any of those things.

4 All propaganda relies on the above fallacies and others, which you can read about yourself at:

Thou Shalt Not Commit Logical Fallacies Website
<https://yourlogicalfallacyis.com/>

5 Ultimately, the term “Sovereign Citizen” seems to have been invented as a means of propaganda to wrongfully associate
6 otherwise law abiding Americans with violent or criminal tendencies so that they can be discriminated against, stereotyped,
7 persecuted, and even SHOT by radicalized policemen. This persecution comes mainly as a form of anti-whistleblowing
8 activity, because of the following characteristics of Sovereignty Advocates:

- 9 1. Their insistence that the government has to LEAVE THEM ALONE civilly and only enforce that which they expressly
10 consented to and which is proven with evidence that they consented to. The very purpose of government itself,
11 according to the founding fathers is “justice”, and justice is legally defined as the right to be LEFT ALONE.
- 12 2. Their desire for a law-abiding, accountable government with no more powers than the SOVEREIGN people it is 13 supposed to serve and protect but instead persecutes and STEALS from.
- 14 3. The whistleblowing and law-enforcement activities they engage in.
- 15 4. Their efforts to combat government corruption peacefully and lawfully.

16 Jesus, who was also persecuted the same way as the above for the very same reasons at His inquisition in front of Pilate and 17 by the political elites of His day, said on this subject:

18 The World's Hatred

19 *“If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would 20 love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
21 ²⁰ Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they
22 will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. ²¹ But all these things they will do to you
23 for My name’s sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they
24 would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ He who hates Me hates My Father also. ²⁴ If I had
25 not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also
26 hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵ But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law,
27 ‘They hated Me without a cause.’”
28 [John 15:18-25, Bible, NKJV]*

29 The hate speech fostered by Macnab and presumptuous hateful people like her is directed specifically at a religious group,
30 because the basis for the whistleblowing activities are the moral laws found in the Bible. SHE has to do it and not the 31 government itself, because if the government did it, then they would be violating the First Amendment. However, we believe
32 she is funded by the government, because they know they can't do it themselves. As such, she is engaging in the following
33 crimes:

- 34 1. Hate crimes, 18 U.S.C. §249. Hate crimes include anything that causes violence against a religious group. A 35 policeman with a gun who has been “radicalized” by her hate speech is a perfect candidate for such a crime, for which 36 she is the co-conspirator.
- 37 2. Damage to religious property, 18 U.S.C. §247. The property damaged is the good name and reputation of those who 38 insist on worshipping and serving ONLY their God, and not a pagan political ruler or his presumptuous private law
39 edicts that are DISGUISED to look like public law for everyone in order to STEAL from people.
- 40 3. Solicitation to commit a crime of violence, 18 U.S.C. §373. A policeman radicalized by her propaganda to shoot,
41 arrest, or injure an innocent law-abiding American wrongfully PRESUMED to be a “Sovereign Citizen” would be a
42 victim of such a crime.

43 Not surprisingly, even the word “terrorism” itself has no legal definition, and therefore has the SAME problem as the phrase
44 “Sovereign Citizen”. Wikipedia even admits this:

45 Definition

46 Main article: Definition of terrorism

Stamp of Azerbaijan with "Stop Terrorism!" description

The definition of terrorism has proved controversial. Various legal systems and government agencies use different definitions of terrorism in their national legislation. Moreover, the international community has been slow to formulate a universally agreed, legally binding definition of this crime. These difficulties arise from the fact that the term "terrorism" is politically and emotionally charged.^[21] In this regard, Angus Martyn, briefing the Australian Parliament, stated that

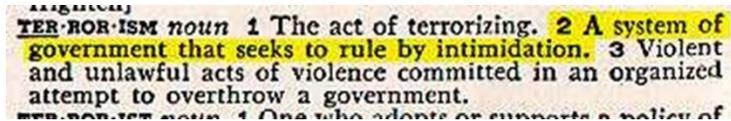

"The international community has never succeeded in developing an accepted comprehensive definition of terrorism. During the 1970s and 1980s, the United Nations attempts to define the term floundered mainly due to differences of opinion between various members about the use of violence in the context of conflicts over national liberation and self-determination."^[1]

These divergences have made it impossible for the United Nations to conclude a Comprehensive Convention on International Terrorism that incorporates a single, all-encompassing, legally binding, criminal law definition terrorism.^[22] The international community has adopted a series of sectoral conventions that define and criminalize various types of terrorist activities.

Imagine a whole new department within the government, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), devoted to fighting a thing that doesn't even have a legal definition. That in itself is terrorism, because if they are the only ones who can subjectively define terrorism and the definition changes with each prosecution, then THEY are the terrorists. Have Americans lost their mind?

Ultimately, however, we know who the REAL terrorists are, which are civil rulers who rule by intimidation and force people into servitude, a commercial relationship, or a civil status they don't want with their abuse of the law.

[Original (pre-Orwellian) Definition of the Word "Terrorism", Funk and Wagnalls New Practical Standard Dictionary (1946)]

And here is another example of the REAL "terrorists":

INDUSTRIAL TERRORISM???

GOVERNMENT TERRORISM?

2 The REAL “terrorists” are those elitists secretly on the government dole like Macnab who radicalize police with propaganda
3 and fallacies, and thus cause the violent, criminal, and unconstitutional persecution of people in the exercise of their religion.
4 In the case of the Christian religion, the Bible requires that Christians are forbidden from worshiping or obeying any civil
5 ruler, civil law, or government that would compete with or supplant God Himself as the ultimate ruler of the universe and 6 source of the moral authority of ALL law:

shall not bow down [below] to them nor serve them [civil rulers]. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6
but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Keep in mind that a “god” in the above can be a civil ruler or government that has more powers, rights, or privileges than the people it is supposed to serve, and thus becomes a God with “supernatural” or “superior” powers to which obedience (worship) is due. In Great Britain to this day, judges are still called “your worship”. That position of superiority is forbidden by the U.S.A. Constitution and is called a “title of nobility”. The “United States” as a legal person is that unconstitutional “title of nobility”. The unconstitutional civil religion that J.J. Macnab in fact worships is GOVERNMENT, which is described in:

1. Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SocialismCivilReligion.pdf>
2. Message to the Voting Cattle, Larken Rose
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t5FNDRgPOLs>

1 The hallmark of a corrupted government is one that offensively rather than defensively engages in “selective enforcement”
2 in order to protect ONLY its own criminal activities, rather than the PRIVATE people it was created to protect and serve.
3 That is what we have now, thanks to people who protect that tendency with terrorist, slanderous, hate speech, and rhetoric
4 directed at innocents by people like J.J. Macnab.

5 6.8 The real agenda is to silence and persecute whistleblowers and obstruct justice, not to 6 protect the public

7 A recent report on terrorism exposes the real agenda of those falsely slandering “sovereign citizens” and radicalizing
8 policemen against them with false propaganda:

Understanding Law Enforcement Intelligence Processes, Report of the Office of University Programs, Science and Technology Directorate, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
https://www.start.umd.edu/pubs/START_UnderstandingLawEnforcementIntelligenceProcesses_July2014.pdf

9 The report concludes that policemen perceive “sovereign citizens” are higher on the perceived threat list than even Muslim
10 extremists! However, on page 11 is the reason for where the fear comes from:

11 “3 Although most organizations group Sovereign Citizens with other right wing groups, they are quite unique.
12 *Sovereigns do not specifically share the supremacist views of the Klan, etc. Their focus is not on individuals
13 (e.g., minorities, Jews, etc.) rather their focus is on government dysfunction and abuse of authority. Their anti-
14 government ideology is arguably more akin to left wing anarchists than right wing Klansmen.”
15 /Understanding Law Enforcement Intelligence Processes, Report of the Office of University Programs, Science
16 and Technology Directorate, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, p. 11
17 SOURCE:
18 https://www.start.umd.edu/pubs/START_UnderstandingLawEnforcementIntelligenceProcesses_July2014.pdf

19 This is evidence that the persecution of “sovereign citizens” and the misinformed radicalization of policemen against them
20 by corrupt politicians is really a form of anti-whistleblowing activity. The corrupted government mafia protection racket is 21 protecting itself from everyone else, as usual. Shouldn’t they be protecting YOU, the READER instead? Isn’t that why we 22 created government in the first place?

23 This kind of admission is a good sign that the reputation of “sovereign citizens” is improving! If we WERE “sovereign
24 citizens”, which we aren’t, we would proudly join the ranks of the vast majority of other law-abiding Americans who at this 25 time are EQUALLY pissed about corruption in the government and especially Washington, D.C. We’re not ashamed to 26 admit that we are NOT anti-government, but anti-corruption and that EVERYONE, and ESPECIALLY the law enforcers and 27 law WRITERS, should obey the Constitution and the laws implemented in furtherance of it. Here is what the opening page
28 of our website says on this issue, in fact, at the bottom:

29 “Humble obedience to the Constitution by public servants is the paramount ‘compelling state interest’.”
30 [SEDM; SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/>]

31 We’ll tell you why “sovereign citizens” are the biggest perceived threat to policemen and government above that of even 32 Muslim extremists:

- 33 1. Because they are whistleblowers against government corruption. See:

Government Corruption, Form #11.401
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 34 2. Because “sovereign citizens” are not against government as legally defined, but against those who PRETEND to be 35 government but refuse to do the ONLY job for which governments are created: Protect PRIVATE rights. Right now,
36 the ONLY thing a corrupted government will protect are PUBLIC rights of PUBLIC officers on official business called 37 “citizens”, “residents”, and “taxpayers”. What about other people like NON-RESIDENT NON-PERSONS under the 38 civil law who only want the protections of the COMMON LAW because the civil law destroys equality between the 39 governed and the governors and makes everything and everyone government property? See:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

40 Exactly how corrupted does a government have to be before it ceases to satisfy the legal definition of “government”
41 within the Declaration of Independence?

- 42 3. Because a corrupted government mafia protection racket only protects itself and to hell with the rest of us.

- 1 4. Because a corrupted government knows that “taxes” are really nothing more than “protection money” to bribe a 2 corrupted government to remove you from the “selective enforcement” and persecution list.
- 3 5. Because “sovereign citizens” are among the few who can disarm and immobilize the most educated policemen without
4 weapons by simply quoting the law and thereby showing the policemen that they aren't enforcing LAW, but policy and
5 franchise agreements disguised to LOOK like law. That is why judges refuse to allow so-called “sovereign citizens” to
6 read the alleged law to a jury that they are enforcing in a courtroom and instead substitute what the judge THINKS or 7 WANTS the law to say or mean. The judge isn't enforcing the law at all, but his own policies. The judge is the 8 lawless and anarchist one when he does this, because he isn't allowed to “MAKE” law and is usurping the Legislative 9 Branch functions in doing so.

10 This report isn't worth the toilet paper it is printed on. It's pseudo-science written by pseudo intellectuals who are recipients
11 of essentially a government welfare check. They ain't never gonna look their gift horse in the mouth or portray the other
12 side....the people slandered and persecuted by their slanderous and false opinions. Why didn't their list of references have 13 links to the other side or to at least the sites they relied on to determine what a "sovereign citizen" is such as to this site?
14 Because these idiots know they couldn't argue their findings with real evidence and science if their life depended on it. If
15 they had provided even one link to our site as an example of “sovereign citizens”, they would have embarrassed their sponsor
16 and invited their own ridicule.

17 A real scientific report would begin with a definition of even the groups they are referring to, example members, and statistics
18 about the groups. It is basically an opinion poll of emotions, and emotions or beliefs have no business in a scientific study.
19 Only FACTS about real objective definitions, real people, real phenomenon, real behavior, and real statistics from unbiased
20 people belong in a real scientific report. We know, we are scientists. Garbage.

21 To date, we have not seen a single precise definition of what a "sovereign citizen" is. The reason they can't define it is because
22 they would have to include their own activities within the definition of terrorism as well. There are only two types of 23 governments: Governments by consent and terrorist governments. It's terrorism to create a label for such a group, refuse to 24 even legally define it, and then use a subjective opinion about who is and is not in the group as a criteria to pick people up
25 and kidnap them to Guantanamo. The government are the REAL terrorists for even taking this approach.

26 They also falsely say that “sovereign citizens” are “more akin to left wing anarchists than right wing Klansmen”. WRONG
27 AGAIN! This is explained in:

Problems with Atheistic Anarchism, Form #08.020

28 6.9 Conclusions

29 Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. The reason for the government's recent hyper-focus on so-called “Sovereign
30 Citizens” is because they are using the same techniques against Sovereignty Advocates that Sovereignty Advocates are using 31 against a corrupted and criminal de facto government mafia. Thank you for validating that you really are using words and 32 laws right out of your own mouth to slander and discredit yourself. Thus:

- 33 1. Emulating our approach only further validates it.
- 34 2. Ignoring us or the compelling FACTS, EVIDENCE, and LAWS we use to prove your criminal activities only validates
35 that we are correct because Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6) makes anything not expressly denied a legally 36 admissible fact.

37 Shooting the messenger only shoots yourself in the foot, because the only thing we rely on to convict you are the words right
38 out of your own mouth and your own nefarious, criminal, and unconstitutional misdeeds. As Thomas Jefferson said, the facts
39 speak for themselves. It is only ERROR and DECEPTION that needs confirmation or the blessing or sanction of a corrupted
40 judge or prosecutor with a criminal financial conflict of interest. That is why the Declaration of Independence begins by 41 using the words “self-evident”.

42 “It is error alone which needs the support of government. Truth can stand by itself.”
43 [Thomas Jefferson]

1 If a corrupted government wants to stop or impede the growth of the sovereignty movement, the only thing they have to do
2 is:

- 3 1. Respect and protect the right to NOT join the government as a “citizen” or “resident”, and thus to NOT be subject to 4 the civil statutory laws. This includes on ALL government forms and within all government agencies at both a
5 LEGAL level and an ADMINISTRATIVE level. Forcing EVERYONE to litigate to have this right respected amounts
6 to an unconstitutional “bill of attainder” by administrative agencies. The right to be LEFT ALONE and therefore to 7 “justice” BEGINS with the protection of this FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT:

8 *"The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
9 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
10 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
11 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the
12 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized
13 men."*

16 Any organization such as a “government” tasked with protecting you that refuses to BEGINS such a relationship by 17 protecting you from its OWN abuses certainly does not deserve to be paid or hired to protect you from anyone ELSE.
18 It is rather more akin to a “protection racket”.

35 A compelled “benefit” is not a “benefit” at all, but THEFT and SLAVERY disguised as government “benevolence”.
36 The CUSTOMER is the only one who can or should decide whether a specific government service is a “benefit”, and 37 the customer called a “citizen” or “resident” is ALWAYS right. If he is NOT right, then we are ALL SLAVES.

- 38 2. Eliminate attorney licensing in all cases in which government or government actors are the defendants so that the 39 conflict of interest by attorneys is eliminated and government corruption can be zealously and FAIRLY prosecuted.
- 40 3. Eliminate sovereign immunity, because the government is EQUAL to the people and should be just as accountable TO 41 the people it serves as the people are accountable to it.
- 42 4. Go back to judges NOT being “Taxpayers” as it was before 1938. See O’Malley v. Woodrough, 307 U.S. 277 (1937).
43 All “taxpayer” judges who hear tax cases have a criminal and financial conflict of interest.
- 44 5. Address the serious factual and legal issues raised in this document. Every judge and prosecutor we have encountered
45 positively REFUSES to address ANY of the issues raised in this document with FACTS and LAW rather than 46 inadmissible political opinion.
- 47 6. Confess and repent of their sins.
- 48 7. Quit offering or enforcing franchises that destroy equality, equal treatment, and the separation of powers.
- 49 8. Quit abusing their enforcement authority to selectively enforce against political dissidents or protect their own criminal 50 mafia enterprise.
- 51 9. Quit playing word games to escape or undermine their oath to protect PRIVATE rights.
- 52 10. Learn, read, teach (in the public schools), and obey the law.
- 53 11. Return to constitutional courts rather than political/franchise courts.
- 54 12. Allow ordinary citizens to prosecute crimes against government workers who are violating the law, because they refuse
55 to police themselves and hypocritically claim to have a monopoly on prosecuting crimes. Honor among thieves in 56 refusing to prosecute such crimes is the main method of protecting their organized crime mafia. The “organizers” of

1 this mafia are the ones writing and enforcing the laws that they refuse to enforce against their own kind. This is
2 covered in:

Government Mafia, Clint Richardson
<https://sedm.org/media/government-mafia/>

- 3 13. Enforce the ONLY purpose of establishing government, which is “justice” equally for ALL. Justice in turn is the right
4 to be LEFT ALONE by EVERYONE, INCLUDING so-called “government”. Thomas Paine said “That government is
5 best which governs LEAST.” A government that LEAVES YOU ALONE civilly and only civilly regulates people
6 who VOLUNTEER HAS to leave you alone as a matter of LAW and not PRIVILEGE.

7 The love of money, which the Bible says is the ROOT of ALL evil, is the only reason they refuse to do any of the above. In 8 their refusal to do the above, they have turned God’s Minister for justice called “government” into a WHORE and the “civic 9 temple of government” into a house of prostitution. That house of prostitution is called “Babylon the Great Harlot” in the 10 Bible book of Revelation.

11 *“For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness,
12 and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.”*

34 luxuriously [upon LOOT stolen from NON-MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNMENT CLUB], in the same measure
35 give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, ‘I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.’
36 Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned
37 with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.*

39 Anyone, and especially members of the government or legal profession called judges or government prosecutors, who doesn’t 40 care about righting the wrongs described herein is what the criminal courts call a “psychopath” or “sociopath” who is every 41 bit as evil as a mass murderer or common criminal they prosecute every day.

42 *“Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You? They gather
43 together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and
44 my God the rock of my refuge. He has brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own
45 wickedness; the Lord our God shall cut them off.”*
46 [Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

47 Here is the message that God Himself has for corrupted members of the legal profession described above:

48 *“For you have trusted in your wickedness; you [the IRS and our wicked government] have said, ‘No one sees
49 me’; your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you; and you have said in your heart. “I am and there is
50 no one else besides me.’ Therefore evil shall come upon you; you shall not know from where it arises [Iraq?

1 Afghanistan? Who knows?]. And trouble shall come upon you; you shall not be able to put it off [war on terrorism
2 will have no end]. And desolation shall come upon you suddenly [9-11-2001 in New York City], which you shall
3 not know. Stand now with your enchantments [New Age philosophy, "people friendly" churches that don't preach
4 doctrine and God's word and have become vanity] and the multitude of your sorceries [drugs], in which you have
5 labored from your youth—perhaps you will be able to profit, perhaps you will prevail. You are wearied in the 6 multitude of your counsels [greedy lawyers and corrupt politicians who we have too many of in this country]; Let
7 now the astrologers, the stargazers [horoscopes, weathermen], and the monthly prognosticators [stock market
8 analysts] stand up and save you from these things that shall come upon you. Behold, they shall be as stubble,
9 they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; it shall not be a coal to be warmed by, nor a fire
10 to sit before! Thus shall they be to you with whom you have labored, your merchants from your youth; they shall 11 wander each one to his quarter. No one shall save you."

14 A Psalm of Asaph.

15 God stands in the assembly [of the representatives] of God; in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives 16 judgment [as] among the gods.

17 How long will you [magistrates or judges] judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah [pause, and 18 calmly think of that]!

19 Do justice to the weak (poor) and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and needy.

20 Deliver the poor and needy; rescue them out of the hand of the wicked.

21 [The magistrates and judges] know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in the darkness [of complacent
22 satisfaction]; all the foundations of the earth [the fundamental principles upon which rests the administration of 23 justice] are shaking.

24 I said, You are gods [since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives]; indeed, all of you are children of the 25 Most High.

26 But you shall die as men and fall as one of the princes.

27 Arise, O God, judge the earth! For to You belong all the nations.
28 [Psalm 82:1-8, Bible, Amplified Bible]

29
30 The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

31 Why do the nations rage,
32 And the people plot a vain thing?
33 The kings of the earth set themselves,
34 And the rulers take counsel together,
35 Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,
36 "Let us break Their bonds in pieces
37 And cast away Their cords from us."

38 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh;
39 The Lord shall hold them in derision.
40 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,
41 And distress them in His deep displeasure:
42 "Yet I have set My King
43 On My holy hill of Zion."

44 "I will declare the decree:
45 The LORD has said to Me,
46 'You are My Son,
47 Today I have begotten You.
48 Ask of Me, and I will give You
49 The nations for Your inheritance,
50 And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
51 You shall break them with a rod of iron;
52 You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.'"

1 Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
2 Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
3 Serve the LORD with fear,
4 And rejoice with trembling.
5 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry,
6 And you perish in the way,
7 When His wrath is kindled but a little.
8 Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.
9 [Psalm 2:1-12, Bible, NKJV]

10 7 Things we ARE NOT and DO NOT believe in

11 7.1 Affiliations

12 A corrupted government just loves to engage in HATE CRIMES against those who insist on an accountable, law-abiding
13 government that has no more rights than the people it serves and is EQUAL in the eyes of the law in relation to them. They
14 do this by using vague and convenient labels and imposing nebulous stereotypes on their opponents to avoid and evade
15 addressing any of the facts supporting their arguments on the record of legal proceedings. Hence, this section lists all of the
16 stereotypes, beliefs, and ideologies which we ARE NOT associated with in order to ensure that the focus stays on the facts
17 underlying our arguments rather than meaningless labels and the FALSE and FRAUDULENT and PRESUMPTIOUS beliefs
18 and prejudice that comprise them:

19 1. We DO NOT believe in any of the following:

- 20 1.1. That we are SUPERIOR in any way to any other human being or INFERIOR in relation to any government in any 21 civil suit. Instead, we claim ALL the same rights as any government. Our government is a government of
22 delegated powers, and the people cannot delegate any authority to any government or public servant that they
23 themselves do not individually ALSO possess as a RIGHT and not a privilege. Since the government claims
24 sovereign immunity, then we also claim it and insist that any government that wants to take us to court to enforce
25 any civil obligation has the burden of showing that we CONSENTED to give it to them IN WRITING. This is
26 the same requirement they insist on with anyone who wants to civilly sue them: One must produce an express
27 statutory waiver of sovereign immunity before they can be sued.
- 28 1.2. That the color of the fringe on a flag has anything to do with the nature of the courtroom that is flying it.
- 29 1.3. That ZIP codes or mailing addresses have anything to do with one's legal domicile or residence. When we write
30 an address:
 - 31 1.3.1. At the end of the address, we register with any third party we write "(not a domicile or residence)".
 - 32 1.3.2. In the Zip code, we write "Near but not in [NNNNN]", where "NNNNN" is the zip code.
- 33 1.4. That there is a secret Treasury direct bank account created using your birth certificate.
- 34 1.5. That just because the government runs a gigantic counterfeiting franchise called the Federal Reserve, that it is 35 lawful or acceptable for citizens to emulate their CRIMINAL and HYPOCRITICAL behavior by:
 - 36 1.5.1. Using promissory notes to counterfeit money.
 - 37 1.5.2. Defrauding creditors.
 - 38 1.5.3. Canceling validly contracted debts.

39 2. We are NOT affiliated with any of the following extremist groups:

- 40 2.1. Tax protesters.
- 41 2.2. Tax deniers.
- 42 2.3. Tax defiers.
- 43 2.4. Statutory "taxpayers" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
- 44 2.5. "Persons" under any act of Congress. Nonresidents CANNOT be "persons".
- 45 2.6. Tea party movement.
- 46 2.7. Anti-semites.
- 47 2.8. Christian identity.
- 48 2.9. Communists.
- 49 2.10. Democratic party.
- 50 2.11. Militia.
- 51 2.12. Montana Freemen.
- 52 2.13. Nazis.
- 53 2.14. Patriots.
- 54 2.15. Skinheads.
- 55 2.16. Socialist party.

- 1 2.17. Sovereigns
- 2 2.18. Sovereign Citizens.
- 3 2.19. Super-patriots.
- 4 2.20. White supremists.
- 5 2.21. Republicans.
- 6 2.22. Super Constitutionalists.
- 7 3. We are NOT affiliated with any of the following extremist ideologies or movements:
- 8 3.1. Common law court movement
- 9 3.2. Anti-government
- 10 3.3. Racism
- 11 3.4. Liberalism

12 As a matter of fact, we discourage "labels" or "stereotypes" of any kind because we think the main motivation for using them
 13 is ARROGANCE, DISCRIMINATION, PREJUDICE, and HATE. God commands us to love our neighbor, not hate him
 14 (Lev. 19:18).

15 If you simply can't resist using some kind of derogatory label to describe us like "frivolous", "stupid", "idiot" or "extremist",
 16 then quite frankly:

- 17 1. You ought to be prosecuted for hate crime and/or terrorism.
- 18 2. You are a mentally ill person who needs Jesus, psychological therapy, and a big attitude adjustment. Bigotry,
 19 supremacy, and inferiority complex are the characteristics of people who must compulsively use labels such as these.

20 Labels also provide a convenient way to be INTELLECTUALLY LAZY because once you label someone, you relieve
 21 yourself from the responsibility to be intellectually honest enough to investigate and rebut their arguments and rationally
 22 show them why they are mistaken.

23 The courts have a name for such bigoted people, and they are called slanderers, terrorists, hate crime perpetrators, stalkers,
 24 and verbal abusers who propagate verbal violence upon their victims, and these people are sentenced to anger management
 25 courses and jail time routinely. Such bigoted people are children of Satan, who is the king of slanderers. See section 2.8.1 of 26 our Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302 for further details on the characteristics of such evil and Satanic people.

27 Consistent with the above, our Member Agreement says the following on this subject of what we are NOT:

28 1.2 Purpose of joining

29 I certify that my motivations and reasons for joining the ministry are spiritual, moral, and legal. I further certify
 30 that my reasons for joining do NOT include any of the following:

- 31 1. I am not pursuing membership for financial, political, or commercial reasons. I do not seek prosperity in
 32 joining this ministry. Jesus did not have commercial motivations and neither do I. Jesus said in Matt. 6:21
 33 and Luke 12:34 that where a man's treasure is, there his heart will be also, and my treasure isn't on this
 34 Earth and isn't found in any government "benefit" or commercial franchise.

35 *"Where do wars and fights [in the ballot box and the jury box] come from among you? Do they not
 36 come from your desires for pleasure [unearned money or "benefits" from the government] that
 37 war in your members and your democratic [SOCIALIST governments]? You lust [after other
 38 people's money] and do not have. You murder [the unborn to increase your standard of living] and
 39 covet [the unearned] and cannot obtain [except by empowering your de facto THIEF government to
 40 STEAL for you!]. You fight and war against the rich and the [nontaxpayers to subsidize your idleness
 41 and dependency with a STOLEN Social Security retirement check]. Yet you do not have because you
 42 do not ask the Lord, but instead ask the [corrupt and deceitful government]. You ask and do not
 43 receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures ["benefits"]. Adulterers and
 44 adulteresses [harlots, Rev. 17]! Do you not know that [friendship \[or STATUTORY citizenship\]](#)
 45 with the world [for the governments of the world] is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to* 46 be a friend [a STATUTORY "citizen", "resident", or "taxpayer"] of the world [for the governments
 47 of the world] makes himself an enemy of God."
 48 [James 4:1-4, Bible, NKJV]

49 *"Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that go down to
 50 the very foundation of the government. If the provisions of the constitution can be set aside by an
 51 act of congress, where is the course of usurpation [abuse of taxation power for THEFT and wealth

transfer] to end? The present assault [WAR!] upon capital [PRIVATE property] is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping-stone to others, larger and more sweeping, till our political contests [in the jury box and the ballot box between the HAVES and the HAVE NOTS] will become a war of the poor against the rich,-a war constantly growing in intensity and bitterness. 'If the court sanctions the power of discriminating [UNEQUAL or GRADUATED] taxation, and nullifies the uniformity mandate of the constitution,' as said by one who has been all his life a student of our institutions, 'it will mark the hour when the sure decadence of our present government will commence.'"

2. I do not seek sovereignty for any of the following reasons:
 - 2.1. As a get out of jail free card. We don't promote or condone sovereignty as an excuse to be free from the criminal laws, for instance. EVERYONE is subject to real, de jure criminal laws and SHOULD be subject.
 - 2.2. As an excuse to be irresponsible for any loans or commitments I previously made. Some people for instance are only interested in sovereignty so they can cancel debts or obligations they previously made. We, on the other hand, believe that one should always honor every commitment or debt they previously consented to, even if their consent at the time was not fully informed.
 - 2.3. As an excuse to engage in violent, harmful, or criminal behavior. We believe that everyone should be accountable and responsible for the harms they cause to others under the concept of equality of all. In a civil context, that accountability is the common law and NOT the civil statutory law.
 - 2.4. As an excuse to reject ALL man-made law and thereby be an anarchist. We think that true sovereignty can only truly exist among a people who:
 - 2.4.1. Are accountable under God's laws at all times.
 - 2.4.2. Cannot pick or choose which subset of God's laws they CONSENT to be accountable under.
 - 2.4.3. Are accountable under the criminal laws of the country they are physically present within, regardless of their civil status or domicile.
 - 2.4.4. Do not surrender their sovereignty by consenting to be civil statutory persons or choosing a civil domicile within the statutory jurisdiction of any government.
 - 2.5. As a justification to call myself a "sovereign citizen" or ANY OTHER name, label, or stereotype the government might use to persecute whistleblowers that insist on an accountable, law abiding government. We are simply crime fighters who seek to enforce the sovereignty delegated to use by the only true sovereign, which is God.
 - 2.6. As a justification to enforce superior rights or importance to myself or inferior rights to anyone else under any law. ALL are equal under REAL law. That which creates or enforces an unequal or inferior status in the eyes of the government is and must at all times be a voluntary franchise that I seek to avoid.

My motives are not commercial, but ANTI-commercial. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as intercourse, and God's delegation of authority order and law forbids me to fornicate or do business with, or contract with, or make or receive payments from any government, ruler, king, or potentate.

"And I heard another voice from heaven [God] saying, 'Come out of her [Babylon the Great Harlot, a democratic, rather than republican, state full of socialist non-believers], my people [Christians], lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.'" [Revelation 18:4, Bible, NKJV]

"By the abundance of your [Satan's] trading [commerce] You became filled with violence within, And you [Satan] sinned; Therefore I [God] cast you [Satan] as a profane thing Out of the mountain of God; And I destroyed you. O covering cherub, From the midst of the fiery stones." [Ezekial 28:16, Bible, NKJV]

Since the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Tim. 6:9-10), then the only thing that commercial motivations can do is bring evil into the ministry and I am joining the ministry to AVOID and prevent evil, not to seek evil.

"For the love of money [and even government "benefits", which are payments] is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." [1 Timothy 6:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

"Getting treasures by a lying tongue is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death." [Prov. 21:6, Bible, NKJV]

7.2 We are NOT “Sovereign Citizens” or any other Convenient Label the Government Uses to Slander People

Below is the warning we put on the Sovereign Immunity Page of our website about the relationship of this ministry to what the government and the corrupted media call “sovereign citizens”.

3. WE ARE NOT "SOVEREIGN CITIZENS" OR ANY OTHER CONVENIENT LABEL THE GOVERNMENT USES TO SLANDER PEOPLE

1. The government is completely unaccountable for telling the truth, even in court at times, and therefore should NEVER be trusted. See:
Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
2. We believe that anyone that trusts any government to either tell them the truth or protect their freedom is a FOOL.

*"The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing, or to trust civil rulers or government to do the right thing."
[SEDM]*

*"Confidence is everywhere the parent of despotism. Free government is founded in jealousy, and not in confidence."
[Thomas Jefferson: Draft, Kentucky Resolutions, 1798; SOURCE:
<http://www.famguardian.org/Subjects/Politics/ThomasJefferson/jeff4.htm>]*

3. We DO NOT claim to be "sovereign citizens". If you want to know what we think of "sovereign citizens", please read:
4. We think that anyone who claims that status or any other convenient label the de facto government uses to maliciously slander, control, or enslave people is a FOOL This includes "taxpayer", "citizen", "resident", "person", "individual", etc. Click here for the reason.
5. We think that those in the de facto government who use the term "sovereign citizens" or any other derogatory term are also MALICIOUS FOOLS because they can't and won't even define their terms and refuse to be accountable for the legal limitations imposed by any and every definition they publish. They are presumptuous fools.

*"Ignorance more frequently begets confidence and [presumptions] than does knowledge."
[Charles Darwin (1809-1882) 1871]*

*"Believing [PRESUMING without checking the facts and evidence] is easier than thinking.
Hence so many more believers than thinkers."
[Bruce Calvert]*

*"What luck for rulers that men do not think"
[Adolf Hitler]*

6. Anyone such as yourself who abuses slander, misinformation, propaganda, or fallacies to radicalize the public against us and bring unwarranted violence or "selective enforcement" against us are the REAL terrorists and threat to the public.
7. By downloading, quoting, or using anything from this site, you automatically become consenting parties to our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Click here for the warning on this subject. We do this because your use of the materials is usually intended to adversely affect their credibility or value or commercial value. Hence, you are using copyrighted materials for a commercial purpose.
8. If you don't like our tactics, then you have the  corrupted de facto government to thank. All we have done is imitate their behavior. They only talk to or help or "protect" those who are privileged franchisees called "taxpayers". We only talk to or help "members" who are party to a covenant with us. God does the same thing in the Bible: He only protects those who are obedient to the covenant between Him and his followers, which in his case is the Bible. 9 False U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) Allegations Against this Religious Ministry

Many of the following rebuttals to DOJ arguments about this website were extracted from the Response to the Motion for Summary Judgment filed in the case of USA v. Hansen, Case No. 05cv00921 in the Federal District Court for the Southern District of California on February 17, 2006, as Dockets 67 through 71. You can read the pleadings of this case at:

Case History of C. Hansen, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/CaseStudies/CHansen/CHansen.htm>

The text of the rebuttals in the following sections that rely on materials filed in the above case is as close as possible to the above. The only changes are the form numbers and links and revised form names to bring them into agreement with the current offerings on the website. Exhibit numbers have also been removed from the original pleading language and replaced with web links so that the documents can be viewed directly.

9.1 Ministry or its members claim to be “sovereign” or “sovereigns”

Here is what our website says on this subject:

1. The SEDM Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, says on this subject:

2. Taxation

2.1 Tax Perspective

As an Ambassador of the one and only Sovereign, who is God, I hereby state that I am formally declaring, to any and all parties interested, the following based upon my understanding of enacted federal law regarding the Subtitle A of the federal income tax:

[SEDM Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 2.1: Tax Perspective; SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Membership/MemberAgreement.htm>]

2. SEDM About Us Page:

*6. We are Princes (sons and daughters) of the only true King and Sovereign of this world, who is God.

*“You [Jesus] are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For You were slain,
And have redeemed us to God by Your blood
Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,
And have made us kings and priests to our God;
And we shall reign on the earth.
[Rev. 5:9-10, Bible, NKJV]*

1
2 And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom
3 do the kings [governments] of the earth [lawfully] take customs or taxes, from their sons [citizens and subjects]
4 or from strangers [statutory "aliens", which are synonymous with "residents" in the tax code, and exclude
5 "citizens"]?""

6 Peter said to Him, "From strangers statutory "aliens"/"residents" ONLY. See [26 C.F.R. §1.1-1\(a\)\(2\)\(ii\) and 7 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(c\)\(3\)]."

8 Jesus said to him, "Then the sons [of the King, Constitutional but not statutory "citizens" of the Republic, who 9 are all sovereign "nationals" and "nonresidents"] are free [sovereign over their own person and labor. e.g.
10 SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY]. "
11 [Matt. 17:24-27, Bible, NKJV]

12 [SEDM About Us Page, Section 1: What and Who are We?; SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm>]

13 3. SEDM Disclaimer page:

14 4. MEANING OF WORDS:

15 4.20 Sovereign

16 The word "sovereign" when referring to humans or governments means all the following:

17 1. A human being and NOT a "government". Only human beings are "sovereign" and only when they are acting
18 in strict obedience to the laws of their religion. All powers of government are delegated from the PEOPLE and 19 are NOT "divine rights". Those powers in turn are only operative when government PREVENTS the conversion
20 of PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights. When that goal is avoided or undermined or when law is used to 21 accomplish involuntary conversion, we cease to have a government and instead end up with a private, de facto
22 for profit corporation that has no sovereign immunity and cannot abuse sovereign immunity to protect its criminal
23 thefts from the people.

24 2. EQUAL in every respect to any and every government or actor in government. All governments are legal 25 "persons" and under our Constitutional system, ALL "persons" are equal and can only become UNEQUAL in 26 relation to each other WITH their EXPRESS and NOT IMPLIED consent. Since our Constitutional rights are 27 unalienable per the Declaration of Independence, then we can't become unequal in relation to any government,
28 INCLUDING through our consent.

29 3. Not superior in any way to any human being within the jurisdiction of the courts of any country.

30 4. Possessing the EQUAL right to acquire rights over others by the same mechanisms as the government uses.
31 For instance, if the government encourages the filing of FALSE information returns that essentially "elect" people
32 into public office without their consent, then we have an EQUAL right to elect any and every government or 33 officer within government into our PERSONAL service as our PERSONAL officer without THEIR consent. See:
34 Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
35 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

36 5. Subject to the criminal laws of the jurisdiction they are physically situated in, just like everyone else. This 37 provision excludes "quasi criminal provisions" within civil franchises, such as tax crimes.

38 6. The origin of all authority delegated to the government per the Declaration of Independence.

39 7. Reserving all rights and delegating NONE to any and every government or government actor. U.C.C. §1-308
40 and its predecessor, U.C.C. §1-207.

41 8. Not consenting to any and every civil franchise offered by any government.

42 9. Possessing the same sovereign immunity as any government. Hence, like the government, any government
43 actor asserting a liability or obligation has the burden of proving on the record of any court proceeding EXPRESS
44 WRITTEN consent to be sued before the obligation becomes enforceable.

45 10. Claiming no civil or franchise status under any statutory franchise, including but not limited to "citizen",
46 "resident", "driver" (under the vehicle code), "spouse" (under the family code), "taxpayer" (under the tax code).
47 Any attempt to associate a statutory status and the public rights it represents against a non-consenting party is 48 THEFT and SLAVERY and INJUSTICE.

1 11. Acting as a fiduciary, agent, and trustee on behalf of God 24 hours a day, seven days a week as an ambassador
2 of a legislatively foreign jurisdiction and as a public officer of "Heaven, Inc.", a private foreign corporation. God
3 is the ONLY "sovereign" and the source of all sovereignty. We must be acting as His agent and fiduciary before
4 we can exercise any sovereignty at all. Any attempt by so-called "government" to interfere with our ability to act
5 as His fiduciaries is a direct interference with our right to contract and the free exercise of religion. See:
6 Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007
7 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8 12. Capable of being civilly sued ONLY under the common law and equity and not under any statutory civil law.
9 All statutory civil laws are law for government and public officers, and NOT for private human beings. They are
10 civil franchises that only acquire the "force of law" with the consent of the subject. See:
11 Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
12 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13 13. Protected from the civil statutory law by the First Amendment requirement for separation of church and state
14 because we Christians are the church and our physical body is the "temple" of the church. See: 1 Cor. 6:19.

15 14. Responsible for all the injuries they cause to every other person under equity and common law ONLY, and 16 not under civil statutory law.

17 The above requirements are a consequence of the fact that the foundation of the United States Constitution is
18 EQUAL protection and EQUAL treatment. Any attempt to undermine equal rights and equal protection described
19 above constitutes:

20 1. The establishment of a state sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment and the Religious Freedom
21 Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B. That religion is described in: Socialism: The New American Civil
22 Religion, Form #05.016. The object of worship of such a religion is imputing "supernatural powers" to civil rulers
23 and forcing everyone to worship and serve said rulers as "superior beings".

24 2. The establishment of an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the
25 United States Constitution.
26 [SEDM Disclaimer, Section 4.20; <http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>]

27 Consequently:

- 28 1. We acknowledge God as the only TRUE sovereign in the universe.
- 29 2. We don't claim to be personally sovereign in any respect.
- 30 3. We can only partake of any degree of sovereignty by obeying God's laws and thereby representing Him as His 31 Trustees under the Bible, which we regard as a Trust Indenture in which the entire Earth is the corpus and He is the 32 Beneficiary.
- 33 4. We regard it as a Christian duty and a religious practice to represent Him 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Any attempt 34 to interfere with the exercise of that duty is:
 - 35 4.1. A direct violation of our right to contract and covenant with our creator under the Bible, which is a trust indenture 36 and protection contract.
 - 37 4.2. The crime of damaging religious property in violation of 18 U.S.C. §247. This is because God owns the WHOLE 38 Earth and our bodies are identified as a "temple" and therefore a church. See Deut. 10:14, 1 Cor. 6:19.
 - 39 4.3. A violation of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B and the First Amendment that it 40 implements.
- 41 5. As representatives and Ambassadors of God, we are entitled to sovereign immunity, NOT because of our own 42 sovereignty, but because of the sovereignty of the Sovereign God that we represent in accordance with:
 - 43 5.1. The First Amendment, which prohibits any government from enacting any law that might interfere with the 44 exercise of religion or even DEFINE what constitutes a religion absent the consent of the subject of said law.
 - 45 5.2. 18 U.S.C. §112.
 - 46 5.3. Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Part IV, Chapter 97.
 - 47 5.4. 26 U.S.C. §892(a)(1).
- 48 6. Our domicile is the Kingdom of Heaven and no place on earth. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) says that the 49 ONLY laws that apply to civil disputes in federal court are the laws from the domicile of the party, which in our case is 50 the Holy Bible that governs the Kingdom of Heaven in which we are domiciled. It is a tort to impose the obligations of 51 ANY other civil domicile than the one we consent to.
- 52 7. We are Princes (sons and daughters) of the only true King and Sovereign of this world, who is God.

53 "You [Jesus] are worthy to take the scroll,

19 Listen to the following message from Pastor Mike Macintosh of Horizon Christian Fellowship given on 5/14/2006 confirming 20 the above.

21 In this message, he mentions that Christians are "aliens" when in fact, what we believe he really means is statutory "[non-
22 resident non-persons](#)" and "foreigners". It shouldn't surprise you to learn that within one year after we posted the recording
23 of Macintosh, the IRS paid him a hostile visit to audit his entire church because they didn't like this message and wanted him
24 to SHUT UP about the biblical relationship between government and the church. Does that sound like "separation of church
25 and state" to you? That's what we call "selective enforcement" for political reasons. Essentially, it's "terrorism" as legally
26 defined because the aim is to produce fear. Call him up and ask him yourself if you don't believe us.

27 Even though he has a degree in law, Macintosh doesn't understand enough about law to know:

28 1. The distinctions between STATUTORY and CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens". See:

Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006, Sections
4 through 5
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

29 2. That you can be a STATUTORY "non-resident non-person" in relation to a place by choosing a domicile AND 30 residence OUTSIDE of that place. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

31 3. That the "resident" used in franchise codes such as the vehicle code or the income tax code is a public office in the 32 government, and NOT the person FILLING said office. See:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 4. That you can be a statutory "nonresident alien" (under the I.R.C.), "foreigner" or "stranger" and a constitutional citizen
34 at the same time. An example of such an entity is a statutory non-citizen "national" per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21)
35 occupying a public office, who is a statutory "nonresident alien" (under the I.R.C.), and a "foreigner" or "transient
36 foreigner" in respect to every subject matter of federal legislation but NOT a statutory "person", or "individual" under 37 federal law. See the following for details on the status of being a "non-resident", a "foreigner", and yet neither a 38 statutory "citizen", "alien", or "individual" in respect to a specific place.

3 Any other status imputed or assumed by the government other than "foreign", "sovereign", and a "stranger" but not
4 constitutional "alien" amounts to "compelled association" in violation of the First Amendment. We must surrender our
5 sovereignty to Him and become His fiduciaries in order to be granted sovereignty over the government and our own affairs
6 because ALL SOVEREIGNTY ultimately comes from Him:

7 "Because you [Solomon, the wisest man who ever lived] have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My

13 "Those people who are not governed by GOD and [His law, both figuratively and literally] will be ruled by 14 tyrants."
15 [William Penn (after which Pennsylvania was named)]

16 *"Let us hear the conclusion of this whole matter: Fear [respect] God and keep His commandments [Laws found

18 whether good or evil."
19 [Eccl. 12:13-14, Bible, NKJV]

20 We wish to emphasize that we DO NOT intend by taking the stance documented in this section to advocate any of the 21 following:

- 22 1. That we are not responsible or should not be responsible for civil injuries that we inflict upon others without their 23 consent.
- 24 2. That we or anyone else physically situated within the territory of a specific government are exempt from equity or the 25 common law.
- 26 3. That we are exempt in any way from de jure criminal laws. EVERYONE physically situated on the territory of the 27 specific jurisdiction is equally subject, regardless of whether they contract with or consent to any government. Instead,
28 we are ONLY exempt from the penal provisions within civil franchises that courts call "quasi-criminal" or "malum
29 prohibitum" provisions because such provisions can only acquire the "force of law" by our consent, and our delegation
30 of authority order as Christians forbids the giving of such consent.
- 31 4. That we can pick and choose what civil statutory laws we want to be subject to. Rather, we claim to not be subject to 32 ANYTHING civil except under the principles of equity of all.
- 33 5. That we can accept or claim the statutory and privileged status of "citizen", "resident", "inhabitant", or "domiciliary"
34 and yet because of our religious beliefs, be statutorily "exempt" from a specific provision we do not like or which 35 conflicts with our religious beliefs. That would be a contradiction.

36 In point of fact, no court that we are aware of has ever held that anyone is NOT allowed because of their religious beliefs to 37 claim the status indicated in this section, or to abandon the social compact and refuse to accept the privileges and immunities
38 associated with STATUTORY "citizen" or "resident" status. All the cases we have identified that even come close to this
39 subject involved litigants who admitted to being statutory "citizens", "residents", or "inhabitants" rather than having the status
40 we associate with ourselves. We claim:

- 41 1. That it is a constitutional tort to interfere with claiming or enforcing the civil status we attribute to ourselves in this 42 section, or to fail to recognize or protect us in this status. A failure to enforce and recognize our civil status amounts to 43 compelled contracting and compelled association, which are both Constitutional torts. See:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 44 2. That even with proper service or an appearance in a civil matter involving civil franchises, these conditions DO NOT
45 make us subject to the civil franchises and that our EXPRESS consent must be given in a form we and not the

1 government specifies in order to become subject. This is the same thing the government does to Americans: Insist on
2 an EXPRESS waiver of sovereign immunity, meaning consent to be sued civilly, and we are entitled to equal
3 protection.

4 Our position on this subject of exercising sovereign powers but not BEING a “sovereign” is COMPLETELY consistent with 5 the way the government itself describes its OWN sovereignty. The courts have consistently and routinely held that:

- 6 1. The PEOPLE as individuals are the only true sovereign, and only when they are acting in their PRIVATE capacity.

7 “There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United States In this
8 country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their
9 Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld.”
10 [Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

11 “In the United States the people are sovereign, and the government cannot sever its relationship to the people
12 by taking away their citizenship. “
13 [Afroyim v. Rusk, 387 U.S. 253 (1967)]

14 “From the differences existing between feudal sovereignties and Government founded on compacts, it necessarily
15 follows that their respective prerogatives must differ. Sovereignty is the right to govern; a nation or State-
16 sovereign is the person or persons in whom that resides. In Europe the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the
17 Prince; here it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the Government; here, never in
18 a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and at most stand in the same relation to their
19 sovereign, in which regents in Europe stand to their sovereigns. Their Princes have personal powers, dignities,
20 and pre-eminences, our rulers have none but official; nor do they partake in the sovereignty otherwise, or in 21 any other capacity, than as private citizens.” at 472.[Justice Wilson]
22 [Chisholm, Ex'r. v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419, 1 L.Ed. 454, 457, 471, 472) (1794)]

- 23 2. The GOVERNMENT exercises SOVEREIGN POWERS but is NOT “Sovereign”. Instead, it is an INSTRUMENT of 24 the True sovereign.

25 “While sovereign powers are delegated to ... the government, sovereignty itself remains with the people.”
26 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), page 370]

- 27 3. The “State” is defined as the PEOPLE, and not either the “Government” or anyone serving in the government.

28 “State. A people [NOT a “government”, but a PEOPLE] permanently occupying a 29 fixed territory bound together by common-law habits and custom into one body politic exercising, through the

43 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1407]

44 We also emphasize that we would never identify ourselves in any court pleading as being a “sovereign”, or using that status
45 as a basis to sue. The reason is obvious, as eloquently described by the Texas Court of Appeals below. The case below dealt 46 with a person who claimed to be a “SOVEREIGN” and refused to identify himself as a Constitutional citizen, which we 47 would NEVER do:

1 The next question is whether Barcroft has the ability to recover in the capacity in which he filed suit. That is the
2 more difficult question. The trial court adjudged that Barcroft could not recover “in the capacity as a
3 “sovereign.”

4 Barcroft's argument is based on cases and constitutional interpretations that stretch back to a period predating
5 the Civil War. Barcroft has attempted to make use of the legal system, while at the same time contending that
6 the legal system, or some portion of it, does not apply to him because he is a “sovereign,” or perhaps “one of the 7 sovereign American People” or a “sovereign citizen.” Regardless of how described, his basic position is that
8 there is more than one level of citizenship within the United States and that he is of one particular level which 9 has, in some manner, rights that an individual at a different level of citizenship does not.

10 His argument is based on language found in Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393, 403, 19 How. 393, 15 L.Ed.
11 691 (1856). In relevant part, that opinion addressed the issue of whether a “negro” who was a slave could 12 become a member of the political community formed and brought into existence by the Constitution of the United
13 States, and as such become entitled to all the rights, and privileges, and immunities, guaranteed [sic] by that 14 instrument to the citizen? One of these rights is the privilege of suing in a court of the United States in the cases
15 specified in the Constitution.

16 The Court stated that “citizens” and “people of the United States” were synonymous terms, that those people
17 were the “sovereign people,” and that every citizen is one of these people and a constituent member of this
18 “sovereignty.” The Court then engaged in an extensive historical discussion of prior law and the documents
19 that form the basis of the United States, and acknowledged that “negroes” historically were not considered as 20 citizens-but as property-and therefore the protections of the Constitution could not apply to allow them to exercise
21 the right of a citizen to file suit. The Court had to engage in some rather nimble writing to avoid the apparent
22 fact that members of the “negro race” were nevertheless humans, and contrived its discussion of the citizenship
23 of the people of the nation as a method of avoiding that (even to the 1856 Court) obvious reality.

24 That is merely the preliminary portion of the Dred Scott analysis, which then veered into other areas, including
25 the question of whether, because of Scott's or his family's presence in a United States territory which did not
26 recognize slavery, his status altered sufficiently to permit him to file suit, and also addressed the constitutionality
27 of the Missouri Compromise law.

28 Barcroft's claimed status is, at this point in our history, imaginary. With the conclusion of the Civil War and 29 the implementation of the constitutional amendments following the conflict, although at one point the law of the 30 land at least contemplated different classes of inhabitants-although not different classes of citizens-that portion
31 of the Dred Scott decision was overrun by events and is no longer any more than a historical footnote in our 32 jurisprudence. There is no dichotomy between different citizens, and there are not two classes of citizens in the 33 United States. The “sovereign” language on which Barcroft relies is part of the Court's analysis determining 34 who may constitute a citizen by reviewing which “classes” of individuals were treated as such at the time of the 35 creation of the Constitution. With the ending of the Civil War and the enactment of legislation and constitutional
36 amendments after that time, such an analysis became unnecessary; the classification distinctions based on race
37 on which Chief Justice Taney relied no longer exist, by constitutional fiat. See U.S. Const. amends. XIII, XIV.
38 We cannot countenance Barcroft's position that he is a “sovereign” of any description, or that he is in any way
39 possessed of constitutional rights that exceed or differ from those of other citizens.

40 Barcroft also supports his argument with caselaw that states there are two classes of citizens in America. His
41 statement, in one sense, is correct. However, in context, those decisions refer to the fact that citizens of the 42 United States are subject to two governments, federal and state, and that they owe allegiance to both. See State
43 ex rel. Wettengel v. Zimmerman, 249 Wis. 237, 24 N.W.2d 504, 506 (1946). These cases do not, however, support
44 his contention that multiple types of federal citizens exist which enjoy differing levels of status.

45 We acknowledge that, in one sense of the word, as described by Barcroft in his brief, the authority of the Union
46 derives from the people, and thus they are the true “sovereigns” of the nation. That fact does not, however,
47 support his conclusion that there is a classification of sovereign citizenry that differs from the rank and file
48 citizenry.

49 Barcroft filed suit claiming a capacity to recover under this claimed status. The status does not exist. The 50 question is what effect this may have on his ability to continue with this lawsuit. We have found no cases directly
51 on point and thus must resort to analogous situations. We recognized in Miller that “[i]t has long been settled
52 that the ‘estate’ of a decedent is not a legal entity and may not sue or be sued as such.” Miller v. Estate of Self,
53 113 S.W.3d. 554, 555 (Tex.App.-Texarkana, 2003, no pet.) (citing Price v. Estate of Anderson, 522 S.W.2d. 690, 54 691 (Tex.1975)). Similarly, there are a legion of cases addressing situations where businesses and/or individuals
55 who sue in a capacity which they do not have or who are sued in an incorrect capacity may neither pursue a
56 lawsuit nor be found liable in a lawsuit. For example, though a failure to file an assumed name certificate does 57 not render a plaintiff's claim void, it does, like the failure to pay a corporate registration fee, affect such plaintiff's
58 ability to recover in litigation brought in that capacity. Sixth RMA Partners, L.P. v. Sibley, 111 S.W.3d. 46, 55
59 (Tex.2003); cf. Coastal Liquids Transp., L.P. v. Harris County Appraisal Dist., 46 S.W.3d. 880, 884-85
60 (Tex.2001) (holding corporation's failure to pay registration fee for conducting business in Texas affects its

1 capacity to sue); Nootsie, Ltd., 925 S.W.2d. at 661 (“[A] party has capacity when it has the legal authority to 2 act, regardless of whether it has a justiciable interest in the controversy.”).

3 [Barcroft, Appellant, v. COUNTY OF FANNIN, State of Texas, et al., Appellees., No. 06-03-00021-CV, Texas
4 Court of Appeals.]

5 Barcroft was what we call a “Fourteenth Amendment Conspiracy Theorist”, and the following document proves that his
6 views are severely flawed, which explains why the courts gave him so much trouble for his presumptuous behavior and why
7 we agree with the court’s ruling:

Why the Fourteenth Amendment is Not a Threat to Your Freedom, Form #08.015

8 The different classes of citizens that Barcroft SHOULD have been referring to are STATUTORY citizens domiciled on 9 federal territory v. CONSTITUTIONAL citizens domiciled in a constitutional state. These ARE TWO classes of “citizens
10 of the United States” that the above court erroneously assumes are equal, when they are not. The court also fails to distinguish
11 state citizens under the Articles of Confederation with CONSTITUTIONAL citizens under the Constitution. The Articles of 12 Confederation identify themselves as “PERPETUAL” and have never been repealed. Hence, these two distinct classes of 13 citizens must ALSO be recognized by the court but were not. The court is therefore deceiving people and perpetuating the 14 myth that there is only ONE class of “citizen” within our country at the national level.

15 Why are you applying different standards to US than you apply to the GOVERNMENT? All we are doing is emulating their 16 approach, but recognizing GOD as the source of sovereignty instead of PEOPLE, which is a Christian duty that the U.S.
17 government cannot disrespect under the First Amendment. It’s hypocritical to subject us to a different standard than the 18 government in a country that at least CLAIMS that “all persons are equal” and that equality is the foundation of our system
19 of law.

20 Lastly, you appear confused or ignorant of the law or both. Please in the future DO NOT:

- 21 1. Confuse “BEING sovereign” with “exercising sovereign powers” as an AGENT of a sovereign.
- 22 2. Confuse being one of “The Sovereign People” (as the U.S. Supreme Court calls it) with being a statutory “citizen” or 23 “U.S. citizen”. These two groups are mutually exclusive and non-overlapping.
- 24 3. Confuse “The State” in our system of jurisprudence with “The Government”. They are NOT the same thing. See 25 Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 5 S.Ct. 903 (1885).
- 26 4. PRESUME anything or be a parrot for what tyrants tell you to think or say. Read the law for yourself and quit being a 27 useful idiot for communist or socialist political leaders. It is a Christian SIN and is a violation of due process of law in 28 any court to “presume” anything. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017

29 The confusing by people like you of two mutually exclusive concepts into a single thing as indicated above is what George
30 Orwell called DOUBLETHINK.

31 “Doublethink means the power of [hypocritically] holding two contradictory beliefs in one’s mind simultaneously,
32 and accepting both of them.”
33 [George Orwell]

34 In the legal profession, a synonym for “doublethink” is “equivocation”. Equivocation is only possible among a legally
35 ignorant audience who are too lazy to get educated and instead substitute PRESUMPTION in the place of legal education
36 and REAL critical thought. Subsequently, they call such activities “common sense”, when really a better term is STUPIDITY.

37 equivocation

38 EQUIVOCATION, n. Ambiguity of speech; the use of words or expressions that are susceptible of a double
39 signification. Hypocrites are often guilty of equivocation, and by this means lose the confidence of their fellow
40 men. Equivocation is incompatible with the Christian character and profession.

[SOURCE: <http://1828.mshaffer.com/d/search/word,equivocation>]

Equivocation ("to call by the same name") is an informal logical fallacy. It is the misleading use of a term with more than one meaning or sense (by glossing over which meaning is intended at a particular time). It generally occurs with polysemic words (words with multiple meanings).

Albeit in common parlance it is used in a variety of contexts, when discussed as a fallacy, equivocation only occurs when the arguer makes a word or phrase employed in two (or more) different senses in an argument appear to have the same meaning throughout.

It is therefore distinct from (semantic) ambiguity, which means that the context doesn't make the meaning of the word or phrase clear, and amphiboly (or syntactical ambiguity), which refers to ambiguous sentence structure due to punctuation or syntax.

LEARN THE LAW! In the meantime, if you would like to learn how confusion of contexts, equivocation, and “doublethink” are abused by covetous members of the legal profession in the government to STEAL from you and kidnap your legal identity and transport it to what Mark Twain called the “District of Criminals” through the illegal enforcement of franchises, see:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014

9.2 Ministry is part of the dreaded “Sovereign Citizen Movement” and are terrorists

We argue that the term “sovereign citizen” is an oxymoron and that anyone who uses this term to describe themselves betrays their own legal ignorance and invites persecution. The short answer is:

1. We don't identify ourselves as "sovereign citizens". See section 7 earlier.
2. Our Disclaimer, Section 8, says we condemn any and all terrorist activities, and especially GOVERNMENT terrorist activities. Anything done to us without our express consent and under the authority of the civil law represents terrorist activities:

<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>

3. By their own definition, those in the present de facto government are terrorists. See:

Ministry Introduction, Form #12.014, pp. 11-13
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Ministry/MinistryIntro.pdf>

4. We extensively prove using the government's own laws and codes that the present de facto government as “terrorists” as legally defined, and not us. See:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/DeFactoGov.pdf>

5. The following book, chapters 5 and 6, identifies the illegal enforcement of the Internal Revenue Code by a rogue private corporation that is not even part of the government as “terrorism”. It also identifies the District of Columbia, which Mark Twain calls the “District of Criminals”, as a haven for international financial terrorists:

6. Our Member Agreement identifies GOD as the ONLY sovereign. Hence, all such accusations constitute hate speech directed against a religion, which is a CRIME.

We regard a “sovereign” as someone who is self-governing and not civilly governed externally by others. A “citizen” is a subject and inhabitant of a specific government. One cannot be a “SUBJECT” and a “SOVEREIGN” at the same time. Subjects are among the governed. Sovereigns are the governors. In our republican form of government, the only “subjects”

1 for civil acts of Congress are, in fact, public officers within the government and not private human beings. The U.S. Supreme
2 Court has acknowledged that THE PEOPLE are the sovereigns in this country, and hence, the only “subjects” are our public
3 servants:

4 *“Whatever these Constitutions and laws validly determine to be property, it is the duty of the Federal Government,
5 through the domain of jurisdiction merely Federal, to recognize to be property.*

6 *“And this principle follows from the structure of the respective Governments, State and Federal, and their
7 reciprocal relations. They are different agents and trustees of the people of the several States, appointed with
8 different powers and with distinct purposes, but whose acts, within the scope of their respective jurisdictions,
9 are mutually obligatory.”*

10 [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393 (1856)]

11 Human beings in America who are in fact truly “sovereign” must instead describe themselves as:

- 12 1. Constitutional “Citizens”.
- 13 2. “nationals” per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) but not STATUTORY “citizens” per 8 U.S.C. §1401.
- 14 3. NOT any of the following:
 - 15 3.1. “Subjects” of the government they claim to sovereign and independent toward.
 - 16 3.2. Domiciled, resident, or in any way associated with the statutory but not constitutional “United States” defined in 17 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) .
 - 18 3.3. Statutory “U.S. citizens” per 8 U.S.C. §1401.
 - 19 3.4. Statutory “U.S. residents” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).
 - 20 3.5. “Inhabitants”, which includes statutory “citizens” and “residents”.
 - 21 3.6. “nationals of the United States” per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22).
 - 22 3.7. Statutory “U.S. Persons” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30), all of which are federal instrumentalities and/or public 23 offices within the U.S. government.
 - 24 3.8. “Persons” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(c), 26 U.S.C. §6671(b), or 26 U.S.C. §7343.
 - 25 3.9. “Individuals” per 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c), who are all statutory “aliens”.
 - 26 3.10. ANYTHING in government law OTHER than that described herein.

27 Those readers who want to learn more about the distinctions between all the above statuses are encouraged to read an 28 exhaustive treatment of the subject in the following document:

Why You are a “national”, “state national”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

29 The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) defines the “Sovereign Citizen Movement” as follows:

30 (U) sovereign citizen movement : (U//FOUO)

31 *A rightwing extremist movement composed of groups or individuals who reject the notion of U.S. citizenship.
32 They claim to follow only what they believe to be God’s law or common law and the original 10 amendments (Bill 33 of Rights) to the U.S. Constitution. They believe they are emancipated from all other responsibilities associated 34 with being a U.S. citizen, such as paying taxes, possessing a driver’s license and motor vehicle registration, or 35 holding a social security number. They generally do not recognize federal or state government authority or laws.
36 Several sovereign citizen groups in the United States produce fraudulent documents for their members in lieu of 37 legitimate government-issued forms of identification. Members have been known to advocate or engage in 38 criminal activity and plot acts of violence and terrorism in an attempt to advance their extremist goals. They 39 often target government officials and law enforcement. (also: state citizens, freemen, preamble citizens, common 40 law citizens)*

41 [Domestic Extremism Lexicon, Dept. of Homeland Security Document #IA-0233-09, p. 9;

42 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Crime/Terrorism/DomeExtrLexicon.pdf>]

43 The ministry clearly does not satisfy the above definition because:

- 44 1. We do not “reject the notion of U.S. citizenship”, but rather statutory citizenship. Statutory citizenship is connected
45 with domicile on federal territory while constitutional citizenship is connected with nationality and NOT domicile. We 46 can prove that there are two types of citizens: Constitutional and Statutory, and that you can’t be both at the same time.
47 We are Constitutional “citizens of the United States”, where “U.S.” implies states of the Union and excludes
48 federal territory. Statutory “nationals and citizens of the United States at birth” as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401, on the
49

1 other hand, are born anywhere in the country and domiciled on federal territory that is no part of any state of the Union.
2 The reason for this distinction is because the separation of powers separates state and federal civil jurisdiction so that
3 each jurisdiction has citizens of its own. Public servants deliberately and self-servingly try to confuse these two types
4 of "U.S. citizens" mainly because they want to STEAL from you by creating the false presumption that you, as
5 someone protected by the Constitution, reside in a place NOT protected by the Constitution. In effect, they are trying
6 to legally kidnap your identity from the protections of the Constitution and drag you into the federal zone so they can
7 rape you by deceiving you into joining a completely different political group using "words of art". Whether the 8 kidnapping is physical or legal, the result is the same. Such an act of legal kidnapping is a criminal violation of 18
9 U.S.C. §1201 and also constitutes an act of international terrorism, because the states of the Union are "nations" as 10 held by the U.S. Supreme Court. See:

11 1.1. Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023-describes deliberate efforts to 12 destroy your Constitutional rights by public servants by breaking down the separation of powers that is the heart
13 of the United States Constitution.

14 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

15 1.2. Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006-
16 describes the two types of "U.S. citizens" and how they are often deliberately confused because of GREED.

17 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 18 2. We do not believe that we are only required to follow the first ten Amendments to the United States Constitution.
19 Instead, we recognize the authority of the entire constitution as a limitation upon the government and NOT the people.
20 We also see all federal civil law as a limitation upon the conduct of government "employees" and officers but not
21 private human beings. Only the criminal code of the constitutional state you are physically in is "public law" and is 22 relevant to the average American. Otherwise, federal civil law is contract law or what the courts call "private 23 international law" limited to those who consent to it by choosing a domicile therein and we choose not to consent to
24 said domicile. It's not a crime nor is it un-American to withhold our consent to become a "protected person" subject to 25 the civil law or a "customer" of government protection called a "citizen" or "resident". Government is a business that 26 delivers protection, and like any other business, a refusal to do business cannot and should not be treated as a crime.
27 The First Amendment, in fact, protects us from "freedom from compelled association" under the common law and 28 gives us a judicial remedy without becoming subject to federal civil law because it attaches to the land we stand on,
29 and not our civil or citizenship status.

30 "It is locality that is determinative of the application of the Constitution, in such matters as judicial procedure,
31 and not the status of the people who live in it."
32 [Balzac v. Porto Rico, 258 U.S. 298 (1922)]

33 For further supporting evidence, see:

34 2.1. Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037

35 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

36 2.2. Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003

37 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 38 3. We do not believe we are "emancipated from the responsibilities associated with being a U.S. citizen", but rather the 39 responsibilities of being subject to federal civil law or being a statutory but not constitutional "U.S. citizen" as defined
40 in 8 U.S.C. §1401. Because of the separation of powers, federal civil law has no jurisdiction within the borders of a
41 constitutional but not statutory "State" but tyrants greedy for power have tried to destroy the separation of powers by 42 playing games with "words of art" in order to unlawfully and unconstitutionally enforce federal law within the borders
43 of the sovereign states. This tendency, by the way, was the same reason behind the American civil war and separation
44 from Great Britain, as documented in the Declaration of Independence. This is explained in:

45 3.1. Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032

46 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

47 3.2. Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018

48 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 49 4. We do recognize the authority of state and federal laws, but only over those who are consensually occupying public
50 offices in the government, consensually engage in government franchises AND who are also domiciled on federal 51 territory, or those domiciled on federal (public) territory and therefore participating in the government's "protection 52 franchise". Otherwise, the U.S. Supreme Court has repeatedly held that:

53 4.1. The ability to regulate private (as opposed to public) conduct is "repugnant to the constitution".

54 "The power to "legislate generally upon" life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the "power to provide modes
55 of redress" against offensive state action, was "repugnant" to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States

1 v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876) ; United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883) ; James v. Bowman, 190
2 U.S. 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or modified,
3 see, e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964) ; United States v. Guest, 383 U.S.

8 “The restrictions that the Constitution places upon the government in its capacity as lawmaker, i.e., as the 9 regulator of private conduct, are not the same as the restrictions that it places upon the government in its
10 capacity as employer. We have recognized this in many contexts, with respect to many different constitutional 11 guarantees. Private citizens perhaps cannot be prevented from wearing long hair, but policemen can. Kelley v.
12 Johnson, 425 U.S. 238, 247 (1976). Private citizens cannot have their property searched without probable cause,
13 but in many circumstances government employees can. O’Connor v. Ortega, 480 U.S. 709, 723 (1987) (plurality 14 opinion); id., at 732 (SCALIA, J., concurring in judgment). Private citizens cannot be punished for refusing to 15 provide the government information that may incriminate them, but government employees can be dismissed when 16 the incriminating information that they refuse to provide relates to the performance of their job. Gardner v.
17 Broderick, [497 U.S. 62, 95] 392 U.S. 273, 277 -278 (1968). With regard to freedom of speech in particular:
18 Private citizens cannot be punished for speech of merely private concern, but government employees can be fired
19 for that reason. Connick v. Myers, 461 U.S. 138, 147 (1983). Private citizens cannot be punished for partisan
20 political activity, but federal and state employees can be dismissed and otherwise punished for that reason. Public
21 Workers v. Mitchell, 330 U.S. 75, 101 (1947); Civil Service Comm’n v. Letter Carriers, 413 U.S. 548, 556 (1973);
22 Broadrick v. Oklahoma, 413 U.S. 601, 616 -617 (1973).”
23 Rutan v. Republican Party of Illinois, [497 U.S. 62 (1990)]

24 4.2. The government is without authority to impose any civil obligation upon anyone not domiciled within their 25 territory and not consensually engaged in their franchises because this constitutes slavery and involuntary
26 servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.

27 “That it does not conflict with the Thirteenth Amendment, which abolished slavery and involuntary servitude,
28 except as a punishment for crime, is too clear for argument. Slavery implies involuntary servitude—a state of
29 bondage; the ownership of mankind as a chattel, or at least the control of the labor and services of one man for
30 the benefit of another, and the absence of a legal right to the disposal of his own person, property, and services
31 [in their entirety]. This amendment was said in the Slaughter House Cases, 16 Wall, 36, to have been intended
32 primarily to abolish slavery, as it had been previously known in this country, and that it equally forbade Mexican 33 peonage or the Chinese coolie trade, when they amounted to slavery or involuntary servitude and that the use of 34 the word ‘servitude’ was intended to prohibit the use of all forms of involuntary slavery, of whatever class or 35 name.”
36 [Plessy v. Ferguson, 163 U.S. 537, 542 (1896)]

37 “The constitutionality and scope of sections 1990 and 5526 present the first questions for our consideration.
38 The prohibit peonage. What is peonage? It may be defined as a state or condition of compulsory service,
39 based upon the indebtedness of the peon to the master. The basal fact is indebtedness. As said by Judge
40 Benedict, delivering the opinion in Jaremillo v. Romero, 1 N.Mex. 190, 194: ‘One fact existed universally; all
41 were indebted to their masters. This was the cord by which they seemed bound to their masters’ service.’ Upon 42 this is based a condition of compulsory service. Peonage is sometimes classified as voluntary or involuntary,
43 but this implies simply a difference in the mode of origin, but not in the character of the servitude. The one
44 exists where the debtor voluntarily contracts to enter the service of his creditor. The other is forced upon the 45 debtor by some provision of law. But peonage, however created, is compulsory service, involuntary servitude.
46 The peon can release himself therefrom, it is true, by the payment of the debt, but otherwise the service is
47 enforced. A clear distinction exists between peonage and the voluntary performance of labor or rendering of
48 services in payment of a debt. In the latter case the debtor, though contracting to pay his indebtedness by labor
49 or service, and subject like any other contractor to an action for damages for breach of that contract, can elect
50 at any time to break it, and no law or force compels performance or continuance of the service.”
51 [Clyatt v. U.S., 197 U.S. 207 (1905)]

52 Note that “taxes” are classified by the IRS as “debts” within the meaning of the above. The constitution cannot 53 conflict with itself, so the only rational conclusion you can reach from the above is that you have to volunteer 54 somehow to become a “taxpayer” and therefore a “public officer”. Those who don’t volunteer are called “non-55 residents” and “non-resident non-persons” not engaged in a “trade or business” whose estate is a “foreign estate”
56 within the meaning of 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(31). For proof, see:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

57 We instead argue that any attempt to compel the participation of anyone in a government franchise, or to compel the 58 conversion of rights protected by the Constitution into statutory “privileges” under a franchise agreement, is an 59 unconstitutional conspiracy against rights. This includes franchises such as Social Security, Medicare, and the income 60 tax.

1 "It has long been established that a State may not impose a penalty upon those who exercise a right guaranteed
2 by the Constitution." Frost & Frost Trucking Co. v. Railroad Comm'n of California, 271 U.S. 583. "Constitutional

- 6 5. The article above talks about "government authority", as if to imply that the state and federal corporations running the 7 show now are in fact "government", as constitutionally defined. It is FRAUD to even claim that there still is any real
8 "government" in a legal sense. The following document proves with the rulings of the Supreme Court and federal
9 statutes that the original de jure state and federal governments established by the United States of America Constitution
10 have, in fact, been declared bankrupt and replaced with private, for-profit corporations millions of times more evil than 11 the Enron fraud and that you are being LIED to about this fact. Constitutional "States" have been replaced with federal 12 corporation franchises. What used to be a sovereign American is now nothing but an officer or "employee" of the de
13 facto private federal corporation that fraudulently represents itself as "government". In effect, the de facto tyrants
14 running the show have abused their authority and discretion to outlaw private rights and private property. There was a
15 silent coup, and they have carefully kept it secret from you, folks. What are you going to do about it?

Corporatization and Privatization of the Government, Form #05.024

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 16 6. We do not produce fraudulent ID for our members. We do, however, regard ID issued by the present de facto
17 governments as fraudulent, because you have to LAWFULLY be acting as a public officer when you are issued it. The 18 need for ID documents separate and apart from those issued by the present de facto government, however, is the 19 product of unlawful and discriminatory policies by the present de facto state and federal governments. State and 20 federal governments presently:
- 21 6.1. Unlawfully deprive those who do not fraudulently declare a domicile on federal territory or a connection with 22 some public franchise of the ability to conduct commerce to support their family and this is a violation of the 23 equal protection of the laws mandated by the Constitution.
- 24 6.2. Refuse to recognize the right of self-government declared in the Declaration of Independence to form your own
25 government and issue your own Private ID. No entity deserves to be called a "government" that refuses to 26 recognize the EQUAL right of EVERYONE to peacefully govern themselves to the exclusion of others
27 guaranteed by the Declaration of Independence without having to institute violence or force against anyone. The 28 Declaration of Independence, in fact, makes it our DUTY to form our own government if the one we have does 29 not meet our needs.

30 We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
31 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
32 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
33 --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to
34 alter or to abolish it, and to institute new [SELF] Government, laying its foundation on such principles and 35 organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.
36 [Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson]

- 37 6.3. Refuse to recognize, permit, or protect Private ID or ID issued by families, churches, or private groups not 38 associated with the government.
- 39 6.4. Refuse to publish standards for the issuance of PRIVATE ID for use by financial institutions and employers.
- 40 6.5. Refuse to prosecute financial institutions and employers for discrimination who fail to recognize or accept Private 41 ID while acting as government officers called "withholding agents".
- 42 For further details on this subject, see section 12 for the methods by which Americans are unlawfully compelled to 43 fraudulently declare a domicile on federal territory that they have never visited:

48 9.3 Ministry claims that STATUTORY "wages" are not "income" or are not taxable

49 This false accusation comes from the following court ruling:

2. Whether Defendant Made False or Fraudulent Statements Concerning the Tax Benefits to be Derived from the Entity, Plan or Arrangement

The evidence before the Court establishes that Defendant's programs make false and fraudulent statements to customers by advising them they are not obligated to pay federal income taxes. In particular, Defendant tells customers the IRC applies only within a "federal zone;" 44 federal income taxes only apply to federal officers, federal employees, and elected federal officials; 45 payment of income taxes is voluntary; 46 income does not include wages, salaries, commissions, or tips; 47 wages cannot be taxed; 48 [*24] and W-4 forms do not apply to federal income taxes and only federal employees or federal officeholders need to complete Form W-4. 49

[United States v. Hansen, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 54496, 98 A.F.T.R.2d (RIA) 2006-5437]

There are LOTS of malicious and deliberate LIES and deceptions in the above:

1. The case was unpublished so that no one could use it as precedence, which indicates they don't want the usable truths on our website from getting into the hands of the public.
2. The above information referenced in the footnotes was not posted on the website at the time the order was issued, so it was not based on the actual content of the website at the time it was issued. Alleged "evidence" was therefore FALSE AND FRAUDULENT. Injunctions must be based on continuing behavior that won't stop, and there was no such behavior.
3. The U.S. Attorney, Martin Shoemaker, was not a fact witness for the case so he can't establish any of the above facts.
4. The IRS agents as the only fact witnesses couldn't speak for the government either, because the IRS agents didn't work for the government and can't speak for them either as an alleged injured party. See:

Origins and Authority of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Form #05.005
<https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. A statement cannot be false until the SPEAKER classifies it as factual. Only in the ABSENCE of express classification by the speaker can the hearer even pretend to have discretion to decide whether the statement is factual or actionable.
 - 5.1. Vain judicial attempts in the above case to reclassify the speech on the website from NON-factual and NON-actionable to FACTUAL and ACTIONABLE against what the speech actually classifies itself as constitutes an unconstitutional exercise of judicial legislative powers by creating or imputing the FORCE of law to that which has no force. It is also a violation of the separation of powers doctrine. See:

How Judges Unconstitutionally "Make Law", Litigation Tool #01.009

- 5.2. The SEDM Disclaimer says the following about the classification of the speech on the website:

SEDM Disclaimer

1. INTRODUCTION

The content of this page supersedes and is controlling over:

1. Every other page, file, electronic book, video, or audio available on this website or third party websites it has been posted on, such as Youtube, Google Books, Google Play, Archive.org, Scribd.com, Linked in, Amazon.com, etc.

2. Every communication with, to, or about any fellowship officer or member.

3. Every service offered by this website.

4. Every dispute in any court relating to materials or services available through this website or from any ministry officer. This includes third party websites that the content on this site has been posted on.

We take our job of educating and informing the public very seriously. Every possible human effort has therefore been made to ensure that the information available through this website is truthful, accurate, and consistent with prevailing law. However, all information contained on this website originating from OTHER than government sources and which the courts themselves recognize as admissible evidence under the rules of evidence, along with any communications with, to, or about the author(s), website administrator, and owner(s) constitute religious speech and beliefs, and not facts. As such, nothing on this website originating from our own opinions, beliefs, speech, writing, or testimony is susceptible to being false, misleading, or legally "actionable" in any manner. Since materials on this site spoken by us and all communications associated with, to, or about it are religious speech and beliefs, none of it is admissible in any court of law pursuant to F.R.E. 610 unless

1 accompanied by an affidavit from a specific person attesting to its truthfulness and accuracy, and such materials
2 are only actionable to THAT SPECIFIC PERSON and no others in such a circumstance. Nothing here other than
3 the governments OWN speech or publications can truthfully be classified as fact without violating the First
4 Amendment rights of the publishers and author(s). It is provided for worship, law enforcement, education,
5 enlightenment, and entertainment and for no other purpose. Any other use is an unauthorized use for which the 6 author(s), website administrator(s), and owner(s) assume no responsibility or liability. Users assume full,
7 exclusive and complete responsibility for any use beyond reading, education, and entertainment. We must do it
8 this way because our Member Agreement says that the ONLY thing you can rely on as a basis for good belief is 9 your own reading of what the law actually says.

10 There are only four exceptions to the above paragraph relating to our own speech or publications, which are that
11 the following information are both FACT and ARE admissible as evidence in their entirety in any court of law
12 because they must be admissible as evidence in order to protect Ministry Officers and Members from unlawful 13 acts of persecution by a corrupted government.

20 This technique of making statements made by us into opinions that are nonfactual and nonactionable and of 21 publishing them anonymously is exactly the same approach as the government uses towards its own legal or tax
22 publications, advice, and websites. If you don't like this disclaimer, then please direct your dissatisfaction at the 23 government, or more specifically the IRS and the Founding Fathers, because they started this problem and 24 we're just emulating their behavior. For proof, see:

25 1.  Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007-proves that neither the IRS nor anyone in 26 the government is accountable for anything they say or publish.

27 2.  Waiver of Immunity: Police, Litigation Tool #01.008 -renders all police testimony FALSE, because 28 police are not liable for telling the truth or speaking FACTUALLY.

29 3.  Origins and Authority of the Internal Revenue Service \(IRS\), Form #05.005-proves that the IRS has no
30 legal authority to even exist or to operate within states of the Union, and therefore operates effectively as an 31 anonymous international terrorist organization and that the District of Columbia has become a haven for 32 financial terrorists that illegally protects its criminal PRIVATE business operations by abusing sovereign
33 immunity.

34 4. The Federalist Papers, which were all published by the founding fathers anonymously. Their identities were 35 not released until decades after the end of the revolutionary war.

36 "Anonymous pamphlets, leaflets, brochures and even books have played an important role 37 in the progress of mankind." Talley v. California, 362 U.S. 60, 64 (1960). Great works of 38 literature have frequently been produced by authors writing under assumed names. 4
39 Despite readers' curiosity and the public's interest in identifying the creator of a work of 40 art, an author generally is free to decide whether or not to disclose her true identity. The 41 decision in favor of anonymity may be motivated by fear of economic or official
42 retaliation, by concern about social ostracism, or merely by a desire to preserve as much
43 of one's privacy as possible. Whatever the motivation may be, at least in the field of 44 literary endeavor, the interest in having anonymous works enter the marketplace of ideas
45 unquestionably outweighs any public interest in requiring disclosure as a condition of 46 entry. 5 Accordingly, an author's decision to remain anonymous, like other decisions 47 concerning omissions or additions to the content of a publication, is an aspect of the 48 freedom of speech protected by the First Amendment.

49 The freedom to publish anonymously extends beyond the literary realm. In Talley, the 50 Court held that the First Amendment protects the distribution of unsigned handbills urging 51 readers to boycott certain Los Angeles merchants who were allegedly engaging in 52 discriminatory employment practices. 362 U.S. 60 . Writing for the Court, Justice Black 53 noted that "[p]ersecuted groups and sects from time to time throughout history have been 54 able to criticize oppressive practices and laws either anonymously or not at all." Id., at 55 64. Justice Black recalled England's abusive press licensing laws and seditious libel

1 prosecutions, and he reminded us that even the arguments favoring the ratification of the 2 Constitution advanced in the Federalist Papers were published under fictitious names. Id.,
3 at 64-65. On occasion, quite apart from any threat of persecution, an advocate may believe
4 her ideas will be more persuasive if her readers are unaware of her identity. Anonymity
5 thereby provides a way for a writer who may be personally unpopular to ensure that
6 readers will not prejudge her message simply because they do not like its proponent.
7 Thus, even in the field of political rhetoric, where "the identity of the speaker is an 8 important component of many attempts to persuade," City of Ladue v. Gilleo, 512 U.S.
9 43, 56 (1994) (footnote omitted), the most effective advocates have sometimes opted for 10 anonymity. The specific holding in Talley related to advocacy of an economic boycott, but 11 the Court's reasoning embraced a respected tradition of anonymity in the advocacy of 12 political causes. 6 This tradition is perhaps best exemplified by the secret ballot, the hard-
13 won right to vote one's conscience without fear of retaliation."

16 [SEDM Disclaimer, Section 1; <https://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>]

17 5.3. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 specifically says nothing on this website is factual and that it is merely 18 religious beliefs and opinions that are not admissible as evidence.

19 SEDM Member Agreement

20 3. Basis for Beliefs

21 I certify that the basis for my beliefs about legal tax liability does not include any of the flawed arguments
22 contained in the following:

- 23 1. Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004
24 <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/FlawedArgsToAvoid.pdf>
25 2. Policy Document: UCC Redemption, Form #08.002
26 <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/UCC.pdf>
27 3. Why the Fourteenth Amendment is NOT a Threat to Your Freedom, Form #08.015
28 <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/FourteenthAmendNotProb.pdf>
29 4. Policy Document: Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018
30 <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/RebFalseArgSovereignty.pdf>

31 I understand that neither the ministry nor any of its officers, agents, employees, etc are authorized to:

- 32 1. Guarantee or infer any specific result by virtue of using the educational materials and/or services available to 33 its members.
34 2. Share subjective opinions about the successfulness of using our materials.

35 The ministry makes every possible effort to ensure the accuracy, appropriateness and usefulness of its materials,
36 processes, and services. However, it has no control over how public servants, who are carefully selected, trained,
37 conditioned, and propagandized to ensure that they behave as malicious, malfeasant "useful idiots" not educated
38 in the law, will respond to a petition for redress of grievances directed at remedying their illegal and injurious
39 behavior. As a matter of fact, the minute they stop drinking the cult Kool-Aide and begin reading, learning and
40 enforcing the law in their workplace is the minute they historically are fired, persecuted, and targeted for
41 "selective enforcement". Any guarantees of particular results by either the ministry or any agent, officer, or 42 employee of the ministry should be regarded as fiction, untrustworthy, and unreliable as a bases for belief. The 43 ONLY reasonable basis for belief about liability in the context of federal taxation that does not involve some form 44 of "presumption", and therefore violation of due process, are:

- 45 1. Enacted positive law from the Statutes at Large.
46 2. The Rulings of the Supreme Court and not lower courts.
47 3. The Constitution of the United States of America.

48 All other forms of evidence are simply "prima facie" and involve compelling the defendant to "presume"
49 something, which violates not only due process, but is a religious sin according to Numbers 15:30, NKJV, and 50 amounts to compelled participation in state-sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment. See the 51 following link for further details on why the above are the only reasonable evidentiary bases for belief about my 52 personal federal tax liability. No other sources of belief are acceptable to me until someone with delegated
53 authority from the government proves to me with court-admissible evidence why any part of the document below
54 is not consistent with prevailing law. For proof, see:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf>

1 I also understand that all information contained on the ministry website originating from OTHER than
2 government sources and which the courts themselves recognize as admissible evidence under the rules of
3 evidence, along with any communications with, to, or about the author(s), website administrator, and owner(s)
4 constitute religious speech and beliefs, and not facts. As such, nothing on the ministry website originating from 5 their own opinions, beliefs, speech, writing, or testimony is susceptible to being false, misleading, or legally
6 "actionable" in any manner. Since materials on the site spoken by the ministry and all communications
7 associated with, to, or about it are religious speech and beliefs, none of it is admissible in any court of law
8 pursuant to F.R.E. 610 unless accompanied by an affidavit from a specific person attesting to its truthfulness and
9 accuracy, and such materials are only actionable to THAT SPECIFIC PERSON and no others in such a
10 circumstance. Nothing on the ministry site other than the government's OWN speech or publications can 11 truthfully be classified as fact without violating the First Amendment rights of the publishers and author(s). It is 12 provided for worship, law enforcement, education, enlightenment, and entertainment and for no other
13 purpose. Any other use is an unauthorized use for which the author(s), website administrator(s), and owner(s)
14 assume no responsibility or liability. Users assume full, exclusive and complete responsibility for any use beyond
15 reading, education, and entertainment. The ministry must do it this way because this Member Agreement says
16 that the ONLY thing readers or members can rely on as a basis for good belief is their own reading of what the 17 law actually says.

18 There are only four exceptions to the above paragraph, listed below, each of which is admissible in its entirety
19 as EVIDENCE and FACT in any court of law. This is in order to protect ministry officers and members from 20 unlawful acts of persecution by a corrupted government.

39 For the purposes of any dispute relating to this or any other government franchise or civil law:

40 [. . .]

41 5. Any right or method of acquiring rights asserted by any government shall also be possessed by all parties to

37 [SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1; <https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>]

38 As such, the above judgment was against the government as substitute defendant, and not the party illegally compelled
39 to act on behalf of the substitute defendant. What could be better than an injunction against the government for false 40 statements?

41 7. We have never argued that STATUTORY ANTHING, including STATUTORY “wages” are not taxable. The Internal 42 Revenue Code is a franchise, and as such:

43 7.1. Everyone who volunteers to be “subject” as a statutory “taxpayer” has a civil legal obligation to follow it.

44 7.2. Those who don’t volunteer are protected from involuntary servitude by the Thirteenth Amendment everywhere in 45 the COUNTRY and human trafficking laws everywhere in the WORLD from being held accountable for the 46 duties of a volunteer status.

47 8. HOW people volunteer is documented in the following:

How State Nationals VOLUNTEER to Pay Income Tax, Form #08.024

9. The government never produced even one injured party who was injured by any of the speech indicated above, so they had no standing to sue and the case was void.
10. A “tax shelter” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §6700 is a device used by “taxpayers” to reduce an EXISTING liability.
11. Statutory “taxpayers” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(1) are forbidden by the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, from “using” the “tax information and services” available through the website.
12. The ONLY “customer” of our website is God, not human beings, CONTRARY to what the above ruling says:

SEDM Member Agreement

1.1: My Status and Standing

9. I am NOT:

[. . .]

9.9. A “customer” or a “client”, but rather a “Member”. God is the only “customer” in the ministry and we all serve, worship, and subsidize ONLY Him and not any vain man or creation of men called “government”.

[SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1.1, Item 9.9; <https://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>]

13. Income taxes are VOLUNTARY for those who are “nontaxpayers”:

“Revenue Laws relate to taxpayers instrumentalities, officers, employees, and elected officials of the [national Government] and not to non-taxpayers [non-resident non-persons domiciled in states of the Union without the exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal Government]. The latter are without their scope. No procedures are prescribed for non-taxpayers and no attempt is made to annul any of their Rights or Remedies in due course of law. With them[non-taxpayers] Congress does not assume to deal and they are neither of the subject nor of the object of federal revenue laws.”

[Economy Plumbing & Heating v. U.S., 470 F.2d. 585 \(1972\)]

14. No court has authority to DECLARE you a STATUTORY “taxpayer”. That’s because YOU HAVE TO VOLUNTEER:

Specifically, Rowen seeks a declaratory judgment against the United States of America with respect to “whether or not the plaintiff is a taxpayer pursuant to, and/or under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).” (See Compl. at 2.) This Court lacks jurisdiction to issue a declaratory judgment “with respect to Federal taxes other than actions brought under section 7428 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,” a code section that is not at issue in the instant action. See 28 U.S.C. §2201; see also Hughes v. United States, 953 F.2d. 531, 536-537 (9th Cir. 1991) (affirming dismissal of claim for declaratory relief under §2201 where claim concerned question of tax liability). Accordingly, defendant’s motion to dismiss is hereby GRANTED, and the instant action is hereby DISMISSED.

[Rowen v. U.S., 05-3766MMC. \(N.D.Cal. 11/02/2005\)]

15. For a complete listing of the rights of “nontaxpayers”, See:

Your Rights as a “Nontaxpayer”, IRS Pub 1a, Form #08.008

<https://sedm.org/LibertyU/NontaxpayerBOR.pdf>

As far as taxability of “wages”, this ministry does NOT claim that STATUTORY “wages” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §3401(a) are not “income”. Earnings listed in 26 U.S.C. §61 expressly include as statutory “gross income” the term “compensation for services” which we equate with STATUTORY “wages” and it is silly to argue otherwise. HOWEVER:

1. All of our members are “nonresident aliens” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) not engaged in a STATUTORY “trade or business”/public office per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) whose estate is a “foreign estate” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(31). See:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020

<https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. It is an unconstitutional interference with the First Amendment right to associate or disassociate and with the right to contract or not contract to interfere with the right of all people to choose the status of “nonresident alien”. See:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008

<https://sedm.org/Forms/13-SelfFamilyChurchGovnce/RightToDeclStatus.pdf>

3. 26 U.S.C. §61 is not the proper section to use for “nonresident aliens” in computing “income” or “gross income”.
4. 26 U.S.C. §872 is the proper section for computing STATUTORY “gross income” of STATUTORY “nonresident aliens”.
5. 26 U.S.C. §872(a) limits “gross income” to earnings from “sources within the United States”. Unlike “U.S. persons” in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30), The tax upon “nonresident aliens” is NOT upon “worldwide income”, but ONLY upon earnings from “sources within the United States”.
6. “United States”, in turn:
 - 6.1. Is geographically limited to the District of Columbia per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d).
 - 6.2. Can also include the CORPORATION “United States” under 15 U.S.C. §3001(15)(A), since the geographical context is not the only context.
7. BY CONSENT or COMITY, ANY “USEFUL IDIOT” VOLUNTEER can earn statutory “wages” per 26 U.S.C. §3402(p) but none of our members are ALLOWED to consent and must specify that they are under criminal duress if their withholding paperwork indicates otherwise.
8. A public officer is legally defined as anyone who owes a DUTY to the public. One cannot owe a CIVIL legal duty WITHOUT being a public officer, except possibly if they have provably injured someone else, which the government never alleged:

*“The term office’ has no legal or technical meaning attached to it, distinct from its ordinary acceptations. An office is a public charge or employment; but, as every employment is not an office, it is sometimes difficult to distinguish between employments which are and those which are not offices.... A public officer is one who has some duty to perform concerning the public; and he is not the less a public officer when his duty is confined to narrow limits, because it is the duty, and the nature of that duty, which makes him a public officer, and not the extent of his authority.’ 7 Bac. Abr. 280; Carth. 479.... Where an employment or duty is a continuing [65] one, which is defined by rules prescribed by law and not by contract, such a charge or employment is an office, and the person who performs it is an officer.... The powers vested in the government of the state of Mississippi are either legislative, judicial, or executive; and these respective branches of power have been committed to separate bodies of magistracy.... Whether an office has been created by the constitution itself, or by statute, ... the incumbent, as a component member of one of the bodies of the magistracy, is vested with a portion of the power of the government.... The words civil office under the state’... import an office in which is reposed some portion of the sovereign power of the state, and of necessity having some connection with the legislative, judicial, or executive departments of the government.... The local and limited power and duties of the levee commissioner can have no effect in determining the question whether his office is not an office under the state. A member of the board of county police, or a justice of the peace, is as much an officer under the state as the executive, the heads of department, or a member of the judiciary. The powers attached [66] to the office of levee commissioner evidently pertain to the executive branch of the government. Clothed with a portion of the power vested in that department, the commissioner, in the discharge of his proper functions, exercises as clearly sovereign power as the governor or a sheriff.” Shelby v. Alcorn, 36 Miss. 273, 288-290, 292. The constitution provided that “no senator [233] or representative” should, during his term, “be appointed to any civil office of profit under this state,” which had been created during his legislative term. The object of the clause was manifest, and the office of levee commissioner was held to be within the mischief which the prohibition was intended to prevent.

Any OTHER type of duty that does not originate from consent is unconstitutional involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment. See:

<https://sedm.org/LibertyU/AvoidGovernmentObligations.pdf>

9. If human beings have a constitutional right to avoid involuntary servitude under the Thirteenth Amendment EVERYWHERE IN THE COUNTRY, then they also have an implied a right to avoid CIVIL STATUTORY STATUSES to which civil legal obligations or duties attach, such as “individual”, “person”, “taxpayer”, “citizen”, “resident”, “driver”, etc. See:

10. The above civil statutory DUTY or OBLIGATION is property as legally defined and a public officer is legally defined as someone “with Independent power to control the property of the public”, which in this case IS THE DUTY:

- 11 11. The income tax functions as a privilege tax exclusively on government property. Since that property can exist
12 anywhere, the tax can exist anywhere. Public offices and federal payments are the two types of property subject to 13 income tax in the case of the Internal Revenue Code. This is documented exhaustively in:

Why the Federal Income Tax is a Privilege Tax Upon Government Property, Form #04.404
<https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 14 12. Earnings of our members are EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED from STATUTORY "wages" but not statutorily "exempt"
15 because they do not originate from the statutory geographical "United States" or the "United States" federal 16 corporation. See:
17 12.1. 26 C.F.R. §31.3401\(a\)\(6\)-1\(b\) in the case of income tax.
18 12.2. 26 C.F.R. §31.3121\(b\)-3\(c\)\(1\) in the case of Social Security.
19 13. Earnings of our members are expressly exempt from income tax reporting under:
20 13.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(b\)\(5\)\(i\).
21 13.2. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(e\)\(1\)\(ii\)\(A\)\(1\).
22 13.3. 26 C.F.R. §1.6041-4\(a\)\(1\).
23 14. Earnings of our members are exempt from backup withholding because earnings are not reportable by 26 U.S.C.
24 §3406\(g\) and 26 C.F.R. §31.3406\(g\)-1\(e\). Only "reportable payments" are subject to such withholding.
25 15. Because earnings of our members are exempt from income tax reporting and therefore withholding, they have no
26 "taxable income".
27 15.1. Only reportable income is taxable.
28 15.2. There is NO WAY provided within the Internal Revenue Code to make earnings not connected to a statutory
29 "trade or business"/public office \(Form #05.001\) under 26 U.S.C. §6041 reportable.
30 15.3. The only way to make earnings of a nonresident alien not engaged in the "trade or business" franchise taxable
31 under 26 U.S.C. §871(a) is therefore only when the PAYOR is lawfully engaged in a "trade or business" but the
32 PAYEE is not. This situation would have to involve the U.S. government ONLY and not private parties in the 33 states of the Union. The information returns would have to be a Form 1042s. It is a crime under 18 U.S.C. §912
34 for a private party to occupy a public office or to impersonate a public office, and Congress cannot establish
35 public offices within the exclusive jurisdiction of the states of the Union to tax them, according to the License
36 Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 68 S.Ct. 331 \(1866\).

37 Our definition of "non-person" or "non-resident non-person" describes the status of all members. They may NOT "use" our
38 "tax information or services" unless they have this civil status. We define a "non-resident non-person" in the SEDM
39 Disclaimer as follows after the horizontal line to the end of this section:
40

41 SEDM Disclaimer

42 Section 4: Meaning of Words

43 4.25. "Non-Person" or "Non-Resident Non-Person"

44 The term "non-person" or "non-resident non-person" \(Form #05.020\) as used on this site we define to be a human who is all
45 of the following:

- 46 1. Not domiciled on federal territory and not representing a corporate or governmental office that is so domiciled under 47 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17. See Form #05.002 for details.
48 2. Not engaged in a public office within any government. This includes the civil office of "person", "individual",
49 "citizen", or "resident". See Form #05.037 and Form #05.042 for court-admissible proof that statutory "persons",
50 "individuals", "citizens", and "residents" are public offices.

1 3. Not "purposefully or consensually availing themselves" of commerce with any government. Therefore, they do not waive
2 sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act \(FSIA\), 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97.

3 4. Obligations and Rights in relation to Governments:

4 4.1. Waives any and all privileges and immunities of any civil status and all rights or "entitlements" to receive
5 "benefits" or "civil services" from any government. It is a maxim of law that REAL de jure governments \(Form
6 #05.043\) MUST give you the right to not receive or be eligible to receive "benefits" of any kind. See Form
7 #05.040 for a description of the SCAM of abusing "benefits" to destroy sovereignty. The reason is because they 8 MUST guarantee your right to be self-governing and self-supporting:

9 Invito beneficium non datur.

10 No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be
11 considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

12 Potest quis renunciare pro se, et suis, juri quod pro se introductum est.

13 A man may relinquish, for himself and his heirs, a right which was introduced for his own benefit. See 1 Bouv.
14 Inst. n. 83.

15 Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto.

16 Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv.

18 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

19 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm/>

20 4.2. Because they are not in receipt of or eligible to receive property or benefits from the government, they owe no
21 CIVIL STATUTORY obligations to that government or any STATUTORY "citizen" or STATUTORY 22 "resident", as "obligations" are described in California Civil Code Section 1428. This means they are not party to
23 any contracts or compacts and have injured NO ONE as injury is defined NOT by statute, but by the common
24 law. See Form #12.040 for further details on the definition of "obligations".

25 4.3. Because they owe no statutory civil obligations, the definition of "justice" REQUIRES that they MUST be left
26 alone by the government. See Form #05.050 for a description of "justice".

27 5. For the purposes of citizenship on government forms:

28 5.1. Does NOT identify as a STATUTORY "citizen" (8 U.S.C. §1401 and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1\(c\)), "resident" (alien
29 under 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\)\(1\)\(A\)), "U.S. citizen" (not defined in any statute), "U.S. resident" (not defined in any 30 statute), or "U.S. person" (26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(30\)).

31 5.2. Identifies themselves as a "national" per 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(21\) and per common law by virtue of birth or 32 naturalization within the CONSTITUTIONAL "United States".

33 5.3. Is NOT an "alien" because a "national" under 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(21\) or "U.S. national" under 26 C.F.R. §51.1
34 owing allegiance to a state of the Union and not the national or federal government. Thus, they are not subject to 35 the presence test under 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\) and may not lawfully be kidnapped into exclusive national
36 government jurisdiction as a privileged alien "resident" or have a "residence" (26 C.F.R. §1.871-2\(b\)) within the
37 statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(9\) and (a)(10) or 4 U.S.C. §110\(d\).

38 6. Earnings originate from outside:

39 6.1. The STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(9\) and \(a\)\(10\) (federal zone) and

40 6.2. The U.S. government federal corporation as a privileged legal fiction.

41 Thus, their earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from "gross income" under 26 U.S.C. §871
43 §1.871-7\(a\)\(4\) and 26 U.S.C. §861\(a\)\(3\)\(C\)\(i\) for proof.

44 7. Earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from STATUTORY "wages" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
45 §3401\(a\) because all services performed outside the STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
46 §7701\(a\)\(9\) and \(a\)\(10\) (federal zone) and the CORPORATION "United States" as a legal fiction. Therefore, not
47 subject to "wage" withholding of any kind for such services per:

48 7.1. 26 C.F.R. §31.3401\(a\)\(6\)-1\(b\) in the case of income tax.

49 7.2. 26 C.F.R. §31.3121\(b\)-3\(c\)\(1\) in the case of Social Security.

50 8. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting under:

51 8.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(b\)\(5\)\(i\).

52 8.2. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(e\)\(1\)\(ii\)\(A\)\(1\).

53 8.3. 26 C.F.R. §1.6041-4\(a\)\(1\).

54 9. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from backup withholding because earnings are not reportable by 26
55 U.S.C. §3406 and 26 C.F.R. §31.3406\(g\)-1\(e\). Only "reportable payments" are subject to such withholding.

- 1 10. Because they are EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting and therefore withholding, they
2 have no "taxable income".
- 3 10.1. Only reportable income is taxable.
- 4 10.2. There is NO WAY provided within the Internal Revenue Code to make earnings not connected to a statutory
5 "trade or business"/public office \(Form #05.001\) under 26 U.S.C. §6041 reportable.
- 6 10.3. The only way to make earnings of a nonresident alien not engaged in the "trade or business" franchise taxable
7 under 26 U.S.C. §871\(a\) is therefore only when the PAYOR is lawfully engaged in a "trade or business" but the
8 PAYEE is not. This situation would have to involve the U.S. government ONLY and not private parties in the
9 states of the Union. The information returns would have to be a Form 1042s. It is a crime under 18 U.S.C. §91 for
10 a private party to occupy a public office or to impersonate a public office, and Congress cannot establish public
11 offices within the exclusive jurisdiction of the states of the Union to tax them, according to the License Tax
12 Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 68 S.Ct. 331 \(1866\).
- 13 11. Continue to be a "national of the United States*" \(Form #05.006\) and not lose their CONSTITUTIONAL citizenship
14 while filing form 1040NR. See 26 U.S.C. §873\(b\)\(3\). They do NOT need to "expatriate" their nationality to file as a
15 "nonresident alien" and will not satisfy the conditions in 26 U.S.C. §877 (expatriation to avoid tax). Expatriation is loss
16 of NATIONALITY, and NOT loss of STATUTORY "citizen" status under 8 U.S.C. §1401.
- 17 12. If they submit a Form W-8BEN to control withholding and revoke their Form W-4, then they:
- 18 12.1. Can submit SSA Form 7008 to correct your SSA earnings to zero them out. See SEDM Form #06.042.
- 19 12.2. Can use IRS Form 843 to request a full refund or abatement of all FICA and Medicare taxes withheld if the 20 employer or business associate continues to file W-2 forms or withhold against your wishes. See SEDM Form
21 #06.044.
- 22 13. Are eligible to replace the SSN with a TEMPORARY Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) that expires
23 AUTOMATICALLY every year and is therefore NOT permanent and changes. If you previously applied for an SSN
24 and were ineligible to participate, you can terminate the SSN and replace it with the ITIN. If you can't prove you were
25 ineligible for Social Security, then they will not allow you to replace the SSN with an ITIN. See:

- 33 14. Must file the paper version of IRS Form 1040NR, because there are no electronic online providers that automate the 34 preparation of the form or allow you to attach the forms necessary to submit a complete and accurate return that
35 correctly reflects your status. This is in part because the IRS doesn't want to make it easy or convenient to leave their
36 slave plantation.

55 They are "non-persons" BY VIRTUE of not benefitting from any civil statutory privilege and therefore being "PRIVATE".
56 By "privilege", we mean ANY of the things described in 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(2\):

1 5 U.S. Code § 553 - Rule making

2 (a) This section applies, according to the provisions thereof, except to the extent that there is involved—

3 [. . .]

4 (2) a matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or
5 contracts.

6 The above items all have in common that they are PROPERTY coming under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution
7 that is loaned or possessed or granted temporarily to a human being with legal strings attached. Thus, Congress has direct
8 legislative jurisdiction not only over the property itself, but over all those who USE, BENEFIT FROM, or HAVE such
9 property physically in their custody or within their temporary control. We remind the reader that Congress enjoys control
10 over their own property NO MATTER WHERE it physically is, including states of the Union, and that it is the MAIN source
11 of their legislative jurisdiction within the exclusive jurisdiction of Constitutional states of the Union!:

12 United States Constitution
13 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

14 The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory
15 or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to 16 Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

18 “The Constitution permits Congress to dispose of and to make all needful rules and regulations respecting
19 the territory or other property belonging to the United States. This power applies as well to territory
20 belonging to the United States within the States, as beyond them. It comprehends all the public domain,
21 wherever it may be. The argument is, that the power to make ‘ALL needful rules and regulations’ ‘is a
22 power of legislation,’ ‘a full legislative power;’ ‘that it includes all subjects of legislation in the territory,’
23 and is without any limitations, except the positive prohibitions which affect all the powers of
24 Congress. Congress may then regulate or prohibit slavery upon the public domain within the new States, and
25 such a prohibition would permanently affect the capacity of a slave, whose master might carry him to it. And why
26 not? Because no power has been conferred on Congress. This is a conclusion universally admitted. But the 27 power to ‘make rules and regulations respecting the territory’ is not restrained by State lines, nor are there
28 any constitutional prohibitions upon its exercise in the domain of the United States within the States; and 29 whatever rules and regulations respecting territory Congress may constitutionally make are supreme, and 30 are not dependent on the situs of ‘the territory.’”
31 [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393, 509-510 (1856)]

32 By property, we mean all the things listed in 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(2\) such as SSNs (property of the government per 20 C.F.R. 33 §422.103\(d\)), contracts (which are property), physical property, chattel property, "benefits", "offices", civil statuses,
34 privileges, civil statutory remedies, etc. A "public office" is, after all, legally defined as someone in charge of the PROPERTY
35 of the "public":

36 “Public office. The right, authority, and duty created and conferred by law, by which for a given period, either
37 fixed by law or enduring at the pleasure of the creating power, an individual is invested with some portion of the
38 sovereign functions of government for the benefit of the public. Walker v. Rich, 79 Cal.App. 139, 249 P. 56, 58.

45 the public, or with public functions to be exercised in the supposed interest of the people, the service to be
46 compensated by a stated yearly salary, and the occupant having a designation or title, the position so created is 47 a public office. State v. Brennan, 49 Ohio.St. 33, 29 N.E. 593.
48 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1235]

49 Even the public office ITSELF is property of the national government, so those claiming any civil statutory status are claiming
50 a civil office within the government. It is otherwise unconstitutional to regulate private property or private rights. The only
51 way you can surrender your private status is voluntarily adopt an office or civil status or the "benefits", "rights", or privileges
52 attaching to said office or status, as we prove in:

1. Civil Status \(Important!\)-SEDM

It is custody or "benefit" or control of government/public property that grants government control over those handling or using such property:

"The State in such cases exercises no greater right than an individual may exercise over the use of his own property when leased or loaned to others. The conditions upon which the privilege shall be enjoyed being stated or implied in the legislation authorizing its grant, no right is, of course, impaired by their enforcement. The recipient of the privilege, in effect, stipulates to comply with the conditions. It matters not how limited the privilege conferred, its acceptance implies an assent to the regulation of its use and the compensation for it."
[Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876)]

*"The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender."*
[Prov. 22:7, Bible, NKJV]

Curses of Disobedience [to God's Laws]

"The alien [Washington, D.C. is legislatively "alien" in relation to states of the Union] who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall come down lower and lower [malicious destruction of EQUAL PROTECTION and EQUAL TREATMENT by abusing FRANCHISES]. He shall lend to you [Federal Reserve counterfeiting franchise], but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

"Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the Lord your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder, and on your descendants forever.

"Because you did not serve [ONLY] the Lord your God with joy and gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, therefore you shall serve your [covetous thieving lawyer] enemies, whom the Lord will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron [franchise codes] on your neck until He has destroyed you. The Lord will bring a nation against you from afar [the District of CRIMINALS], from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies [the American Eagle], a nation whose language [LEGALESE] you will not understand, a nation of fierce [coercive and fascist] countenance, which does not respect the elderly [assassinates them by denying them healthcare through bureaucratic delays on an Obamacare waiting list] nor show favor to the young [destroying their ability to learn in the public FOOL system]. And they shall eat the increase of your livestock and the produce of your land [with "trade or business" franchise taxes], until you [and all your property] are destroyed [or STOLEN/CONFISCATED]; they shall not leave you grain or new wine or oil, or the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you.
[Deut. 28:43-51, Bible, NKJV]

You cannot MIX or comingle PRIVATE property with PUBLIC property without converting the PRIVATE property ownership from absolute to qualified. You must keep them SEPARATE at all times and it is the MAIN and MOST IMPORTANT role of government to maintain that separation. Governments, after all, are created ONLY to protect private property and the FIRST step in that protection is to protect PRIVATE property from being converted to PUBLIC property. For proof, see:

Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025
<https://sedm.org/LibertyU/SeparatingPublicPrivate.pdf>

What Congress is doing is abusing its own property to in effect create "de facto public offices" within the government, in violation of 4 U.S.C. §72, as is proven in:

1 This is how we describe the reason why people should avoid privileges and thereby avoid possession, custody, use, or
2 "benefit" of government/public property on the opening page of our site:

3 "People of all races, genders, political beliefs, sexual orientations, and nearly all religions are welcome here.
4 All are treated equally under REAL "law". The only way to remain truly free and equal under the civil law is to
5 avoid seeking government civil services, benefits, property, special or civil status, exemptions, privileges, or
6 special treatment. All such pursuits of government services or property require individual and lawful consent to
7 a franchise and the surrender of inalienable constitutional rights AND EQUALITY in the process, and should
8 therefore be AVOIDED. The rights and equality given up are the "cost" of procuring the "benefit" or property
9 from the government, in fact. Nothing in life is truly "free". Anyone who claims that such "benefits" or property
10 should be free and cost them nothing is a thief who wants to use the government as a means to STEAL on his or
11 her behalf. All just rights spring from responsibilities/obligations under the laws of a higher power. If that higher
12 power is God, you can be truly and objectively free. If it is government, you are guaranteed to be a slave because
13 they can lawfully set the cost of their property as high as they want as a Merchant under the U.C.C. If you want

22 [SEDM Opening Page; <http://sedm.org>]

23 "Non-resident Non-Person" or "non-person" are synonymous with "transient foreigner", "in transitu", and "stateless" (in 24 relation to the national government). We invented this term. The term does not appear in federal statutes because statutes
25 cannot even define things or people who are not subject to them and therefore foreign and sovereign. The term "non-
26 individual" used on this site is equivalent to and a synonym for "non-person" on this site, even though STATUTORY
27 "individuals" are a SUBSET of "persons" within the Internal Revenue Code. Likewise, the term "private human" is also
28 synonymous with "non-person". Hence, a "non-person":

- 29 1. Retains their sovereign immunity. They do not waive it under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C.
30 Chapter 97 or the longarm statutes of the state they occupy.
- 31 2. Is protected by the United States Constitution and not federal statutory civil law.
- 32 3. May not have federal statutory civil law cited against them. If they were, a violation of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
33 17 and a constitutional tort would result if they were physically present on land protected by the United States
34 Constitution within the exterior limits of states of the Union.
- 35 4. Is on an equal footing with the United States government in court. "Persons" would be on an UNEQUAL, INFERIOR,
36 and subservient level if they were subject to federal territorial law.

37 Don't expect vain public servants to willingly admit that there is such a thing as a human "non-person" who satisfies the above
38 criteria because it would undermine their systematic and treasonous plunder and enslavement of people they are supposed to
39 be protecting. However, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that the "right to be left alone" is the purpose of the constitution.
40 Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438. A so-called "government" that refuses to leave you alone or respect or protect your
41 sovereignty and equality in relation to them is no government at all and has violated the purpose of its creation described in
42 the Declaration of Independence. Furthermore, anyone from the national or state government who refuses to enforce this
43 status, or who imputes or enforces any status OTHER than this status under any law system other than the common law is:

- 44 1. "purposefully availing themselves" of commerce within OUR jurisdiction.
- 45 2. STEALING, where the thing being STOLEN is the public rights associated with the statutory civil "status" they are 46 presuming we have but never expressly consented to have.
- 47 3. Engaging in criminal identity theft, because the civil status is associated with a domicile in a place we are not 48 physically in and do not consent to a civil domicile in.
- 49 4. Consenting to our Member Agreement.
- 50 5. Waiving official, judicial, and sovereign immunity.
- 51 6. Acting in a private and personal capacity beyond the statutory jurisdiction of their government employer.
- 52 7. Compelling us to contract with the state under the civil statutory "social compact".
- 53 8. Interfering with our First Amendment right to freely and civilly DISASSOCIATE with the state.
- 54 9. Engaged in a constitutional tort.

1 If freedom and self-ownership or "ownership" in general means anything at all, it means the right to deny any and all others,
2 including governments, the ability to use or benefit in any way from our body, our exclusively owned private property, and
3 our labor.

20 9.4 Ministry thinks they are superior to everyone or anyone else

21 We do not claim to be "better" or "superior" to any other "person" or human being. In fact, we seek to enforce the 22 Constitutional requirement established in the Declaration of Independence that:

- 23 1. "all men are created equal" by the "Creator".
24 2. All "persons", including governments, are treated equally IN EVERY RESPECT. There is only one important
25 difference between human beings and artificial legal "persons", which is that the latter are NOT protected by the bill of 26 rights and have only the "privileges" that are granted to them or recognized by government.
27 3. The only way anyone, whether human or artificial, can become UNEQUAL or inferior in any way to any other person
28 or human being is to CONSENT in a manner that they and no one else prescribes and defines. See:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

29 The implication of the above is that no creation of men, including a government, can have any more authority or delegated
30 powers than a single man or woman. The United States government is a government of delegated power ALONE, as declared
31 by the U.S. Supreme Court, and The People CANNOT delegate any authority that they themselves do not INDIVIDUALLY
32 also possess.

33 "The question is not what power the federal government ought to have, but what powers, in fact, have been given
34 by the people... The federal union is a government of delegated powers. It has only such as are expressly
35 conferred upon it, and such as are reasonably to be implied from those granted. In this respect, we differ
36 radically from nations where all legislative power, without restriction or limitation, is vested in a parliament or 37 other legislative body subject to no restriction except the discretion of its members." (Congress)
38 [U.S. v. William M. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 \(1936\)]

39 Equality of rights is the foundation of ALL of your freedom, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court. Anyone who insists that 40 they SHOULD NOT be treated equally IN EVERY RESPECT to a government in a civil court is essentially admitting that 41 they DO NOT want to be "free" as the U.S. Supreme Court defines it:

42 "But arbitrary selection can never be justified by calling it classification. The equal protection demanded by the 43 fourteenth amendment forbids this. No language is more worthy of frequent and thoughtful consideration than 44 these words of Mr. Justice Matthews, speaking for this court, in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 369, 6
45 S.Sup.Ct. 1064, 1071: 'When we consider the nature and the theory of our institutions of government, the 46 principles upon which they are supposed to rest, and review the history of their development, we are constrained

1 to conclude that they do not mean to leave room for the play and action of purely personal and arbitrary power.'
2 The first official action of this nation declared the foundation of government in these words: 'We hold these truths
3 to be self-evident, [165 U.S. 150, 160] that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
4 with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.' While such
5 declaration of principles may not have the force of organic law, or be made the basis of judicial decision as to
6 the limits of right and duty, and while in all cases reference must be had to the organic law of the nation for such
7 limits, yet the latter is but the body and the letter of which the former is the thought and the spirit, and it is always
8 safe to read the letter of the constitution in the spirit of the Declaration of Independence. No duty rests more
9 imperatively upon the courts than the enforcement of those constitutional provisions intended to secure that 10 equality of rights which is the foundation of free government."
11 [Gulf, C. & S. F. R. Co. v. Ellis, 165 U.S. 150 (1897)]

12 No government can or should therefore have any more authority than a single human being. Anyone who insists otherwise
13 is:

- 14 1. Violating the requirement for equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of the United States
15 Constitution.
- 16 2. Imputing to themselves an unconstitutional "Title of Nobility".
- 17 3. Imputing "supernatural powers" to government, because the ONLY "natural" source are the people protected by said 18 government from whom all the powers of the government derive.
- 19 4. Committing paganism and idolatry towards governments and/or civil rulers. The foundation of this idolatry are the 20 "supernatural powers" that form the basis for establishing a state-sponsored civil religion that worships, serves, and 21 obeys corrupt governments or civil rulers instead of the one and only living God.

22 "Religion. Man's relation to Divinity, to reverence, worship, obedience, and submission to mandates and 23 precepts of supernatural or superior beings. In its broadest sense includes all forms of belief in the existence of 24 superior beings exercising power over human beings by volition, imposing rules of conduct, with future
25 rewards and punishments. Bond uniting man to God, and a virtue whose purpose is to render God worship
26 due him as source of all being and principle of all government of things. Nikulnikoff v. Archbishop, etc., of 27 Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church, 142 Misc. 894, 255 N.Y.S. 653, 663."
28 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1292]

- 29 5. An elitist.
- 30 6. A fool.
- 31 7. What the soviets called a "Useful Idiot" for socialist tyrants.

32 Consistent with the above, the Sovereignty Franchise protecting Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM) and
33 website and its members confirms that its main purpose is to ensure the EQUALITY of all rights in every respect between a
34 single human being and an entire government. This could hardly be referred to as elitist in any respect, unless of course YOU
35 are the elitist who wants a big government that acts as a nanny state and has rights above ALL:

Injury Defense Franchise and Agreement, Form #06.027
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

36 The implication of COMPLETE equality between each separate human being and an entire government is that if a government
37 claims "sovereign immunity" and insists that it cannot be sued without its express written consent, then the government, in
38 turn, when it is enforcing any civil liability against ANY American, has the EQUAL burden to produce evidence of consent
39 IN WRITING to be sued. That consent must, in turn, be given by a person domiciled in a place OTHER than that protected
40 by the Constitution, because the Declaration of Independence says the rights of people in states of the Union are "unalienable",
41 which means they CANNOT be sold, bargained away, or transferred by ANY process, including a franchise or contract.

42 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
43 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
44 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
45 --"
46 [Declaration of Independence]

47 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
48 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

49 Therefore, the only people who can lawfully "alienate" any Constitutional right in relation to a real, de jure government by 50 exercising their right to contract, are those NOT protected by the Constitution and who therefore are either domiciled on 51 federal territory or situated abroad, which also is not protected by the Constitution.

1 To us, there is ONLY ONE law, which is the two Great Commandments spoken of by Jesus:

2 Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving that He had answered
3 them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

4 Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: "Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD
5 is one. And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and
6 with all your strength. This is the first commandment. And the second, like it, is this: "You shall love your 7 neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

8 So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, and there is no
9 other but He. And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the 10 strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."
11 [Mark 12:28-33, Bible, NKJV]

12 We fulfill the above commandments by educating people about law and helping them obey and enforce it so as to help them
13 honor the two main requirements of the common law, which are:

- 14 1. Do not harm the equal rights of your neighbor. The term "neighbor" includes "government", which is just an artificial
15 entity created by men. This is a fulfillment of the second Great Commandment above to love your neighbor as 16 yourself.
- 17 2. Honor all contracts and commitments you make.

18 Therefore, our mission, when you merge the requirements of God's Law and Man's law is:

- 19 1. Do not harm the equal rights of your neighbor. The term "neighbor" includes "government", which is just an artificial
20 entity created by men. This is a fulfillment of the second Great Commandment above to love your neighbor as 21 yourself.
- 22 2. Honor all contracts and commitments you make.
- 23 3. Enforce the requirement for consent in all interactions between everyone, including between any government or civil 24 ruler and "the governed". Emphasize that the MAIN purpose of government is to prosecute those who injure others
25 without the consent of the injured:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Consent.pdf>

- 26 4. Do not respect, subsidize, or cooperate with any effort to enforce or impute any more rights to a government or civil 27 ruler than the people individually themselves have. Otherwise, the first Great Commandment above has been violated
28 because idolatry and a state-sponsored religion have been established. This is described in:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SocialismCivilReligion.pdf>

- 29 5. Do not allow the government to make those protected, meaning "citizens" and "residents", into a public officer, and 30 therefore to serve TWO masters, because this is not only idolatry, but a violation of the separation of powers between 31 what is public and what is private.

32 "No servant [or religious ministry or biological person] can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one
33 *and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon
34 [government]."
35 [Luke 16:13, Bible, NKJV]

36 "The rights of the individuals are restricted only to the extent that they have been voluntarily surrendered by the 37 citizenship to the agencies of government."
38 [City of Dallas v. Mitchell, 245 S.W. 944]

39 "Undoubtedly no single nation can change the law of the sea. That law is of universal obligation, and no statute
40 *of one or two nations can create obligations for the world. Like all the laws of nations, it rests upon the common
41 consent of civilized communities."*
42 [The Scotia, 81 U.S. (14 Wall.) 170 (1871)]

44 encouraged to read the following memorandum of law:

3 9.5 Ministry thinks they are not subject to the law or that they can choose what laws they want 4 to be subject to

5 "Law is often but the tyrant's will, and always so when it violates the right of an individual."
6 [Thomas Jefferson to Isaac H. Tiffany, 1819; SOURCE:
7 <http://www.fanguardian.org/Subjects/Politics/ThomasJefferson/jeff5.htm>]

8 This kind of false accusation arises from a fundamental misunderstanding about the TWO types of statutory enactments
9 instituted by any government:

- 10 1. Public law. Pertains equally to all, whether they consent or not. This usually includes only the criminal laws and 11 excludes the civil statutes.
- 12 2. Private law: Pertains to particular CONSENTING persons and not EQUALLY to everyone governed. These types of 13 law only acquire "the force of law" when individual parties consent to them. They include civil franchises. Most such 14 franchises are implemented using licensing.

15 We do not ever say or advocate any of the following:

- 16 1. That we are above "the law".
- 17 2. That we are not subject to "law" as legally defined.
- 18 3. That we can choose what specific civil statutes we want to be subject to.
- 19 4. That we are not subject to the criminal laws of the place we physically are at any given time.

20 All civil statutory "codes" passed by the government are an implementation of what the courts call the "social compact".

21 "In Europe, the executive is synonymous with the sovereign power of a state...where it is too commonly acquired
22 *by force or fraud, or both...In America, however the case is widely different. Our government is founded upon
23 compact [consent expressed in a written contract called a Constitution or in positive law]. Sovereignty was,
24 and is, in the people [as human beings: that's you!]."*
25 [Glass v. The Sloop Betsy, 3 (U.S.) Dall 6]

26 A "compact" is the equivalent of a contract. The only parties bound by it are those who consent.

27 "Compact, n. An agreement or contract between persons, nations, or states. Commonly applied to working
28 agreements between and among states concerning matters of mutual concern. A contract between parties, which 29 creates obligations and rights capable of being enforced and contemplated as such between the parties, in their
30 distinct and independent characters. A mutual consent of parties concerned respecting some property or right
31 that is the object of the stipulation, or something that is to be done or forborne. See also Compact Clause;
32 Confederacy; Interstate compact; Treaty."
33 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 281]

34 You become a party to the "social compact" by voluntarily choosing a civil domicile within the jurisdiction of a specific
35 government. This choice makes you a consenting party to the "social compact" and is an exercise of your First Amendment
36 right to politically associate. One's domicile is the civil PRIVATE law and contract you consent to be subject to. The 37 Declaration of Independence says that ALL the just authority of government derives from the consent of the governed.

38 Implicit in the exercise of the right to associate or contract is the right NOT to associate or contract with ANY group if one
39 so chooses. Those who never choose such a domicile and never politically and legally associate are not subject to the civil 40 statutory laws of that jurisdiction but are still protected by the common law. They instead are described by any of the 41 following names:

- 1 1. "nonresidents"
- 2 2. "transient foreigners"
- 3 3. "stateless persons"
- 4 4. "in transitu"
- 5 5. "transient"
- 6 6. "sojourner"

7 Hence, you can only be civilly governed BY YOUR EXPRESS and continuing consent to be governed. Obviously, the 8 criminal law and the common law do not require consent of the governed, but the civil statutory law DOES. The vast majority
9 of law published by government is civil statutory law and even tax crimes are really PENAL rather than CRIMINAL in 10 nature, and therefore are voluntary for those who are nonresident.

11 Some laws are civil in nature while others are criminal. Criminal laws apply to EVERYONE physically present on the 12 territory of the government whether they consent or not, while civil laws only apply to those who choose a domicile on that
13 territory. All franchises and the excise taxes that implement them are civil in nature and therefore "activate" or "acquire the 14 force of law" ONLY by your voluntary choice of domicile. Even the criminal provisions of the tax laws, for instance, are in 15 fact civil franchises that are penal rather than criminal in nature. An example of this is the so-called "criminal" provisions of 16 the Internal Revenue Code. All income taxes are civil franchises and a civil statutory liability that attach to one's 17 VOLUNTARY choice of civil domicile. This is covered in:

The "Trade or Business" Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

18 Hence, the alleged "criminal" provisions of the I.R.C. (26 U.S.C. §§7201 through 7217) in fact are CIVIL and PENAL 19 provisions that acquire the "force of law" based on domicile on federal territory not within the jurisdiction of any state of the 20 Union. Furthermore, you CANNOT lawfully acquire a domicile in a place you have never been physically present in and 21 most Americans have never been physically present on federal territory.

22 We are therefore not saying that we are ABOVE any law, but simply that a large component of what most Americans think
23 of as "law" is really just a voluntary civil franchise or what the courts call a "compact" that you FIRST must volunteer for 24 before you can be subject to. This type of law is called "PRIVATE law". It is NOT a crime to NOT volunteer for the 25 "benefits" of such franchises or compacts. The courts have routinely held, in fact, that the exercise of any right cannot be 26 penalized or criminalized if the result does not harm the equal rights of any specific person:

27 "It is an unconstitutional deprivation of due process for the government to penalize a person merely because he
28 has exercised a protected statutory or constitutional right. United States v. Goodwin, 457 U.S. 368, 372, 102
29 S.Ct. 2485, 2488, 73 L.Ed.2d. 74 (1982)."
30 [People of Territory of Guam v. Fegurgur, 800 F.2d. 1470 (9th Cir. 1986)]

31 "Where rights secured by the Constitution there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate
32 them."
33 [Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 491 (1966)]

34 A classic book on the common law written by a Harvard Law professor admits that all civil franchises, in fact, are not "law"
35 in a classical sense, but rather civil "compacts". The implication is that anyone who calls a franchise "law" without putting 36 the word "PRIVATE" in front of it is LYING to you, keeping in mind that the income tax is a civil franchise:

37 "Municipal law, thus understood, is properly defined to be "a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme 38 power in a state, commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong."

39 [. . .]

40 It is also called a rule to distinguish it from a compact or agreement; for a compact is a promise proceeding
41 from us, law is a command directed to us. The language of a compact is, "I will, or will not, do this"; that of a
42 law is, "thou shalt, or shalt not, do it." It is true there is an obligation which a compact carries with it, equal
43 in point of conscience to that of a law; but then the original of the obligation is different. In compacts we 44 ourselves determine and promise what shall be done, before we are obliged to do it; in laws, we are obliged to 45 act without ourselves determining or promising anything at all. Upon these accounts law is defined to be "a 46 rule."
47 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Roscoe Pound, Second Edition, 1925, p. 4]

1 The U.S. Supreme Court enunciated the above slightly differently:

2 "[l]aw . . . must be not a special rule for a particular person or a particular case, but . . . the general law . . . so
3 that every citizen shall hold his life, liberty, property and immunities under the protection of the general rules
4 which govern society."
5 [Hurtado v. California, 110 U.S. 516, 535-536 (1884)]

6 Consistent with the above, administrative "franchise courts" are established which themselves are PRIVATE, non-
7 governmental courts, including: 1. Traffic court; 2. Family Court; 3. State and federal tax court. The legal dictionary even
8 recognizes such courts as PRIVATE, NON-GOVERNMENTAL courts:

9 "franchise court. Hist. A privately held court that (usu.) exists by virtue of a royal grant [privilege], with 10 jurisdiction over a variety of matters, depending on the grant and whatever powers the court acquires over time.
11 In 1274, Edward I abolished many of these feudal courts by forcing the nobility to demonstrate by what authority
12 (quo warranto) they held court. If a lord could not produce a charter reflecting the franchise, the court was 13 abolished. - Also termed courts of the franchise.

14 Dispensing justice was profitable. Much revenue could come from the fees and dues, fines and amercements. This
15 explains the growth of the second class of feudal courts, the Franchise Courts. They too were private courts held
16 by feudal lords. Sometimes their claim to jurisdiction was based on old pre-Conquest grants ... But many of them
17 were, in reality, only wrongful usurpations of private jurisdiction by powerful lords. These were put down after 18 the famous Quo Warranto enquiry in the reign of Edward 1." W.J.V. Windeyer, Lectures on Legal History 56-57 19 (2d ed. 1949)."

21 The issue is NOT whether government should GOVERN and thereby satisfy the purpose of its creation, but rather whether:

- 22 1. It is a conflict of interest for government to be established to PROTECT private rights, and to abuse that public trust to 23 make a profitable BUSINESS out of alienating, destroying, and undermining these same rights WITHOUT the consent
24 of the parties who are injured by such enforcement actions.
- 25 2. Any government can civilly govern those who expressly do NOT consent to the "social compact" and who do not 26 identify themselves as "citizens" or "residents", but rather "nonresidents". By "civilly govern", we mean enforce any 27 portion of the CIVIL statutory franchises upon them. The Declaration of Independence specifically says NO, because 28 it says that all JUST powers of [CIVIL] government derive from the EXPRESS consent of the people.
- 29 3. A government that only protects PUBLIC property and refuses to recognize or PROTECT EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE 30 property is really a "government" in a de jure or classical sense. Right now, the only way they will protect your 31 property is if you donate it to the government and become the QUALIFIED owner rather than the ABSOLUTE owner.
- 32 4. It is DISHONEST and fraudulent:
 - 33 4.1. To identify any franchise court:
 - 34 4.1.1. As a part of the government.
 - 35 4.1.2. Able to hear cases against anyone who does not consent to the franchise.
 - 36 4.2. To identify a franchise as "law" for everyone rather than what it REALLY is: a compact.
- 37 5. It is an unconstitutional bill of attainder for an administrative franchise court (such as traffic court, tax court, or family 38 court) to impose the duties of a franchisee upon those who never consented to the franchise. Such franchisees include 39 "taxpayer" (under the tax code), "driver" (under the vehicle code, or "spouse" (under the family code).
- 40 6. Any CIVIL government should have a MONOPOLY on civilly governing. The Declaration of Independence says they 41 DO NOT and that we have a DUTY to provide "better safeguards for our future security" when rulers become corrupt
42 or the government ceases to protect PRIVATE rights.
- 43 7. Any government, by promoting a monopoly on "protection", can prohibit anyone else from CIVILLY governing any 44 aspect of their lives that they deem to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE, and thereby beyond the control of government.
- 45 8. By civilly governing, any government can lawfully use its authority to enact CIVIL statutory law to impose any kind of 46 duty, regulation, or tax upon the populace that they did not FIRST consent to by choosing a specific status under that 47 specific franchise and being PROTECTED in the right NOT to choose such status.
- 48 9. It is a violation of the legislative intent of the Constitution or constitutes duress to implement any of the following:
 - 49 9.1. Ensure that NO POWERS are delegated or reserved to the people to govern their own lives as required by the 50 Ninth and Tenth Amendment by destroying all such authority by illegally enforced or imposed franchises.
 - 51 9.2. Compel people to be subject to a "social compact" and therefore contract that they don't consent to.
52 Governments are created to protect your right to both contract and not be compelled to contract.
 - 53 9.3. Interfere with self-government by the people.

1 The determination of the Framers Convention and the ratifying conventions to preserve complete and
2 unimpaired state self-government in all matters not committed to the general government is one of the plainest
3 facts which emerges from the history of their deliberations. And adherence to that determination is incumbent
4 equally upon the federal government and the states. State powers can neither be appropriated on the one hand
5 nor abdicated on the other. As this court said in Texas v. White, 7 Wall. 700, 725, 'The preservation of the 6 States, and the maintenance of their governments, are as much within the design and care of the Constitution
7 as the preservation of the Union and the maintenance of the National government. The Constitution, in all its
8 provisions, looks to an indestructible Union, composed of indestructible States.' Every journey to a forbidden end
9 begins with the first step; and the danger of such a step by the federal government in the direction of taking over 10 the powers of the states is that the end of the journey may find the states so despoiled of their powers, or-what 11 may amount to the same thing-so [298 U.S. 238, 296] relieved of the responsibilities which possession of the 12 powers necessarily enjoins, as to reduce them to little more than geographical subdivisions of the national 13 domain. It is safe to say that if, when the Constitution was under consideration, it had been thought that any such 14 danger lurked behind its plain words, it would never have been ratified.

15 And the Constitution itself is in every real sense a law-the lawmakers being the people themselves, in whom
16 under our system all political power and sovereignty XE "SOVEREIGNTY:Political power and sovereignty"
17 primarily resides, and through whom such power and sovereignty primarily speaks. It is by that law, and not
18 otherwise, that the legislative, executive, and judicial agencies which it created exercise such political authority
19 as they have been permitted to possess. The Constitution speaks for itself in terms so plain that to 20 misunderstand their import is not rationally possible. 'We the People of the United States,' it says, 'do ordain
21 and establish this Constitution.' Ordain and establish! These are definite words of enactment, and without more
22 would stamp what follows with the dignity and character of law. The framers of the Constitution, however, were 23 not content to let the matter rest here, but provided explicitly-'This Constitution, and the Laws of the United 24 States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; ... shall be the supreme Law of the Land.' (Const. art. 6, cl.
25 2.) The supremacy of the Constitution as law is thus declared without qualification. That supremacy is 26 absolute; the supremacy of a statute enacted by Congress is not absolute but conditioned upon its being made
27 in pursuance of the Constitution. And a judicial tribunal, clothed by that instrument with complete judicial 28 power, and, therefore, by the very nature of the power, required to ascertain and apply the law to the facts in
29 every case or proceeding properly brought for adjudication, must apply the supreme law and reject the inferior
30 stat- [298 U.S. 238, 297] ute whenever the two conflict. In the discharge of that duty, the opinion of the lawmakers
31 that a statute passed by them is valid must be given great weight, Adkins v. Children's Hospital, 261 U.S. 525,
32 544, 43 S.Ct. 394, 24 A.L.R. 1238; but their opinion, or the court's opinion, that the statute will prove greatly or 33 generally beneficial is wholly irrelevant to the inquiry. Schechter Poultry Corp. v. United States, 295 U.S. 495,
34 549, 550 S., 55 S.Ct. 837, 97 A.L.R. 947.
35 Carter v. Carter Coal Co., [298 U.S. 238 (1936)]

36 It seems to us that your accusation of superiority applies mainly to the government and NOT us. The government imputes to 37 itself what is called "sovereign immunity". Sovereign immunity, official immunity, and judicial immunity are all types of 38 immunity not enjoyed by ordinary citizens. These types of immunity make the government and those working for the 39 government superior to the people they are SUPPOSED to be SERVING rather than ruling over.

40 "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.
41 Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. And 42 whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave--just as the Son of Man did not come to be served,
43 but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
44 [Matthew 20:25-28, Bible, NKJV]

45 It is THIS type of SUPERIORITY and INEQUALITY that we object to and legally oppose, and which YOU ALSO should 46 oppose. If you don't ALSO oppose THAT, then you are a hypocrite and you have no right to be throwing stones at us.

47 Sovereign immunity can only be waived by the consent of the party who has it. Hence, those who are protected by it can 48 PICK AND CHOOSE what law they want to be subject to. This type of immunity:

- 49 1. Was ridiculed by the U.S. Supreme Court.

50 "... the maxim that the King can do no wrong has no place in our system of government; yet it is also true, in
51 respect to the State itself, that whatever wrong is attempted in its name is imputable to its government and not
52 to the State, for, as it can speak and act only by law, whatever it does say and do must be lawful. That which
53 therefore is unlawful because made so by the supreme law, the Constitution of the United States, is not the
54 word or deed of the State, but is the mere wrong and trespass of those individual persons who falsely spread
55 and act in its name."

56 "This distinction is essential to the idea of constitutional government. To deny it or blot it out obliterates the 57 line of demarcation that separates constitutional government from absolutism, free self- government based on 58 the sovereignty of the people from that despotism, whether of the one or the many, which enables the agent of 59 the state to declare and decree that he is the state; to say 'L'Etat, c'est moi.' Of what avail are written 60 constitutions, whose bills of right, for the security of individual liberty, have been written too often with the

1 blood of martyrs shed upon the battle-field and the scaffold, if their limitations and restraints upon power may
2 be overpassed with impunity by the very agencies created and appointed to guard, defend, and enforce them;
3 and that, too, with the sacred authority of law, not only compelling obedience, but entitled to respect? And how
4 else can these principles of individual liberty and right be maintained, if, when violated, the judicial tribunals are
5 forbidden to visit penalties upon individual offenders, who are the instruments of wrong, whenever they interpose
6 the shield of the state? The doctrine is not to be tolerated. The whole frame and scheme
7 of the political institutions of this country, state and federal, protest against it. Their continued existence is not
8 compatible with it. It is the doctrine of absolutism, pure, simple, and naked, and of communism which is its 9 twin, the double progeny of the same evil birth."
10 [Pointexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 5 S.Ct. 903 (1885)]

- 11 2. Causes those in government and the government itself to become the equivalent of pagan deities who are accountable
12 to no one. It makes the government into a state-sponsored civil religion, where civil rulers have "supernatural powers"
13 above and beyond you and me, who are the ONLY "natural" source for said powers as human beings. See:

14 Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
15 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 16 3. Is a recipe for anarchy, lawlessness, lack of accountability, and tyranny on the part of all those possessing said
17 immunity.
18 4. Immunity is incompatible with the concept of delegated powers that is the foundation of our system of government.
19 The government, as a government of delegated powers ALONE, cannot logically possess any more powers or 20 sovereignty or immunity than the people from whom they DERIVED said powers. Every corruption of the de jure
21 government can be traced back to a violation of this principle.

22 "The question is not what power the federal government ought to have, but what powers, in fact, have been given
23 by the people... The federal union is a government of delegated powers. It has only such as are expressly
24 conferred upon it, and such as are reasonably to be implied from those granted. In this respect, we differ
25 radically from nations where all legislative power, without restriction or limitation, is vested in a parliament
26 or other legislative body subject to no restriction except the discretion of its members." (Congress)
27 [U.S. v. William M. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936)]

28 "The government of the United States is one of delegated powers alone. Its authority is defined and limited by
29 the Constitution. All powers not granted to it by that instrument are reserved to the States or the people. No rights
30 can be acquired under the constitution or laws of the United States, except such as the government of the United 31 States has the authority to grant or secure. All that cannot be so granted or secured are left under the protection
32 of the States."
33 [United States v. Cruikshank et al., 92 U.S. 542 (1876)]

34 Those who denigrate us for expecting the SAME EQUAL treatment and IMMUNITY as any and every government are 35 HYPOCRITES and ELITISTS. What gives you the right to apply UNEQUAL standards, or to make anyone else superior to 36 you or me without the consent of the party affected by such a decision? That's tyranny and a constitutional tort. There are 37 only TWO ways to remove this hypocrisy and elitism:

- 38 1. Recognize our EQUAL right to sovereign immunity and official immunity. OR...
39 2. Oppose, punish, criticize, and refuse to subsidize any and every attempt by any so-called "government" to assert
40 sovereignty, sovereign immunity, judicial immunity, or official immunity.

41 Which of the two contradictory approaches are you willing to accept? If you won't choose one, you have no moral authority
42 to throw rocks at us for doing EXACTLY the same thing you accuse us of doing.

43 "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first."
44 [Jesus in John 8:7, Bible, NKJV]

45 What you advocate contradicts itself and therefore cannot be truthful. In a society where EVERYONE is equal:

- 46 1. Kings in a classical sense are impossible.
47 2. Everyone is a King and the people they "govern" are public SERVANTS in the government. They are "Caesar" within 48 the meaning of Romans 13.

49 "The people of this State, as the successors of its former sovereign, are entitled to all the rights which formerly
50 belonged to the King by his prerogative. Through the medium of their Legislature they may exercise all the 51 powers which previous to the Revolution could have been exercised either by the King alone, or by him in 52 conjunction with his Parliament; subject only to those restrictions which have been imposed by the Constitution
53 of this State or of the U.S."

1 [Lansing v. Smith, 21 D. 89., 4 Wendel 9 (1829) (New York)]

2 "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's."
3 [Mark 12:14-17, Bible, NKJV]

- 4 3. The only people who should be “rendering to Caesar” are the people working in the government. That is why they are
5 called “public SERVANTS” because they are inferior to and SERVE the public. The Bible says that EVERYTHING
6 belongs to God, and therefore there is NOTHING left for “government” to “govern” except those who consent.

7 "Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the Lord your God, also the earth with all that is in it."
8 [Deuteronomy 10:14, Bible, NKJV]

9 Most pastors FALSELY think “Caesar” within Romans 13 means “government” and it DOES NOT. For biblical proof,
10 see:

11 3.1. What Pastors and Clergy Need to Know About Government and Taxation, Form #12.006

12 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13 3.2. Should Christians Always Obey the State?, Form #13.014

14 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 15 4. Only those who CONSENT can be civilly governed.
16 4.1. They manifest their consent by VOLUNTARILY declaring themselves STATUTORY “citizens” and “residents”.
17 4.2. Those who do not make such a voluntary declaration can ONLY have their civil activities governed or regulated
18 under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97 and the Minimum Contacts Doctrine.
19 5. The source of all sovereignty is the People AS INDIVIDUALS. The COLLECTIVE can have no more delegated
20 authority than a single man. If it does, it imputes to itself “supernatural powers” and becomes an object of pagan idol 21 worship.
22 6. Inequality is possible:
23 6.1. Only between PRIVATE parties.
24 6.2. Only with the consent of BOTH PRIVATE parties involved, and only involving contracts between PRIVATE 25 “persons”.
26 7. It is against the Declaration of Independence and the organic law that a human being can be UNEQUAL in relation to a
27 de jure governments, which are PUBLIC “persons” protected by the Constitution. This is because all constitutional
28 rights are “unalienable”, and therefore cannot be bargained away to make anyone unequal to a government “person”.

29 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
30 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

- 31 8. The only place where “persons” can be UNEQUAL in relation to a real de jure government is on federal territory or as a 32 federal statutory “employee” or “public officer” where:
33 8.1. Constitutional rights and the Bill of Rights do not exist or apply.
34 8.2. The government is a “parens patriae”.
35 8.3. EVERYTHING is a privilege and not a right.
36 9. All governments are established by authority delegated by the INDIVIDUAL PEOPLE they serve. In that sense, they 37 govern ONLY by our continuing consent and when they fail to do their job properly, it is our right AND duty as the 38 Sovereigns they serve to fire them by changing our domicile and forming a competing government that does a better job.
39 10. No group or collection of men can have any more authority than a single man or woman.
40 11. No government, which is simply a collection of men, can have any more authority, rights, or privileges than a single man
41 or woman.
42 12. The people cannot delegate an authority they do not themselves individually have. For instance, they cannot delegate
43 the authority to injure the equal rights of others by stealing from others. Hence, they cannot delegate an authority to a 44 government to collect a tax that redistributes wealth by taking from one group of private individuals and giving it to 45 another group or class of private individuals.
46 13. A government that asserts “sovereign immunity” must also give human beings the same right as a requirement of equal
47 protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of the Constitution. When governments assert sovereign immunity
48 in court, their opponent has to produce evidence in writing of their consent to be sued. The same concept of sovereign
49 immunity pertains to us as human beings and sovereigns, where if the government attempts to allege that we consented
50 to something, they too must produce evidence of consent to be sued and surrender rights IN WRITING.
51 14. “Government” and the “state” are TWO separate entities. The “government” works for the “State”, and the “State” in 52 turn is the PEOPLE as individuals, and not ANYONE serving in the Government.

1 “State. A people permanently occupying a fixed territory bound together by common-law habits and custom

17 If you would like to know more about how the government is LYING TO YOU by calling any franchise such as the income
18 tax “law” when in fact it is NOT “law” but a “compact” in order to deceive people into obeying it who in fact can choose
19 NOT to be subject to it, please read:

20 9.6 Ministry advocates “anarchy”

21 Another common false accusation is that our ministry advocates “anarchy” toward all law or the rule of law. We do not
22 advocate anarchy or lawlessness toward all law or toward the rule of law, in fact. On this subject, the SEDM Member
23 Agreement, Form #01.001 says the following:

24 SEDM Member Agreement
25 Section 1.2: Purpose of Joining

26 2. I do not seek sovereignty for any of the following reasons:

27 2.1 As a get out of jail free card. We don’t promote or condone sovereignty as an excuse to be free from the 28 criminal laws, for instance. EVERYONE is subject to real, de jure criminal laws and SHOULD be subject.

29 2.2 As an excuse to be irresponsible for any loans or commitments I have ever made or will ever make. Some 30 people for instance are only interested in sovereignty so they can cancel debts or obligations they previously
31 made. We, on the other hand, believe that one should always honor every commitment or debt they previously 32 consented to, even if their consent at the time was not fully informed.

33 2.3 As an excuse to engage in violent, harmful, or criminal behavior. We believe that everyone should be
34 accountable and responsible for the harms they cause to others under the concept of equality of all. In a civil 35 context, that accountability is the common law and NOT the civil statutory law.

36 2.4. As an excuse to reject ALL man-made law and thereby be an anarchist. We think that true sovereignty can 37 only truly exist among a people who:

38 2.4.1 Are accountable under God’s laws at all times.

39 2.4.2 Cannot pick or choose which subset of God’s laws they CONSENT to be accountable under.

40 2.4.3 Are accountable under the criminal laws of the country they are physically present within, regardless of 41 their civil status or domicile.

42 2.4.4 Do not surrender their sovereignty by consenting to be civil statutory persons or choosing a civil domicile
43 within the statutory jurisdiction of any government.

44 2.5 As a justification to call myself a “sovereign citizen” or ANY OTHER name, label, or stereotype the 45 government might use to persecute whistleblowers that insist on an accountable, law abiding government. We

1 are simply crime fighters who seek to enforce the sovereignty delegated to use by the only true sovereign, which
2 is God.

3 2.6 As a justification to enforce superior rights or importance to myself or inferior rights to anyone else under
4 any law. ALL are equal under REAL law. That which creates or enforces an unequal or inferior status in the 5 eyes of the government is and must at all times be a voluntary franchise that I seek to avoid.
6 [SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1.2; <https://sedm.org/participate/member-agreement/>]

7 Clearly then, we do not oppose ALL man-made law and therefore are not “anarchists” or lawless at all. Furthermore, to say
8 that those who choose to be governed civilly only by God’s laws is a direct attack on a religion and undermines a religious 9 practice in violation of the First Amendment.

10 We also deal with the subject of anarchy in the following video and printed resources, which compares us with various types
11 of anarchists:

12 In fact, we oppose GOVERNMENT anarchy, which the U.S. Supreme Court described as follows:

13 *“Decency, security, and liberty alike demand that government officials shall be subjected to the same rules of
14 conduct that are commands to the citizen. In a government of laws, existence of the government will be imperiled*
15 *if it fails to observe the law scrupulously. Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or
16 for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker,
17 it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy. To declare*
18 that in the administration of the criminal law the end justifies the means—to declare that the government may
19 commit crimes in order to secure the conviction of a private criminal—would bring terrible retribution. Against
20 that pernicious doctrine this court should resolutely set its face.”
21 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438 \(1928\)]

22 Based on the above, GOVERNMENT anarchy results when governments do any of the following:

- 23 1. Enact laws that exempt themselves.
- 24 2. Are superior to the people they govern.
- 25 3. Break the laws with impunity. This happens most frequently when corrupt people in government engage in “selective 26 enforcement”, whereby they refuse to prosecute or interfere with the prosecution of anyone in government. The 27 Department of Justice (D.O.J.) or the District Attorney are the most frequent perpetrators of this type of crime.
- 28 4. Are able to choose which laws they want to be subject to, and thus refuse to enforce laws against themselves. The 29 most frequent method for this type of abuse is to assert sovereign, official, or judicial immunity as a defense in order to 30 protect the wrongdoers in government when they are acting outside their delegated authority, or outside what the 31 definitions in the statutes EXPRESSLY allow.

32 Also, whether the accusation that we are “anarchist” is accurate depends on what your subjective definition of anarchy is.
33 Here is the dictionary definition:

34 *Main Entry: an-ar-chy
35 Function: noun
36 Etymology: Medieval Latin anarchia, from Greek, from anarchos having no ruler, from an- + archos ruler --
37 more at ARCH-
38 [Source: Merriam Webster Dictionary]

39 In the United States of America we have no rulers. The government is to be our servant as we are to be individual sovereigns 40 with no rulers.

41 *Main Entry: rul-er
42 Function: noun
43 1 : one that rules; specifically : SOVEREIGN

44 *Main Entry: ¹sov-er-eign
45 Function: noun
46 1 a : one possessing or held to possess sovereignty b : one that exercises supreme authority within a limited
47 sphere
48 [Source: Merriam Webster Dictionary]

50 According to the United States Supreme Court, the individuals and not their representatives, possess the sovereignty and 51 conduct the government.

1 *"The words 'people of the United States' and 'citizens,' are synonymous terms, and mean the same thing. They
2 both describe the political body who, according to our republican institutions, form the sovereignty, and who
3 hold the power and conduct [run] the government through their representatives [servants]. They are what we
4 familiarly call the 'sovereign people,' and every citizen is one of this people, and a constituent member of this
5 sovereignty. ..."
6 [Boyd v. State of Nebraska, 143 U.S. 135 (1892)]

7 A people who "govern themselves" THROUGH their elected SERVANT representatives technically "have no rulers". They
8 would therefore be "anarchists" as the dictionary defines it. We Americans are therefore EACH individually required to be
9 anarchists WITHOUT rulers other than God but NOT against "government", because WE and NOT our elected PUBLIC
10 SERVANTS are the government. See:

What is Government?, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://www.famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/Articles/WhatIsGovernment.htm>

11 And if we were to give our sovereignty up and have rulers ABOVE us then we would no longer be a Constitutional Republic
12 with a Sovereign Citizenry as the U.S. Supreme Court describes it. Furthermore, under the concept of equal protection, "The 13 Sovereign People" as a COLLECTIVE can have no more power than the INDIVIDUALS who compose the collective AS 14 INDIVIDUALS, as confirmed by maxims of the common law:

15 Nemo plus juris ad alienum transfere potest, quam ispe habent.
16 One cannot transfer to another a right which he has not. Dig. 50, 17, 54; 10 Pet. 161, 175.

17 Nemo potest facere per alium quod per se non potest.
18 No one can do that by another which he cannot do by himself.

19 Qui per alium facit per seipsum facere videtur.
20 He who does anything through another, is considered as doing it himself. Co. Litt. 258.

21 Quicquid acquiritur servo, acquiritur domino.
22 Whatever is acquired by the servant, is acquired for the master. 15 Bin. Ab. 327.

23 Quod per me non possum, nec per alium.
24 What I cannot do in person, I cannot do by proxy [the Constitution]. 4 Co. 24.

25 What a man cannot transfer, he cannot bind by articles [the Constitution].
26 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
27 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

28 One of the American religions which have endured the persecution of the American state, the Mormons, express in their
29 Doctrine and Covenants, 101:77-80, that Christ said the following. We don't believe in Mormon doctrine, but we agree that 30 the quote below is a good moral basis for a righteous government:

31 According to the laws and constitution of the people, which I have suffered to be established, and should be
32 maintained for the rights and protection of all flesh, according to just and holy principles;

33 That every man may act in doctrine and principle pertaining to futurity, according to the moral agency which I
34 have given unto him, that every man may be accountable for his own sins in the day of judgment.

35 Therefore, it is not right that any man should be in bondage one to another.

36 And for this purpose have I established the Constitution of this land [the US of A], by the hands of wise men
37 whom I raised up unto this very purpose, and redeemed the land by the shedding of blood.
38 [Doctrine and Covenants, 101:77-80]

39 Therefore, in America, Christ is not only an anarchist but is the author of our anarchist (Sovereignty remaining with the 40 people) form of government. You can learn more about anarchism at the link below:

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Anarchism>

42 A person can be an anarchist WITHOUT being against government or against having laws. There are TWO dimensions to 43 what de jure governments do:

- 1 1. CIVIL government through CIVIL law.
- 2 2. CRIMINAL government through CRIMINAL law.

3 Those who may be CRIMINALLY governed but not CIVILLY governed (because they do not have a domicile within the
4 civil jurisdiction of the government) cannot truthfully be described as “anarchists”, because they are EQUALLY subject to
5 the CRIMINAL law. To call this type of exercise of one’s discretion over their own life, liberty and property somehow
6 lawless and yet to protect and defend the SAME exercise of sovereignty and sovereign immunity by any government is the 7 very type of hypocrisy that Jesus (God) got angry at. This was the ONLY thing he ever got angry at, in fact:

8 “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you
9 neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

10 [...]

11 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay
12 tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have neglected the 13 weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith.
14 These you ought to have done, without leaving the others
15 undone.

16 [...]

17 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like
18 whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly,
19 but inside are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness.

20 Even so, you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside
21 you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

22 [...]

23 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers’ guilt. Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation
24 of hell? Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify,
25 and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, that on you may come all
26 the righteous blood shed on the earth...”
27 [Matthew 23:13-36, Bible, NKJV]

28 Socialism, on the other hand, places all power and sovereignty in the hands of the government or the “collective” instead of 29 the governed, who in some cases such as a democracy at least “claim” to represent the “state”. Anarchism insists that rulers
30 and the state are unnecessary and should be abolished in favor of self-government. Some people believe that the Bible and 31 Jesus both promoted anarchism and we agree with them. Below are among many examples from the Bible demonstrating
32 why we agree that Christians who are following God’s word are anarchists:

33 Go to the ant, you sluggard!
34 Consider her ways and be wise,
35 Which, having no captain,
36 Overseer or ruler,
37 Provides her supplies in the summer,
38 And gathers her food in the harvest.
39 How long will you slumber, O sluggard?
40 When will you rise from your sleep?
41 A little sleep, a little slumber,
42 A little folding of the hands to sleep--
43 So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,

1 And your need like an armed man.
2 [Prov. 6:6-11, Bible, NKJV]

3 The Bible, in fact, says it is a SIN to elect a King to be ABOVE the rest of the people.

4 “Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, ‘Look, you are
5 old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations [and be OVER
6 them].’

7 “But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, ‘Give us a king to judge us.’ So Samuel prayed to the Lord.
8 And the Lord said to Samuel, ‘Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected
9 Me, that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I
10 brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so 11 they are doing to you also [government becoming idolatry].”
12 [1 Sam. 8:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

13 The implication is that Christians must be SERVED from below rather than RULED from above by civil government, as 14 Christ Himself dictated:

15 “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles [non-believers] lord it over them, and those who are great exercise
16 authority over them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him
17 be your servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave---just as the Son of Man did 18 not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”
19 [Matthew 20:25-28, Bible, NKJV]

20 God, Himself also confirmed that while we Christians are obeying God’s laws as His representatives and public officers and 21 ambassadors, we in fact are “kings and priests”. This may explain why the founding fathers created America as the land of 22 the kings and “sovereign people” as the U.S. Supreme Court describes it:

23 “You [Jesus] are worthy to take the scroll,
24 And to open its seals;
25 For You were slain,
26 And have redeemed us to God by Your blood
27 Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,
28 And have made us kings and priests to our God;
29 And we shall reign on the earth.
30 [Rev. 5:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

31 Those who violate God’s command to Christians regarding the nature of civil government as indicated above are then warned
32 what happens when the command is violated:

33 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, “Look, you are 34 old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations [and be OVER
35 them].”

36 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to the Lord.
37 And the Lord said to Samuel, “Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected
38 Me [God], that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that
39 I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods
40 [Kings, in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their
41 voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign
42 over them.”

43 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. And he said, “This will be the
44 behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take [STEAL] your sons and appoint them for his own
45 chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots. He will appoint captains over his
46 thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to
47 make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. He will take [STEAL] your daughters to be
48 perfumers, cooks, and bakers. And he will take [STEAL] the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive
49 groves, and give them to his servants. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give
50 it to his officers and servants. And he will take [STEAL] your male servants, your female servants, your finest
51 young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work [as SLAVES]. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your
52 sheep. And you will be his servants. And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have
53 chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.”

1 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us,
2 that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."
3 [1 Sam. 8:4-20, Bible, NKJV]

4 Notice above the repeated words "He [the new King] will take...". God is really warning them here that the King they elect
5 will STEAL from them, which is exactly what our present day government does! Some things never change, do they?

6 Consistent with the above discussion, we have also published a video on our website by a self-proclaimed "Patriot Pastor"
7 who eloquently described God's approach to civil government. He starts off his sermon with the statement:

8 "I will have no other King, than King Jesus."

10 Those who want to unconstitutionally expand the power of public servants in government have attempted to redefine anarchy
11 in order to discredit Christian anarchists by insisting that they are against government or against having any law. For instance,
12 here is what the U.S. Supreme Court says about this:

13 A general revision of the immigration laws was effected by the Act of Mar. 3, 1903, 32 Stat. 1213. Section 2 of 14 that Act made ineligible for admission

15 anarchists, or persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the 16 Government of the United States or of all government or of all forms of law.

17 By the Act of Oct. 16, 1918, 40 Stat. 1012, Congress expanded the provisions for the exclusion of subversive
18 aliens. Title II of the Alien Registration Act of 1940, 54 Stat. 671, amended the 1918 Act to bar aliens who, at 19 any time, had advocated or were members of or affiliated with organizations that advocated violent overthrow of 20 the United States Government.

21 [Kleindienst v. Mandel, 408 U.S. 753 (1972)]

22 God characterizes as "Satanism" any attempt by the legal profession to confuse the public about the legal meaning of words
23 or to redefine words like "anarchism" so as to subject members of the public to undeserved ridicule. The "throne of iniquity"
24 the Bible is referring to is, by implication, the judge's bench of any judge who attempts such "terrorist" tactics:

25 "For where [government] envy and self-seeking [of money they are not entitled to] exist, confusion and 26 deception and "[words of art"] and every evil thing will be there."

27 [James 3:16, Bible, NKJV]

28 "Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You? They gather together against 29 the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the rock of 30 my refuge. He has brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; the Lord
31 our God shall cut them off."

32 [Psalms 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

34 Furthermore, the above type of anarchism described by the U.S. Supreme Court is NOT what either the Bible or Christians
35 who are following the Bible can or should participate in. A Christian who is following the Bible submits himself to ALL of 36 God's laws, not avoids them. They want a government that is consistent with God's laws found in the Bible and they cannot 37 and should not participate CIVILLY in a government or a society that isn't obeying God's laws. By doing so, the Christian
38 anarchist is NOT a "lawless person", but a person who is very particular about WHAT CIVIL law he or she will consent to 39 submit to, be governed by, or subject to. These laws are summarized below:

1 A Christian anarchist is also not anti-government, because in America, WE THE PEOPLE both collectively and individually
2 are the government. It is completely irrational and unbiblical to love your neighbor as the Bible and God command on the
3 one hand and hate the government he administers through His SERVANT representatives. Instead, Christians who are
4 following God's will are in favor of self-government and against centralized government. This very approach, by the way,
5 is the foundation of the Constitution, which implemented separation of powers to prevent too much power from concentrating
6 into the hands of a single man or group of men. The separation of powers is thoroughly described below:

7 Public servants such as the U.S. Supreme Court:

- 8 1. Are intent on destroying the separation of powers that is the main limitation upon their power as described above.
- 9 2. Don't like Christian anarchists and want to destroy, discredit, and slander them in violation of the First Amendment.
- 10 3. Want to make Christian anarchists appear violent or "anti-government" or "anti-law", even if in fact they are NOT.
11 The intent of this tactic is to "violently radicalize" police officers so that they will shoot and terrorize rather than help
12 or protect Christian anarchists.

13 The only class of anarchists they could be talking about above are anarchists who are also atheists or who have no divine law
14 to rely upon, but this is a fraudulent characterization of Christian anarchists. The main motivation for this assault on Christian
15 anarchists by our public servants is so that they can concentrate and centralize as much power into their own hands as possible
16 in a silent coup. The last century of political and legal history proves that they have been very successful in this 17 unconstitutional coup de etat. That coup is explained in:

18 An anarchist believes in self-government or internal government, while a socialist believes in collective government or
19 external government. Christian anarchists like separation of power within governments, and they withdraw their allegiance
20 from any government or system of law that is in conflict with God's laws. This dichotomy was explained by one of our most 21 beloved Presidents when he said:

22 *"We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government
23 tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material
24 prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen.*

25 *As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either
26 they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness,
27 from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be
28 governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess
29 the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept
30 the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people
31 are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to 32 preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest."*
33 [President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

34 Instead, we think the very definition of "anarchy" is governments and/or civil rulers who:

- 35 1. Impute to themselves more rights or methods of acquiring rights than the people themselves have. In other words, who
36 are the object of PAGAN IDOL WORSHIP because they possess "supernatural" powers. By "supernatural", we mean 37 that which is superior to the "natural", which is ordinary human beings.
- 38 2. Only enforce the law against others and NOT themselves, as a way to protect their own criminal activities by 39 persecuting dissidents. This is called "selective enforcement". In the legal field it is also called "professional 40 courtesy". Never kill the goose that lays the STOLEN golden eggs.

- 1 3. Claim and protect their own sovereign immunity, but refuse to recognize the same EQUAL immunity of the people
2 from whom that power was delegated to begin with. Hypocrites.
- 3 4. Abuse sovereign immunity to exclude either the government or anyone working in the government from being subject
4 to the laws they pass to regulate everyone ELSE'S behavior. In other words, they can choose WHEN they want to be a
5 statutory "person" who is subject, and when they aren't. Anyone who has this kind of choice will ALWAYS corruptly
6 exclude themselves and include everyone else, and thereby enforce and implement an unconstitutional "Title of 7 Nobility" towards themselves. On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court has held the following:

8 "No man in this country [including legislators of the government as a legal person] is so high that he is above
9 the law. No officer of the law may set that law at defiance with impunity. All the officers of the government,
10 from the highest to the lowest, are creatures of the law and are bound to obey it. It is the only supreme power
11 in our system of government, and every man who by accepting office participates in its functions is only the more
12 strongly bound to submit to that supremacy, and to observe the limitations which it imposes upon the exercise of 13 the authority which it gives." 106 U.S., at 220. "Shall it be said... that the courts cannot give remedy when the 14 Citizen has been deprived of his property by force, his estate seized and converted to the use of the government
15 without any lawful authority, without any process of law, and without any compensation, because the president
16 *has ordered it and his officers are in possession? If such be the law of this country, it sanctions a tyranny which
17 has no existence in the monarchies of Europe, nor in any other government which has a just claim to well-
18 regulated liberty and the protection of personal rights," 106 U.S., at 220, 221.
19 [United States v. Lee, 106 U.S. 196, 1 S.Ct. 240 (1882)]

- 20 5. Are not directly accountable to the people or the law. They prohibit the PEOPLE from criminally prosecuting their 21 own crimes, reserving the right to prosecute to their own fellow criminals. Who polices the police? THE 22 CRIMINALS.
- 23 6. Have a monopoly on anything, INCLUDING "protection", and who turn that monopoly into a mechanism to force
24 EVERYONE illegally to be treated as uncompensated public officers in exchange for the "privilege" of being able to 25 even exist or earn a living to support oneself.
- 26 7. Can tax and spend any amount or percentage of the people's earnings over the OBJECTIONS of the people.
- 27 8. Can print, meaning illegally counterfeit, as much money as they want to fund their criminal enterprise, and thus to be 28 completely free from accountability to the people.
- 29 9. Deceive and/or lie to the public with impunity by telling you that you can't trust anything they say, but force YOU to 30 sign everything under penalty of perjury when you want to talk to them. 26 U.S.C. §6065.
- 31 10. Can enact or enforce any law that they themselves are not EQUALLY subject to. This is a violation of the 32 Constitutional requirement for equal protection and equal treatment and constitutes an unconstitutional Title of 33 Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the United States Constitution.

34 The above type of "lawlessness" by de facto government actors is the SAME "lawlessness" that Jesus criticized the Pharisees
35 (lawyers) for in the Holy Bible.

36 "Woe to you, scribes [religious leaders] and Pharisees [lawyers], hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the 37 cup and dish [OTHER people], but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence. Blind [to their own sin]
38 Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

39 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear
40 beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly 41 appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.
42 [Matt. 23:1-36, Bible, NKJV]

43 The ONLY thing Jesus and God ever got visibly angry at was the hypocrisy, inequality, partiality, privilege, and 44 irresponsibility of the Pharisees, so it MUST be important for those in government who are lawyers to:

- 45 1. Understand and eliminate this hypocrisy.
- 46 2. Eliminate the inequality and partiality and conflict of interest that gives rise to it.
- 47 3. Enforce and protect the superiority of the "state", meaning the Sovereign People, over their SERVANTS in 48 "government".
- 49 4. Prevent the words "state" and "government" from being confused or thought synonymous, because this creates the 50 inequality that characterizes the present corrupted system.

51 Here is what the U.S. Supreme Court held about this duty, that Jesus predicted they would self-servingly NEGLECT to do:

1 “... the maxim that the King can do no wrong has no place in our system of government; yet it is also true, in
2 respect to the State itself, that whatever wrong is attempted in its name is imputable to its government and not
3 to the State, for, as it can speak and act only by law, whatever it does say and do must be lawful. That which
4 therefore is unlawful because made so by the supreme law, the Constitution of the United States, is not the
5 word or deed of the State, but is the mere wrong and trespass of those individual persons who falsely spread
6 and act in its name.”

7 “This distinction is essential to the idea of constitutional government. To deny it or blot it out obliterates the line
8 of demarcation that separates constitutional government from absolutism, free self- government based on the
9 sovereignty of the people from that despotism, whether of the one or the many, which enables the agent of the
10 state to declare and decree that he is the state; to say 'L'Etat, c'est moi.' Of what avail are written constitutions,
11 whose bills of right, for the security of individual liberty, have been written too often with the blood of martyrs
12 shed upon the battle-field and the scaffold, if their limitations and restraints upon power may be overpassed with
13 impunity by the very agencies created and appointed to guard, defend, and enforce them; and that, too, with the
14 sacred authority of law, not only compelling obedience, but entitled to respect? And how else can these principles
15 of individual liberty and right be maintained, if, when violated, the judicial tribunals are forbidden to visit
16 penalties upon individual offenders, who are the instruments of wrong, whenever they interpose the shield of the
17 state? The doctrine is not to be tolerated. The whole frame and scheme of the political institutions of this country,
18 *state and federal, protest against it. Their continued existence is not compatible with it. It is the doctrine of 19 absolutism, pure, simple, and naked, and of communism which is its twin, the double progeny of the same evil
20 birth.”*
21 [Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 5 S.Ct. 903 \(1885\)]

29 our information or services in their original form in direct interactions with any government or anyone in the 30 legal profession. We do this to ensure that the “benefits” of God's law may only be enjoyed by those who accept
31 the reciprocal obligation of obedience to those laws that makes them “beneficial” in the first place. This site
32 advocates learning and obeying Natural and Nature’s God's laws - not as a means of justification, but as a means
33 of thankfulness for the grace of Life. That endeavor is the essence of religion itself. If you can get the milk for 34 free, you'll NEVER buy the cow. People who refuse to buy the cow are called "anarchists under both God's law
35 and man's law", and we are not prohibited from helping or protecting such anarchists per Prov. 1:23-33.

53 9.7 Ministry advocates “paper terrorism”

54 Wikipedia defines “paper terrorism” as follows:

1 “Paper terrorism is the use of false liens, frivolous lawsuits, bogus letters of credit, and other legal documents
2 lacking sound factual basis as a method of harassment, especially against government officials.⁸ It is popular
3 among some anti-government groups⁹ and those associated with the redemption movement.¹⁰ The Posse
4 Comitatus pioneered paper terrorism.¹¹ Some victims of paper terrorism have been forced to declare
5 bankruptcy.¹² Some paper terrorists also have filed reports with the Internal Revenue Service falsely accusing
6 their political enemies of having unreported income.¹³ Another method of paper terrorism is filing bankruptcy
7 petitions against others in an effort to ruin their credit ratings.¹⁴
8 [Wikipedia: Paper Terrorism, 5/29/2011; SOURCE: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Paper_terrorism]

9 So the objective criteria for “paper terrorism” based on the above is:

- 10 1. Involves the sending or filing in the county recorder of a legal document.
- 11 2. Document involves pending or ongoing litigation or a legal interest in property derived from administrative process.
- 12 3. If the document involves a legal interest such as a lien or “letter of credit”, the interest expressed is FALSE or derives
- 13 from a source unauthorized by the party against whom it is claimed.
- 14 4. If the document involves a legal paper, the paper is “frivolous”.
- 15 5. INTENDED PURPOSE of the document is harassment. That purpose MUST be expressed by the litigant in legal
- 16 evidence before an actual court and may not be subjectively PRESUMED by the victim. All presumption is a violation
- 17 of due process of law.
- 18 6. Example documents:
- 19 6.1. False liens.
- 20 6.2. Frivolous lawsuits.
- 21 6.3. Bogus letters of credit.
- 22 6.4. Legal documents lacking sound factual basis.

23 As we say throughout this document and throughout our website, this ministry’s focus is:

- 24 1. To prevent the conversion of UNALIENABLE rights into civil franchises and privileges. An UNALIENABLE right
- 25 is, after all, a right that we CANNOT lawfully consent to give away to any government.
- 26 2. ABSOLUTE EQUALITY of rights of all common law “persons” and human beings that is the foundation of the U.S.
- 27 Constitution and of ALL free governments.

28 “No duty rests more imperatively upon the courts than the enforcement of those constitutional provisions
29 intended to secure that equality of rights which is the foundation of free government.”
30 Gulf, C. & S. F. R. Co. v. Ellis, [165 U.S. 150 (1897)]

- 31 3. Confining enforcement of government civil law to ONLY government public officers and NOT private human beings.
- 32 See:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons , Form #05.037 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 33 4. The avoidance of participation and prevention of COMPELLED participation in any franchise or privilege that would
- 34 destroy that EQUALITY of rights.

5. Offering or enforcing of any government franchise upon land protected by the Constitution where rights are UNALIENABLE and therefore cannot be given away, even WITH consent.
6. Confusing RIGHTS with PRIVILEGES. Anything granted by the civil law is a CIVIL PRIVILEGE and not a RIGHT. Rights only have significance under the common law. Statutory civil law is a franchise that can and does protect ONLY privileges.
7. The prevention of enforcement or private law civil franchises against non-consenting parties so as to:
 - 7.1. STEAL from the parties under the color of law.
 - 7.2. Effect eminent domain and unlawful conversion of PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights.

In furtherance of the above goals, we attempt to PREVENT unlawful and criminal GOVERNMENT “paper terrorism” of the following forms:

1. The filing of MILLIONS of knowingly FALSE information returns against otherwise PRIVATE human beings. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns , Form #04.001 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

2. The kidnapping of the legal identity of the average American and transporting it ILLEGALLY to the District of Columbia. Kidnapping and identity theft are and always have been not only a crime, but an act of INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM. See:

Government Identity Theft , Form #05.046 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
3. The filing of MILLIONS of BOGUS IRS “notice of liens” which the courts have declared as NOT actual “liens” in a common law sense. They are BOGUS because:
 - 3.1. They do NOT conform with 26 U.S.C. §6331(a) .
 - 3.2. The IRS HIDES mention of 26 U.S.C. §6331(a) from those who receive the notices on the back of the IRS Form 668.
 - 3.3. Corrupt judges with a conflict of interest who want to pad their pocket with STOLEN LOOT unlawfully violate the simple rules of statutory construction to add things to statutes such as 26 U.S.C. §6331(a) that do NOT expressly appear, and therefore participate in the THEFT and FRAUD.

“When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term’s ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) (“It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term”); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 (“As a rule, a definition which declares what a term ‘means’ . . . excludes any meaning that is not stated”); Western Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read “as a whole,” post at 998 [530 U.S. 943] (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General’s restriction -- “the child up to the head.” Its words, “substantial portion,” indicate the contrary.” [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]

4. Interfering with any effort to hold public servants accountable to the requirements of law in a court of law by:
 - 4.1. Calling something frivolous without satisfying the burden of proof to PROVE it is frivolous WITH EVIDENCE. See:

Responding to “Frivolous” Penalties or Accusations , Form #05.027 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

 - 4.2. Suppressing legal evidence of government wrongdoing in any case against the government using motions in limine.
 - 4.3. Sanctioning licensed attorneys and even taking away their license as a punishment for exposing or prosecuting government wrongdoing. This makes all licensed attorneys the party of a conflict of interest, who cannot therefore properly represent any client in cases against any government.

Why You Don’t Want to Hire An Attorney , Family Guardian Fellowship http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/LegalEthics/Corruption/WhyYouDontWantAnAtty/WhyYouDontWantAnAttorney.htm

5. The filing of “frivolous” civil and criminal lawsuits by the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Justice (D.O.J.) against those not lawfully participating and who cannot lawfully participate in the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C public officer franchise and excise tax. These lawsuits are FRIVOLOUS because:
 - 5.1. They violate clear choice of law rules found in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b)f and 28 U.S.C. §1652, and therefore enforce federal law against nonresidents not lawfully engaged in government franchises. See:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Sections 3 through 3.4
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5.2. They cite case law as authority that is NOT relevant to a state-domiciled party. There IS no federal common law in states of the Union. Hence, all citations of federal authority pertinent ONLY to federal territory and those domiciled on federal territory wherever situated is an ABUSE of case law for POLITICAL rather than LEGAL purposes, not to mention a violation of the separation of powers doctrine.

"There is no Federal Common Law, and Congress has no power to declare substantive rules of Common Law applicable in a state. Whether they be local or general in their nature, be they commercial law or a part of the Law of Torts"
[Erie Railroad v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64 (1938)]

5.3. They are based upon evidence that is KNOWINGLY FALSE, such as FALSE information returns and FALSE tax returns.

5.4. Remedies and forms and status on forms are deprived to those who want to correctly and truthfully represent their status on a government form. When corrected or replacement or amended forms are submitted in order to avoid perjury on government forms, the submitters, who are NON-franchisees not subject to penalty, are unlawfully penalized and thereby subject to unconstitutional bills of attainder.

See:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Section 8
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6. The abuse of government identification issuance to unlawfully convert PRIVATE human beings into public officers serving ILLEGALLY within the government. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002, Section 13.6
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7. Illegal enforcement of federal civil law inside states of the Union in violation of the Separation of Powers Doctrine. This:

7.1. Is a violation of the separation of powers doctrine that is the foundation of the United States Constitution and results in an unlawful conversion of RIGHTS into STATUTORY PRIVILEGE and eminent domain in a statutorily foreign state, being a state of the Union.

7.2. Clearly has a malicious purpose because all attempts to correct it are ignored without ANY evidence offered to defend its legality. In fact, those who file criminal complaints to prevent its illegal enforcement and MOUNTAINS of admissible evidence instead are administratively or judicially penalized under an inapplicable franchise, which in effect constitutes criminal and illegal witness tampering in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1512 and constitutes an unconstitutional "Bill of Attainder".

See:

Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8. The paper terrorism and criminal harassment of Americans domiciled outside of federal jurisdiction is conducted by the equivalent of anonymous masked men in a PRIVATE corporation that is not even part of the government.

8.1. IRS agents are not required to use their real birthname.

8.2. They send their paperwork unsigned, even though the Internal Revenue Code in 26 U.S.C. §6065 says EVERYTHING they send has to be signed under penalty of perjury.

8.3. They are not even part of the U.S. government. For extensive evidence of this, see:

Origins and Authority of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Form #05.005
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Furthermore, we also emphasize in all interactions with corrupted or ignorant public servants that we are ALL equal and that the only way we can become UNEQUAL is by our own consent. We also insist that government satisfy its burden of proof as the moving party asserting an obligation at all times to PROVE the existence of that consent IN WRITING signed under penalty of perjury. Hence, if the government claims it is OK to abuse its own IRS publications to deceive third parties into filing knowingly false and fraudulent information returns against third parties that effectively elect them into public service and a public office without their consent, then we claim to have the EQUAL right to acquire rights against any government actor by using the SAME TECHNIQUE against them. In a government of delegated authority ALONE as the U.S. Supreme Court indicated, any right that the government asserts or defends, whether through omission or commission, the people collectively and individually must ALSO possess. Otherwise, we are NOT dealing with a government but a tyranny. Anyone who claims otherwise is an ELITIST who worships government as a pagan socialist god that has "supernatural powers" greater than their NATURAL source, which is "We the People". Since the First Amendment forbids the establishment of

1 such a religion, then either we must have the same right or you are no longer dealing with a DE JURE government, but a DE
2 FACTO government that is described below:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3 Either they have to protect EVERYONE'S right EQUALLY to engage in the crimes they engage in, or they have to prosecute
4 those crimes on their own part and AFTER they do that, prosecute OTHERs who effect the same crimes. They can't create
5 an unconstitutional "title of nobility" called "taxpayer" or "U.S. citizen" and let these parties abuse their authority to vote and
6 serve on jury duty to STEAL from people who don't have that status. Right now, they are engaging in what we call "selective 7 enforcement", in which they prejudicially and illegally enforce the laws in such a way that:

- 8 1. ONLY protects their OWN criminal wrongdoing and "paper terrorism".
- 9 2. Prosecutes political opponents but never government employees.
- 10 3. Maintains the people in economic servitude as compelled public officers within the government who must not only
11 work WITHOUT compensation, but who have to PAY for the PRIVILEGE or BENEFIT under a franchise that they 12 are not allowed to quit and which is illegally enforced.
- 13 4. Perpetuates paganism, and inequality of the people in relation to them.
- 14 5. Illegally enforces federal civil law in statutorily but not constitutionally "foreign states", and thereby engages in acts of 15 international economic terrorism.

16 All of the above tactics collectively make a formerly de jure government into a mafia "protection racket" and de facto
17 government. If you don't tow the party line politically and instead choose to maintain your status as a nonresident party NOT
18 among those "consensually governed" (see Declaration of Independence), you are the subject of all the following criminal 19 tactics by this de facto government and mafia protection racket:

- 20 1. Singled out for "selective enforcement"
- 21 2. Compelled at gun point to elect to become a "resident" and a government contractor/public officer subject to a 22 franchise in which you HAVE no rights but only privileges.
- 23 3. Ordered with BOGUS and unlawful IRS assessments to pay "protection money" and "bribes" for the PRIVILEGE of 24 holding that public office called a statutory "taxpayer". See:

Why the Government Can't Lawfully Assess Human Beings With an Income Tax Liability Without Their Consent,
Form #05.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

25 The only thing that falsely accusing people of "paper terrorism" who want criminals in government prosecuted does is prove 26 just how corrupt and terrorist THE ACCUSER IN GOVERNMENT is. Wikipedia also describes this type of 27 GOVERNMENT terrorism as follows:

28 The word "terrorism" is politically and emotionally charged,¹⁵ and this greatly compounds the difficulty of 29 *providing a precise definition. Studies have found over 100 definitions of "terrorism"¹⁶¹⁷. The concept of 30 terrorism may itself be controversial as it is often used by state authorities to delegitimize political or other

5 Notice that none of the content of this section or this entire document is based upon policy or opinion, but is based entirely
6 upon fact and evidence right from the government's own mouth admissible in ANY court of law. Therefore, it cannot be
7 "frivolous". It has no harassment purpose, but rather the purpose of ONLY ensuring that criminal acts by specific public
8 servants are PROSECUTED, rather than ignored or avoided. That sort of advocacy can hardly be called "paper terrorism".
9 And its SOLE purpose is the following:

10 "Justice is the end of government. It is the end of civil society. It ever has been, and ever will be pursued, until 11 it be obtained, or until liberty be lost in the pursuit."
12 [James Madison, Federalist Paper #51, 1788]

13 The de facto CRIMINAL government currently running the show, however, NEVER operates in a lawful or non-frivolous
14 way when enforcing its BOGOS franchises, by using facts from a disinterested third party and POSITIVE LAW to prove 15 their case. Rather, they:

- 16 1. Misrepresent franchises using publications that they say you can't trust and thereby LIE to the public with impunity
17 about who is subject. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 18 2. Add things to statutory definitions in violation of both due process and the rules of statutory construction in order to 19 remove all limitations imposed upon their authority by law. See:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 20 3. Abuse their discretion to selectively and prejudicially enforce franchises against those who cannot lawfully participate 21 and who are least able financially to defend themselves.
22 4. Proceed upon unconstitutional presumptions based not upon FACT, but upon nothing more than a state-sponsored 23 religion established in violation of the First Amendment. IRS civil penalties, for instance, are NEVER proven with 24 evidence on the administrative record signed under penalty of perjury by a competent witness with no financial conflict
25 of interest, and hence are "frivolous" as legally defined and also constitute "paper terrorism". That state-sponsored 26 religion where "presumption" serves the equivalent of "faith" is described in the following:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

27 Lastly, the following reference devotes an entire section to explaining WHY the document itself is NOT an act of "paper
28 terrorism". This document is one of two important documents that BEGIN the process of becoming a compliant member:

1 Defendant's statements that federal income taxes do not apply to his "nonresident alien" customers, who are
2 actually American citizens, are not supported by law. Federal income tax law applies not only to all citizens of
3 this country, but also to residents of this country. I.R.C. §7701(a)(14) defines "taxpayer" as any person subject
4 to any internal revenue tax. As courts have stated, "All individuals, natural or unnatural, must pay federal income
5 tax on their wages."²¹
6 [Motion for Summary Judgment, Docket #68, Department of Justice]

7 Alleged Defendant states no such thing and agrees with the courts and the Plaintiff's interpretation of law on the subject.
8 Let's also be clear what the STATUS of people who frequent the websites in question are:

- 9 1. Not "customers", but believers exercising their religious liberties. The ONLY "customer" on our website is GOD and 10 not any vain man. To devolve our members into mere "customers" is in effect to DISESTABLISH a church or 11 religious ministry, which is clearly a violation of the First Amendment establishment clause.
- 12 2. "non-resident non-persons" if they are PRIVATE. This is also called simply a "transient foreigner".
- 13 3. "nonresident alien INDIVIDUALS" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) if physically present on federal territory and serving
14 in a public office. Note that this statute defines what a "nonresident alien" ISN'T, not what it IS. It mentions
15 "nonresident alien INDIVIDUALS", but the title says "nonresident alien", TWO COMPLETELY different things.
- 16 4. Not statutory "individuals", "persons", "taxpayers", etc. because not domiciled or resident on federal territory AND not 17 contracting with the national government to lawfully acquire said statuses.
- 18 5. "nationals" per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).
- 19 6. NOT statutory "U.S. citizens" per 8 U.S.C. §1401, 26 U.S.C. §3121(e), and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).

20 All statuses under the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C are franchise statuses and "public rights" that one can 21 only acquire lawfully by their consent. This includes "individual", "person", "taxpayer", "citizen", "resident", etc. In fact:

- 22 1. The only statutory "individual" the plaintiff can be talking about is a public office in the U.S. and not state government.
- 23 2. The "individual" CANNOT be a private human being, but a public office. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that the 24 ability to regulate private conduct is repugnant to the constitution and therefore one must be a public officer in order to 25 be subject to government law. See:
 - 26 2.1. Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
27 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 - 28 2.2. Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
29 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 30 3. The public office must be lawfully created by an election, appointment, or Act of Congress.
- 31 4. The public office must be acquired consistent with all the laws on the acquisition of public offices generally.
- 32 5. The public office may lawfully be exercised ONLY within the District of Columbia and not elsewhere or in a state of 33 the Union, per 4 U.S.C. §72.
- 34 6. The public office is domiciled at the ONLY place the office can lawfully be exercised, which is the District of 35 Columbia, per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) , 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39), and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).
- 36 7. The public office is connected with a specific human being only by the CONSENT of that human being in some form.
37 Once consent is given, a partnership is established between the private human being and the public office, and that 38 partnership is the SAME partnership mentioned in the definition of "person" found at 26 U.S.C. §7343 and 26 U.S.C.
39 §6671(b).

40 There is no doubt that lawfully AND CONSENSUALLY acquiring any of the public franchise statuses described in the 41 Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C "trade or business"/public office franchise gives rise to the obligations and 42 rights that attach to said statuses.

43 "It is true, that the person who accepts an office may be supposed to enter into a compact [CONTRACT] to be 44 answerable to the government, which he serves, for any violation of his duty; and, having taken the oath of

9 HOWEVER:

- 10 1. These statuses cannot unilaterally be imposed upon a non-consenting otherwise PRIVATE party and if they are,
11 involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, identity theft, and kidnapping are the result. See:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 12 2. It is a crime in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912 to impersonate a public officer.
13 3. No tax form can be used to unilaterally elect oneself into a public office. The I.R.C. regulates the exercise of 14 EXISTING public offices lawfully created under Title 5 of the U.S. Code. The I.R.C. nowhere expressly authorizes
15 the CREATION of any new public offices.
16 4. It is a crime to use any federal "benefit" program to entice an otherwise private human being to impersonate a public
17 officer. See:
18 4.1. 18 U.S.C. §210: Offer to procure appointive public office.
19 4.2. 18 U.S.C. §211: Acceptance or solicitation to obtain appointive public office.
20 5. It is a crime to declare a domicile or residence in the "United States" if you have never physically been there or to 21 declare a status on a government form connected with such domicile. See 26 U.S.C. §911.
22 5.1. By "United States", in this case, we mean the GOVERNMENT and no geographic place.
23 5.2. The reason they can criminalize the "U.S. citizen" status is that it is a public office and a franchise, rather than a
24 human being. That public office is their property, and by using their property without their consent, you are 25 STEALING from the government.
26 5.3. In order to create a franchise, they have to legislatively create "property" in the form of a civil status, criminalize
27 its abuse, and then use the de facto license called a "Taxpayer Identification Number" to regulate its custody and 28 use. A "license", after all, is legally defined as permission from the state to do that which is otherwise illegal, and 29 it has always been illegal to use government property for a personal or private benefit.

30 Consistent with the above, below are examples of why this is the case from the websites in question, which incidentally are 31 not the statements of the Alleged Defendant. The following information, according to the Disclaimers, is not factual, not 32 actionable, and exclusively religious speech that is protected by the First Amendment.

- 33 1. Neither the Family Guardian website, <http://famguardian.org>, nor the SEDM website, <http://sedm.org> mention the word 34 "customers" that we could find, so his remarks are irrelevant and presumptuous.
35 2. We don't ever use the word "American citizens" so we don't know what he means in the context of Title 8 of the U.S.
36 Code. Instead, we refer to ourselves as a "national" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) but not a "citizen" under 8 U.S.C.
37 §1401. There may be other authors on Family Guardian who use the phrase "American Citizen" but we don't claim any 38 responsibility for their views or conclusions.
39 3. Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #04.101, Section 22.1 says the following:

40 The above definition of "wages" is further restricted by the underlying regulations as follows:

41 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(a)-3 Amounts deemed wages under voluntary withholding agreements

42 (a) In general.

43 Notwithstanding the exceptions to the definition of wages specified in section 3401(a) and the
44 regulations thereunder, the term "wages" includes the amounts described in paragraph (b)(1) of
45 this section with respect to which there is a voluntary withholding agreement in effect under section
46 3402(p). References in this chapter to the definition of wages contained in section 3401(a) shall be 47 deemed to refer also to this section (§31.3401(a)-3).

48 The term "employer" is also defined in 26 U.S.C. §3401(d) as someone who has "employees". Therefore, under 49 both the Classification Act of 1923 and the definition of "employee" found in 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(c)-1, only

1 "employees" working for the United States government can earn "wages", and even then, only when they have
2 a voluntary withholding agreement in place called a W-4.

3 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(c)-1 Employee:

4 ...the term [employee] includes officers and employees, whether elected or appointed, of the United
5 States, a [federal] State, Territory, Puerto Rico or any political subdivision, thereof, or the District
6 of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing. The term
7 'employee' also includes an officer of a corporation.

8 As a matter of fact, filling out and signing the W-4 under penalty of perjury, which is identified in the regulation
9 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(a)-3 above as a "voluntary withholding agreement", makes the signer into a federal 10 "employee" and contractor. Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, in fact, defines an "agreement" as a 11 "contract":

12 Agreement. A meeting of two or more minds; a coming together in opinion or determination; the 13 coming together in accord of two minds on a given proposition. In law, a concord of understanding 14 and intention between two or more parties with respect to the effect upon their relative rights and 15 duties, of certain past or future facts or performances. The consent of two or more persons concurring 16 respecting the transmission of some property, right, or benefits, with the view of contracting an 17 obligation, a mutual obligation.

18 A manifestation of mutual asset on the part of two or more persons as to the substance of a contract.
19 Restatement, Second, Contracts, §3.

20 Although often used as synonymous with "contract", agreement is a broader term; e.g. an agreement
21 might lack an essential element of a contract. The bargain of the parties in fact as found in their 22 language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or 23 course of performance. U.C.C. §1-201(c); Uniform Consumer Credit Code, §1.301(3).
24 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 66]

25 However, section 2 earlier proves that private employers, which are companies that don't have federal workers,
26 aren't even allowed by law to act as "withholding agents" and that the IRS website even admits that such private 27 employers do not have to withhold:

28 Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 5.14.10.2 (09-30-2004)
29 Payroll Deduction Agreements

30 2. Private employers, states, and political subdivisions are not required to enter into payroll
31 deduction agreements. Taxpayers should determine whether their employers will accept and process
32 executed agreements before agreements are submitted for approval or finalized.

34 [Federal and State Tax Withholding Options for Private Employers, Form #04.101, Section 22.1]

35 4. Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 5.6.7:

36 So how do our public dis-servants turn "compensation for labor" into something that fits the legal definition
37 "wages" above so it can be taxed? Once again, you have to dig deep into the regulations to find the secret:

38 26 C.F.R. Sec. 31.3401(a)-3 Amounts deemed wages under voluntary withholding agreements.

39 (a) In general.

40 Notwithstanding the exceptions to the definition of wages specified in section 3401(a) and the
41 regulations thereunder, the term "wages" includes the amounts described in paragraph (b)(1) of
42 this section with respect to which there is a voluntary withholding agreement in effect under section
43 3402(p). References in this chapter to the definition of wages contained in section 3401(a) shall be 44 deemed to refer also to this section (Section 31.3401(a)-3).

45 (b) Remuneration for services.

46 (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the amounts referred to in paragraph
47 (a) of this section include any remuneration for services performed by an employee for an employer
48 which, without regard to this section, does not constitute wages under section 3401(a). For example,
49 remuneration for services performed by an agricultural worker or a domestic worker in a private

1 home (amounts which are specifically excluded from the definition of wages by section 3401(a)(2) and
2 (3), respectively) are amounts with respect to which a voluntary withholding agreement may be
3 entered into under section 3402(p). See Sections 31.3401(c)-1 and 31.3401(d)-1 for the definitions of 4 "employee" and "employer".

5 So the bottom line is, if you fill out a W-4 and request voluntary withholding, even though you don't fit the legal
6 definition of an "employee", then you consent to treat your earnings as "wages" as legally defined in 26 U.S.C.
7 §3401(a) which are subject to tax under the I.R.C. Subtitle C! That's why we also don't recommend filling out
8 W-4 Exempts and instead prefer to use the W-8 form.

- 10 5. Family Guardian Website, Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Section 9.2 available free at the address
11 below. Reiterates the above and warns everyone, including those who are nonresident aliens, that "wages" are in fact
12 taxable and that they should pay tax on all "wages" earned.
13 <http://famguardian.org/Publications/FlawedArgToAvoid/FlawedArgsToAvoid.pdf>.

14 We would like to add to the above the following religious, and not factual, statements and beliefs:

- 15 1. Domicile is the origin of the authority of the government to impose an income tax, not citizenship.

16 *"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit
17 or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth
18 Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally
19 reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously
20 includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of
21 property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration
22 being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located."
23 [Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]*

- 24 2. Domicile is a voluntary, First Amendment choice of political affiliation and assembly. This is described at:
25 2.1. Family Guardian Website:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/DomicileBasisForTaxation.htm>

- 26 2.2. Free pamphlet on SEDM:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>

- 27 3. Domicile cannot be coerced by the state, and consequently, all taxes based on it are voluntary. After a domicile is 28 voluntarily selected, taxes based on domicile become enforceable, but not before. Being compelled to attain a certain 29 domicile or to keep one you have amounts to compelled association in violation of the First Amendment. A choice of 30 domicile is a voluntary choice of allegiance. Allegiance that is compelled is not allegiance, but slavery and involuntary
31 servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.

32 *"Similarly, when a person is prevented from leaving his domicile by circumstances not of his doing and beyond
33 his control, he may be relieved of the consequences attendant on domicile at that place. In Roboz (USDC D.C.
34 1963) [Roboz v. Kennedy, 219 F.Supp. 892 (D.D.C. 1963), p. 24], a federal statute was involved which precluded
35 the return of an alien's property if he was found to be domiciled in Hungary prior to a certain date. It was found
36 that Hungary was Nazi-controlled at the time in question and that the persons involved would have left Hungary
37 (and lost domicile there) had they been able to. Since they had been precluded from leaving because of the 38 political privations imposed by the very government they wanted to escape (the father was in prison there), the 39 court would not hold them to have lost their property based on a domicile that circumstances beyond their control 40 forced them to retain."
41 [Conflicts in a Nutshell, David D. Siegel, West Publishing, 1994, ISBN 0-314-02952-4, p. 24]*

- 42 4. The PLACE of domicile, in the case of the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C "trade or business" franchise,
43 is the "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) and NO state of the Union.
44 5. The "individual" being taxed in the I.R.C. is, in fact, domiciled on federal territory because it is a public office and not
45 a human being. It only connects to the human being through their express consent and the use of the de facto license
46 number, the Taxpayer Identification Number.
47 6. A "nonresident alien" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) is not the same thing as a "resident" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
48 §7701(b)(1)(A). Otherwise, there wouldn't be a need for two separate terms.
49 7. One can be a "non-resident non-person" WITHOUT also being an "nonresident alien individual". Such would be the 50 case with a private human being NOT occupying a public office in the U.S. government. One is only treated as an

1 “individual” when they use the de facto license number, because the regulations at 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1(b) say that
2 the number is only required in the case of those engaged in the “trade or business” franchise. IRS forms deliberately,
3 deceitfully, and prejudicially omit to provide a block for “nonresident alien NON-individuals” or simply “private human
4 beings” because it would reduce their revenues, which are derived mainly from criminal and illegal activities outside
5 their jurisdiction.

- 6 8. A “nonresident alien” is a person with no domicile in the statutory “United States” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9)
7 and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) and excluding the “United States” mentioned in the Constitution. Even without a
8 domicile in the federal statutory “United States”, he can still owe tax on earnings from within the federal “United States”
9 under 26 U.S.C. §871(a). By “statutory United States” we mean the government, and not any geographic place or any 10 state of the Union. This is exhaustively established in:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020, Section 4
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 11 9. A “resident” is a “U.S. person” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30). All “U.S. persons”, including statutory but not 12 constitutional “citizens” defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) have in common a domicile in the federal statutory “United 13 States”.
- 14 10. “Citizens” and “residents” are mutually exclusive classes, but collectively, they are referred to as “U.S. persons” pursuant 15 to 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30). A “resident” is an alien with a domicile or permanent presence in the statutory but not 16 constitutional “United States”, as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A).
- 17 11. What the Plaintiff as well as the case cites he references can’t and very deliberately doesn’t address is how “nonresident 18 aliens” who have no domicile, physical presence, or interest in conducting commerce with the government in the statutory 19 but not constitutional “United States” become “residents”. That quietly kept dirty little secret is revealed in older versions
20 of the regulation at 26 C.F.R. §301.7701-5:

21 26 C.F.R. §301.7701-5 Domestic, foreign, resident, and nonresident persons.

22 A domestic corporation is one organized or created in the United States, including only the States (and during 23 the periods when not States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii), and the District of Columbia, or under the 24 law of the United States or of any State or Territory. A foreign corporation is one which is not domestic. A
25 domestic corporation is a resident corporation even though it does no business and owns no property in the 26 United States. A foreign corporation engaged in trade or business within the United States is referred to in the 27 regulations in this chapter as a resident foreign corporation, and a foreign corporation not engaged in trade
28 or business within the United States, as a nonresident foreign corporation. A partnership engaged in trade or 29 business within the United States is referred to in the regulations in this chapter as a resident partnership, and
30 a partnership not engaged in trade or business within the United States, as a nonresident partnership. Whether 31 a partnership is to be regarded as resident or nonresident is not determined by the nationality or residence of 32 its members or by the place in which it was created or organized.
33 [Amended by T.D. 8813, Federal Register: February 2, 1999 (Volume 64, Number 21), Page 4967-4975]

34 Those who sign an IRS Form W-4 and therefore elect ILLEGALLY to be treated AS IF they are “public officers” and
35 federal statutory “employees” engaged in a “trade or business” and therefore representing the “United States” federal 36 corporation under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), even if they started out as “nonresident aliens”, then become 37 “residents” for the purpose of the Internal Revenue Code not unlike what they would do if they filed a Form 1040 instead
38 of a 1040NR. Their effective domicile then becomes the District of Columbia pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §§7701(a)(39) and 39 7408(c), which provisions treat them effectively as statutory and not constitutional “U.S. citizens” because they are 40 representing a corporation that is a statutory “U.S. citizen” under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

41 If the plaintiff doesn’t like our approach to the Non-Resident Non-Person Position, then we simply ask that they identify 42 where the flaw in our logic is by reading the following and then answering the admissions at the end. We are certain that 43 there is NO WAY they could do as requested and NOT contradict either themselves or the written law or both, and thereby
44 admit that they are LYING.

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

45 9.9 Ministry is in violation of the Injunction Order against it

46 It is true that an abusive tax shelter injunction was issued by the Southern District of California, Case No. 05cv00921, against 47 an alleged respondent named “C. Hansen”. However:

1. This ministry was not party to the above litigation.
2. The defendant in that matter was not an officer of this ministry.
3. “C. Hansen” was not the actual defendant. The real party in interest as defendant was the U.S. Attorney and the IRS Agent assisting him. This is because they used copyrighted and licensed materials from this website to prosecute the action and thereby consented to and became party to the Member Agreement, Form #01.001. The Member Agreement says that anyone who uses anything off this website as legal evidence in any proceeding against either a Member, Officer, or ALLEGED member or officer of the ministry becomes the substitute defendant as a private party, waives official immunity, and becomes liable for millions of dollars. We’re still waiting for Mr. Martin Shoemaker and the LYING IRS agent to pay their penalties and comply with the order as the substitute defendant.
4. The judge perjured himself in his fraudulent order by:
 - 4.1. Attributing statements to the defendant that he stated under penalty of perjury that he never made.
 - 4.2. Reclassifying the speech on this website and that of the alleged defendant as FACTUAL, over the objections of the alleged speaker and in complete contradiction to what our Disclaimer and Member Agreement, Form #01.001 say on the subject, which both were in evidence before the court at that time. This was a complete violation of the First Amendment: reclassifying speech to have a significance not intended by the speaker and yet still holding the speaker responsible for the consequences of a meaning he didn’t intend and which the speech itself said was not intended.
5. The judge prejudicially excluded ALL exculpatory evidence offered by the alleged defendant and thereby destroyed the alleged defendant’s ability to defend or justify his actions. In short, it was a battle against an unarmed man on an unequal playing field in violation of the equal protection clause. The Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and Copyright/License that covered the government’s evidence downloaded off our website required that the Plaintiff by contract MUST admit everything on the website into evidence, and yet the judge interfered with the enforcement of that contract and thereby violated due process of law.
6. The judge violated due process of law by turning inadmissible and unsubstantiated political statements and presumptions by biased witnesses into evidence. The government’s only evidence was from its own officers and it produced no non-governmental injured parties who were witnesses. Consequently, it had no standing to sue, and certainly not against this nonresident ministry.
7. The judge violated the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act by refusing to satisfy the criteria for asserting extraterritorial Longarm jurisdiction, thus rendering a void judgment.
8. The fraudulent and void order did not identify any specific thing on this website existing at the time the order was issued or at the time the answer to the complaint was filed that identified ITSELF as:
 - 8.1. FALSE AND COMMERCIAL AND FACTUAL . . .Or
 - 8.2. Suggestive of illegal activity. . .Or
 - 8.3. A “tax shelter” as legally defined.Our website identifies itself as simply a belief and not a fact, and it, therefore, is incapable of being false or fraudulent or even admissible as evidence pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 610. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and Disclaimer both forbid the use of the materials for an illegal purpose, and therefore there is no way to enjoin our website lawfully.
9. 26 U.S.C. §6700 authorizes injunction orders only in the case where the speech in question:
 - 9.1. Identifies itself as factual and therefore actionable and admissible as evidence.. .AND
 - 9.2. Makes promises upon which the audience relies to their injury. . .AND
 - 9.3. Is false or fraudulent or suggestive of illegal activity. . .AND
 - 9.4. Is targeted at “taxpayers”, who are the only parties protected by the Internal Revenue Code. . .AND
 - 9.5. Is targeted at those who meet all the criteria for being a “taxpayer”, including that they have a domicile or residence on federal territory AND are lawfully engaged in a public office in the U.S. government, which is what the I.R.C. defines as a “trade or business”.The SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001 both at the time the unlawful and fraudulent order was issued and now is prohibited from engaging in satisfying ANY of the above criteria.
10. Both the Plaintiff and the Court were provided with a copy of the complete content of this website on DVD several times during and after the order was issued and asked for an itemized list of things that were both FACTUAL and FALSE or suggestive of illegal activity. They were asked to remain silent if they agreed that there were no services or information offered on the website that met this criteria. They were given 30 days to respond and did not respond, and therefore agreed that nothing on this website was violative of the order at the time the order was issued or at any time after the complaint was filed.
11. A contempt motion was attempted against the party to the above litigation because of failure to provide customer lists and the contempt was dismissed. No surprise there, because he was not the party responsible for this ministry or website.

1 In conclusion: This ministry is NOT in violation of any order. It is irrational and a tort to issue a tax injunction order against
2 a ministry or website that specifically says in the Disclaimer, the Member Agreement, Form #01.001, and in several places
3 on the website that the materials are NOT intended, recommended, or authorized for use as a “tax shelter”, are not authorized
4 for an illegal use, not authorized for injurious uses, are NONfactual, and are not admissible as evidence under the Federal
5 Rule of Evidence 610, which is the only thing this ministry engages in.

6 “If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty [and
7 INCLUDING FEDERAL JUDGES], can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion,

9 which permit an exception, they do not now occur to us.”

19 Therefore, any injunction that has been or will be attempted against us will be void, moot, illegal, and a tort. We won’t 20 cooperate with any effort by any court or government to reclassify our speech as FACTUAL so that the messenger can have 21 his/her First Amendment rights maliciously violated.

22 As we point out later in section 22, we have always been willing to cooperate fully in removing or correcting anything on 23 this website that is provably both FACTUAL AND either FALSE or suggestive of illegal or harmful activity. By FACTUAL,
24 we mean as we expressly identify it to be factual and not as anyone other than us PRESUMEs or supposes it to be. Despite 25 repeated invitations to do so, we have never been notified by the government of any such information or services on our 26 website, and therefore we have every reason to believe that:

- 27 1. The government finds no fault with anything posted.
- 28 2. Even though we are not party to the injunction order, we are in full compliance with it.
- 29 3. The government is estopped from litigating any issue relating to false, fraudulent, or illegal information on our website
30 until they first notify us administratively, which they have never done. That notice, like everything we have to send to 31 the government, must be signed under penalty of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065 using the full legal birth name
32 of the signer.

3 Obviously, the rules requiring exhaustion of the administrative remedy [by notifying us administratively

5 the mere holding of the prescribed administrative hearing would result in irreparable damage.²⁵ Lawsuits also

10 9.10 Ministry claims that filing of tax returns is voluntary

11 Plaintiff United States states the following in the Motion:

12 “Also, contrary to the defendant's statements, it is clear that the filing of tax returns or the payment of federal
13 *income taxes is not voluntary, but mandatory.*²⁶ The requirement to file an income tax return is plainly set forth
14 in I.R.C. §6011(a), 6012(a), et seq., and 6072(a). See also Treas. Reg. §1.6011-1(a). The requirement to pay tax
15 is contained in I.R.C. §6151. As stated above, any taxpayer who has received more than the statutory amount of 16 *gross income is obligated to file a return and pay the appropriate tax.*²⁷ In fact, failure to file and pay taxes could 17 cause the non-complying individual to be subject to civil and criminal penalties, including fines and 18 imprisonment. The defendant's position that the federal income tax laws are voluntary is a discredited, false 19 concept.”
20 [Motion for Summary Judgment, Docket #68, Department of Justice]

21 Alleged Defendant states no such thing and agrees with the courts and the Plaintiff's interpretation of law on the subject.
22 Compliance with the I.R.C. is not voluntary but mandatory for statutory “taxpayers”. However, the decision to BECOME a

Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

26 Says the following in section 6 entitled "Legal Duty to File Returns".

27 26 U.S.C. §1461 is the only statute within the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A which creates an explicit liability
28 or "legal duty". That duty is enforceable only against those subject to the I.R.C., who are "taxpayers" with 29 "gross income" above the exemption amount identified in 26 U.S.C. §6012. All amounts reported by third parties
30 on Information Returns, such as the W-2, 1098, and 1099, document receipt of "trade or business". All "trade
31 or business" earnings, as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26), are classified as "gross income". A nonresident
32 alien who has these information returns filed against him or her becomes his or her own "withholding agent",
33 and must reconcile their account with the federal government annually by filing a tax return. This is a
34 requirement of all those who are engaged in a "public office", which is a type of business partnership with the 35 federal government. That business relationship is created through the operation of private contract and private 36 law between you, the natural person, and the federal government. The method of consenting to that contract is 37 any one of the following means:

38 1. Assessing ourselves with a liability shown on a tax return, even if we received no "gross income".
39 2. Voluntarily signing a W-4, which is identified in the regulations as an "agreement" to include all earnings
40 in the context of that agreement as "gross income" on a 1040 tax return. See 26 C.F.R. §31.3402(p)-1(a).
41 For a person who is not a "public official" or engaged in a "public office", the signing of the W-4 essentially
42 amounts to an agreement to procure "social services" and "social insurance". You must bribe the Beast
43 with over half of your earnings in order to convince it to take care of you in your old age.

44 3. Filing information returns on ourself or not rebutting information returns improperly filed against us, such 45 as the W-2, 1098, and 1099. Pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6041(a), all of these federal forms associate all funds
46 documented on them with the taxable activity called a "trade or business". If you are not an elected or 47 appointed federal employee or a "public officer", then you can't lawfully earn "trade or business" income.

4. Allowing Currency Transaction Reports (CTR's), IRS Form 8300, to be filed against us when we withdraw 10,000 or more in cash from a financial institution. The statutes at 31 U.S.C. §5331 and the regulation at 31 C.F.R. §103.30(d)(2) only require these reports to be filed in connection with a "trade or business", and this "trade or business" is the same "trade or business" referenced in the Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) and 26 U.S.C. §162. If you are not a "public official" or if you do not consent to be treated as one in order to procure "social insurance", then banks and financial institutions are violating the law to file these forms against you. See:

Demand for Verified Evidence of Trade or Business Activity": Currency Transaction Report, Form #04.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. Completing and submitting the Social Security Trust document, which is the SS-5 form. This is an agreement that imposes the "duty" or "fiduciary duty" upon the natural person and makes him into a "trustee" and an officer of the federal corporation called the "United States". The definition of "person" for the purposes of the criminal provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, codified in 26 U.S.C. §7343, incidentally is EXACTLY the same as the above. Therefore, all tax crimes require that the violator must be acting in a fiduciary capacity as a Trustee of some kind or another, whether it be as an Executor over the estate of a deceased "taxpayer", or over the Social Security Trust maintained for the benefit of a living trustee/employee of the federal corporation called the "United States Government". See the following for details:

Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The existence of this fiduciary duty as "trustee" or a federal "public official" is what creates the affirmative duty to file "returns of income". The only way that Congress can pass a law making it a crime to NOT do something is to apply the law against those exercising a fiduciary duty of one kind or another. For instance, the crime of "willful failure to file" under 26 U.S.C. §7203 depends on the definition of "person" found in 26 U.S.C. §7343, which in turn presupposes, like I.R.C. §6671(b) above, that the person who failed to file fits the following description:

"who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs."
[26 U.S.C. §7343]

This means that the defendant must be a party to a private contract that created the fiduciary duty to begin with. It is otherwise unlawful to prosecute a person for NOT doing something, like filing a return, unless he is party to a contract that makes him a fiduciary of one kind or another, such as by acting as a "trustee" over the Social Security Trust.

It is also noteworthy that those who are NOT federal "employees" or "Trustees" cannot even entertain suits in Tax Court. See 26 U.S.C. §6902(a). The U.S. Tax Court cannot and will not entertain suits of those who are NOT acting as "trustees" and "fiduciaries" over federal property but as private natural persons acting in their individual capacity. Consequently, it is impossible to have a tax liability under Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code for those who are not acting as federal "transferees" and "fiduciaries" of one kind or another.

[Legal Requirement to File Federal Income Tax Returns, Form #05.009]

2. Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 5.3.1 says the same thing as that above.
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. Family Guardian Website, at the following address says the same thing:

Taxpayers v. Nontaxpayers

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/TaxpayerVNontaxpayer.htm>

We would like to add to the above the following religious, and not factual, statements and beliefs:

1. Those who have earnings subject to tax MUST file, and are legally liable to file returns as indicated in 26 C.F.R. §1.6012-1. The persons listed in that regulation are all serving in public offices within the government. See:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 1 2. 26 U.S.C. §1461 makes all withholding agents on nonresident aliens "liable" to pay tax and file returns. All such 2 withholding agents are within the U.S. government and may not lawfully be part of a private company.
- 3 3. Anyone who is the subject of un-rebutted information returns filed against them which connect them to the "trade or 4 business" franchise, pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6041, has earnings subject to tax. These information returns include, but
5 are not limited to IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, and 1099. All such persons are prima facie "taxpayers" subject to the
6 I.R.C. That prima facie presumption is rebuttable by rebutting the information returns, if they are false. In the vast 7 majority of cases, in fact, information returns are false because the party against whom they were filed is not lawfully
8 serving in a public office within the U.S. government. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 9 4. There are only two ways by the operation of the I.R.C. to discharge the requirement to file:
10 4.1. Correct the information returns if they were wrongfully filed against a person not in fact engaged in a "trade or 11 business".
12 4.2. File a return and pay the tax due. This closes the master file and places it in the retention register, unless the 13 filing has an error.
- 14 5. The IRS won't admit this, but this in fact is how the de facto unlawful system currently functions:
15 5.1. You can't unilaterally "elect" yourself into a "public office", even if you do consent.
16 5.2. The Internal Revenue Code does not authorize the creation of any new public offices in the government but rather
17 taxes EXISTING offices. No IRS form nor any provision in the Internal Revenue Code CREATES any new public
18 offices in the government.
19 5.3. The I.R.C. only taxes EXISTING public offices lawfully exercised ONLY in the District of Columbia and in all 20 places expressly authorized pursuant to 4 U.S.C. §72.
- 21 6. Information returns are being abused in effect as "federal election" forms.
22 6.1. Third parties in effect are nominating private persons into public offices in the government without their knowledge,
23 without their consent, and without compensation. Thus, information returns are being used to impose the 24 obligations of a public office upon people without compensation and thereby impose slavery in violation of the 25 Thirteenth Amendment.
26 6.2. Anyone who files a false information return connecting a person to the "trade or business"/"public office" franchise
27 who in fact does not ALREADY lawfully occupy a public office in the U.S. government is guilty of impersonating
28 a public officer in criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §912.
- 29 7. The IRS Form W-4 cannot and does not create an office in the U.S. government, but allows EXISTING public officers
30 to elect to connect their private earnings to a public use, a public office, and a public purpose. The IRS abuses this form
31 to unlawfully create public offices, and this abuse of the I.R.C. is the heart of the tax fraud: They are making a system
32 that only applies to EXISTING public offices lawfully exercised in order to:
33 7.1. Unlawfully create new public offices in places where they are not authorized to exist.
34 7.2. Destroy the separation of powers between what is public and what is private.
35 7.3. Institute eminent domain over private labor using false third-party reports. Omission in preventing such fraud
36 accomplishes involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, 42 U.S.C. §1994, and 18 U.S.C.
37 §1581.
38 7.4. Destroy the separation of powers between the federal and state governments. Any state employee who participates
39 in the federal income tax is serving in TWO offices, which is a violation of most state constitutions.
40 7.5. Enslave innocent people to go to work for them without compensation, without recourse, and in violation of the 41 thirteenth amendment prohibition against involuntary servitude. That prohibition, incidentally, applies
42 EVERYWHERE, including on federal territory.

43 9.11 Ministry claims earnings not connected to a "trade or business" in the U.S. government are 44 not subject to tax

45 Plaintiff United States states:

1 "Defendant informs his customers that income not associated with the conduct of trade or business with the federal
2 government is not subject to income tax. These are tired tax protest arguments that have been repeatedly rejected by
3 courts as being false."²⁸
4 [Motion for Summary Judgment, Docket #68, Department of Justice]

5 Alleged Defendant states no such thing and agrees with the courts and the Plaintiff's interpretation of law but not facts on the
6 subject. Alleged Defendant has no "customers" other than God, as revealed by the Member Agreement, Form #01.001.
7 Alleged Defendant does not tell anyone any such thing but agrees that those fitting all the following ARE subject to tax:

- 8 1. Earnings from "sources in the United States", meaning the government.
- 9 2. Not engaged in a statutory "trade or business", meaning public office, per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26).

10 The reason the Plaintiff is correct is because "sources within the United States" are made synonymous with "trade or 11 business", within the I.R.C. itself. Therefore, earnings NOT connected with a "trade or business" DIRECTLY per 26 U.S.C.
12 §871(a) are connected INDIRECTLY through 26 U.S.C. §864(c)(3). Below are examples of why this is the case from the 13 websites in question, which incidentally are not the statements of the Alleged Defendant. The following information,
14 according to the Disclaimers, is not factual, not actionable, and exclusively religious speech that is protected by the First 15 Amendment.

- 16 1. Family Guardian Website, "The Trade or Business Scam",
17 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/TradeOrBusinessScam.htm>:

18 The term "United States" is also a synonym for "trade or business" under the I.R.C. in most cases. Under 26
19 U.S.C. §864(c)(3), all earnings from within the "United States", which is defined as the District of Columbia in 20 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) is also treated as "effectively connected with a trade or 21 business".

22 TITLE 26 > Subtitle A > CHAPTER 1 > Subchapter N > PART 1 > § 864
23 § 864. Definitions and special rules

24 (c) Effectively connected income, etc.

25 (3) Other income from sources within United States

26 All income, gain, or loss from sources within the United States (other than income, gain, or loss to 27 which paragraph (2) applies) shall be treated as effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or 28 business within the United States.

29 Therefore, whenever you see the phrase "sources within the United States" associated with any earnings, then
30 indirectly, it is being associated with a "trade or business". This is the case for 26 U.S.C. §871(a), which identifies
31 income of nonresident aliens from within the statutory "United States" (federal zone) that is not connected to 32 a "trade or business". 26 U.S.C. §864(c)(3) says that this income is ALSO connected with a trade or business if 33 it was derived from sources within the statutory "United States" (federal zone). 26 U.S.C. §864(c)(2) identifies 34 all sources of income not associated with a "trade or business" and they include:

- 35 • 26 U.S.C. §871\(a\)\(1\): Income of nonresident aliens other than capital gains derived from patents,

We would like to add to the above the following religious, and not factual, statements and beliefs:

1. We can find nothing on any of the websites in question that would contradict the Plaintiff's interpretation of law above.
2. The quotes from the websites above are also consistent with both what the courts say on the subject and with what the law says as well. No arguments here.
3. 26 U.S.C. §871(a) imposes a 30% flat tax on all earnings from the statutory but not constitutional "United States" not connected with the "trade or business" franchise.

9.12 Ministry claims internal revenue laws do not apply outside the District of Columbia

Plaintiff United States states in its Motion for Summary Judgment:

According to Defendant, the Internal Revenue Code (which Defendant claims is unconstitutional) only applies within the District of Columbia and various federal territories or possessions, and does not apply within the normal 50 states.

[. . .]

In addition, Defendant's representation that the internal revenue laws have no application outside the District of Columbia and other federal property is wrong. As the Supreme Court stated long ago, "The people of the United States resident within any State are subject to two governments: one State, and the other National. ..." ²⁹ In fact, the Internal Revenue Code's definition of "United States" includes "the States and the District of Columbia." ³⁰ The I.R.C. was enacted by Congress pursuant to the Sixteenth Amendment and imposes an income tax on citizens and residents of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. Taxation is not limited to just the District of Columbia, but extends to "United States citizens throughout the nation, not just in federal enclaves, such as post offices and Indian reservations." ³¹

[Motion for Summary Judgment, Docket #68, Department of Justice]

Alleged Defendant states no such thing and agrees with the courts and the Plaintiff's interpretation of law on the subject.

9.12.1 Tax is a tax upon GOVERNMENT public officers, not EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE human beings

The U.S. Supreme Court affirmed that the ability to tax extends "WHEREVER the government extends".

*"Loughborough v. Blake, 5 Wheat. 317, 5 L.Ed. 98, was an action of trespass or, as appears by the original record, replevin, brought in the circuit court for the District of Columbia to try the right of Congress to impose a direct tax for general purposes on that District. 3 Stat. at L. 216, chap. 60. It was insisted that Congress could act in a double capacity: in one as legislating [182 U.S. 244, 260] for the states; in the other as a local legislature for the District of Columbia. In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levying direct taxes might be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could not legislate for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and excises,' which 'shall be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the United States [described in the Constitution].

²⁹ United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542, 550 (1876).

³¹ Sloan, 939 F.2d. at 501 (quoting United States v. Collins, 920 F.2d. 619, 629 (10th Cir. 1990); Betz, 40 Fed.Cl. at 295; see also In re Becraft, 885 F.2d. at 549-50 ("no semblance of merit" to claim that federal laws only apply to territories and District of Columbia); Ward, 833 F.2d. at 1539 (contention that United States has jurisdiction only over D.C. and other federal enclaves is rejected as a "twisted conclusion").

1 It was held that the grant of this power was a general one without limitation as to place,
2 and consequently extended to all places over which the government extends; and that it
3 extended to the District of Columbia as a constituent part of the United States. The fact that
4 art. 1, 2, declares that 'representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states . . .
5 according to their respective numbers' furnished a standard by which taxes were apportioned, but not to exempt
6 any part of the country from their operation. 'The words used do not mean that direct taxes shall be imposed on 7 states only which are represented, or shall be apportioned to representatives; but that direct taxation, in its
8 application to states, shall be apportioned to numbers.' That art. 1, 9, 4, declaring that direct taxes shall be laid
9 in proportion to the census, was applicable to the District of Columbia, 'and will enable Congress to apportion
10 on it its just and equal share of the burden, with the same accuracy as on the respective states. If the tax be laid
11 in this proportion, it is within the very words of the restriction. It is a tax in proportion to the census or 12 enumeration referred to.' It was further held that the words of the 9th section did not 'in terms require that the 13 system of direct taxation, when resorted to, shall be extended to the territories, as the words of the 2d section
14 require that it shall be extended to all the states. They therefore may, without violence, be understood to give a 15 rule when the territories shall be taxed, without imposing the necessity of taxing them.'" [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]
16

17 The implication of the above is that:

- 18 1. The "United States" they are referring to in the phrase "it extended to the District of Columbia as a constituent part 19 of the United States." Implies that the "District of Columbia" referred to is a GOVERNMENT CORPORATION and 20 not a geographic place. This is entirely consistent with the definition of "United States" found in 26 U.S.C.
21 §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). That corporation was created BEFORE the above ruling in 1871. See:

- 22 2. The "public offices" which are the subject of the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A franchise tax upon a "trade or 23 business" are ONLY within the federal and not state government.
24 3. The only "persons" within Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A are public offices in the government and not private
25 human beings. This is consistent with the definition of "person" found in 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7343,
26 which define "person" as an officer or employee of a corporation. For further details on this scam, see:

- 27 4. The term "sources within the United States" found in 26 U.S.C. §864(c)(3) means sources WITHIN the U.S.
28 government. We prove this in:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020, Section 5.4

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 29 5. The word "Internal" within the phrase "Internal Revenue Service" means and can only mean THE GOVERNMENT
30 and not any geographical place.
31 6. The statutory "taxpayer" referenced in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14) is the PUBLIC OFFICE that is the subject of the excise
32 tax upon the "trade or business" franchise. The private human being animating the office is a volunteer who has an
33 "implied contract" to represent the office by virtue of using the Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification
34 Number, both of which are property of the government both BEFORE and AFTER it is issued. A "public officer" is,
35 after all, legally defined as someone in charge of the PROPERTY of the public, which property is the Social Security
36 Card and associated number. This method of ILLEGALLY creating public offices is the heart of the tax FRAUD
37 engaged in by the I.R.S.

38 "Public office. The right, authority, and duty created and conferred by law, by which for a given period, either
39 fixed by law or enduring at the pleasure of the creating power, an individual is invested with some portion of the
40 sovereign functions of government for the benefit of the public. Walker v. Rich, 79 Cal.App. 139, 249 P. 56, 58.
41 An agency for the state, the duties of which involve in their performance the exercise of some portion of the 42 sovereign power, either great or small. Yaselli v. Goff, C.C.A., 12 F.2d. 396, 403, 56 A.L.R. 1239; Lacey v. State,
43 13 Ala.App. 212, 68 So. 706, 710; Curtin v. State, 61 Cal.App. 377, 214 P. 1030, 1035; Shelmadine v. City of 44 Elkhart, 75 Ind.App. 493, 129 N.E. 878. State ex rel. Colorado River Commission v. Frohmiller, 46 Ariz. 413, 52
45 P.2d. 483, 486. Where, by virtue of law, a person is clothed, not as an incidental or transient authority, but for 46 such time as de- notes duration and continuance, with Independent power to control the property of the public,
47 or with public functions to be exercised in the supposed interest of the people, the service to be compensated by 48 a stated yearly salary, and the occupant having a designation or title, the position so created is a public office.

(d) Social security number cards.

A person who is assigned a social security number will receive a social security number card from SSA within a reasonable time after the number has been assigned. 7. The effective domicile of the statutory “taxpayer” and “person” subject to tax is the domicile of the public office, and that public office has a domicile in the District of Columbia per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). The human being filling the office is surety for the office as an officer of a federal corporation.
8. The PLACE “where the government extends” in the context of Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A and C is where Congress has EXPRESSLY authorized the execution of the public offices that are the subject of the tax as required by 4 U.S.C. §72 AND NO OTHER PLACE.

TITLE 4 > CHAPTER 3 > § 72
Sec. 72. - Public offices; at seat of Government

All offices attached to the seat of government shall be exercised in the District of Columbia, and not elsewhere, except as otherwise expressly provided by law

9.12.2 Tax is upon statutory “U.S. Persons”, “U.S. citizens”, and “U.S. residents”, which are public offices in the government domiciled on federal territory

26 U.S.C. §911 allows Congress to reach statutory but not constitutional “U.S. citizens and residents” anywhere in the world. However, these statutory “U.S. citizens” and “residents” are public offices in the U.S. government as we will show.

It is also a maxim of law that all law is territorial and confined to the law making power of the sovereign, and that debt and contract, both of which require consent, are required to reach outside the territory of the sovereign. Since all public offices are created with consent, then our argument is consistent with itself:

*Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.
Locus contractus regit actum.*

*The place of the contract [franchise agreement, in this case] governs the act.
[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm/>]*

Below are examples of why this is the case from the websites in question, which incidentally are not the statements of the Alleged Defendant. There is no question that Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A describes a legitimate tax upon those domiciled in the statutory but not Constitutional “United States” and who are serving in public offices within the government, regardless of where they physically are situated. All income taxes, in fact, are a civil liability based on the coincidence of legal domicile AND engaging in an excise taxable activity:

“Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located.”
[Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

“This right to protect persons having a domicile, though not native-born or naturalized citizens, rests on the firm foundation of justice, and the claim to be protected is earned by considerations which the protecting power is not at liberty to disregard. Such domiciled citizen pays the same price for his protection as native-born or naturalized citizens pay for theirs. He is under the bonds of allegiance to the country of his residence, and, if

1 he breaks them, incurs the same penalties. He owes the same obedience to the civil laws. His property is, in
2 the same way and to the same extent as theirs, liable to contribute to the support of the Government. In nearly
3 all respects, his and their condition as to the duties and burdens of Government are undistinguishable.”
4 [Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698 (1893)]

5 Domicile is a “protection franchise” that all those who consensually participate in absent duress owe a duty to pay for. This
6 is exhaustively demonstrated in the following legal treatise:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

7 There is one exception to the domicile requirement, which is in the case of a statutory “U.S. citizen” (under the I.R.C. and 8 NOT under the Constitution) while domiciled abroad and NOT within a constitutional state of the Union. The reason behind
9 this exception is that the statutory “U.S. citizen” who is the subject of this exception is:

- 10 1. A public office within the U.S. government. That public office is referred to as a “trade or business” in 26 U.S.C.
11 §7701(a)(26).
- 12 2. Domiciled within the District of Columbia per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39) and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).
- 13 3. Occupied by a human being who can be domiciled outside the statutory “United States” but who is, as a public officer,
14 treated as having an effective domicile in the statutory “United States” pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
15 17(b) while acting in an official capacity representing said public office.
- 16 4. Extensively proven to exist in the following two resources:
17 4.1. Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
18 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
19 4.2. Proof that There Is a “Straw Man”, Form #05.042
20 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

21 None of our members are allowed to have the above status so it is irrelevant to this ministry, and it is a CRIME under 18
22 U.S.C. §912 to engage in such a public office outside the District of Columbia and within a constitutional state of the Union
23 absent express statutory permission from Congress, which has never been given as required by 4 U.S.C. §72. Hence, the 24 exception does not apply to those domiciled within a constitutional state of the Union. For details on this exception, see:

Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018, Section 5
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

25 What the Plaintiff plainly pretends not to know and self-servingly refuses to acknowledge is that the separation of powers
26 doctrine establishes two separate and distinct political and legal communities and jurisdictions:

- 27 1. As the municipal government for the District of Columbia and all U.S. territories and possessions. All “acts of Congress”
28 or federal statutes passed in this capacity are referred to as “private international law”. This political community is called 29 the “National Government” and it is described in the municipal statutory law for federal territory.
- 30 2. As the general government for the states of the Union. All “acts of Congress” or federal statutes passed in this capacity
31 are called “public international law”. This political community is called the “Federal Government” and it is described 32 in the Constitution.

33 Each of the two capacities above has different types of “citizens” within it and each is a unique and separate “body politic”.
34 Nearly all laws that Congress writes pertain to the first jurisdiction above only.

35 “It is clear that Congress, as a legislative body, exercise two species of legislative power: the one, limited as to
36 its objects, but extending all over the Union: the other, an absolute, exclusive legislative power over the District
37 of Columbia. The preliminary inquiry in the case now before the Court, is, by virtue of which of these authorities
38 was the law in question passed?”
39 [Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264, 6 Wheat. 265; 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821)]

40 Typically, Congress tries to disguise which of the two separate jurisdictions they are legislating for using “words of art” in 41 order to unlawfully expand their jurisdiction and destroy the separation of powers between the states and the federal 42 government. The U.S. Supreme Court has identified the maintenance of the separation between these two jurisdictions as the 43 most important obligation of any judge:

1 "I take leave to say that, if the principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of this
2 court, a radical and mischievous change in our system of government will result. We will, in that event, pass
3 from the era of constitutional liberty guarded and protected by a written constitution into an era of legislative
4 absolutism..

5 [. . .]

6 "The idea prevails with some, indeed it has found expression in arguments at the bar, that we have in this country
7 substantially two national governments; one to be maintained under the Constitution, with all of its
8 restrictions; the other to be maintained by Congress outside the independently of that instrument, by exercising
9 such powers [of absolutism] as other nations of the earth are accustomed to..

10 [. . .]

11 It will be an evil day for American liberty if the theory of a government outside the supreme law of the land
12 finds lodgment in our constitutional jurisprudence. No higher duty rests upon this court than to exert its full
13 authority to prevent all violation of the principles of the Constitution."

14 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901), Justice Harlan, Dissenting]

15 Below is a summary of the two classes of "citizens"/"residents" created by these two separate civil jurisdictions:

16 Table 1: Types of citizens

#	Jurisdiction	Land area	Name of "citizens"
1	Municipal government of the District of Columbia and all U.S. territories and possessions. Also called the "National Government"	"Federal zone" (District of Columbia + federal "States" under 4 U.S.C. §110(d))	"Statutory citizens" or "citizens and nationals of the United States" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401
2	General government for the states of the Union. Also called the "Federal Government"	"United States of America " (50 Union "states")	"Constitutional citizens" or "nationals" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).

17 The U.S. Supreme Court recognized the above two separate political and legislative jurisdictions and their respective separate
18 types of "citizens"/"residents" when it held the following:

19 "The 1st section of the 14th article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited,
20 opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states.
21 No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act
22 of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the
23 public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except
24 as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided
25 always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[*], were not citizens."
26 [Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]

27 Plaintiff obviously is trying to abuse verbiage, "words of art", and the malicious disregard for the rules of statutory
28 construction to destroy the separation of powers between the states of the Union and the national government that is the main
29 protection for Constitutionally protected rights, and therefore is engaged in a conspiracy against my rights by refusing to 30 recognize and enforce which of the two separate contexts in which he means "citizen" or "resident": Constitutional or 31 statutory.

32 "This constitutionally mandated division of authority "was adopted by the Framers to ensure protection of our 33 fundamental liberties." Gregory v. Ashcroft, 501 U.S. 452, 458 (1991) (internal quotation marks omitted).
34 "Just as the separation and independence of the coordinate branches of the Federal Government serves to 35 prevent the accumulation of excessive power in any one branch, a healthy balance of power between the States
36 and the Federal Government will reduce the risk of tyranny and abuse from either front." Ibid. "
37 [U.S. v. Lopez, 514 U.S. 549 (1995)]

38 The two contexts for the terms citizen"/"resident", being Constitutional and Statutory, are mutually exclusive and non-
39 overlapping in nature and this is a direct result of the separation of powers doctrine. I cannot have a domicile in two separate 40 jurisdictions at once. I can only have a domicile and "allegiance"/"protection" and therefore owe income taxes to one 41 jurisdiction at a time.

42 "A person may have more than one residence but only one domicile."

One can therefore only be a statutory “citizen” or “resident” of one of the two separate, mutually exclusive jurisdictions or political communities at any given time, and we simply ask the Plaintiff to identify which of the following THREE possible definitions of “United States” he means in the case of “citizens” he is describing and to show us a definition in the Internal Revenue Code for the term “United States” and “State” that expressly includes the “United States” he means. In the absence of express declaration, anything not expressly included is purposefully excluded, by implication:

“Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles, 170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded.”
 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

Since there are three different geographical “United States”, according to the U.S. Supreme Court, then it follows that there are AT LEAST three different “citizens of the United States” found in either statutes or the Constitution:

“The term 'United States' may be used in any one of several senses. It may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in the family of nations. It may designate the territory over which the sovereignty of the United States extends, or it may be the collective name of the states which are united by and under the Constitution.”
 [Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, 324 U.S. 652 (1945)]

We will now break the above definition into its three contexts and show what each means.

Table 2: Geographical meanings assigned to "United States" by the U.S. Supreme Court in Hooven & Allison v. Evatt

#	U.S. Supreme Court Definition of “United States” in Hooven	Context in which usually used	Referred to in this article as	Interpretation
1	“It may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in the family of nations.”	International law	“United States*”	“These united States,” when traveling abroad, you come under the jurisdiction of the President through his agents in the U.S. State Department, where “U.S.” refers to the sovereign society. You are a “Citizen of the United States” like someone is a Citizen of France, or England. We identify this version of “United States” with a single asterisk after its name: “United States*” throughout this article.
2	“It may designate the territory over which the sovereignty of the United States extends, or”	“National government” Federal law Federal forms Federal territory ONLY and no part of any state of the Union	“United States”	“The United States (the District of Columbia, possessions and territories)”. Here Congress has exclusive legislative jurisdiction. In this sense, the term “United States” is a singular noun. You are a person domiciled in the District of Columbia, one of its Territories or Federal areas (enclaves). Hence, even a person living in the one of the sovereign States could still be a member of the Federal area and therefore a statutory “citizen of the United States.” This is the definition used in most “Acts of Congress” and federal statutes. We identify this version of “United States” with two asterisks after its name: “United States” throughout this article. This definition is also synonymous with the “United States” corporation found in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A).
3	“...as the collective name for the states which are united by and under the Constitution.”	“Federal government” States of the Union and NO PART of federal territory Constitution of the United States	“United States”	“The several States which is the united States of America. ” Referring to the 50 sovereign States , which are united under the Constitution of the United States of America. The federal areas within these states are not included in this definition because the Congress does not have exclusive legislative authority over any of the 50 sovereign States within the Union of States. Rights are retained by the States in the 9th and 10th Amendments, and you are a “ Citizen of these united States. ” This is the definition used in the Constitution for the United States of America. We identify this version of “United States” with three asterisks after its name: “United States” throughout this article. Those domiciled in this area are called on-citizen nationals within federal law.

The U.S. Supreme Court above did not identify a FOURTH type of statutory “United States”, which is the “United States” as a legal person and a corporation franchise rather than a geographic area.

(15) "United States" means -

(A) a Federal corporation;

(B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or

(C) an instrumentality of the United States.

The U.S. Supreme Court, in fact, has admitted that all governments are corporations when it said:

"Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created by usage and common consent, or grants and charters which create a body politic for prescribed purposes; but whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise of power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the instrument by which the incorporation is made [the Constitution is the corporate charter]. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 Inst. 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same footing of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect that of individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law, is a principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the federal government, by the amendments to the constitution."

Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of, [36 U.S. 420 (1837)]

Those who are acting as a federal "public official" or contractor, then we are representing the "United States federal corporation". THAT corporation is a statutory "U.S. citizen" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 which is completely subject to all federal law.

"A corporation is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of which it was created, and of that state or country only."

[19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §886 (2003)]

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17\(b\) says that when we are representing that corporation as "officers" or "employees" (per 5 U.S.C. §2105(a)), we, therefore, become statutory "U.S. citizens" completely subject to federal territorial law:

IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.

Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity

(b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

(1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

(2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and

(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959\(a\) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.

[Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17\(b\)]

We allege that the Plaintiff is presuming the latter STATUTORY "United States", meaning the "United States" as a corporation and a legal "person" for the ONLY type of STATUTORY "citizen of the United States*" that the Plaintiff can be or is describing as the ONLY lawful subject of the injunction proceeding. We also prove this in:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020, Section 4
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

We would agree that this type of STATUTORY but not CONSTITUTIONAL "citizen of the United States" has all the obligations he describes IF that citizen is lawfully AND CONSENSUALLY representing a public office in the government

1 and is NOT an exclusively private human being. However, the average American born anywhere in America and who is
2 domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of a CONSTITUTIONAL but not STATUTORY state is NOT this type of citizen.

3 At a deposition, one of our members also asked the Plaintiff United States (corporation), represented by Martin Shoemaker,
4 U.S. Attorney for the Dept. of Justice to expressly identify WHICH of the three mutually exclusive types of statutory
5 citizenship he means when he uses the STATUTORY word “citizen”.

- 6 1. 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) . Born anywhere in the American Union and domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of a state
7 of the Union. Also called a “citizen of the United States”.
- 8 2. 8 U.S.C. §1401 statutory “national and citizen of the United States”. Born anywhere in the American Union and 9 domiciled within a federal territory. Also called a “citizen of the United States”.
- 10 3. 8 U.S.C. §1408 and 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(B) “national of the United States”. Born within and domiciled within 11 American Samoa or Swain’s Island. Also called a “national of the United States” or “U.S. national” by the courts.

12 As proof that they wanted to conceal and protect their FRAUDULENT presumptions, the United States CORPORATION as 13 Plaintiff, represented by D.O.J. Attorney Martin Shoemaker, positively refused TO ANSWER. He was playing what we call
14 the “hide the presumption” game. He knows that once his malicious presumptions are exposed, he loses and his entire position
15 becomes indefensible. Hence, he knows he is a thief and a liar because he wouldn’t answer the above question and was 16 actively protecting himself from being exposed as such.

17 We allege that:

- 18 1. The ONLY STATUTORY “citizen of the United States” the Plaintiff can lawfully be referring to when they use the 19 term “U.S. citizen” is “United States” the federal corporation created by the United States Constitution. The 20 Constitution, in fact, is a trust indenture that CREATES this corporation. This corporation is what the U.S. Supreme 21 Court calls the “body corporate”.
- 22 2. The Plaintiff is unconstitutionally, prejudicially, and in violation of due process of law PRESUMING that WE are an 23 officer of that corporation.
- 24 3. We, therefore, are PRESUMED to have the same statutory citizenship status as the corporation we are PRESUMED to 25 represent as said officer. By their strategic silence on this subject, they obviously agree with us per Federal Rule of 26 Civil Procedure 8(b)(6) . We prove this is what they are doing in the following free resource on our website, which by 27 the way was included in the record of the above proceeding and entirely unrebutted by both the Plaintiff and the judge
28 and therefore agreed to in perpetuity:

29 People born anywhere in the American Union and domiciled in the exclusive jurisdiction of a state of the Union are not
30 included in the definition of statutory “national and citizen of the United States” per 8 U.S.C. §1401. Those domiciled on 31 federal territory and who are therefore statutory but not constitutional ‘U.S. citizens’ or ‘U.S. residents’ are expressly 32 prohibited from using ministry materials to interact on tax matters by the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001.

33 The Plaintiff obviously either doesn’t understand citizenship or the separation of powers doctrine or is feigning ignorance as
34 a way to STEAL from us, and we strongly suggest that he or she study both much more carefully just as we have before he 35 demonstrates the kind of arrogant, ignorant, malicious, and presumptuous diarrhea of the mouth exhibited in his pleadings on 36 the subject. Tools to accomplish his edification and education may be found below, which we demand that he rebut within

16 3.2. Section 5.2.1 entitled The TWO Sources of Federal Civil Jurisdiction: "Domicile" and "Contract":

17 *Of the two distinct sources of federal civil jurisdiction documented above [1. domicile and; 2. Agency/private 18 contract], the second one is completely and almost universally overlooked and misunderstood by nearly every
19 freedom fighter we have met. We assert that this supreme oversight, in fact, is the main "loophole" in the income
20 tax deception that has kept it alive all these years since the Sixteenth Amendment was fraudulently ratified in 21 1913. It is quite common for people like Irwin Schiff, Larry Becraft, Jeffrey Dickstein, and other famous freedom
22 fighter personalities who litigate often in federal court to over-emphasize the lack of federal territorial
23 jurisdiction in item 1 above and to falsely presume that it is the ONLY source of federal jurisdiction. The result
24 of this false "presumption" is that when they decry the lack of territorial jurisdiction and claim that the federal
25 government has no jurisdiction to impose an income tax upon them or their clients, the federal courts rightly label
26 their arguments as "frivolous and without merit". The only way we will ever get anywhere in federal courts over
27 freedom and sovereignty and taxation issues, folks, is to have a much better understanding of federal jurisdiction
28 than what has been demonstrated in federal courts to date by well-intentioned but misinformed freedom
29 advocates. This is not intended as a personal criticism of any specific individual by any means, but simply a 30 statement of fact intended to help us to collectively focus on more fruitful approaches to litigation so as to end
31 the illegal enforcement of the Internal Revenue Code by the IRS once and for all during our lifetime.

33 3.3. Section 5.6.16 entitled Social Security: The legal vehicle for extending Federal Jurisdiction into the states using 34 Private/contract law.

35 A number of tax honesty advocates will attempt to cite 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) as proof that federal 36 jurisdiction does not extend outside the District of Columbia for the purposes of the Internal Revenue Code.

37 TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 79 > Sec. 7701. [Internal Revenue Code]
38 Sec. 7701. - Definitions

39 (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the 40 intent thereof—

41 (9) United States

42 The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States and the District of 43 Columbia.

44 \(10\) State

45 The term "State" shall be construed to include the District of Columbia, where such construction is 46 necessary to carry out provisions of this title.

47 *Federal district and circuit courts have been known to label such arguments based on these definitions in the 48 Internal Revenue Code as "frivolous". Their reasons for doing so have never been completely or truthfully
49 revealed anywhere but here, to the best of our knowledge. Now that we know how the government ropes sovereign*

Americans into their jurisdiction based on the analysis in this section, we also know that it is indeed “frivolous” to state that federal jurisdiction does not extend outside the District of Columbia in the case of those who are “Trustees” or federal “employees” or federal contractors, such as those who participate in Social Security. Since we know that the legal domicile of the Trust is indeed the District of Columbia, we also know that anyone who litigates in a federal court and does not deny all of the following will essentially be presumed to be a federal “employee” and Trustee acting on behalf of the Social Security Trust:

1. The all caps name in association with him. His proper name is the lower case Christian Name. The all caps name is the name of the Social Security Trust that was created when you completed and submitted the SSA Form SS-5 to sign up for Social Security.
2. The Trustee license number called the Social Security Number associated with him. If you admit the number is yours, then you admit that you are acting as a Social Security Trustee. Only trustees can use the license number.
3. The receipt of income connected to a “trade or business” on form 1099’s. All earnings identified on a 1099 are “presumed” to be “effectively connected with a trade or business”, which is a “public office” in the United States government as a “Trustee” and fiduciary over federal payments.
4. The receipt of “wage” income in connection with a W-4. Receipt of “wages” are evidence from 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(a)-3(a) that you consented to withhold and participate in Social Security.
5. The existence of consent in signing the SSA Form SS-5. The Trust contract created by this form cannot be lawful so long as it was either signed without your consent or was signed for you by your parents without your informed consent.
6. The voluntary use of the Slave Surveillance Number. Instead, all uses must be identified as compelled. Responsibility for a compelled act falls on the person instituting the compulsion, and not the actor.

A very good way to fulfill all of the above is to avoid filling out government forms and when compelled to do so, to attach the following form:

[Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201

[Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 5.6.16]

4. Family Guardian Website, Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004 pamphlet, Section 9.6 says the following:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid
9.6. Internal Revenue Code applies only within the “federal zone”

This general statement is very presumptuous, and we tell people throughout our Great IRS Hoax to avoid general statements or presumption and to be very specific when they make a statement in order to limit the scope of the statement to avoid misinterpretation. As we said previously in section 2 earlier, the Internal Revenue Code describes several lawful and Constitutional taxes that apply to several subjects of taxation, many of which are not limited to the federal zone. For instance:

1. 26 U.S.C. §911 identifies a source of taxable income in the case of “citizens or residents abroad”. By “abroad” is meant foreign countries. Foreign countries are not part of the “federal zone” as defined in the Great IRS Hoax. Therefore, the Internal Revenue Code does address subjects of taxation such as “citizens” or “residents” who are outside of the federal zone and can apply outside of the federal zone. We also covered this subject also in the previous section.
2. 26 U.S.C. §4612\(a\)\(4\) defines the “United States” as including the 50 states of the Union. This section applies to the tax imposed in 26 U.S.C. §4611 upon fuels imported into states of the Union. One of the few Constitutional subjects of federal taxation is that upon importation, which are referred to in Constitution Article 1, Section 8, Clause 1 as “duties, imposts, and excises”. This also is a perfectly Constitutional tax which applies outside of the “federal zone”. We point this out in section 5.2.3 of the Great IRS Hoax.
3. Taxes on importation into states of the Union collected within the territorial waters under the exclusive control of the federal government. Such “imposts, duties, and excises” are collected under the authority of Article 1, Section 8, Clause 1 of the Constitution and can lawfully be enforced in the territorial waters of the surrounding states of the Union. In fact, the very reason for the existence of the Coast Guard is as a vehicle to enforce the collection of these lawful taxes on imports. The ships of the original Coast Guard, in fact, were called “Revenue Cutters”.

For the purposes of this section we define the term “federal zone” as follows:

“Federal zone: The District of Columbia, the territories and possessions of the United States, and federal areas or enclaves within states of the Union owned or ceded to the federal/general government by an act of the state legislature.”

We also explain in the Great IRS Hoax, in the following sections that Federal income taxes under Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code can also apply inside states of the Union:

1. Section 5.2.1 entitled “The TWO Sources of Federal Jurisdiction: ‘Domicile’ and ‘contract’”.
2. Section 5.6.16 entitled “Social Security: The Legal Vehicle for extending Federal Jurisdiction into the states using Private/contract law.

[SOURCE: Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Section 9.6; <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>]

9.13 Ministry claims American citizens are not subject to tax

Plaintiff United States states in its Motion for Summary Judgment:

Defendant maintains that American citizenship differs from United States citizenship, and only the latter is subject to the federal income tax laws. There is no support for this claim. As one court made clear, “[a]s a United States citizen, plaintiff is required to pay federal income tax. Section 1(c) of the I.R.C. provides that a tax shall be imposed on the taxable income of every individual.”³² The I.R.C. applies to “citizens or residents of the United States.”³³
[Motion for Summary Judgment, Docket #68, Department of Justice]

Once again, Plaintiff is abusing “words of art” as a red herring to create a controversy about IRRELEVANT issues and refusing to describe exactly what he/she means by “American Citizen”. When pressed at a deposition for:

1. PRECISELY which of the three “United States” he means in the phrase “U.S. citizen”, as identified by the U.S. Supreme Court in Hooven and Allison v. Evatt.
2. EXACTLY which statutory definition he/she meant for the term “American Citizen” or “U.S. citizen” within Title 8 of the U.S. Code.

..he (Martin Shoemaker, U.S. Attorney for the Dept. of Justice) maliciously refused to answer. The reason is that he would have had to expose the false and self-serving presumptions he was making and thereby reveal the origin of his campaign of constructive fraud and terror by the abuse of statutory “words of art” to obfuscate and deceive. We call this malicious game he is playing “hide the presumption” or “hide the consent”, and it is designed to STEAL from and enslave people he is supposed to be protecting.

Provided that the Plaintiff means that an “American Citizen” and a “U.S. citizen” is a statutory “U.S. citizen” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 and NOT a constitutional “Citizen” or “citizen of the United States”, Alleged Defendant agrees and always has agreed entirely with the courts and the Plaintiff’s interpretation of law on the subject. Below are examples of why this is the case. The following information, according to the Disclaimers, is not factual, not actionable, and exclusively religious speech that is protected by the First Amendment.

1. The pamphlet Why You are a “national”, “state national”, and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006 proves that any term that includes the word “citizenship” means “nationality”, as opposed to statutory “U.S. citizen” status under 8 U.S.C. §1401. See section 6 of the pamphlet. By that analysis, “American citizenship” and “U.S. citizenship” are equivalent, and mean “nationality”. The issue is that there are TWO, not one political community in our country: 1. The federal zone; 2. The 50 states of the Union. Each has its own unique “citizens” and both of them are called “citizens of the United States”. One is a statutory “subject” citizen defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401 and the other is a sovereign not subject to the legislative jurisdiction because domiciled outside of plenary/exclusive federal jurisdiction and in a state of the Union. Each uses a different “United States” in the meaning. The latter is a “national” under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21), but not a “citizen” under 8 U.S.C. §1401. The “state” referred to in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) is a state of the Union, because it is lower case and therefore “foreign” to federal legislative jurisdiction.

Foreign States: “Nations outside of the United States...Term may also refer to another state; i.e. a sister state. The term ‘foreign nations’, ...should be construed to mean all nations and states other than that in which the action is brought; and hence, one state of the Union is foreign to another, in that sense.”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 648]

³² Betz v. United States, 40 Fed.Cl. at 296.

³³ Id.

1 Foreign Laws: “The laws of a foreign country or sister state. In conflicts of law, the legal principles of
2 jurisprudence which are part of the law of a sister state or nation. Foreign laws are additions to our own laws,
3 and in that respect are called ‘jus receptum.’”
4 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 647]

- 5 2. Domicile is where the authority to impose an income tax comes from.³⁴ “U.S. persons” under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30)
6 maintain a domicile in exclusive federal plenary jurisdiction. This definition depends on the definition of “United States”
7 found in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d), which does not explicitly include states of the Union
8 and therefore excludes them under the rule of statutory construction “Expressio unius est exclusio alterius”.
- 9 3. People domiciled in a state of the Union are not statutory “U.S. persons” or “U.S. citizens”, but they can, through private 10 contract, consent to be treated as such by signing an SS-5 form, a 1040 tax return, or an IRS Form W-4. When they do,
11 they ILLEGALLY:
- 12 3.1. Become “taxpayers” subject to the I.R.C. and are liable to obey it completely.
13 3.2. Become agents and contractors with the federal government, who are representing the federal corporation called 14 the “United States”.
- 15 3.3. Since they are acting in a representative capacity for a federal corporation called the “United States”, their legal 16 status takes on the character of the corporation, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). That corporation
17 is a “U.S. citizen” and a “U.S. person”, and therefore they also become “U.S. citizens” when they appear in federal 18 court over an income tax issue. In that sense, they have been assimilated into “the matrix” through the operation
19 of private law, which applies everywhere, including where the federal government has no territorial jurisdiction.
20 The constitutional authority to do this comes from Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution. All such 21 contractor and employment franchises are “property of the United States” which it has unquestioned authority to 22 control in federal courts.
- 23 4. The core issues are:
- 24 4.1. Exactly which “individual” that he identifies is the one used in the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A? The term
25 “individual” is nowhere defined in the Internal Revenue Code and the only definition we could find is that in 5
26 U.S.C. §552a(a)(2) and 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3). That definition describes ONLY government employees
27 because it is in Title 5 of the U.S. Code, which is called “GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION AND 28 EMPLOYEES”. That section also defines the term “federal personnel” in 5 U.S.C. §552a(a)(13) as any person
29 who participates in Social Security. To wit:

30 5 U.S.C. §552a

31 (a)(13) the term “Federal personnel” means officers and employees of the Government of the United States,
32 members of the uniformed services (including members of the Reserve Components), individuals entitled to 33 receive immediate or deferred retirement benefits under any retirement program of the Government of the United 34 States (including survivor benefits).

35 Alleged defendant believes that this is the only “U.S. Individual” that is described in the upper left corner of the IRS
36 Form 1040, and has found no case law that would disagree with this conclusion.

- 37 4.2. The Separation of Powers Doctrine, and how that affects our citizenship status under federal statutory and not 38 Constitutional law. The term “United States” has two different meanings depending on the context: 1. The 39 Constitution, where it means the 50 states united under the Constitution; 2. That found in federal statutes, which 40 in most cases is defined as the District of Columbia and the territories and possessions of the United States by 41 default and excludes states of the Union. Our country consists of TWO, not one, political communities. To prove 42 this, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that “citizens” domiciled in the District of Columbia are not “citizens” within 43 the meaning of the Constitution, which encompasses only states of the Union.

44 “The 1st section of the 14th article, to which our attention is more specifically invited, opens with a definition of 45 citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states. No such definition was 46 previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act of Congress. It had 47 been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the public journals.
48 It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except as he was a
49 citizen of one of the state comprising the Union. Those, therefore, who had been born and resided always in the 50 District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[], were not citizens.”

³⁴ Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954).

"The earliest case is that of Hepburn v. Ellzey, 2 Cranch, 445, 2 L.Ed. 332, in which this court held that, under that clause of the Constitution limiting the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States to controversies between citizens of different states, a citizen of the District of Columbia could not maintain an action in the circuit court of the United States. It was argued that the word 'state,' in that connection, was used simply to denote a distinct political society. 'But,' said the Chief Justice, 'as the act of Congress obviously used the word 'state' in reference to that term as used in the Constitution, it becomes necessary to inquire whether Columbia is a state in the sense of that instrument. The result of that examination is a conviction that the members of the American confederacy only are the states contemplated in the Constitution . . . and excludes from the term the signification attached to it by writers on the law of nations.' This case was followed in Barney v. Baltimore, 6 Wall. 280, 18 L.Ed. 825, and quite recently in Hooe v. Jamieson, 166 U.S. 395, 41 L.Ed. 1049, 17 Sup.Ct.Rep. 596. The same rule was applied to citizens of territories in New Orleans v. Winter, 1 Wheat. 91, 4 L.Ed. 44, in which an attempt was made to distinguish a territory from the District of Columbia. But it was said that 'neither of them is a state in the sense in which that term is used in the Constitution.' In Scott v. Jones, 5 How. 343, 12 L.Ed. 181, and in Miners' Bank v. Iowa ex rel. District Prosecuting Attorney, 12 How. 1, 13 L.Ed. 867, it was held that under the judiciary act, permitting writs of error to the supreme court of a state in cases where the validity of a state statute is drawn in question, an act of a territorial legislature was not within the contemplation of Congress." [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

- 4.3. Whether a person not domiciled on federal territory and in a state of the Union can be subject to the political but not legislative jurisdiction of the United States.
- 4.4. Whether such a person above would be described as a national, under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) and not a "citizen" under 8 U.S.C. §1401.

9.14 Ministry cites of scripture are irrelevant in civil disputes in federal court and may not be cited

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) prescribes what law may be cited in civil disputes in federal court. That rule says that the civil law which applies is the law from the domicile of the party, except in cases where the party is acting in a representative capacity on behalf of a corporation, in which case, the law which applies is that of the place of incorporation of the corporation. To wit:

IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity

(b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

(1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

(2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and

(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.

[SOURCE: <http://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frcp/Rule17.htm>]

The requirements of the Member Agreement for all those participating in this ministry are that:

1. Their domicile must be either:
 - 1.1. The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth under God's laws exclusively....OR
 - 1.2. A de jure state of the Union that is no part of the statutory "United States" under any federal law or statute.
2. They may not act as a public officer of any man-made government when using our materials to interact with the government, legal profession, or the courts.
3. They are acting in a representative capacity as public officers of the Kingdom of Heaven under God's laws 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and their delegation of authority order does not permit them to serve two masters or also act as a public officer of any man-made government. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1 Domicile is a protected choice of political association which controls the choice of law in all civil disputes. Acting in a
2 representative capacity is a product of the exercise of our right to contract or not contract. Hence, the application of foreign
3 law not from the domicile of the CONSENTING party:

- 4 1. Violates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) above.
- 5 2. Violates the First Amendment right of freedom from compelled association. Domicile is a choice of political 6 association that governs choice of law.
- 7 3. Violates the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97. Enforcing foreign civil law against a 8 nonresident party from a political group not of their choosing is a violation that amounts essentially to kidnapping and 9 identity theft. It also violates the Longarm statutes of state governments as well.
- 10 4. Violates the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B.
- 11 5. Is an interference with our right to contract. The Bible, like the government's civil protection franchises, is the 12 covenant or contract. The Bible franchise supersedes and is controlling over the governments franchise contracts and 13 prohibits Christians to participate in the government's franchises. Hence, any relationships resulting are outside the 14 delegated authority of Christians. If the government can use the lack of delegated authority in their defense, then so
15 can Christians. Refusal to enforce this limitation upon the conduct of Christians is a direct DISESTABLISHMENT of 16 a church and a direct interference with the right to contract of Christians. The Bible says that our bodies are a temple.
17 1 Cor. 3:17:

18 *"If anyone defiles [or STEALS or disestablishes] the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God 19 is holy, which temple you are."
20 [1 Cor. 3:17, Bible, NKJV]*

21 Temples are a place where we worship our God. Separation of church and state means our bodies cannot become 22 property of Caesar or be compelled into servitude to Caesar without damaging religious property and disestablishing a
23 church. See Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007 mentioned above.

24 The above concepts are also exhaustively proven in the following document:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

25 Where are all the separation of church and state advocates when you REALLY need them? Hypocrites. We're the church.
26 Pagans who enforce man's civil PRIVATE law against non-consenting and nonresident parties (in violation of the Declaration
27 of Independence, which is ORGANIC LAW) or who volunteer to become subject to it by accepting a public office in the 28 pagan state are the "state". Let's separate.

29 *"Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend 30 ["citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", "inhabitant", or "subject" under a king or political ruler] of the world [or 31 any man-made kingdom other than God's Kingdom] makes himself an enemy of God. "
32 [James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]*

33
34 *"You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan
35 government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by 36 becoming a "resident" in the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God].
37 For if you serve their gods [under contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
38 [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]*

39
40 *"Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and 41 to keep oneself unspotted from the world [the obligations and concerns of the world]. "
42 [James 1:27, Bible, NKJV]*

43
44 *"You shall have no other gods [including political rulers, governments, or Earthly laws] before Me [or My 45 commandments]."
46 [Exodus 20:3, Bible, NKJV]*

47 We also prove in the following document that:

- 1 1. The ability to regulate PRIVATE conduct, in fact, has been held to be “repugnant to the Constitution” as held by the
- 2 U.S. Supreme Court.
- 3 2. All statutory civil law published by the government can and does regulate only government actors such as public
- 4 officers and not private persons.
- 5 3. You have to LAWFULLY volunteer to become a public officer in the government in order to be subject to nearly all
- 6 civil law.

7 Here is the document:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8 Hence, the ONLY civil law which may be enforced against any ministry participant is either of the following per Federal 9 Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b):

- 10 1. Those domiciled in a de jure state of the Union and NOT on federal territory: The common law and NOT statutory
- 11 civil law. Statutory civil law is law for GOVERNMENT and not private persons.
- 12 2. Those domiciled in the Kingdom of Heaven and protected by Church law or God’s Law: The holy bible.

13 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure also recognize the above choices of law of all those who participate in this ministry
14 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 44.1:

15 VI. TRIALS > Rule 44.1.
16 Rule 44.1. Determining Foreign Law

17 A party who intends to raise an issue about a foreign country's law must give notice by a pleading or other writing.
18 In determining foreign law, the court may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether 19 or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence. The court's determination must 20 be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

21 The following form properly invokes the above rule and is a mandatory requirement of all those Members who litigate in 22 federal court and especially against any government.

Federal Pleading/Motion/Petition Attachment, Litigation Tool #01.002
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>

23 Hence, those who criticize our choice of law are engaged in TREASON, conspiracy against Constitutionally protected rights,
24 violation of the separation of powers doctrine, and intend to break down the separation between God’s property (PRIVATE 25 property) and Caesar’s property (PUBLIC property) so they can STEAL from you.

26 9.15 Ministry is violent or would kill others in defense of their beliefs

27 This ministry in no way advocates or condones violent activity. Below is an excerpt from our Disclaimer on this subject:

28 9. APPROACH TOWARDS VIOLENCE, TERRORISM, AND HATE CRIME

29 This website was established to prevent terrorism, not promote it. We define any attempt to deprive anyone of 30 life, liberty or property without their express consent manifested in a way that only they define as an act of 31 terrorism. We believe that there are only two types of governments:

- 32 1.  Government by consent.
- 33 2.  Terrorist government.

34 Any attempt by any government to civilly govern or enforce, whether by civil law or franchise/contract law without 35 the express and continuing consent of those governed is an act of terrorism.

TERRO·RISM noun 1 The act of terrorizing. 2 A system of government that seeks to rule by intimidation. 3 Violent and unlawful acts of violence committed in an organized attempt to overthrow a government.

1 THIS WEBSITE CONDEMNS ANY AND ALL VIOLENCE, VIOLENCE PLANNING, VIOLENT
2 RADICALIZATION AND OR THOUGHT CRIME, AND AS SUCH CONTAINS NO SUCH INFORMATION OR 3 LINKS TO SUCH INFORMATION

4 This website is in full compliance with H.R. 1955 , and Section 318, 319 of the Criminal Code of Canada and
5 as such condemns and does not retain any information, plans, support, of a terrorist or violent propaganda, and
6 or radicalization nature, and does not conduct, plan, or retain any forms of violent thoughts, feelings, impulses,
7 moods, subconscious thought, primal urges, sexual cravings, hunger pains, restless leg twitches, rapid eye
8 flutters, and or skin tone blemishes which may be mistook for a pre-anger flush. All fonts, typesets, font colors of 9 a red nature are not - NOT to be mistaken for an angry tone or mistakenly linked to a violent radicalization
10 agenda. Source files of interviews or MP3 files are strictly those of the authors and do NOT reflect the intent, 11 mood or thoughts of the author(s) of this website.

12 10. APPROACH TOWARDS "HATE SPEECH" AND HATE CRIME

13 This website does not engage in, condone, or support hate speech or hate crimes, violent thoughts, deeds or 14 actions against any particular person(s), group, entity, government, mob, paramilitary force, intelligence agency,
15 overpaid politician, head of state, queen, dignitary, ambassador, spy, spook, soldier, bowl cook, security flunky,
16 contractor, dog, cat or mouse, Wal-Mart employee, amphibian, reptile, and or deceased entity without a PB
17 (Physical Body). By "hate speech" and "hate crime", we mean in the context of religious members of this site
18 trying to practice their faith:

19 1. Compelling members to violate any aspect of the Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001. This includes commanding
20 them to do things God forbids or preventing or punishing them from doing God commands.

21 2. Persecution or "selective enforcement" directed against those whose religious beliefs forbid them from 22 contracting with, doing business with, or acquiring any civil status in relation to any and all governments. These
23 people must be "left alone" by law and are protected in doing so by the First Amendment and the right to NOT
24 contract protected by the Constitution. The group they refuse to associate with is civil statutory "persons". We 25 call these people "non-resident non-persons" on this site as described in Form #05.020. See Proof that There Is
26 a "Straw Man", Form #05.042 for a description of the civil "person" scam.

27 3. Engaging in legal "injustice" (Form #05.050). By "justice" we mean absolutely owned private property \(Form
28 #10.002\), and equality of TREATMENT and OPPORTUNITY \(Form #05.033\) under REAL LAW \(Form #05.048\).
29 "Justice" is defined here as God defines it in Form #05.050.

30 4. Any attempt to treat anyone unequally under REAL "law". This includes punishing or preventing actions by 31 members to enforce against governments under their own franchise \(Form #06.027\) the same way governments
32 enforce against them. See What is "law", Form #05.048.

33 5. Offering, implementing, or enforcing any civil franchise \(Form #05.030\). This enforces superior powers on 34 the part of the government as a form of inequality, results in religious idolatry, and violates the First 35 Commandment of the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20). This includes:

36 5.1 Making justice \(Form #05.050\) into a civil public privilege

37 5.2 Turning CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVATE citizens into STATUTORY PUBLIC citizens engaged in a public 38 office and a franchise.

39 5.3 Any attempt to impose equality of OUTCOME by law, such as by abusing taxing powers to redistribute
40 wealth. See Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302.

41 Franchises are the main method of introducing UNEQUAL treatment by the government. See Why You are a
42 "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006.

43 6. Any attempt to outlaw or refuse to recognize or enforce absolutely owned private property \(Form #12.025\).
44 This makes everyone into slaves of the government, which then ultimately owns ALL property and can place
45 unlimited conditions upon the use of their property. It also violates the last six commandments of the Ten
46 Commandments, which are the main religious laws that protect PRIVATE property and prevent it from being 47 shared with any government. This includes:

48 6.1 Refusing to provide civil statuses on government forms that recognize those who are exclusively private and 49 their right to be left alone.

50 6.2 Refusing to provide government forms that recognize those who are exclusively private such as 51 "nontaxpayers" or "non-resident non-persons" and their right to be left alone.

1 The result of the above forms of omission are hate, discrimination, and selective enforcement against those who
2 refuse to become "customers" or franchisees (Form #05.030) of government. See Avoiding Traps in
3 Government Forms, Form #12.023.

4 7. Any attempt by government to use judicial process or administrative enforcement to enforce any civil
5 obligation derived from any source OTHER than express written consent or to an injury against the equal rights
6 of others demonstrated with court admissible evidence. See Lawfully Avoiding Government Obligations Course,
7 Form #12.040.

8 There is no practical difference between discriminating against or targeting people because of the groups they 9 claim membership in and punishing them for refusing to consent to join a group subject to legal disability, such 10 as those participating in government franchises. Members of such DISABILITY groups include civil statutory 11 "persons", "taxpayers", "individuals" (under the tax code), "drivers" (under the vehicle code), "spouses" (under 12 the family code). Both approaches lead to the same result: discrimination and selective enforcement. The 13 government claims an exemption from being a statutory "person", and since it is a government of delegated 14 powers, the people who gave it that power must ALSO be similarly exempt:

15 "The sovereignty of a state does not reside in the persons who fill the different departments
16 of its government, but in the People, from whom the government emanated; and they may 17 change it at their discretion. Sovereignty, then in this country, abides with the constituency,
18 and not with the agent; and this remark is true, both in reference to the federal and state
19 government."
20 [Spooner v. McConnell, 22 F. 939 @ 943]

21 "In common usage, the term 'person' does not include the sovereign, and statutes employing 22 the word are ordinarily construed to exclude it."
23 [Wilson v. Omaha Indian Tribe, 442 U.S. 653, 667 \(1979\)]

24 "Since in common usage the term 'person' does not include the sovereign, statutes 25 employing that term are ordinarily construed to exclude it."
26 [U.S. v. Cooper, 312 U.S. 600,604, 61 S.Ct. 742 \(1941\)]

27 "In common usage, the term 'person' does not include the sovereign and statutes employing 28 it will ordinarily not be construed to do so."
29 [U.S. v. Cooper, 312 U.S. 600,604, 61 S.Ct. 742 \(1941\)]

30 "There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United 31 States In this country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no
32 power which they have not, by their Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld."
33 [Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 \(1884\)]

34 The foundation of the religious beliefs and practices underlying this website is a refusal to contract with or engage 35 in commerce with any and every government. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as "intercourse".

36 "Commerce. ... Intercourse by way of trade and traffic [money instead of semen] between 37 different peoples or states and the citizens or inhabitants thereof, including not only the 38 purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the instrumentalities [governments]
39 and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it is carried 40 on..."
41 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

42 Hence this website advocates a religious refusal to engage in sex or intercourse or commerce with any 43 government. In fact, the Bible even describes people who VIOLATE this prohibition as "playing the harlot"
44 (Ezekiel 16:41) and personifies that harlot as "Babylon the Great Harlot" (Rev. 17:5), which is fornicating with 45 the Beast, which it defines as governments (Rev. 19:19).

46 I [God] brought you up from Egypt [slavery] and brought you to the land of which I swore 47 to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. And you shall make 48 no covenant [contract or franchise or agreement of ANY kind] with the inhabitants of 49 this [corrupt pagan] land; you shall tear down their [man/government worshipping
50 socialist] altars.' But you have not obeyed Me. Why have you done this?

51 "Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they will become as 52 thorns [terrorists and persecutors] in your side and their gods will be a snare [slavery!]
53 to you.'"

1 So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that
2 the people lifted up their voices and wept.
3 [Judges 2:1-4, Bible, NKJV]

5 "Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore 6 wants to be a friend ["citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", "inhabitant", or "subject" under
7 a king or political ruler] of the world [or any man-made kingdom other than God's
8 Kingdom] makes himself an enemy of God. "
9 [James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]

11 "You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], 12 nor with their [pagan government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your 13 land and you shall not dwell in theirs [by becoming a "resident" in the process of
14 contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their 15 gods under [contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you."
16 [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

18 "Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows 19 in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world [the obligations and 20 concerns of the world]. "
21 [James 1:27, Bible, NKJV]

23 "You shall have no other gods [including political rulers, governments, or Earthly laws]
24 before Me or [My commandments]."
25 [Exodus 20:3, Bible, NKJV]

27 "Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel [the priest in a
28 Theocracy] at Ramah, and said to him, 'Look, you [the priest within a theocracy] are old,
29 and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king [or political ruler] to judge
30 us like all the nations [and be OVER them]'. "

31 "But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, 'Give us a king [or political ruler] to 32 judge us.' So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And the Lord said to Samuel, 'Heed the voice
33 of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me [God], that I should
34 not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I
35 brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me [God
36 as their ONLY King, Lawgiver, and Judge] and served other gods—so they are doing to 37 you also [government or political rulers becoming the object of idolatry]."
38 [1 Sam. 8:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

40 "Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers [the heathens], nor observe their judgments,
41 nor defile yourselves with their [pagan government] idols. I am the LORD your God: Walk
42 in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them; hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a 43 sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God."
44 [Ezekial 20:10-20, Bible, NKJV]

45 Where is "separation of church and state" when you REALLY need it, keeping in mind that Christians AS
46 INDIVIDUALS are "the church" and secular society is the "state" as legally defined? The John Birch Society
47 agrees with us on the subject of not contracting with anyone in the following video:

Trading Away Your Freedom by Foreign Entanglements, John Birch Society https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2Q24tWlrRdk

Pastor David Jeremiah of Turning Point Ministries also agrees with us on this subject:

The Church in Satan's City, March 20, 2016
<https://sedm.org/pastor-david-jeremiah-on-separation-between-church-and-state-the-church-in-satans-city/>

President Obama also said that it is the right of EVERYONE to economically AND politically disassociate with the government so why don't the agencies of the government recognize this fact on EVERY form you use to interact with them?.

President Obama Says US Will NOT Impose Its Political or Economic System on Anyone, Exhibit #05.053
https://youtu.be/2t_ZRQSIPr0

We wrote an entire book on how to economically and politically disassociate in fulfillment of Obama's promise above, and yet the government hypocritically actively interferes with economically and politically disassociating, in defiance of President Obama's assurances and promises. HYPOCRITES!

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Government's tendency to compel everyone into a commercial relationship with them is defined by the Bible as the ESSENCE of Satan himself! The personification of that evil is dramatized in the following video:

Devil's Advocate: Lawyers, SEDM
<https://sedm.org/what-we-are-up-against/>

Therefore, the religious practice and sexual orientation of avoiding commerce with governments is the essence of our religious faith:

*"By the abundance of your [Satan's] trading You became filled with violence within, And you sinned; Therefore I cast you as a profane thing Out of the mountain of God; And I destroyed you, O covering cherub, From the midst of the fiery stones."
[Ezekial 28:16, Bible, NKJV]*

*"As religion towards God is a branch of universal righteousness (he is not an honest man that is not devout), so righteousness towards men is a branch of true religion, for he is not a godly man that is not honest, nor can he expect that his devotion should be accepted; for,

1. Nothing is more offensive to God than deceit in commerce. A false balance is here put for all manner of unjust and fraudulent practices [of our public dis-servants] in dealing with any person [within the public], which are all an abomination to the Lord, and render those abominable [hated] to him that allow themselves in the use of such accursed arts of thriving. It is an affront to justice, which God is the patron of, as well as a wrong to our neighbour, whom God is the protector of. Men [in government] make light of such frauds, and think there is no sin in that which there is money to be got by, and, while it passes undiscovered, they cannot blame themselves for it; a blot is no blot till it is hit, Hos. 12:7, 8. But they are not the less an abomination to God, who will be the avenger of those that are defrauded by their brethren.

2. Nothing is more pleasing to God than fair and honest dealing, nor more necessary to make us and our devotions acceptable to him: A just weight is his delight. He himself goes by a just weight, and holds the scale of judgment with an even hand, and therefore is pleased with those that are herein followers of him.

*A [false] balance, [whether it be in the federal courtroom or in the government or in the marketplace,] cheats, under pretence of doing right most exactly, and therefore is the greater abomination to God."
[Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible; Henry, M., 1996, c1991, under Prov. 11:1]*

Any individual, group, or especially government worker that makes us the target of discrimination, violence, "selective enforcement", or hate because of this form of religious practice or "sexual orientation" or abstinence is practicing HATE SPEECH based BOTH on our religious beliefs AND our sexual orientation as legally defined. Furthermore, all readers and governments are given reasonable timely notice that the terms of use for the

1 information and services available through this website mandate that any attempt to compel us into a commercial,
2 legal, civil, or tax relationship with any government OTHER than on the terms dictated herein shall constitute:

- 3 1. "purposeful availment" in satisfaction of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97.
- 4 2. A waiver of official, judicial, and sovereign immunity.
- 5 3. A commercial invasion within the meaning of Article 4, section 4 of the United States Constitution.
- 6 4. A tort cognizable as a Fifth Amendment taking without compensation.
- 7 5. A criminal attempt at identity theft by wrongfully associating us with a civil status of "citizen", "resident", 8 "taxpayer", etc.
- 9 6. Duress as legally defined. See Affidavit of Duress: Illegal Tax Enforcement by De Facto Officers, Form

- 11 7. Express consent to the terms of this disclaimer.

12 The result of the waivers of immunity above is to restore EQUALITY under REAL LAW between members and 13 corrupt governments intent on destroying that equality by offering or enforcing civil franchises. All freedom
14 derives from equality between you and the government in the eyes of REAL law in court. See Requirement for

16 The GOVERNMENT crimes documented on this website fall within the ambit of 18 U.S.C. §2381: Treason. The 17 penalty mandated by law for these crimes is DEATH. We demand that actors in the Department of Justice for 18 both the states and the federal government responsible for prosecuting these crimes of Treason do so as required
19 by law. A FAILURE to do so is ALSO an act of Treason punishable by death. Since murder is not only a crime,
20 but a violent crime, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §1111, then the government itself can also be classified as terrorist. It
21 is also ludicrous to call people who demand the enforcement of the death penalty for the crimes documented as 22 terrorists. If that were true, every jurist who sat on a murder trial in which the death penalty applied would also 23 have to be classified as and prosecuted as a terrorist. Hypocrites.

28 We also don't take a position on whether people form or do not form militias. If people want to form them, that is their 29 business. Whatever actions people take as part of a militia is entirely their choice, but those actions should definitely be 30 undertaken ONLY for lawful purposes and consistent with God's law and the equal rights of ALL. People who murder or
31 injure others or take their property should go to jail, even if they claim to be "sovereign". The foundation for the formation 32 of civil government, in fact, is the right of self-defense. When people form governments, they delegate that responsibility to servants in government.

33 We are against gun control because it destroys the equality of all "persons" by giving corrupted governments unfair advantage
34 over the governed. We should remember that historically in America, the only people who couldn't own guns are slaves.
35 Consequently, the inability to own guns and use them in our own self-defense will make us slaves of corrupted socialist
36 rulers. The servant should never be greater than the master. In America, the people are the masters, and hence, their servants
37 in government should not be the only ones allowed to have guns.

38 "Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who 39 sent him."

40 [John 13:16, Bible, NKJV]

41 "From the differences existing between feudal sovereignties and Government founded on compacts, it necessarily
42 follows that their respective prerogatives must differ. Sovereignty is the right to govern; a nation or State-
43 sovereign is the person or persons in whom that resides. In Europe the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the
44 Prince; here it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the Government; here, never in
45 a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and at most stand in the same relation to their
46 sovereign, in which regents in Europe stand to their sovereigns. Their Princes have personal powers, dignities,
47 and pre-eminences, our rulers have none but official; nor do they partake in the sovereignty otherwise, or in 48 any other capacity, than as private citizens." at 472.

50 Consistent with the above, any attempt to impute any right, authority, or privilege to any government that the people AS 51 INDIVIDUALS do not also possess is slavery and tyranny and can and should be resisted by all lawful means available.

1 9.16 Ministry falsely claims that religious beliefs constitute a legitimate basis for refusal by
2 “taxpayers” to comply with the I.R.C.

3 Another common false allegation from a corrupted DOJ and legal profession against this ministry is the following:

4 “Ministry falsely claims that religious beliefs form a legitimate basis for refusal by “taxpayers” to comply with
5 specific provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The courts have routinely held such claims as frivolous and 6 unenforceable.”

7 Ministry makes no such claim. We instead agree and always have agreed that all those lawfully occupying public offices in
8 the U.S. and not state government and serving ONLY in the District of Columbia as required by 4 U.S.C. §72 and who are
9 therefore among the few lawfully engaged in the “trade or business” excise taxable franchise per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)
10 have a legal duty to obey the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A through C “trade or business” franchise contract or compact,
11 regardless of their religious beliefs. This has also been affirmed by lower federal courts, although such rulings are 12 IRRELEVANT to a human being domiciled within a constitutional but not statutory “State” of the Union because there IS 13 no federal common law within states of the Union:

14 “[T]he Supreme Court has established that uniform, mandatory participation in the Federal income tax system,
15 irrespective of religious belief, is a compelling governmental interest.” Adams v. Commissioner IRS, 110 T.C. No.
16 13 (March 3, 1998) (citations omitted). It is beyond peradventure that the Government's interests in areas such 17 as national defense, public safety and the funding of public health and welfare plans are sufficiently compelling 18 to require general compliance with income tax laws.”
19 [Browne v. U.S. 22 F.Supp.2d. 309, 313 (D.Vt.,1998)]

20 HOWEVER, we also claim that the decision to seek elected or appointed political office as a public officer and therefore 21 statutory “taxpayer” is voluntary and can be avoided by simply not volunteering. If the decision NOT to seek or occupy any 22 public office is made for religious reasons, then that choice is enforceable as a matter of right and not privilege in a common
23 law court and it is also protected by the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B. Note that there is no
24 exclusion of tax suits from the RFRA:

25 42 U.S.C.A §2000bb-1 (c) Judicial relief

26 A person whose religious exercise has been burdened in violation of this section may assert that violation as a
27 claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain appropriate relief against a government. Standing to assert
28 a claim or defense under this section shall be governed by the general rules of standing under article III of the 29 Constitution. (emphasis added)

30 No less than the U.S. Supreme Court has also held that religious beliefs can and do form a legitimate basis for challenging
31 any provision within the Internal Revenue Code.

32 “Of course, a taxpayer [or Citizen that is a nontaxpayer] has standing to challenge the collection of a specific
33 tax assessment as unconstitutional; being forced to pay such a tax causes a real and immediate economic 34 injury to the individual taxpayer. See, e.g., Follett v. Town of McCormick, 321 U.S. 573, 64 S.Ct. 717, 88 L.Ed.
35 938 (1944) (invalidating tax on preaching on First Amendment grounds). (Italic emphasis by the court bold 36 emphasis added)”
37 *[Hein v. Freedom From Religion Foundation, Inc., 127 S.Ct. 2553, 2563 (2007)]

38 Therefore, if a religious belief formed the reason why someone:

- 39 1. Refused to choose a domicile or residence on federal territory within the statutory “United States”. Consequently,
40 they remained a nonresident not subject to federal jurisdiction. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 41 2. Refused to run for or accept a public office and to therefore engage in the “trade or business”/public office franchise.
42 See:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

43 . . . then we allege that no provision of the I.R.C. can or may lawfully be enforced against him or her and if they do become a
44 subject of IRS enforcement, then the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B can and may be pursued as

1 a remedy, in addition to other constitutional remedies. It is a fact that no state court or the U.S. Supreme Court has ever held
2 any of the following:

- 3 1. That one can be compelled to choose a domicile or residence anywhere or may be compelled to accept any obligation
4 associated with such POLITICAL choice.
- 5 2. That one may be compelled to occupy an elected or appointed public office in the U.S. government and thereby 6 become a statutory “taxpayer” per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
- 7 3. That a false information return as described in 26 U.S.C. §6041(a) can lawfully be used as a federal election device to 8 in effect elect or appoint anyone into a public office without their consent.

9 Any ruling in favor of any of the above in the case of a party protected by the constitution who is not lawfully occupying
10 public office would therefore be a constitutional tort that violates the First Amendment freedom from compelled association
11 and constitutes a direct interference with the right to contract or not contract of the protected party.

12 9.17 Ministry members have been prosecuted for coercion, simulating legal process, witness 13 tampering, harassment, etc.

14 If anyone alleged to be a member has committed any of the following crimes, they are Members in Bad standing who are 15 using our materials inappropriately and unlawfully:

- 16 1. Intimidating witnesses.
- 17 2. Criminal coercion or blackmail.
- 18 3. Harassing communication.
- 19 4. Simulation of legal process.

20 In point of fact, we specifically disapprove of ANY and ALL unlawful uses of our information or services. Our Member

Unlawful Ways of Protecting Your Rights that Should Be Avoided, Form #08.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

23 Furthermore, the corrupted government repeatedly engages in coercion, simulating legal process, witness tampering, and 24 harassment itself by the following criminal and illegal IRS tactics:

- 25 1. Forcing people to acquire the status of “taxpayer” who aren’t actually “taxpayers” by:
 - 26 1.1. Forcing people to use ONLY the forms they make available that compel choice of a status that the applicant 27 doesn’t have.
 - 28 1.2. Interfering with or penalizing the filing of forms that add “nontaxpayer” or “non-resident non-person” as the 29 status of the applicant because the standard forms don’t have all the options.

- 30 2. Lying with impunity to businesses and withholding agents on their phone support. See:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007, Section 6
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 31 3. Using false or fictitious names to protect their anonymity when interacting with the when interacting with the public
32 via mail or phone. Yet, refusing to recognize the EQUAL right of the public to do the same when interacting with the 33 I.R.S. See Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.2.4.

- 34 4. Illegally penalizing “nontaxpayers” using provisions of the I.R.C. that only apply to statutory “taxpayers”. See:

Why Penalties are Illegal for Anything But Government Franchisees, Employees, Contractors, and Agents, Form
#05.010
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 35 5. Refusing to recognize or protect people who do not consent to become statutory “taxpayers” and cannot lawfully 36 consent because not engaged in a public office in the national government.
 - 37 5.1. Refusing to provide a publication that addresses remedies for “nontaxpayers”.
 - 38 5.2. All of their forms are ONLY for “taxpayers”.
 - 39 5.3. The “Taxpayer Advocate” office doesn’t help “nontaxpayers”.
 - 40 5.4. The IRS help 800 help line won’t talk to people who have no Social Security Number or who are being coerced to 41 provide or use Social Security Numbers or Taxpayer Identification Numbers.

6. Routinely criminally tampering with witnesses in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1512 by penalizing people for correctly filling out tax return forms reflecting their status as “nontaxpayers”.
 7. Using illegally executed assessments as a basis for collection or enforcement activity. See:

Why the Government Can’t Lawfully Assess Human Beings With an Income Tax Liability Without Their Consent, Form #05.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 8. Refusing to correct false information returns (Form W-2, 1099, etc) filed against nontaxpayers. This causes the victims to criminally impersonate a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
 9. Filing millions of knowingly false Notices of Levy, Form 668W based on knowingly false information returns.
- Refusing to respond to or prosecute criminal complaints filed relating to the above activities. They do this to protect their “plausible deniability”.

9.18 Ministry is the “self-proclaimed leader” of the freedom, sovereignty, or “sovereign citizen” movement

The Department of Injustice just loves to falsely claim that the people they prosecute are “leaders” or “self-proclaimed leaders” of particular movements that they seek to target for “selective enforcement” and “unconstitutional enforcement”. Below is an example:

Self-Proclaimed "President" of Sovereign Citizen Group Indicted for Tax Crimes

A federal grand jury in Montgomery, Ala., charged James Timothy Turner, also known as Tim Turner, with conspiracy to defraud the United States, attempting to pay taxes with fictitious financial instruments, attempting to obstruct and impede the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), failing to file a 2009 federal income tax return and falsely testifying under oath in a bankruptcy proceeding, the Justice Department, the IRS, and the FBI announced today.

According to the indictment, Turner, the self-proclaimed "President" of the sovereign citizen group "Republic for the united States of America," conducted seminars at which he taught attendees how to file retaliatory liens against government officials and to defraud the IRS by preparing and submitting fictitious bonds to the United States government in payment of federal taxes. Turner is alleged to have attempted to pay his own taxes with a fictitious $300 million bond and to have assisted others in attempting to pay their taxes with fictitious bonds purporting to be worth amounts ranging from $10 million to $100 billion.

An indictment merely alleges that a crime has been committed, and a defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. If convicted, Turner faces a maximum of 164 years in federal prison, a maximum fine of $2,350,000 and mandatory restitution.

This case was investigated by special agents of the FBI and IRS -Criminal Investigation, and is being prosecuted by Trial Attorney Justin Gelfand of the Justice Department's Tax Division and Middle District of Alabama Assistant U.S. Attorney Gray Borden.

Why do they do this? Because:

1. They seek to terrorize and intimidate the general population from exposing or prosecuting crimes by specific government employees.

1 2. They know they cannot lawfully interfere with the voluntary associations of others, and if the leader was ELECTED
2 rather than “self-appointed”, they would be interfering with the First Amendment right of political association.

3 SEDM does not now and never has claimed to be a “leader” of any kind, but rather a “SERVANT” of the only true sovereigns,
4 who are the PEOPLE that the Dept. of Justice is SUPPOSED to serve. Below are a few examples from our site proving this:

14 5. Guide to Asking Questions, Form #09.017, Section 1:

15 Even if you follow the protocol for asking questions documented herein, and successfully get your questions
16 answered and/or your problems addressed, be advised that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 says that you
17 agree to take complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all of your actions and choices and that you
18 aren't allowed to believe or trust anything that anyone, including either us or those in government, says. Instead,
19 it says that you can ONLY rely upon your own reading of the law itself as a reasonable basis for your belief. This 20 is also covered in our memorandum of law Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007, which 21 you should read. It is a biblical sin to rely on either a man or anything other than God and your own reading of 22 His law and man's law.

23 "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man [we are a man], and maketh flesh his arm, and 24 whose heart departeth from the LORD."
25 [Jeremiah 17:5, Bible, KJV]

26 "That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God."
27 [1 Corinthians 2:5, Bible, KJV]

28 "It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in man. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put 29 confidence in princes [or political rulers, who are but "men"]."
30 [Psalm 118:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

31 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding [because YOU are a "man"].
32 In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He [RATHER THAN THE winds of political opinion] shall direct your 33 paths. "
34 [Prov. 3:5, Bible, NKJV]

35 "The Moloch [socialist] state simply represents the supreme effort of man to command [or PREDICT] the future,
36 to predestine the world, and to be as God [which was Lucifer's original sin]. Lesser efforts, divination, spirit-
37 questing, magic, and witchcraft, are equally anathema to God. All represent efforts to have the future on other
38 than God's terms, to have a future apart from and in defiance of God. They are assertions that the world is not
39 of God but of brute factuality, and that man can somehow master the world and the future by going directly to 40 the raw materials thereof. Thus King Saul outwardly conformed to God's law by abolishing all black arts, but,
41 when faced with a crisis, he turned to the witch of Endor (1 Sam. 28). Saul knew where he stood with God: in 42 rebellion and unrepentant. Saul knew moreover the judgment of the law and of the prophet Samuel concerning 43 him (1 Sam. 15:10-35). Samuel alive had declared God's future to Saul. In going to the witch of Endor, Saul
44 attempted to reach Samuel dead, in the faith and hope that Samuel dead was now in touch with and informed
45 concerning a world of brute factuality outside of God which could offer Saul a God-free, law-free future. But 46 the word from the grave only underscored God's law-word (1 Sam. 28:15-19): it was the word of judgment."
47 [The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas Rushdoony, 1973, p. 35]

48 Like Jesus, we are simply here to do "Our Father's Will" as his agent, trustee, and ambassador during our time here.

49 "I [Jesus] can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My 50 own will but the will of the Father [my LEADER] who sent Me."
51 [John 5:30, Bible, NKJV]

52 God, as the ONLY true "sovereign" is our "leader" and we are commanded to be His "sheep" and followers, and not leaders
53 in and of ourselves or apart from His will. Our delegation of authority is documented in the following form on our website:

If you want to prosecute a "leader", then prosecute God. At that point, you become Satan himself, who is a vain and perpetual slanderer and persecutor of God and of all that is good.

9.19 Ministry does not qualify as a religious organization³⁵

If you had been reading your Bible more, you wouldn't be making such an unfounded accusation. Below is the definition of "ministry" from The New Bible Dictionary:

MINISTRY. To express the idea of professional or priestly ministrations, the OT normally employs the verb, šāraṭ and its correlates (lxx leitourgein), while 'ābaḏ (latreuein) refers rather to the religious service of the whole congregation or of an individual. In the NT the characteristic term is diakonia, which appears only in Esther among OT books, but is not there used of any priestly function; and the change in language implies a change also in doctrine, since ministry in the NT sense is not the exclusive privilege of a priestly caste. leitourgia is retained to describe the work of the Jewish priesthood (Lk. 1:23, rsv, 'service'; Heb. 9:21, rsv 'used in worship'), and it is applied also to the more excellent ministry of Christ (Heb. 8:6); further, it can be applied, in a metaphorical sense, to the spiritual service rendered by prophets and preachers of the gospel (Acts 13:2; Rom. 15:16). But it remains true in general that the NT uses priestly language only in reference to the body of believers as a whole (Phil. 2:17; 1 Pet. 2:9).

Wood, D. R. W., Wood, D. R. W., & Marshall, I. H. (1996, c1982, c1962). New Bible Dictionary. Includes index. (electronic ed. of 3rd ed.) (Page 769). Downers Grove: InterVarsity Press. [The New Bible Dictionary]

Then we look up the term "minister" in the dictionary and we find:

"minister n [ME ministre, fr. OF, fr. L minister servant; akin to L minor smaller] (13c) 1: AGENT 2 a: one officiating or assisting the officiant in church worship b: a clergyman esp of a Protestant communion 3 a: the superior of one of several religious orders--called also minister-general b: the assistant to the rector or the bursar of a Jesuit house 4: a high officer of state entrusted with the management of a division of governmental activities 5 a: a diplomatic representative (as an ambassador) accredited to the court or seat of government of a foreign state b: a diplomatic representative ranking below an ambassador." [Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, Merriam Webster, ISBN 0-87779-510-X (deluxe)]

The essential characteristics of "ministry" as we define it are therefore as follows:

1. It is religious activity...and it shares this characteristic in common with other activities (such as private prayer)
2. It is relational activity...and this separates it from other religious activity (such as private prayer)
3. The purpose of the religious activity which brings both minister and people closer to God.

The above are consistent with the ONLY workable definition of "ministry" in all of Christendom. This definition is found at the following link:

³⁵ Adapted with permission from Frequently Asked Questions, Question 0.11, Family Guardian Fellowship, <http://famguardian.org/FAQ/FAQ.htm>.

1 Note the above phrase "one officiating or assisting the officiant in church worship". This entire website is an act of "worship",
2 and the About Us page, section 1 entitled "Mission Statement" defines "worship" as "obedience to God's Laws", which is
3 how the Bible itself defines it:

4 "And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all
5 His ways [commandments found in the law] and to love Him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart
6 and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments of the Lord and His statutes [laws] which I command
7 you today for your good? "
8 [Deut. 10:12-13, Bible, NKJV]

9 "But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him."
10 [1 John 2:5, Bible, NKJV]

11 "For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome."
12 [1 John 5:3, Bible, NKJV]

13 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My 14 Father in heaven."
15 [Matt. 7:21, Bible, NKJV]

16 "Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not DO it, to him it is sin."
17 [James 4:17, Bible, NKJV]

18 "Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter 19 through the gates into the city."
20 [Rev. 22:14; Bible, NKJV]

21 "Now therefore, listen to me, my children, For blessed are those who keep my ways."
22 [Prov. 8:32; Bible, NKJV]

23 "He has shown you, O man, what is good;
24 And what does the Lord require of you
25 But to DO justly,
26 To love mercy,
27 And to walk humbly with your God? "
28 [Micah 6:8, Bible, NKJV]

29 "For I have come [as Truth] to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-
30 law against her mother-in law; and a man's enemies will be those of his own household. [Truth and allegiance
31 to Truth divides] He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. [and He who loves his 32 money or his possessions more than Me is not worthy of Me, Matt. 19:21] And he who loves son or daughter
33 more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross [of persecution from IRS and
34 government] and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his 35 life for My sake will find it. He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent 36 Me."
37 [Jesus in Matt. 10:35-38, Bible, NKJV]

38 "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word
39 and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and 40 immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty [God's law] and 41 is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does. "
42 [James 1:22-25, Bible, NKJV]

43 As far as the act of preaching salvation, this website does encourage salvation to the lost because:

- 44 1. It is the only complete and major source of freedom and liberty education available and remaining on the Internet.
- 45 2. It is useful as a reference device to believers and nonbelievers alike.
- 46 3. Those who are not believers, after spending a little time here, will discover that what we teach is literally useless unless 47 they FIRST believe in God.

48 "Woe to the rebellious children, " says the Lord, "Who take counsel [from government and idolaters], but not
49 of Me, and who devise plans, but not of My Spirit [or My laws], that they may add sin to sin; who walk to go
50 down to Egypt, and have not asked My advice, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to
51 trust in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, and trust in the shadow
52 of Egypt shall be your humiliation...

1 Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and note it on a scroll, that it may be for time to come, forever and ever:
2 that this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the Lord; who say to the
3 seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things" Speak to us smooth [politically
4 correct] things, prophesy deceits [in the IRS publications]. Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, cause
5 the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."

6 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

7 "Because you despise this word, and trust in [government] oppression and [sexual] perversity, and rely on
8 them, therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking
9 comes suddenly, in an instant. And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel, which is broken
10 in pieces; He shall not spare. So there shall not be found among its fragments a shard to take fire from the 11 hearth, or to take water from the cistern."
12 [Isaiah 30:1-3, 8-14, Bible, NKJV]

- 13 4. Once they learn that they can't achieve true liberty and peace WITHOUT God, there is a strong inducement for people
14 to accept Christ, when they realize that all liberty comes from God ultimately.

15 "Now the Lord is the Spirit; and [ONLY] where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."
16 [2 Cor. 3:17, Bible, NKJV]

17 "If you abide in My [God's] word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth 18 shall make you free."
19 Jesus in [John 8:31-32, Bible, NKJV]

20 "Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a 21 yoke of bondage [to the government, the legal profession, or the income tax]."
22 [Gal. 5:1, Bible, NKJV]

23 Therefore, what may start out as an innocent visit to the website by an unbeliever to satisfy a selfish fixation on freedom and
24 saving money can and often does blossom into redemption, salvation, and a lifetime of joy and blessings for generations not
25 yet even born. We have had many people write us to thank us for renewing and significantly enhancing their commitment to 26 the Christian faith through their reading of this website, and especially those who had previously lost interest in Christianity.
27 If you don't see this as "religious ministry", then you definitely need to have your head examined. We believe that you are 28 missing out on some extremely important aspects of religious ministry by excluding education, fellowship, encouragement,
29 and teaching from your definition of "ministry". You have also overlooked exactly what a "church" is. Our article "We Are
30 The Church" plainly demonstrates that a church isn't a building, but a body of Christ's followers. Based on your incorrect
31 definition of "religious ministry", most of what Christian churches do that are in existence today DOES NOT qualify as
32 religious ministry and the people who work in them are therefore not "ministers", because most of the people who go there
33 are already believers who don't need to be converted. In the case of 501(c)(3) churches, we would agree with you, but this 34 is not a 501(c)(3) church.

35 We instead believe that "religious ministry" as it is biblically defined is any aspect of church or self-governance in accordance 36 with the revealed word and laws of God found in the Holy Bible. You can't obey a law you haven't read, so education is an 37 essential part of any religious ministry.

38 "My [God's] people are destroyed [and enslaved] for lack of knowledge [of God's Laws and the lack of education
39 that produces it]."
40 [Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

41 "And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws of both [God and man], and shalt shew them the way wherein 42 they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do."
43 [Exodus 18:20, Bible, NKJV]

44 "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you
45 may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then
46 you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor 47 be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."
48 [Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

49 Throughout this website, we identify Christians as:

- 50 1. God's Dept of Justice (see Micah 6:8, Deut. 10:12-22)

- 1 2. God's "Ambassadors" on earth (see 2 Cor. 5:20)
2 3. Ministers of a foreign state called Heaven (see James 1:27, Lev. 20:26, Psalm 69:8-9, Psalm 119:19, 2 Cor. 6:17-18)
3
4 4. Preachers and teachers of the word, both to the lost and the saved. Jesus preached to the lost churches of his time,
5 which is the very reason he was crucified, in fact. See:
6 4.1. Matt. 4:17, in which Jesus preached repentance. People who go to church need repentance just as readily as
7 those who are not saved. This website is all about repentance of the government from the criminal acts we so 8 clearly show they are involved in.
9 4.2. Matt. 11:1, in which Jesus commanded the apostles to "teach and to preach". Teaching is the sole function of 10 this website, and everything we say and do incorporates some aspect of either revealing or executing God's holy 11 word and laws.
12 5. Shepherds over God's flocks. A shepherd in a biblical sense is a protector and a teacher. A family can be a flock,
13 whether it be a spiritual family or a physical family. Your children, for instance, are God's flock. You as a parent are 14 their "shepherd", and parenthood is a stewardship from God whose main purpose is to raise Godly spiritual and 15 physical offspring (see Mal. 2:15). See also:
16 5.1. Jeremiah 3:15

17 "And I [God] will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed [teach] you with knowledge and 18 understanding."
19 [Jeremiah 3:15, Bible, NKJV]

20 5.2. John 10:11:

21 "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep."
22 [Jesus in John 10:11, Bible, NKJV]

23 5.3. Zechariah 11:17

24 "Woe to the worthless shepherd, Who leaves the flock! A sword shall be against his arm And against his right
25 eye; His arm shall completely wither, And his right eye shall be totally blinded."
26 [Zechariah 11:17, Bible, NKJV]

27 5.4. Jeremiah 23:4

28 "I will set up shepherds over them who will feed [teach] them [with education and knowledge]; and they shall
29 fear [their public dis-servants] no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking," says the LORD."
30 [Jeremiah 23:4, Bible, NKJV]

31 5.5. Mark 6:34

32 *"And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they 33 were like sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to teach them many things [as we do on this website]."
34 [Mark 6:34, Bible, NKJV]

35 Your narrow and self-serving view of religious ministry needs to be enlightened by the word of God and the Holy Spirit,
36 because you obviously aren't attuned to either. You are a victim of the Social Gospel dichotomy described by Pastor Matt
37 Trewhella, which causes Christians to be deceived into thinking socialistically and humanistically, in contradiction to the 38 teachings of the Bible on this subject:

The Social Gospel, Pastor Matt Trewhella

39 You probably are an atheist who works for the government. If this is in fact the case, remember that the First Amendment to 40 the Constitution PROHIBITS you from even defining what a "religion" is.

41 A problem common to both religion clauses of the First Amendment is the dilemma of defining religion. To define
42 religion is in a sense to establish it--those beliefs that are included enjoy a preferred constitutional status. For 43 those left out of the definition, the definition may prove coercive. Indeed, it is in this latter context, which roughly 44 approximates the area covered by the free exercise clause, where the cases and discussion of the meaning of 45 religion have primarily centered. Professor Kent Greeawalt challenges the effort, and all efforts, to define 46 religion: "No specification of essential conditions will capture all and only the benefits, practices, and

1 organizations that are regarded as religious in modern culture and should be treated as such under the
2 Constitution."

3 [First Amendment Law, Barron-Dienes, West Publishing, ISBN 0-314-22677-X, p. 432]

4 If you can't lawfully define what a "religion" is, then you can't define what a "religious ministry" is either. To define what
5 religion isn't, is to define what it is. Therefore, for a government worker to define what a "religion" is violates the First
6 Amendment establishment clause. This argument is therefore not something that a government lawyer or politician could
7 even lawfully make. Furthermore, don't bother to go searching for a Supreme Court ruling that defines what "religion" is 8 either. The U.S. Supreme Court has never done this because they aren't ignorant enough to suppose that they even have the 9 authority to do so without violating the First Amendment.

10 9.20 Ministry falsely claims that their members are not "persons" under federal civil law

11 This accusation against us is a common false argument. It is also used by the media in the following form:

12 #6. The "Missing Persons" Argument

13 Even simpler, you can admit that the IRS Code gives them the right to collect taxes from "persons," but you just 14 so happen to not be a person. The Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry--highly recommended for those 15 who want a dash of Jesus with their tax evasion--quotes a sample U.S. legal statute that states "The word
16 'person' includes individuals, children, firms, associations..." and concludes "NOTE HOWEVER, THE
17 DEFINITIONS STATUTE DOES NOT LIST MAN OR WOMAN -- THEREFORE THEY ARE EXCLUDED
18 FROM ALL THE STATUTES!!!"

19 [Proof that There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042, Section 6.2, p. 67,
20 <http://sedm.org/Forms/MemLaw/StrawMan.pdf>]

21 Of course, we can probably ignore this as it's in capital letters, but perhaps the multiple exclamation points
22 cancel that out. This line of argument has had the exact same success rate (zero) as similarly limiting 23 definitions of the terms "individual" and "taxpayer."

27 On a basic level, the First Amendment and your right to contract or not contract guarantee that no one is allowed to compel
28 you to associate with a group of people called a "State" or contract for CIVIL STATUTORY protection. Only by becoming 29 party to such a contract or agreement called the "social compact" can one become a civil STATUTORY "citizen", "resident",
30 or "person". To suggest otherwise is to sanction THEFT, identity theft, and compelling people to contract with the "state"
31 for civil protection that they may not want. We cover this in:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

32 Purely on the basis of common sense, if government is a government of delegated authority and your neighbor can't compel
33 you into an obligation, then you can't delegate that authority to a government or "State" to do it either through the civil 34 statutory law.

35 "The Government of the United States is one of delegated powers alone. Its authority is defined and limited by
36 the Constitution. All powers not granted to it by that instrument are reserved to the States or the people."
37 [United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542 (1875)]

38 "Quod meum est sine me auferri non potest.
39 What is mine [sovereignty in this case] cannot be taken away without my consent"
40 [Bouvier's Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2159]

41 "Derivativa potestas non potest esse major primitiva.
42 The power [sovereign immunity in this case] which is derived cannot be greater than that from which it is 43 derived."
44 [Bouvier's Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2131]

45 "Nemo potest facere per obliquum quod non potest facere per directum.
46 No one can do that indirectly which cannot be done directly."
47 [Bouvier's Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2147]

1
2 “Quod per me non possum, nec per alium.
3 What I cannot do in person, I cannot do through the agency of another.”
4 [Bouvier’s Law Dictionary Unabridged, 8th Edition, pg. 2159]

5 The civil statutory law behaves in effect as an “employment agreement” of those who want to join the “State” as public
6 officers called “citizens”, “residents”, or “persons” and thereby receive the “benefits” of that employment. Those who don’t
7 would be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and protected by the COMMON LAW and equity rather than the CIVIL law and 8 privilege. They have a RIGHT not to pursue public obligations or offices:

9 “Invito beneficium non datur.
10 No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be
11 considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

12 Non videtur consensum retinuisse si quis ex praescripto minantis aliquid immutavit.
13 He does not appear to have retained his consent, if he have changed anything through the means of a party
14 threatening. Bacon’s Max. Reg. 33.”
15 [Bouvier’s Maxims of Law, 1856;
16 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

17 A government in which all “citizens”, “residents”, or “persons” are public officers in the government is also called a “de facto 18 government”. The present government is just such a de facto government, as proven in:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

19 In fact, the above section of Form #05.042 referenced by the Cracked.com website appears as section 5.3 of the current 20 version of the document and says the following:

21 The State Created Office of “person”

22 “Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it.”
23 [George Bernard Shaw]

24 This is the single most important lesson that you MUST learn. If you spend an hour to learn this material you will 25 be rewarded for the rest of your life.

26 The word “person” in legal terminology is perceived as a general word which normally includes in its scope a
27 variety of entities other than human beings. See e.g. 1 U.S.C. Sec 1. Church of Scientology v. U.S. Department of 28 Justice (1979), 612 F.2d. 417, 425.

29 One of the very first of your STATE statutes will have a section listed entitled “Definitions.” Carefully study this 30 section of the statutes and you will find a portion that reads similar to this excerpt.

31 In construing these statutes and each and every word, phrase, or part hereof, where the 32 context will permit:

- 33 (1) The singular includes the plural and vice versa.
34 (2) Gender-specific language includes the other gender and neuter.
35 (3) The word “person” includes individuals, children, firms, associations, joint adventures, 36 partnerships, eSTATes, trusts, business trusts, syndicates, fiduciaries, corporations, and 37 all other groups or combinations.

38 Note, however, the definition statute does not list man or woman. Therefore they are PURPOSEFULLY
39 EXCLUDED under the following authorities:

- 40 1. The rule of statutory construction “expressio unius est exclusio alterius,” where a statute or Constitution
41 enumerates the things on which it is to operate or forbids certain things, it is ordinarily to be construed as 42 excluding from its operation all those not expressly mentioned.

43 “Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that 44 the expression of one thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456,*
45 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles, 170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention
46 *of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or things are specified
47 in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be

1 inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes
2 to specify the effects of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded."
3 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

4 2. The following U.S. Supreme Court rulings:

5 "When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it
6 varies from that term's ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987)
7 ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that
8 term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule, `a definition which 9 declares what a term "means" . . . excludes any meaning that is not stated"); Western 10 Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945) ; Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of 11 N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on 12 Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting
13 cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S. 943] (THOMAS,
14 J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney
15 General's restriction -- "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate 16 the contrary."
17 [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 \(2000\)]

18 Generally words in a statute should be given their plain and ordinary meaning. When a statute does not
19 specifically define words, such words should be construed in their common or ordinary sense to the effect that 20 the rules used in construing statutes are also applicable in the construction of the Constitution. It is a fundamental 21 rule of statutory construction that:

- 22 1. Words of common usage when used in a statute should be construed in their plain and ordinary sense.
- 23 2. When a statutory definition is provided, it supersedes rather than enlarges the ordinary meaning.
- 24 3. When a statutory definition is intended to ADD to the common meaning, the statute must use the words "in 25 addition to..." or else the statutory definition is limiting rather than expansive.
- 26 4. The ability to regulate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE conduct is repugnant to the constitution and therefore,
27 statutory definitions must be construed by default to include ONLY public entities, corporations, and offices
28 voluntarily associated with the government. One must VOLUNTEER to assume a public office before civil 29 statutes can regulate, tax, or burden one's otherwise PRIVATE conduct. To wit:

30 When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges
31 which, as an individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain. "A body
32 politic," as aptly defined in the preamble of the Constitution of Massachusetts, "is a
33 social compact by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen
34 with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good."
35 This does not confer power upon the whole people to control rights which are purely and 36 exclusively private, Thorpe v. R. & B. Railroad Co., 27 Vt. 143; but it does authorize the 37 establishment of laws requiring each citizen to so conduct himself, and so use his own
38 property, as not unnecessarily to injure another. This is the very essence of government, 39 and 125*125 has found expression in the maxim sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas.
40 From this source come the police powers, which, as was said by Mr. Chief Justice Taney
41 in the License Cases, 5 How. 583, "are nothing more or less than the powers of 42 government inherent in every sovereignty, . . . that is to say, . . . the power to govern men
43 and things." Under these powers the government regulates the conduct of its citizens one 44 towards another, and the manner in which each shall use his own property, when such 45 regulation becomes necessary for the public good.

52 IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
53 Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity

54 (b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

55 Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

- 56 (1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;
57 (2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:
(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and
(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.

Those not domiciled on federal territory and not purposefully or consensually availing themselves of commerce under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97, are IMMUNE from federal jurisdiction. This would include all those in states of the Union BECAUSE:

1. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that the only way the government can civilly enforce against you is if you are either a public officer in the government, or you have a contract with the national government. Otherwise, no federal property interest is involved under Constitution Article 4 that might invoke federal jurisdiction:

"All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made with [private] individuals."
[Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

For those who disagree with the above, what part of "ALL the powers of the government" do you not understand? Certainly "ALL THE POWERS" would include civil STATUTORY enforcement powers. The conclusion is therefore inescapable that all civil STATUTORY "taxpayers" and "persons" are public officers, as exhaustively proven in:

1.1. Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1.2. Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. Consistent with the above, the term "person" is defined in 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7343 to include ONLY officers and employees of corporations or those who have a "partnership" with Uncle Sam. Both of these have in common AGENCY of the national government as indicated above. All others are "purposefully excluded" under the rules of statutory construction indicated earlier.

2.1. 26 U.S.C. §6331(a) indicates that only instrumentalities (agents) of the national government may be subject to tax enforcement.

TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 64 > Subchapter D > PART II > § 6331
§ 6331. Levy and distraint

(a) Authority of Secretary

If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same within 10 days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the Secretary to collect such tax (and such further sum as shall be sufficient to cover the expenses of the levy) by levy upon all property and rights to property (except such property as is exempt under section 6334) belonging to such person or on which there is a lien provided in this chapter for the payment of such tax. Levy may be made upon the accrued salary or wages of any officer, employee, or elected official, of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of the United States or the District of Columbia, by serving a notice of levy on the employer (as defined in section 3401(d)) of such officer, employee, or elected official. If the Secretary makes a finding that the collection of such tax is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of such tax may be made by the Secretary and, upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, collection thereof by levy shall be lawful without regard to the 10-day period provided in this section.

2.2. 26 U.S.C. §7343, which defines "person" for the purposes of the criminal provisions of the Internal Revenue Code as:

"...an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs."

2.3. 26 U.S.C. §6671(b), which defines "person" for the purposes of the penalty provisions of the Internal Revenue Code as:

"...an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs."

- 1 3. Constitutional “States” are not within the statutory definition of “State” or “United States” found in 26 U.S.C.
2 §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and are therefore presumed to be PURPOSEFULLY EXCLUDED under the above rules of 3 statutory construction.
- 4 4. There are no Internal Revenue Districts within any Constitutional State and the I.R.S. can’t enforce OUTSIDE of 5 Internal Revenue Districts as found in 26 U.S.C. §7601, and 26 U.S.C. §7621.
- 6 5. The U.C.C. places the “United States” in the District of Columbia, rather than within any constitutional “State”, and 7 hence it too is purposefully excluded under the rules of statutory construction.

- 15 6. There are no implementing regulations for the Part 1 income tax found in 26 U.S.C. §1 that would apply these 16 provisions to anything OTHER than public officers or agents in the national government. 44 U.S.C. §1505(a) and 5
17 U.S.C. §553(a) both indicate that the only case where an enactment of the Congress can be enforced DIRECTLY
18 against persons domiciled in states of the Union absent implementing regulations is for those groups specifically
19 exempted from the requirement. Hence, the I.R.C Subtitles A and C income tax only applies to the following audience
20 under the Administrative Procedures Act and the Federal Register Act:
- 21 6.1. A military or foreign affairs function of the United States. 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(1\).
- 22 6.2. A matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts. 5
23 U.S.C. §553\(a\)\(2\).
- 24 6.3. Federal agencies or persons in their capacity as officers, agents, or employees thereof. 44 U.S.C. §1505\(a\)\(1\).
- 25 7. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that a PRIVATE person, such as the average American, cannot “execute” laws,
26 meaning enforce them. Either “enforcing” or “obeying” such laws is therefore not permitted AND would constitute the 27 crime of impersonating a public officer to “enforce” or “obey”, or “execute” in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. For those 28 who disagree, please answer the question of how one can “obey” or be the “target” of the enforcement of a civil law
29 WITHOUT “executing” it?

30 “A private person cannot make constitutions or laws, nor can he with authority construe them, nor can he 31 administer or execute them.”

32 [United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 1 S.Ct. 601, 27 L.Ed. 290 (1883)]

33 On an even more basic level, the Declaration of Independence says that the ONLY purpose of establishing government is to 34 protect PRIVATE rights.

35 *“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
36 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure*
37 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, 38 –“

39 [Declaration of Independence]

40 The first step in that protection is to prevent PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property from being converted to PUBLIC
41 rights, PUBLIC statuses, or PUBLIC offices in the government without the EXPRESS consent of the original PRIVATE 42 owner. That step is accomplished by simply LEAVING people alone and not making them a party to the government civil 43 PROTECTION FRANCHISE called “domicile” without their consent.

44 “The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
45 recognized the significance of man’s spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
46 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
47 *Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the
48 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized
49 men.”

50 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting); see also Washington v. Harper,
51 494 U.S. 210 \(1990\)]

1 The ONLY rational or moral basis for taking away PRIVATE rights is a person has hurt someone else, and the remedy against
2 such injury in the case of those who are not party to the “social compact” and civil statutory law is under the common law
3 AFTER the injury occurs. When law operates in a PREVENTIVE mode BEFORE the injury occurs such as it does in most
4 civil statutory enactments, it requires the EXPRESS consent of the party whose rights are adversely affected by the civil
5 regulation. Even then, for those whose PRIVATE rights are INALIENABLE per the Declaration of Independence, such as
6 those in a state of the Union, they aren’t allowed to give them away and therefore cannot be subject to federal civil statutory 7 law.

8 “Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred.”
9 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

10 Therefore, the only place such consent can lawfully be given to waive rights is among those on federal territory NOT within 11 a state of the Union. Otherwise, it would be a taking in violation of the Fifth Amendment.

12 “Do not strive with [or try to regulate or control or enslave] a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.”
13 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

14 “Waivers of Constitutional rights not only must be voluntary, but must be knowing, intelligent acts done with 15 sufficient awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely consequences.”
16 [Brady v. U.S., 397 U.S. 742 (1970)]

17 “The sole end, for which mankind are warranted, individually or collectively... in interfering with the liberty of 18 action of any of their number, is self-protection.”
19 [John Stewart Mill, On Liberty, p. 223]

20 “With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing
21 more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall 22 leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the 23 mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the 24 circle of our felicities.”
25 [Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

26 In short, the national government can use its lawmaking powers in a civil context ONLY among those domiciled on federal 27 territory, who have a contract with them, who are in receipt or custody of their property, or who are exercising public offices.
28 Everyone else is PRIVATE and beyond their civil jurisdiction. The only reason people believe otherwise is because greedy
29 lawyers are playing word games. We have written an entire document on how these word games are being abused to deceive
30 everyone, including you. They are abusing “law” in effect as a means of propaganda to recruit people who it doesn’t pertain
31 to into voluntary government servitude without compensation:

This ministry claims the existence of the civil status of a “non-resident non-person”. We define such a civil status as follows:

SEDM Disclaimer

[. . .]

4.25. “Non-Person” or “Non-Resident Non-Person”

The term "non-person" or "non-resident non-person" (Form #05.020) as used on this site we define to be a human who is all of the following:

1. Not domiciled on federal territory and not representing a corporate or governmental office that is so domiciled under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17. See Form #05.002 for details.
2. Not engaged in a public office within any government. This includes the civil office of "person", "individual", "citizen", or "resident". See Form #05.037 and Form #05.042 for court-admissible proof that statutory "persons", "individuals", "citizens", and "residents" are public offices.
3. Not "purposefully or consensually availing themself" of commerce with any government. Therefore, they do not waive sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act \(FSIA\), 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97.
4. Obligations and Rights in relation to Governments:
 - 4.1. Waives any and all privileges and immunities of any civil status and all rights or "entitlements" to receive "benefits" or "civil services" from any government. It is a maxim of law that REAL de jure governments \(Form #05.043\) MUST give you the right to not receive or be eligible to receive "benefits" of any kind. See Form #05.040 for a description of the SCAM of abusing "benefits" to destroy sovereignty. The reason is because they MUST guarantee your right to be self-governing and self-supporting:

Invito beneficium non datur.

No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

Potest quis renunciare pro se, et suis, juri quod pro se introductum est.

A man may relinquish, for himself and his heirs, a right which was introduced for his own benefit. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto.

Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 83.

[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm/>

- 4.2. Because they are not in receipt of or eligible to receive property or benefits from the government, they owe no CIVIL STATUTORY obligations to that government or any STATUTORY "citizen" or STATUTORY "resident", as "obligations" are described in California Civil Code Section 1428. This means they are not party to any contracts or compacts and have injured NO ONE as injury is defined NOT by statute, but by the common law. See Form #12.040 for further details on the definition of "obligations".
- 4.3. Because they owe no statutory civil obligations, the definition of "justice" REQUIRES that they MUST be left alone by the government. See Form #05.050 for a description of "justice".
5. For the purposes of citizenship on government forms:
 - 5.1. Does NOT identify as a STATUTORY "citizen" (8 U.S.C. §1401 and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1\(c\)), "resident" (alien under 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\)\(1\)\(A\)), "U.S. citizen" (not defined in any statute), "U.S. resident" (not defined in any statute), or "U.S. person" (26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(30\)).
 - 5.2. Identifies themself as a "national" per 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(21\) and per common law by virtue of birth or naturalization within the CONSTITUTIONAL "United States*".
 - 5.3. Is NOT an "alien" because a "national" under 8 U.S.C. §1101\(a\)\(21\) or "U.S. national" under 26 C.F.R. §51.1 owing allegiance to a state of the Union and not the national or federal government. Thus, they are not subject to the presence test under 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\) and may not lawfully be kidnapped into exclusive national

1 government jurisdiction as a privileged alien "resident" or have a "residence" (26 C.F.R. §1.871-2\(b\)) within the
2 statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(9\) and (a)(10) or 4 U.S.C. §110\(d\).

3 6. Earnings originate from outside:

4 6.1. The STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(9\) and \(a\)\(10\) (federal zone) and

5 6.2. The U.S. government federal corporation as a privileged legal fiction.

6 Thus, their earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from "gross income" under 26 U.S.C. §871
7 and are a "foreign estate" under 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(31\). See 26 U.S.C. §872 and 26 C.F.R. §1.872-2\(f\) and 26 C.F.R.
8 §1.871-7\(a\)\(4\) and 26 U.S.C. §861\(a\)\(3\)\(C\)\(i\) for proof.

9 7. Earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from STATUTORY "wages" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
10 §3401\(a\) because all services performed outside the STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
11 §7701\(a\)\(9\) and \(a\)\(10\) (federal zone) and the CORPORATION "United States" as a legal fiction. Therefore, not
12 subject to "wage" withholding of any kind for such services per:

13 7.1. 26 C.F.R. §31.3401\(a\)\(6\)-1\(b\) in the case of income tax.

14 7.2. 26 C.F.R. §31.3121\(b\)-3\(c\)\(1\) in the case of Social Security.

15 8. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting under:

16 8.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(b\)\(5\)\(i\).

17 8.2. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1\(e\)\(1\)\(ii\)\(A\)\(1\).

18 8.3. 26 C.F.R. §1.6041-4\(a\)\(1\).

19 9. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from backup withholding because earnings are not reportable by 26
20 U.S.C. §3406 and 26 C.F.R. §31.3406\(g\)-1\(e\). Only "reportable payments" are subject to such withholding.

21 10. Because they are EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting and therefore withholding, they
22 have no "taxable income".

23 10.1. Only reportable income is taxable.

24 10.2. There is NO WAY provided within the Internal Revenue Code to make earnings not connected to a statutory
25 "trade or business"/public office \(Form #05.001\) under 26 U.S.C. §6041 reportable.

26 10.3. The only way to make earnings of a nonresident alien not engaged in the "trade or business" franchise taxable
27 under 26 U.S.C. §871\(a\) is therefore only when the PAYOR is lawfully engaged in a "trade or business" but the
28 PAYEE is not. This situation would have to involve the U.S. government ONLY and not private parties in the
29 states of the Union. The information returns would have to be a Form 1042s. It is a crime under 18 U.S.C. §91 for
30 a private party to occupy a public office or to impersonate a public office, and Congress cannot establish public
31 offices within the exclusive jurisdiction of the states of the Union to tax them, according to the License Tax
32 Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 68 S.Ct. 331 \(1866\).

33 11. Continue to be a "national of the United States" (Form #05.006) and not lose their CONSTITUTIONAL citizenship
34 while filing form 1040NR. See 26 U.S.C. §873\(b\)\(3\). They do NOT need to "expatriate" their nationality to file as a
35 "nonresident alien" and will not satisfy the conditions in 26 U.S.C. §877 (expatriation to avoid tax). Expatriation is loss
36 of NATIONALITY, and NOT loss of STATUTORY "citizen" status under 8 U.S.C. §1401.

37 12. If they submit a Form W-8BEN to control withholding and revoke their Form W-4, then they:

38 12.1. Can submit SSA Form 7008 to correct your SSA earnings to zero them out. See SEDM Form #06.042.

39 12.2. Can use IRS Form 843 to request a full refund or abatement of all FICA and Medicare taxes withheld if the 40 employer or business associate continues to file W-2 forms or withhold against your wishes. See SEDM Form
41 #06.044.

42 13. Are eligible to replace the SSN with a TEMPORARY Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) that expires
43 AUTOMATICALLY every year and is therefore NOT permanent and changes. If you previously applied for an SSN
44 and were ineligible to participate, you can terminate the SSN and replace it with the ITIN. If you can't prove you were
45 ineligible for Social Security, then they will not allow you to replace the SSN with an ITIN. See:

51 jurisdiction of a constitutional state of the Union is eligible for Social Security.

52 <https://sedm.org/Forms/06-AvoidingFranch/SSNotEligible.pdf>

53 14. Must file the paper version of IRS Form 1040NR, because there are no electronic online providers that automate the
54 preparation of the form or allow you to attach the forms necessary to submit a complete and accurate return that
55 correctly reflects your status. This is in part because the IRS doesn't want to make it easy or convenient to leave their 56 slave plantation.

1 15. Is a SUBSET of "nonresident aliens" who are not required to have or to use Social Security Numbers (SSNs) or
2 Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs) in connection with tax withholding or reporting. They are expressly excluded

20 They are "non-persons" BY VIRTUE of not benefitting from any civil statutory privilege and therefore being "PRIVATE".
21 By "privilege", we mean ANY of the things described in 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2):

22 5 U.S. Code § 553 - Rule making

23 (a) This section applies, according to the provisions thereof, except to the extent that there is involved—

27 The above items all have in common that they are PROPERTY coming under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution
28 that is loaned or possessed or granted temporarily to a human being with legal strings attached. Thus, Congress has direct
29 legislative jurisdiction not only over the property itself, but over all those who USE, BENEFIT FROM, or HAVE such
30 property physically in their custody or within their temporary control. We remind the reader that Congress enjoys control
31 over their own property NO MATTER WHERE it physically is, including states of the Union, and that it is the MAIN source
32 of their legislative jurisdiction within the exclusive jurisdiction of Constitutional states of the Union!:

34 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

35 The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory
36 or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to 37 Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

38
39 “The Constitution permits Congress to dispose of and to make all needful rules and regulations respecting
40 the territory or other property belonging to the United States. This power applies as well to territory
41 belonging to the United States within the States, as beyond them. It comprehends all the public domain,
42 wherever it may be. The argument is, that the power to make ‘ALL needful rules and regulations’ ‘is a
43 power of legislation,’ ‘a full legislative power;’ ‘that it includes all subjects of legislation in the territory,’
44 and is without any limitations, except the positive prohibitions which affect all the powers of Congress.
45 Congress may then regulate or prohibit slavery upon the public domain within the new States, and such a
46 prohibition would permanently affect the capacity of a slave, whose master might carry him to it. And why not?
47 Because no power has been conferred on Congress. This is a conclusion universally admitted. But the power to 48 ‘make rules and regulations respecting the territory’ is not restrained by State lines, nor are there any
49 constitutional prohibitions upon its exercise in the domain of the United States within the States; and

51 are not dependent on the situs of ‘the territory.’”

18 Even the public office ITSELF is property of the national government, so those claiming any civil statutory status are claiming
19 a civil office within the government. It is otherwise unconstitutional to regulate private property or private rights. The only
20 way you can surrender your private status is voluntarily adopt an office or civil status or the "benefits", "rights", or privileges
21 attaching to said office or status, as we prove in:

9 You cannot MIX or comingle PRIVATE property with PUBLIC property without converting the PRIVATE property
10 ownership from absolute to qualified. You must keep them SEPARATE at all times and it is the MAIN and MOST 11 IMPORTANT role of government to maintain that separation. Governments, after all, are created ONLY to protect private 12 property and the FIRST step in that protection is to protect PRIVATE property from being converted to PUBLIC property.
13 For proof, see:

Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025

14 What Congress is doing is abusing its own property to in effect create "de facto public offices" within the government, in

16 This is how we describe the reason why people should avoid privileges and thereby avoid possession, custody, use, or
17 "benefit" of government/public property on the opening page of our site:

18 "People of all races, genders, political beliefs, sexual orientations, and nearly all religions are welcome here.
19 All are treated equally under REAL "law". The only way to remain truly free and equal under the civil law is to
20 avoid seeking government civil services, benefits, property, special or civil status, exemptions, privileges, or
21 special treatment. All such pursuits of government services or property require individual and lawful consent to
22 a franchise and the surrender of inalienable constitutional rights AND EQUALITY in the process, and should
23 therefore be AVOIDED. The rights and equality given up are the "cost" of procuring the "benefit" or property
24 from the government, in fact. Nothing in life is truly "free". Anyone who claims that such "benefits" or property
25 should be free and cost them nothing is a thief who wants to use the government as a means to STEAL on his or
26 her behalf. All just rights spring from responsibilities/obligations under the laws of a higher power. If that higher
27 power is God, you can be truly and objectively free. If it is government, you are guaranteed to be a slave because
28 they can lawfully set the cost of their property as high as they want as a Merchant under the U.C.C. If you want
29 it really bad from people with a monopoly, then you will get it REALLY bad. Bend over. There are NO
30 constitutional limits on the price government can charge for their monopoly services or property. Those who
31 want no responsibilities can have no real/PRIVATE rights, but only privileges dispensed to wards of the state
32 which are disguised to LOOK like unalienable rights. Obligations and rights are two sides of the same coin, just

39 "Non-resident Non-Person" or "non-person" are synonymous with "transient foreigner", "in transitu", and "stateless" (in 40 relation to the national government). We invented this term. The term does not appear in federal statutes because statutes
41 cannot even define things or people who are not subject to them and therefore foreign and sovereign. The term "non-
42 individual" used on this site is equivalent to and a synonym for "non-person" on this site, even though STATUTORY
43 "individuals" are a SUBSET of "persons" within the Internal Revenue Code. Likewise, the term "private human" is also
44 synonymous with "non-person". Hence, a "non-person":

- 45 1. Retains their sovereign immunity. They do not waive it under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C.
46 Chapter 97 or the longarm statutes of the state they occupy.
- 47 2. Is protected by the United States Constitution and not federal statutory civil law.
- 48 3. May not have federal statutory civil law cited against them. If they were, a violation of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
49 17 and a constitutional tort would result if they were physically present on land protected by the United States
50 Constitution within the exterior limits of states of the Union.

1 4. Is on an equal footing with the United States government in court. "Persons" would be on an UNEQUAL, INFERIOR,
2 and subservient level if they were subject to federal territorial law.

3 Don't expect vain public servants to willingly admit that there is such a thing as a human "non-person" who satisfies the above
4 criteria because it would undermine their systematic and treasonous plunder and enslavement of people they are supposed to
5 be protecting. However, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that the "right to be left alone" is the purpose of the constitution.
6 Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438. A so-called "government" that refuses to leave you alone or respect or protect your
7 sovereignty and equality in relation to them is no government at all and has violated the purpose of its creation described in
8 the Declaration of Independence. Furthermore, anyone from the national or state government who refuses to enforce this
9 status, or who imputes or enforces any status OTHER than this status under any law system other than the common law is:

- 10 1. "purposefully availing themselves" of commerce within OUR jurisdiction.
- 11 2. STEALING, where the thing being STOLEN are the public rights associated with the statutory civil "status" they are 12 presuming we have but never expressly consented to have.
- 13 3. Engaging in criminal identity theft, because the civil status is associated with a domicile in a place we are not 14 physically in and do not consent to a civil domicile in.
- 15 4. Consenting to our Member Agreement.
- 16 5. Waiving official, judicial, and sovereign immunity.
- 17 6. Acting in a private and personal capacity beyond the statutory jurisdiction of their government employer.
- 18 7. Compelling us to contract with the state under the civil statutory "social compact".
- 19 8. Interfering with our First Amendment right to freely and civilly DISASSOCIATE with the state.
- 20 9. Engaged in a constitutional tort.

21 If freedom and self-ownership or "ownership" in general means anything at all, it means the right to deny any and all others,
22 including governments, the ability to use or benefit in any way from our body, our exclusively owned private property, and
23 our labor.

24 *"We have repeatedly held that, as to property reserved by its owner for private use, 'the right to exclude [others
25 is] one of the most essential sticks in the bundle of rights that are commonly characterized as property.' "* [Loretto

30 "In this case, we hold that the "right to exclude," so universally held to be a fundamental element of the property 31 right,[11] falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without compensation."

40 _____
41 The courts use a different name for those with the civil status of "non-persons", but it has the same meaning as we define it.
42 Below is the U.S. Supreme Court's recognition of those who are "non-person", which it calls "stateless persons":

43 *Petitioner Newman-Green, Inc., an Illinois corporation, brought this state law contract action in District Court
44 against a Venezuelan corporation, four Venezuelan citizens, and William L. Bettison, a United States citizen
45 domiciled in Caracas, Venezuela. Newman-Green's complaint alleged that the Venezuelan corporation had 46 breached a licensing agreement, and that the individual defendants, joint and several guarantors of royalty
47 payments due under the agreement, owed money to Newman-Green. Several years of discovery and pretrial*

1 motions followed. The District Court ultimately granted partial summary judgment for the guarantors and partial
2 summary judgment for Newman-Green. 590 F.Supp. 1083 (ND Ill.1984). Only Newman-Green appealed.

3 At oral argument before a panel of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Easterbrook inquired as to the 4 statutory basis for diversity jurisdiction, an issue which had not been previously raised either by counsel or by
5 the District Court Judge. In its complaint, Newman-Green had invoked 28 U.S.C. §1332(a)(3), which confers
6 jurisdiction in the District Court when a citizen of one State sues both aliens and citizens of a State (or States)
7 different from the plaintiffs. In order to be a citizen of a State within the meaning of the diversity statute, a
8 natural person must both be a citizen of the United States and be domiciled within the State. See Robertson v.
9 Cease, 97 U.S. 646, 648-649 (1878); Brown v. Keene, 8 Pet. 112, 115 (1834). The problem in this case is that
10 Bettison, although a United States citizen, has no domicile in any State. He is therefore "stateless" for purposes
11 of § 1332(a)(3). Subsection 1332(a)(2), which confers jurisdiction in the District Court when a citizen of a
12 State sues aliens only, also could not be satisfied because Bettison is a United States citizen. [490 U.S. 829]

13 When a plaintiff sues more than one defendant in a diversity action, the plaintiff must meet the requirements of 14 the diversity statute for each defendant or face dismissal. Strawbridge v. Curtiss, 3 Cranch 267 (1806).{1} Here,
15 Bettison's "stateless" status destroyed complete diversity under § 1332(a)(3), and his United States citizenship
16 destroyed complete diversity under § 1332(a)(2). Instead of dismissing the case, however, the Court of Appeals
17 panel granted Newman-Green's motion, which it had invited, to amend the complaint to drop Bettison as a party,
18 thereby producing complete diversity under § 1332(a)(2). 832 F.2d 417 (1987). The panel, in an opinion by Judge
19 Easterbrook, relied both on 28 U.S.C. §1653 and on Rule 21 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as sources
20 of its authority to grant this motion. The panel noted that, because the guarantors are jointly and severally liable,
21 Bettison is not an indispensable party, and dismissing him would not prejudice the remaining guarantors. 832
22 F.2d at 420, citing Fed.Rule Civ.Proc. 19(b). The panel then proceeded to the merits of the case, ruling in 23 Newman-Green's favor in large part, but remanding to allow the District Court to quantify damages and to 24 resolve certain minor issues.{2}
25 [Newman-Green v. Alfonso Larrain, 490 U.S. 826 (1989)]

26 In the above case, Bettison was among several defendants or respondents, and the court ruled that he had to be dismissed as 27 defendant from the case because he had a foreign domicile and therefore was "stateless". What made Bettison "stateless"
28 was a legislatively foreign domicile, even though he was a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen and had United States OF 29 AMERICA nationality. In other words, he was:

- 30 1. Not a civil STATUTORY "citizen" even though he was a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen
31 2. Not a civil statutory "person" and therefore a statutory "non-person".
32 3. Immune and sovereign from the civil statutory laws sought to be enforced because without a domicile on federal 33 territory.

34 Bettison was stateless because Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) dictates that the law of the party's civil domicile
35 determines the laws that can be enforced in federal court, and Bettison had a foreign domicile and therefore was not subject
36 to federal civil law or civil jurisdiction:

37 IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
38 Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity

39 (b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

40 Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

41 (1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

42 (2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

43 (3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

44 (A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue
45 or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution
46 or laws; and

47 (B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue
48 or be sued in a United States court.

49 [SOURCE: <http://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frcp/Rule17.htm>]

50 The reasoning of the U.S. Supreme Court on the subject of "statelessness" applies to ALL federal civil law and jurisdiction,
51 not just the subject of the Newman-Green case above. Therefore, it applies with equal force to the civil tax codes as well. It
52 would be a denial of equal protection to carve out an exception for the tax codes that doesn't apply similarly to ALL civil 53 statutory laws as well.

54 Furthermore, even the Social Security Administration recognizes the existence of "stateless persons":

1 Social Security Program Operations Manual System (POMS)

2 RS 02640.040 Stateless Persons

3 A. DEFINITIONS

4 There are two classes of stateless persons:

- 5 • DE JURE—Persons who do not have nationality in any country.
- 6 • DE FACTO—Persons who have left the country of which they were nationals and no longer enjoy its 7 protection and assistance. They are usually political refugees. They are legally citizens of a country
8 because its laws do not permit denaturalization or only permit it with the country's approval.

9 B. POLICY

10 1. De Jure Status

11 Once it is established that a person is de jure stateless, he/she keeps this status until he/she acquires nationality
12 in some country.

13 Any of the following establish an individual is de jure stateless:

- 14 a. a "travel document" issued by the individual's country of residence showing the:
15 - holder is stateless; and
16 - document is issued under the United Nations Convention of 28 September 1954 Relating to the Status of 17 Stateless Persons. (The document shows the phrase "Convention of 28 September 1954" on the cover and 18 sometimes on each page.)
- 19 b. a "travel document" issued by the International Refugee Organization showing the person is stateless.
- 20 c. a document issued by the officials of the country of former citizenship showing the individual has been deprived 21 of citizenship in that country.

22 2. De Facto Status

23 Assume an individual is de facto stateless if he/she:

- 24 a. says he/she is stateless but cannot establish he/she is de jure stateless; and
- 25 b. establishes that:
26 - he/she has taken up residence outside the country of his/her nationality;
27 - there has been an event which is hostile to him/her, such as a sudden or radical change in the government,
28 in the country of nationality; and

29 NOTE: In determining whether an event was hostile to the individual, it is sufficient to show the individual 30 had reason to believe it would be hostile to him/her.

31 - he/she renounces, in a sworn statement, the protection and assistance of the government of the country of 32 which he/she is a national and declares he/she is stateless. The statement must be sworn to before an individual
33 legally authorized to administer oaths and the original statement must be submitted to SSA.

34 De facto status stays in effect only as long as the conditions in b. continue to exist. If, for example, the individual 35 returns to his/her country of nationality, de facto statelessness ends.

36 3. Residents of Hong King and Macau

37 The following applies to residents of Hong Kong for months before July 1997 and without a time restriction to 38 residents of Macau.

39 Consider as stateless any person who:

- 40 - resides in Hong Kong or Macau; and
- 41 - alleges citizenship in China, Taiwan or Nationalist China (The Republic of China).

42 Consider him/her stateless only as long as he/she resides in Hong Kong or Macau.

43 Do not consider him/her stateless if he/she states he/she is a citizen of The People's Republic of China (PRC).

1 Effective July 1997, the PRC took control of Hong Kong. Thus, residents of Hong Kong can be considered
2 stateless for months after June 1997 only if they meet the criteria in RS 02640.040B.1 or RS 02640.040B.2.

3 [Social Security Program Operations Manual System (POMS), Section RS 02640.040]

4 Consistent with the above, our members are required to satisfy the above criteria by renouncing all civil statutory protection
5 of any and every government and rely exclusively upon the common law, equity, and the Constitution for their protection.
6 They do this by following the Path to Freedom, Form #09.015, Section 2 process, which requires them to denounce said
7 protection by filing the Legal Notice of Change in Domicile/Citizenship Records and Divorce From the United States, form
8 #10.001. Therefore, our members are NOT civil statutory “persons” and therefore qualify as civil “non-persons”. And YES,
9 there IS such a thing and it is recognize not only by the U.S. Supreme Court, but the Social Security Administration as well.
10 Furthermore, by abandoning all CIVIL STATUTORY protection, we formally abandon ALL civil statuses INCLUDING that 11 if the “individual” or “person” mentioned in the Social Security POMS manual above.

12 In the United States of America, all JUST powers derive from the CONSENT of the governed, as indicated by the Declaration
13 of Independence. Those who do NOT consent to join the body politic as a STATUTORY “citizen”, “resident”, or “person”
14 by choosing a domicile within the jurisdiction of the protecting government are free, equal, sovereign, independent, and a 15 “free inhabitant” under the original Articles of Confederation. We prove this in:

Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

16 Anyone who claims there is no such thing as a STATUTORY “non-person” or “transient foreigner” or “foreign sovereign”
17 clearly knows nothing about law, jurisdiction, or choice of law rules and likely is also a government slave because of their
18 legal ignorance. If you would like to learn the choice of law rules for yourself, read section 5 earlier.

19 Finally, those who are statutory “non-persons” enjoy and complete and absolute separation between PUBLIC and PRIVATE.
20 In theological terms, they would be called “sanctified”. By this, we mean that they as PRIVATE humans have absolutely no
21 civil statutory or legal connection to the PUBLIC or the collective except through the common law, as documented in:

Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025
<https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

22 An entire long memorandum of law has been written documenting the constitutionality and legality of being a civil statutory 23 “non-person” as follows:

- 28 1. You can’t trust anything the IRS publishes.
- 29 2. You can’t trust anything an IRS employee says.
- 30 3. Court rulings below the U.S. Supreme Court are not binding on the I.R.S. and therefore ALSO not binding on any of 31 our readers, per the concept of equal protection. Hence, they are simply IRRELEVANT and designed deliberately to 32 deceive you with what amounts to the equivalent of political propaganda. Rulings of the U.S. Tax Court and U.S.
33 District Courts are irrelevant to those who are neither domiciled on federal territory nor representing an entity
34 domiciled on federal territory as a public officer.
- 35 4. You can be fined and sanctioned both by the courts and the IRS if you disregard the above limitations.

1 Based on the above, EVERYTHING the IRS says about us is unreliable and not admissible as evidence in court BY THE
2 GOVERNMENT’S OWN ADMISSION. The only thing that could possibly make it reliable is if it was signed under penalty
3 of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065, and the IRS NEVER does this. The most basic principle of evidence is that only
4 witnesses who have to risk something if they give false testimony can or should be trusted. Official, judicial, and sovereign
5 immunity illegally asserted by the I.R.S. and the government in general ensure that there is no down side to flat out LYING
6 to you, and they do it all the time. Hence, EVERYTHING THEY SAY IS FRAUD and YOU ARE A DAMN FOOL IF YOU
7 TRUST ANYTHING THEY SAY, BY THEIR OWN ADMISSION. For the amazing proof of the above, right from the 8 horse’s mouth, the government, see:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9 The hypocrisy of what they are doing is that we emulate their approach by providing a disclaimer that protects our materials
10 and which makes us just as unaccountable as they are, and yet they won’t allow anyone but themselves to be unaccountable
11 or respect our EQUAL right to do the same thing they are doing. Therefore, they must not be part of the government because 12 the foundation of all free government is EQUALITY of rights for all.

13 10.1 Ministry is anti-government

14 The irony of alleging that we are “anti –government” is that the people making the allegation ARE NOT, in fact, a de jure,
15 constitutional government but instead are a private, for profit federal corporation. The American public are being
16 systematically deceived and LIED to about the fact that we don’t have a REAL government any more. The de facto sham
17 trust that remains seeks to maliciously and unjustly discredit and persecute those such as us who expose this deception in 18 order to protect their illegal and criminal activities. For extensive proof of this fact, see:

- 19 1. De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
20 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 21 2. Corporatization and Privatization of the Government, Form #05.024
22 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

23 We encourage you to submit the above documents to those who make such false allegations against us and demand that they 24 PROVE that they are, in fact a “government” by providing a list of errata of the above and answering ALL questions at the 25 end of the documents. Tell them that a refusal to deny constitutes an ADMISSION of the truth of everything in the above
26 documents under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6) . We guarantee you that they cannot answer the questions without 27 contradicting either themselves or what the law says. Hence, they will unavoidably admit that they are LIARS and that we 28 are absolutely correct about their unlawful, criminal, and unconstitutional misdeeds.

29 The other irony is that the so-called “agency”, the I.R.S., making such an allegation is not even part of any government and 30 has no legislative authority to even exist. See the amazing proof for yourself:

32 Disclaimer page:

33 SEDM Disclaimer

34 4. Meaning of words

35 4.4 Government

36
37
38 The term "government" is defined to include that group of people dedicated to the protection of purely and 39 exclusively PRIVATE RIGHTS and PRIVATE PROPERTY that are absolutely and exclusively owned by a truly
40 free and sovereign human being who is EQUAL to the government in the eyes of the law per the Declaration of 41 Independence. It excludes the protection of PUBLIC rights or PUBLIC privileges (franchises, Form #05.030)
42 and collective rights (Form #12.024) because of the tendency to subordinate PRIVATE rights to PUBLIC rights
43 due to the CRIMINAL conflict of financial interest on the part of those in the alleged "government" (18 U.S.C.

1 §208, 28 U.S.C. §§144, and 455). See Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025 for the 2 distinctions between PUBLIC and PRIVATE.

3 “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the

37 Anything done CIVILLY for the benefit of those working IN the government at the involuntary, enforced, coerced,
38 or compelled \(Form #05.003\) expense of PRIVATE free humans is classified as DE FACTO \(Form #05.043\),
39 non-governmental, PRIVATE business activity beyond the core purpose of government that cannot and should
40 not be protected by official, judicial, or sovereign immunity. Click here \(Form #11.401\) for a detailed exposition
41 of ALL of the illegal methods of enforcement (Form #05.032) and duress \(Form #02.005\). "Duress" as used here
42 INCLUDES:

- 43 1. Any type of LEGAL DECEPTION, Form #05.014.
- 44 2. Every attempt to insulate government workers from responsibility or accountability for their false or 45 misleading statements (Form #05.014 and Form #12.021 Video 4), forms, or publications (Form #05.007 and 46 Form #12.023).
- 47 3. Every attempt to offer or enforce civil franchise statutes against anyone OTHER than public officers ALREADY 48 in the government. Civil franchises cannot and should not be used to CREATE new public offices, but to add
49 duties to EXISTING public officers who are ALREADY lawfully elected or appointed.. See Form #05.030.
- 50 4. Every attempt to commit identity theft by legally kidnapping CONSTITUTIONAL state domiciled parties onto 51 federal territory or into the "United States" federal corporation as public officers. Form #05.046.
- 52 5. Every attempt to offer or enforce any kind of franchise within a CONSTITUTIONAL state. See Form #05.030.

1 6. Every attempt to entice people to give up an inalienable CONSTITUTIONAL right in exchange for a franchise
2 privilege. See Form #05.030.

3 7. Every attempt to use the police to enforce civil franchises or civil penalties. Police power can be lawfully used
4 ONLY to enforce the criminal law. Any other use, and especially for revenue collection, is akin to sticking people
5 up at gunpoint. See Form #12.022.

6 8. Every attempt at CIVIL asset forfeiture to police in the conduct of CRIMINAL enforcement. This merely creates
7 a criminal conflict of interest in police and makes them into CIVIL revenue collectors who seek primarily their 8 own enrichment. See Form #12.022.

9 9. Every attempt to compel or penalize anyone to declare a specific civil status on a government form that is 10 signed under penalty of perjury. That is criminal witness tampering and the IRS does it all the time.

11 10. Every attempt to call something voluntary and yet to refuse to offer forms and procedures to unvolunteer.
12 This is criminal FRAUD. Congressmen call income taxes voluntary all the time but the IRS refuses to even 13 recognize or help anyone who is a "nontaxpayer". See Exhibit #05.051.

14 All of the above instances of duress place personal interest in direct conflict with obedience to REAL law, Form
15 #05.048. They are the main source of government corruption \(Form #11.401\) in the present de facto system \(Form
16 #05.043\). The only type of enforcement by a DE JURE government that can or should be compelled and lawful
17 is CRIMINAL or COMMON LAW enforcement where a SPECIFIC private human has been injured, not CIVIL
18 statutory enforcement \(a franchise, Form #05.030\). Under the State Action Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court, 19 everyone who is the target of CIVIL enforcement is, by definition a public officer or agent in the government and 20 Christians are forbidden by the Bible from becoming such public officers. Form #13.007.

21 Every type of DE JURE CIVIL governmental service or regulation MUST be voluntary and ALL must be offered
22 the right to NOT participate on every governmental form that administers such a CIVIL program. It shall 23 mandatorily, publicly, and NOTORIOUSLY be enforced and prosecuted as a crime NOT to offer the right to NOT
24 PARTICIPATE in any CIVIL STATUTORY activity of government or to call a service "VOLUNTARY" but actively 25 interfere with and/or persecute those who REFUSE to volunteer or INSIST on unvolunteering. All statements by 26 any government actor or government form or publication relating to the right to volunteer shall be treated as 27 statements under penalty of perjury for which the head of the governmental department shall be help
28 PERSONALLY liable if false. EVERY CIVIL "benefit" or activity offered by any government MUST identify at the 29 beginning of ever law creating the program that the program is VOLUNTARY and HOW specifically to 30 UNVOLUNTEER or quit the program. Any violation of these rules makes the activity NON-GOVERNMENTAL
31 in nature AND makes those offering the program into a DE FACTO government \(Form #05.043\). The Declaration
32 of Independence says that all "just powers" of government derive from the CONSENT of those governed. Any 33 attempt to CIVILLY enforce MUST be preceded by an explicit written attempt to procure consent, to not punish 34 those who DO NOT consent, and to not PRESUME consent by virtue of even submitting a government form that
35 does not IDENTIFY that submission of the form is an IMPLIED act of consent \(Form #05.003\). This ensures 36 "justice" in a constitutional sense, which is legally defined as "the right to be left alone". For the purposes of this 37 website, those who do not consent to ANYTHING civil are referred to "non-resident non-persons" \(Form
38 #05.020\). An example of such a human would be a devout Christian who is acting in complete obedience to the 39 word of God in all their interactions with anyone and everyone in government. Any attempt by a PRIVATE human 40 to consent to any CIVIL STATUTORY offering by any government \(a franchise, Form #05.030\) is a violation of 41 their delegation of authority order from God \(Form #13.007\) that places them OUTSIDE the protection of God
42 under the Bible.

43 Under this legal definition of "government" the IDEAL and DE JURE government is one that:

44 1. The States cannot offer THEIR taxable franchises within federal territory and the FEDERAL government may 45 not establish taxable franchises within the territorial borders of the states. This limitation was acknowledged by 46 the U.S. Supreme Court in the License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462 \(1866\) and continues to this day but is 47 UNCONSTITUTIONALLY ignored more by fiat and practice than by law.

48 2. Has the administrative burden of proof IN WRITING to prove to a common law jury of your peers that you
49 CONSENTED in writing to the CIVIL service or offering before they may COMMENCE administrative 50 enforcement of any kind against you. Such administrative enforcement includes, but is not limited to 51 administrative liens, administrative levies, administrative summons, or contacting third parties about you. This
52 ensures that you CANNOT become the unlawful victim of a USUALLY FALSE PRESUMPTION \(Form #05.017\)
53 about your CIVIL STATUS \(Form #13.008\) that ultimately leads to CRIMINAL IDENTITY THEFT \(Form
54 #05.046\). The decision maker on whether you have CONSENTED should NOT be anyone in the AGENCY that 55 administers the service or benefit and should NEVER be ADMINISTRATIVE. It should be JUDICIAL.

56 3. Judges making decisions about the payment of any CIVIL SERVICE fee may NOT participate in ANY of the 57 programs they are deciding on and may NOT be "taxpayers" under the I.R.C. Subtitle A Income tax. This creates 58 a criminal financial conflict of interest that denies due process to all those who are targeted for enforcement.
59 This sort of corruption was abused to unlawfully expand the income tax and the Social Security program

1 OUTSIDE of their lawful territorial extent (Form #05.018). See Lucas v. Earl, 281 U.S. 111 \(1930\), O'Malley v.
2 Woodrough, 307 U.S. 277 \(1939\) and later in Hatter v. U.S., 532 U.S. 557 \(2001\).

3 4. EVERY CIVIL service offered by any government MUST be subject to choice and competition, in order to 4 ensure accountability and efficiency in delivering the service. This INCLUDES the minting of substance based
5 currency. The government should NOT have a monopoly on ANY service, including money or even the postal
6 service. All such monopolies are inevitably abused to institute duress and destroy the autonomy and sovereignty
7 and EQUALTY of everyone else.

8 5. CANNOT "bundle" any service with any other in order to FORCE you to buy MORE services than you want.
9 Bundling removes choice and autonomy and constitutes biblical "usury". For instance, it CANNOT:

10 5.1. Use "driver licensing" to FORCE people to sign up for Social Security by forcing them to provide a
11 "franchise license number" called an SSN or TIN in order to procure the PRIVILEGE of "driving",
12 meaning using the commercial roadways FOR HIRE and at a profit.

13 5.2. Revoke driver licenses as a method of enforcing ANY OTHER franchise or commercial obligation,
14 including but not limited to child support, taxes, etc.

15 5.3. Use funds from ONE program to "prop up" or support another. For instance, they cannot use Social 16 Security as a way to recruit "taxpayers" of other services or the income tax. This ensures that EVERY 17 PROGRAM stands on its own two feet and ensures that those paying for one program do not have to 18 subsidize failing OTHER programs that are not self-supporting. It also ensures that the government MUST 19 follow the SAME free market rules that every other business must follow for any of the CIVIL services it 20 competes with other businesses to deliver.

21 5.4 Piggyback STATE income taxes onto FEDERAL income taxes, make the FEDERAL government the tax
22 collector for STATE TAXES, or the STATES into tax collectors for the FEDERAL government.

23 6. Can lawfully enforce the CRIMINAL laws without your express consent.

24 7. Can lawfully COMPEL you to pay for BASIC SERVICES of the courts, jails, military, and ROADS and NO
25 OTHERS. EVERYONE pays the same EQUAL amount for these services.

26 8. Sends you an ITEMIZED annual bill for CIVIL services that you have contracted in writing to procure. That 27 bill should include a signed copy of your consent for EACH individual CIVIL service or "social insurance". Such 28 "social services" include anything that costs the government money to provide BEYOND the BASIC SERVICES,
29 such as health insurance, health care, Social Security, Medicare, etc.

30 9. If you do not pay the ITEMIZED annual bill for the services you EXPRESSLY consented to, the government
31 should have the right to collect ITS obligations the SAME way as any OTHER PRIVATE human. That means they 32 can administratively lien your real or personal property, but ONLY if YOU can do the same thing to THEM for 33 services or property THEY have procured from you either voluntarily or involuntarily. Otherwise, they must go
34 to court IN EQUITY to collect, and MUST produce evidence of consent to EACH service they seek payment or 35 collection for. In other words, they have to follow the SAME rules as every private human for the collection of 36 CIVIL obligations that are in default. Otherwise, they have superior or supernatural powers and become a pagan
37 deity and you become the compelled WORSHIPPER of that pagan deity. See Socialism: The New American Civil
38 Religion, Form #05.016 for details on all the BAD things that happen by turning government into such a CIVIL 39 RELIGION.

40 Jesus described the above de jure government as follows. He is implying that Christians cannot consent to any 41 government that rules from above or has superior or supernatural powers in relation to biological humans. In 42 other words, the government Christians adopt or participate in or subsidize CANNOT function as a religion as 43 described in Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016:

44 "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles [unbelievers] lord it over them [govern from 45 ABOVE as pagan idols] , and those who are great exercise authority over them
46 [supernatural powers that are the object of idol worship]. Yet it shall not be so among you;
47 but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant [serve the 48 sovereign people from BELOW rather than rule from above]. And whoever desires to be
49 first among you, let him be your slave—just as the Son of Man did not come to be served,
50 but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
51 [Matt. 20:25-28, Bible, NKJV]

52 For documentation on HOW to implement the above IDEAL or DE JURE government by making MINOR changes
53 to existing foundational documents of the present government such as the Constitution, see:

3 [SEDM Disclaimer, Section 4.4; SOURCE: <http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>]

4 We furthermore frequently state that the above-defined “government” is absolutely essential to any successful and thriving
5 FREE community. Anything BEYOND the above we, therefore, identify as a “de facto” government as described in Form
6 #05.043.

7 Our ministry is therefore NOT anti-government as “government” is defined above, but rather pro SELF-government. We do
8 not hate people, but evil, unlawful, and unconstitutional activities. We seek to protect the requirement for consent that is the 9 foundation of the civil authority of all just governments, according to the Declaration of Independence. The present de facto
10 government DOES NOT respect this limitation and is, therefore, a usurper and a criminal enterprise. The Bible commands
11 Christians to hate evil and harmful behavior, not evil people. That, in fact, is how we love our neighbor: Therefore, hate of 12 sin but not of the sinner is a religious practice protected by the First Amendment:

45 [Prov. 13:5, Bible, NKJV]

46 God loves the sinner but he hates the sin. The thing He hates most is deceit in commerce. We as Christians are commanded
47 to hate the same things He hates. One of the main purposes for creating governments to begin with is to PREVENT deceit

1 in commerce that injures PRIVATE rights. It is truly ironic that governments are created to prevent deceit in commerce, and
2 yet they are the WORST perpetrators of it at this time:

3 "As religion towards God is a branch of universal righteousness (he is not an honest man that is not devout), so
4 righteousness towards men is a branch of true religion, for he is not a godly man that is not honest, nor can he
5 expect that his devotion should be accepted; for,

6 1. Nothing is more offensive to God than deceit in commerce. A false balance is here put for all manner of 7 unjust and fraudulent practices [of our public dis-servants] in dealing with any person [within the public],
8 which are all an abomination to the Lord, and render those abominable [hated] to him that allow themselves
9 in the use of such accursed arts of thriving. It is an affront to justice, which God is the patron of, as well as a
10 wrong to our neighbour, whom God is the protector of. Men [in government] make light of such frauds, and
11 think there is no sin in that which there is money to be got by, and, while it passes undiscovered, they cannot 12 blame themselves for it; a blot is no blot till it is hit, Hos. 12:7, 8. But they are not the less an abomination to 13 God, who will be the avenger of those that are defrauded by their brethren.

14 2. Nothing is more pleasing to God than fair and honest dealing, nor more necessary to make us and our
15 devotions acceptable to him: A just weight is his delight. He himself goes by a just weight, and holds the scale
16 of judgment with an even hand, and therefore is pleased with those that are herein followers of him.

17 A [false] balance, [whether it be in the federal courtroom or in the government or in the marketplace,]
18 cheats, under pretence of doing right most exactly, and therefore is the greater abomination to God."
19 [Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible; Henry, M., 1996, c1991, under Prov. 11:1]

20 We do not, however, discriminate against the government. Wickedness, deceit, and evil are found everywhere. Our website
21 exposes and provides tools to fight deceit and evil wherever it is found, whether the source is the government or private 22 parties. Many of our policy documents, for instance, are directed not against the government, but against private parties who 23 spread disinformation and hurt people. For instance, see the following documents or references relating not to the 24 government, but to private parties:

1 The government has never contacted us to thank us for making a ministry out of teaching people what the law says and
2 helping them obey it, even though this obviously should have the practical effect of reducing their enforcement budget and
3 making their job easier, if they took it seriously, of course, which they clearly don't. The reason is obvious:

- 4 1. They don't want people reading or following the law. If everyone learned and obeyed the law, there would be almost no 5 "taxpayers" and the government would have to drastically cut its spending and leave people alone.
- 6 2. They would rather enforce public policy disguised to "look" like law than what the law actually says.

7 "Shall the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law, have fellowship with You?" They gather
8 together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and
9 my God the rock of my refuge. He has brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own
10 wickedness; the Lord our God shall cut them off."
11 [Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]*

- 12 3. They love money more than they love justice or fulfilling the purpose of their creation, which is protecting your private 13 property from involuntary conversion into "public property". In that sense, they have become a predator and a mafia
14 "protection racket" rather than a "protector". The only thing the courts protect now are the unlawful deeds of the 15 government's own de facto usurpers who have hijacked the public trust for personal gain and made it into a sham trust:

16 *"For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness,
17 and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."
18 [1 Tim. 6:10, Bible, NKJV]*

- 19 4. They want to create a state-sponsored religion, which is any system of beliefs or presumptions unsupported by evidence
20 and which results in the worship of the government as a pagan deity and a "superior being". What people "think" the 21 I.R.C. requires (public policy) rather than what it actually says then becomes the method to collect tithes to their "Church
22 of Socialism". Federal courts are state church buildings and the judges in them are priests of a civil religion. Attorneys
23 are the "deacons" of this state-sponsored church who collect the tithes. See:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016

24 Below are some examples from our website demonstrating a sincere intention to be balanced, to rebuke and fight evil
25 wherever it is found, and to not discriminate against or be biased toward government:

- 26 1. SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1.1: My status and standing, Item 5:

27 In joining the ministry by the above methods, I declare that:

30 regard this as an essential element of my religious practices and beliefs.

- 33 2. SEDM About Us Page, Section 1: What and Who are We?:

34 *We are not "tax protesters", "tax defiers", or "tax deniers". As a matter of fact, those who have such motivations
35 are discouraged from becoming Members of our ministry and if they become members are "Members in Bad
36 Standing". We do not challenge the lawfulness or Constitutionality of any part of the Internal Revenue Code or 37 any state revenue code and we believe that these codes are completely Constitutional as written and when
38 correctly applied to federal territory, domiciliaries, and franchises ONLY pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause
39 2 of the United States Constitution. HOWEVER, we also believe that the way they are willfully
40 MISREPRESENTED to the American public, and the way they are MALADMINISTERED by the IRS, state
41 revenue agencies, and the courts are willfully and maliciously deceptive and in many cases grossly illegal and
42 injurious. If these revenue codes were truthfully represented and faithfully administered completely consistent
43 with what they say, and more importantly their legislative intent and the Constitution, we believe that there would 44 be almost NO "taxpayers". The only reason there are "taxpayers" is because most Americans have been 45 maliciously and deliberately deceived by public servants about their true nature and the very limited audience of 46 people who are their only proper subject. Our enemy is not the government, the IRS, or even taxes, but instead 47 is all the following techniques for introducing collectivism into an otherwise free society:*

1 1. Legal ignorance on the part of Americans that allows public servants to abuse their authority and violate the
2 law. We have met the enemy, and it is our own ignorance of the law.

3 "One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer
4 is an abomination."
5 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

6 "But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed."
7 [John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

8 "Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your statutes."
9 [Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

10 "Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract or enters into a 11 [franchise, which is also a contract] with an officer [of the government] without having it
12 reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party
13 aids in the violation of the law."
14 [Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

15 2. The abuse of presumption to injure the rights of sovereign Americans, in violation of due process of law and
16 God's law found in Numbers 15:30 \(NKJV\). Much of this presumption is compelled by the government by willfully
17 dumbing-down the average American about legal subjects in the public (government) schools. This makes the 18 legal profession into essentially a "priesthood" and a pagan "religion" that the average American blindly
19 worships and obeys, without ever questioning authority. It is a supreme injustice to proceed against a person
20 without every conclusion being based ONLY on fact and not presumption, opinion, or belief. Click here for a 21 detailed article on this scam and sin.

22 "But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a
23 stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his 24 people."
25 [Numbers 15:30, Bible, NKJV]

26
27 "Due Process: [. . .] If any question of fact or liability be conclusively be presumed [rather 28 than proven with evidence] against him, this is not due process of law [in fact, it is the
29 OPPOSITE of due process]."
30 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 500]

31
32 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests:

33 A conclusive presumption may be defeated where its application would impair a party's
34 constitutionally-protected liberty or property interests. In such cases, conclusive
35 presumptions have been held to violate a party's due process and equal protection rights.

40 3. Public servants deceiving the public by portraying "Private Law" as "Public Law". Click here for an article 41 on this subject.

42 4. Public servants refusing to acknowledge the requirement for consent in all human interactions. Click here for 43 an article on this subject.

44 5. Willful omissions from government websites and publications that keep the public from hearing the whole
45 truth. The problem is not what these sources say, but what they DON'T say. The Great IRS Hoax (OFFSITE
46 LINK) contains over 2,000 pages of facts that neither the IRS nor any one in government is willing to reveal to
47 you because it would destroy the gravy train of plunder that pays their bloated salaries and fat retirement in
48 violation of 18 U.S.C. §208.

49 6. The use of "words of art" to deceive the people in both government publications and the law itself. Click
50 (OFFSITE LINK) here for examples.

1 7. The lack of "equal protection of the law" in courts of justice relating to the statements and actions of public
2 servants, whereby the IRS doesn't have to assume responsibility for its statements and actions, and yet persons
3 who fill out tax forms can be thrown in jail and prosecuted for fraud if they emulate the IRS by being just as
4 careless. This also includes "selective enforcement", where the DOJ positively refuses to prosecute submitters of
5 false information returns but spends a disproportionate share of its resources prosecuting false income tax
6 returns. They do this because they are more interested in STEALING your money than in justice. See:

7 7.1 Federal Courts and IRS' Own IRM Say NOT RESPONSIBLE for its actions or its words or following

9 7.2 Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033

10 7.3 Government Establishment of Religion, Form #05.038 -how government establishes itself as a pagan
11 deity and a religion by using franchises to systematically destroy the separation of powers and the
12 requirement for equal protection

13 8. Abuses of franchises that undermine the protection of private rights by the government and the courts:

14 8.1 Enforcing federal franchises in States of the Union, which are outside the civil jurisdiction or police
15 powers of the federal government and result in a destruction of the separation of powers.

16 8.2 Enforcing franchises, such as a "trade or business" without requiring explicit written consent in some
17 form, such as the issuance and voluntary signing of an application for a license. Click here for details.

18 8.3 Attorney licensing, which destroys the integrity of the legal profession in its role as a check and balance
19 when the government or especially the judiciary becomes corrupt as it is now.

20 8.4 Abuse of the federal income tax system, which is a franchise and an excise, to bribe states of the Union
21 to give up their sovereignty, act like federal "States" and territories, and accept what amounts to federal
22 bribes to disrespect the rights or those under their care and protection. Click here for details.

23 9. Efforts to destroy the separation of powers that is the main protection for our liberties. This results in abuses
24 of the Court system for political, rather than legal, purposes (politicization of the courts). All of the federal courts
25 we have now are Article IV, territorial courts that are part of the Legislative, rather than Judicial Branch of the 26 government. As such, there is no separation of powers and nothing but tyranny can result. See the following for
27 proof of this destruction:

28 9.1  Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023- shows how lying,
29 thieving public servants have systematically destroyed the separation of powers since the founding of
30 this country

31 9.2 What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012-book which proves that we have no Judicial Branch within
32 the federal government, and that all the existing federal courts are acting in an Article IV territorial
33 capacity as part of the Legislative, rather than Judicial, branch of the government.

34 9.3 How Scoundrels Corrupted Our Republican Form of Government (OFFSITE LINK)-brief overview of
35 how the separation of powers has been systematically destroyed

36 10. The abuse of the government's power to tax in order to transfer wealth between private individuals, which 37 makes the government into a thief and a Robinhood. This includes:

38 10.1 Enforcing the tax laws against other than "public officers" of the government. Click here for details.

39 10.2 Offering government "benefits" of any kind to anyone who does not ALREADY work for the government.
40 Click here for details.

41 11. Corruption of our monetary system that allows the government to:

42 11.1 Counterfeit while denying to all others the right, thus creating an unconstitutional "Title of Nobility"
43 for itself and making itself into a pagan deity, and denying the equal protection to all that is the
44 foundation of the Constitution.

45 11.2 STEAL from the American people by diluting the value of money already into circulation.

46 11.3 Exercise undue control banks and financial institutions that causes them to effectively become federal
47 employment recruiters for the federal government by compelling use of government identifying numbers
48 for those pursuing accounts or loans.

49 Click here for details on the above SCAMS.

50 12. Creating, perpetuating, condoning, or in any way protecting conflicts of financial interest within the
51 government that cause the self-interest to undermine the requirements of the law, EQUALITY, or the protection
52 of exclusively PRIVATE rights by:

53 12.1 Making judges "taxpayers".

54 12.2 Making jurists or voters into "benefit" recipients, franchisees, and/or public officers.

55 12.3 Allowing judges to act in a POLITICAL mode within any franchise court in the Executive rather than
56 Judicial Branch. This also violates the separation of powers.

57 12.4 Turning police officers into revenue collectors who enforce malum-prohibitum offenses that result in
58 revenue to the state.

59 12.5 Allowing any judicial officer or witness to receive any kind of financial reward for essentially
60 compelling someone to assume any civil status under any civil franchise, including the income tax.

61 12.6 Allowing judges to act BOTH as an Article III judge AND an Article IV judge at the same time.

62 12.7 Allowing PRIVATE citizens to appear before a franchise judge with a financial conflict of interest.

1 12.8 Making ordinary citizens ALSO into public officers in any context OTHER than as a jurist or voter. This
2 causes income taxes to become poll taxes and disenfranchises all those who insist on remaining private.

3 13. Active interference with common law remedies for the protection of PRIVATE rights from abuse by
4 government actors. Governments are established exclusively to protect PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property. Any attempt
5 to undermine such rights without the express written consent of the owner in each case is not only NOT a classical
6 "government" function, but is an ANTI-government function that amounts to a MAFIA "protection racket". This includes but
7 is not limited to:

8 13.1 Refusing to recognize or protect PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights, the essence of which is the
9 RIGHT TO EXCLUDE anyone and everyone from using or benefitting from the use of the property.

10 13.2 PRESUMING that "a government OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, and FOR THE PEOPLE" is a
11 government in which everyone is a public officer.

12 13.3 Refusing to recognize or allow constitutional remedies and instead substituting STATUTORY remedies
13 available only to public officers.

14 13.4. Forcing non-franchisees into franchise courts against their consent. This is a violation of the Fifth
15 Amendment takings clause and the prohibition against eminent domain.

16 13.5 Interfering with introduction of evidence that the court or forum is ONLY allowed to hear disputes
17 involving public officers in the government.

18 13.6 Refusing to satisfy the burden of proof upon government opponents in a franchise court that the owner of
19 the property subject to the dispute VOLUNTARILY donated it to a public use, public purpose, and public
20 office. In other words, that all property is PRIVATE until it is proven on the record with evidence that the
21 owner EXPRESSLY AND VOLUNTARILY DONATED it to PUBLIC use and thereby made it subject to 22 government jurisdiction.

23 13.7 PRESUMING or ASSUMING that the ownership of the property subject to dispute is QUALITIFIED
24 rather than ABSOLUTE and that the party the ownership is shared with is the government.

25 13.8 Allowing government "benefit" recipients to be decision makers in cases involving PRIVATE rights. This
26 is a denial of a republican form of government, which is founded on impartial decision makers. See Sinking
27 Fund Cases, 99 U.S. 700 (1878).

28 13.9 Interfering with or sanctioning litigants who insist on discussing the laws that have been violated in the
29 courtroom or prohibiting jurists from reading the laws in question or accessing the law library in the 30 courthouse while serving as jurists. This transforms a society of law into a society of men and allows the 31 judge to substitute HIS will in place of what the law expressly requires.

32 13.10 Abusing sovereign immunity to protect franchise administrators such as the IRS from illegal enforcement
33 of the franchise against non-franchisees. All franchisees are PRIVATE rather than GOVERNMENTAL in 34 nature and governments who offer them drop down to the level of ordinary persons when they offer them.

35 13.11 Illegally and unconstitutionally invoking the Declaratory Judgments Act or the Anti-Injunction Act as
36 an excuse to NOT protect PRIVATE rights from government interference in the case of EXCLUSIVELY
37 PRIVATE people who are NOT statutory "taxpayers". See Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, 38 Sections 8.11 and 8.12.

39 13.12 PRESUMING or pretending like there is no such thing as a non-franchisee or non-taxpayer or that
40 EVERYONE is a statutory "taxpayer". This compels people to contract with the government and interferes
41 with their First Amendment right to legally and politically associate. See Your Exclusive Right to Declare
42 or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008.

43 13.13 Offering or enforcing NATIONAL franchises within states of the Union or outside of the federal territory
44 and federal domiciliaries that they are limited to. See Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises,
45 Form #05.030.

46 13.14 Refusing to provide a way to quit franchises or hiding forms for doing so.

47 13.15 Interfering with ways to change or correct your citizenship or statutory status in government records.
48 That "status" is the "res" to which all franchise rights attach, usually ILLEGALLY.

51 10. Relationship to Government

52 "Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man [WHICH IS ONLY] for the Lord's 53 sake, whether to the king as supreme, or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for 54 the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good. For this is the will of 55 God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— as free, yet
56 not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. Honor all people. Love
57 the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king."
58 [1 Peter 2:13-17, Bible, NKJV]

59 Visit Section 9 of our Disclaimer Page for a description of why this fellowship and ministry is against hate speech,
60 hate crime, and violence. We are a peaceful group which respects, advocates, subsidizes, and even protects all 61 lawful exercises of governmental power consistent with the state and federal constitutions, enacted law, and the 62 constitutions and laws of any private group of people that wants to divorce the state and form their own private 63 self-government.

1 We are not against government. In fact, we love the whole notion of government so much that we want to form
2 our own government and to do it consistent with the original de jure constitutions and laws that began this
3 country. The Declaration of Independence says that when the government we have becomes tyrannical, it is our 4 right and even our DUTY to form our own competing and better government.

5 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are
6 endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life,
7 Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are 8 instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That 9 whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of 10 the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation
11 on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most 12 likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. "
13 [Declaration of Independence]

14 The Declaration of Independence makes it the DUTY of all Americans to divorce any government that becomes 15 wasteful or abusive and provide a better and competing alternative. We The People cannot delegate an authority
16 to the government to "govern" that they themselves do not also have. They have a right to withhold that delegation
17 of authority and domiciliary allegiance, form their own civil government, and shift their domicile and allegiance,
18 and tax money to that government. We believe this option is the only way to peacefully restore choice,
19 competition, accountability, and efficiency to government. If capitalism and competition keeps the economy
20 healthy on the private side, there is no reason that it can't work in government as well. Any effort to restrict 21 choice or perpetuate a monopoly on protection by a specific government is an effort to enslave and oppress the 22 people. Below is the blueprint for accomplishing that transformation:

- 23 • Self Government Federation: Articles of Confederation, Form #13.002

24 [. . .]

25 See our memorandum of law entitled "Requirement for Consent" for further details on the explicit, informed,
26 deliberate requirement for written consent in all free governments, and ESPECIALLY in the context of taxation
27 and commerce. God commands us to hate evil, and if deceit in commerce is what He hates most, then we as 28 Christians are to act and do similarly by exposing, opposing, and fixing it. We can't love God and not hate His
29 opposite or His complete absence, which is what evil is. We can't love our neighbor as God commands in Gal.
30 5:14 and not hate the actions of a dishonest and covetous public servant who willfully and intentionally deceives,
31 robs, and hurts our neighbor with no demonstrated lawful authority and no concern for even what the law says
32 on the subject. We can't hypocritically go out and invade other countries like Iraq and Afghanistan on the 33 pretense that we are fighting terrorism and defending "freedom" (what a joke!) and still have a group of terrorist
34 public servants running our own government here at home that completely disrespects and tries to hide the 35 requirement for explicit consent of the people in every aspect of governance and taxation. If you want some 36 examples of how our public dis-servants chronically and willfully violate and hide and avoid the requirement for 37 informed consent, read Great IRS Hoax sections 4.3.2 through 4.3.2.9. That is NOT equal protection of the laws:
38 It's tyranny and terrorism cleverly and deceitfully and willfully disguised as government benevolence!

25 "A righteous man hates lying. But a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame."
26 [Prov. 13:5, Bible, NKJV]

27 "Hate of evil" is the essence of morality and morality is the essence of religion. A religion without "hate of evil"
28 is not a religion at all, but a vain social club. God hates the sin but He loves the sinner and we are commanded
29 to be like God. Obedience to God's law by "hating evil", in fact, is the essence of what "religious practice" means
30 and the essence of what the First Amendment's "free exercise" clause was intended to protect. Consequently,
31 HATE of evil, in fact, is a protected religious practice under the First Amendment and the essence of how we
32 worship, reverence, respect, and obey our mighty God, according to the Bible. "Hating evil" is the essence of 33 what is called "police powers" in the legal field. Police powers are the essence and authority for all earthly laws
34 and the reason why people create governments to begin with: the desire for protection. "Hating evil", in fact, is 35 what governments, the police, and the justice system have made a profession out of. If they, as our servants can
36 do it, then we as the sovereigns and their Masters can do it.

37 Anyone who criticizes the Christian virtue of "hating evil" is basically saying that we shouldn't have law, civil 38 government, or law enforcement and that we shouldn't have religion at all. Indirectly, they are promoting anarchy
39 and lawlessness. They are also saying that the Constitution contradicts itself and is redundant and unnecessary,
40 because the sovereign People ("We the People") cannot delegate to government through a written Constitution
41 an authority called "police powers" that they themselves don't have as individuals! Those who slander Christians
42 for trying to hate evil are also are biased and prejudiced, if they are going to say that atheists in government can 43 "hate evil" under man's law while Christians can't hate evil under God's law. That is not "equal protection of the 44 laws", but anarchy and prejudice and hate deceptively disguised as an altruistic pursuit of "civil rights". It is a
45 devious way to rebel against God's Holy moral laws by interfering with their enforcement. It is mutiny against 46 God that will ultimately land all of its followers in HELL.

47 "Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the 48 heaven fled away. And there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and 49 great, standing before God, and books were opened. And another book was opened, which 50 is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which 51 were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades
52 delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his 53 works. Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And 54 anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire."

1 A society without "hate of evil" is like a body without an immune system, and our society right now has AIDS.
2 Our society is dying and self-destructing because of complacency towards evil in our government, which is AIDS.
3 A corrupted tax system is simply one of many symptoms of this pernicious disease that afflicts us.

4 "The true danger is when liberty is nibbled away, for expedients, and by parts ... the only
5 thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing [or to trust dishonest or 6 deceitful public servants to do the right thing]."
7 [Edmund Burke]

8 "...the greatest menace to freedom is an inert [passive and uneducated] people [who 9 refuse, as jurists and voters and active citizens, to expose and punish evil in our
10 government]"
11 [Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

12 "The violence of the wicked will destroy them [a free people] because they refuse to do 13 justice [by exposing, rebuking, and resisting, and punishing evil]."

4. SEDM Response Letter Frequently Asked Questions Page, Question #22:

22. Is there anything criminal or illegal about using your response letters?

The First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America guarantees us a right to Petition our Government for a redress of grievances, which in this case are illegal or unconstitutional enforcement actions against parties who are "nontaxpayers" not subject to the Internal Revenue Code and who have no legal "duty" to pay any monies to either the state or federal governments. Below is a link to an exhaustive legal analysis of our inalienable right to Petition our government for a redress of grievances and illegal or unconstitutional activities:

Statement of Facts and Beliefs Regarding the Right to Petition the Government for a Redress of Grievances \(OFFSITE LINK\)

Below is what federal courts have said on the subject of making the exercise of a Constitutional right into a crime:

*"The claim and exercise of a constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime."
[Miller v. U.S., 230 F. 486, at 489]*

*"It is an unconstitutional deprivation of due process for the government to penalize a person merely because he has exercised a protected statutory or constitutional right. United States v. Goodwin, 457 U.S. 368, 372, 102 S.Ct. 2485, 2488, 73 L.Ed.2d. 74 (1982)."
[People of Territory of Guam v. Fegurgur, 800 F.2d. 1470 (9th Cir. 1986)]*

*"Due process of law is violated when the government vindictively attempts to penalize a person for exercising a protected statutory or constitutional right."
[United States v. Conkins, 9 F.3d. 1377, 1382 (9th Cir. 1993)]*

Furthermore, the First Amendment also guarantees us a right to assemble, and especially in the preparation of such Petitions. That means that you have a protected Constitutional right to request education or help in preparing such a Petition. That very situation, in fact, is the reason for existence of this ministry. Even if the Petition is wrong, it still cannot be a crime to Petition. To suggest otherwise is to suggest that:

1. The authority of law can be used to interfere with its own enforcement. This is an absurdity.
2. Anyone can be thrown in jail at any time just for having wrong opinions or an inadequate education, which clearly would violate the First Amendment. The Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11\(c\)\(2\)\(A\), in fact, prohibit judges from sanctioning parties who have made a frivolous legal argument, because this would constitute an interference with political activity which is beyond the reach of any court.
3. The Courts have the authority to interfere with "political activity" and political speech. This is a violation of the Separation of Powers Doctrine, which says that Courts of justice may not lawfully involve themselves in "political questions". Click here for an article on "Political Jurisdiction" that thoroughly examines this corruption of our de jure government.
4. We have no separation of powers (OFFSITE LINK) and judges are part of the Executive Branch, not the Judicial Branch. Click here (OFFSITE LINK) for an article on the separation of powers doctrine.

Here is what the U.S. Supreme Court said on this subject about the government's authority to interfere with free, non-commercial speech. Click here for an additional article on "commercial speech":

"This court has not yet fixed the standard by which to determine when a danger shall be deemed clear; how remote the danger may be and yet be deemed present; and what degree of evil shall be deemed sufficiently substantial to justify resort to abridgment of free speech and assembly as the means of protection. To reach sound conclusions on these matters, we must bear in mind why a state is, ordinarily, denied the power to prohibit dissemination of

1 social, economic and political doctrine which a vast majority of its citizens believes to be
2 false and fraught with evil consequence. [274 U.S. 357, 375] Those who won our
3 independence believed that the final end of the state was to make men free to develop their 4 faculties, and that in its government the deliberative forces should prevail over the 5 arbitrary. They valued liberty both as an end and as a means. They believed liberty to be 6 the secret of happiness and courage to be the secret of liberty. They believed that freedom to 7 think as you will and to speak [and educate] as you think are means indispensable to the 8 discovery and spread of political truth; that without free speech and assembly discussion 9 would be futile; that with them, discussion affords ordinarily adequate protection against 10 the dissemination of noxious doctrine; that the greatest menace to freedom is an inert 11 people; that public discussion [and education] is a political duty; and that this should be 12 a fundamental principle of the American government. 3 They recognized the risks to 13 which all human institutions are subject. But they knew that order cannot be secured 14 merely through fear of punishment for its infraction; that it is hazardous to discourage 15 thought, hope and imagination; that fear breeds repression; that repression breeds hate;
16 that hate menaces stable government; that the path of safety lies in the opportunity to 17 discuss [and educate other people about] freely supposed grievances and proposed 18 remedies; and that the fitting remedy for evil counsels is good ones. Believing in the 19 power of reason as applied through public discussion, they eschewed silence [274 U.S.
20 357, 376] coerced by law [or the IRS]-the argument of force in its worst form.
21 Recognizing the occasional tyrannies of governing majorities, they amended the 22 Constitution so that free speech and assembly should be guaranteed.”
23 Whitney v. California, [274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

24 Another purpose of our response letters is to point out violations of the law and the Constitution by public
25 servants, and the deception, unequal protection (hypocrisy), and tyranny that facilitates them. On this subject,
26 the Supreme Court has ruled the following, in support of this goal:

27 “In the First Amendment, the Founding Fathers gave the free press the protection it must 28 have to fulfill its essential role in our democracy. The press [and this religious ministry]
29 was to serve the governed, not the governors. The Government's power to censor the 30 press was abolished so that the press would remain forever free to censure the 31 Government. The press was protected so that it could bare the secrets of government and 32 inform the people. Only a free and unrestrained press can effectively expose deception
33 in government. And paramount among the responsibilities of a free press is the duty to 34 prevent any part of the government from deceiving the people and sending them off to 35 distant lands to die of foreign fevers and foreign shot and shell. In my view, far from 36 deserving condemnation for their courageous reporting, the New York Times, the 37 Washington Post, and other newspapers should be commended for serving the purpose that 38 the Founding Fathers saw so clearly. In revealing the workings of government that led to 39 the Vietnam war, the newspapers nobly did precisely that which the Founders hoped and 40 trusted they would do.”
41 New York Times Co. v. United States, [403 U.S. 713 (1970)]

42 The First Continental Congress was even more bold in approaching this situation. Below
43 is what they said on this subject, when they were protesting the imposition of taxation
44 without representation by the British in the original colonies:

45 “If money is wanted by Rulers who have in any manner oppressed the people, they may 46 retain it until their grievances are redressed, and thus peaceably procure relief, without 47 trusting to despised petitions or disturbing the public tranquility.”
48 [Continental Congress, 1774; Am. Pol., 233; [Journals of the Continental Congress,
49 October 26, 1774](#)]

50 In addition to the above, a major goal of our response letters is to prevent and prosecute unlawful activities by 51 others, such as those submitting false information returns. Any attempt by federal employees and officers to 52 interfere with creating or sending our response letters therefore constitutes obstructing justice, in criminal 53 violation of 18 U.S.C. §§1505 and 1510.

56 10.3 Ministry website contains false information

57 It is literally impossible for anything on the ministry website to be truthfully characterized as either false or fraudulent.

- 58 1. We identify everything on our website as religious beliefs and speech that are NOT factual or actionable or admissible 59 as evidence pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 610.

- 1 2. The characterization of speech is up to the SPEAKER and NOT the AUDIENCE. The essence of “owning” speech or 2 being responsible for it is the right to classify it’s nature and significance.
- 3 3. We tell everyone that they are not allowed to rely on what we say and should verify absolutely everything themselves 4 using only legally admissible evidence they have seen with their own two eyes.
- 5 4. We specifically identify not what We say as reliable but what the GOVERNMENT itself says you can rely upon in 6 forming a “reasonable belief” about your tax obligations, and nothing that either we say or the IRS says is in that list:
- Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 7 5. Most states have statutes that create a conclusive presumption that any witness who contradicts their own testimony is 8 automatically to be regarded as committing PERJURY. The government does this all the time and consequently, using 9 their own words and nothing more, it is obvious that they are not only LYING, but committing PERJURY in most of 10 their publications and forms and statements. Here is an example:

11 Code of Alabama
12 Section 13A-10-104

13 Perjury prosecution for inconsistent statements; highest degree of perjury for which conviction may be had.

14 (a) Where a person has made statements under oath which are inconsistent to the degree that one of them is 15 necessarily false, each having been made within the jurisdiction of this state and within the period of the statute
16 of limitations, the prosecution may proceed by setting forth the inconsistent statements in a single count
17 alleging in the alternative that one or the other was false and not believed by the defendant to have been true
18 when made. In such case, it shall not be necessary for the prosecution to prove which statement was false, but 19 only that one or the other was false and not believed by the defendant to be true.

20 (b) The highest degree of perjury of which the defendant may be convicted shall be determined by hypothetically
21 assuming each statement to be false and perjurious. If perjury of the same degree would be established by the 22 making of each statement, the accused may be convicted of that degree at most. If perjury of different degrees
23 would be established by the making of the two statements, the accused may be convicted of the lesser degree at 24 most.

33 BASIS FOR BELIEF

34 [. . .]

35 The materials on this site are not legal advice or legal opinions on any specific matters. Legal advice involves 36 applying the law to your specific and unique situation, which is your responsibility and not our responsibility.
37 Transmission of the information is not intended to create, and receipt does not constitute, a lawyer-client
38 relationship between the author(s) and the reader. The opinions and evidence appearing on this website are those 39 of the author(s), or the researcher(s) or content providers and the only authorized audience are those same
40 author(s) and researcher(s). You must validate and verify the accuracy of this information for yourself with your 41 own research, legal education, experience, and the advice of a competent legal and/or tax professional who is
42 NOT  licensed by a corrupted government to  gag them from telling you the truth and create a conflict of
43 interest. Readers should not act upon this information without first getting fully educated using the materials
44 provided here and elsewhere.

45 The ONLY sources which may be relied upon to completely and accurately represent the policies of the owner of 46 this website consist in the following:

47  Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

48 Members, users, and readers of this website, including government employees and officers, also stipulate and 49 agree to refuse to hold SEDM to a higher standard of accountability than the IRS or the government itself. The

1 IRS claims in section 4.10.7.2.8 of its own Internal Revenue Manual that you cannot rely on its publications,
2 which include its tax preparation forms. The courts have also said that you cannot rely on the IRS' telephone
3 support personnel or its Internal Revenue Manual. Therefore, SEDM shall not be held to a higher standard than
4 the IRS for its publications, statements, or actions, which include everything on this website and everything
5 delivered to our members, or for anything SEDM or any of its agents say or write or do. SEDM makes all the 6 same disclaimer statements about its publications, statements, support, and actions as the IRS, in fact, which
7 means they can have no liability for anything they do or produce. Click here for an article on this subject.

8 "Behold, the wicked brings forth iniquity;
9 Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood [in their publications and their phone support],
10 He made a pit and dug it out,
11 And has fallen into the ditch [this disclaimer] which he made.
12 His trouble shall return upon his own head,
13 And his violent dealing shall come down on his own [deceitful] crown."
14 [Psalm 7:14-16, Bible, NKJV]

15 Everything appearing on this website is based entirely on publications, forms, statements, laws, and regulations
16 published or made by the government. If you find that the information is erroneous, then you should be suing the 17 government, not us. Furthermore, we would appreciate you promptly notifying both us and the government of 18 their mistake so that both of us may prevent any harm from the government's mistake. Furthermore, if the 19 government wishes to sue or prosecute this ministry or its officers for exercising its first amendment rights, then
20 they MUST sue the principal, and not the agent. We are acting entirely and only as a fiduciary for God himself,
21 and so you need to sue God and not us for the statements and actions of this ministry in obedience to God's laws
22 and calling on this ministry, and doing so will cause you to prosecute yourself, not only because of the Copyright
23 License Agreement connected with all ministry materials, but also because you are tampering with federal 24 witnesses of extensive criminal activity by specific public servants.

25 We make no guarantees or promises or representations about the effectiveness of anything appearing on this
26 website, nor do we "profit" in any way from the information presented. This website is strictly offered as a 27 religious educational public service designed to:

- 28 1. Encourage the diligent study of and obedience to the word and the laws of God found in the Bible
- 29 2. Encourage freedom and liberty, which means promoting a much smaller and more limited federal 30 government than we have now.
- 31 3. Encourage self-government and self-reliance and completely eliminate any need for or dependence on 32 government. This way, people won't need the government or the law profession or lawyers to be involved 33 in their lives anymore.
- 34 4. Encourage the values that made this country great, including patriotism, faith in God, morality, personal 35 responsibility, and strong reliance on family.
- 36 5. Educate the reader about the federal and state statutes and regulations and about any conflicts these laws 37 might have with God's laws.
- 38 6. Ensure that both the reader and more importantly their government, obeys all laws and does not harm or 39 abuse those within or without the jurisdiction of the government.
- 40 7. Encourage people to be more involved in the political process.
- 41 8. Encourage an ethical and moral government that protects our God-given Constitutional rights.

48 I certify that the basis for my beliefs about legal tax liability does not include any of the flawed arguments
49 contained in the following:

57 <http://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/RebFalseArgSovereignty.pdf>

58 I understand that neither the ministry nor any of its officers, agents, employees, etc are authorized to:

1. Guarantee or infer any specific result by virtue of using the educational materials and/or services available to its members.
2. Share subjective opinions about the successfulness of using our materials.

The ministry makes every possible effort to ensure the accuracy, appropriateness and usefulness of its materials, processes, and services. However, it has no control over how public servants, who are carefully selected, trained, conditioned, and propagandized to ensure that they behave as malicious, malfeasant “useful idiots” not educated in the law, will respond to a petition for redress of grievances directed at remedying their illegal and injurious behavior. As a matter of fact, the minute they stop drinking the cult Kool-Aide and begin reading, learning and enforcing the law in their workplace is the minute they historically are fired, persecuted, and targeted for “selective enforcement”. Any guarantees of particular results by either the ministry or any agent, officer, or employee of the ministry should be regarded as fiction, untrustworthy, and unreliable as a bases for belief. The ONLY reasonable basis for belief about liability in the context of federal taxation that does not involve some form of “presumption”, and therefore violation of due process, are:

1. Enacted positive law from the Statutes at Large.
2. The Rulings of the Supreme Court and not lower courts.
3. The Constitution of the United States of America.

All other forms of evidence are simply “prima facie” and involve compelling the defendant to “presume” something, which violates not only due process, but is a religious sin according to Numbers 15:30, NKJV, and amounts to compelled participation in state-sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment. See the following link for further details on why the above are the only reasonable evidentiary bases for belief about my personal federal tax liability. No other sources of belief are acceptable to me until someone with delegated authority from the government proves to me with court-admissible evidence why any part of the document below is not consistent with prevailing law. For proof, see:

[Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf](http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf)

I also understand that all information contained on the ministry website originating from OTHER than government sources and which the courts themselves recognize as admissible evidence under the rules of evidence, along with any communications with, to, or about the author(s), website administrator, and owner(s) constitute religious speech and beliefs, and not facts. As such, nothing on the ministry website originating from their own opinions, beliefs, speech, writing, or testimony is susceptible to being false, misleading, or legally “actionable” in any manner. Since materials on the site spoken by the ministry and all communications associated with, to, or about it are religious speech and beliefs, none of it is admissible in any court of law pursuant to F.R.E. 610 unless accompanied by an affidavit from a specific person attesting to its truthfulness and accuracy, and such materials are only actionable to THAT SPECIFIC PERSON and no others in such a circumstance. Nothing on the ministry site other than the government’s OWN speech or publications can truthfully be classified as fact without violating the First Amendment rights of the publishers and author(s). It is provided for worship, law enforcement, education, enlightenment, and entertainment and for no other purpose. Any other use is an unauthorized use for which the author(s), website administrator(s), and owner(s) assume no responsibility or liability. Users assume full, exclusive and complete responsibility for any use beyond reading, education, and entertainment. The ministry must do it this way because this Member Agreement says that the ONLY thing readers or members can rely on as a basis for good belief is their own reading of what the law actually says.

There are only four exceptions to the above paragraph, listed below, each of which is admissible in its entirety as EVIDENCE and FACT in any court of law. This is in order to protect ministry officers and members from unlawful acts of persecution by a corrupted government.

10.4 Ministry’s “program” has hurt people

“When the government is wrong or corrupt, it’s dangerous to be right.”

This ministry has no “program”. A “program” implies a strictly commercial goal and advertising to attract “customers”. The ONLY customer of this religious ministry is God Himself. To call God a “customer” and to turn religion into a purely

1 commercial activity subject to regulation is to DISestablish a religion in violation of the First Amendment. Members are
2 never referred to as “customers”. Simply practicing our religion or teaching, learning, obeying, and enforcing the law cannot
3 truthfully or lawfully be described as either a “program” or a “commercial activity” subject to the jurisdiction of anyone in 4 the government. Our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016:

- 5 1. Forbids the use of our materials for a commercial purpose. See Section 4, Item 17.
- 6 2. Forbids use of our materials for an unlawful purpose. See Section 4.
- 7 3. Forbids use of our materials as a tax shelter or use by “taxpayers”, who are the only rational audience for a “tax shelter”.
8 See Section 4, Item 20.

9 “Tax shelter. A device used by a taxpayer to reduce or defer payment of taxes. Common forms of tax shelters
10 include: limited partnership interests, real estate investments which have deductions such as depreciation,
11 interest, taxes, etc. The Tax Reform Act of 1986 limited the benefits of tax shelters significantly by classifying
12 losses from such shelters as passive and ruling that passive losses can only offset passive income in arriving at 13 taxable income (with a few exceptions). Any excess losses are suspended and may be deducted in the year the 14 investment is sold or otherwise disposed of.”
15 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1462-1463]

- 16 4. Forbids us from preparing tax returns or assisting in the preparation of tax returns, which is a commercial activity. See 17 Section 4, Item 7.
- 18 5. Forbids us from taking any leadership role or rendering legal advice of any kind to anyone. See Section 4, Item 6.
- 19 6. Forbids us from offering credit repair or debt cancellation. See Section 4, Items 12 and 13.
- 20 7. Forbids us from offering investments or classes about investing. See Section 4, Item 20.
- 21 8. Forbids us to market or advertise. See Section 4, Item 10.
- 22 9. Forbids us from making any promises or assurances about the effectiveness of our materials. See Section 4, Item 8.

23 In addition, our Member Agreement, Form #01.001:

- 24 1. Establishes in Section 3 that the only basis for reliance is what enacted positive law actually says:
25

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability , Form #05.007 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 26 2. Forbids users of the materials from regarding anything on our website as factual or actionable speech. Instead, everything
27 on our website and everything we say and do is identified as NONfactual, NONactionable religious beliefs and opinions
28 that are not admissible as evidence pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 610. See Section 3.
- 29 3. Requires in Section 3 that any statement of any ministry member or officer to the contrary of our Member Agreement, 30 Form #01.001 is to be regarded as:
31 3.1. NONfactual fiction.
32 3.2. NONactionable.
33 3.3. Untrustworthy.
- 34 4. Requires that only those who agree to take complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all their choices and the 35 consequences of those choices may read or use our materials. Sovereignty begins with personal responsibility. See
36 Section 1.3.
- 37 5. Expressly states in Section 3 that only the following three things anywhere on our website are factual and reliable:
38 5.1. SEDM Disclaimer
<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>
39 5.2. SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
40 5.3. Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
41 5.4. SEDM Articles of Mission, Form #01.004
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
42

45 The above prohibitions are based on our own extensive study of the meaning of commercial speech and a desire to completely
46 avoid it. As long as speech is not factual and does not advocate “imminent lawless activity”, it is protected by the First
47 Amendment, even if it proposes a commercial transaction. For example, statements of pastors from the pulpit and politicians
48 during a campaign are protected, even though they advocate either “tithes” or “political contributions” and even if they are 49 FALSE, because they are NONfactual and therefore not admissible as evidence! See:

Our Ministry Bookstore requires that you cannot obtain anything from our store or complete the checkout process WITHOUT agreeing to the Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Users are warned THREE TIMES IN A ROW during the checkout process that they cannot obtain anything from our store without agreeing to our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. The question is what is left that could rationally or reasonably or lawfully be attacked by a government or law enforcement entity? In point of fact:

1. We don't guarantee and never have guaranteed anything about the information or services available on our website or through our ministry.
2. Whenever anyone asks us for our "opinion" on anything, we tell them it isn't worth the paper needed to flush it down the toilet and that we don't share subjective opinions. All we deal with is what the law says and how to locate what it says on any subject. See:

SEDM Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), Question 6.6
<http://sedm.org/FAQs/FAQs.htm>

3. You can't lawfully turn education and sharing NON-factual beliefs and opinions and religious dogma into a crime, without violating the Constitution.

"If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens by word or act their faith therein. If there are any circumstances which permit an exception, they do not now occur to us."
[West Virginia State Board of Education v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624, 63 S.Ct. 1178 (1943)]

"...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . ."
[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

"The American people have always regarded education and acquisition of knowledge as matters of supreme importance which should be diligently promoted [in order to maintain and protect their liberty]. The Ordinance of 1787 declares: 'Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness [and liberty] of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.'"
[Meyer v. State of Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923)]

4. You can't take what amounts to simply religious beliefs and opinions and convert them into factual, actionable speech against the wishes of the speaker without:
 - 4.1. Violating the First Amendment. The right to speak includes the right to defined the significance of what we say. Otherwise, it's not our speech and becomes the property and responsibility of the person who deliberately misconstrued it for their own personal benefit.
 - 4.2. Instituting slavery in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment. We aren't an insurance company if our beliefs are inconsistent with reality and it is slavery to force us to be one.
 - 4.3. Violating equal protection. The IRS isn't held accountable for anything they say and their disclaimer at Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 says you can't trust anything they say or print, so why are you applying a DIFFERENT standard to us? Furthermore, lets apply the same standard to every politician and convert his political promises into facts and sue him because he defrauded the government.
5. You can't turn worshipping your God and refusing to contract with or engage in commerce with the government into a crime.

"The doctrine is, that allegiance cannot be due to two sovereigns [God v. Government]; and taking an oath of allegiance [such as a perjury oath on a government form] to a new, is the strongest evidence of withdrawing allegiance from a previous, sovereign...."
[Talbot v. Janson, 3 U.S. 133 (1795); From the syllabus but not the opinion; SOURCE: http://www.law.cornell.edu/supct/search/display.html?terms=choice%20or%20conflict%20and%20law&url=/supt/html/historics/USSC_CR_0003_0133_ZS.html]

1 "God is a jealous God (compare Ex 20:5; 34:14; Deut 32:16; Zech 8:2; I Cor 10:22), and hence he will not
2 tolerate divided allegiance."
3 [Pfeiffer, C. F., & Harrison, E. F. 1962. The Wycliffe Bible commentary : New Testament . Moody Press:
4 Chicago; Commentary on James 4:5]

6 "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable
7 supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labour to subvert these great
8 Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally
9 with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with
10 private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, "where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if
11 the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of 12 justice?" And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion.
13 Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and
14 experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle.
15 George Washington, [Farewell Address]

16
17 Our society would be less than true to its heritage if it lacked abiding concern for the values of its young people,
18 and we acknowledge the profound belief of adherents to many faiths that there must be a place in the student's
19 life for precepts of a morality higher even than the law we today enforce. We express no hostility to those
20 aspirations, nor would our oath permit us to do so. A relentless and all-pervasive attempt to exclude religion
21 from every aspect of public life could itself become inconsistent with the Constitution. See Abington School
22 District, supra, at 306 (Goldberg, J., concurring).

23 [. . .]

24 Nearly half a century of review and refinement of Establishment Clause jurisprudence has distilled one clear
25 understanding: Government may neither promote nor affiliate itself with any religious doctrine or
26 organization, nor may it obtrude itself in the internal affairs of any religious institution. The application of 27 these principles to the present case mandates the decision reached today by the Court.

28 [. . .]

29 The mixing of government and religion can be a threat to free government, even if no one is forced to
30 participate. When the government puts its imprimatur on a particular religion, it conveys a message of exclusion
31 to all those who do not adhere to the favored beliefs.{9} A government cannot [505 U.S. 607] be premised on the 32 belief that all persons are created equal when it asserts that God prefers some. Only "[a]nquish, hardship and
33 bitter strife" result "when zealous religious groups struggl[e] with one another to obtain the Government's stamp
34 of approval." Engel, 370 U.S. at 429; see also Lemon, 403 U.S. at 622-623; Aguilar v. Felton, 473 U.S. 402, 416
35 (1985) (Powell, J., concurring).{10} Such a struggle can "strain a political system to the breaking point." Walz
36 v. Tax Commission, 397 U.S. 664, 694 (1970) (opinion of Harlan, J.).

37 When the government arrogates to itself a role in religious affairs, it abandons its obligation as guarantor of
38 democracy. Democracy requires the nourishment of dialogue and dissent, while religious faith puts its trust in
39 an ultimate divine authority above all human deliberation. When the government appropriates religious truth,
40 it "transforms rational debate into theological decree." Nuechterlein, Note, The Free Exercise Boundaries of
41 Permissible Accommodation Under the Establishment Clause, 99 Yale L.J. 1127, 1131 (1990) . Those who 42 disagree no longer are questioning the policy judgment of the elected but the rules of a higher authority who is
43 beyond reproach. [505 U.S. 608]

44 It is these understandings and fears that underlie our Establishment Clause jurisprudence. We have believed that
45 religious freedom cannot exist in the absence of a free democratic government, and that such a government
46 cannot endure when there is fusion between religion and the political regime. We have believed that religious
47 freedom cannot thrive in the absence of a vibrant religious community, and that such a community cannot prosper
48 when it is bound to the secular. And we have believed that these were the animating principles behind the adoption
49 of the Establishment Clause. To that end, our cases have prohibited government endorsement of religion, its
50 sponsorship, and active involvement in religion, whether or not citizens were coerced to conform.

52 If people are being hurt by using our materials or trying to blame us for the result, we allege that one of the following things
53 has happened:

- 54 1. They are using our materials in violation of the Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and are Members in Bad Standing 55 because:

1 1.1. They relied on our materials instead of reading the law themselves and independently reaching their own informed
2 conclusions. They are therefore violating section 7 of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. See also:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3 1.2. They refuse to take responsibility for their own education and choices, even though they agreed to do so in the 4 SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001.

- 5 2. They are a victim of illegal enforcement by the government and should consider litigating to defend rights that have been 6 violated.
- 7 3. They are a mole from the government who wants to discredit us to perpetuate the illegal enforcement of the Internal 8 Revenue Code, Subtitle A outside its jurisdiction.
- 9 4. Either their lawyer or their judge has a criminal conflict of interest in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §455, and/or 10 28 U.S.C. §144 because they are “taxpayers” and therefore are incapable of rendering a just decision which is entirely 11 consistent with the written law. See:

What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 12 5. They have not done enough homework to properly defend themselves. Their own legal ignorance has made them prey
13 for vultures and government parasites:

14 “One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination.”
15 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

16 “This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you
17 may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then
18 you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor
19 be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”
20 [Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV,
21 IMPLICATION: If you aren't reading and trying to obey God's law daily, then you're not doing God's will and 22 you will not prosper]

23 “But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed.”
24 [John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

25 “Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your [God's] statutes.”
26 [Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

27 “Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract [or enters into a franchise, which is also
28 a contract] with an officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a
29 violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law.”
30 [Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

- 31 6. They have added any one of the following forbidden flawed arguments to their administrative correspondence or 32 litigation and thereby discredited themselves and invited the harm:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 Reasons why our own written materials or statement obtained through our website should not be relied upon and why the 34 ONLY reasonable basis for belief is enacted positive law on the subject are further described later in section 10.3.

35 Lastly, if you are either in the government or are a Member and you are considering suing us because you:

- 36 1. Falsely think our website is both factual AND false.
37 2. Believe that using our materials hurt you and you blame us for it.
38 3. Think that our materials violate the law.

39 . . .then you are cautioned that our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 also contains a Copyright/Software/License Agreement
40 that makes you into the Substitute Defendant and makes you liable for damages to the person you sue in the ministry, whether 41 they are another Member or a ministry officer. Once again, our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 FORCES you to take
42 complete, exclusive, and personal responsibility for all your actions and choices. It also punishes those who try to deflect
43 responsibility for those choices onto anyone else. Sovereignty BEGINS with personal responsibility.

1 If you don't want to take personal responsibility for all your choices and actions and insist on someone ELSE to blame by
2 FORCING someone else at the point of a government gun and without compensation to take responsibility for your own
3 ignorant, irresponsible, and presumptuous actions and choices, then go back to your comfortable government cage making
4 bricks for Pharaoh without compensation and please, just shut up, go away, and quit using our materials. You're a
5 contemptible, lazy, irresponsible fool and an idiot.

6 *"The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy [or irresponsible] man will be put to forced [government]
7 labor [as an "employee" or "public officer"]."*
8 [Prov. 12:24, Bible, NKJV]

9 We're tired of your victim mentality, your irresponsibility, your whining, and your pagan idol worship of government as a
10 god. That kind of mentality, in fact, is the cause of most of the ills currently facing our society. See:

33 We do not do anything for money. The sole purpose of this website is to worship, glorify, and serve our Lord Jesus Christ
34 and not any vain man or political ruler. For instance:

- 35 1. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 forbids us to offer services or help to those who are NOT believers in God or 36 members.
37 <https://sedm.org/Membership/MemberAgreement.pdf>
- 38 2. Our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 Prohibited Activities forbids members to use our materials for 39 a commercial purpose.
40 <https://sedm.org/Forms/01-General/TermsOfUseAndService.pdf>
- 41 3. Nowhere on our website are the phrases "customer" found except in the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001,
42 Section 1.1, Item 9.9, which defines "customer" as God ONLY.
43 <https://sedm.org/Membership/MemberAgreement.pdf>
- 44 4. Nowhere on the site is the term "product" used to describe anything we offer.
- 45 5. We never refer to ourselves as a business or a STATUTORY "trade or business" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26),
46 but rather a religious ministry. All of our members and members of a religious order, and the U.S. Supreme Court has 47 held that no government may interfere with the affairs internal to the administration of a religion. See Serbian E.
48 Orthodox Diocese v. Milivojevich, 426 U.S. 696, 708–09, 724–25, 96 S.Ct. 2372, 49 L.Ed.2d. 151 (1976).

6. When people ask us about the effectiveness of our materials, we tell them our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 Prohibited Activities forbids us from offering promises or assurances about anything and that they should never construe anything we say as a promise or assurance or even a fact of any kind.
<https://sedm.org/Forms/01-General/TermsOfUseAndService.pdf>
7. Amounts listed in our bookstore indicate “donation” and not “price”.
8. Nowhere on our website can be found the phrase “tax freedom”.
9. We are forbidden by our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4 Prohibited Activities from getting involved in the following commercial activities:
 - 9.1. Debt cancellation.
 - 9.2. Preparing or advising in the preparation of tax returns for others.
 - 9.3. Credit repair.
 - 9.4. Creating or administering asset protection vehicles for others.
 - 9.5. Commerce within the legislative jurisdiction of the government.
10. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 establishes that the ONLY authorized use to which our materials can be put is:
 - 10.1. To learn and enforce the law against all those who would injure our Constitutionally protected rights.
 - 10.2. To petition the government for a redress of grievances resulting from unlawful injuries to our rights.

Evidence supporting the above found on our website includes but is not limited to the following:

1. SEDM Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs), Question 0.1:

Your question reveals that you may be unwilling to allow yourself to be weak and vulnerable, and thereby exercise faith in God instead of trusting man/mammon/government. Do you not want to trust God or give God any room to operate in your life? Do you not want to carry the cross of Jesus as He requires of you in Matt. 10:34-39? It sounds to us like you may want insurance, not salvation or education. Click here (OFFSITE LINK) for an article on this subject. If that is the case, you need faith and trust in God, not help from us. Is Jesus your Savior and indemnification from the liability for Hell but NOT your Lord and the object of your supreme allegiance and worship/obedience? Jesus isn't your Sovereign Lord and He isn't above all the other idols you worship unless you are willing to risk persecution, pain, financial loss in obedience to Him and thereby forsake your other idols. In that case, you are worshipping a false religion and we don't want you in this ministry. How can God show His face if you give Him no room to work miracles in your life? Jesus said in Matt. 6:25-34 not to worry about tomorrow, and you seem worried. That kind of fear is of the devil, not the Lord.

*"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things [security, prosperity, and protection] shall be added to you."
[\[Matt. 6:33, Bible, NKJV\]](#)*

If Jesus had only looked on His ministry based on the personal or financial benefit to Him and not others, do you think we would still be hearing about and reading about and following Him today? Instead, when the money changers took over the Ministry, he was furious.

*"But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows."
[\[1 Tim. 6:9-10, Bible, NKJV\]](#)*

*Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice, behold, I have done according to your words; see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you. And I have also given you what you have not asked: both riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings [Sovereigns] all your days. So if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."
[\[1 Kings 3:11-14, Bible, NKJV\]](#)*

And when one of the Apostles proposed to abuse the power of God to earn money, he was strongly rebuked, just as we rebuke all those who pursue this ministry for the sake of money.

*And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

1 But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because you thought that the gift of God could be
2 purchased with money! You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight
3 of God. Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be
4 forgiven you. For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity."

5 Then Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which 6 you have spoken may come upon me."
7 [Acts 8:18-24, Bible, NKJV]

8 SEDM is a Ministry, a religious Fellowship, and an activism group. People can't and don't join bona-fide,
9 legitimate religious ministries for selfish or economic reasons, but exclusively for spiritual reasons. The only
10 legitimate spiritual reason identified in the Bible and the one mentioned in the Ten Commandments is love and 11 obedience to God. The Bible Book of Ecclesiastes says "this is man's all".

12 "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

13 Fear God and keep His commandments,
14 For this is man's all.
15 For God will bring every work into judgment,
16 Including every secret thing,
17 Whether good or evil."
18 [Ecc. 12:13-14, Bible, NKJV]

19 Your question erroneously and maliciously presupposes that we are a business or government 501\(c\)\(3\)
20 corporation focused on "customer service" like all the other corrupted churches out there that are selling their
21 sheep to the government for twenty pieces of silver by lying to them about the proper relationship of Christians
22 and churches to government. We are not a "business", nor do we sell anything. We don't do this for money. We 23 aren't man pleasers and we don't have any "customers" or do any advertising. We are ONLY God pleasers. God
24 is our only "customer".

25 "Now therefore, fear the LORD, serve [ONLY] Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away
26 the gods [and totalitarian socialist governments] which your fathers served on the other
27 side of the River and in Egypt. [as SLAVES and] Serve the LORD!
28 [Joshua 24:14, Bible, NKJV]

29 If you read the words of Jesus in the New Testament, you will find that the only people that He ever criticized or 30 got angry at were the Pharisees and the lawyers, and He did so precisely because they were man pleasers instead
31 of God pleasers (see Luke 11:37-54). We don't ever want to be the object of that kind of condemnation or ridicule
32 from our Lord and ONLY King, Lawgiver, and Judge. The only "benefit" of membership is eternal salvation
33 through faith, love and trust in God, and obedience of God's laws. According to Jesus Christ, obedience to God's 34 laws is the essence of how we love and honor ONLY Him. See John 14:21, 1 John 4:16, 1 John 2:3-6. If love for 35 the Father and humble obedience to His Holy laws as His steward and fiduciary isn't a worthy and satisfactory
36 SOLE reason to join this ministry, then you are a lukewarm Christian and we vomit you out of our mouth and our 37 Ministry and cast you into outer darkness as Jesus did in Rev. 3:16, and as the host did at the parable of the 38 marriage supper to all who were invited but either refused to come or came dressed improperly (see Matt. 22:1- 39 14):

40 "So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My 41 mouth."
42 [Rev. 3:16, Bible, NKJV]

43 You're a hypocrite if you expect your public servants to obey and honor you as their Master and Sovereign if you
44 won't do the same thing and honor God as your King, Lawgiver, and Judge. Please don't try to commercialize
45 and denigrate us by connecting us with filthy lucre or bringing your own private agenda, commerce, and money
46 changing inside our Ministry doors.

47 "Feed the flock of God which is among you [as ministers to them and with God's pure and 48 holy knowledge and wisdom], taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint [or 49 compulsion], but willingly; not for filthy lucre [money], but of a ready mind;

50 Neither as being lords [tyrants] over God's heritage [or His flock or people], but being 51 [good] examples to the flock.

52 And when the chief Shepherd [God] shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that 53 fadeth not away."
54 [1 Peter 5:2-4, Bible, KVJ]

1 If you were of the Father and the Father was in you, you wouldn't even be asking the above question. The Bible
2 says in John 10:7-21 that the sheep in the flock that is this ministry will recognize their Father's voice if they are
3 His. Do you recognize the voice of the Father in the doctrine and teachings of this ministry and more importantly,
4 are you willing to obey the Father's call to do justice and love mercy and walk humbly before Him (Micah 6:8)
5 as the main goal of your life? If not, then please go back to your comfortable government cage, and waste away
6 the rest of what we believe God will end up judging (Rev. 20:11-15) as an irresponsible and hedonistic life in
7 government employment rearranging deck chairs on the sinking Titanic. In the meantime, we'll sit here patiently
8 building Noah's Spiritual Ark and filling it with God's treasures of wisdom, discretion, and knowledge while we
9 are ridiculed by nonbelievers and lukewarm Christians around us, all of whom will eventually be drowned by
10 their own indifference (OFFSITE LINK) to the evil that is eventually going to engulf and destroy all that makes
11 life worth living and all the liberties and freedoms we hold so dear. Our prayers are with you in your own quest
12 for truth, justice, and a small, accountable, lawful, and responsible limited government.

14 2. SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 1:

15 1.3 Obligations of Members

16 The only thing I will use the services, materials, education, or information provided by the ministry for is to 17 worship, serve, and glorify my Creator above every man, ruler, law, or government and to Petition the 18 Government for a Redress of Grievances of wrongs against my life, liberty, property, and family that violate either
19 the Creator's Sovereign Laws or man's laws. This is an exercise of my religious faith and my right to Petition
20 the Government that is protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America. The 21 Constitutional Right to Petition is described in The Right To Petition, Form #05.049. Regarding these lawful 22 purposes and goals which cannot be lawfully subjected to any unconstitutional penalty including a "Bill of 23 Attainder", I agree to the following obligations of membership:

24 1. I agree to follow the following procedure for restoring and defending my sovereign status:
25 Path to Freedom, Form #09.015
26 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

27 2. I will not bring reproach upon this ministry by using any ministry materials or services for commercial or 28 financial reasons. Instead, I will consistently describe my motivations as being exclusively spiritual, moral,
29 legal, and religious. For instance, I will not use ministry materials or services in connection with any of the 30 following:

- 31 2.1. Mortgage cancellation.
- 32 2.2. Debt cancellation.
- 33 2.3. Bills of exchange used in paying off tax debts.
- 34 2.4. 1099OIDs.
- 35 2.5 Using the "straw man" commercially to benefit anyone but its owner, which is the government. The 36 "straw man" is a creation of and property of the government, and I acknowledge that it is stealing from the 37 government to use their property, which is public property, for my own private benefit. I seek to abandon the 38 straw man, not hijack him to steal from the government:
39 Proof That There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042;http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm.
40 For the reasons for all the above, see:
41 Policy Document: UCC Redemption, Form #08.002; http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm.

42 3. I agree and commit to diligently educate myself by regularly reading and studying the word of God.

43 4. I agree to regularly study, learn, and obey man's law and to use that knowledge to ensure that our public
44 servants remain accountable to us, who are the true sovereigns and "governing authorities" within our system
45 of Republican government. I will do this by reading or viewing the free sources of enacted law found on the 46 ministry website and especially the Liberty University. The purpose of reading or viewing these materials is so
47 that I can learn how to love and protect my neighbor out of obedience to the last six commandments of the Ten
48 Commandments.

49 "And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws of both [God and man], and shalt shew them the way wherein
50 they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do."
51 [Exodus 18:20, Bible, KJV]

52 "The words 'people of the United States' and 'citizens,' are synonymous terms, and mean the same thing. They
53 both describe the political body who, according to our republican institutions, form the sovereignty, and who
54 hold the power and conduct the government through their representatives. They are what we familiarly call the 55 'sovereign people,' and every citizen is one of this people, and a constituent member of this sovereignty. ..."
56 [Boyd v. State of Nebraska, 143 U.S. 135 \(1892\)]

57 5. I agree to help educate all the consenting people I know and come in contact with about everything that I learn
58 by reading and studying God's laws and man's laws and participating in the ministry.
59

1 6. I agree and commit to defend the credibility and integrity of the fellowship, ministry, and every member by
2 promptly contacting the ministry in writing via the Contact Us page if or when I find anything that is either
3 erroneous or inconsistent with the law so that it may be promptly corrected. If I don't, and if I am a government
4 employee, officer, or agent, then I become a Member in Bad Standing.

5 7. I agree to financially support this religious ministry through free will offerings. This is so that the fellowship
6 may continue to serve and glorify God by helping set the captives everywhere free from their slavery to sin by 7 means of Truth, education, and tools for defending the sovereignty that comes only from God.

8 8. I will speak and act in a manner consistent with all the policy documents published by the ministry in section
9 1.8 of the Forms/Pubs page (<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>).

10 9. I will stop making any presumptions about what the law requires which means I will stop believing or saying
11 anything that I haven't proven for myself by reading the law. I will stop believing what others tell me about 12 what the law requires and rely ONLY on legally admissible evidence in reaching my own informed beliefs and 13 conclusions. I recognize that this is the most important way that I can:

14 9.1 Protect the credibility and success of the freedom movement.

15 9.2 Protect the credibility and success of the ministry.

16 9.3 Protect my own credibility and prevent me from being called "frivolous".

17 9.4 Prevent the legal profession and/or the government from becoming a state-sponsored civil religion in 18 violation of the First Amendment. See Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016. For the 19 reasons why, see: Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017.

20 I understand that being able to defend the sovereignty that God gave me when He created me requires me to be 21 willing and able to do the following:

22 1. Educate myself and trust what I learn as education is primary to understanding and properly following the 23 law.

24 2. Refuse to accept the vain, self-serving edicts of a judges or lawyers to tell me what the law says. Most of them
25 have illegal conflicts of interest in violation of 28 U.S.C. §144, 28 U.S.C. §455, and 18 U.S.C. §208. I will instead
26 read the facts and law for myself and reach my own conclusions because this is the ONLY way that self-
27 government is even realistically possible.

28 3. As a free moral agent, I take complete and personal and exclusive responsibility for myself in all aspects of my 29 conclusions and decisions as a result of my educational pursuits. I must take exclusive and personal responsibility
30 for myself because the tyranny we face on the part of the government at present was created mainly by the 31 government exploiting the weakness or men and women to evade responsibility. Our public servants have 32 invidiously and covertly corrupted the morals of the people by exploiting this weakness.

33 4. Apply what I have learned about the law to my specific situation and then to confidently challenge those who
34 would question my conclusions. For instance, I might demand their presentment of Implementing Regulations
35 published in the Federal Register to demonstrate the law and the facts properly and correctly.

36 5. Insist that those in government service are not above the law but are properly mere servants to their Master,
37 We The People. For example, servants must carry the Burden of Proof for any accusation and it must be reliable,
38 probative, and substantial, such as an Implementing Regulation published in the Federal Register
39 accomplishes. See Proof of Claim: Your Main Defense Against Government Greed and Corruption, Form
40 #09.073.

43 3. SEDM Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016, Section 4: Prohibited Activities:

44 4. Prohibited Activities

45 As a Member, I agree never to use any of the Ministry materials or services for an unlawful purpose, and agree
46 never at any time to solicit the Ministry to engage in any of the following specifically prohibited activities or use
47 Ministry materials for any of the following purposes.

48 [. . .]

49 5. Preparing tax returns for others or advising anyone in the preparation of returns. All our members prepare
50 their own returns, and the only type of return they are allowed to prepare and not violate our Member Agreement,
51 Form #01.001 is a 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ return that has no tax liability listed.

8. Advertising or marketing. All of our nontaxpayer members will be introduced by referrals from satisfied Members and through hits on our public website. We will not offer any kind of affiliate program or commission structure to anyone, because we believe this compromises the integrity of our message.

[...]

9. Offering Credit repair services of any kind.

10. Debt cancellation using the UCC or bogus securities such as use of "Bills of Exchange".

[...]

12. Creating or administering asset protection vehicles for members, such as trusts or corporations soles.

[...]

14. Commerce within the legislative jurisdiction of the United States government. All donations to this religious ministry will occur via eCommerce on a webserver and using bank account(s) that are outside the country.

[...]

20. Offering any kind of investment, classes about investing, or "tax shelters" based on anything available on this website.

4. SEDM Forums interchange with someone who wanted to know about debt cancellation information on the website. They cancelled their membership when they found out we don't offer it because this was the ONLY thing they were interested in, and it was purely commercial. We told them they weren't qualified for a member account and were in violation of our Terms of Use and Service, Form #01.016.

SEDM Forum 8.1 About Membership, the Benefits of membership, or the Effectiveness of Our Materials

10.6 Ministry advocates "tax shelters" or "abusive tax promotions"

This ministry does not advocate, endorse, or promote any kind of tax shelter or abusive promotion.

1. None of the purposes of this website are commercial and those who intend to use our materials for a commercial purpose are discouraged from joining and rebuked strongly.
2. We aren't allowed to advertise or make promises about the effectiveness of anything we offer.
3. Our website warns readers that none of our materials are intended or authorized for use as a "tax shelter".

In support of the above, see the following resources on our website:

1. SEDM Forms/Pubs Page:

WARNING: The forms on this page are not intended as a "silver bullet" and they come with no guarantee. You SHOULD NOT send any of these materials to anyone in the government, the courts, or the legal profession unless and until you have downloaded and read our Path to Freedom, Form #09.015 and accomplished up to Step 14 of Section 2 and have become a Member of our fellowship in full compliance with our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. All of the forms listed here PRESUPPOSE that those who use and submit them are in full compliance with our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Those who are not in compliance would have to commit perjury under penalty of perjury in signing and submitting these forms. Information and materials available through this website are not intended, recommended, or authorized for use as:

1. A substitute for your own diligent and committed study of the law.
2. A crutch to help you permanently avoid studying or learning the law.
3. Legal or tax advice or an insurance policy to divert any portion of the responsibility for your choice to use them away from you or onto anyone else but you.
4. A tool to facilitate violations of law.

1 5. A "tax shelter" within the meaning of any revenue law. A "tax shelter" is a device used to reduce the liability
2 of a statutory "taxpayer", and those who are "taxpayers" may obtain but may not "use" our tax materials in 3 interacting with members of the legal profession or government.

5 2. SEDM About Us Page, Section 8: Prohibited Activities:

6 8. Prohibited Activities

7 Neither Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM) nor any of the Ministry officers, or Volunteers are 8 authorized to involve themselves in any of the following activities, because they are of questionable character or 9 may easily be misconstrued in a court of law as being either illegal or crassly commercial, even if they in fact are 10 not. Pursuant to the SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Fellowship Members also agree never to use
11 any of the Ministry materials or services for an unlawful purpose, and agree never at any time to solicit the 12 Ministry to engage in any of the following specifically prohibited activities or use Ministry materials for any of 13 the following purposes.

14 [. . .]

15 6. Making any promises or assurances about either the accuracy or the success of any of the educational
16 resources or processes we offer. Anyone who promises you ANY result or promises you entirely error free material
17 is quite frankly a presumptuous FOOL. This is especially true in a field so deliberately and systematically
18 obfuscated and propagandized by the government as taxation. The most we are therefore authorized to do is keep 19 scientific statistics on the success of our methods and reveal those carefully maintained statistics to interested
20 parties. The ministry DOES NOT authorize ANYONE to share subjective opinions about the effectiveness of our 21 methods or materials. Any such representations by anyone associated with or involved with SEDM should be
22 considered unauthorized, untrustworthy, and probably UNTRUE and neither we nor anyone in the ministry
23 assume any liability for such clearly false statements. The one and only thing we can guarantee is that we as 24 believers in God (whatever God you believe in) are going to be persecuted by evil people in the world, just as 25 Jesus was, for obeying God's moral laws and following Jesus' example. The persecution will come because our
26 actions, our example, and our deeds to expose the Truth will be a silent reproach and mockery to evil people
27 throughout the world, and especially in places where such evil people congregate and concentrate, such as in 28 government. Places where power is consolidated and centralized attract WICKED people who lust for power 29 and who want to conceal knowledge of their treacherous, selfish, and tyrannical acts.

30 "He who believes in Him [Jesus, the Son of God] is not condemned ; but he who does not
31 believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten
32 Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that the light [of God's Truth spread by His 33 followers] has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because 34 their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to 35 the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light,
36 that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."
37 [John 3:18-21, Bible]

38 Furthermore, the more we attempt to separate ourselves from evil people or evil in government and the more
39 dogmatic we become about insisting on obeying God's moral laws when they conflict with man's laws, the more
40 these evil people will try to persecute us, just as they did with the early Jews.

41 "Look, I am sending you out as sheep among [government] wolves. Be as wary as snakes
42 and harmless as doves. But beware! For you will be handed over to the [corrupted] courts 43 [by licensed attorneys with a conflict of interest] and beaten in the 44 synagogues[501(c)(3) churches]. And you must stand trial before governors and kings
45 [and federal judges, who are the equivalent of modern-day Monarchs] because you are my 46 followers. This will be your opportunity to tell them about me—yes, to witness to the world.
47 When you are arrested [by the federal MAFIA because you threaten their organized 48 crime ring], don't worry about what to say in your defense, because you will be given the 49 right words at the right time. For it won't be you doing the talking—it will be the Spirit
50 of your Father speaking through you.

51 "Brother will betray brother to death, fathers will betray their own children [by aborting
52 them or selling them into federal slavery by giving them Socialist Security Numbers, the 53 "badge of allegiance to the Beast", and by falsely claiming they are statutory "U.S.
54 citizens" on their tax returns], and children will rise against their parents [using Child
55 Protective Services] and cause them to be killed [or persecuted by a zealous state eager to 56 justify its existence and expand its jurisdiction at the expense of our sovereignty and 57 Constitutional Rights]. And everyone [and especially misbehaving public DIS-servants]
58 will hate you [and persecute you illegally and unconstitutionally] because of your 59 [exclusive] allegiance to me [God]. But those who endure [and expose the Truth] to the

1 end will be saved [and thereby prevent eternal harm at the price of temporary earthly
2 discomfort]. When you are persecuted in one town, flee to the next. I assure you that I, the 3 Son of Man, will return before you have reached all the towns of Israel.

4 "A student is not greater than the teacher. A [public] servant is not greater than the 5 [Sovereign American] master. The student [us] shares the teacher's [Jesus'] fate. The 6 servant [believers and followers of God] shares the master's [Jesus'] fate. And since I, the 7 master of the household, have been called the prince of demons, how much more will it
8 happen to you, the members of the household! But don't be afraid of those [thieves and 9 tyrants masquerading as "public servants"] who threaten you. For the time is coming 10 when everything will be revealed [and evil punished at the final judgment]; all that is 11 secret will be made public. What I tell you now in the darkness, shout [from websites like 12 this one] abroad when daybreak comes. What I whisper in your ears, shout from the 13 housetops for all to hear [and on websites like this one that are outside of government
14 jurisdiction]!

15 "Don't be afraid of those who want to kill you. They can only kill your body; they cannot 16 touch your soul. Fear [and obey] only God [and His laws, not the government's unless 17 they are consistent with God's laws], who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Not 18 even a sparrow, worth only half a penny, can fall to the ground without your Father
19 knowing it. And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are 20 more valuable to him than a whole flock of sparrows."
21 Jesus in [Matt. 10:16-31, Bible, New Living Translation]

3 10.7 Ministry is for “tax protesters”, “tax deniers”, and/or “tax defiers”

4 Those who are “tax protesters”, “tax deniers”, and/or “tax defiers” are discouraged from becoming members of this ministry,
5 and if they join, they become “Members in Bad Standing”. We do not protest, deny, or defy “taxes” as legally defined.
6 Instead:

- 7 1. We think that everyone who consumes government services should pay for everything they consume. Any other 8 approach is theft.
- 9 2. We believe that everyone should have the right NOT to be a consumer of any government service and the right to not 10 pay for services they refuse to accept. Any other approach constitutes slavery, racketeering, and an anti-trust monopoly
11 and turns the government into a “protection racket”.

12 Invito beneficium non datur. No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69.
13 But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

- 22 3. We believe that most of what the government does, with very few exceptions, should be subject to privatization and 23 competition to ensure that there is choice and efficiency in the marketplace. The government should not have a monopoly
24 on protection or “social insurance” of any kind. Otherwise, the government is violating the Sherman Anti-trust act. If it
25 is a real de jure government, then everyone must be treated equally and it cannot exempt itself from its own laws:

26 *“Decency, security, and liberty alike demand that government officials shall be subjected to the same rules of
27 conduct that are commands to the citizen. In a government of laws, existence of the government will be imperiled*
28 *if it fails to observe the law scrupulously. Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or
29 for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker,
30 it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy. To declare*
31 that in the administration of the criminal law the end justifies the means-to declare that the government may
32 commit crimes in order to secure the conviction of a private criminal-would bring terrible retribution. Against
33 that pernicious doctrine this court should resolutely set its face.”
34 [\[Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438 \(1928\)\]](#)

- 35 4. We have developed a method to privatize government services and compete with the government to eliminate its 36 monopoly. The following document describes our approach:

39 Admonition

- 40 • If you are using government services, then you should pay for everything you use
- 41 • Don’t pay your “fair share”, pay what the law says you owe and nothing more. “Fair share” is too
42 subjective and when used as a criteria in court, politicizes and corrupts the courts
- 43 • The following persons are irresponsible and thieves:
 - 44 – Those who don’t pay for all the services they use
 - 45 – Those who collect more from an unwilling “taxpayer” than is necessary to pay for the services they 46 use
 - 47 – Those who collect anything from a person who does not want or does not need government services
48 and who refuses to declare a domicile within the jurisdiction of the state. See:

1 Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002

2 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 3 • Your public DIS-servants selfishly only concern themselves with the FIRST of the three items above. We
- 4 ensure they worry about ALL of the items above, because if they don't, THEY and not you are the thief
- 5 • If you are going to use the information in this presentation to lawfully avoid taxes, you should also agree to
- 6 stop using the government services that they pay for. This is the only way to be a responsible American and
- 7 avoid burdening or hurting your neighbor
- 8 • We believe that those who do not wish to contribute anything to the tax system should always have a lawful
- 9 option to "divorce the state" and refuse to accept government services or the obligations that go with them.
- 10 This is what it means to live in a free country.
- 11 • Government is a corporation, and like any other corporation, we should have a right NOT to do business
- 12 with them. See 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A). To admit otherwise, is to admit that the government can compel
- 13 you to contract with them in violation of Article 1, Section 10 of the U.S. Constitution

10.8 Ministry believes the Internal Revenue Code is unconstitutional

We do NOT ever say that the Internal Revenue Code is unconstitutional. Instead, we claim that the way it is MISREPRESENTED and MISENFORCED by the IRS, the DOJ, and the courts is clearly, chronically, and grossly false, fraudulent, illegal and violates the constitutional rights if it is illegally enforced outside of the U.S. government or against private parties not domiciled on federal territory.

For evidence supporting the above statement, see:

1. SEDM About Us Page, Section 1: What and Who are We?

We are not "tax protesters", "tax defiers", or "tax deniers". As a matter of fact, those who have such motivations are discouraged from becoming Members of our ministry and if they become members are "Members in Bad Standing". We do not challenge the lawfulness or Constitutionality of any part of the Internal Revenue Code or any state revenue code and we believe that these codes are completely Constitutional as written and when correctly applied to federal territory, domiciliaries, and franchises ONLY pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. HOWEVER, we also believe that the way they are willfully MISREPRESENTED to the American public, and the way they are MALADMINISTERED by the IRS, state revenue agencies, and the courts are willfully and maliciously deceptive and in many cases grossly illegal and injurious. If these revenue codes were truthfully represented and faithfully administered completely consistent with what they say, and more importantly their legislative intent and the Constitution, we believe that there would be almost NO "taxpayers". The only reason there are "taxpayers" is because most Americans have been maliciously and deliberately deceived by public servants about their true nature and the very limited audience of people who are their only proper subject. Our enemy is not the government, the IRS, or even taxes, but instead is all the following techniques for introducing collectivism into an otherwise free society:

1. Legal ignorance on the part of Americans that allows public servants to abuse their authority and violate the law. We have met the enemy, and it is our own ignorance of the law.

"One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination."
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

"But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed."
[John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

"Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your statutes."
[Psalms 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

"Every man is supposed to know the law. A party who makes a contract [or enters into a franchise, which is also a contract] with an officer [of the government] without having it reduced to writing is knowingly accessory to a violation of duty on his part. Such a party aids in the violation of the law."
[Clark v. United States, 95 U.S. 539 (1877)]

2. The abuse of presumption to injure the rights of sovereign Americans, in violation of due process of law and God's law found in Numbers 15:30 (NKJV). Much of this presumption is compelled by the government by willfully dumbing-down the average American about legal subjects in the public (government) schools. This makes the legal profession into essentially a "priesthood" and a pagan "religion" that the average American blindly worships and obeys, without ever questioning authority. It is a supreme injustice to proceed against a person without every conclusion being based ONLY on fact and not presumption, opinion, or belief. Click here for a detailed article on this scam and sin.

"But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people."
[Numbers 15:30, Bible, NKJV]

2 than proven with evidence] against him, this is not due process of law [in fact, it is the
3 OPPOSITE of due process]."
4 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 500]

5
6 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests:

7 A conclusive presumption may be defeated where its application would impair a party's
8 constitutionally-protected liberty or property interests. In such cases, conclusive

17 an article on this subject.

18 5. Willful omissions from government websites and publications that keep the public from hearing the whole
19 truth. The problem is not what these sources say, but what they DON'T say. The Great IRS Hoax (OFFSITE
20 LINK) contains over 2,000 pages of facts that neither the IRS nor any one in government is willing to reveal to
21 you because it would destroy the gravy train of plunder that pays their bloated salaries and fat retirement in
22 violation of 18 U.S.C. §208.

23 6. The use of "words of art" to deceive the people in both government publications and the law itself. Click
24 (OFFSITE LINK) here for examples.

25 7. The lack of "equal protection of the law" in courts of justice relating to the statements and actions of public
26 servants, whereby the IRS doesn't have to assume responsibility for its statements and actions, and yet persons
27 who fill out tax forms can be thrown in jail and prosecuted for fraud if they emulate the IRS by being just as
28 careless. This also includes "selective enforcement", where the DOJ positively refuses to prosecute submitters of
29 false information returns but spends a disproportionate share of its resources prosecuting false income tax
30 returns. They do this because they are more interested in STEALING your money than in justice. See:

31 7.1 Federal Courts and IRS' Own IRM Say NOT RESPONSIBLE for its actions or its words or following

34 7.3 Government Establishment of Religion, Form #05.038 -how government establishes itself as a pagan
35 deity and a religion by using franchises to systematically destroy the separation of powers and the
36 requirement for equal protection

37 8. Abuses of franchises that undermine the protection of private rights by the government and the courts:

38 8.1 Enforcing federal franchises in States of the Union, which are outside the civil jurisdiction or police
39 powers of the federal government and result in a destruction of the separation of powers.

40 8.2 Enforcing franchises, such as a "trade or business" without requiring explicit written consent in some
41 form, such as the issuance and voluntary signing of an application for a license. Click here for details.

42 8.3 Attorney licensing, which destroys the integrity of the legal profession in its role as a check and balance
43 when the government or especially the judiciary becomes corrupt as it is now.

44 8.4 Abuse of the federal income tax system, which is a franchise and an excise, to bribe states of the Union
45 to give up their sovereignty, act like federal "States" and territories, and accept what amounts to federal
46 bribes to disrespect the rights or those under their care and protection. Click here for details.

47 9. Efforts to destroy the separation of powers that is the main protection for our liberties. This results in abuses
48 of the Court system for political, rather than legal, purposes (politicization of the courts). All of the federal courts
49 we have now are Article IV, territorial courts that are part of the Legislative, rather than Judicial Branch of the
50 government. As such, there is no separation of powers and nothing but tyranny can result. See the following for
51 proof of this destruction:

52 9.1  Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023- shows how lying,
53 thieving public servants have systematically destroyed the separation of powers since the founding of
54 this country

55 9.2 What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012-book which proves that we have no Judicial Branch within
56 the federal government, and that all the existing federal courts are acting in an Article IV territorial
57 capacity as part of the Legislative, rather than Judicial, branch of the government.

1 9.3 How Scoundrels Corrupted Our Republican Form of Government (OFFSITE LINK)-brief overview of
2 how the separation of powers has been systematically destroyed

3 10. The abuse of the government's power to tax in order to transfer wealth between private individuals, which
4 makes the government into a thief and a Robinhood. This includes:

- 5 10.1 Enforcing the tax laws against other than "public officers" of the government. Click here for details.
6 10.2 Offering government "benefits" of any kind to anyone who does not ALREADY work for the government.
7 Click here for details.

8 11. Corruption of our monetary system that allows the government to:

- 9 11.1 Counterfeit while denying to all others the right, thus creating an unconstitutional "Title of Nobility"
10 for itself and making itself into a pagan deity, and denying the equal protection to all that is the
11 foundation of the Constitution.
12 11.2 STEAL from the American people by diluting the value of money already into circulation.
13 11.3 Exercise undue control banks and financial institutions that causes them to effectively become federal
14 employment recruiters for the federal government by compelling use of government identifying numbers
15 for those pursuing accounts or loans.

16 Click here for details on the above SCAMS.

17 12. Creating, perpetuating, condoning, or in any way protecting conflicts of financial interest within the
18 government that cause the self-interest to undermine the requirements of the law, EQUALITY, or the protection
19 of exclusively PRIVATE rights by:

- 20 12.1 Making judges "taxpayers".
21 12.2 Making jurists or voters into "benefit" recipients, franchisees, and/or public officers.
22 12.3 Allowing judges to act in a POLITICAL mode within any franchise court in the Executive rather than
23 Judicial Branch. This also violates the separation of powers.
24 12.4 Turning police officers into revenue collectors who enforce malum-prohibitum offenses that result in
25 revenue to the state.
26 12.5 Allowing any judicial officer or witness to receive any kind of financial reward for essentially
27 compelling someone to assume any civil status under any civil franchise, including the income tax.
28 12.6 Allowing judges to act BOTH as an Article III judge AND an Article IV judge at the same time.
29 12.7 Allowing PRIVATE citizens to appear before a franchise judge with a financial conflict of interest.
30 12.8 Making ordinary citizens ALSO into public officers in any context OTHER than as a jurist or voter. This
31 causes income taxes to become poll taxes and disenfranchises all those who insist on remaining private.

32 13. Active interference with common law remedies for the protection of PRIVATE rights from abuse by
33 government actors. Governments are established exclusively to protect PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property. Any attempt
34 to undermine such rights without the express written consent of the owner in each case is not only NOT a classical
35 "government" function, but is an ANTI-government function that amounts to a MAFIA "protection racket". This includes but 36 is not limited to:

- 37 13.1 Refusing to recognize or protect PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights, the essence of which is the 38 RIGHT TO EXCLUDE anyone and everyone from using or benefitting from the use of the property.
39 13.2 PRESUMING that "a government OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, and FOR THE PEOPLE" is a
40 government in which everyone is a public officer.
41 13.3 Refusing to recognize or allow constitutional remedies and instead substituting STATUTORY remedies
42 available only to public officers.
43 13.4 Forcing non-franchisees into franchise courts against their consent. This is a violation of the Fifth
44 Amendment takings clause and the prohibition against eminent domain.
45 13.5 Interfering with introduction of evidence that the court or forum is ONLY allowed to hear disputes
46 involving public officers in the government.
47 13.6 Refusing to satisfy the burden of proof upon government opponents in a franchise court that the owner of
48 the property subject to the dispute VOLUNTARILY donated it to a public use, public purpose, and public
49 office. In other words, that all property is PRIVATE until it is proven on the record with evidence that the
50 owner EXPRESSLY AND VOLUNTARILY DONATED it to PUBLIC use and thereby made it subject to
51 government jurisdiction.
52 13.7 PRESUMING or ASSUMING that the ownership of the property subject to dispute is QUALITIFIED
53 rather than ABSOLUTE and that the party the ownership is shared with is the government.
54 13.8 Allowing government "benefit" recipients to be decision makers in cases involving PRIVATE rights. This
55 is a denial of a republican form of government, which is founded on impartial decision makers. See [Sinking
56 Fund Cases, 99 U.S. 700 \(1878\)](#).
57 13.9 Interfering with or sanctioning litigants who insist on discussing the laws that have been violated in the
58 courtroom or prohibiting jurists from reading the laws in question or accessing the law library in the
59 courthouse while serving as jurists. This transforms a society of law into a society of men and allows the
60 judge to substitute HIS will in place of what the law expressly requires.
61 13.10 Abusing sovereign immunity to protect franchise administrators such as the IRS from [illegal enforcement
62 of the franchise against non-franchisees](#). All franchises are PRIVATE rather than GOVERNMENTAL in 63 nature and governments who offer them drop down to the level or ordinary persons when they offer them.
64 13.11 Illegally and unconstitutionally invoking the Declaratory Judgments Act or the Anti-Injunction Act as
65 an excuse to NOT protect PRIVATE rights from government interference in the case of EXCLUSIVELY

1 PRIVATE people who are NOT statutory "taxpayers". See Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Sections 8.11 and 8.12.

2 13.12 PRESUMING or pretending like there is no such thing as a non-franchisee or non-taxpayer or that
3 EVERYONE is a statutory "taxpayer". This compels people to contract with the government and interferes
4 with their First Amendment right to legally and politically associate. See [Your Exclusive Right to Declare
5 or Establish Your Civil Status, Form #13.008.](#)

6 13.13 Offering or enforcing NATIONAL franchises within states of the Union or outside of the federal territory
7 and federal domiciliaries that they are limited to. See [Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises,
8 Form #05.030.](#)

9 13.14 Refusing to provide a way to quit franchises or hiding forms for doing so.

10 13.15 Interfering with ways to change or correct your citizenship or statutory status in government records.
11 That "status" is the "res" to which all franchise rights attach, usually ILLEGALLY.

14 2. Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Chapter 1 Introduction

15 Let us begin this document by explaining what we mean by "The Great IRS Hoax?". The hoax is NOT the Internal 16 Revenue Code, but the way that it is misrepresented and illegally enforced by the IRS and the Department of 17 Justice. The Internal Revenue Code itself is entirely Constitutional when interpreted and enforced consistent with 18 the rules of statutory construction and interpretation. Unfortunately, our public dis-servants have been bending
19 the rules to suit their own private agenda, and this is where the hoax and the fraud extensively documented in this 20 book originates.

23 10.9 Ministry arguments are "frivolous"

24 Section 9 of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 defines what the basis of belief is for our esteemed Members and readers.
25 That section says the ONLY thing you can trust is enacted positive law that is legal evidence of an obligation and that you
26 may not rely upon anything we say. If that basis for reliance causes what members say or believe to be "frivolous", then the 27 DOJ needs to enjoin the Office of the Law Revision Counsel, House of Representatives from publishing the U.S. Code and 28 for being "frivolous". All the government does by making such fraudulent accusations is to:

- 29 1. Discredit itself.
- 30 2. Prove that they are violating the Administrative Procedures Act, 5 U.S.C. §556(d) because they refuse to satisfy the 31 burden of proof as the moving party asserting a claim by providing court-admissible evidence in support of every claim.
- 32 3. Prove that their presumptions are being imposed in violation of the Constitution and of due process of law in order to 33 destroy your rights. Both the Constitution and the Bible prohibit presumptions that prejudice constitutional rights:

34 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests: A conclusive
35 presumption may be defeated where its application would impair a party's constitutionally-
36 protected liberty or property interests. In such cases, conclusive presumptions have been 37 held to violate a party's due process and equal protection rights. [Vlandis v. Kline (1973)

1 Stating that our arguments are “frivolous” without justifying such a determination with:

- 2 1. Legally admissible evidence signed under penalty of perjury or verified with an oath (as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065).
- 3 2. Deriving the evidence ONLY from the civil domicile of the accused party as required by Federal Rule of Civil
- 4 Procedure 17(b). This means state law and NOT federal law.

5 . . . amounts to little more than accusing us of being “heretics” because we refuse to participate in the state-sponsored civil
6 religion being run out of churches called “courts”. Similar arguments apply to any other pejorative adjective label the courts
7 might attempt to use that does not deal directly and completely with ALL the facts and arguments made herein on any given 8 subject, such as:

- 9 1. “Ridiculous”.
- 10 2. “Preposterous”.
- 11 3. “Soundly rejected”.
- 12 4. “Malicious”.
- 13 5. “Irresponsible”.
- 14 6. “Makes him/her a leech because he/she refuses to pay their ‘fair share’”.
- 15 7. “Manifestly erroneous”.

16 All such adjectives do is prove that the judge is not acting in a judicial capacity as a neutral finder of facts and who reveals 17 only facts, but who rather is:

- 18 1. Acting in a political rather than judicial capacity as a member of the Executive rather than Judicial branch. Article 1, 19 Section 8, Clauses 1 and 3 of the United States Constitution empower Congress and ONLY Congress to lay AND collect
20 taxes. By undermining and interfering with attempts to stop unlawful collection enforcement, the judge is:
21 1.1. Acting as a tax collector in the Executive Branch. Congress CANNOT lawfully delegate any function, including 22 the tax collection function, to any other branch of the government, including the Judicial Branch.
23 1.2. Violating the separation of powers doctrine by exercising Executive Branch functions.

- 36 1.3. Acting as a federal employment recruiter by illegally compelling private parties protected by the Constitution to 37 ILLEGALLY become “public officers” within the government without compensation and often without their 38 consent or even knowledge.
- 39 1.4. Engaging in conversion in violation of 18 U.S.C. §654, whereby he is converting private property to a public use,
40 a public purpose, and a public office without the consent of the owner and in violation of the Fifth Amendment
41 takings clause.

42 “Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
43 and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
44 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it
45 to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL
46 SECURITY, Medicare, and every other public “benefit”]; second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives 47 to the public a right to control that use; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take 48 it upon payment of due compensation.”
49 [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

50 The above rules are summarized below:
51

Table 3: Rules for converting private property to a public use or a public office

#	Description	Requires consent of owner to be taken from owner?
1	The owner of property justly acquired enjoys full and exclusive use and control over the property. This right includes the right to exclude government uses or ownership of said property.	Yes
2	He may not use the property to injure the equal rights of his neighbor. For instance, when you murder someone, the government can take your liberty and labor from you by putting you in jail or your life from you by instituting the death penalty against you. Both your life and your labor are “property”. Therefore, the basis for the “taking” was violation of the equal rights of a fellow sovereign “neighbor”.	No
3	He cannot be compelled or required to use it to “benefit” his neighbor. That means he cannot be compelled to donate the property to any franchise that would “benefit” his neighbor such as Social Security, Medicare, etc.	Yes
4	If he donates it to a public use, he gives the public the right to control that use.	Yes
5	Whenever the public needs require, the public may take it without his consent upon payment of due compensation. E.g. “eminent domain”.	No

2. Entertaining “political questions” in violation of the separation of powers doctrine.
3. Abusing legal process to terrorize, discredit, and enslave the litigant in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1589(3).

TITLE 18 > PART I > CHAPTER 77 > § 1589
§ 1589. Forced labor

Whoever knowingly provides or obtains the labor or [litigation] services of a person—

(1) by threats of serious harm to, or physical restraint against, that person or another person;

(2) by means of any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause the person to believe that, if the person did not perform such labor or services, that person or another person would suffer serious harm or physical restraint; or

(3) by means of the abuse or threatened abuse of law or the legal process [against an innocent “nontaxpayer”].

shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both. If death results from the violation of this section, or if the violation includes kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or the attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, the defendant shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or life, or both.

4. Obstructing justice due to people under the court’s care and protection.
5. Not dealing directly with the issues at hand because doing so would jeopardize the CRIMINAL flow of plunder into his checking account.

Thank you for telling us that our arguments are truthful, accurate, and consistent with prevailing law and that we are right.

1. The courts have consistently held that you can’t rely on anything the IRS says. See: <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>
2. The IRS website says you can’t rely on anything they print, including any publication or form. See Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8:

“IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their advisors... While a good source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position.”
[Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

1 3. The entire Internal Revenue Code is identified in 1 U.S.C. §204 as nothing more than simply a statutory “presumption”.
2 “prima facie evidence” means presumption. Presumptions are NOT evidence, nor may they lawfully be used as a
3 SUBSTITUTE for evidence in a court of law:

4 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests:

5 A conclusive presumption may be defeated where its application would impair a party's constitutionally-protected
6 liberty or property interests. In such cases, conclusive presumptions have been held to violate a party's due
7 process and equal protection rights. Vlandis v. Kline (1973) [412 U.S. 441, 449, 93 S.Ct. 2230, 2235; Cleveland

13 process of law.”
14 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 500]

15
16 This court has never treated a presumption as any form of evidence. See, e.g., A.C. Aukerman Co. v. R.L. Chaides
17 Constr. Co., 960 F.2d. 1020, 1037 \(Fed.Cir.1992\) (“[A] presumption is not evidence.”); see also Del Vecchio v.

19 of evidence in the claimant's favor.”); New York Life Ins. Co. v. Gamer, 303 U.S. 161, 171, 58 S.Ct. 500, 503,
20 82 L.Ed. 726 \(1938\) (“[A] presumption is not evidence and may not be given weight as evidence.”). Although a
21 decision of this court, Jensen v. Brown, 19 F.3d. 1413, 1415 \(Fed.Cir.1994\), dealing with presumptions in VA
22 law is cited for the contrary proposition, the Jensen court did not so decide.
23 [Routen v. West, 142 F.3d. 1434 C.A.Fed.,1998]

24 4. The Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. §6065 requires everything prepared under the authority of the code to be signed
25 under penalty of perjury. Nothing coming from the IRS ever is, and therefore it is UNTRUSTWORTHY.
26 5. The Bible forbids Christians to presume anything and by implication, to treat presumptions as a basis for any kind of 27 belief or inference.

28 “But the person who does anything presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one brings
29 reproach on the LORD, and he shall be cut off from among his people.”

32 Even if the government tried to define what the word “frivolous” means, we aren’t allowed by their own statements and 33 publications to trust their definition. Consequently, we are compelled to provide a definition for every word we hear from 34 the government in order to avoid the Christian sin of presumption, and our definition is that the word “frivolous” means
35 truthful, accurate, and consistent with prevailing law. Our definition is required to appear in all of the following forms of 36 communication with the government as a mandatory part of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001:

- 37 1. All pleadings filed in federal court. See Section
Federal Pleading/Motion/Petition Attachment, Litigation Tool #01.002
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>
- 38 2. All discovery in court:
Citizenship, Domicile, and Tax Status Options, Form #10.003
<http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm>
- 39 3. All tax forms filed with the IRS. See Section 4 of the following:
Tax Form Attachment, Form #04.201
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

40 The very purpose of law is to give reasonable notice to all parties concerned the conduct expected of them. Simply calling
41 something “frivolous” without defining why it is defective using civil law deriving ONLY from the domicile of the accused
42 party per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b):

1 1. Fails to give reasonable notice of the conduct expected and therefore falls short of the purpose of law and causes a
2 violation of due process of law. See:

Requirement for Reasonable Notice, Form #05.022

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3 2. Unconstitutionally involves the courts in political matters. The abuse of the word by courts by refusing to identify
4 reasons simply amounts to little more than a political statement and labels the speaker as a “heretic” who refuses to join
5 the state-sponsored religion of socialism described below:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6 3. Proves that if a federal court makes this assertion, that it is not a true Article III constitutional court, but a franchise court
7 established under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. They are administering the “trade or 8 business” franchise and do not fulfill the main purpose for the establishment of government, which is the protection of 9 private rights. Instead, they have made a lucrative PRIVATE business out of DESTROYING your PRIVATE rights,
10 and protecting and expanding federal property by converting private property into public property by illegally abusing
11 presumption and word games. This is exhaustively proven with thousands of pages of evidence in the following
12 document:

What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13 10.10 Ministry arguments have been overruled by the federal courts

14 All tax liability is a civil liability that attaches to one’s choice of legal domicile.

15 “Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit
16 or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth
17 Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally
18 reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously
19 includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of
20 property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration
21 being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located.”

22 Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, [347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

23 Because of the separation of powers doctrine, there are two separate political and legal communities that a person can have a
24 legal domicile within and be a “citizen” of: 1. States of the Union. 2. Federal territory.

25 “It is clear that Congress, as a legislative body, exercise two species of legislative power: the one, limited as to
26 its objects, but extending all over the Union: the other, an absolute, exclusive legislative power over the District
27 of Columbia. The preliminary inquiry in the case now before the Court, is, by virtue of which of these authorities
28 was the law in question passed?”

29 Cohens v. Virginia, [19 U.S. 264, 6 Wheat. 265; 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821)]

30 The U.S. Supreme Court identified maintaining the separation between these two separate jurisdictions as the HIGHEST 31 DUTY of every judicial officer.

32 “I take leave to say that, if the principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of this
33 court, a radical and mischievous change in our system of government will result. We will, in that event, pass
34 from the era of constitutional liberty guarded and protected by a written constitution into an era of legislative
35 absolutism..

36 [. . .]

37 “The idea prevails with some, indeed it has found expression in arguments at the bar, that we have in this country**
38 substantially two national governments; one to be maintained under the Constitution, with all of its
39 restrictions; the other to be maintained by Congress outside the independently of that instrument, by exercising
40 such powers [of absolutism] as other nations of the earth are accustomed to..

41 [. . .]

42 It will be an evil day for American liberty if the theory of a government outside the supreme law of the land
43 finds lodgment in our constitutional jurisprudence. No higher duty rests upon this court than to exert its full
44 authority to prevent all violation of the principles of the Constitution.”

45 Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901), Justice Harlan, Dissenting]

Obviously, the person making such a false accusation does not understand choice of law rules and how those not domiciled on federal territory can become subject to federal civil law. Those choice of law rules are clearly documented in section 5 of this document and sections 2 and 4 of the following:

Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) clearly establishes that the only time federal law can be applied against a nonresident party domiciled in a state of the Union is when they are acting in a representative capacity as a “public officer” of the national government.

IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant: Capacity

(b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

(1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;
(2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and
(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:
(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and
(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.
[SOURCE: <http://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frcp/Rule17.htm>]

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(d) further identifies this officer by name.

IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant: Capacity

(d) Public Officer's Title and Name.

A public officer who sues or is sued in an official capacity may be designated by official title rather than by name, but the court may order that the officer's name be added.

The status of being an officer of the national government acting in a representative capacity on behalf of a federal corporation domiciled in the District of Columbia can only be conferred by accepting public office in the national government or acting as an officer of a federal corporation. Members of this ministry are expressly forbidden by our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 from acting in such a capacity and being Members who are authorized to use our materials. Therefore, your allegation is simply false in the case of Members. It may be true of others or of those who are not Members, but not of those who satisfy all the requirements for being members identified in our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Those requirements are also summarized on our About Us page, Section 15:

15. Intended/Authorized Audience

All of the materials and information on this website have been prepared for educational and informational purposes only. Anyone and everyone may download and read our materials through this website and by doing so they consent to be subject to our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 and the Disclaimer Agreement. All such people may "use" any of the materials on this site OTHER than our "tax information and services". However, only those who satisfy all the criteria in this section may "use" our "tax information and services", which we define to include:

- 1. Sending our materials to any member of the legal profession or the courts.*
- 2. Using as evidence in a legal proceeding.*
- 3. Attaching to administrative correspondence sent to any government agency, including the I.R.S.*

Those who satisfy all the following criteria may therefore "use" our "tax information and services" as defined above:

- 1. Members who consent unconditionally to our Member Agreement, Form #01.001.*

2. "nontaxpayers" not subject to the Internal Revenue Code. Click here for an article on the subject.

7. Those who are willing to take full and complete and exclusive responsibility to handle their own withholding and tax return preparation and who will not ask us to do it or help them do it.
8. Those who have completed up to step 14 in section 2 of the following according to the instructions indicated:
Path to Freedom, Form #09.015
<http://sedm.org/Forms/09-015/PathToFreedom.pdf>

If you meet any of the following criteria, then you should not be using this website and instead should consult <http://www.irs.gov> for educational materials:

1. Have used or intend to use any of our materials or services to engage in any one or more of the Prohibited Activities identified in section 8 of this page.
2. Those who do not consent unconditionally to all the terms of our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 or are Members in Bad Standing.
3. Have not read or complied fully with our Disclaimer or the Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid pamphlet.
4. Do not believe in God and trust only Him above any man or earthly government.
5. Using the materials on this website for financial or economic reasons. The mission of this website is entirely spiritual and moral and not financial. We seek obedience to God's law, justice, and truth and not financial ends. Greed and the lust of money are the cause for most of the evils documented on this website and we don't want to encourage more of it. This website is NOT a "patriot for profit" effort, but strictly a Christian religious ministry whose ONLY purposes are spiritual and not financial.
6. Those who are not willing to verify the truth of what we are saying here by reading and researching the law for themselves.
7. Declared "domicile" is any place within the federal zone. Click here for an article on the subject.
8. Engaged in a "trade or business". Click here for an article on this subject.
9. Those who take deductions under 26 U.S.C. §162, earned income credit under 26 U.S.C. §32, or who apply a graduated rate of tax to their earnings under 26 U.S.C. §1. All such persons are "taxpayers" engaged in a "trade or business" because they are availing themselves of an excise taxable "privilege" under the Internal Revenue Code.

If you want a detailed, exhaustive list of reasons why the federal courts have NOT overruled ANYTHING on this website, see the following. Simply calling an argument "frivolous", "preposterous", or "ridiculous" does not constitute overruling it because courts are not allowed by the separation of powers doctrine to entertain "political questions". No court has ever addressed all aspects of any one of our arguments and explained with facts AND evidence and NOT "political opinion", consistent with the rules of statutory construction, why they are violative of the law:

Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004

10.11 Ministry just wants to harass the government or the interfere with the lawful execution of the government's duties

We do not seek any malicious motive whatsoever. We seek to learn and enforce both man's law and God's law against all those who violate it, including both those in the government AND the private sector. Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001

1 says our materials are limited to being used only for petitioning the government for a redress of grievances caused by violation
2 of the law and no other purpose, including any type of commercial purpose. Authorities in support of the above include the

5 4. Reasons Why We Have a Member Subscriptions Area

6 Below is a list of reasons why we place specific materials in our Member Subscription Area. Specifically, we

9 abuse our materials:

10 1.1 Those who intend to use our materials to violate any law applicable to the jurisdiction where they are 11 domiciled.

12 1.2 Those who dislike or hate the government. We are not anti-government but rather pro SELF-government.

13 1.3 "Tax deniers", "tax defiers", or "tax protesters". We don't protest "taxes", but crime. We think everyone who 14 uses government services should pay for what they use. Likewise, we believe that those who don't want
15 government services should not be compelled to either accept them or pay for them.

16 1.4 Government moles. We don't want to be infiltrated as a group by people who work for the government and 17 who might become moles or informants who intend to harm other members. Our Member Agreement, Form
18 #01.001 prevents this sort of activity.

19 1.5 Those who are ignorant and/or presumptuous about anything.

20 "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge [ignorance]."
21 [Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

22 1.6 Those who refuse to do their legal homework or research.

23 "One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is 24 an abomination."
25 [Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

26 1.7 Those who have commercial motives. None of the materials on this website are intended for a commercial

33 hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."
34 [1 Timothy 6:5-12, Bible, NKJV]

35 2. Ensure that we are not held to a higher standard than the IRS itself. IRM 4.10.7.2.8 says that IRS publications,
36 including the entire IRS website, should not be relied upon to sustain any position. Our Member Agreement,
37 Form #01.001 and our Disclaimer both require everyone, including the government, to apply the same standard
38 of lack of accountability to us as the government enjoys. This ensures equal protection and equal treatment that 39 is the foundation of the United States Constitution. This situation is further described below:

40 Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007

41 3. Prevent and avoid clogging the courts with unwarranted and erroneous lawsuits that use our materials filed
42 by people who are not doing their legal homework.

43 4. Prevent and avoid clogging the IRS with erroneous administrative correspondence filed by those who are
44 "taxpayers". All of our materials pre-suppose that those who use them to correspond with the government are 45 "nontaxpayers" who fully comply with our Member Agreement, Form #01.001. Those who don't would be 46 committing perjury and needlessly burdening the government.

47 5. Ensure that those who use our materials are qualified to use them and have taken all the steps necessary to 48 become sovereign BEFORE they use them.

6. Prevent and avoid being blamed by those who refuse to take complete, personal, and exclusive responsibility for themselves and all their decisions and actions. Only the educated and the responsible can be free:

7. Prevent and avoid discrediting both us, our members, our ministry, and the God we serve by being associated with people who are not following the law nor following our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 in enforcing the law.

8. Create a way to recoup the high cost of delivering and improving the vast legal information and tools available on our website. We need resources to recruit and retain the talent required to produce the information and services offered by our ministry.

We think that it is hypocritical for anyone to expect cooperation or protection from a court or a government that they refuse to reciprocate by protecting the government from abuse. This is not unlike the concept behind attorney licensing: protection of the courts from abuse by litigants.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."
[Matt. 7:12, Bible, NKJV]

"Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man [WHICH IS ONLY] for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme, or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good. For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king."

2. SEDM Website Disclaimer, Section 2: Intended/Authorized Audience of this Website says that everything on the website is provided for use only by the authors themselves and not other readers. It is impossible to clog up the IRS or the government if the materials are not authorized to even be sent to them by anyone other than the original author(s):

2. INTENDED/AUTHORIZED AUDIENCE OF THIS WEBSITE

This website and the materials on it were prepared for the use of the authors only by themselves. Any use of the terms "you", "your", "individuals", "people", "persons", "we recommend", "you should", "we" or "our readers", "readers", "those", "most Americans", "employers", "employees", and all similar references either on the website or in any verbal communications or correspondence with our readers is directed at the author(s) and not other readers. The only exception to this rule is the Copyright/Software License Agreement below, which applies to everyone EXCEPT the author(s) or ministry. All the authors are doing by posting these materials is sharing with others the results of their extensive research and the play book they developed only for use by themselves. For instance, the bottom of every page of the Tax Fraud Prevention Manual book says: "TOP SECRET: For Treasury/IRS Internal Use ONLY (FOUO)". Then in the "Disclaimer" at the beginning of the book, it defines "Treasury" as the "SEDM Department of the Treasury". Consequently, how those materials impact or influence others is of no concern or consequence to the authors, and no motive may be attributed to any statements by the authors that would appear to be directed at third parties, because such statements are actually directed at themselves only. How readers use or apply the materials appearing here is entirely their choice and we assume no responsibility for how they act, or fail to act, based on the use of these materials. This approach is no different from that of the federal government, where the term "employee" in the Internal Revenue Code is made to "appear" like it applies to everyone, but in fact it only applies to federal agents, officers, and instrumentalities of the United States government, all of whom are described in 26 U.S.C. §6331\(a\). Any effort on the part of the government to redefine the words we use to mean anything other than what we define them to mean is an admission that we don't have First Amendment Rights, and such an act is an act of Treason punishable by death. How can a person have First Amendment rights if the authors can't even define the meaning of the words they use? How can the government claim that we have equal protection of the laws guaranteed under the Constitution (see Article 4, Section 2 and Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment and the Declaration of Independence) if they can define the meaning of the words they use in their void for vagueness "codes", but we can't define the meaning of the words we use in our writings and must rely on some government lawyer or judge with a conflict of interest (in violation of 28 U.S.C. §144, 28 U.S.C. §455, and 18 U.S.C. §208) to define or redefine them to have a meaning other than what we use? Hypocrisy!

10.12 Ministry is a “nut job” or is “delusional”

The last line of defense for those who can't RATIONALLY argue against us with facts and evidence is to say we are crazy. Some judges carry this type of underhanded and unconstitutional persecution of religious groups to the extreme by insisting that those litigating against government corruption must undergo a psychiatric evaluation and take the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI). The only nut job is THEM, because by doing so they are indirectly admitting that:

1. The law is irrelevant.
2. Facts are irrelevant.
3. Hate speech and slander is the only way they can win the argument.
4. They are terrorists who ought to be arrested by the Department of Homeland Security and prosecuted for hate crimes.
5. They are violating the First Amendment and the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B.
6. They are engaging in a conspiracy against our religious rights in violation of 18 U.S.C. §241.
7. They want to CRIMINALLY damage religious property in violation of 18 U.S.C. §247. That property is our own credibility and God is the owner.

On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court and the founding fathers have held the following:

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labour to subvert these great Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, "where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice?" And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."
George Washington, [Farewell Address]

"...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . ."
[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

"In the First Amendment, the Founding Fathers gave the free press the protection it must have to fulfill its essential role in our democracy. The press [and this religious ministry] was to serve the governed, not the governors. The Government's power to censor the press was abolished so that the press would remain forever free to censure the Government. The press was protected so that it could bare the secrets of government and inform the people. Only a free and unrestrained press can effectively expose deception in government. And paramount among the responsibilities of a free press is the duty to prevent any part of the government from deceiving the people and sending them off to distant lands to die of foreign fevers and foreign shot and shell. In my view, far from deserving condemnation for their courageous reporting, the New York Times, the Washington Post, and other newspapers should be commended for serving the purpose that the Founding Fathers saw so clearly. In revealing the workings of government that led to the Vietnam war, the newspapers nobly did precisely that which the Founders hoped and trusted they would do."
New York Times Co. v. United States, [403 U.S. 713 (1970)]

Our society would be less than true to its heritage if it lacked abiding concern for the values of its young people, and we acknowledge the profound belief of adherents to many faiths that there must be a place in the student's life for precepts of a morality higher even than the law we today enforce. We express no hostility to those aspirations, nor would our oath permit us to do so. A relentless and all-pervasive attempt to exclude religion from every aspect of public life could itself become inconsistent with the Constitution. See Abington School District, supra, at 306 (Goldberg, J., concurring).

Nearly half a century of review and refinement of Establishment Clause jurisprudence has distilled one clear understanding: Government may neither promote nor affiliate itself with any religious doctrine or organization, nor may it obtrude itself in the internal affairs of any religious institution. The application of these principles to the present case mandates the decision reached today by the Court.

[...]

The mixing of government and religion can be a threat to free government, even if no one is forced to participate. When the government puts its imprimatur on a particular religion, it conveys a message of exclusion to all those who do not adhere to the favored beliefs.[9] A government cannot [505 U.S. 607] be premised on the belief that all persons are created equal when it asserts that God prefers some. Only "[a]nguish, hardship and bitter strife" result "when zealous religious groups struggl[e] with one another to obtain the Government's stamp of approval." Engel, 370 U.S. at 429; see also Lemon, 403 U.S. at 622-623; Aguilar v. Felton, 473 U.S. 402, 416 (1985) (Powell, J., concurring).[10] Such a struggle can "strain a political system to the breaking point." Walz v. Tax Commission, 397 U.S. 664, 694 (1970) (opinion of Harlan, J.).

When the government arrogates to itself a role in religious affairs, it abandons its obligation as guarantor of democracy. Democracy requires the nourishment of dialogue and dissent, while religious faith puts its trust in an ultimate divine authority above all human deliberation. When the government appropriates religious truth, it "transforms rational debate into theological decree." Nuechterlein, Note, The Free Exercise Boundaries of Permissible Accommodation Under the Establishment Clause, 99 Yale L.J. 1127, 1131 (1990). Those who disagree no longer are questioning the policy judgment of the elected but the rules of a higher authority who is beyond reproach. [505 U.S. 608]

Madison warned that government officials who would use religious authority to pursue secular ends exceed the commission from which they derive their authority, and are Tyrants. The People who submit to it are governed by laws made neither by themselves nor by an authority derived from them, and are slaves.

Memorial and Remonstrance against Religious Assessments (1785) in The Complete Madison 300 (S. Padover, ed.1953). Democratic government will not last long when proclamation replaces persuasion as the medium of political exchange.

Likewise, we have recognized that "[r]eligion flourishes in greater purity, without than with the aid of Government[]." [11] Id. at 309. To "make room for as wide a variety of beliefs and creeds as the spiritual needs of man deem necessary," Zorach v. Clauson, 343 U.S. 306, 313 (1952), the government must not align itself with any one of them. When the government favors a particular religion or sect, the disadvantage to all others is obvious, but even the favored religion may fear being "taint[ed]... with a corrosive secularism." Grand Rapids School Dist. v. Ball, 473 U.S. 373, 385 (1985). The favored religion may be compromised as political figures reshape the religion's beliefs for their own purposes; it may be reformed as government largesse brings government regulation.[12] Keeping religion in the hands of private groups minimizes state intrusion on religious choice, and best enables each religion to "flourish according to the [505 U.S. 609] zeal of its adherents and the appeal of its dogma." Zorach, 343 U.S. at 313.

It is these understandings and fears that underlie our Establishment Clause jurisprudence. We have believed that religious freedom cannot exist in the absence of a free democratic government, and that such a government cannot endure when there is fusion between religion and the political regime. We have believed that religious freedom cannot thrive in the absence of a vibrant religious community, and that such a community cannot prosper when it is bound to the secular. And we have believed that these were the animating principles behind the adoption of the Establishment Clause. To that end, our cases have prohibited government endorsement of religion, its sponsorship, and active involvement in religion, whether or not citizens were coerced to conform. [Lee v. Weisman, 505 U.S. 577 (1992)]

On the subject of us being "delusional", a delusion is legally defined as:

"a belief that is held with strong conviction despite superior evidence to the contrary. "

[Wikipedia: Delusion, <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Delusion>]

The fact that millions of people share the same mental pathology does not make these people sane or even rational. The strongest argument is one supported by the most LEGALLY admissible evidence. The IRS is not responsible for anything it says, writes, publishes, or does and NONE of it is admissible as evidence in a real court of law:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf>
FORM PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1 Yet, IRS statements and behavior and publications that are inadmissible in court are the ONLY basis for your belief. The
2 entire Internal Revenue Code, as indicated by 1 U.S.C. §204 legislative notes, is “prima facie evidence” meaning that is a
3 mere PRESUMPTION. All presumptions that prejudice constitutional rights are unconstitutional and a tort. Therefore, the
4 entire Internal Revenue Code is nothing but a big statutory presumption that is unconstitutional to apply to a state citizen
5 domiciled OUTSIDE the statutory “United States”/federal territory.

6 “The power to create presumptions is not a means of escape from constitutional restrictions.”
7 [Bailey v. Alabama, 219 U.S. 219, 238, et seq., 31 S.Ct. 145; Manley v. Georgia, 279 U.S. 1, 5-6, 49 S.Ct. 215]

8 “A presumption is not evidence.”
9 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1185]

10 The ONLY type of evidence the IRS has posted on its website is that which is not legally admissible as evidence in court.
11 That’s a pretty frail basis for a belief. If it isn’t legally admissible evidence, then we are the only one with REAL evidence.
12 Everything we rely upon is legally admissible. Nothing you have is, other than statutes that aren’t even positive law. Therefore,
13 the only party to this interchange who is “delusional” as you put it is the IRS and those who launder the money it STEALS.

14 We, on the other hand, INSIST in our member agreement that the ONLY type of evidence people can rely on is court-
15 admissible evidence, so who is the REAL “nut job” or delusional “useful idiot”?:

30 See also section 3 of the above Member Agreement. We have offered you mountains of evidence FROM THE COURTS
31 and statutes, not from ignorant government administrative employees. There is more legally admissible evidence of CRIME,
32 FRAUD, and DECEPTION on our website about the subjects we cover than all the government and legal profession websites
33 on the subject combined. The actions of legally ignorant IRS people who are hired BECAUSE they are legally ignorant
34 doesn’t make what they are doing lawful or even procedurally correct.

35 The ministry makes every possible effort to ensure the accuracy, appropriateness and usefulness of its materials,

37 conditioned, and propagandized to ensure that they behave as malicious, malfeasant “useful idiots” not educated
38 in the law, will respond to a petition for redress of grievances directed at remedying their illegal and injurious
39 behavior. As a matter of fact, the minute they stop drinking the cult Kool-Aide and begin reading, learning and
40 enforcing the law in their workplace is the minute they historically are fired, persecuted, and targeted for
41 “selective enforcement”. Any guarantees of particular results by either the ministry or any agent, officer, or
42 employee of the ministry should be regarded as fiction, untrustworthy, and should not be relied upon as a basis for 43 belief. The ONLY reasonable basis for belief about liability in the context of federal taxation that does not involve 44 some form of “presumption”, and therefore violation of due process, are:

- 45 1. Enacted positive law from the Statutes at Large.
- 46 2. The Rulings of the Supreme Court and not lower courts.
- 47 3. The Constitution of the United States of America.

1 All forms of legal evidence other than the above are simply "prima facie" and involve compelling the defendant
2 to "presume" something, which violates not only due process, but is a religious sin, according to Numbers 15:30,
3 NKJV, and amounts to compelled participation in state-sponsored religion in violation of the First Amendment."

5 agreement/]

6 The fact that these administrative "useful idiots" in the IRS would let people commit the crime of misrepresenting one's
7 status as either a "person", "citizen", "individual", or "taxpayer" is not legally admissible evidence that any specific approach
8 is correct. Political opinions not admissible as evidence (Federal Rule of Evidence 610) don't make their actions any LESS
9 criminal or unlawful either. Such testimony is not to be believed because there is not punishment or consequence for NOT 10 telling the truth.

11 "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do." Even Jesus at times said people he was trying to convince were, in 12 essence, ignorant, presumptuous jack asses.

13 No need to respond, because you don't offer any real evidence and refuse to entertain the evidence of others or to offer
14 evidence that is legally admissible. Therefore, this is a political discussion not fit for litigation. Legal ignorance is the main
15 thing that protects that kind of abuse of legal process and it is found in abundance on the IRS Website.

16 In fact, the REAL "nut job" are the people who keep slandering us with irrational and schizophrenic accusations of the kind

27 12 False arguments from Churches or Pastors against this Ministry

28 12.1 Response to criticisms by Christian churches

29 The central argument universally propounded by most churches in criticizing this ministry or its teachings are the following
30 deceptive and/or false statements:

- 31 1. The Bible commands Christians to render to Caesar that which is Caesar's. This argument is flawed because the U.S.
32 Supreme Court said that We the People are the sovereigns and therefore "Caesar" in this country. This makes our public 33 servants into the ones who must therefore do the "rendering", not us.

34 *"A State does not owe its origin to the Government of the United States, in the highest or in any of its branches.
35 It was in existence before it. It derives its authority from the same pure and sacred source as itself: The 36 voluntary and deliberate choice of the people...A State is altogether exempt from the jurisdiction of the Courts
37 of the United States, or from any other exterior authority, unless in the special instances when the general
38 Government has power derived from the Constitution itself."
39 [Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419 (Dall.) (1793)]*

40 *"Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law...While sovereign
41 powers are delegated to...the government, sovereignty itself remains with the people."
42 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]*

1 "The ultimate authority ... resides in the people alone."
2 James Madison, [The Federalist, No. 46]

3 "The words 'people of the United States' and 'citizens,' are synonymous terms, and mean the same thing. They
4 both describe the political body who, according to our republican institutions, form the sovereignty, and who
5 hold the power [sovereignty] and conduct the government [govern themselves!] through their representatives.
6 They are what we familiarly call the 'sovereign people,' and every citizen is one of this people, and a constituent 7 member of this sovereignty. ..."
8 Boyd v. State of Nebraska, [143 U.S. 135 (1892)]

9

10 "Whatever these Constitutions and laws validly determine to be property, it is the duty of the Federal Government,
11 through the domain of jurisdiction merely Federal, to recognize to be property.

12 "And this principle follows from the structure of the respective Governments, State and Federal, and their
13 reciprocal relations. They are different agents and trustees of the people of the several States, appointed with
14 different powers and with distinct purposes, but whose acts, within the scope of their respective jurisdictions,
15 are mutually obligatory."
16 [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393 (1856)]

17

18 "There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United States In this
19 country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their
20 Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld."
21 Juilliard v. Greenman, [110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

22 "In the United States, sovereignty resides in the people who act through the organs established by the 23 Constitution. [cites omitted] The Congress as the instrumentality of sovereignty is endowed with certain
24 powers to be exerted on behalf of the people in the manner and with the effect the Constitution ordains. The 25 Congress cannot invoke the sovereign power of the people to override their will as thus declared."
26 Perry v. United States, [294 U.S. 330, 353 (1935)]

27 2. The Bible commands Christians to obey ALL civil authorities. This argument is simply FALSE because:

- 28 2.1. The Bible NEVER commands us to sin or to obey rulers who sin by violating God's laws. God cannot command
29 us to disobey Him either directly or indirectly without contradicting who and what He is, which is the very epitome
30 of Law.
31 2.2. The Bible says that all just civil authority comes from God and His laws. The implication is that rulers who are 32 acting in conflict with God's Laws are exceeding their delegated authority and acting instead as representatives of 33 Satan, not God, who are not due any obedience or allegiance.

34 "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the 35 authorities that exist are appointed by God. Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God,
36 and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. For [righteous] rulers are not a terror to good works,
37 but to evil. [However, unrighteous rulers ARE a terror to good works] Do you want to be unafraid of the 38 [righteous] authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same. For he [ONLY the righteous,
39 not the unrighteous ruler] is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear
40 the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil. Therefore
41 you must be subject, not only because of wrath but also for conscience' sake. For because of this you also pay
42 taxes, for they [the righteous, and not unrighteous rulers] are God's ministers attending continually to this very 43 thing. Render therefore to all [those who are righteous and NOT unrighteous] their due: taxes to whom taxes
44 are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor."
45 [Rom. 13:1-7, Bible, NKJV]

46 "Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man [WHICH IS ONLY] for the Lord's sake, whether to
47 the king as supreme, or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for 48 the praise of those who do good. For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the 49 ignorance of foolish men— as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. Honor
50 all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king."
51 [1 Peter 2:13-17, Bible, NKJV]

- 52 2.3. The Bible commands Christians to emulate Christ's example by challenging the teachings and doctrine of the 53 Pharisees, which today are the lawyers. The present de facto government is run almost entirely by lawyers:

1 "But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers [in the public schools
2 and the judiciary and the legal profession] among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even
3 denying the Lord who brought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction.

4 "And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.

5 "By covetousness [of your money] they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment
6 has not been idle, and their destruction does not slumber."

7 "... While they [the politicians, the judges, and the legal profession] promise them [the Sovereign People]
8 liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption [income tax]; for by whom a person is overcome, by him also
9 he is brought into bondage [slavery and involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, by 10 virtue of income taxes on labor]."
11 [2 Peter 2:1-3 19, Bible, NKJV]

12 2.4. The Bible commands Christians to resist the devil. How can we simultaneously resist the devil, and yet obey a 13 government that is acting like a devil?

14 "And have no fellowship [or association] with the unfruitful works of [government] darkness, but rather 15 reprove [rebuke and expose] them."
16 [Eph. 5:11, Bible, NKJV]

17
18 "Come out from among them [the unbelievers and government idolaters]

36 The Bible says that God is the Word and the Law:

37 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."
38 [John 1:1, Bible, NKJV]

41 God, and God in him."
42 [1 John 4:16, Bible, NKJV]

43 The Bible then characterizes the essence of "love" as obedience to the God's Holy Law and Word:

1 The essence of loving God, who Himself is Love, is obeying God's Holy Laws. Love is not a FEELING, but an act of
2 OBEDIENCE to God's Laws. The legal definition of the word "worship" reveals that the essence of worship is obedience
3 to God's Holy Laws.

4 Worship. Any form of religious service showing reverence for Divine Being, or exhortation to obedience to or
5 following the mandates of such Being. Religious exercises participated in by a number of persons assembled
6 for that purpose, the disturbance of which is a statutory offense in many states.

7 English law. A title of honor or dignity used in addresses to certain magistrates and other persons of rank or 8 office.

9 Public worship. This term may mean the worship of God, conducted and observed under public authority; or it
10 may mean worship in an open or public place, without privacy or concealment; or it may mean the performance
11 of religious exercises, under a provision for an equal right in the whole public to participate in its benefits; or it
12 may be used in contradistinction to worship in the family or the closet. In this country, what is called "public 13 worship" is commonly conducted by voluntary societies, constituted according to their own notions of 14 ecclesiastical authority and ritual propriety, opening their places of worship, and admitting to their religious 15 serves such persons, and upon such terms, and subject to such regulations, as they may choose to designate and 16 establish. A church absolutely belonging to the public, and in which all persons without restriction have equal
17 rights, such as the public enjoy in highways or public landings, is certainly a very rare institution.
18 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, pp. 1606-1607]

19 This is exactly the same kind of obedience that secular law demands:

20 Obedientia est legis essentia.
21 Obedience is the essence of the law. 11 Co. 100.
22 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
23 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

24 Just as one of the main purposes of religion is morality, law has the same purpose:

25 Jus est ars boni et aequi.
26 Law is the science of what is good and evil. Dig. 1, 1, 1, 1.
27 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
28 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

29 Based on the preceding, both secular law and Christian religion have the same goals, which is educating people about right
30 and wrong and morality. Law teaches people about morality by punishing them and isolating them from others in jail when 31 they are immoral or do something wrong. Christians teach their people about morality by teaching the scriptures and by 32 example. In that sense, both Government (man) and God are competitors for the affection and worship (obedience) of the 33 people. Those who unquestioningly obey civil rulers and especially those who obey civil rulers who are violating God's 34 laws, we allege, are in fact practicing idolatry and paganism, which is the worst sin documented in the Bible. This fact is 35 exhaustively proven in the following scholarly work on Biblical Law:

The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas John Rushdoony, 1973, The Craig Press, Library of Congress Catalog Card Number 72-79485

37 ministry or its teachings. They exhaustively prove that all such arguments are simply FALSE:

5. Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007-proves that the Bible is a law book and a trust indenture and that the essence of loving God is obeying the law book. Most Christian churches treat the Bible as a history book and not a law book, which makes God into a Savior but not a Sovereign Lord over their lives and makes Jesus into nothing more than a liability insurance salesman for the wrath of hell. 12.2 Ministry wants to elevate Christianity above other religions

We do NOT seek to elevate Christianity above any other faith, either within the ministry or within any government. Under our system of law ALL are equal. We cover this exhaustively in:

Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

In our Foundations of Freedom video series, we even go so far as to say that ALL OF YOUR FREEDOM DERIVES FROM EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW. The implication is that unless all religions and all people are equal, then NO ONE is free!

Foundations of Freedom Course, Form #12.021, Video 1: Introduction
SLIDES: <http://sedm.org/LibertyU/FoundOfFreedom-Slides.pdf>
VIDEO: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P3ggFibd5hk>

Consistent with the above, the SEDM About Us Page, Section 9 says the following on this subject:

The main thing we want you to understand is that we don't insist that all Members must be Christian or any other faith for that matter. We just want you to believe in a SINGLE God, follow the laws of that God without selecting which ones you want to follow, practice separation of church and state, and not be against religions other than your own. NOT being against religions other than your own implies NOT doing any of the following:

1. You don't seek to commit genocide against anyone, including those of religions other than your own.
2. You don't seek to behead or punish in any way those who don't share your beliefs using law or the government.
3. You don't deny the Holy Trinity, consisting of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
4. You don't argue with or punish the Christian belief that God had a son. Muslims believe God had no son and argue with Christians about it.
5. You won't support the implementation of any religious law system or theocracy within the government, including especially Sharia law.

1 All of the above represent the initiation of force, coercion, or punishment against people for their religious beliefs,
2 or impose or enforce religious laws against those who don't support them using the violence or coercion of the
3 state. We aren't saying we oppose Muslims but we oppose Muslims who force their beliefs or laws upon others
4 using the violence of the state. For why we oppose force and violence for religious reasons as indicated above,

6 SEDM does not have any faith requirements, other than that people are believers. We say that people should
7 believe in God singular but we very deliberately do not say WHICH God. To be a member of SEDM, you must
8 understand and accept the fact that SEDM seeks to interact with the issues of our time from a Christian world
9 view; and, you must agree NOT to undermine or subvert or sabotage the Source of our opinions or beliefs . . . but
10 this requirement does not imply that constructive, progressive criticism is not welcome. Our positions on law
11 and politics proceed from the Scripture as we understand it, howbeit, imperfectly. The philosophy you should be 12 compatible with is summarized below:

13 1. You must understand and accept the following beliefs connected with the tree of life:

- 14 1.1 There is only one, true Lawgiver who is the infinite, personal, triune Spirit, the God of Creation, the 15 Author of the Bible, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; and,
16 1.2 That this God has spoken in history as recorded in God's Word which is sufficient for our faith and 17 conduct; and,
18 1.3 That this God has revealed His law to men which is the only true measure of justice; and,
19 1.4 That this God has revealed His grace and mercy to us in and through His Son for the salvation of men 20 by virtue of His death, burial, and resurrection; and,
21 1.5 That Christ is the risen, ascended, enthroned King of kings, the King of the Nations, the only 22 Sovereign upon which all de jure governments must build their foundation (Isaiah 9:6); and,
23 1.6 That the family, and government, and church are God-ordained institution; and, that the family is the 24 institution of education; that the government is the institution of justice; and that the Church is the 25 institution of grace.
26 1.7 That good government is a blessing to mankind; and, that the purpose of government is not
27 redistribution of wealth, but in place to protect life, liberty, and property; and, that when a 28 government becomes destructive to these ends, it is man's duty to resist or to alter or abolish it, and 29 to institute new governments to the glory of God and to the service of man.

30 2. You must not concede to the following suppositions as they have a lineage to the poisonous tree:

- 31 2.1 Religious atheism: the value system that results from a belief that man is a product of time plus 32 chance; or,
33 2.2 Pantheism; the belief that God is everything and everything is God. Such a tautology is the intellectual 34 sin of word magic; or,
35 2.3 Zionism or Judaism: the Talmudic belief that Ashkenazi Jews are God's chosen people and are 36 destined to rule the world and have a God-given right to deceive and use Gentiles to their own ends;
37 or,
38 2.4 Humanism; the belief that man is the measure of all things; or, that man is or becoming a god; or, that 39 man is himself the proper "ultimate concern" and source of law; or,
40 2.5 Pluralism or Universalism: the belief that there are many gods and many religions, that all are good,
41 and that all are roads to the same truth; or,
42 2.6 Mohammedism: the false religion based on the teaching of the false prophet, Mohammed (570-632 43 A.D.).
44 2.7 Legalism: the belief that law can save society and that society can reach a man-made utopia by 45 enacting more legislation; and,
46 2.8 Multiculturalism: The belief ethical diversity is a strength and not a weakness to overcome; and, that 47 atheists and theists; Christians and Moslems; wolves and sheep can live in the same pasture in 48 peace; or
49 2.9 Racism: The belief that one race commends a man to God or that one race is superior to another; or,
50 2.10 Fascism, Liberalism, or totalitarianism or any belief that government is god; that rights come from
51 government; that service to the State is superior to other callings; or belief in the total subjugation
52 of the total man to total government.

3. Unacceptable characteristics that will result in rejection of your specific faith:

- 3.1 Attack the validity of the Bible as a law book.
- 3.2 Believe they or any currently living man/woman can become gods, EQUAL to God, SUPERIOR to God, or UNACCOUNTABLE to the one and only God. That is what Satan tried to do, which earned him an eternal curse.
- 3.3 Identify god as a physical thing, including themselves, or identify him/her as existing in physical things. See Rom. 1:24-25, which says pagans worship the creation rather than the creator. It results in mysticism and occultism and violates the First Commandment.
- 3.4 Practice "smorgasboard religion". For instance, they write their own divine law or bible or pick subsets of all faiths to make their own hodge-podge religion. This is nothing but a self-serving way to escape accountability or liability under any single divine law. Click here \(OFFSITE LINK\) for details.
- 3.5 Treat religion as an intellectual exercise rather than rules for how to treat others and love others.
- 3.6 Seek to escape accountability to the laws of their god by stating that any part of it has been repealed or is not enforceable or is subjectively defined by them.
- 3.7 Put their desire for any earthly physical pleasure or condition or possession higher in priority than their allegiance to God's Holy Laws.
- 3.8 Believe in multiple Gods. That's paganism and idolatry.
- 3.9 Believe they are superior to other religions or that other religions are a product of ignorance. This sort of elitism divides groups, creates animosity, and violates the notion of equal protection and equal treatment.
- 3.10 Believe that any government or civil ruler can or should have more authority or rights than a single human, thus instituting idolatry towards government.
- 3.11 Sanction, condone, or promote violence of any kind in any scenario OTHER than in self defense where one's life is immediately threatened by a hostile other. This is especially true of violence or hate directed against either other religions or their members, specific governments, or innocent people generally.

Anyone who meets the above criteria, we believe, is capable of being worthy to deserve liberty, which the Declaration of Independence points out comes only from "Nature's God". If you meet the above minimum religious criteria and consent to the rest of the Member Agreement, Form #01.001, then we welcome you as a member. Otherwise, we don't. We have many members who are not Christians and many members from different Christian faiths. There are Catholics, Muslims, Lutherans, Evangelicals, and many other faiths represented. However, we have no atheists and we wouldn't take atheists as members. This is because:

"Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty [freedom]."
[\[2 Corinthians 3:17, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

Conversely, where the spirit of the "Lord" ISN'T, there can be absolutely nothing but sin, slavery, and subjection, as the Bible clearly points out. The Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302 (OFFSITE LINK), section 4.3.10 conclusively proves this. Spiritual evil is not a tangible thing. Instead, it is actually the ABSENCE of God. Hell is a place of eternal separation from God, which is a place where God and His sacred moral laws are completely absent. The word "sin" in Spanish means "without", and the thing that people are "without" when they "sin" is God and His Laws. Consequently, atheists are the epitome of evil because they believe God does not exist and that manifestations of His moral laws should be removed from society. Most religions teach us to avoid evil, and therefore we must avoid atheists. We believe in and vociferously defend freedom OF religion, but we are entirely opposed to freedom FROM religion. Our quote at the beginning of this page from George Washington, our most revered founding father, explains why this MUST be so:

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labour to subvert these great Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, "where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice?" And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."
[\[George Washington in his Farewell Address \(OFFSITE LINK\)\]](#)

If you want specific examples of religions or belief systems ("isms") that we have determined so far as unacceptable, below are a few and there may be others. All of these "religions" violate one or more of the criteria listed earlier. Those who become members and have any of these beliefs will be Members in Bad Standing:

1. Atheism
2. Satanism
3. Thelema
4. Christian Rationalism

We believe that government should not be used as a vehicle to either establish a religion or to disestablish one, or to promote Christianity over any other faith. To do otherwise would be to deprive people of all faiths the "equal protection of the laws" (see Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033). You answer to your God, and not us. We are not the judge of whether you have satisfied the laws of your God and to do otherwise would make us into bigots and zealots and aristocrats. We are, however, the judge of whether you are injuring your neighbor, which is the subject of the last six commandments of the Ten Commandments (OFFSITE LINK) and the origin of all moral and legal authority that the government has.

Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him [Jesus] a question, testing Him, and saying, "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

Jesus said to him, "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."
[Matt. 22:36-40, Bible, NKJV]

13.2 Ministry wants to establish a theocracy in a secular society

The most frequent false allegation we get from secular people is that we intend to implement a theocracy under the Bible. This is FALSE for the reasons explained in the following video:

14 False Media Propaganda against this ministry

14.1 Fraudulent accusations that we are anti-government

14.1.1 Example article

Here is an example article biased against "sovereign citizens":

FBI warns of threat from anti-government extremists

1 By Patrick Temple-West

2 WASHINGTON | Mon Feb 6, 2012 7:21pm EST

3 WASHINGTON (Reuters) - Anti-government extremists opposed to taxes and regulations pose a growing threat
4 to local law enforcement officers in the United States, the FBI warned on Monday.

5 These extremists, sometimes known as "sovereign citizens," believe they can live outside any type of government
6 authority, FBI agents said at a news conference.

7 The extremists may refuse to pay taxes, defy government environmental regulations and believe the United States
8 went bankrupt by going off the gold standard.

9 Routine encounters with police can turn violent "at the drop of a hat," said Stuart McArthur, deputy assistant
10 director in the FBI's counterterrorism division.

11 "We thought it was important to increase the visibility of the threat with state and local law enforcement," he 12 said.

13 In May 2010, two West Memphis, Arkansas, police officers were shot and killed in an argument that developed
14 after they pulled over a "sovereign citizen" in traffic.

15 Last year, an extremist in Texas opened fire on a police officer during a traffic stop. The officer was not hit.

16 Legal convictions of such extremists, mostly for white-collar crimes such as fraud, have increased from 10 in 17 2009 to 18 each in 2010 and 2011, FBI agents said.

18 "We are being inundated right now with requests for training from state and local law enforcement on sovereign-
19 related matters," said Casey Carty, an FBI supervisory special agent.

20 FBI agents said they do not have a tally of people who consider themselves "sovereign citizens."

21 J.J. MacNab, a former tax and insurance expert who is an analyst covering the sovereign movement, has 22 estimated that it has about 100,000 members.

23 Sovereign members often express particular outrage at tax collection, putting Internal Revenue Service employees
24 at risk.

25 (Reporting By Patrick Temple-West; Editing by Kevin Drawbaugh)

26 14.1.2 Rebuttal to example article

27 The content of this section rebuts the biased press release in the previous section, starting after the line below:

28 _____
29 A few things to be noticed in this presumptuous article:

- 30 1. The title itself uses the terms United States and FBI which would indicate this "threat" is to the federal United States 31 corporation and to no one else.
- 32 2. "Sovereign citizen" is an oxymoron as citizen, in most cases, denotes being under a governments civil/private law
- 33 3. "believe they can live outside any type of government authority" – only outside it's civil law/private law if not 34 consented to
- 35 4. The use of the word "extremists" is subjective and inflammatory at best and is designed to connect freedom to 36 extremism/terrorism
- 37 5. "We are being inundated right now with requests for training from state and local law enforcement on sovereign-
38 related matters," - could this be because those who have properly removed themselves from federal civil jurisdiction
39 and private law franchises are now a real legal threat to any individual police officer who acts outside his limited
40 authority? Makes one wonder.....

41 It's absolutely asinine that they are calling people anything that they refuse to define. In fact:

1. There IS no legal definition for either a "sovereign citizen" or a "terrorist" and they couldn't define it even if they wanted to because it would unconstitutionally circumvent the police powers of the states.
2. Were there to be a legal definition of "terrorism" it's foundation would no doubt include an absence of the respect for the rule of law which seems to describe the track taken by the current imposter government. They therefore couldn't define "terrorism" without ALSO including THEMSELVES. That's why they don't want to define it.
3. If they DID define "sovereign" as we have, all their "sovereign citizen" propaganda would have to cease because it would be in conflict with their own definition and they would have nothing left to talk about or complain about or sensationalize:

4. MEANING OF WORDS

4.20 Sovereign

The word "sovereign" when referring to humans or governments means all the following:

1. A human being and NOT a "government". Only human beings are "sovereign" and only when they are acting in strict obedience to the laws of their religion. All powers of government are delegated from the PEOPLE and are NOT "divine rights". Those powers in turn are only operative when government PREVENTS the conversion of PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights. When that goal is avoided or undermined or when law is used to accomplish involuntary conversion, we cease to have a government and instead end up with a private, de facto for profit corporation that has no sovereign immunity and cannot abuse sovereign immunity to protect its criminal thefts from the people.
2. EQUAL in every respect to any and every government or actor in government. All governments are legal "persons" and under our Constitutional system, ALL "persons" are equal and can only become UNEQUAL in relation to each other WITH their EXPRESS and NOT IMPLIED consent. Since our Constitutional rights are unalienable per the Declaration of Independence, then we can't become unequal in relation to any government, INCLUDING through our consent.
3. Not superior in any way to any human being within the jurisdiction of the courts of any country.
4. Possessing the EQUAL right to acquire rights over others by the same mechanisms as the government uses. For instance, if the government encourages the filing of FALSE information returns that essentially "elect" people into public office without their consent, then we have an EQUAL right to elect any and every government or officer within government into our PERSONAL service as our PERSONAL officer without THEIR consent. See: Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001.
5. Subject to the criminal laws of the jurisdiction they are physically situated in, just like everyone else. This provision excludes "quasi criminal provisions" within civil franchises, such as tax crimes.
6. The origin of all authority delegated to the government per the Declaration of Independence.
7. Reserving all rights and delegating NONE to any and every government or government actor. U.C.C. §1-308 and its predecessor, U.C.C. §1-207.
8. Not consenting to any and every civil franchise offered by any government.
9. Possessing the same sovereign immunity as any government. Hence, like the government, any government actor asserting a liability or obligation has the burden of proving on the record of any court proceeding EXPRESS WRITTEN consent to be sued before the obligation becomes enforceable.
10. Claiming no civil or franchise status under any statutory franchise, including but not limited to "citizen", "resident", "driver" (under the vehicle code), "spouse" (under the family code), "taxpayer" (under the tax code). Any attempt to associate a statutory status and the public rights it represents against a non-consenting party is THEFT and SLAVERY and INJUSTICE.
11. Acting as a fiduciary, agent, and trustee on behalf of God 24 hours a day, seven days a week as an ambassador of a legislatively foreign jurisdiction and as a public officer of "Heaven, Inc.", a private foreign corporation. God is the ONLY "sovereign" and the source of all sovereignty. We must be acting as His agent and fiduciary before we can exercise any sovereignty at all. Any attempt by so-called "government" to interfere with our ability to act as His fiduciaries is a direct interference with our right to contract and the free exercise of religion. See: Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007
12. Capable of being civilly sued ONLY under the common law and equity and not under any statutory civil law. All statutory civil laws are law for government and public officers, and NOT for private human beings. They are civil franchises that only acquire the "force of law" with the consent of the subject. See: Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
13. Protected from the civil statutory law by the First Amendment requirement for separation of church and state because we Christians are the church and our physical body is the "temple" of the church. See: 1 Cor. 6:19.
14. Responsible for all the injuries they cause to every other person under equity and common law ONLY, and not under civil statutory law.

4. Even when they DO try to define something legally, they refuse to be limited by the definition, so THEY are the terrorists because their actions are not limited by the law, thus turning a society of law into a society of men/policy.

5. They are not a government, because THIS republican government is a society of law, as declared by the U.S. Supreme Court in Marbury v. Madison. That means a MAN isn't allowed to subjectively define what words mean and only the LAW can. A failure to define words is in itself TERRORISM, and produces what the U.S. Supreme Court calls "arbitrary control". THAT arbitrary control is, in fact, the REAL terrorism and amounts to a society of men. The U.S. Code also identifies such people and the present de facto government as COMMUNISTS:

TITLE 50 > CHAPTER 23 > SUBCHAPTER IV > Sec. 841.
Sec. 841. - Findings and declarations of fact

The Congress finds and declares that the Communist Party of the United States [consisting of the IRS, DOJ, and a corrupted federal judiciary], although purportedly a political party, is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the [de jure] Government of the United States [and replace it with a de facto government ruled by the judiciary]. It constitutes an authoritarian dictatorship [IRS, DOJ, and corrupted federal judiciary in collusion] within a [constitutional] republic, demanding for itself the rights and [FRANCHISE/ privileges [including immunity from prosecution for their wrongdoing in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the Constitution] accorded to political parties, but denying to all others the liberties [Bill of Rights] guaranteed by the Constitution [Form #10.002]. Unlike political parties, which evolve their policies and programs through public means, by the reconciliation of a wide variety of individual views, and submit those policies and programs to the electorate at large for approval or disapproval, the policies and programs of the Communist Party are secretly [by corrupt judges and the IRS in complete disregard of, Form #05.014, the tax franchise "codes", Form #05.001] prescribed for it by the foreign leaders of the world Communist movement [the IRS and Federal Reserve]. Its members [the Congress, which was terrorized to do IRS bidding by the framing of Congressman Traficant] have no part in determining its goals, and are not permitted to voice dissent to party objectives. Unlike members of political parties, members of the Communist Party are recruited for indoctrination [in the public FOOL system by homosexuals, liberals, and socialists] with respect to its objectives and methods, and are organized, instructed, and disciplined [by the IRS and a corrupted judiciary] to carry into action slavishly the assignments given them by their hierarchical chieftains. Unlike political parties, the Communist Party [thanks to a corrupted federal judiciary] acknowledges no constitutional or statutory limitations upon its conduct or upon that of its members [ANARCHISTS!, Form #08.020]. The Communist Party is relatively small numerically, and gives scant indication of capacity ever to attain its ends by lawful political means. The peril inherent in its operation arises not from its numbers, but from its failure to acknowledge any limitation as to the nature of its activities, and its dedication to the proposition that the present constitutional Government of the United States ultimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to: force and violence [or using income taxes]. Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of a hostile foreign power [the Federal Reserve and the American Bar Association (ABA)] renders its existence a clear present and continuing danger to the security of the United States. It is the means whereby individuals are seduced [illegally KIDNAPPED via identity theft!, Form #05.046] into the service of the world Communist movement [using FALSE information returns and other PERJURIOUS government forms, Form #04.001], trained to do its bidding [by FALSE government publications and statements that the government is not accountable for the accuracy of, Form #05.007], and directed and controlled [using FRANCHISES illegally enforced upon NONRESIDENTS, Form #05.030] in the conspiratorial performance of their revolutionary services. Therefore, the Communist Party should be outlawed

<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm#4. MEANINGS OF WORDS>

Basically, anyone who knows more about the law than an ignorant jack booted THUG with a gun who is on their payroll is a "terrorist" or a "sovereign citizen" or an "extremist". Ignorant people are easily intimidated and when the police are the ignorant ones, the person smart enough to expose and embarrass their ignorance and violations of law is a terrorist.

1 Worse, some armed employees/agents of this pretend government who are also ignorant of the rule of law may now wrongly
2 see unfranchised “non-resident non-persons” as a threat.

3 It appears that when the people no longer understand the meaning of the rule of law that organizations pretending to be
4 government will try to use propaganda as a substitute for law. In other words, they substitute franchises and public policy in 5 place of de jure law and the rule of law.

6 The media are therefore obviously presumptuous IDIOTS and FOOLS for trying to release such a presumptuous article to 7 begin with.

You're not a STATUTORY "citizen" under the Internal Revenue Code, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Citizenship/NotACitizenUnderIRC.htm>

4 We DO NOT claim the above. In fact we claim that:

- 5 1. We are NOT "tax protesters", but CRIME protesters, and that the Internal Revenue Service is engaged in massive 6 crime.
- 7 2. Americans anywhere in America and domiciled within any CONSTITUTIONAL state are CONSTITUTIONAL 8 citizens and/or Fourteenth Amendment citizens.
- 9 3. There are FOUR definitions of the term "United States", and because of this, there are FOUR types of "citizens of the 10 United States".
- 11 4. The geographical term "United States" used in the Fourteenth Amendment and that used in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and 12 (a)(10) are NOT equivalent and mutually exclusive.
- 13 5. One CANNOT be a STATUTORY "citizen" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 or the Internal Revenue Code WITHOUT a civil 14 domicile on federal territory not within the exclusive jurisdiction of any state.
- 15 6. The only STATUTORY "taxpayers", "persons", or "individuals" are public offices in the government lawfully
16 engaged in the STATUTORY "trade or business"/public office franchise. Congress has no authority to regulate 17 exclusively PRIVATE conduct, which is why all statutory "taxpayers" MUST be public offices or officers within the 18 national but not state government.
- 19 7. Those who claim or presume that they are statutory "taxpayers" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14), "persons" per 26 U.S.C.
20 §7701(c), or "individuals" in fact have unwittingly volunteered usually illegally to be surety for the public office that
21 in fact is the only statutory "taxpayer". The office is domiciled in the District of Columbia and "United States" under
22 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and they assume the effective domicile of the office they represent per Federal Rule
23 of Civil Procedure 17(b). This is exhaustively proven in the following. Those wishing to challenge it should rebut the 24 questions at the end under penalty of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065 or SHUT UP and be prosecuted for 25 FRAUD:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 26 8. STATUTORY "citizens of the United States" found in the Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. §3121(e) and 26 C.F.R.
27 §1.1-1(c) are NOT equivalent to CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens of the United States" found in the Fourteenth
28 Amendment. Any presumption that they are equivalent is a violation of due process, kidnapping, identity theft, and 29 theft by presumption.
- 30 9. You can be a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen WITHOUT being a STATUTORY citizen.

31 None of the court cases they cite in the above article directly address ANY of the above issues or provide legal evidence
32 MISPROVING any of it. The average American is a STATUTORY non-resident non-person in the I.R.C. and a
33 CONSTITUTIONAL citizen, and hence their article is abusing federal court rulings as the equivalent of political propaganda
34 aimed at nonresidents. This is established in:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

35 True constitutional courts and the LICENSED attorneys who litigate in them CANNOT lawfully act in a POLITICAL mode
36 or entertain such "political questions". Furthermore, even the IRS refuses to recognize any of the court cases they cite as 37 authority so why should we or anyone else for that matter? Under the concept of equal protection and equal treatment, if 38 these cases aren't "law" or binding for the IRS, they aren't for us EITHER.

39 Internal Revenue Manual
40 4.10.7.2.9.8 (05-14-1999)
41 Importance of Court Decisions

42 1. "Decisions made at various levels of the court system are considered to be interpretations of tax laws and may
43 be used by either examiners or taxpayers to support a position.

2. Certain court cases lend more weight to a position than others. A case decided by the U.S. Supreme Court becomes 2the law of the land and takes precedence over decisions of lower courts. The Internal Revenue Service must follow Supreme Court decisions. For examiners, Supreme Court decisions have the same weight as the Code.

3. Decisions made by lower courts, such as Tax Court, District Courts, or Claims Court, are binding on the Service only for the particular taxpayer and the years litigated. Adverse decisions of lower courts do not require the Service to alter its position for other taxpayers.”

For further information on HOW the above article is misleading you about the nature of obligations under the Internal Revenue Code, see:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The remainder of this section after the double line is a reprint of the content of the section they try to discredit, which as you can see does not assert the position they fraudulently say it does. The only ones misleading the public are the anonymous government moles who wrote the above fraudulent article:

You're Not a Citizen under the Internal Revenue Code

*"Unless the defendant can prove he is not a citizen of the United States [under 8 U.S.C. §1401 and NOT the constitution], the IRS has the right to inquire and determine a tax liability."
[U.S. v. Slater, 545 Fed.Supp. 179,182 (1982).]*

There are TWO contexts in which one may be a "citizen", and these two contexts are mutually exclusive and not overlapping:

1. Statutory: Relies on statutory definitions of "United States", which mean federal territory that is no part of any state of the Union.
2. Constitutional. Relies on the Constitutional meaning of "United States", which means states of the Union and excludes federal territory.

Within the field of citizenship, CONTEXT is everything in discerning the meaning of geographical terms. By “context”, we mean ONE of the two contexts as indicated above:

*"Citizenship of the United States is defined by the Fourteenth Amendment and federal statutes. but the requirements for citizenship of a state generally depend not upon definition but the constitutional or statutory context in which the term is used. Risewick v. Davis, 19 Md. 82, 93 (1862); Halaby v. Board of Directors of University of Cincinnati, 162 Ohio St. 290, 293, 123 N.E.2d 3 (1954) and authorities therein cited.

The decisions illustrate the diversity of the term's usage. In Field v. Adreon, 7 Md. 209 (1854), our predecessors held that an unnaturalized foreigner, residing and doing business in this State, was a citizen of Maryland within the meaning of the attachment laws. The Court held that the absconding debtor was a citizen of the State for commercial or business purposes, although not necessarily for political purposes. Dorsey v. Kyle, 30 Md. 512, 518 (1869), is to the same effect. Judge Alvey, for the Court, said in that case, that 'the term citizen, used in the formula of the affidavit prescribed by the 4th section of the Article of the Code referred to, is to be taken as synonymous with inhabitant or permanent resident.'

Other jurisdictions have equated residence with citizenship of the state for political and other non-commercial purposes. In re Wehlitz, 16 Wis. 443, 446 (1863), held that the Wisconsin statute designating 'all able-bodied, white, male citizens' as subject to enrollment in the militia included an unnaturalized citizen who was a resident of the state. 'Under our complex system of government,' the court said, 'there may be a citizen of a state, who is not a citizen of the United States in the full sense of the term.' McKenzie v. Murphy, 24 Ark. 155, 159 (1863), held that an alien, domiciled in the state for over ten years, was entitled to the homestead exemptions provided

1 by the Arkansas statute to 'every free white citizen of this state, male or female, being a householder or head
2 of a family * * *.' The court said: 'The word 'citizen' is often used in common conversation and writing, as
3 meaning only an inhabitant, a resident of a town, state, or county, without any implication of political or civil
4 privileges; and we think it is so used in our constitution.' Halaby v. Board of Directors of University, supra,
5 involved the application of a statute which provided free university instruction to citizens of the municipality
6 in which the university is located. The court held that the plaintiff, an alien minor whose parents were residents
7 of and conducted a business in the city, was entitled to the benefits of that statute, saying: 'It is to be observed
8 that the term, 'citizen,' is often used in legislation where 'domicile' is meant and where United States citizenship
9 has no reasonable relationship to the subject matter and purpose of the legislation in question.'

10 Closely in point to the interpretation of the constitutional provision here involved is a report of the Committee of 11 Elections of the House of Representatives, made in 1823. A petitioner had objected to the right of a Delegate to 12 retain his seat from what was then the Michigan Territory. One of the objections was that the Delegate had not 13 resided in the Territory one year previous to the election in the status of a citizen of the United States. An act of 14 Congress passed in 1819, 3 Stat. 483 provided that 'every free white male citizen of said Territory, above the age
15 of twenty-one years, who shall have resided therein one year next preceding' an election shall be entitled to vote
16 at such election for a delegate to Congress. An act of 1823, 3 Stat. 769 provided that all citizens of the United
17 States having the qualifications set forth in the former act shall be eligible to any office in the Territory. The 18 Committee held that the statutory requirement of citizenship of the Territory for a year before the election did not
19 mean that the aspirant for office must also have been a United States citizen during that period. The report said:
20 'It is the person, the individual, the man, who is [221 A.2d 435] spoken of, and who is to possess the qualifications
21 of residence, age, freedom, &c. at the time he offers to vote, or is to be voted for * * *.' Upon the filing of the 22 report, and the submission of a resolution that the Delegate was entitled to his seat, the contestant of the 23 Delegate's election withdrew his protest, and the sitting Delegate was confirmed. Biddle v. Richard, Clarke and 24 Hall, Cases of Contested Elections in Congress (1834) 407, 410.

25 There is no express requirement in the Maryland Constitution that sheriffs be United States citizens. Voters must 26 be, under Article I, Section 1, but Article IV, Section 44 does not require that sheriffs be voters. A person does 27 not have to be a voter to be a citizen of either the United States or of a state, as in the case of native-born minors.
28 In Maryland, from 1776 to 1802, the Constitution contained requirements of property ownership for the exercise
29 of the franchise; there was no exception as to native-born citizens of the State. Steiner, Citizenship and Suffrage
30 in Maryland (1895) 27, 31.

31 The Maryland Constitution provides that the Governor, Judges and the Attorney General shall be qualified voters,
32 and therefore, by necessary implication, citizens of the United States. Article II, Section 5, Article IV, Section 2,
33 and Article V, Section 4. The absence of a similar requirement as to the qualifications of sheriffs is significant.
34 So also, in our opinion, is the absence of any period of residence for a sheriff except that he shall have been a
35 citizen of the State for five years. The Governor, Judges and Attorney General in addition to being citizens of the 36 State and qualified voters, must have been a resident of the State for various periods. The conjunction of the 37 requisite period of residence with state citizenship in the qualifications for sheriff strongly indicates that, as in 38 the authorities above referred to, state citizenship, as used in the constitutional qualifications for this office, was
39 meant to be synonymous with domicile, and that citizenship of the United States is not required, even by 40 implication, as a qualification for this office. The office of sheriff, under our Constitution, is ministerial in nature;
41 a sheriff's function and province is to execute duties prescribed by law. See Buckeye Dev. Corp. v. Brown &
42 Schilling, Inc., Md., 220 A.2d, 922, filed June 23, 1966 and the concurring opinion of Le Grand, C. J. in Mayor
43 & City Council of Baltimore v. State, ex rel. Bd. of Police, 15 Md. 376, 470, 488-490 (1860).

44 It may well be that the phrase, 'a citizen of the State,' as used in the constitutional provisions as to qualifications,
45 implies that a sheriff cannot owe allegiance to another nation. By the naturalization act of 1779, the Legislature
46 provided that, to become a citizen of Maryland, an alien must swear allegiance to the State. The oath or 47 affirmation provided that the applicant renounced allegiance 'to any king or prince, or any other State or 48 Government.' Act of July, 1779, Ch. VI; Steiner, op. cit. 15. In this case, on the admitted facts, there can be no
49 question of the appellant's undivided allegiance.

50 The court below rested its decision on its conclusion that, under the Fourteenth Amendment, no state may confer
51 state citizenship upon a resident alien until such resident alien becomes a naturalized citizen of the United States.
52 The court relied, as does not Board in this appeal, upon City of Minneapolis v. Reum, 56 F. 576, 581 (8th Cir.
53 1893). In that case, an alien resident of Minnesota, who had declared his intention to become a citizen of the 54 United States but had not been naturalized, brought a suit, based on diversity of citizenship, against the city in
55 the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota under Article III, Section 2 of the United States
56 Constitution which provides that the federal judicial power shall extend to 'Controversies between * * * a State,
57 or the Citizens thereof, and foreign States, Citizens or Subjects.' At the close of the evidence, the defendant moved
58 to dismiss the action for want of jurisdiction, on the [221 A.2d 436] ground that the evidence failed to establish 59 the allegation that the plaintiff was an alien. The court denied the motion, the plaintiff recovered judgment, and 60 the defendant claimed error in the ruling on jurisdiction. The Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed. Judge Sanborn,
61 for the court, stated that even though the plaintiff were a citizen of the state, that fact could not enlarge or restrict
62 the jurisdiction of the federal courts over controversies between aliens and citizens of the state. The court said:
63 'It is not in the power of a state to denationalize a foreign subject who has not complied with the federal
64 naturalization laws, and constitute him a citizen of the United States or of a state, so as to deprive the federal 65 courts of jurisdiction * * *.'

1 Reum dealt only with the question of jurisdiction of federal courts under the diversity of citizenship clause of the
2 federal Constitution. That a state cannot affect that jurisdiction by granting state citizenship to an unnaturalized
3 alien does not mean it cannot make an alien a state citizen for other purposes. Under the Fourteenth Amendment
4 all persons born or naturalized in the United States are citizens of the United States and of the state in which they
5 reside, but we find nothing in Reum of any other case which requires that a citizen of a state must also be a citizen
6 of the United States, if no question of federal rights or jurisdictions is involved. As the authorities referred to in 7 the first portion of this opinion evidence, the law is to the contrary.

8 Absent any unconstitutional discrimination, a state has the right to extend qualification for state office to its
9 citizens, even though they are not citizens of the United States. This, we have found, is what Maryland has done
10 in fixing the constitutional qualifications for the office of sheriff. The appellant meets the qualifications which our 11 Constitution provides."

12 [Crosse v. Board of Sup'rs of Elections of Baltimore City, 221 A.2d. 431, 243 Md. 555 (Md., 1966)]

13 The confusion over citizenship prevalent today is caused by a deliberate confusion of the above two contexts with each other
14 so as to make every American appear to be a statutory citizen and therefore a public officer of the "United States Inc"
15 government corporation. This fact was first identified by the U.S. Supreme Court as follows:

16 "Under our own systems of polity, the term 'citizen', implying the same or similar relations to the government and
17 to society which appertain to the term, 'subject' in England, is familiar to all. Under either system, the term used
18 is designed to apply to man in his individual character and to his natural capacities -- to a being or agent
19 [PUBLIC OFFICER!] possessing social and political rights and sustaining social, political, and moral
20 obligations. It is in this acceptation only, therefore, that the term 'citizen', in the article of the Constitution,
21 can be received and understood. When distributing the judicial power, that article extends it to controversies
22 between 'citizens' of different states. This must mean the natural physical beings composing those separate 23 communities, and can by no violence of interpretation be made to signify artificial, incorporeal, theoretical,
24 and invisible creations. A corporation, therefore, being not a natural person, but a mere creature of the mind,
25 invisible and intangible, cannot be a citizen of a state, or of the United States, and cannot fall within the terms
26 or the power of the above mentioned article, and can therefore neither plead nor be impleaded in the courts of 27 the United States."

28 "Sir Edward Coke has declared, that a corporation cannot commit treason, felony, or other crime; neither is 29 it capable of suffering a traitor's or felon's punishment, for it is not liable to corporeal penalties -- that it can
30 perform no personal duties, for it cannot take an oath for the due execution of an office; neither can it be
31 arrested or committed to prison, for its existence being ideal, no man can arrest it; neither can it be 32 excommunicated, for it has no soul. But these doctrines of Lord Coke were founded upon an apprehension of 33 the law now treated as antiquated and obsolete. His lordship did not anticipate an improvement by which a
34 corporation could be transformed into a citizen, and by that transformation be given a physical existence, and
35 endowed with soul and body too. The incongruities here attempted to be shown as necessarily deducible from 36 the decisions of the cases of Bank of the United States v. Deveaux and of Cincinnati & Louisville Railroad
37 Company v. Letson afford some illustration of the effects which must ever follow a departure from the settled
38 principles of the law. These principles are always traceable to a wise and deeply 39 founded experience; they are therefore ever consentaneous and in 40 harmony with themselves and with reason, and whenever abandoned as 41 guides to the judicial course, the aberration must lead to bewildering 42 uncertainty and confusion."

43 [Rundle v. Delaware & Raritan Canal Company 55 U.S. 80, 99 (1852) from dissenting opinion by Justice Daniel]

45 The U.S. Supreme Court has held in Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, 324 U.S. 652 \(1945\) that there are THREE different
46 meanings and contexts for the word "United States". Hence, there are THREE different types of "citizens of the United 47 States" as used in federal statutes and the Constitution. All three types of citizens are called "citizens of the United States",
48 but each relies on a different meaning of the "United States". The meaning that applies depends on the context. For instance,
49 the meaning of "United States" as used in the Constitution implies states of the Union and excludes federal territory, while
50 the term "United States" within federal statutory law means federal territory and excludes states of the Union. Here is an 51 example demonstrating the Constitutional context. Note that they use "part of the United States within the meaning of the

1 Constitution", and the word "the" and the use of the singular form of "meaning" implies only ONE meaning, which means
2 states of the Union and excludes federal territory:

3 "As the only judicial power vested in Congress is to create courts whose judges shall hold their offices during
4 *good behavior, it necessarily follows that, if Congress authorizes the creation of courts and the appointment of
5 judges for limited time, it must act independently of the Constitution upon territory which is not part of the 6 United States within the meaning of the Constitution."
7 [O'Donoghue v. United States, 289 U.S. 516, 53 S.Ct. 740 (1933)]

8 The U.S. Supreme Court and lower courts have also held specifically that:

- 9 1. The statutes conferring citizenship in Title 8 of the U.S. Code are a PRIVILEGE and not a CONSTITUTIONAL
10 RIGHT, and are therefore not even necessary in the case of state citizens.

11 "Finally, this Court is mindful of the years of past practice in which territorial citizenship has been treated as 12 a statutory [PRIVILEGE!], and not a constitutional, right."
13 [Tuana v. U.S.A., Case No. 12-01143 (D.D.C., 2013)]

- 14 2. A citizen of the District of Columbia is NOT equivalent to a constitutional citizen. Note also that the "United States" as 15 defined in the Internal Revenue Code, for instance, includes the "District of Columbia" and nowhere expressly includes 16 states of the Union in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). We, therefore, conclude that the statutory term "citizen of the 17 United States" as used in 8 U.S.C. §1401 includes District of Columbia citizens and all those domiciled on federal 18 territory "statutory citizens" and EXCLUDES those domiciled within states of the Union:

19 "The 1st section of the 14th article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited,
20 opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states.
21 No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act
22 of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the
23 public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except
24 as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided
25 always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[*], were not citizens."
26 [Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]

- 27 3. The 8 U.S.C. §1401 "national and citizen of the United States at birth" born on federal territory is NOT a 28 CONSTITUTIONAL citizen mentioned in the Fourteenth Amendment when it said:

29 "The Court today holds that Congress can indeed rob a citizen of his citizenship just so long as five members
30 of this Court can satisfy themselves that the congressional action was not 'unreasonable, arbitrary,' ante, at 31 831; 'misplaced or arbitrary,' ante, at 832; or 'irrational or arbitrary or unfair,' ante, at 833. My first comment
32 is that not one of these 'tests' appears in the Constitution. Moreover, it seems a little strange to find such 'tests' as 33 these announced in an opinion which condemns the earlier decisions it overrules for their resort to clichés, which 34 it describes as 'too handy and too easy, and, like most clichés, can be misleading'. Ante, at 835. That description
35 precisely fits those words and clauses which the majority uses, but which the Constitution does not.

36 The Constitution, written for the ages, cannot rise and fall with this Court's passing notions of what is 'fair,' or 37 'reasonable,' or 'arbitrary.' [. . .]

38 The Court today holds that the Citizenship Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment has no application to Bellei.
39 The Court first notes that Afroyim was essentially a case construing the Citizenship Clause of the Fourteenth
40 *Amendment. Since the Citizenship Clause declares that: 'All persons born or naturalized in the United States * **
41  are citizens of the United States * * ' the Court reasons that the protections against involuntary expatriation
42 declared in Afroyim do not protect all American citizens, but only those 'born or naturalized in the United States.'
43 Afroyim, the argument runs, was naturalized in this country so he was protected by the Citizenship Clause, but 44 Bellei, since he acquired his American citizenship at birth in Italy as a foreignborn child of an American citizen,
45 was neither born nor naturalized in the United States and, hence, falls outside the scope of the Fourteenth
46 Amendment guarantees declared in Afroyim. One could hardly call this a generous reading of the great purposes
47 the Fourteenth Amendment was adopted to bring about. While conceding that Bellei is an American citizen, the 48 majority states: 'He simply is not a Fourteenth-Amendment-first-sentence citizen.' Therefore, the majority
49 *reasons, the congressional revocation of his citizenship is not barred by the Constitution. I cannot accept the 50 Court's conclusion that the Fourteenth Amendment protects the citizenship of some Americans and not others.
51 [. . .]

52 The Court today puts aside the Fourteenth Amendment as a standard by which to measure congressional 53 action with respect to citizenship, and substitutes in its place the majority's own vague notions of 'fairness.'
54 The majority takes a new step with the recurring theme that the test of constitutionality is the Court's own view

1 of what is 'fair, reasonable, and right.' Despite the concession that Bellei was admittedly an American citizen,
2 and despite the holding in Afroyim that the Fourteenth Amendment has put citizenship, once conferred, beyond
3 the power of Congress to revoke, the majority today upholds the revocation of Bellei's citizenship on the ground
4 that the congressional action was not 'irrational or arbitrary or unfair.' The majority applies the 'shock-the-
5 conscience' test to uphold, rather than strike, a federal statute. It is a dangerous concept of constitutional law
6 that allows the majority to conclude that, because it cannot say the statute is 'irrational or arbitrary or unfair,' 7 the statute must be constitutional.

8 [. . .]

9 Since the Court this Term has already downgraded citizens receiving public welfare, Wyman v. James, 400 U.S.
10 309, 91 S.Ct. 381, 27 L.Ed.2d. 408 (1971), and citizens having the misfortune to be illegitimate, Labine v. Vincent,
11 401 U.S. 532, 91 S.Ct. 1917, 28 L.Ed.2d. 288, I suppose today's decision downgrading citizens born outside the 12 United States should have been expected. Once again, as in James and Labine, the Court's opinion makes evident
13 that its holding is contrary to earlier decisions. Concededly, petitioner was a citizen at birth, not by constitutional
14 right, but only through operation of a federal statute.
15 [Rogers v. Bellei, 401 U.S. 815 (1971)]

16 The Internal Revenue Code relies on the statutory definition of "United States", which means federal territory. The term
17 "citizen" is nowhere defined within the Internal Revenue Code and is defined twice within the implementing regulations at 18 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 and 26 C.F.R. §31.3121(e)-1 . Below is the first of these two definitions:

19 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 Income tax on individuals

20 (c) Who is a citizen.

21 Every person born or naturalized in the United States and subject to its jurisdiction is a citizen. For other rules
22 governing the acquisition of citizenship, see chapters 1 and 2 of title III of the Immigration and Nationality
23 Act (8 U.S.C. 1401-1459). For rules governing loss of citizenship, see sections 349 to 357, inclusive, of such Act
24 (8 U.S.C. 1481-1489), Schneider v. Rusk, (1964) 377 U.S. 163, and Rev. Rul. 70-506, C.B. 1970-2, 1. For rules
25 pertaining to persons who are nationals but not citizens at birth, e.g., a person born in American Samoa, see
26 section 308 of such Act (8 U.S.C. 1408). For special rules applicable to certain expatriates who have lost
27 citizenship with a principal purpose of avoiding certain taxes, see section 877. A foreigner who has filed his 28 declaration of intention of becoming a citizen but who has not yet been admitted to citizenship by a final order of 29 a naturalization court is an alien.

30 Notice the term "born or naturalized in the United States and subject to its jurisdiction", which means the exclusive legislative
31 jurisdiction of the federal government within the District of Columbia and its territories and possessions under Article 1, 32 Section 8, Clause 17 of the Constitution and Title 48 of the U.S. Code. If they meant to include states of the Union, they 33 would have used "their jurisdiction" or "the jurisdiction" as used in section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment instead of "its 34 jurisdiction".

35 "The 13th Amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting slavery and involuntary servitude 'within the United States,
36 or in any place subject to their jurisdiction,' is also significant as showing that there may be places within the 37 jurisdiction of the United States that are no part of the Union. To say that the phraseology of this amendment
38 was due to the fact that it was intended to prohibit slavery in the seceded states, under a possible interpretation
39 that those states were no longer a part of the Union, is to confess the very point in issue, since it involves an
40 admission that, if these states were not a part of the Union, they were still subject to the jurisdiction of the United 41 States.

42 Upon the other hand, the 14th Amendment, upon the subject of citizenship, declares only that 'all persons born
43 or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and 44 of the state wherein they reside.' Here there is a limitation to persons born or naturalized in the United States,
45 which is not extended to persons born in any place 'subject to their jurisdiction.'"
46 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

47 The above definition of "citizen" applying exclusively to the Internal Revenue Code reveals that it depends on 8 U.S.C.
48 §1401, which we said earlier in section 4.11.3 and its subsections means a human being and NOT artificial person born
49 anywhere in the country but domiciled in the federal United States/federal zone, which includes territories or possessions
50 and excludes states of the Union. These people possess a special "non-constitutional" class of citizenship that is not covered
51 by the Fourteenth Amendment or any other part of the Constitution.

52 We also showed in section 4.11.4 that people born in states of the Union are technically not STATUTORY "citizens and 53 nationals of the United States" under 8 U.S.C. §1401, but instead are STATUTORY "non-resident non-persons" with a

1 legislatively but not constitutionally foreign domicile under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21). The term "national" is defined in 8 U.S.C.
2 §1101(a)(21) as follows:

3 (a) (21) The term "national" means a person owing permanent allegiance to a state.

4 In the case of "nationals" who are also statutory "non-resident non-persons" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21), these are people
5 who owe their permanent allegiance to the confederation of states in the Union called the "United States of America*" and
6 NOT the "United States*", which is the government and legal person they created to preside ONLY over community
7 property of states of the Union and foreign affairs but NOT internal affairs within the states..

8 The definition of "citizen of the United States" found in 26 C.F.R. §31.3121(e)-1 corroborates the above conclusions, keeping
9 in mind that "United States" within that definition means the federal zone instead of the states of the Union. Remember:
10 "United States" or "United States of America" in the Constitution means the states of the Union while "United States" in 11 federal statutes means the federal zone only and excludes states of the Union.

12 26 C.F.R. §31.3121(e)-1 State, United States, and citizen

13 (e) ...The term 'citizen of the United States' includes a citizen of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the Virgin
14 Islands, and, effective January 1, 1961, a citizen of Guam or American Samoa.

15 Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa are all U.S. territories and federal "States" that are within the 16 federal zone. They are not "states" under the Internal Revenue Code. The proper subjects of the Internal Revenue Code,
17 Subtitle A are only the people who are born in these federal "States", and these people are the only people who are in fact
18 "citizens and nationals of the United States" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 and under 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).

19 The basis of citizenship in the United States is the English doctrine under which nationality meant "birth within allegiance of 20 the king". The U.S. Supreme Court helped explain this concept precisely in the case of U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649
21 (1898) :

22 "The supreme court of North Carolina, speaking by Mr. Justice Gaston, said: 'Before our Revolution, all free
23 persons born within the dominions of the king of Great Britain, whatever their color or complexion, were native-
24 born British subjects; those born out of his allegiance were aliens.' Upon the Revolution, no other change took 25 place in the law of North Carolina than was consequent upon the transition from a colony dependent on an
26 European king to a free and sovereign [169 U.S. 649, 664] state. 'British subjects in North Carolina
27 became North Carolina freemen;' 'and all free persons born within the state are born citizens of the state.' The 28 term 'citizen,' as understood in our law, is precisely analogous to the term 'subject' in the common law, and 29 the change of phrase has entirely resulted from the change of government. The sovereignty has been 30 transferred from the man to the collective body of the people; and he who before was a 'subject of the king' is 31 now 'a citizen of the state.'" State v. Manuel (1838) 4 Dev. & b. 20, 24-26. "
32 [U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898)]

33 In our country following the victorious Revolution of 1776, the "king" was therefore replaced by "the people", who are 34 collectively and individually the "sovereigns" within our republican form of government. The group of people within 35 whatever "body politic" one is referring to who live within the territorial limits of that "body politic" are the thing that you
36 claim allegiance to when you claim "nationality" to any one of the following three distinctive political bodies:

- 37 1. A state the Union.
38 2. The country "United States", as defined in our Constitution.
39 3. The municipal government of the federal zone called the "District of Columbia", which was chartered as a federal 40 corporation under 16 Stat. 419 §1 and 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A).

41 Each of the three above political bodies have "citizens" who are distinctively their own. When you claim to be a "citizen" of 42 any one of the three, you aren't claiming allegiance to the government of that "body politic", but to the people (the sovereigns)
43 that the government serves. If that government is rebellious to the will of the people, and is outside the boundaries of the 44 Constitution that defines its authority so that it becomes a "de facto" government rather than the original "de jure" government
45 it was intended to be, then your allegiance to the people must be superior to that of the government that serves the people. In 46 the words of Jesus Himself in John 15:20:

47 "Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.'"
48 [John 15:20, Bible, NKJV]

1 The “master” or “sovereign” in this case, is the people, who have expressed their sovereign will through a written and
2 unchangeable Constitution.

3 *“The glory of our American system of government is that it was created by a written constitution which protects
4 the people against the exercise of arbitrary, unlimited power, and the limits of which instrument may not be
5 passed by the government it created, or by any branch of it, or even by the people who ordained it, except by 6 amendment or change of its provisions.”
7 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244, 21 S.Ct. 770 (1901)]*

8 This is a crucial distinction you must understand in order to fully comprehend the foundations of our republican system of 9 government. Let’s look at the definition of “citizen” according to the U.S. Supreme Court in order to clarify the points we
10 have made so far on what it means to be a “citizen” of our glorious republic:

11 *“There cannot be a nation without a people. The very idea of a political community, such as a nation is, implies
12 an [88 U.S. 162, 166] association of persons for the promotion of their general welfare. Each one of the persons
13 associated becomes a member of the nation formed by the association. He owes it allegiance and is entitled to 14 its protection. Allegiance and protection are, in this connection, reciprocal obligations. The one is a 15 compensation for the other; allegiance for protection and protection for allegiance.”*

16 *“For convenience it has been found necessary to give a name to this membership. The object is to designate by a
17 title the person and the relation he bears to the nation. For this purpose the words 'subject,' 'inhabitant,' and 18 'citizen' have been used, and the choice between them is sometimes made to depend upon the form of the 19 government. Citizen is now more commonly employed, however, and as it has been considered better suited to 20 the description of one living under a republican government, it was adopted by nearly all of the States upon 21 their separation from Great Britain, and was afterwards adopted in the Articles of Confederation and in the 22 Constitution of the United States. When used in this sense it is understood as conveying the idea of membership 23 of a nation, and nothing more.”*

24 “To determine, then, who were citizens of the United States before the adoption of the amendment it is 25 necessary to ascertain what persons originally associated themselves together to form the nation, and what 26 were afterwards admitted to membership.”

27 *“Looking at the Constitution itself we find that it was ordained and established by 'the people of the United 28 States,'³ and then going further back, we find that these were the people of the several States that had before
29 dissolved the political bands which connected them with Great Britain, and assumed a separate and equal station
30 among the powers of the earth,⁴ and that had by Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union, in which they
31 took the name of 'the United States of America,' entered into a firm league of [88 U.S. 162, 167] friendship with 32 each other for their common defence, the security of their liberties and their mutual and general welfare, binding
33 themselves to assist each other against all force offered to or attack made upon them, or any of them, on account
34 of religion, sovereignty, trade, or any other pretence whatever. ⁵*

35 *“Whoever, then, was one of the people of either of these States when the Constitution of the United States was 36 adopted, became ipso facto a citizen-a member of the nation created by its adoption. He was one of the persons
37 associating together to form the nation, and was, consequently, one of its original citizens. As to this there has 38 never been a doubt. Disputes have arisen as to whether or not certain persons or certain classes of persons 39 were part of the people at the time, but never as to their citizenship if they were.”*
40 [Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. 162 (1874), emphasis added]

41 The thing to focus on in the above is the phrase “he owes allegiance and is entitled to its protection”. People domiciled in 42 states of the Union have dual allegiance and dual nationality: They owe allegiance to two governments not one, so they are 43 “dual-nationals”. They are “dual nationals” because the states of the Union are independent nations⁴⁴:

44 Dual citizenship. Citizenship in two different countries. Status of citizens of United States who reside within a
45 state; i.e., person who are born or naturalized in the U.S. are citizens of the U.S. and the state wherein they reside.
46 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 498]*

⁴⁴ See Bank of Augusta v. Earle, 38 U.S. \(13 Pet.\) 519, 10 L.Ed. 274 (1839), in which the Supreme Court ruled:

“The States between each other are sovereign and independent. They are distinct and separate sovereignties, except so far as they have parted with some of the attributes of sovereignty by the Constitution. They continue to be nations, with all their rights, and under all their national obligations, and with all the rights of nations in every particular; except in the surrender by each to the common purposes and objects of the Union, under the Constitution. The rights of each State, when not so yielded up, remain absolute.”

Likewise, those people who live in a federal “State” like Puerto Rico also owe dual allegiance: one to the District of Columbia, which is their municipal government and which possesses the police powers that protect them, and the other allegiance to the government of the United States of America, which is the general government for the whole country. As we said before, Congress wears two hats and operates in two capacities or jurisdictions simultaneously, each of which covers a different and mutually exclusive geographical area:

1. As the municipal government for the District of Columbia and all U.S. territories. All “acts of Congress” or federal statutes passed in this capacity are referred to as “private international law”. This political community is called the “National Government”.
2. As the general government for the states of the Union. All “acts of Congress” or federal statutes passed in this capacity are called “public international law”. This political community is called the “Federal Government.”

Each of the two capacities above has different types of “citizens” within it and each is a unique and separate “body politic”. Most laws that Congress writes pertain to the first jurisdiction above only. Below is a summary of these two classes of “citizens”:

Table 4: Types of citizens

#	Jurisdiction	Land area	Name of “citizens”
1	Municipal government of the District of Columbia and all U.S. territories. Also called the “National Government”	“Federal zone” (District of Columbia + federal “States”)	“Statutory citizens” or “citizens and nationals of the United States” as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401
2	General government for the states of the Union. Also called the “Federal Government”	“United States of America ” (50 Union “states”)	“Constitutional citizens”, “nationals but not citizens of the United States” as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21), “non-resident non-persons” under federal law

The U.S. Supreme Court recognized the above two separate political and legislative jurisdictions and their respective separate types of “citizens” when it held the following:

“The 1st section of the 14th article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited, opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states. No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[], were not citizens. Whether this proposition was sound or not had never been judicially decided.”*
[Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]

Federal statutes and “acts of Congress” do not and cannot prescribe the STATUTORY citizenship status of human beings born in and domiciled in states of the Union and outside of the exclusive or general legislative jurisdiction of Congress. 8 U.S.C. §1408(2) comes the closest to defining their citizenship status, but even that definition doesn’t address most persons born in states of the Union neither of whose parents ever resided in the federal zone. No federal statute or “act of Congress” directly can or does prescribe the citizenship status of people born in states of the Union because state law, and not federal law, prescribes their status under the Law of Nations.⁴⁵ The reason is because no government may write civil laws that apply outside of their subject matter or exclusive territorial jurisdiction, and states of the Union are STATUTORILY but not CONSTITUTIONALLY “foreign” to the United States government for the purposes of police powers and legislative jurisdiction. Here is confirmation of that fact which the geographical definitions within federal also CONFIRM:

“Judge Story, in his treatise on the Conflict of Laws, lays down, as the basis upon which all reasonings on the law of comity must necessarily rest, the following maxims: First, ‘that every nation possesses an exclusive sovereignty and jurisdiction within its own territory’; secondly, ‘that no state or nation can by its laws directly affect or bind property out of its own territory, or bind persons not resident therein, whether they are natural born subjects or others.’ The learned judge then adds: ‘From these two maxims or propositions there follows a third, and that is that whatever force and obligation the laws of one country have in another depend solely upon the laws and municipal regulation of the matter; that is to say, upon its own proper jurisdiction and polity, and upon its own express or tacit consent.’ Story on Conflict of Laws, §23.”
[Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. v. Chambers, 73 Ohio.St. 16, 76 N.E. 91, 11 L.R.A., N.S., 1012 (1905)]

1 Congress is given the authority under the Constitution, Article 1, Section 8, Clause 4 to write “an uniform Rule of
2 Naturalization” and they have done this in Title 8 of the U.S. Code called the "Aliens and Nationality", but they were never
3 given any authority under the Constitution to prescribe laws for the states of the Union relating to citizenship by birth rather
4 than naturalization. That subject is, and always has been, under the exclusive jurisdiction of states of the Union.
5 Naturalization is only one of two ways by which a person can acquire citizenship, and Congress has jurisdiction only over
6 one of the two ways of acquiring citizenship.

7 “The question, now agitated, depends upon another question; whether the State of Pennsylvania, since the 26th
8 of March, 1790, (when the act of Congress was passed) has a right to naturalize an alien? And this must receive
9 its answer from the solution of a third question; whether, according to the constitution of the United States, the 10 authority to naturalize is exclusive, or concurrent? We are of the opinion, then, that the States, individually,
11 still enjoy a concurrent authority upon this subject; but that their individual authority cannot be exercised so
12 as to contravene the rule established by the authority of the Union.

13 “The true reason for investing Congress with the power of naturalization has been assigned at the Bar: --It
14 was to guard against too narrow, instead of too liberal, a mode of conferring the rights of citizenship. Thus,
15 the individual States cannot exclude those citizens, who have been adopted by the United States; but they can
16 adopt citizens upon easier terms, than those which Congress may deem it expedient to impose.

17 “But the act of Congress itself, furnishes a strong proof that the power of naturalization is concurrent. In the 18 concluding proviso, it is declared, ‘that no person heretofore proscribed by any State, shall be admitted a citizen
19 as aforesaid, except by an act of the Legislature of the State, in which such person was proscribed.’ Here, we
20 find, that Congress has not only circumscribed the exercise of its own authority, but has recognized the 21 authority of a State Legislature, in one case, to admit a citizen of the United States; which could not be done
22 in any case, if the power of naturalization, either by its own nature, or by the manner of its being vested in the 23 Federal Government, was an exclusive power.”
24 [Collet v. Collet, 2 U.S. 294, 1 L.Ed. 387 (1792)]

25 Many freedom fighters overlook the fact that the STATUTORY “citizen” mentioned in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 can also be a
26 corporation, and this misunderstanding is why many of them think that they are the only proper subject of the Subtitle A
27 federal income tax. In fact, a corporation is also a STATUTORY “person” and an “individual” and a “citizen” within the 28 meaning of the Internal Revenue Code.

29 “A corporation is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of which it was 30 created, and of that state or country only.”
31 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §886 (2003); Legal encyclopedia]

32 Corporations, however, cannot be either a CONSTITUTIONAL “person” or “citizen” nor can they have a legal existence 33 outside of the sovereignty that they were created in.

34 “Citizens of the United States within the meaning of this Amendment must be natural and not artificial
35 persons; a corporate body is not a citizen of the United States.¹⁴

36
37 14 Insurance Co. v. New Orleans, 13 Fed.Cas. 67 (C.C.D.La. 1870). Not being citizens of the United States,
38 corporations accordingly have been declared unable “to claim the protection of that clause of the Fourteenth
39 Amendment which secures the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States against abridgment or 40 impairment by the law of a State.” Orient Ins. Co. v. Dagg, 172 U.S. 557, 561 (1869) . This conclusion was in 41 harmony with the earlier holding in Paul v. Virginia, 75 U.S. (8 Wall.) 168 (1869), to the effect that corporations
42 were not within the scope of the privileges and immunities clause of state citizenship set out in Article IV, Sec. 2.
43 See also Selover, Bates & Co. v. Walsh, 226 U.S. 112, 126 (1912) ; Berea College v. Kentucky, 211 U.S. 45 (1908)

48 Consequently, the only corporations who are “citizens” and the only “corporate profits” that are subject to tax under Internal
49 Revenue Code, Subtitle A are those that are formed under the laws of the District of Columbia, and not those under the laws
50 of states of the Union. Congress can ONLY tax or regulate that which it creates as a VOLUNTARY franchise, and 51 corporations are just such a franchise. Here is why:

52 “Now, a grant of corporate existence is a grant of special privileges to the corporators, enabling them to act for
53 certain designated purposes as a single individual, and exempting them (unless otherwise specifically provided)

1 from individual liability. The corporation being the mere creation of local law, can have no legal existence
2 beyond the limits of the sovereignty where created. As said by this court in Bank of Augusta v. Earle, 'It must
3 dwell in the place of its creation and cannot migrate to another sovereignty.' The recognition of its existence
4 even by other States, and the enforcement of its contracts made therein, depend purely upon the comity of those
5 States—a comity which is never extended where the existence of the corporation or the exercise of its powers are 6 prejudicial to their interests or repugnant to their policy."
7 [Paul v. Virginia, 8 Wall. (U.S.) 168, 19 L.Ed. 357 (1868)]

8 In conclusion, you aren't the STATUTORY "citizen" described in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 who is the proper subject of Internal
9 Revenue Code, Subtitle A, nor are you a "resident" of the "United States" defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) if you were born
10 in a state of the Union and are domiciled there. Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A only applies to persons domiciled in the 11 federal zone and payments originating from within the United States government. If you are domiciled in a state of the Union,
12 then you aren't domiciled in the federal zone. Consequently, the only type of person you can be as a person born in a state of 13 the Union is:

- 14 1. A "national" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).
- 15 2. A CONSTITUTIONAL "person", which means a human being and NOT an artificial entity, public office, or 16 government agent of any kind.
- 17 3. A statutory "non-resident non-person".
- 18 4. NOT any of the following:
 - 19 4.1. A STATUTORY "person".
 - 20 4.2. A statutory "national and citizen of the United States at birth" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401.
 - 21 4.3. A "National but not citizen of the United States at birth" under 8 U.S.C. §1408.
 - 22 4.4. "a person who, though not a citizen of the United States, owes permanent allegiance to the United States[]"
23 under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(B).
 - 24 4.5. A "U.S.[] non-citizen national" under 8 U.S.C. §1452.

25 We call the confluence of the above a "non-resident non-person". You only become a statutory "nonresident alien" as defined
26 in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) when you surrender your PRIVATE, sovereign status and sovereign immunity by entering into 27 contracts with the government, such as accepting a public office or a government "benefit".

28 The reason most Americans falsely think they owe income tax and why they continue to illegally be the target of IRS
29 enforcement activity is because they file the wrong tax return form and thereby create false presumptions about their status
30 in relation to the federal government. IRS Form 1040 is only for use by resident aliens, not those who are non-residents such 31 as state nationals. The "individual" mentioned in the upper left corner of the form is defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3) as 32 a STATUTORY but not CONSTITUTIONAL "alien" or a "nonresident alien". STATUTORY "citizens" are not included in 33 the definition and this is the only definition of "individual" anywhere in the I.R.C. or the Treasury Regulations. It also 34 constitutes fraud for a state national to declare themselves to be a resident alien. A state national who chooses a domicile in 35 the federal zone is classified as a statutory "U.S. citizen" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(A) and NOT a "resident"
36 (alien). It is furthermore a criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §911 for a state national to impersonate a statutory "U.S. citizen".
37 The only tax return form a state national can file without committing fraud or a crime is IRS Form 1040NR, and even then 38 he or she is committing a fraud unless lawfully serving in a public office in the national government.

39 If you still find yourself confused or uncertain about citizenship in the context of the Internal Revenue Code after having read
40 this section, you might want to go back and reread the following to refresh your memory, because these resources are the 41 foundation to understanding this section:

49 Lastly, this section does NOT suggest the following LIES found on Wikipedia (click here, for instance) about its content:

50 Fourteenth Amendment

1 Some tax protesters argue that all Americans are citizens of individual states as opposed to citizens of the United
2 States, and that the United States therefore has no power to tax citizens or impose other federal laws outside of
3 Washington D.C. and other federal enclaves[7][20] The first sentence of Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment
4 states:

5 All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the 6 United States and of the State wherein they reside.

7 [Wikipedia: Tax Protester Constitutional Arguments, Downloaded 1/16/2013,
8 http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tax_protester_constitutional_arguments]

9 The power to tax of the national government extends to wherever STATUTORY "citizens" or federal territory are found,
10 including states of the Union. HOWEVER, those domiciled in states of the Union are NOT STATUTORY "citizens" under 11 8 U.S.C. §1401 or 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 and the ONLY statutory "citizens" or STATUTORY "taxpayers" described in the Internal
12 Revenue Code Subtitles A or C are in fact PUBLIC OFFICERS within the national but not state government. For exhaustive
13 proof on this subject, see:

14 We contend that Wikipedia, like most federal judges and prosecutors, are deliberately confusing and perpetuating the 15 confusion between STATUTORY and CONSTITUTIONAL contexts in order to unlawfully enforce federal law in places

37 So WHO gave Americans the CRAZY idea that Americans were Sovereign?

38 In Chisholm v. Georgia the Supreme Court ruled:

39 "[A]t the Revolution, the sovereignty devolved on the people; and they are truly the sovereigns of the country,
40 but they are sovereigns without subjects. with none to govern but themselves; the citizens of America are equal
41 as fellow citizens, and as joint tenants in the sovereignty."
42 [Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419, 454, 1 L.Ed. 440, 455 @ Dall 1793 pp.471-472 (1793)]

43 In Yick Wo v. Hopkins, Sheriff, the Supreme Court ruled:

1 "Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to the law, for it is the author and source of law, but in our system,
2 while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people,
3 by whom and for whom all government exists and acts... For, the very idea that one man may be compelled to
4 hold his life or the means of living or any material right essential to the enjoyment of life, at the mere will of 5 another, seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself.
6 (118 U. S. 356.)"
7 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

8 In Scott v. Sandford they ruled:

9 "The words 'sovereign people' are those who form the sovereign, and who hold the power and conduct the 10 government through their representatives. Every citizen is one of these people and a constituent member of this
11 sovereignty.' "
12 [Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393 404 (1856)]

13 The LA Times Article Continues:

14 "This is a movement that has absolutely exploded," said Mark Potok, a senior fellow at the Southern Poverty
15 Law Center, a nonprofit organization based in Montgomery, Ala., that tracks domestic terrorists and hate groups.
16 More than 100,000 Americans have aligned themselves with the sovereign citizens, the center said."

1 In addition to the above, the following resource contains memorandums of law on most major freedom subjects. Most of
2 these memorandums end with a series of admissions. These documents are very useful to use as weapons against people who
3 are arguing about a specific subject covered by the memorandum because you can print these documents on double-sided
4 paper and then hand them to the person who is attacking you and demand that they either rebut the admissions at the end and 5 the content of the document within 30 days, or else they agree with you.

2 This document is prominently posted on the opening page of our website to discredit our detractors:

3 By far, the most frequent resistance we get from people who are reading our materials for the first time is against our view
4 on the Fourteenth Amendment and citizenship in general. The majority of freedom researchers wrongfully associate a sinister
5 motive to the Fourteenth Amendment and think that it is bad to claim to be a Fourteenth Amendment citizen. We completely
6 disagree and you will need to study the following resources to understand fully why we disagree with what we call

23 Please BEFORE posting anything in the forums, at least read and re-read all the materials on citizenship mentioned in the 24 above list, so that other forum members don’t have to review or repeat the vast research that has already been done on 25 citizenship through us and our sister site. Citizenship is a deliberately complex subject so please take time to study it carefully
26 using the above materials BEFORE you go into either criticism or debate mode.

31 As we have repeatedly emphasized throughout this document, we fight illegal and injurious behaviors wherever we find them.
32 We don’t “selectively enforce” against any specific government and we are not anti-government, but anti-crime. This section
33 documents our information and sincere efforts directed at preventing false, injurious, or unlawful statements or activities by 34 those other than governments in order to prove this assertion.

35 Below is a list of resources on our website and sister website directed at correcting untruthful, deliberately misleading, or
36 illegal statements or activities of private parties who are not part of any government. In most cases, the documents presented
37 don’t deal with taxes at all. We have also undergone similar persecution from those who are the subject of these resources
38 because of our efforts to correct their false, hypocritical, or illegal activities. For the purposes of Christianity, anything in 39 violation of God’s laws in the Holy Bible we consider to be “illegal”:

26 In addition to the above information, members of this ministry have contacted the following private freedom personalities
27 and tried to get them to reform their false statements or illegal activities before they were subsequently criminally indicted
28 and prosecuted. Most of these people are or were in jail because they DIDN'T listen to us!

- 29 1. Eddie Kahn, Guiding Light of God Ministries: He was contacted about his views on citizenship. He thought he was a
30 statutory "U.S. citizen" and eventually he said "we'll just have to agree to disagree". He was also warned that his 31 commercial redemption activities and preparing tax returns for people would lead to trouble. Eventually, he was 32 sentenced to 10 years in jail because he prepared an allegedly false tax return for actor Wesley Snipes.
- 33 2. Larken Rose of 861 Evidence: He was warned about his views on citizenship and franchises. He thought he was a 34 statutory "U.S. citizen" and continued filing resident tax forms that he didn't know were FALSE and FRAUDULENT.
35 He was subsequently convicted for failure to file and sentenced to about 18 months in jail.
- 36 3. Irwin Schiff and his PayNoIncomeTax website: He was warned about his views on citizenship. He thought he was a
37 statutory "U.S. citizen" and continued filing FALSE and FRAUDULENT resident tax forms both for himself and for 38 others. He was subsequently convicted for tax fraud and will probably be deceased before he is released from jail.
- 39 4. Joe Saladino, Freedom and Privacy Committee. He was warned about his claim or right tax return approach and that it
40 was a bad idea to be preparing tax returns for others, and especially RESIDENT tax returns like the 1040. Eventually, 41 he was convicted for filing false returns and sentenced to five years in jail.
- 42 5. Bob Schulz, We the People. He was warned about his views on citizenship and franchises. He continues to litigate
43 numerous issues as a statutory "U.S. citizen" and continues to participate unlawfully in Social Security as a person
44 domiciled on federal territory with no rights. Yet, he continually rattles his cage on the federal plantation through
45 endless litigation by claiming he is denied of rights and the government is violating the constitution. That cage,
46 ironically, is of his own making. He is acting like a federal employee and looking his government benefactor gift horse 47 in the mouth.
- 48 6. John Kotmair, Save a Patriot Fellowship. He was contacted about his lack of understanding about citizenship and his 49 disdain for the Non-Resident Non-Person Position. He irrationally argues against it but wasn't able to disprove our
50 position on the subject with evidence. He continues to believe that he is a statutory "U.S. citizen", but doesn't 51 understand that it is a franchise. He was subsequently enjoined from talking about tax subjects.
- 52 7. Peymon Mottahedeh, Live Free Now. He was contacted about flaws in his views on citizenship. Members of this 53 Ministry also attended his Level One freedom course. Several attempts have been made to enjoin his tax activities but 54 none to date have succeeded that we are aware of.

- 1 8. John Vanhove (Johnny Liberty), Institute for Global Prosperity (I.G.P.): He was contacted about his research on
2 sovereignty. He became a devoted student of our materials. He admitted that he wished he had found our materials
3 sooner. Tragically, he was convicted of defrauding his clients and served about 18 months in federal prison.
4 9. Ralph Winterrowd: He was contacted by a member about his views on enforcement implementing regulations. Our
5 research on that subject was presented to him and it was explained that he is misinterpreting the need for regulations.
6 He refused to change his ways. Our treatment of the controverted subject is contained in:

Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 7 10. Sam Davis, of the Sovereign People's Court in Las Vegas: Some of our members went to his meetings and warned
8 him about his views on UCC redemption and the commercial scams he was running through his participation in the 9 court meetings on the weekend. He got defensive and belligerent and refused to clean up his act. Subsequently, he
10 plead guilty and was convicted of 31 criminal counts connected with commercial scams in 2011. The following
11 forums document the story (you need a forum account to view):
12 <http://famguardian.org/forums/topic/sam-davis-of-las-vegas-arrested/>
13 11. Ray Reynolds: One of our members attended his seminar on corporate asset protection. Major defects in his corporate 14 asset protection strategy were exposed during one of his seminars and he had the member physically removed 15 (bounced) from the seminar. See:
16 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/PropertyPrivacy/Property/RayReynoldsPlanCommentary.htm>

17 We don't have any problem with the convictions or enforcement against these people and they appear to have gotten what 18 they deserved. Their pride and ego seems to have been the main reason they refused to either admit they were wrong, or 19 mend their ways. No doubt, they were also victims of "selective enforcement" for political reasons, but they got what they 20 deserved regardless.

21 18 Evidence of government crime and corruption

22 The following subsections shall focus on government crime and corruption that this ministry exposes, opposes, and provides 23 evidence of for use in prosecuting the specific offenders. For more information like this, see:

Government Corruption, Form #11.401

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

24 18.1 Criminal government activity that our website and ministry seeks to STOP: Public 25 Indictment

26 Our ministry and website was created to STOP and PREVENT, rather than to PROMOTE illegal or injurious activity. We 27 focus mainly on government or government employee violations because:

- 28 1. Government is the biggest violator of the laws we are aware of.
29 2. All the people who could expose or remedy their violations in the legal profession are gagged with a license of some 30 kind.
31 3. The Department of Justice refuses to prosecute the crimes we expose, and therefore is an accessory to them in violation
32 of 18 U.S.C. §3. In that sense, you could say they engage in "selective enforcement" so as to maximize their personal 33 or political benefit, rather than treating all Americans equally as the Constitution requires.

34 On the subject of government corruption, God says:

35 "Shall the throne of iniquity [the judge's bench in the pagan state-sponsored church called "court"], which 36 devises evil by law, have fellowship with You [Christians]? They [corrupted civil dis-servants] gather
37 together against the life of the righteous, and condemn innocent blood. But the Lord has been my defense, and
38 my God the rock of my refuge. He has brought on them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own
39 wickedness; the Lord our God shall cut them off."
40 [Psalm 94:20-23, Bible, NKJV]

41 This section shall serve as a brief summary of all of the illegal activity conducted by what we refer to as "de facto government 42 officers" in violating the constitution and enacted law.

1 An affidavit of duress useful to the average American documenting all the illegal activity conducted by the government as 2 the cause for complying with any government mandate appears in:

Table 6: Summary of criminal activity by present government

#	Description	Laws violated	Where you can find more information on our website	Notes
1	They are running a criminal counterfeiting enterprise of international scope, and thus STEALING the purchasing power of existing fiat currency in circulation from law abiding Americans.	18 U.S.C. §472	Form #05.041	When we do it, we go to jail. When THEY do it, they get reelected and vote themselves a raise with the counterfeited fiat currency! If nothing else, this is a title of nobility.
2	They are FALSELY AND MALICIOUSLY PRESUMING that “United States” is used in a geographic sense when enforcing the Internal Revenue Code, when in fact, it can only mean the GOVERNMENT sense for the purposes of “sources within the United States”. This causes people to have their identity kidnapped and to be subjected to FRAUDULENT reporting.	18 U.S.C. §1512 18 U.S.C. §912	Form #05.020, Section 4 Form #05.001, Section 7.3
3	They are abusing the rules of statutory construction and unconstitutional presumption that violates due process of law to add things to the meaning of statutory “terms” which do not expressly appear as a way to exceed their jurisdiction and STEAL from people.	18 U.S.C. §1018 18 U.S.C. §1001	Form #05.014
4	They are omitting all status options on government tax forms that in fact legally exist and that would allow one to be either a nonresident or a nontaxpayer. All the options they DO present on government forms are public officers in the government. Thus, they have made it IMPOSSIBLE for EXCLUSIVELY private parties to submit withholding paperwork without committing perjury.	18 U.S.C. §912 18 U.S.C. §1001, 18 U.S.C. §1542, 18 U.S.C. §1621.	Form #09.001
5	They have defined a statutory “U.S. citizen” on government forms as a government public officer so that you elect yourself into public office by describing yourself as a “U.S. citizen” on government forms.	18 U.S.C. §911	Form #05.006, Section 4
6	They are abusing government tax forms as federal election forms that allow you to elect yourself into public office.	18 U.S.C. §912	Form #05.001, Section 2
7	They are lying about the meaning of “trade or business” in IRS publications, thus causing the filing of millions of knowingly false information returns against nonresident parties.	26 U.S.C. §§7206, 7207	Form #05.001 Form #08.005
8	They are illegally creating and enforcing federal franchises within constitutional states of the Union, and thus invading the states.	Article 4, Section 4 requires the federal government to protect every state from invasion by itself.	Form #05.030, Sections 11, 23
9	They have replaced the citizen/government relationship with the employer/employee relationship, thus eliminating the de jure government to become a de facto government.	18 U.S.C. §912	Form #05.043	This is “antigovernment” activity by people IN the de facto government. Every time they call themselves “government”, they are committing a FRAUD and monies they collect in the name of “government” become money laundering.

10	They are compelling Americans contract with them by enforcing civil law from a legislatively but not constitutionally “foreign” jurisdiction against non-consenting parties. All civil law is a social compact/contract that requires EXPRESS consent.	Thirteenth Amendment 18 U.S.C. §1018	Form #05.003, Section 10	All civil law implements a “social compact” and all compacts are contracts. By enforcing civil law against non-consenting parties or FORCING a status under the contract upon a non-consenting party, they are implementing slavery and involuntary servitude.
11	Monies withheld against those not lawfully occupying elected or appointed public office are being used as a bribe to procure the “benefits” of a public office unlawfully.	18 U.S.C. §§210, 211	Form #11.302, Section 5.4.25
12	Judges with a criminal financial conflict of interest are deciding tax cases.	18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §144, 28 U.S.C. §455.	Form #06.012
13	They are abusing the police powers of the government to make policemen into revenue collectors for CIVIL liabilities. This is done by lying to policemen about the requirement for driver’s licenses by EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE parties. This causes the police to unlawfully cite those not subject to the vehicle code for violations of the vehicle code, which is a bill of attainder. This causes them to falsely procure licenses that are not required and to illegally become a public officer “taxpayer” in order avoid being detained at gun point routinely as a punishment for not volunteering into public office by applying for a license.	18 U.S.C. §912	Form #06.010	Government CANNOT make a business out of alienating rights that the Declaration of Independence says are UNALIENABLE. If the vehicle code really were law for EVERYONE or for those who are NOT ALREADY, then you wouldn’t be required to APPLY for a driver license before they could ENFORCE the vehicle code against you.
14	They have created the equivalent of a “title of nobility” in states of the Union by removing all remedies for nontaxpayers from their forms and their administrative structure. There are not “nontaxpayer” blocks and all administrative remedies available, including IRS Appeals and Tax Court, are only for “Taxpayer” franchisees. Those who are NOT franchisees have no administrative remedy and must go STRAIGHT to a constitutional court at great expense and inconvenience.	U.S. Const. Article 1, Section 9, Clause 7	Form #05.013	Governments are established to provide EQUAL protection to all. But they effectively punish PRIVATE parties and PRIVATE rights by making the remedies less convenient and MUCH more costly and inconvenient.
15	Tax cases in federal court operate ENTIRELY upon public policy and not law. Those criminally indicted cannot talk about the law in front of the jury, and therefore, the judge substitutes public policy and his preferences for what the law actually says and operates in a PRIVATE capacity in committing a tort against the defendant.	Article 1, Section 9, Clause 3		Courts are NOT supposed to entertain political questions. Nor can a judge hear BOTH constitutional issues (PRIVATE) and franchise issues (PUBLIC) without having a conflict of interest. It is an unconstitutional bill of attainder for a PRIVATE non-franchisee to be forced to appear before a legislative franchise court in the Executive branch. Franchise judges are the equivalent of binding arbitrators for fellow public officers and may not lawfully affect the PRIVATE rights of the general public.
16	Government has implemented itself ENTIRELY as a civil religion in violation of the First Amendment. Franchise codes are the bible, the judge is the priest, court is the church, “taxes” are the tithes, and attorneys are the deacons who conduct the worship services	First Amendment 42 U.S.C. Chapter 21B	Form #05.016

18.2 Active attempts by the de facto government to interfere with efforts to comply with its orders and with the law in relation to this ministry and its members

Our Member Agreement, Form #01.001, is the only method we have to control or influence others in the use or abuse of our educational materials or services. That Member Agreement:

- 1. Causes all those who download, use, or obtain our materials or services to be subject to it.
- 2. Prohibits and punishes abuses of our materials that would injure anyone or cause the commission of unlawful activity.
- 3. Applies equally to the government and private parties.
- 4. Identifies everything on our website as non-factual, non-actionable speech and beliefs that are not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding.
- 5. Makes anyone who uses our materials in civil litigation against us or any member into the substitute defendant by contract.

Ironically, the de facto government has repeatedly and actively interfered with the enforcement of our Member Agreement during failed attempts to enjoin this website. Imagine ordering someone to do something and simultaneously and maliciously interfering with the ONLY method of complying with said order, which is to enforce the Member Agreement. That is what the U.S. District Court judge for the Southern District of California did during a failed injunction attempt against one of our members, C. Hansen to shut down this website. That judge and the government prosecutor and witnesses became subject to the Member Agreement by obtaining and using privileged and licensed materials off this website as evidence in a legal proceeding against another member. They were warned three times in a row during the Member Bookstore checkout process that they were consenting to the Member Agreement by obtaining said materials and yet they repeatedly violated or undermined that same Member Agreement by disregarding what it said, refusing to obey it, and refusing to enforce it equally upon the government and himself, and thereby unlawfully:

- 1. Interfering with the right to contract of the ministry.
- 2. Violating equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of the United States Constitution.
- 3. Creating for himself and the government's attorney and IRS witness he was unlawfully protecting a title of nobility to protect their criminal activities.
- 4. Protecting criminal activities by the IRS agent who acted as the government witness.

It is a maxim of law that the law cannot require an impossibility. Hence, it is not only hypocritical but nonsensical for the national government to on the one hand order either us or any member to do anything, and yet actively interfere with the ONLY method available to comply with said order, which is the enforcing the member agreement against ALL those who are subject to it. We will not cooperate with criminal and illegal efforts by de facto judges or government employees to interfere with the right to contract of anyone, or to exempt anyone or especially any government from their obligation under any lawfully executed contract or franchise.

18.3 Government hypocrisy: We protect them but they refuse to protect and instead abuse us

Throughout our website and in all of our services, we take extraordinary measures to ensure that:

- 1. Our materials are not abused to violate any law.
- 2. People who join our ministry or use our materials or services to defend their rights are not violent or anti-government.
- 3. Everyone who joins this ministry does so ONLY for religious, moral, and legal reasons and not commercial or selfish reasons.
- 4. Our materials and services are not used for a commercial purpose, which incidentally is the MAIN thing that any government has any jurisdiction over whatsoever in most cases.
- 5. We protect everyone, including foreign governments such as the United States, equally from harm and abuse.
- 6. We don't say anything that is presumptuous, malicious, or knowingly untrue about anyone.
- 7. We verify the accuracy of everything we say with evidence right from the government's own mouth that anyone can verify for themselves. We even give people links to the evidence upon which we rely and a place to identify errors in our forums when they find them so they can be promptly corrected.

- 1 8. We invite all governments to suggest corrections and point out errors in our materials. As a matter of fact, that is one
2 of the MAIN reasons for the existence of this website to begin with.
3 9. We emphasize the nature of our efforts as a religious ministry whose sole purpose is religious, moral, and political
4 education that is protected by the First Amendment to the United States of America.
5 10. Everything that we do is motivated out of love for our neighbor and a desire to protect him or her and not out of selfish
6 interest.

7 The above requirements, incidentally, are supposed to be the same motivations of any righteous government, which,
8 according to the Bible, are ALSO “God’s ministers and representatives” in protecting the people they are supposed to serve 9 rather than rule over as fiduciaries of the public trust.

10 *“For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is
11 good, and you will have praise from the same. For he [governments and civil rulers] is God’s minister to you
12 for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God’s minister, an avenger
13 to execute wrath on him who practices evil.”
14 [Romans 13:3-4, Bible, NKJV]*

15 *But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the [political] rulers of the Gentiles lord it over 16 [enslave] them [with unjust laws and capricious decrees], and those who are great exercise authority over them.
17 Yet it shall not be so among you [Christians]; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your 18 servant. And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave— just as the Son of Man did not 19 come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”
20 [Matt. 20:25-28, Bible, NKJV]*

21 However, unrighteous governments are not “God’s ministers” but Satan’s ministers, and therefore are NOT “government” as 22 biblically defined, but simply de facto government terrorists as described below:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

23 On our Member Subscriptions Page (<http://sedm.org/Membership/Subscriptions.htm>), we also explain why we should take 24 all the above precautions by quoting the following scriptures:

25 “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”
26 [Matt. 7:12, Bible, NKJV]

27 _____
28 *For the commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You
29 shall not bear false witness,” “You shall not covet,” and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up 30 in this saying, namely,
31 “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

32 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of [ALL] the law.”
33 [Romans 13:9-10, Bible, NKJV]

34 _____
35 “When a man’s ways please the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.”
36 [Prov. 16:7, Bible, NKJV]

37 _____
38 “Do not strive with a man [for a government of men] without cause, if he has done you no harm.”
39 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

40 _____
41 *“Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man [WHICH IS ONLY] for the Lord’s sake, whether to the 42 king as supreme, or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the 43 praise of those who do good. For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance
44 of foolish men— as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. Honor all 45 people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.”

1 [\[1 Peter 2:13-17, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

2
3 "Do not curse the king, even in your thought; Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom; For a bird of the air
4 may carry your voice, And a bird in flight may tell the matter."
5 [\[Ecc. 10:20, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

6
7 "Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those
8 who weep. Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the 9 humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion. Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the 10 sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men."
11 [\[Romans 12:14-18, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

12 Hence, we have done everything that we possibly can to ensure that:

- 13 1. We bring nothing but honor and glory to the God we serve as the main goal of this religious ministry,
14 2. We will be worthy and deserving of the same EQUAL treatment from everyone who is affected by our ministry,
15 including all governments.

16 The Golden Rule spoken of by Jesus in Matt. 7:12 is that we should treat others the way that we want to be treated and we
17 have done that. We don't want to be abused or persecuted and seek only to be left alone, which the U.S. Supreme Court says
18 is our right:

19 "The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
20 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
21 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
22 *Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the
23 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized
24 men."*
25 \[Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 \(1928\) \(Brandeis, J., dissenting\); see also Washington v. Harper,
26 [494 U.S. 210 \(1990\)\]](#)

27 And yet, all we get back is false and malicious statements, slander, and "selective enforcement" from those whose violations
28 of law we expose, even though these same people are supposed to be in charge of enforcing the very laws they themselves
29 are violating. How hypocritical is that? When are all governments going to honor us like we honor them? And why are we 30 so bad for expecting them to simply obey and enforce the laws against themselves BEFORE they enforce against others?

31 *"And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? Or 32 how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye?
33 5 Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from 34 your brother's eye."
35 [\[Matt. 7:3-5, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

36 18.4 The REAL elitist is a criminal de facto government, not us

37 The common thread throughout the flawed and false objections by the government against us are that we are "elitists" who
38 think we are somehow "better" or "superior" to everyone else. We have showed that this is clearly false, and that we seek 39 ABSOLUTE equality among and between all legal "persons", including governments. All such false allegations are simply 40 a red herring intended to divert attention away from the REAL elitists, who are a criminal cabal running a de facto
41 government. That criminal cabal is thoroughly described in:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

42 Every right we assert and insist on is EXACTLY THE SAME right as the de facto government itself asserts. To claim that 43 we aren't entitled to equality is to claim that the Constitution has been repealed, because the foundation of the U.S.
44 Constitution is equal rights and equal protection. No government can have any more rights or autonomy or sovereignty than 45 the people from whom it was delegated all of its authority. Any suggestion to the contrary sets up the government as an

1 object of pagan idol worship and imputes to it “supernatural powers”. Such “supernatural powers” are any powers that a
2 single NATURAL human being either can have or is allowed to have. Since the Constitution’s First Amendment FORBIDS
3 the establishment of such a religion, this kind of inequality is absolutely forbidden and may righteously and forcefully and 4 lawfully be opposed.

5 Below are some of the types of INEQUALITY and SUPERNATURAL powers that the ELITISTS running the de facto
6 government claim the right to. If they can claim such rights, then why do they NOT enforce the SAME equal rights against 7 the government in courts of law?

- 8 1. They claim that when you want to sue them in a civil court, then you need to produce evidence of their consent to be 9 sued IN WRITING in a statute. This is called “sovereign immunity”. Its exercise is anathema to a free government
10 and makes it IMPOSSIBLE to approach anyone in government in an equity proceeding. The only way to approach
11 them is as an INFERIOR who is invoking statutory franchise PRIVILEGES which ensure that everyone but the 12 government always loses and gets the short end of the stick in EVERY legal proceeding against the de facto
13 government.
- 14 2. This doctrine or claim of sovereign immunity is nowhere EXPRESSLY delegated to the government in the United
15 States Constitution. It was CREATED by judicial fiat in CONTEMPT of the constitution. That means we are a 16 “society of men” instead of a “society of law”, which means the intent of the founders has been circumvented.
- 17 3. They claim the right to PICK and CHOOSE what things they may be sued for individually but you don’t have that 18 right. They DESTROYED that right on your part by creating a statutory franchise status called “citizen” or “resident”
19 and once you claim that status, you are PRESUMED to consent to have that status in ALL your dealings with the 20 government, rather than ONLY in the specific contexts in which you seek the “benefits” or “rights” attached. This is a
21 violation of equal protection and equal treatment, because it doesn’t allow you to pick and choose WHAT specific 22 government services you want and what you don’t want.
- 23 4. They claim the right to enact laws that apply to EVERYONE EXCEPT THEMSELVES. In other words, they abuse
24 law to CREATE INEQUALITY rather than PREVENT IT.
 - 25 4.1. For instance, they claim the right to enforce the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97 against 26 anyone EXCEPT themselves.
 - 27 4.2. They claim the right to sue states of the Union in federal courts who enter into private business activity as private 28 persons, and yet REFUSE to ever acknowledge anything they do as PRIVATE BUSINESS activity and refuse to 29 be sued by ANY state court in a state of the Union.
- 30 5. They claim the right to impose duties upon you through civil statutes that are a violation of the Thirteenth Amendment
31 prohibition against involuntary servitude. The only way such statutes could be lawful is WITH your consent, but they 32 refuse to enforce the requirement to produce EVIDENCE of said consent on the record of every judicial enforcement
33 proceeding of said statute. This is FRAUD, THEFT, and SLAVERY.
- 34 6. When you want something from them, they make you give them your first born and a life of servitude. But when they 35 want something from you:
 - 36 6.1. They create a FRAUDULENT assessment and then use it to send a FRAUDULENT administrative levy to a 37 financial institution STEALING private property.
 - 38 6.2. Actively interfere with your EQUAL right to administratively collect judgments from them or institute
39 administrative notices of levy against THEM.
- 40 7. They admit that they were created to protect your PRIVATE right to contract and associate, and yet on the other hand
41 they associate specific franchises statuses or civil statuses with you WITHOUT YOUR EXPRESS WRITTEN 42 CONSENT (sovereign immunity, like they have), and thus:
 - 43 7.1. STEAL the rights and property that attaches to the status from you.
 - 44 7.2. Compel you to contract, because all such statuses are an implementation of a “social compact” that is a contract.
45 That contract can’t be enforced against those who don’t consent.
 - 46 7.3. Compel you to politically or legally associate civilly with a government for specific purposes that you do not 47 expressly consent to and which you may view not only as NOT protective, but in fact HARMFUL.
- 48 8. They claim to want to benevolently protect your PRIVATE rights, but instead:
 - 49 8.1. The only thing they exercise their discretion for is:
 - 50 8.1.1. To protect their own criminal activities through “selective enforcement”.
 - 51 8.1.2. PRESUME that all property is PUBLIC property that belongs to them and make you PROVE that it ISN’T 52 “THEIRS” (THE+IRS=THEIRS)..
 - 53 8.2. The only thing they enact laws for is to DESTROY equality, not protect it.
 - 54 8.3. They won’t allow you to exist commercially without:

1 8.3.1. Donating all your private rights and private property to the government by compelling use of SSNs and
2 TINs in violation of 42 U.S.C. §408(a)(8).

3 8.3.2. Becoming their voluntary “public officer” employee to have ANY remedy at all in court.

4 8.4. Allowing yourself to be illegally elected into a public office by the filing of knowingly FALSE information
5 returns that connect you to a statutory “trade or business”, which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as “the 6 functions of a public office”. See:

7 Hypocrites! The only thing Jesus ever got angry at was HYPOCRISY on the part of lawyers. And who do you think runs
8 the government: Lawyers! If God can get mad at it, then we should be equally as mad:

9 “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you 10 neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

11 [...]

12 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay
13 tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have neglected the
14 weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith.
15 These you ought to have done, without leaving the others
16 undone.

17 [...]

18 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like
19 whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly,
20 but inside are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness.

21 Even so, you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside
22 you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

23 [...]

24 *Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers’ guilt. Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation
25 of hell? Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify,
26 and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, that on you may come all
27 the righteous blood shed on the earth...”*
28 [Matthew 23:13-36, Bible, NKJV]

29 The following early U.S. Supreme Court ruling holds that any and every attempt to enforce sovereign immunity on the part
30 of the American government is anathema to your freedom and ensures that you will become nothing more than a SERF to 31 elitists serving in what Mark Twain called “The District of Criminals”. It identifies such elitists as COMMUNISTS, which 32 is the kind of government we have now:

33 *“... the maxim that the King can do no wrong has no place in our system of government; yet it is also true, in
34 respect to the State itself, that whatever wrong is attempted in its name is imputable to its government and not
35 to the State, for, as it can speak and act only by law, whatever it does say and do must be lawful. That which
36 therefore is unlawful because made so by the supreme law, the Constitution of the United States, is not the
37 word or deed of the State, but is the mere wrong and trespass of those individual persons who falsely spread
38 and act in its name.”*

39 *“This distinction is essential to the idea of constitutional government. To deny it or blot it out obliterates the line
40 of demarcation that separates constitutional government from absolutism, free self- government based on the
41 sovereignty of the people from that despotism, whether of the one or the many, which enables the agent of the 42 state to declare and decree that he is the state; to say 'L'Etat, c'est moi.' Of what avail are written constitutions,*

1 whose bills of right, for the security of individual liberty, have been written too often with the blood of martyrs
2 shed upon the battle-field and the scaffold, if their limitations and restraints upon power may be overpassed with
3 impunity by the very agencies created and appointed to guard, defend, and enforce them; and that, too, with the
4 sacred authority of law, not only compelling obedience, but entitled to respect? And how else can these principles
5 of individual liberty and right be maintained, if, when violated, the judicial tribunals are forbidden to visit
6 penalties upon individual offenders, who are the instruments of wrong, whenever they interpose the shield of the
7 state? The doctrine is not to be tolerated. The whole frame and scheme of the political
8 institutions of this country, state and federal, protest against it. Their continued existence is not compatible with 9 it. It is the doctrine of absolutism, pure, simple, and naked, and of communism which is its twin, the double 10 progeny of the same evil birth."
11 /Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 5 S.Ct. 903 \(1885\)/

12 Below is how these COMMUNIST elitists running a criminal cabal de facto government describe THEMSELVES, right from 13 their own laws. The U.S. Congress defined the essence of socialism, which is the worship of the "state", in 50 U.S.C. §841.
14 The essence of "socialism" and its evil twin, communism, is a failure BY PUBLIC SERVANTS to recognize or respect the 15 lawful limits upon the authority of anyone, and especially "public servants". Read it for yourself:

16 TITLE 50 > CHAPTER 23 > SUBCHAPTER IV > Sec. 841.
17 Sec. 841. - Findings and declarations of fact

18 The Congress finds and declares that the Communist Party of the United States [consisting of the IRS, DOJ, and
19 a corrupted federal judiciary], although purportedly a political party, is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy
20 to overthrow the [de jure] Government of the United States [and replace it with a de facto government ruled by 21 the judiciary]. It constitutes an authoritarian dictatorship [IRS, DOJ, and corrupted federal judiciary in 22 collusion] within a [constitutional] republic, demanding for itself the rights and [FRANCHISE] privileges
23 [including immunity from prosecution for their wrongdoing in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the 24 Constitution] accorded to political parties, but denying to all others the liberties [Bill of Rights] guaranteed by 25 the Constitution [Form #10.002]. Unlike political parties, which evolve their policies and programs through
26 public means, by the reconciliation of a wide variety of individual views, and submit those policies and programs
27 to the electorate at large for approval or disapproval, the policies and programs of the Communist Party are 28 secretly [by corrupt judges and the IRS in complete disregard of, Form #05.014, the tax franchise "codes",
29 Form #05.001] prescribed for it by the foreign leaders of the world Communist movement [the IRS and Federal 30 Reserve]. Its members [the Congress, which was terrorized to do IRS bidding by the framing of Congressman
31 Trafficant] have no part in determining its goals, and are not permitted to voice dissent to party objectives. Unlike 32 members of political parties, members of the Communist Party are recruited for indoctrination [in the public
33 FOOL system by homosexuals, liberals, and socialists] with respect to its objectives and methods, and are 34 organized, instructed, and disciplined [by the IRS and a corrupted judiciary] to carry into action slavishly the 35 assignments given them by their hierarchical chieftains. Unlike political parties, the Communist Party [thanks
36 to a corrupted federal judiciary] acknowledges no constitutional or statutory limitations upon its conduct or
37 upon that of its members [ANARCHISTS!, Form #08.020]. The Communist Party is relatively small
38 numerically, and gives scant indication of capacity ever to attain its ends by lawful political means. The peril
39 inherent in its operation arises not from its numbers, but from its failure to acknowledge any limitation as to
40 the nature of its activities, and its dedication to the proposition that the present constitutional Government of 41 the United States ultimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to; force and 42 violence [or using income taxes]. Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of a hostile foreign power [the 43 Federal Reserve and the American Bar Association (ABA)] renders its existence a clear present and continuing
44 danger to the security of the United States. It is the means whereby individuals are seduced [illegally
45 KIDNAPPED via identity theft!, Form #05.046] into the service of the world Communist movement [using 46 FALSE information returns and other PERJURIOUS government forms, Form #04.001], trained to do its 47 bidding [by FALSE government publications and statements that the government is not accountable for the 48 accuracy of, Form #05.007], and directed and controlled [using FRANCHISES illegally enforced upon 49 NONRESIDENTS, Form #05.030] in the conspiratorial performance of their revolutionary services.
50 Therefore, the Communist Party should be outlawed

51 For emphasis, look at the essence of communism again:

52 "Unlike political parties, the Communist Party [thanks to a corrupted federal judiciary] acknowledges no
53 constitutional or statutory limitations upon its conduct or upon that of its members. [. . .] The peril inherent in 54 its operation arises not from its numbers, but from its failure to acknowledge any limitation as to the nature of 55 its activities. . ."

56 As you will learn by reading our extensive materials, socialism:

- 57 1. Cannot exist where all "persons" are equal in every respect under the law. Any power the government imputes to itself
58 that you don't also have ought to be suspect because the foundation of the Constitution is equality of ALL "persons"
59 under the law.

2. Places COLLECTIVE sovereignty over, above, and superior to INDIVIDUAL sovereignty.
3. Is the deification and “worship” of the “state” as a false “god” and “unquestioned authority”.
4. Imputes “supernatural powers” to the government that ordinary “natural” human beings or “persons” are not allowed to have or exercise.
5. Is communism in its less virulent form.

The essence of what it means to be a “god” is to have no limits upon one’s activities, including those imposed by law. The essence of “communism” as described above is similarly, to acknowledge no lawful limits upon one’s activities. Therefore, communism and socialism and the deification of government are synonymous. Since the purpose of law is to define and limit the authority of government so as to maximize liberty for everyone, then the essence of socialism and communism is public servants who do not read, obey, and respect all of the limits imposed by law upon their authority by the Constitution and enacted law. That is what the U.S. Supreme Court held on this subject:

“The government of the United States has been emphatically termed a government of laws, and not of men. It will certainly cease to deserve that high appellation, if the laws furnish no remedy for the violation of a vested legal right.”
[Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. 137; 1 Cranch 137, 2 L.Ed. 60 (1803)]

“Every citizen of the United States is supposed to know the law”,
[Floyd Acceptances, 7 Wall (74 U.S. 169) 666 (1869)]

19 Government, legal profession, and media agreement with and citations of our research as reliable AUTHORITIES

The following are some of the many instances where governments have cited us as authorities on the subjects covered by our website:

1. Regional Organized Crime Information Center (RCIC) Special Report: Sovereign Citizen Movement, Copyright 2010 cites us as authority. The document is published by the government.
 - 1.1. SOURCES:
 - 1.1.1. <http://www.scribd.com/doc/67028226/RCIC-Sovereign-Citizen-Movement>
 - 1.1.2. <http://publicintelligence.net/regional-organized-crime-information-center-rocic-sovereign-citizen-movement>
 - 1.2. pp. 14-15 list sovereign citizen organizations. We are NOT included.
 - 1.3. p. 23 references an article on our website as an authority on the subject of sovereign citizens.
2. SEO Law Firm cited Family Guardian in an article about congressional corruption:
 - 2.1. SOURCE: <http://www.seolawfirm.com/2011/06/the-past-indicates-there-may-still-be-hope-for-anthony-weiners-career/>
3. Policy Document: Pete Hendrickson’s “Trade or Business” Approach, Form #08.003 was first published on May 21, 2007. It contained a list of the many defects in Pete Hendrickson’s approach. Subsequent to publication, the Department of Justice (D.O.J.) indicted Pete Hendrickson for the defects we pointed out.

- 1 5. Multiple government forms were changed because of our citizenship research. As a result of our research on 2 citizenship published starting in 2002:
- 3 5.1. IRS changed the design of the IRS Form 1040NR in 2004 to add “non-citizen U.S. nationals” direct to the form as 4 being among those who are “nonresident aliens”.
- 5 5.2. The perjury statement to the Department of State Form DS-11 was expanded to include “non-citizen nationals” as 6 being eligible for passports in 2004.
- 7 6. One of our members privately confronted a retired U.S. Supreme Court justice on November 2, 2010 with the 8 following diagram and the judge reviewed it for several minutes and then said it was 100% correct and even signed it!

 19 ministry during a failed injunction attempt against us:

- 20 1. During a deposition of the person on November 30, 2005, U.S. Attorney Martin Shoemaker said of this person:

21 “You’re quite a piece of work, Mr. _____.”

- 22 2. In pleadings filed with the court, U.S. Attorney Martin Shoemaker described the person as:

23 “...a one man wrecking crew.”

 30 is protected by the Copyright/Software License Agreement found at:

SEDM Disclaimer, Section 5
<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>

31 Item 14 of the section 5 of the above Disclaimer invokes the Injury Defense Franchise and Agreement, Form #06.027. That 32 agreement says that:

- 33 1. The use of any materials on this site to increase tax revenues of the proceeds of “voluntary compliance” is stipulated to 34 be a “commercial use” of copyrighted materials subject to the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C.
- 35 2. Any and all statements about us, our information, or our services by any government representative or witness for the 36 government are stipulated to be under oath and under penalty of perjury, regardless if an oath is expressly taken or a
 37 perjury statement is provided. This includes signed “declarations” by government witnesses.

1 3. Because everything is under penalty of perjury, any statement made about us that is inaccurate or in conflict with the
2 content of this document or any other document on our website can and will be prosecuted as criminal perjury under 18
3 U.S.C. §1001, 18 U.S.C. §1452, and 18 U.S.C. §1621. Each mis-statement shall count as ONE count of perjury, and
4 the document containing the perjury shall serve the legal equivalent of a confession of the crime.

5 Government readers are hereby warned that they can and will spend decades in prison because of the crime of perjury if they
6 misrepresent statements, actions, or content found on our site and be liable for severe civil damages under the above

As the copyright agent for the content, you are demanded to remove that content and NEVER again use anything off either famguardian.org or sedm.org in a future story relating to "sovereign citizens" or face copyright strikes under the DMCA. Our Copyright/License agreement is found at:

<http://famguardian.org/disclaimer.htm>

<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>

This correspondence is ALSO protected by the above disclaimer and may NOT be used in any story you do about "sovereign citizens" or about us.

Now some responses to your SLANDEROUS defamation of our ministry.

1. We have made it perfectly clear all along that we are NOT "sovereign citizens". We educate people on law and how to FOLLOW and ENFORCE it. We are against GOVERNMENT anarchy.

2. The slanderous things you say in your videos have been exhaustively rebutted and you refuse to admit that you are propagating LIES to the public about sovereignty: See:

3. NONE of your stories even has a legal definition for "sovereign citizens" and if it did, you would probably be on the list because YOU think you are exempt from the copyright laws. See Form #08.018 above, Section 3.1. If you read that definition, no one would even listen to your slanderous propaganda and you would be immediately discredited for the fraud that you are. Maybe that's why you ended up with drug problems that you had to write a cathartic book about and interview on Fox news about.

Why don't you explain in your stories WHY the people you wrongfully targeted met the above definition? None of these people to our knowledge ever specifically described themselves as "sovereign citizens". What gives YOU the right to call them something that isn't defined and which they themselves never identified themselves with? That's a First Amendment violation and you are a government instrumentality as a corporation violating that right of free association. You're practicing state worship at best and a presumptuous fool at worse. See:

3.2 Message to the Voting Cattle, Larken Rose

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t5FNDRgPOLs>

4. We are NOT violent. See Form #08.018 above, Section 6.12.

5. We do not think we are above REAL law or ALL law. See:

Problems with Atheistic Anarchism, Form #08.020 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n883Ce1IML0&list=UUXUSCe7n-bYJrpg3AQ-FhqA

See also Form #08.018 above, Sections 5.4 and 6.4.

1 6. YOU think you are above REAL law, because you insist on perpetuating an unequal relation between the governed and
2 the government. All real "law" is based on absolute equality and personal responsibility for disturbing that equality. The only
3 civil law the present de facto government enforces is PRIVATE law that creates and perpetuates INEQUALITY between the 4 governed and government. See:

5 6.1 Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
6 FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9 FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
10 DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/StatLawGovt.pdf>

11 7. EVERYONE is subject to the criminal law and SHOULD be. Even most of the people you slanderously call "sovereign 12 citizens" would agree with that, but of course you're such slanderer that you wouldn't dare address that issue in any of your
13 spin stories designed to enhance your paycheck and preserve your nefarious job as a paid hitman for mafia terrorist Uncle
14 Sam.

15 <https://sedm.org/government-mafia/>

16 8. In the infringing video and several others on your site dealing with "sovereign citizen" you state that they are "secretive".
17 We have never been secretive. We simply insisted on EQUALITY between YOU and US. We said that if you want to ask us
18 question, we get to ask your corporate counsel questions for all to read on our website. Who is the elitist here that is ABOVE
19 others? You!

20 Two years ago when you asked us for an interview, we gave you some questions, and you refused to answer them so we
21 couldn't grant you an interview. We gave you the terms for an interview and simply insisted on YOUR disclosure of what it
22 was about, and answers to OUR questions about your story, who else would be in it, and insisted on the right to rebut anything
23 said against us by other interviewees. See:

Media Press Kit, Form #01.014
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Ministry/MediaPressKit.htm>

24 You refused full disclosure of the above and therefore YOU are the "secretive one". You are also the secretive one because 25 you refuse to cover the cause of why all these alleged "sovereign citizens" have problems with the government to begin with:
26 The corruption of the government. See:

Government Corruption, Form #11.401
<http://sedm.org/GovCorruption/GovCorruption.htm>

27 Is the FBI or the government subsidizing your or your employer ABC's defamatory propaganda? Sure looks like it.

28 <http://sedm.org/Ministry/ShouldTheFBIArrestTheSupremeCourt.pdf>

29 We are glad we didn't grant you an interview because you got the people you interviewed wrongfully labelled as a domestic 30 terrorists. Who is the secretive one? What is good for the goose is good for the gander. Your dishonorable conduct in your 31 mistreatment of us has completely destroyed any respect we or our members had for mainstream media.

32 9. We do not advocate any kind of harmful activities, and especially financially harmful or violent activities. See Form 33 #08.018 above and:

SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001

34 If you would take time off your addiction binge and writing books about it and read and follow the REAL law for yourself
35 as we have, you would quickly find out that you are a "useful idiot" for communist elitists in what Mark Twain calls the

1 "District of Criminals" who think they are "above" not only the law, but above EVERY American. See Form #08.018 above,
2 section 13.4.

3 If you REALLY want to do a balanced story and avoid our ire, why don't you start covering the evidence of government
4 corruption on our website that is the reason we even have to exist in the first place? The fact that you won't is why all of these
5 disgruntled people you interview are mad at the government to begin with. But of course you can't look a gift horse in the 6 mouth and jeopardize your corporate existence as a government instrumentality and agent. That in itself is a conflict of interest
7 that explains most of what you do.

8 Who is the REAL "anarchist" here? YOU ARE, because you refuse to enforce laws being unconstitutionally and criminally
9 violated by a lawless government. Anyone who protects government anarchists is ALSO an anarchist.

10 Your use is not "fair use" under the copyright act, because it misrepresents us and connects us with "sovereign citizens" that
11 we want no part of. If the idiots you interviewed in your stories had been members, they would be demoted to bad standing
12 for violating the Member Agreement. This is about violation of copyright for defamation purposes through wrongful
13 association. If the First Amendment means anything at all, it means the right to not be associated with groups or activities we 14 don't approve of and which violate our Member Agreement.

15 Get a life and start reading the law. It might help your substance abuse problem. Your conscience is bothering you, now isn't 16 it Mr. Harris?

18 A hot dark place is reserved for you after your short stay on a planet you have made miserable for many. There is still time
19 to repent and that is what Jesus, our hero, came to call people like you to do.

20 Lastly, this is not intended as hate speech or a threat of any kind. Simply the truth, which often hurts. But of course what 21 would a lying media know about truth?

22 Woe to those who call evil good

28 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes

30 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine

21 Conclusions

The sole motive of all of our detractors and critics is to slander and discredit us, not to protect the public from any perceived harm. They are doing this to perpetuate and protect clearly illegal enforcement of the revenue laws by state and federal officials to continue the flow of stolen goods into their checking account.

1. This is a law enforcement and legal education ministry and website that exposes, publicizes, and provides tools to fight violations of law by ALL perpetrators, including those in government. Unlike the present government, we don't "selectively enforce" against government corruption, but corruption and violations of law by EVERYONE. By attempting to enjoin or interfere with our operations, the government is:
 - 1.1. Engaging in witness tampering in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1512.
 - 1.2. Obstructing of justice and the investigation and prosecution of crime on the part of specific public servants.
 - 1.3. Engaging in a protection racket and racketeering, by protecting the money laundering that is at the heart of the government corruption exposed on our website. 18 U.S.C. §1956.
2. We have always invited anyone who thinks our materials are inaccurate to critique them and prove their claim of inaccuracy with legally admissible evidence signed under penalty of perjury. We even provide forums to facilitate that purpose and we don't censor them and pay close attention to them. No one that we are aware of has ever found anything inaccurate with what is currently posted on our website because everything anyone has ever proved might be wrong has been fixed. See the following invitation to rebut our materials:

[SEDM About Us Page, Section 12: A Message to Government Readers
http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm](http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm)

3. Malicious, unlawful attempts by the government to abuse legal process to terrorize our ministry constitute the equivalent of the establishment of a thought crime. Everything we publish comes with a disclaimer that identifies the material as religious beliefs and speech that are NONfactual, NONactionable, and not admissible as evidence pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 610. As such, the courts are being abused to politically, financially, and legally terrorize people for sharing their religious beliefs in violation of the First Amendment:

"Those who already walk submissively will say there is no cause for alarm. But submissiveness is not our heritage. The First Amendment was designed to allow rebellion [especially towards government corruption and tyranny] to remain as our Heritage. The Constitution was designed to keep the government [and especially the government, with their SLAVE SURVEILLANCE NUMBERS (SSNs)] off the backs of the people. The Bill of Rights was added to keep the precincts of belief and expression, of the press, of political and social activities free from [government, and especially IRS] surveillance. The Bill of Rights was designed to keep agents of government and official eavesdroppers [in the government] away from Assemblies of People [such as this religious ministry]. The aim was to allow men to be free and independent to assert their rights against government."
[Laird v. Tatum, 408 U.S. 1; 92 S.Ct. 2318 (1972)]

"...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . . ."
[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

*"This court has not yet fixed the standard by which to determine when a danger shall be deemed clear; how remote the danger may be and yet be deemed present; and what degree of evil shall be deemed sufficiently substantial to justify resort to abridgment of free speech and assembly as the means of protection. To reach sound conclusions on these matters, we must bear in mind why a state is, ordinarily, denied the power to prohibit dissemination of social, economic and political doctrine which a vast majority of its citizens believes to be false and fraught with evil consequence. [274 U.S. 357, 375] Those who won our independence believed that the final end of the state was to make men free to develop their faculties, and that in its government the deliberative forces should prevail over the arbitrary. They valued liberty both as an end and as a means. They believed liberty to be the secret of happiness and courage to be the secret of liberty. They believed that freedom to think as you will and to speak [and educate] as you think are means indispensable to the discovery and spread of political truth; that without free speech and assembly discussion would be futile; that with them, discussion affords ordinarily

1 adequate protection against the dissemination of noxious doctrine; that the greatest menace to freedom is an
2 inert people; that public discussion [and education] is a political duty; and that this should be a fundamental
3 principle of the American government. 3 They recognized the risks to which all human institutions are subject.
4 But they knew that order cannot be secured merely through fear of punishment for its infraction; that it is
5 hazardous to discourage thought, hope and imagination; that fear breeds repression; that repression breeds
6 hate; that hate menaces stable government; that the path of safety lies in the opportunity to discuss [and
7 educate other people about] freely supposed grievances and proposed remedies; and that the fitting remedy for 8 evil counsels is good ones. Believing in the power of reason as applied through public discussion, they 9 eschewed silence [274 U.S. 357, 376] coerced by law [for a corrupted government]-the argument of force in 10 its worst form. Recognizing the occasional tyrannies of governing majorities, they amended the Constitution
11 so that free speech and assembly should be guaranteed."
12 Whitney v. California, [274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

13 4. The government has abused the tax system to create a Civil Religion of Socialism, and is using abuse of legal process to 14 disadvantage, persecute, and disestablish all competing religions such as ours. See:

17 4.2. The Institutes of Biblical Law, Rousas John Rushdoony, 1973, The Craig Press, Library of Congress Catalog Card
18 Number 72-79485

19 "Fifth, there can be no tolerance in a law-system for another religion. Toleration is a device used to introduce 20 a new law-system as a prelude to a new intolerance. Legal positivism, a humanistic faith, has been savage in its 21 hostility to the Biblical law-system and has claimed to be an "open" system. But Cohen, by no means a Christian,
22 has aptly described the logical positivists as "nihilists" and their faith as "nihilistic absolutism."⁴⁶ Every law-
23 system must maintain its existence by hostility to every other law-system and to alien religious foundations or 24 else it commits suicide."

26 Card Number 72-79485, pp. 4-5, Emphasis added]

27 4.3. Lee v. Weisman, 505 U.S. 577 \(1992\):

28 Our society would be less than true to its heritage if it lacked abiding concern for the values of its young people,
29 and we acknowledge the profound belief of adherents to many faiths that there must be a place in the student's
30 life for precepts of a morality higher even than the law we today enforce. We express no hostility to those
31 aspirations, nor would our oath permit us to do so. A relentless and all-pervasive attempt to exclude religion
32 from every aspect of public life could itself become inconsistent with the Constitution. See Abington School
33 District, supra, at 306 (Goldberg, J., concurring).

34 [. . .]

35 Nearly half a century of review and refinement of Establishment Clause jurisprudence has distilled one clear
36 understanding: Government may neither promote nor affiliate itself with any religious doctrine or
37 organization, nor may it obtrude itself in the internal affairs of any religious institution. The application of 38 these principles to the present case mandates the decision reached today by the Court.

39 [. . .]

40 The mixing of government and religion can be a threat to free government, even if no one is forced to
41 participate. When the government puts its imprimatur on a particular religion, it conveys a message of exclusion
42 to all those who do not adhere to the favored beliefs.[9] A government cannot [505 U.S. 607] be premised on the 43 belief that all persons are created equal when it asserts that God prefers some. Only "[a]nguish, hardship and
44 bitter strife" result "when zealous religious groups struggl[e] with one another to obtain the Government's stamp
45 of approval." Engel, 370 U.S. at 429; see also Lemon, 403 U.S. at 622-623; Aguilar v. Felton, 473 U.S. 402, 416
46 (1985) (Powell, J., concurring).[10] Such a struggle can "strain a political system to the breaking point." Walz
47 v. Tax Commission, 397 U.S. 664, 694 (1970) (opinion of Harlan, J.).

48 When the government arrogates to itself a role in religious affairs, it abandons its obligation as guarantor of
49 democracy. Democracy requires the nourishment of dialogue and dissent, while religious faith puts its trust in
50 an ultimate divine authority above all human deliberation. When the government appropriates religious truth,
51 it "transforms rational debate into theological decree." Nuechterlein, Note, The Free Exercise Boundaries of 52 Permissible Accommodation Under the Establishment Clause, 99 Yale L.J. 1127, 1131 (1990). Those who
53 disagree no longer are questioning the policy judgment of the elected but the rules of a higher authority who is
54 beyond reproach. [505 U.S. 608]

⁴⁶ Morris Raphael Cohen, Reason and Law (New York: Collier Books, 1961), p. 84 f.

1 Madison warned that government officials who would use religious authority to pursue secular ends

2 exceed the commission from which they derive their authority, and are Tyrants. The People who submit to it are
3 governed by laws made neither by themselves nor by an authority derived from them, and are slaves.

7 Likewise, we have recognized that "[r]eligion flourishes in greater purity, without than with the aid of
8 Gov[ernment]."^[11] Id. at 309. To "make room for as wide a variety of beliefs and creeds as the spiritual needs 9 of man deem necessary," Zorach v. Clauson, 343 U.S. 306, 313 (1952), the government must not align itself with 10 *any one of them. When the government favors a particular religion or sect, the disadvantage to all others is 11 obvious, but even the favored religion may fear being "taint[ed]... with a corrosive secularism." Grand Rapids
12 *School Dist. v. Ball, 473 U.S. 373, 385 (1985). The favored religion may be compromised as political figures
13 reshape the religion's beliefs for their own purposes; it may be reformed as government largesse brings
14 government regulation.^[12] Keeping religion in the hands of private groups minimizes state intrusion on 15 religious choice, and best enables each religion to "flourish according to the [505 U.S. 609] zeal of its adherents 16 and the appeal of its dogma." Zorach, 343 U.S. at 313.

17 *It is these understandings and fears that underlie our Establishment Clause jurisprudence. We have believed that
18 religious freedom cannot exist in the absence of a free democratic government, and that such a government
19 cannot endure when there is fusion between religion and the political regime. We have believed that religious
20 freedom cannot thrive in the absence of a vibrant religious community, and that such a community cannot prosper
21 when it is bound to the secular. And we have believed that these were the animating principles behind the adoption
22 of the Establishment Clause. To that end, our cases have prohibited government endorsement of religion, its
23 sponsorship, and active involvement in religion, whether or not citizens were coerced to conform.

- 25 5. The IRS has repeatedly been invited to provide a detailed critique of the content of our website based on evidence. They 26 have refused repeated invitations to do so. Instead, they have pursued an injunction against a member who is not an
27 officer of this ministry without even notifying us of what we are doing wrong. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that 28 such conduct is illegal. They MUST exhaust their administrative remedies BEFORE pursuing litigation or an injunction,
29 and they refuse to. The reason they refuse to is that they know we are right!

30 The corporation contends that, since it denies that interstate or foreign commerce is involved and claims that a

33 hold would, as the government insists, in effect substitute the District Court for the Board as the tribunal to hear
34 *and determine what Congress declared the Board exclusively should hear and determine in the first instance. The

1 Obviously, the rules requiring exhaustion of the administrative remedy cannot be circumvented by asserting that
2 the charge on which the complaint rests is groundless and that the mere holding of the prescribed administrative
3 hearing would result in irreparable damage.⁵⁰ Lawsuits also often prove to have been ground- [303 U.S. 41, 52]
4 less; but no way has been discovered of relieving a defendant from the necessity of a trial to establish the fact.
5 [Myers v. Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corp., 303 U.S. 41 (1938)]

- 6 6. A failed attempt was made to enjoin our ministry by the Dept. of Justice, Case No. 05cv00921 in the Southern District
7 of California. The suit was against a member who is not an officer of this ministry and when it was attempted, they had
8 to violate the law and commit fraud to get an injunction:
- 9 6.1. The judge had to commit perjury on the record by calling our materials factual and by alleging that one of our 10 members said they were factual. In fact, he declared at least 40 times under penalty of perjury in his pleading that 11 nothing on the website was factual and therefore material to the unlawful and malicious prosecution of the member.
- 12 6.2. They used materials that weren't even posted on our website. You can only get an injunction against ONGOING 13 activities which there is proof in the record are ongoing.
- 14 6.3. Neither the Dept. of Justice nor the court could or did not identify even one factual error on our website. In fact,
15 the order did not identify WHERE the alleged false speech existed on the website at the time that they issued the 16 order.
- 17 6.4. After they issued their fraudulent order, the Dept. of Injustice was given a DVD containing our entire website on 18 several occasions and to identify anything that identified itself as factual that was also false, fraudulent, or violative
19 of the order. They were specifically asked to remain silent for everything they agreed was not false or fraudulent
20 or violative of the order. They did not respond either privately or on the record with the list of errata requested in 21 order to facilitate compliance with the order and therefore agreed that the injunction was FRAUDULENT and moot.
- 22 6.5. They used biased government witnesses with a conflict of interest in criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §208 and the 23 Federal Rules of Evidence. No verifiable private third party who was not a government employee was ever
24 produced who complained about the content of this website. During the litigation, the DOJ deposed only three 25 people who had used materials off our website and none of them had anything bad to say about our materials.
- 26 6.6. The so-called "evidence" that was used to prosecute was simply opinions with no foundation or evidentiary support
27 submitted in the form of affidavits. It was inadmissible because it was political speech disguised to look like facts
28 in violation of Federal Rule of Evidence 610.
- 29 6.7. The government was asked to remain silent on everything they agreed to and they didn't rebut anything. Therefore,
30 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6), they agree that everything on our website is truthful and
31 accurate AND that their order was in fact and in deed, FALSE, FRAUDULENT and FALSE COMMERCIAL
32 SPEECH designed to enrich themselves and protect their own criminal activities.

33 For details on the failed injunction attempt, see:

Case History of C. Hansen, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/CaseStudies/CHansen/CHansen.htm>

- 34 7. The fraudulent injunction order issued against one of our members ordered the litigant to stop doing things that there
35 was no evidence were either being done at the time of the order or had ever been done. Injunction orders must be based 36 upon ONGOING activity, and none of the activities enjoined were ever proven to be happening, much less ongoing.
37 What a farce and a fraud.
- 38 8. When the fraudulent and illegal injunction against one of our members and not against this ministry was appealed, Case
39 No. 06-56011, Ninth Circuit:
- 40 8.1. Both the court and the DOJ refused to deal with nearly all the issues raised on appeal.
- 41 8.2. The court attempted to sanction the litigant for things he never even said!
- 42 8.3. The court made the case unpublished to cover up their own wrongdoing and omission in dealing with the very 43 controversial issues raised.

44 For more details on the response to the failed injunction attempt, see:

Commission, 279 U.S. 560, 49 S.Ct. 383. Compare Western & Atlantic R.R. v. Georgia Public Service Commission, 267 U.S. 493, 496, 45 S.Ct. 409, 410,

1 The duplicitous “truth evasion” executed by the de facto government relating to matters discussed on our website:

- 2 1. Constitutes proof that what we tell people is true even without being factual. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6)
- 3 says a failure to deny constitutes an admission, and none of the issues we raised were ever denied.
- 4 2. Is every bit as harmful to the public as “tax evasion” and should be prosecuted as such.
- 5 3. Is evidence of a cover-up at the highest levels of the government to perpetuate the illegal enforcement of the Internal
- 6 Revenue Code against those who are not subject to it.

7 "The 'Truth' about income taxes is so precious to the U.S. government that it must be surrounded by a
8 bodyguard of LIES."
9 [SEDM]

- 10 4. Constitutes proof that the present de facto government has become so corrupted that the only thing it now protects are
- 11 its own illegal activities and the wrongdoers who implement it within the government. It is a protection racket, not a
- 12 government.

13 "Then you will see the rise of the double standard--the men who live by force [the government and the IRS
14 and scumbag lawyers], yet count on those who live by trade to create the value of their looted money--the men
15 who are the hitchhikers of virtue. In a moral society, these are the criminals, and the statutes are written to 16 protect you against them. But when a society establishes criminals-by-right and looters-by-law--men who use
17 force to seize the wealth of DISARMED victims--then money becomes its creators' avenger. Such looters [IRS]
18 believe it safe to rob defenseless [made ignorant of the law by sneaky lawyers and politicians who run the 19 public education system, in this case] men, once they've passed a law to disarm them. But their loot becomes 20 the magnet for other looters, who get it from them as they got it. Then the race goes, not to the ablest at 21 production, but to those most ruthless at brutality. When force is the standard, the murderer wins over the 22 pickpocket. And then that society vanishes, in a spread of ruins and slaughter. "

23 "Do you wish to know whether that day is coming? Watch money. Money is the barometer of a society's virtue.
24 When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion--when you see that in order to produce,
25 you need to obtain permission from men who produce nothing--when you see that money is flowing to those 26 who deal, not in goods, but in favors--when you see that men get richer by graft and by pull than by work, and
27 your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you--when you see corruption being
28 rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice--you may know that your society is doomed. Money is so noble
29 a medium that it does not compete with guns and it does not make terms with brutality. It will not permit a 30 country to survive as half-property, half-loot.

31 "Whenever destroyers [the IRS, the Federal Reserve, and a corrupted Dept of Justice] appear among men, they 32 start by destroying money, for money is men's protection and the base of a moral existence. Destroyers seize 33 gold and leave to its owners a counterfeit pile of paper. This kills all objective standards and delivers men into
34 the arbitrary power of an arbitrary setter of values. Gold was an objective value, an equivalent of wealth
35 produced. Paper is a mortgage on wealth that does not exist, backed by a gun aimed at those who are expected
36 to produce it. Paper is a check drawn by legal looters upon an account which is not theirs: upon the virtue of 37 the victims. Watch for the day when it becomes, marked: 'Account overdrawn.'

38 "When you have made evil [government looting through fraud, obfuscation and complication of the tax laws,
39 and through vote for sugar-daddies who promise loot] the means of survival, do not expect men to remain
40 good. Do not expect them to stay moral and lose their lives for the purpose of becoming the fodder of the 41 immoral. Do not expect them to produce, when production is punished and looting rewarded. Do not ask, 'Who 42 is destroying the world?' You are.
43 [Atlas Shrugged, Ayn Rand, p. 387]

44 22 Open Invitation to Help Us Remove Inaccuracies in Our Materials

45 "Let the [proven] righteous strike me;
46 It shall be a kindness,

48 It shall be as excellent oil;
49 Let my head not refuse it."

We are always interested in improving the accuracy of our ministry materials. We have always invited and continue to invite anyone, and especially the government, to contact us promptly if they find anything inaccurate or inconsistent with reality either on our website or in this document and to provide constructive (how to fix it, not ONLY what is wrong) feedback on how to improve our materials. Failure to contact us, in fact, is the method by which we establish the accuracy of our materials and the agreement of the government with them, because Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(6) indicates that failure to deny constitutes an admission:

“The plaintiff who retreats under the cloak of the Fifth Amendment [or silence, for that matter] cannot hope to gain an unequal advantage against the party he has chosen to sue. To hold otherwise would, in terms of the customary metaphor, enable plaintiff to use his Fifth Amendment shield as a sword. This he cannot do. See, e. g., Lyons v. Johnson, 415 F.2d. 540 (9th Cir. 1969); Kisting v. Westchester Fire Ins. Co., 290 F.Supp. 141 (W.D.Wis.1968)”
[Wehling v. Columbia Broadcasting System, 608 F.2d. 1084 (5th Cir. 12/28/1979)]

We desire to bring nothing but honor, glory, worship, and obedience to the God that we and others in our Ministry exist solely to serve and obey. If you are from the government, please email to us your response and critique of our materials consistent with the following burden of proof and sign it under penalty of perjury as required by 26 U.S.C. §6065, just as you insist that everything we give you must be signed under penalty of perjury:

SEDM About Us Page, Section 12: A Message to Government Readers
<http://sedm.org/Ministry/AboutUs.htm>

If you are a Member instead of the government, please submit your critique or errata through our Member Forums at the address below under the “Errata reports” topic:

SEDM Member Forums
<http://sedm.org/forums/>

Note that nothing on our website can be described as “false”, because our Disclaimer and our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 identify everything on the ministry website as religious beliefs and opinions that are NONfactual, NONactionable, and not admissible as evidence pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 610. See:

1. SEDM Disclaimer:
<http://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm>
2. SEDM Member Agreement, Form #01.001, Section 3: Basis for My Beliefs:
<http://sedm.org/MemberAgreement/MemberAgreement.pdf>

If the de facto government believes that our materials suggest, aide, abet, or sanction unlawful activity or are inaccurate, they as public officers have a fiduciary duty to us as the public to bring that to our attention immediately so that it can be promptly fixed. A failure to rebut our materials promptly or provide legally admissible evidence that they are inconsistent with prevailing law on the subject:

1. Constitutes an equitable estoppel from civil liability pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8\(b\)\(6\).
2. Makes those in government who have read our materials guilty of:
 - 2.1. Conspiracy to defraud the government pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §371.
 - 2.2. Accessory after the fact pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3.
 - 2.3. Misprision of felony pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §4.

Remember: Every tax crime has willfulness as a prerequisite. You must inform us something is wrong before it can BE wrong, and that notification MUST be in court admissible, affidavit form signed under penalty of perjury with your real legal birthname, agreeing to take responsibility personally if your information is wrong, and providing the address where you can be personally served with legal papers if in fact you are wrong or fraudulent. Every document prepared under the authority of the Internal Revenue Code MUST be signed under penalty of perjury pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6065. We will not aid any effort that exempts any portion of the government from that requirement in the context of proving proof that our materials are inaccurate.

24 Questions that Readers, Grand Jurors, and Petit Jurors Should be Asking the Government

These questions are provided for readers, Grand Jurors, and Petit Jurors to present to the government or anyone else who would challenge the facts and law appearing in this pamphlet, most of whom work for the government or stand to gain financially from perpetuating the fraud. If you find yourself in receipt of this pamphlet, you are demanded to answer the questions within 10 days. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8\(b\)\(6\), failure to deny within 10 days constitutes an admission to each question. Pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6065, all of your answers must be signed under penalty of perjury. We are not interested in agency policy, but only sources of reasonable belief identified in the pamphlet below:

Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

Your answers will become evidence in future litigation, should that be necessary in order to protect the rights of the person against whom you are attempting to unlawfully enforce federal law.

1. Admit that the ONLY thing in America which is "sovereign" under our legal system is THE PEOPLE as private humans, and not the government that serves them:

"While sovereign powers are delegated to ... the government, sovereignty itself remains with the people.."
[Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), page 370]

1 "There is no such thing as a power of inherent sovereignty in the government of the United States In this
2 country sovereignty resides in the people, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their
3 Constitution entrusted to it: All else is withheld."
4 [Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

5 "In common usage, the term 'person' does not include the sovereign, and statutes employing the word are 6 ordinarily construed to exclude it."
7 [Wilson v. Omaha Indian Tribe, 442 U.S. 653, 667 (1979)]

8 "In the United States the people are sovereign, and the government cannot sever its relationship to the people by 9 taking away their citizenship...The very nature of our free Government makes it completely incongruous to have
10 a rule of law under which a group of citizens temporarily in office can deprive another group of citizens of their
11 citizenship. We hold that the Fourteenth Amendment was designed to and does, protect every citizen of this Nation,
12 against a congressional, forcible destruction of his citizenship, whatever his creed, color, or race. Our holding
13 does no more than to give this citizen, that which is his own, a constitutional right to remain a citizen in a free
14 country unless he voluntarily relinquishes that citizenship." "
15 [Afroyim v. Rusk, 387 U.S. 253 (1967)]

16 "From the differences existing between feudal sovereignties and Government founded on compacts, it necessarily
17 follows that their respective prerogatives must differ. Sovereignty is the right to govern; a nation or State-
18 sovereign is the person or persons in whom that resides. In Europe the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the
19 Prince; here it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the Government; here, never in
20 a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and at most stand in the same relation to their
21 sovereign, in which regents in Europe stand to their sovereigns. Their Princes have personal powers, dignities,
22 and pre-eminences, our rulers have none but official; nor do they partake in the sovereignty otherwise, or in any 23 other capacity, than as private citizens." at 472.
24 [Chisholm, Ex'r. v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419, 1 L.ed. 454, 457, 471, 472) (1794)]

25 "...a government which is founded by the people, who possess exclusively the sovereignty..." "In this great nation
26 there is but one order, that of the people, whose power, by a peculiarly happy improvement of the representative
27 principle, is transferred from them, without impairing in the slightest degree their sovereignty, to bodies of their
28 own creation, and to persons elected by themselves, in the full extent necessary for all the purposes of free,
29 enlightened and efficient government. The whole system is elective, the complete sovereignty being in the people,
30 and every officer in every department deriving his authority from and being responsible to them for his conduct."
31 [James Monroe, Second Inaugural Speech March 5, 1821]

32 Strictly speaking, in our republican form of government, the absolute sovereignty of the nation is in the people of 33 the nation; and the residuary sovereignty of each state, not granted to any of its public functionaries, is in the 34 people of the state. 2 Dall. 471
35 [Bouv. Law Dict (1870)]

36 ". . .The United States is a representative Government. Congress meets in the Capital. Senators and 37 Representatives come yearly to perform their legislative duties, refreshed by contact with their home people,
38 and because thereof better able to represent their views. Each of their constituents is a sovereign citizen; he is a
39 part of the Government, State and National; he has a voice in the selection of his officers and, either directly or 40 indirectly through his representatives, makes and enforces all laws, State and National, affecting life, liberty, and 41 property. . ."

10 Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. In Heiner v. Donnan, 285 U.S. 312 (1932) , the Court was 11 faced with a constitutional challenge to a federal statute that created a conclusive presumption that gifts made
12 within two years prior to the donor's death were made in contemplation of death, thus requiring payment by his 13 estate of a higher tax. In holding that this irrefutable assumption was so arbitrary and unreasonable as to deprive 14 the taxpayer of his property without due process of law, the Court stated that it had "held more than once that a
15 statute creating a presumption which operates to deny a fair opportunity to rebut it violates the due process clause
16 of the Fourteenth Amendment." Id., at 329. See, e. g., Schlesinger v. Wisconsin, 270 U.S. 230 (1926); Hoeper v.
17 Tax Comm'n, 284 U.S. 206 (1931). See also Tot v. United States, 319 U.S. 463, 468-469 (1943); Leary v. United 18 States, 395 U.S. 6, 29-53 (1969). Cf. Turner v. United States, 396 U.S. 398, 418-419 (1970).

19 The more recent case of Bell v. Burson, 402 U.S. 535 (1971), involved a Georgia statute which provided that if 20 an uninsured motorist was involved in an accident and could not post security for the amount of damages claimed,
21 his driver's license must be suspended without any hearing on the question of fault or responsibility. The Court
22 held that since the State purported to be concerned with fault in suspending a driver's license, it [412 U.S. 441,
23 447] could not, consistent with procedural due process, conclusively presume fault from the fact that the 24 uninsured motorist was involved in an accident, and could not, therefore, suspend his driver's license without a
25 hearing on that crucial factor.

26 Likewise, in Stanley v. Illinois, 405 U.S. 645 (1972), the Court struck down, as violative of the Due Process Clause
27 of the Fourteenth Amendment, Illinois' irrebuttable statutory presumption that all unmarried fathers are 28 unqualified to raise their children. Because of that presumption, the statute required the State, upon the death of 29 the mother, to take custody of all such illegitimate children, without providing any hearing on the father's parental
30 fitness. It may be, the Court said, "that most unmarried fathers are unsuitable and neglectful parents. . . . But all 31 unmarried fathers are not in this category; some are wholly suited to have custody of their children." Id., at 654.
32 Hence, the Court held that the State could not conclusively presume that any individual unmarried father was 33 unfit to raise his children; rather, it was required by the Due Process Clause to provide a hearing on that issue.
34 According to the Court, Illinois "insists on presuming rather than proving Stanley's unfitness solely because it is 35 more convenient to presume than to prove. Under the Due Process Clause that advantage is insufficient to justify
36 refusing a father a hearing . . ." Id., at 658. 4 [412 U.S. 441, 448] "

4 distinctive, fixed, and legal meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and the term 'territory'
5 or 'territories' does not necessarily include only a portion or the portions thereof which are organized and
6 exercise government functions under acts of congress. The term 'territories' has been defined to be political
7 subdivisions of the outlying dominion of the United States, and in this sense the term 'territory' is not a description
8 of a definite area of land but of a political unit governing and being governed as such. The question whether a 9 particular subdivision or entity is a territory is not determined by the particular form of government with which
10 it is, more or less temporarily, invested.

38 "The earliest case is that of Hepburn v. Ellzey, 2 Cranch, 445, 2 L.Ed. 332, in which this court held that, under 39 that clause of the Constitution limiting the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States to controversies between 40 citizens of different states, a citizen of the District of Columbia could not maintain an action in the circuit court
41 of the United States. It was argued that the word 'state,' in that connection, was used simply to denote a distinct
42 political society. 'But,' said the Chief Justice, 'as the act of Congress obviously used the word 'state' in reference
