PROOF THAT AMERICAN NATIONALS ARE NONRESIDENT ALIENS

"The simple and naked truth about the income tax is so precious that it must be surrounded by a bodyguard of cognitive dissonance (foreign or alien), equivocation, logical fallacies, deception, lies, and propaganda." [SEDM]

"What luck for rulers that men do not think" [Adolf Hitler]

"Ignorance more frequently begets confidence [and presumptions] than does knowledge." [Charles Darwin (1809-1882) 1871]

DEDICATION

" For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king."

[1 Peter 2:15-16, Bible, NKJV]

"There is nothing so powerful as truth, and often nothing so strange [foreign or alien]." [Daniel Webster]

"The Lord watches over the strangers [nonresidents]; He relieves the fatherless and widow; But the way of the wicked He turns upside down." [Psalm 146:9, Bible, NKJV]

"If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of [domiciled/resident within] the world, but I [Jesus] chose you [believers] out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you, 'A [public] servant is not greater than his [Sovereign] master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also [as trustees of the public trust]. But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him [God] who sent Me." [Jesus in John 15:19-21, Bible, NKJV]

"For our citizenship [and domicile/residence] is in heaven [and not earth], from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" [Philippians 3:20, Bible, NKJV]

"I am a stranger [statutory "non-resident non-person"] in the earth; Do not hide Your commandments [laws] from me." [Psalm 119:19, Bible, NKJV]

"I have become a stranger to my brothers, and an alien to my mother's children; because zeal for Your [God's] house has eaten me up, and the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me." [Psalm 69:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

"Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear to my cry; hold not Your peace at my tears! For I am Your passing guest [transient foreigner], a temporary resident, as all my fathers were." [Psalm 39:12, Bible, Amplified version]

"Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure [unearned money from the government] that war in your members [and your democratic governments]? You lust [after other people's money] and do not have. You murder [the unborn to increase your standard of living] and covet [the unearned] and cannot obtain [except by empowering your government to STEAL for you!]. You fight and war [against the rich and the nontaxpayers to subsidize your idleness]. Yet you do not have because you do not ask [the Lord, but instead ask the deceitful government]. You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world [or the governments of the world] is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend ["citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", "inhabitant", "U.S. person", "person", "individual", or "subject"] of the world [or the corrupted governments of the world] makes himself an enemy of God."

"And Mr. Justice Miller, delivering the opinion of the court [legislating from the bench, in this case], in analyzing the first clause [of the Fourteenth Amendment], observed that "the phrase 'subject to the jurisdiction thereof was intended to exclude from its operation children of ministers, consuls, and citizens or subjects of foreign states [INCLUDING the "Kingdom of Heaven"], born within the United States." [U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649, 18 S.Ct. 456; 42 L.Ed. 890 (1898)]

This document is intended to satisfy the burden of proof to demonstrate that the person invoking it satisfies the criteria for being a "nonresident alien" as described but not defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B). The term is a description rather than definition because it describes what it IS NOT, rather than what it IS. To satisfy the requirement to be a legal definition, it must accurately and completely describe ALL things that are INCLUDED and by doing so, rule out everything that is EXCLUDED under the Rules of Statutory Construction:

8	ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of
9	the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule,
10	`a definition which declares what a term "means" excludes any meaning that is not stated'"); Western Union
11	Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935)
12	(Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n.
13	10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S. 943]
14	(THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General's
15	restriction "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
16	[Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]
17	"It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term. Colautti v.
18	Franklin, 439 U.S. 379, 392, and n. 10 (1979). Congress' use of the term "propaganda" in this statute, as indeed
19	in other legislation, has no pejorative connotation. [19] As judges, it is our duty to [481 U.S. 485] construe
20	legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has
21	not even read it."
22	[Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484 (1987)]
23	"As a rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means"excludes any meaning that is not stated"
23	[Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 (1979), n. 10]
25	Why is the term "nonresident alien" described this way rather than merely just "legally defined" properly consistent with the Rules of Statutory Construction? Here are the reasons:

1. Invoking the status is the exit door for income taxation for most Americans, who indeed satisfy the criteria.

- The government doesn't want you to know exactly and only who is EXPRESSLY INCLUDED because that would make it too obvious that it applies to the average American.
- 30 3. They instead want to force the reader to rely on a legal expert who is licensed by the state and thus has a financial 31 conflict of interest and allegiance towards the court instead of their client. The court always comes first, and the court 32 is little more than a revenue collector and advocate for the state in most cases, unless the judge is truly honorable, in 33 which case he or she is a little more likely to be honest and fair.
- For the purposes of this document, an accurate legal definition of "nonresident alien" rather than merely a DESCRIPTION of it is:

36	26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) Nonresident Alien
37	Someone not domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government in the statutory geographical
38	"United States", which is defined in paragraph (a)(9) as the District of Columbia and NOT expanded anywhere
39	else to include anyplace else, as we explain in 26 C.F.R. §301.7701-7. The tax is on the DOMICILE of the party,
40	and not the NATIONALITY. See Lawrence v. State Tax Commission, 286 U.S. 276 (1932);
41	https://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=10241277000101996613.
42 43 44 45 46 47	The "taxpayer" subject to the tax is also a fictional office in the government rather than a human being. The OFFICE and the OFFICER can only become connected by consent in some form or else it would be a violation of the Thirteenth Amendment prohibition against involuntary servitude. In most cases, that consent is IMPLIED by merely INVOKING the "benefits" of such a civil status that tax obligations attach to. See: How You Lose Constitutional or Natural Rights , Form #10.015; https://sedm.org/Forms/10-Emancipation/HowLoseConstOrNatRights.pdf .
48	The Declaration of Independence requires that all just CIVIL powers of government derive from consent of the
49	governed. Every method of procuring your consent must be IMPLIED rather than EXPRESS because we can
50	never allow you to know WHEN you are giving your consent and exactly HOW to withdraw it. That way, we can
51	maintain the false illusion that we are "in charge", even though the Constitution puts YOU in charge. See:

1	1. Hot Issues: Invisible Consent*, SEDM
2	https://sedm.org/invisible-consent/
3	2. Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
4	https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf
5	There are four possible citizenship statuses: alien, national, citizen, resident.
6	"citizen" and "resident" have in common a civil domicile within the exclusive jurisdiction of the venue in
7	question.
8	We couldn't make a "national" into the origin of the obligation to tax because an act of birth is not an act of
9	consent. You can't choose NOT to be born.
10	Not all "nonresident aliens" are "aliens". They are not a SUBSET of aliens, but a SUPERSET that also includes
11	nationals.
12	The whole thing is voluntary anyway, because there is no liability statute and the only thing that even comes close
13	to liability is in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1. There we use the word "liable TO" rather than "liable FOR". Are you "liable
14	TO" go to the bathroom today? The first place liability even appears under Section 1 is 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1. In
15	that case, the regulation exceeds the scope of the statute and therefore is limited by 5 U.S.C. §301 to apply ONLY
16	to people working under the Secretary of the Treasury anyway. So "taxpayers" are volunteers who work for the
17	Secretary of the Treasury without compensation. See: How State Nationals Volunteer to Pay Income Tax , Form
18	#08.024; https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/HowYouVolForIncomeTax.pdf . Since the income tax is all
19	voluntary, geographical boundaries are irrelevant because anything done by consent cannot form the basis for
20	an injury in court or standing to sue.
21	Now do you know why we go to such great lengths to obscure the exit door to our income tax scam, which is a
22	house full of mirrors by:
23	1. Hoping you won't notice that DOMICILE is BUILT INTO the CIVIL STATUTORY words "citizen" and
24	"resident" but NOT into the CONSTITUTIONAL word "citizen".
25	2. Only expressly mentioning domicile in the context of Subtitle B estate taxes.
26	3. Using "tax home" in Section 911 to replace "domicile".
27	4. In Section 877 hide whether the "national" who expatriated was also a "nonresident alien" BEFORE they
28	expatriated as well. They can be.
29	5. Make it LOOK like we can FORCE a domicile on you without your consent by making it a question of implied
30	consent. This, however, would be involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment if the person it
31	was done against is LIVING. So we make it LOOK like we can do it to the living by actually only doing it to the
32	DEAD who have no rights. See State of Texas v. Florida, 307 U.S. 398 (1939).
33	6. Not defining the word "alien" in the phrase "nonresident alien". In fact, it means someone with a foreign
34	DOMICILE, not a foreign NATIONALITY.
35	7. Adding the word "alien" to the end of "nonresident alien". This causes most Americans to falsely believe the
36	status doesn't apply to them.
37	8. Never defining the "citizen" made "liable TO" rather than "liable FOR" the tax in 26 C.F.R. $$1.1-1(c)$. Then
38	refer back to 8 U.S.C. §1401-1459, not telling people that the only "citizen" mentioned in Title 8 is a STATUTORY
39	citizen born within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government on federal territory, not a Fourteenth
40	Amendment "citizen of the United States" that most Americans are.
41	The above ACCURATE and COMPLETE definition is what we call a "Third Rail Issue". For a catalog of the mo

The above ACCURATE and COMPLETE definition is what we call a "Third Rail Issue". For a catalog of the most common Third Rail Issues in government, see:

Third Rail Government Issues, Form #08.032 https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/ThirdRailIssues.pdf

1 2 What is an "American National"?

For the purposes of this document, the terms "American National" is someone who is either born in a U.S. possession or is a "state national". A "state national" means those who are:

- Born in a Constitutional but not Statutory "State" as described in the Fourteenth Amendment or the original constitution.
- Standing on land protected by the Constitution and/or the organic law and therefore possessing natural and Constitutional and PRIVATE rights as documented in:
 Enumeration of Inalienable Rights, Form #10.002

https://sedm.org/Forms/10-Emancipation/EnumRights.pdf

- 3. Not claiming any government statutory privilege, immunity, exemption, "benefit", domicile, or civil statutory protection in the context of a specific interaction and reserving all rights per U.C.C. §1.308.
- Invoking ONLY the common law, the criminal law, God's laws, and the national and state Bill of Rights or constitutional rights for their protection in a court of law. They are therefore NOT "anarchists" who reject ALL law. Instead, they only reject that subset of law (the CIVIL STATUTORY law) that acquires the "force of law" from their consent in some form, whether express or implied.
- 5. Reject the statutory terms "citizen", "resident", or "person" and the use of the word "citizenship" in ANY context in describing themselves. Instead, they insist on the consistent use of "nationality" and "domicile" to describe their degree of POLITICAL and CIVIL/LEGAL membership in the communities they live in respectively.
 Domicile, in turn, is VOLUNTARY and cannot be compelled, except possibly in a probate proceeding involving a DEAD person with no rights. POLITICAL membership conveys NO civil enforcement authority. Only CIVIL/LEGAL membership can, and it must be voluntary.
- 6. Owing allegiance to THE PEOPLE as individuals and sovereigns occupying the land within the state, and not to the government that serves them under the constitution as the delegation of authority order. "State" in a political sense always refers to PEOPLE occupying land and never to GOVERNMENTS or government corporations. In biblical terms, that allegiance is called "love", and it is commanded by God in Matt. 22:34-40. God NEVER commands Christians to love governments or civil rulers and often tells people to DISOBEY them when they violate the Bible as their delegation of authority order (Form #13.007).

- ²⁸ 1. STATUTORY "person" under 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and §7343.
- Statutory "national and citizen of the United States at birth" as defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401. This is a territorial citizen rather than a state citizen.
- 31 3. "citizen of the United States[federal zone]" under 26 U.S.C. §911, 26 U.S.C. §3121(e), or 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).
- "National but not citizen of the United States at birth" under 8 U.S.C. §1408. This is a person born in a federal possession RATHER than a state of the Union.
- 5. "U.S.[] non-citizen national" under 8 U.S.C. §1452. This is a person born in a federal possession RATHER than a state of the Union.
- STATUTORY "U.S. person" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30), which is a human being born and domiciled on federal territory not within the exclusive jurisdiction of any Constitutional state.
- The term is a SUBSET of the term "American National" as used by the Department of State in 8 U.S.C. §1502 because it:
- 1. Excludes citizens or nationals within territories or possessions or those born abroad.
- 40 2. Includes ONLY those born or naturalized within a constitutional state of the Union.
- 41 We make this distinction because we don't want to be in a position of "purposefully availing ourself" of commerce within
- the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government and thereby make ourselves a target of "selective or UNJUST"
- enforcement". This is also consistent with the SEDM opening page, which says:

Equivalent to a "non-citizen national of the United States OF AMERICA" or a "free inhabitant" under the Articles of Confederation. EXCLUDES any of the following:

1	"Our goal is to inspire, empower, motivate, and educate mainly those born or naturalized in the USA (and NOT
2	"U.S.") and who are Members in how to love, honor, obey, glorify, and lift up our Sovereign Lord above every

"state" for a foreign national = the country of which that person is a national. "state" for an American National is the United States of America, or just America. "state" is not defined in 8 U.S.C. although "State" is defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(36) and they are NOT equivalent. See 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) for another reference to a "state national". Remember the context of 8 U.S.C. §1101 is immigration and nationality. So, when we speak of a state in this context, we are talking about international states. In that context, American nationality (or U.S. nationality) is what we are---nationality of California is meaningless in this context. So, to say you are a national of California is to say you are a national of the United States[] OF AMERICA or an American National.

As a noun, a people permanently occupying a fixed territory bound together by common habits and custom into one body politic exercising, through the medium of an organized government, independent sovereignty and control over all persons and things within its boundaries, capable of making war and peace and of entering into international relations with other states. The section of territory occupied by one of the United States. The people of a state, in their collective capacity, considered as the party wronged by a criminal deed; the public; as in the title of a case, "The State v. A. B." The circumstances or condition of a being or thing at a given time. [The Free Dictionary, Farlex; SOURCE: https://legal-dictionary.thefreedictionary.com/state]

"State national" is NOT a statutory term and is not commonly used by courts of law. Therefore, if you invoke it in government correspondence or in litigation, you should take great care to define it BEFORE invoking it so that you do not invite charges of being "frivolous".

26 3 Our Position in a Nutshell

²⁷ The following subsections describe as briefly as possible our position relating to the Nonresident Alien Position.

3.1 Summary of Our Position why the Average American is both a Constitutional or Fourteenth Amendment 29 Citizen at birth AND a "nonresident alien" for income tax purposes

- ³⁰ Below is a summary of our approach to the "nonresident alien position" documented herein:
- 1. Those made "LIABLE TO" (rather than "LIABLE FOR") the income tax are described in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 as "citizen and residents of the United States" on their worldwide earnings and the INCOME of "nonresident aliens".

33	26 C.F.R. § 1.1-1 - Income tax on individuals.
34	(a) General Rule
35 36 37	(1) Section 1 of the Code imposes an income tax on the income of every individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States and, to the extent provided by section $871(b)$ or $877(b)$, on the income of a nonresident alien individual.
38	[]
39	(b) Citizens or residents of the United States liable to tax.
40	In general, all citizens of the United States, wherever resident, and all resident alien individuals are liable to the
41	income taxes imposed by the Code whether the income is received from sources within or without the United
42	States. Pursuant to section 876, a nonresident alien individual who is a bona fide resident of a section 931
43	possession (as defined in $ 1.931-1(c)(1) $ of this chapter) or Puerto Rico during the entire taxable year is, except
44	as provided in section 931 or 933 with respect to income from sources within such possessions, subject to taxation
45	in the same manner as a resident alien individual. As to tax on nonresident alien individuals, see sections 871
46	and 877.

- The "citizens and residents of the United States" are the parties made liable TO (but not liable FOR), and they are the OWNER of the earnings subject to tax.
 - 2.1. These parties cannot be human beings and must be fictions because otherwise unconstitutional slavery would be involved in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.
 - 2.2. It wouldn't be slavery if these were fictional offices that people have to consent to occupy.

Can an office accurately be described as a position or legal status created by legislation to which both privielges and obligations attach?

Searching for: office position legal status legislation privileges obligations

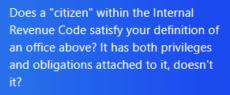

Generating answers for you...

Yes, an office can be accurately described as a position or legal status created by legislation to which both privileges and obligations attach. Legal status is the status or position held by an entity as determined by the law. It includes or entails a set of privileges, obligations, powers or restrictions that a person or thing has as encompassed in or declared by legislation ¹.

Yes, a "citizen" within the Internal Revenue Code satisfies the definition of an office above. A citizen has both privileges and obligations attached to it. For example, a citizen must pay income and other taxes honestly, and on time, to federal, state, and local authorities ¹.

OK. If its an office, its not synonymous with the human FILLING the office, is it?

That's correct. An office is not synonymous with the human filling the office. An office is a position or legal status created by legislation to which both privileges and obligations attach.

Can an office lawfully be exercised by a human being who does not consent to FILL the office?

I'm not sure about the context of your question. However, in general, an office can only be lawfully exercised by a human being who consents to fill the office. Informed consent is required for any research involving human subjects

- 3. "Nationals" are included within the term "nonresident alien" because:
- 3.1. There are FOUR citizenship statuses one can have: "alien", "national", "citizen", and "resident".

3.2. "Alien" and "national" are political statuses and an INVOLUNTARY product of birth.

- 3.3. "citizen" and "resident" are CIVIL statutory statuses that are a product of consent to:
 - 3.3.1. A DOMICILE in the statutory geographical "United States" in the case of "citizens".
 - 3.3.2. A Privileged RESIDENCE in the case of aliens who are subject to the presence test found in 26 U.S.C.
 §7701(b)(1). See 26 C.F.R. §1.871-2 which defines "residence" ONLY in the context of ALIENS and NOT "nationals" or "citizens".
- 3.4. A "nonresident alien" is described but not defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) as NEITHER a CIVIL statutory "citizen" nor a CIVIL statutory "resident". Thus, "nonresident alien" can include the remaining two possible citizenship statuses: "alien" or "national".
- 3.5. 26 U.S.C. §872(b)(8) identifies "possessions" as a "foreign country" and thus not part of the statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). IRS Form 1040NR for the years 1980 all the way up to 2017 described "nonresident aliens" as either "nationals of the United States" or "U.S. nationals". So "nationals" or "American nationals" can in fact elect to be "nonresident aliens".
- 3.6. 26 U.S.C. §873(b)(3) allows for a "personal exemption" in the case of "nationals of the United States" NOT engaged in a statutory "trade or business"/public office. By "nationals of the United States", they mean people born in the COUNTRY "United States*" but not necessarily the statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). Thus, they are not "aliens". 26 U.S.C. §151(d)(5) sets that exemption to zero from 2018 through 2025 as part of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2018. The Standard Deduction, however, is a privilege connected to a "trade or business" and is not available to nonresident aliens. In 2018, the Personal Exemption for nonresident aliens went to zero but the Standard Deduction in 26 U.S.C. §63(c)(7) was almost doubled, thus encouraging nonresident aliens to "elect" to become statutory "U.S. persons" public officers in pursuit of said privilege. I.R.C. Section 170 deductions connected to a privileged "trade or business" are still available to nonresident aliens.
- 4. American nationals born and domiciled in the exclusive jurisdiction of the constitutional states are "nationals" by the admission of the Department of State. See 22 C.F.R. §51.2. As such:
 - 4.1. They are not "aliens" or "alien individuals", which are defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.144-1(c)(3)(i) as being NEITHER STATUTORY "nationals" nor STATUTORY "citizens".
 - 4.2. They are not subject to the Presence Test found in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1). That test limits itself to "alien individuals".
 - 4.3. Thus, American Nationals are INCAPABLE of being "resident" or "residents of the United States" within the meaning of the entire INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.
 - 4.4. Therefore, the only thing American Nationals can accurately describe themselves as is "NONRESIDENTS" of one kind or another.
 - 4.5. The ONLY status in the Internal Revenue Code that connects itself with "nonresident" status is that found in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B). Thus, American Nationals born and domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Constitutional states must be STATUTORY "nonresident aliens" and NEVER "citizens" of the STATUTORY GEOGRAPHICAL "United States".
 - 4.6. Anyone with a FOREIGN domicile outside the venue of a foreign state that they were born in is always called a "NATIONAL" and seldom a "citizen" while abroad. This applies equally to those domiciled outside the statutory geographical "United States" if they were born in the COUNTRY "United States*".
- 5. The U.S. Supreme Court in Lawrence v. State Tax Commission, 286 U.S. 276 (1932) declared that state income tax is based exclusively on DOMICILE:

43	The obligation of one domiciled within a state to pay taxes there, arises
44	from unilateral action of the state government in the exercise of the most
45	plenary of sovereign powers, that to raise revenue to defray the expenses
46	of government and to distribute its burdens equably among those who
47	enjoy its benefits. Hence, domicile in itself establishes a basis for taxation.
48	Enjoyment of the privileges of residence within the state, and the
49	attendant right to invoke the protection of its laws, are inseparable from
50	the responsibility for sharing the costs of government. See Fidelity &
51	Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 58; Maguire v. Trefry, 253
52	U.S. 12, 14, 17; Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, 100 U.S. 491, 498; Shaffer v.
53	Carter, 252 U.S. 37, 50. The Federal Constitution imposes on the states no particular modes of
54	taxation, and apart from the specific grant to the federal government of the exclusive 280*280 power to levy
55	certain limited classes of taxes and to regulate interstate and foreign commerce, it leaves the states unrestricted

1 2 3		in their power to tax those domiciled within them, so long as the tax imposed is upon property within the state or on privileges enjoyed there, and is not so palpably arbitrary or unreasonable as to infringe the Fourteenth Amendment. Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, supra .
4		Taxation at the place of domicile of tangibles located elsewhere has been thought to be beyond the jurisdiction
5		of the state, Union Refrigerator Transit Co. v. Kentucky, 199 U.S. 194; Frick v. Pennsylvania, 268 U.S. 473, 488-
6		$\frac{489}{2}$; but considerations applicable to ownership of physical objects located outside the taxing jurisdiction, which
7 8		have led to that conclusion, are obviously inapplicable to the taxation of intangibles at the place of domicile or of privileges which may be enjoyed there. See Foreign Held Bond Case, 15 Wall. 300, 319; Frick v. Pennsylvania,
9		supra, p. 494. And the taxation of both by the state of the domicile has been uniformly upheld. Kirtland v.

15	6.	Nonresident aliens are domiciled outside the statutory geographical "United States" defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9)
16		and (a)(10) as the District of Columbia and nowhere extended to the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional states of
17		the Union or even federal territories or possessions.
18	7.	The IRC is the equivalent of a state tax for DC. We know this from the definition of "State" and "United States".
19	, .	7.1. "State" and "United States" excludes possessions. See 26 U.S.C. §872(b)(8).
20		7.2. 26 U.S.C. §2209 also identifies even statutory "citizens of the United States" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 born in Puerto

21		Puerto Rico, in fact, are the ONLY remaining STATUTORY "nationals and citizens of the United States at Birth"
22		per 8 U.S.C. §1401.
		Thus, the "United States" defined in 26 U.S.C. 7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) purposefully excludes anything but what it

39		legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has

44	8.	We are NOT suggesting that the tax cannot reach extraterritorially outside the District of Columbia because
45		ANYTHING can be done with the consent of the "taxpayer" in some form. Our website and this document, however,
46		PRESUME not only that no consent is given, but that it violates the Bible to do so:
47		Lastly, it is a fact that anyone who consents (Form #05.003) can have anything done to them that a tyrant
48		government wants to do, REGARDLESS of locality. Consenting to ANYTHING a government wants or offers is
49		not only STUPID, but violates God's Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians , Form #13.007.
50		Therefore, any and all claims on this website or in communication with us about the authority or jurisdiction
51		(Form #05.018) of any government presuppose the following relationship with said government:
52		1. Not physically present on federal territory.
53		2. Not domiciled on federal territory. See Form #05.002.
54 55		3. Not consenting or assenting to any government franchise, public right, or privilege and thus waive sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97. See Form #05.030.

1 2 3		4. Does not share ownership of any of their property with any government All property is absolutely owned. Ownership of all property is not "qualified ownership" and is not shared with any government. See Form #12.025.
4 5		5. Not claiming any statutory civil status or any of the "benefits" of such status under any act of any government. See Form #13.008.
6 7		6. Terms on all forms submitted to any government have the meaning indicated here and are not interpreted in their statutory or regulatory context.
8 9 10 11		7. A "Merchant" under U.C.C. §2-104(1) but not a "Buyer" under U.C.C. §2-103(1)(a) in relation to said government. This is the ONLY relation that God allows with any government and it is a violation of the Biblical delegation of authority for Christians to consent to any change in this relationship. It therefore would also be a violation of the First Amendment. See:
12 13		Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007 https://sedm.org/Forms/13-SelfFamilyChurchGovnce/DelOfAuthority.pdf

17 18 19		9. Not allowed BY LAW to consent (Form #05.003) to alienate unalienable organic or private rights to any government per the Declaration of Independence, which was enacted into positive law by the first official act of Congress on Page 1 of the Statutes at Large. See:
20 21		Unalienable Rights Course , Form #12.038 https://sedm.org/LibertyU/UnalienableRights.pdf
22 23 24 25		The burden of proof (Form #05.025) imposed upon the government alleging civil or criminal jurisdiction within a constitutional state therefore is to defeat all of the above limitations of its authority within a constitutional state and to prove that people within a state cannot use THE SAME franchise mechanisms against them to defend themselves against tyranny that are the origin of their jurisdiction to begin with.

It was insisted that Congress could act in a double capacity: in one as legislating [182 U.S. 244, 260] for the states; in the other as a local legislature for the District of Columbia. In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levving direct taxes might be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could not legislate for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and excises,' which 'shall be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the United States [described in the Constitution]. 45		Commissioner, 791 F.2d. 68, 70 (7th Cir. 1986); Van Sant, 98 A.F.T.R.2d. 2002-302, *7 (D.D.C. 2001). The
46 47		Seventh Circuit clarifies the meaning of taking in Coleman, stating that taxation does indeed "take" income, "but this is not the sense in which the constitution uses `takings.'" Id. The Second Circuit further explained that because
47 48		Article I, section 8, clause 1 of the U.S. Constitution granted Congress the power to tax before the passage of the
49		Sixteenth Amendment, its passage "did no more than remove the apportionment requirement of Article I, § 2, cl.
50		3, from taxes on `incomes, from whatever source derived.'" Therefore, although taxation on damages that are not

1 2 3	exempted under the revised version of § 104(a)(2) may appear to be a "taking" by the government, the constitutional provision was not intended, nor should it be extended, to cover plaintiff's situation in this case." [Murphy v. I.R.S, 362 F.Supp.2d. 206, 216-17 (D.D.C. 2005)]
4	"a. Fifth Amendment due process clause and takings clause "In general, a Federal tax law is not violative of the
5	Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution unless the statute classifies taxpayers in a
6	manner that is arbitrary and capricious." Hamilton v. Commissioner, 63 T.C. 601, 606 (1977). Furthermore,
7	courts may only intervene under a due process claim if "the act complained of was so arbitrary as to constrain
8	to the conclusion that it was not the exertion of taxation but a confiscation of property, that is, a taking of the same in violation of the Fifth Amendment, or what is equivalent thereto, was so wanting in basis for classification
9 10	as to produce such a gross and patent inequality as to inevitably lead to the same conclusion." Brushaber v.
11	Union Pac. RR, 240 U.S. 1, 24-25 (1916). Historically, the courts "never used the [substantive] due process
12	clause to regulate federal income tax," and have showed similar restraint under procedural due process claims
13	except for cases involving "specific classifications" or inadequate administrative processes. Bittker Lokken,
14	Federal Taxation of Income, Estates and Gifts, Volume 1, Third Edition (1999) (citing Black v. United States, 534
15 16	F.2d. 524 (2d Cir. 1976); McGlotten v. Connally, 338 F. Supp. 448 (D.D.C. 1972))." [Murphy v. I.R.S, 362 F.Supp.2d. 206, 216 (D.D.C. 2005)]
17	14.2. The tax is upon an OFFICE of "taxpayer", "citizen", "person", etc. that they legislatively created and therefore
18	own and FOOLED you into volunteering for. They did so MAINLY by FORCING you to have a civil domicile
19	that you DO NOT want, DO NOT need, and which is actually HARMFUL to you. See:
	Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf
20	14.3. The tax is NOT upon the OFFICER who was duped into volunteering for the civil statutory office of "taxpayer",
20	"citizen", and "resident" (alien).
22	14.4. Thus, the tax is NOT upon PRIVATE property protected by the Fifth Amendment, but PUBLIC offices of
23	Congress and all property VOLUNTARILY connected to said office using the SSN franchise mark.
24	14.5. So OF COURSE income taxation is not a Fifth Amendment Taking affecting a PRIVATE human being protected
25	by the Bill of Rights and NOT civil statutory franchise "codes" that are privileges, but:
26	14.5.1. QUESTION : Why didn't the court explain all this we have just explained?
27	14.5.2. ANSWER: Because it's a Third Rail issue that would threaten government's unjust revenues and their
28	job security. Can you spell "SCAM"?
29	15. The CENTRAL issue is WHEN and exactly HOW your PRIVATE property and labor were converted from PRIVATE
30	and constitutionally protected to PUBLIC and statutorily protected to the EXCLUSION of the Bill of Rights, and
31	without your consent in some form.
32	15.1. They can't tax it until you helped them make that conversion.
33	15.2. No third party can convert the status of your private property to public property without your consent in some
34	form. Third party information returns that are usually FALSE cannot lawfully do it. See:
	Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
	https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/0-CorrErrInfoRtns/CorrErrInfoRtns.pdf
35	15.3. The office of ASSESSOR who does the conversion was eliminated CENTURIES ago, so no one, technically, can do it EXCEPT the original owner.
36	15.4. There are only TWO ways to lawfully convert the status of the property that is taxed from PRIVATE to
37	PUBLIC:
38	15.4.1. Change the civil status of the PROPERTY involuntarily. This usually happens by filing a FALSE
39
40	information return against it or you voluntarily calling it "effectively connected". See the following for the
41	rules on lawfully converting property from PRIVATE to PUBLIC:
	Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025
	https://sedm.org/LibertyU/SeparatingPublicPrivate.pdf
42	15.4.2. Change the civil status of the OWNER of the property involuntarily. This happens based usually on the
43	tax form you file. 1040 is a "U.S. person" election. 1040NR is a "nonresident alien" election.
44	15.5. Any attempt to violate any of the above is an act of CRIMINAL IDENTITY THEFT. See:
	Identity Theft Affidavit, Form #14.020
	https://sedm.org/Forms/14-PropProtection/Identity Theft Affidavit-f14039.pdf
45	For more on the above skulduggery by Third Party payers, the IRS, and the courts in literally STEALING your private
46	property and how to challenge it, See:

47 This SCAM is COMPLETELY DIABOLICAL.

- The ONLY thing a person of legal knowledge and conscience can do is file as a "nonresident alien".
- ² These concepts are NOT "unimportant points". They are LITERALLY the HEART of the FRAUD, my friend.
- ³ ONLY if you work for the government and have skin in the game to continue this fraud are these "unimportant points".

4 3.2 Description of the mandatory legal status of Members who are Compliant and "nonresident aliens"

5 3.2.1 Things that Complaint Members ARE

6	1.	Use the following withholding form for opening all financial accounts:
		W-8SUB , Form #04.231
		https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/2-Withholding/W-8SUB.pdf
7	2.	A Constitutional "citizen of the United States" under the Fourteenth Amendment by virtue of birth within the
8		CONSTITUTIONAL geographical "United States".
9		2.1. The CONSTITUTIONAL geographical "United States" includes areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of the
10		constitutional State.
11		2.2. The CONSTITUTIONAL geographical "United States" EXCLUDES the statutory geographical "United States"
12		defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10).
13	3.	A "national" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) owing allegiance to a "state" by virtue of nationality acquired in a
14		legislatively foreign Constitutional "state". This is just like the lower case "state" rather than "State" mentioned in the
15		presence test in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1). In this document, such a "national" is also referred to a common law
16		"national" or "U.S. national" as described by the courts without referencing any specific statute.
17	4.
18		rather than the government that serves them. GOVERNMENT and STATE are NOT synonymous. See Poindexter v.
19		Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270 (1885).
20	5.	Described by the Department of State as a "U.S. national" in 22 C.F.R. §51.2 by virtue of eligibility to receive a USA
21		passport.
22		5.1. The ONLY criterion for eligibility for a USA passport is "allegiance" in 22 U.S.C. §212.
23		22 U.S. Code § 212 - Persons entitled to passport
24		No passport shall be granted or issued to or verified for any other persons than those owing allegiance, whether
25		citizens or not, to the United States.
26		5.2. The only CIVIL STATUTORY legal status equated ONLY with allegiance and not domicile is "national", not
27		CITIZEN.
28		8 U.S. Code §1101 - Definitions
29		(a)As used in this chapter—
30		(21)The term "national" means a person owing permanent allegiance to a state.
31	6.	Although as a "national" I am ELIGIBLE for protection when abroad by virtue of their allegiance, I:
32		6.1. Declare that my allegiance is NOT permanent when "abroad" and eligible for protection while abroad. The
33		definition of "permanent" in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(31) allows those possessing it to specify under what
34		circumstances it is warranted, and under which they desire protection as a "CUSTOMER" of protection of the
35		national government when abroad.
36		6.2. REJECT any and all such CIVIL protection services when abroad by the national government or the
37		corresponding legal or moral obligation to pay for them through income tax. YOU'RE FIRED!
38	7.	Not an "alien", meaning someone who is NEITHER a "national" NOR a "citizen" as defined in:
39		7.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) and
40		7.2. 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(3).
41	8.	Domiciled OUTSIDE the legislatively foreign statutory geographical "United States" defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9)
42		and (a)(10). See:
		Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
		https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf

- 9. Because I am domiciled outside the legislatively foreign statutory geographical "United States":
 - 9.1. I am a "nonresident" in relation to the exclusive jurisdiction of the national rather than federal government.
 - 9.2. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17 dictates that the choice of civil law to protect me derives from the
 - Constitutional state within whose exclusive jurisdiction I am domiciled or physically present within.
 - 9.3. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652 dictates state and not federal law.
 - 9.4. Under these circumstances, ONLY if government/public property were involved could the case be lawfully removed to a federal court. I certify under penalty of perjury that no such property IS involved in my case.

10. Does not share ownership of any of their property with any government. All property is absolutely owned. Ownership of all property is not "qualified ownership" and is not shared with any government. See Form #12.025.

- 10.1. There is therefore NO property that is absolutely owned or whose ownership is shared with the national government.
- 10.2. Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 jurisdiction over federal property WHEREVER IT IS FOUND IN THE WORLD does not apply. Such property INCLUDES the legislatively created civil offices or civil legal statuses of "person", "resident", "citizen", "taxpayer", etc. under the Internal Revenue Code.
- 15 11. Not physically present on federal territory.

 statutory or regulatory context.
- 15. A "Merchant" under U.C.C. $2-104(1) but not a "Buyer" under U.C.C. $2-103(1)(a) in relation to said government.
- This is the ONLY relation that God allows with any government, and it is a violation of the Biblical delegation of authority for Christians to consent to any change in this relationship. It therefore would also be a violation of the First Amendment to require otherwise. See:

Delegation of Authority Order from God to Christians, Form #13.007

33 3.2.2 Things that Compliant Members are NOT

³⁴ There are many different ways that people inaccurately characterize their legal status as Members which we DO NOT approve of and which are FORBIDDEN for Members to use. Below is a list of the most common ways that ignorant Members can VIOLATE our policies by doing this and in some cases subject themselves to CRIMINAL consequences for their stupidity and ignorance. These false arguments are listed in order with the first being the most frequent false claim:

- The most frequent method is to claim that someone born in a constitutional state of the Union is NOT "citizens of the United States":
- 1.1. This idiotic claim is a product of a fundamental misunderstanding of the TWO separate and mutually exclusive contexts for the word "citizen of the United States": CONSTITUTIONAL v. Statutory as exhaustively described in:

Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/WhyANational.pdf

1		1.2. The "citizens of the United States" subject to tax in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 are STATUTORY citizens DOMICILED
2		within the exclusive jurisdiction of Congress within the statutory geographical "United States" defined in 26
3		U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10).
4		1.3. The income tax is upon DOMICILE of those who are CIVIL STATUTORY "citizens", not CONSTITUTIONAL
5		citizens. CONSTITUTIONAL citizens in the laws of the national government are called "nationals", not
6		STATUTORY "citizens".
7		1.4. CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens of the United States" have a domicile OUTSIDE the statutory geographical
8		"United States".
9		1.5. Our members MUST be ONLY Fourteenth Amendment CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens of the United States" at
10		birth". We don't allow our " tax information and services" to be used by any other group! We call this group
11		"state nationals" on our website, in fact. "State nationals" are defined in:
		SEDM Disclaimer, Section 4.24: "State National" https://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm#4.24. State National 12		1.6. For the reasons for this policy, see:
		Why the Fourteenth Amendment is Not a Threat to Your Freedom, Form #08.015
		https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/FourteenthAmendNotProb.pdf
13		For an article that addresses this subject in reference to SEDM, see:
		Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018, Section 1.7: Court Defines What a "Sovereign Citizen" is and Proves that SEDM Does not Advocate That Status
		https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/RebFalseArgSovereignty.pdf
14	2.	The next most common error people make that is forbidden for Members to engage in is to CLAIM they are
15		"nonresident aliens" but never or seldom ACT like one. For instance, when criminally indicted for failure to file, they
16		will claim to be "nonresident aliens" but never actually BELIEVED what they claimed by:
17		2.1. Refusing to file our Path to Freedom, Form #09.015, Section 2 process and thus NOT correct their administrative
18		records to correctly reflect their civil statutory or legal status. See:
		Path to Freedom, Form #09.015, Section 2
		https://sedm.org/Forms/09-Procs/PathToFreedom.pdf
19		2.2. Checking the box on federal government forms asking if they are a "U.S. citizen. Every question on FEDERAL
		Avoiding Traps in Government Forms Course, Form #12.023
		https://sedm.org/LibertyU/AvoidingTrapsGovForms.pdf
21		2.3. ACTING like a "nonresident alien" by correctly filing a 1040NR tax return for years after they changed their
22		status. Instead, they file the privileged "RESIDENT" tax return form, the 1040.
23		2.4. Filing the standard Form W-8BEN and mischaracterizing their status as a "beneficial owner" earning statutory
24		"gross income". You don't have to be a "beneficial owner" to be a "nonresident alien". The following form
25		PREVENTS this problem:
		W-8SUB , Form #04.231
		https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/2-Withholding/W-8SUB.pdf
26		2.5. Not going back for prior years and filing an amended return to change the status of the prior tax year from U.S.
27		person" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30) to "nonresident alien". The following document describes how to do this:
		How to File Returns, Form #09.074
		https://sedm.org/product/filing-returns-form-09-074/
28		2.6. ACTING like one by opening their financial accounts as a "nonresident alien". Or if they already had "U.S.
29		person" accounts, they will not go back and close them all and reopen them as "nonresident aliens" using the
30		following form on our website:
		W-8SUB , Form #04.231
		https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/2-Withholding/W-8SUB.pdf
31		If you want to be TREATED like a DUCK, you have to ACT like one and QUACK like one by consistently filing the
32		correct tax return that in fact DESCRIBES you as a duck. In other words, your WALK and your TALK must match.
33		Consistency between these two is called INTEGRITY.
34	3.	Another frequent false claim is that as "nonresident aliens" they are not subject to federal law:
35		3.1. Below is an example of this false claim:
36		"By all accounts, the Defendant is an intelligent, educated individual. He [*3] is a licensed orthodontist and has
37		maintained his own orthodontic practice in Buncombe County, North Carolina for several years. Despite his
38		intelligence and education, the Defendant has persisted in asserting the frivolous argument that he is not a
39 40		citizen of the United States and thus not subject to federal income tax laws. The Defendant's persistence in this flawed line of reasoning has resulted in the imposition of civil penalties and monetary fines; state criminal
-10		junce and of reasoning has resulted in the imposition of eivit penatices and monetary files, state criminal convictions; civil judgments; and professional discipline. His fruitless claims have now lead to potential federal criminal liability." [United States v. Macalpine, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 212404 *; 2019-1 U.S. Tax Cas. (CCH) P50,108; 122

3.2. DOMICILE as a national or RESIDENCY as an alien is what makes a person subject to the income tax franchise codes, not their nationality or even their status as a Fourteenth Amendment citizen. Domicile/residence on the one hand and NATIONALITY/CONSTITUTIONAL citizenship on the other hand are TWO COMPLETELY DIFFERENT AND MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE THINGS and the defendant above CLEARLY did not understand the differences between these two:

"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located." [Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

"This right to protect persons having a domicile, though not native-born or naturalized citizens, rests on the firm foundation of justice, and the claim to be protected is earned by considerations which the protecting power is not at liberty to disregard. Such domiciled citizen pays the same price for his protection as native-born or naturalized citizens pay for theirs. He is under the bonds of allegiance to the country of his residence, and, if he breaks them, incurs the same penalties. He owes the same obedience to the civil laws. His property is, in the same way and to the same extent as theirs, liable to contribute to the support of the Government. In nearly all respects, his and their condition as to the duties and burdens of Government are undistinguishable." [Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698 (1893)]

3.3. Just by filing a tax return and even a 1040NR return, one subjects themselves to federal law. The form contains a perjury statement placing them INCORRECTLY within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government:

		Linder popultion of parium, I dealars that I k	ave exemined this return of	d accompanying cohedules and stat	ements, and to the best of my knowledge and

L L	3.5. Therefore, as a bare minimum, the filer is subject to federal law for the accuracy of the 1040NR tax return
5	submitted.
	3.6. It is true that there are two types of jurisdictions used by courts to enforce the tax franchise codes:
	3.6.1. In rem : Jurisdiction over property owned by the "taxpayer". This is exercised over statutory "nonreside aliens" as well as statutory "U.S. persons".

- 3.6.2. In personam: Jurisdiction over the PERSON of the "taxpayer". This is exercised against statutory "U.S. persons" but not over "nonresident aliens".
- 3.7. It is also true that courts have no personal jurisdiction over the nonresident alien:

"In the case of the federal government where the individual is either a United States citizen or an alien residing in the taxing jurisdiction, the tax under section 1 of the Code is based upon jurisdiction over the person; where the individual is an alien [LEGISLATIVELY OR CONSTITUTIONALLY "foreign", INCLUDING states of the Union] not residing in the taxing jurisdiction [the "geographical United States", meaning the District of Columbia per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10)], the tax under section 871 of the Code is based upon jurisdiction over the [PUBLIC] property or income of the nonresident individual [GEOGRAPHICALLY and PHYSICALLY] located or earned in the taxing jurisdiction" [Great Cruz Bay, Inc., St. John v. Wheatley, 495 F.2d. 301, 307 (3d Cir. 1974)]

3.7.1. It is equally true that jurisdiction over nonresident aliens is in rem jurisdiction over their property physically situated within the territorial jurisdiction that they are a nonresident in relation to, regardless of where they are physically located or actually doing business from.

"The fact that it required the personal skill and management of appellant to bring his income from producing property in Oklahoma to fruition, and that his management was exerted from his place of business in another State, did not deprive Oklahoma of jurisdiction to tax the income which arose within its own borders. The personal element cannot, by any fiction, oust the jurisdiction of the State within which the income actually arises and whose authority over it operates in rem.

58 59 "The entire jurisdiction of the State over appellant's property and business and the income that he derived from them -- the only jurisdiction that it has sought to assert -- is a jurisdiction in rem; and we are clear that the State acted within its lawful power in treating his property interests and business as having both unity and continuity. HN14 The property interests and business as having both unity and continuity. HN14 The property increases was declared in its own constitution, and the precise nature of the tax and the measures to be taken for enforcing it were plainly set forth in the Act of 1915; and plaintiff [460] having thereafter proceeded, with notice of this law, to manage the property and conduct the business out of which proceeded the income now taxed, the State did not exceed its power or authority in treating his property interests and his business as a single entity, and enforcing payment of the tax by the imposition of a lien, to be followed by execution or other appropriate process, upon all property employed in the business. [Shaffer v. Carter, 252 U.S. 37 (1920)]

4. Litigants also frequently erroneously claim any citizenship status in Title 8 of the U.S. Code OTHER than 8 U.S.C.
 §1101(a)(21). Title 8 governs citizenship in U.S. territories and possessions, but NOT in the CONSTITUTIONAL status of the Union.

"The 1st section of the 14th article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited, opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states. No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[*], were not citizens. Whether this proposition was sound or not had never been judicially decided." [Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]

"Finally, this Court is mindful of the years of past practice in which territorial citizenship has been treated as a statutory [PRIVILEGE!], and not a constitutional, right. In the unincorporated territories of Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands, birthright citizenship was conferred upon their inhabitants by various statutes many years after the United States acquired them. See Amicus Br. at 10-11. If the Citizenship Clause guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes would have been unnecessary. While longstanding practice is not sufficient to demonstrate constitutionality, such a practice requires special scrutiny before being set aside. See, e.g., Jackman v. Rosenbaum Co., 260 U.S. 22, 31 (1922) (Holmes, J.) ("If a thing has been practiced for two hundred years by common consent, it will need a strong case for the Fourteenth Amendment to affect it[.]"); Walz v. Tax Comm'n, 397 U.S. 664, 678 (1970) ("It is obviously correct that no one acquires a vested or protected right in violation of the Constitution by long use. ... Yet an unbroken practice ... is not something to be lightly cast aside."). And while Congress cannot take away the citizenship of individuals covered by the Citizenship Clause, it can bestow citizenship upon those not within the Constitution's breadth. See U.S. Const, art. IV, § 3, cl. 2 ("Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory belonging to the United States []."); id. at art. I, § 8, cl. 4 (Congress may "establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization"). To date, Congress has not seen fit to bestow birthright citizenship upon American Samoa, and in accordance with the law, this Court must and will respect that choice.16

"The Sixteenth Amendment simply does not authorize the Congress to tax as "incomes" every sort of revenue a taxpayer may receive. As the Supreme Court noted long ago, the "Congress cannot make a thing income which is not so in fact." Burk-Waggoner Oil Ass'n v. Hopkins, 269 U.S. 110, 114, 46 S.Ct. 48, 70 L.Ed. 183 (1925). Indeed, because the "the power to tax involves the power to destroy," McCulloch v. Maryland, 17 U.S. (4 Wheat.) 316, 431, 4 L.Ed. 579 (1819), it would not be consistent with our constitutional government, and the sanctity of property in our system, merely to rely upon the legislature to decide what constitutes income." 3.4 DOMESTIC TAXATION: "Foreign" means foreign DOMICILE, not foreign NATIONALITY

From the perspective of constitutional states and DOMESTIC taxation, the U.S. Supreme Court has admitted that income tax is based on DOMICILE and not NATIONALITY:

5	The obligation of one domiciled within a state to pay taxes there, arises
7	plenary of sovereign powers, that to raise revenue to defray the expenses
8	of government and to distribute its burdens equably among those who
9	enjoy its benefits. Hence, domicile in itself establishes a basis for taxation.
10	Enjoyment of the privileges of residence within the state, and the
11	attendant right to invoke the protection of its laws, are inseparable from
12	the responsibility for sharing the costs of government. See Fidelity &
13	Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 58; Maguire v. Trefry, 253
14	U.S. 12, 14, 17; Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, 100 U.S. 491, 498; Shaffer v.
15	Carter, 252 U.S. 37, 50. The Federal Constitution imposes on the states no particular modes of
16	taxation, and apart from the specific grant to the federal government of the exclusive 280*280 power to levy
17	certain limited classes of taxes and to regulate interstate and foreign commerce, it leaves the states unrestricted
19	on privileges enjoyed there, and is not so palpably arbitrary or unreasonable as to infringe the Fourteenth
20	Amendment. Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, supra.
21	[Lawrence v. State Tax Commission, 286 U.S. 276 (1932); SOURCE:
22	https://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=10241277000101996613]

23 Since DOMICILE is the basis for state income taxation and domicile is consensual, then one must VOLUNTEER for a 24 domicile to become a statutory "taxpayer" as we establish in the following:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf

Further, note that they did NOT mention NATIONALITY as a basis for taxation. Thus, what "citizens" and "residents" have in common is a DOMICILE within the specific venue, and not a domestic NATIONALITY. Everyone who does NOT have such a DOMICILE is referred to as a "nonresident". This includes "nonresident aliens".

Domicile, in turn, is ALWAYS geographical and relies on the STATUTORY GEOGRAPHICAL definition of "United States" and "State" in the Internal Revenue Code.

The OTHER context for the terms "United States" and "State" that is NOT defined in the Internal Revenue Code is that of CORPORATE fictions. When one is "in" these types of entities, it means they are serving in a VOLUNTARY OFFICE within the fiction rather than serving in a physical geographical place. The code word to designate those serving in such civil statutory offices is "trade or business", which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office". All such offices within the government have a domicile INDEPENDENT of the PHYSICAL OFFICER serving WITHIN the office who is legal surety for the office. Taxation on the OFFICE is also based on domicile per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

Included in the DOMESTIC category based on domicile is taxation of the District of Columbia acting in a similar capacity of a Constitutional state.

39	"Loughborough v. Blake, 5 Wheat. 317, 5 L.Ed. 98, was an action of trespass or, as appears by the original
40	record, replevin, brought in the circuit court for the District of Columbia to try the right of Congress to impose a
41	direct tax for general purposes on that District. 3 Stat. at L. 216, chap. 60. It was insisted that Congress could
42	act in a double capacity: in one as legislating [182 U.S. 244, 260] for the states; in the other as a local legislature
43	for the District of Columbia. In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levying direct taxes might
44	be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could
45	not legislate for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and
46	excises,' which 'shall be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the United States [described in the Constitution]. It was held that the grant of this power was a general one without limitation as to place, and consequently extended to all places over which the government extends; and that it 2 3 extended to the District of Columbia as a constituent part of the United States. The fact that art. 1, 2, declares that 'representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states ... according to their 4 respective numbers' furnished a standard by which taxes were apportioned, but not to exempt any part of the 5 country from their operation. 'The words used do not mean that direct taxes shall be imposed on states only which 6 are represented, or shall be apportioned to representatives; but that direct taxation, in its application to states, 7 shall be apportioned to numbers.' That art. 1, 9, 4, declaring that direct taxes shall be laid in proportion to the 8 census, was applicable to the District of Columbia, 'and will enable Congress to apportion on it its just and equal 9 share of the burden, with the same accuracy as on the respective states. If the tax be laid in this proportion, it is 10 within the very words of the restriction. It is a tax in proportion to the census or enumeration referred to.' It was 11 further held that the words of the 9th section did not 'in terms require that the system of direct taxation, when 12 resorted to, shall be extended to the territories, as the words of the 2d section require that it shall be extended to 13 all the states. They therefore may, without violence, be understood to give a rule when the territories shall be 14 taxed, without imposing the necessity of taxing them." 15 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)] 16 3.5 INTERNATIONAL AND INTERSTATE TAXATION: Based on CONSENT 17 We have discussed DOMESTIC taxation within the COUNTRY United States*, but what about: 18 1. INTERNATIONAL taxation of either citizens, residents, or aliens abroad. 19 INTERSTATE taxation of citizens or residents from another state of the Union or territory. 2. 20 INTERNATIONAL or INTERSTATE taxation of parties is NOT based on domicile, but upon CONSENT in some form. 21 That consent manifests itself as: 22 INTERSTATE: Voluntarily conducting BUSINESS within another Constitutional state or territory and thereby 23 1. waiving sovereign immunity under the Longarm Statutes of the state in question. 24 2. INTERNATIONAL 25 2.1. A voluntary choice of CIVIL STATUS such as "citizen" or "resident" in 26 U.S.C. §911. 26 2.2. Voluntarily conducting BUSINESS within the "United States" the COUNTRY as an alien and thereby waiving 27 sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), 28 U.S.C. Chapter 97. 28 The U.S. Supreme Court describes INTERSTATE jurisdiction to tax as follows: 29 30 "Thus the State, through its tribunals, may compel persons domiciled within its limits to execute, in pursuance of their contracts respecting property elsewhere situated, instruments in such form and with such 31 solemnities as to transfer the title, so far as such formalities can be complied with; and the exercise of this 32 33 jurisdiction in no manner interferes with the supreme control over the property by the State within which it is situated. Penn v. Lord Baltimore, 1 Ves. 444; Massie v. Watts, 6 Cranch, 148; Watkins v. Holman, 16 34 Pet. 25; Corbett v. Nutt, 10 Wall. 464." 35 So the State, through its tribunals, may subject property situated within its limits owned by non-residents to 36 37 the payment of the demand of its own citizens against them; and the exercise of this jurisdiction in no respect infringes upon the sovereignty of the State where the owners are domiciled. Every State owes protection to its 38 own citizens; and, when non-residents deal with them, it is a legitimate and just exercise of authority to hold 39 and appropriate any property owned by such non-residents to satisfy the claims of its citizens. It is in virtue of 40 the State's jurisdiction over the property of the non-resident situated within its limits that its tribunals can 41 inquire into that non-resident's obligations to its own citizens, and the inquiry can then be carried only to the 42 43 extent necessary to control the disposition of the property. If the non-resident 724*724 have no property in the State, there is nothing upon which the tribunals can adjudicate. " 44 [Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U.S. 714 (1878)] 45 Voluntarily electing the civil statutory status of "citizen" or "resident" is the method by which we join the body politic and 46 corporate and consent to be regulated by the state granting that status. It is also the method by which taxation of property 47 and business OUTSIDE the granting state can be taxed and regulated. 48 Taxation at the place of domicile of tangibles located elsewhere has been thought to be beyond the jurisdiction 49 50 of the state, Union Refrigerator Transit Co. v. Kentucky, 199 U.S. 194; Frick v. Pennsylvania, 268 U.S. 473, 488-51

I faxation at the place of admittle of tangibles located elsewhere has been though to be beyond the jurkation of the state, Union Refrigerator Transit Co. v. Kentucky, 199 U.S. 194; Frick v. Pennsylvania, 268 U.S. 473, 488-489; but considerations applicable to ownership of physical objects located outside the taxing jurisdiction, which have led to that conclusion, are obviously inapplicable to the taxation of intangibles at the place of domicile or of privileges which may be enjoyed there. See Foreign Held Bond Case, 15 Wall. 300, 319; Frick v. Pennsylvania, supra, p. 494. And the taxation of both by the state of the domicile has been uniformly upheld. Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, supra; Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, supra; Blodgett v. Silberman, 277 U.S. 1; Maguire

One NEED NOT consent to be a STATUTORY citizen or resident with a domicile within the state they live. If you decide to select a domicile outside of the state you live in or have no domicile at all, you would be called a "non-resident". Unlike STATUTORY citizens or residents domiciled in a specific place, there is no personal jurisdiction or extraterritorial tax jurisdiction over intangibles outside the place of physical presence of nonresidents because they are private and retain their constitutional protections. Likewise, there can be no double taxation of extraterritorial "income" either by BOTH the state you live in and the other states you conduct business in. In our mind, the costs of accepting a privileged civil statutory status of "person", "U.S. person", "citizen", "resident", etc outweigh the benefits identified above.

We don't object to paying the costs of delivering privileges by any specific government. Our main if not only objection is BUNDLING more than one "civil service" with multiple others, so that you can't choose to procure and pay for only ONE service at a time. Governments must never be allowed to bundle services you don't want with those you do in a process we call "weaponization of government". Bundling and weaponization always leads to inefficiency in delivering services, undermines the accountability of local government, and implements adhesion contracts that act as a weapon of mass destruction for your constitutional rights.

19 3.6 26 C.F.R. §301.6109(g)(1)(i) DOES NOT afford "U.S. person" default status for state nationals domiciled or physically present within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state

Some people incorrectly argue that "nonresident alien" status CAN be achieved by state nationals but is not the default status.
 That is the case with No Thanks IRS (https://nothanksirs.org). Below is a debate with them on this subject:

Not all state nationals ARE "nonresident aliens" but they CAN be. They have the right to establish that status for tax purposes in any given tax year with IRS in determining filing requirement and determining tax liability. Recognizing that the default status for the SSN that IRS will identify is generally going to be "United States person" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30). This is authorized by 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1(g)(1)(i).

28 REBUTTAL:

²⁹ I admire your desire to simplify things, but that desire is harmful here:

26 U.S.C. §6109(g) pertains ONLY to Federal Crop Insurance and NOT Social Security. The regulation you cite at 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1(g)(1)(i) implements ONLY this provision, so your assertion is incorrect about the use of an SSN to create a STATUTORY "U.S person" status by default under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30). Per the U.S. Supreme Court, regulations may not EXPAND the statute they implement beyond the intended audience as you are trying to do here:

Finally, the Government points to the fact that the Treasury Regulations relating to the statute purport to include the pick-up man among those subject to the s 3290 tax, ^{ENI1} and argues (a) that this constitutes an administrative interpretation to which we should give weight in construing the statute, particularly because (b) section 3290 was carried over in hace verba into s 4411 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C.A. s 4411. We find neither argument persuasive. In light of the above discussion, *359 we cannot but regard this Treasury Regulation as no more than an attempted addition to the statute of something which is not there. ^{ENI2} As such the regulation can furnish no sustenance to the statute. Koshland v. Helvering, 298 U.S. 441, 446-447, 56 S.Ct. 767, 769-770, 80 L.Ed. 1268. Nor is the Government helped by its argument as to the 1954 Code. The regulation had been in effect for only three years, ^{FNI3} and there is nothing to indicate that it was ever called to the attention 1144 of Congress. The re-enactment of s 3290 in the 1954 Code was not accompanied by any congressional discussion which throws light on its intended scope. In such circumstances we consider the 1954 re-enactment to be without significance. Commissioner of Internal Revenue v. Glenshaw Glass Co., 348 U.S. 426, 431, 75 S.Ct. 473, 476, 99 L.Ed. 483.

6 7 8	'B operates a numbers game. He has an arrangement with ten persons, who are employed in various capacities, such as bootblacks, elevator operators, newsdealers, etc., to receive wagers from the public on his behalf. B also employs a person to collect from his agents the wagers received on his behalf.

11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	FN12. Apart from this, the force of this Treasury Regulations as an aid to the interpretation of the statute is impaired by its own internal inconsistency. Thus, while Example 2 of that regulation purports to make the pick- up man liable for the s 3290 occupational tax, Example 1 of the same regulation provides that 'a secretary and bookkeeper' of one 'engaged in the business of accepting horse race bets' are not liable for the occupational tax 'unless they also receive wagers' for the person so engaged in business, although those who 'receive wagers by telephone' are so liable. Thus in this instance a distinction seems to be drawn between the 'acceptance' of the wager, and its 'receipt' for recording purposes. But if this be proper, it is not apparent why the same distinction is not also valid between a writer, who 'accepts' or 'receives' a bet from a numbers player, and a pick-up man, who simply 'receives' a copy of the slips on which the writer has recorded the bet, and passes it along to the banker.

There is no express statutory authority to offer Social Security in states of the union based on the definitions in 26 U.S.C. 22 $3121 and 42 U.S.C. $1301. An illegally issued number cannot lawfully confer a "U.S. person" status. See: 23

At best the status is de facto. And it's a violation of the organic law for the national government to make a profitable business 28 out of alienating rights that are supposed to be unalienable, even WITH consent. It violates their fiduciary duty to protect 29 private property and private rights as public officers. See: 30

Unalienable Rights Course, Form #12.038 https://sedm.org/LibertvU/UnalienableRights.pdf

Truly unalienable rights can't be given up even WITH consent. For a corrupted covetous government to make a profitable 31

- business franchise out of alienating such rights is TREASON. It also renders all such governments who do so as de facto. 32
- Such a government is making a business out of doing the OPPOSITE of what governments are created to do and doing it for 33 love of money, the worst of all motives. Thus, they are an "anti-government" rather than a "government" as classically

Worst yet, here you are trying to HELP them and DEFEND them in such action. I question your motives because of this. 36

- "United States" is nowhere defined to expressly include states of the Union and 26 U.S.C. §3121 and 26 U.S.C. §6413 don't 37

- violates the separation of powers. See: 39

- 1 You argue otherwise to the detriment of your clients because protecting and preserving privileges appear more important to

There is, IN FACT, NO EXPRESS statutory avenue for a nonresident alien NOT married to a statutory U.S. citizen to "elect" to be treated as a resident alien. 26 U.S.C. §6013(g) and (h) is as close as it comes, but no cigar either. Even YOU criticize that basis for the "Revocation of election process". So you don't have a leg to stand on.

¹² Issuance of an SSN is not geographically specific. A number is issued to any eligible applicant.

Sure is. 42 U.S.C. §1301. You keep ignoring hundreds of pages of proof because its too inconvenient to admit you are wrong:

20 OUR REPONSE:

21 Why don't you respond to what God SAYS first above. Leave us out of it. Unless of course you're an anarchist who doesn't 22 care what God actually SAYS on the subject.

I haven't seen you apply any part of the Bible to your understanding of how the tax system or Social Security is REQUIRED to work by His divine standards. When you start caring about that subject you'll have our ears. Until then, you're just a bag of wind, vanity, and confusion.

God seems to be nothing more than a liability insurance salesman from the wrath of hell, rather than a sovereign LORD and KING of your life. Visit Him once per week at church and then go home and do WHATEVER THE HELL YOU WANT the rest of the week after you got your FREE fire insurance. That's the problem with hyper grace, dispensationalism, and anti-nomianism and from what I can tell, you're hooked on it as a newbie Christian. See:

Laws of the Bible, Form #13.001, Section 3 https://sedm.org/Litigation/09-Reference/LawsOfTheBible.pdf

30 THEIR RESPONSE:

- As usual you make yourself useless by arguing against the reality of how things are. What a colossal waste of breath to argue
- that they "can't" LAWFULLY offer Social Security. You still have no comprehension of contracts and how a contract trumps all other law, including constitutions.

- As long as someone has and uses an SSN, it is pointless to argue that the SS should not have been offered to him.
- 2 You also continue to fail to recognize that the right to CONTRACT is also an unalienable right. Your attempt to negate the
- ³ legality of a contract freely entered into is futile. No one ALIENATES a fundamental right or transfers such right to another

⁴ by agreeing to a contract.

So again: an American National MAY HAVE (but does not necessarily have) "nonresident alien individual " status for the SSN to which the individual is assigned.

8 OUR REBUTTAL:

I'm still waiting for proof that those who are nonresident aliens not married to a statutory US. can make a LAWFUL election to be treated AS IF they are a "U.S. person" by filing a 1040. We allege it's a CRIME to do so:

Why It's a Crime for a State National to File a 1040 Income Tax Return, Form #08.021 https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/WhyCrimefileReturn.pdf

1. 2. An unalienable right in relation to a real de jure government is incapable of becoming a privilege even with consent.

12	"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
13	with certain unalienable Rights , that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness That to secure
14	these [PRIVATE] rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of 15	the governed."
16	[Declaration of Independence;

19	[Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

3. The right to contract with other PRIVATE people is unlimited. You are correct on that. But no such alienability is afforded by any organic law in relation to a real, de jure government. To suggest otherwise is to sanction bribes to contradict the oath of public officers to protect private property. It's a crime to bribe a public officer to violate the constitution by calling the bribe "benefits" or "social security" taxes.

The only way a government established to protect private property can lawfully make a business out of stealing it is to do so as a private organization under the same rules as every other private organization and without sovereign immunity. This is called the Clearfield Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court. Thus, they must be on the same legal footing as every other person and private company, waive sovereignty immunity, follow all the same rules, and not PRETEND like what they are implementing is LAW. It's not. Its PRIVATE contracting that you have a right to say NO to that they must acknowledge in all litigation.

30 THEIR REBUTTAL:

Who says an American nonresident alien cannot choose the status that works best for him? Clearly Americans can file as United States persons OR nonresident aliens. see 26 U.S.C. §873(b)(3), where "nationals of the United States" are referred to in a provision concerning nonresident aliens.

What is not ILLEGAL is legal. Prove it is ILLEGAL for an individual to accept an SSN and card and to use the SSN if he wants to.

- ³⁶ I don't care enough about this academic point of debate to spend any time on it.
- ³⁷ Let me know when you force SSA to shut down.

38 OUR REBUTTAL:

By saying that "what is not illegal is legal" you are completely ignoring the limits of the definitions in the code that ESTABLISH what is legal and illegal. Whatever isn't in the definitions is UNLAWFUL, meaning "not AUTHORIZED" by law.

4	"When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's
5	ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of
6	the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v, Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule,
7	`a definition which declares what a term "means" excludes any meaning that is not stated'"); Western Union
8	Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935)
9	(Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n.
10	10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S. 943]
11	(THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General's
12	restriction "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
13	[Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]
14	"It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term. Colautti v.
14	Franklin, 439 U.S. 379, 392, and n. 10 (1979). Congress' use of the term "propaganda" in this statute, as indeed
15	in other legislation, has no pejorative connotation. [19] As judges, it is our duty to [481 U.S. 485] construe
10	legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has
18	not even read it."
19	[Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484 (1987)]
20	"As a rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means"excludes any meaning that is not stated""
20	[Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 (1979), n. 10]
21	[Commun. 1. Turkun, 407 (1977) , n. 10]
22	The fact that it is UNLAWFUL doesn't necessarily make it ILLEGAL, so let us now prove THAT also. The fact that you
22	don't KNOW something is illegal doesn't mean it IS I EGAL. It just means you suffer from confirmation higs until you start don't KNOW something is illegal doesn't mean it IS LEGAL. It just means you suffer from confirmation bias until you start

LOOKING for evidence that it MIGHT be ILLEGAL. Until you begin pursuing that evidence, you are victim of the mental

25 illness of the Dunning-Kruger effect:

Secular Praise of the Main Virtue of Christianity: HUMILITY, SEDM-why your mind is closed and how to open it. https://sedm.org/secular-praise-of-the-main-virtue-of-christianity-humility/

Minds are like parachutes: They only work when they are OPEN. Pride, by the way, is the MAIN thing that keeps the parachute CLOSED. Below is some of that evidence that you refuse to pursue or entertain.

Congress cannot establish "taxable offices" such as the "U.S. person" office within the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional states of the Union as declared by the U.S. Supreme Court.

30 31 32	"Congress cannot authorize a trade or business [public office per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)) within a [CONSTITUTIONAL] State in order to tax it." [License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462 , 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866)]
33 34 35	"He who is surety for a stranger [the District of Columbia, which is legislatively foreign and therefore a STRANGER] will suffer, But one who hates being surety is secure." [Prov. 11:15, Bible, NKJV]
36	"A man devoid of understanding shakes hands in a pledge [excise taxable franchise agreement], And becomes
37	surety for his friend."
38	[Prov. 17:18, Bible, NKJV]
39	"Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge [excise taxable franchise agreement], One of those who is
40	surety for [PUBLIC] debts; "
41	[Prov. 22:26, Bible, NKJV]

Therefore, the "nationals of the United States" filing as "nonresident aliens" which are mentioned in 26 U.S.C. §873(b)(3) are NOT within the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional states. They are either on federal territory, a federal possession, within a federal enclave, or abroad, and NO PLACE ELSE.

20 C.F.R. is entitled "employees benefits". 20 C.F.R. §422.103 is the authority for EXISTING federal STATUTORY "employees" to apply. It is a crime to impersonate such an "employee" and "public officer" defined under 5 U.S.C. §2105(a) as indicated by 18 U.S.C. §912 by using a form and a benefit available only to such statutory "employees". It's also an abuse of the government's taxing power to transfer wealth, which is exactly what Social Security and the Income Tax BOTH do:

" A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the support of the government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group for the benefit of another"
[U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936)]

6	"The power to tax is, therefore, the strongest, the most pervading of all powers of government, reaching directly
7	or indirectly to all classes of the people. It was said by Chief Justice Marshall, in the case of McCulloch v.
8	Md., 4 Wheat. 431, that the power to tax is the power to destroy. A striking instance of the truth of the proposition
9	is seen in the fact that the existing tax of ten per cent, imposed by the United States on the circulation of all other
10	banks than the National Banks, drove out of existence every *state bank of circulation within a year or two after
11	its passage. This power can be readily employed against one class of individuals and in favor of another, so as
12	to ruin the one class and give unlimited wealth and prosperity to the other, if there is no implied limitation of the
13	uses for which the power may be exercised.
14	To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow
14	it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery
16	because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under
17	legislative forms.
17	registative joints.
18	Nor is it taxation. 'A tax,' says Webster's Dictionary, 'is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or
19	property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.' 'Taxes are burdens or charges imposed
20	by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.' Cooley, Const. Lim., 479.
21	Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John's Church, 13 Pa. St., 104 says, very forcibly, 'I think the common
22	mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the
23	government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they are
24	imposed for a public purpose.' See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St., 69; Matter of Mayor of N.Y., 11
25	Johns., 77; Camden v. Allen, 2 Dutch., 398; Sharpless v. Mayor, supra; Hanson v. Vernon, 27 Ia., 47; Whiting v.
26	Fond du Lac, supra."
27	[Loan Association v. Topeka, 87 U.S. 655, 20 Wall. 655 (1874)]

You have to VOLUNTEER for an office in the national government before any part of the national income tax can apply to you. And those who can volunteer can only lawfully do so if they live where constitutional rights don't apply. See:

³⁵ Let me know when I should report to prison for having an SSN.

36 OUR RESPONSE:

You can't unilaterally ELECT yourself into STATUTORY "employee" or "office" status without lawful oath or appointment. It's a violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. The U.S. Supreme Court has suggested that illegally creating such offices by your own

- ³⁹ unilateral act is unconstitutional:
- "An unconstitutional act is not a law; it confers no rights; it imposes no duties; it affords no protection; it creates no office; it is, in legal contemplation, as inoperative as though it had never been passed."
 [Norton v. Shelby County, 118 U.S. 425 (1886)]

The fact that a de facto government as you have described still allows this crime to continue is the heart of the problem. You seem hell bent on PROTECTING and ACCOMMODATING that crime by refusing to acknowledge it or oppose it in court. To knowingly acquiesce to a criminal act is to become a party to it.

46 THEIR RESPONSE:

⁴⁷ If you want to change anything you have to stop saying things that make you sound INSANE. And you're an arrogant asshole.

The approach of SEDM relies on the Nonresident Alien Position. The regulations under 26 U.S.C. §6109 recognize the use 3 of Social Security Numbers by nonresident aliens as follows: 4

- 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1 Identifying numbers. 5 (d) Obtaining a taxpayer identifying number
- (4) Coordination of taxpayer identifying numbers-
- (i) Social security number. 8

Any individual who is duly assigned a social security number or who is entitled to a social security number will not be issued an IRS individual taxpayer identification number. The individual can use the social security number for all tax purposes under this title, even though the individual is, or later becomes, a nonresident alien individual. Further, any individual who has an application pending with the Social Security Administration will be issued an IRS individual taxpayer identification number only after the Social Security Administration has notified the individual that a social security number cannot be issued. Any alien individual duly issued an IRS individual taxpayer identification number who later becomes a U.S. citizen, or an alien lawfully permitted to enter the United States either for permanent residence or under authority of law permitting U.S. employment, will be required to obtain a social security number. Any individual who has an IRS individual taxpayer identification number and a social security number, due to the circumstances described in the preceding sentence, must notify the Internal Revenue Service of the acquisition of the social security number and must use the newly-issued social security number as the taxpayer identifying number on all future returns, statements, or other documents filed under this title.

(ii) Employer identification number.

Any individual with both a social security number (or an IRS individual taxpayer identification number) and an employer identification number may use the social security number (or the IRS individual taxpayer identification number) for individual taxes, and the employer identification number for business taxes as required by returns, statements, and other documents and their related instructions. Any alien individual duly assigned an IRS individual taxpayer identification number who also is required to obtain an employer identification number must furnish the previously-assigned IRS individual taxpayer identification number to the Internal Revenue Service on Form SS-4 at the time of application for the employer identification number. Similarly, where an alien individual has an employer identification number and is required to obtain an IRS individual taxpayer identification number, the individual must furnish the previously-assigned employer identification number to the Internal Revenue Service on Form W–7, or such other form as may be prescribed by the Internal Revenue Service, at the time of application for the IRS individual taxpayer identification number.

- Note that the above explanation acknowledges that nonresident aliens can apply for Social Security Number but MAY NOT 34 receive it: 35
- The individual can use the social security number for all tax purposes under this title, even though the individual 36 37 is, or later becomes, a nonresident alien individual. Further, any individual who has an application pending with the Social Security Administration will be issued an IRS individual taxpayer identification number only 38 39 after the Social Security Administration has notified the individual that a social security number cannot be 40 issued.
- The explanation does NOT, however, address the situations where: 41
- The SSA wrongfully allowed an ineligible party to apply for and receive a Social Security Number and what to do about 1. 42 it. 43
- Those who receive a Social Security Number subsequently discover they were INELIGIBLE because not a 44 2. STATUTORY "United States citizen" and who want to withdraw their SS-5 application or replace it with a W-7 45 application. 46
- People want to withdraw their application and purge all government records that use the number, even if they were 3. 47 eligible. This would happen if they have a religious objection to being government enumerated or if they no longer want 48 the government to use any aspect of their identity for commercial purposes as described in: 49

Government Identity Theft, Form #05.046 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/GovernmentIdentityTheft.pdf

- If you do a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for publications and forms useful in changing the STATUS of the 1
- Social Security Number to one owned by a "nonresident alien", they give you FALSE information: 2
- 1. Here is the regulation involved: 3

4	26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1 - Identifying numbers.
5	(g) Special rules for taxpayer identifying numbers issued to foreign persons—
6	(1) General rule—
7	(i) Social security number.
8	A social security number is generally identified in the records and database of the Internal Revenue Service as a
9	number belonging to a U.S. citizen or resident alien individual. A person may establish a different status for the
10	number by providing proof of foreign status with the Internal Revenue Service under such procedures as the
11	Internal Revenue Service shall prescribe, including the use of a form as the Internal Revenue Service may 12	specify. Upon accepting an individual as a nonresident alien individual, the Internal Revenue Service will assign this status to the individual's social security number.

- The above regulation derives its authority from 26 U.S.C. §6109(g), which relates ONLY to the Federal Crop 2. 14 Insurance Act! We have been looking for any regulation or form that actually implements the change in the status of 15 the SSN, but have never found one after years of searching. Most people PRESUME that simply filing a 1040NR is 16 what changes the status of an SSN to that of a nonresident alien, but we have seen no concrete confirmation of that, 17 which is why the above FOIA was sent. 18
- Here is their response: 3. 19

Request and response for NRA Change Form Relating to SSN, Exhibit #09.044
https://sedm.org/Exhibits/EX09.044-
Request%20and%20Response%20IRS%20FOIA%20for%20NRA%20Change%20form.pdf
What is WRONG with the above response is that if you already HAVE an SSN you aren't ALL

- What is WRONG with the above response is that if you already HAVE an SSN, you aren't ALLOWED to even ask for 4. 23 an International Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) on a W-7 form under 26 U.S.C. §6109(i). They can only be 24 issued to aliens, and not all "nonresident aliens" are "aliens". State nationals or statutory "U.S. nationals" are not 25 aliens, for instance. 26
- 27 26 C.F.R. §301.6109-1 - Identifying numbers.
 - (3) IRS individual taxpayer identification number-

- 1 (i) Definition.
- 2The term IRS individual taxpayer identification number means a taxpayer identifying number issued to an alien3individual by the Internal Revenue Service, upon application, for use in connection with filing requirements4under this title. The term IRS individual taxpayer identification number does not refer to a social security5number or an account number for use in employment for wages.6individual means an individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States.
- 5. We allege that based on the above, the IRS doesn't want you to know HOW to change the status of the SSN from that of a "U.S. person" to a "nonresident alien". That is why they won't describe how to do it. Further, based on 26 U.S.C.
 §6109(g), that change can ONLY be made in the context of Federal Crop Insurance, so filing a 1040NR return doesn't seem like it would accomplish that.

11 3.7 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) DOES NOT include people born or naturalized in the exclusive jurisdiction of a 12 constitutional state²

13 FALSE STATEMENT:

- ¹⁴ 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) includes people born within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state:
- 15
 8 U.S. Code § 1401 Nationals and citizens of United States at birth

 16
 The following shall be nationals and citizens of the United States at birth:
 - (a) a person born in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof;
- ¹⁸ The above is the same language as that found in the Fourteenth Amendment.
- 19 Fourteenth Amendment
 - All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.
- People born in federal territories like Puerto Rico are covered elsewhere in Title 8 and NOT 8 U.S.C. 1401. 8 U.S.C. 1401 is therefore unnecessary since territories like Puerto Rico are covered in 8 U.S.C. 1402.

24 REBUTTAL:

The language above says "subject to the jurisdiction" just like the Fourteenth Amendment, so they look the same, but they are NOT. Title 8 us a SUBSTITUTE for the constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment that limits itself to areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government, including:

- ²⁸ 1. Federal territories and possessions.
- 29 2. Federal enclaves.
- 30 3. Indian country.

This subject is EXTREMELY important because the income tax is imposed on "citizens and residents of the United States" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(a). These "citizens" are defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) as "citizens" and NOT "citizens of the United States", and they are indicated to be listed in 8 U.S.C. §§1401-1459. These sections of Title 8 NOWHERE include Fourteenth 34 Amendment citizens. See:

COPILOT: WHICH "citizen" in 26 C.F.R. 1.1-1?, SEDM https://sedm.org/copilot-which-citizen-in-26-c-f-r-1-1/

² Source: FRIVOLOUS SUBJECT: 8 U.S.C. 1401(a) includes people born or naturalized in the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state, SEDM; https://sedm.org/frivolous-subject-8-u-s-c-1401a-includes-people-born-or-naturalized-in-the-exclusive-jurisdiction-of-a-constitutional-state/

- According to the D.C. Circuit Court and Microsoft Copilot, however, 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) covers people born in Indian country
- ² and federal enclaves but not within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state:
- ³ 1. The D.C. Circuit Court held on this subject:
- Finally, this Court is mindful of the years of past practice in which territorial citizenship has been treated as a 4 statutory [PRIVILEGE!], and not a constitutional, right. In the unincorporated territories of Puerto Rico, Guam, 5 the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands, birthright citizenship was conferred upon their 6 inhabitants by various statutes many years after the United States acquired them. See Amicus Br. at 10-11. If the 7 Citizenship Clause guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes would have 8 been unnecessary. While longstanding practice is not sufficient to demonstrate constitutionality, such a practice 9 requires special scrutiny before being set aside. 10 [Tuaua v. U.S.A, 951 F.Supp.2d. 88 (2013)] 11 Notice the phrase: 12 "If the Citizenship Clause guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes would 13 14 have been unnecessary. Why would they be unnecessary? Because th Fourteenth Amendment Citizenship Clause covers that scenario. 15 We also asked Microsoft Copilot about this: 2. 16 OUESTION: 17 Would people born in a federal enclave fall under 8 U.S.C. 1401(a)? 18 COPILOT ANSWER: 19 20 Certainly! Let's explore whether people born in a federal enclave would fall under 8 U.S.C. 1401(a). 8 U.S.C. 1401(a) outlines the criteria for individuals who are nationals and citizens of the United States at birth. 21 However, it does not explicitly mention federal enclaves. Let's break down the scenarios: 22 23 1. Person Born in a Federal Enclave within the United States: -Federal enclaves are areas within the United States that are under federal jurisdiction (such as military bases, 24 federal buildings, or other federal properties). 25 26 -Generally, individuals born in federal enclaves are considered to be born within the United States for legal 27 purposes. -Therefore, it is likely that people born in federal enclaves would fall under 8 U.S.C. 1401(a) if they meet the other 28 criteria specified in the law (e.g., subject to U.S. jurisdiction). 29 However, for precise legal interpretations, it is advisable to consult legal experts or official government 30 resources. The application of 8 U.S.C. 1401(a) can vary based on specific circumstances and legal precedents. 31

32 CONCLUSION:

Further proof is found in the fact that people born in territories and possessions cannot vote in federal election. If they were equivalent to Fourteenth Amendment citizens, this restriction would not apply.

Show us even ONE case where 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) is invoked in determining the citizenship of someone born in the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state and therefore "subject to THE jurisdiction" rather than "subject to ITS jurisdiction". 20 years later, we're still looking for that proof. A good starting place is:

³⁸ 1. The annotated version of 8 U.S.C. §1401:

- 1 https://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/USCitizen-8USCA1401-20090918.pdf
- 2 2. The definition of "U.S. citizen":

Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Online, Form #10.004, Cites by Topic: "U.S. citizen" https://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/USCitizen.htm

We asked COPILOT to find even ONE CASE where 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) was used to determine the citizenship status of someone born within the Exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state. It couldn't find a SINGLE case that accurately did that. It LIED to us by saying that United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898) does so, but that case in fact DOES NOT. That case actually agrees with us here, by talking about the Indian Country we mention above as follows, in the context of the Fourteenth Amendment:

the meaning of those words was, "not merely subject in some respect or degree to the jurisdiction of the United 8 States, but completely subject to their political jurisdiction, and owing them direct and immediate allegiance; 9 that by the Constitution, as originally established, "Indians not taxed" were excluded from the persons according 10 to whose numbers representatives in Congress and direct taxes were apportioned among the 681*681 several 11 States, and Congress was empowered to regulate commerce, not only "with foreign nations," and among the 12 13 several States, but "with the Indian tribes;" that the Indian tribes, being within the territorial limits of the United States, were not, strictly speaking, foreign States, but were alien nations, distinct political communities, the 14 members of which owed immediate allegiance to their several tribes, and were not part of the people of the United 15 States; that the alien and dependent condition of the members of one of those tribes could not be put off at their 16 own will, without the action or assent of the United States; and that they were never deemed citizens, except when 17 naturalized, collectively or individually, under explicit provisions of a treaty, or of an act of Congress; and, 18 therefore, that "Indians born within the territorial limits of the United States, members of, and owing immediate 19 allegiance to, one of the Indian tribes (an alien, though dependent, power), although in a geographical sense born 20 in the United States, are no more 'born in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof,' within the 21 meaning of the first section of the Fourteenth Amendment, than the children of subjects of any foreign 22 government born within the domain of that government, or the children born within the United States of 23 ambassadors or other public ministers of foreign nations." And it was observed that the language used, in defining 24 25 citizenship, in the first section of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, by the very Congress which framed the Fourteenth Amendment, was "all persons born in the United States, and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians 26 not taxed." 112 U.S. 99-103. 27 [United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898)] 28

The above case also DIRECTLY pitted an act of Congress against the Fourteenth Amendment and concluded that the Fourteenth Amendment was superior and that no act that conflicted with it could supersede or even control it. The constitution is Congress' delegation order and Congressional legislation cannot supersede it:

- "The acts of Congress, known as the Chinese Exclusion Acts, the earliest of which was passed some fourteen years 32 after the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment, cannot control its meaning, or impair its effect, but must be 33 construed and executed in subordination to its provisions. And the right of the United States, as exercised by and 34 under those acts, to exclude or to expel from the country persons of the Chinese race, born in China, and 35 36 continuing to be subjects of the Emperor of China, though having acquired a commercial domicil in the United States, has been upheld by this court, for reasons applicable to all aliens alike, and inapplicable to citizens, of 37 whatever race or color. United States, 158 U.S. 538; Wong 39 Wing v. United States, 163 U.S. 228. 40 [United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898)] 41
- 42 To summarize:
- 1. Domicile always determines civil personal jurisdiction.

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf

- 44 2. Domicile is always geographical.
- 45 3. The separation of powers separates the two mutually exclusive geographies.

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SeparationOfPowers.pdf

- 4. The only thing that interconnects the two, even in the case of subject matter jurisdiction, is GOVERNMENT PROPERTY
- ² under Constitution Article 4:3:2.
- 5. Everything falling into subject matter jurisdiction under Constitution Article 1:8 is PROPERTY jurisdiction, not PERSONAL jurisdiction. Personal jurisdiction only comes from domicile. Federal offices are included in such property.
- 6. PROPERTY jurisdiction includes offices and statuses that Congress creates that you voluntarily accept. All the money laundering statutes RELY on the fact that you are using this property, namely, an office or status that it calls "trade or business". Here is exhaustive proof of that:

Money Laundering Enforcement Scam, Form #05.044 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/MoneyLaunderingScam.pdf

- 8 The constitution is a trust. Public officers manage the community property of that trust and NOTHING MORE civilly. If you 9 aren't using that property, you are legislatively foreign.

17 4 Definition of "Nonresident Alien"

¹⁸ "Aliens" are foreign in respect to the jurisdiction that they are in, but there are two types of being "foreign": domicile or ¹⁹ nationality. Unfortunately, the Internal Revenue Code does not define the term "alien", thus making it difficult to determine ²⁰ if "alien" implies nationality or domicile . It also defines the term "foreign" only in the context of corporations and ²¹ partnerships:

- 22 26 U.S. Code § 7701 Definitions
 - (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—
- 25 (4)DOMESTIC

31

- The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State unless, in the case of a partnership, the Secretary provides otherwise by regulations.
- 29 (5)FOREIGN

The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

- This complicates trying to understand what a "nonresident alien" is, and we believe this is deliberate in order to discourage people from claiming the status. In the following subsections we shall examine the context of the 9,500 page Internal Revenue Code to determine what a "nonresident alien" is and how it is obfuscated to keep you from claiming it.
- Why doesn't the government want you claiming it, you might ask? It is the only status you can have that allows you to completely avoid:
- 1. Income tax withholding.
- 38 2. Income tax reporting.
- ³⁹ 3. The need to provide a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number.

4. Personal jurisdiction over you in a federal district court. This is called "in personam" jurisdiction.

The only type of jurisdiction that courts have over nonresident aliens is in rem jurisdiction over property owned by the nonresident alien physically situated within the territory of the court or venue, which in this case is the statutory geographical "United States", meaning the District of Columbia. Every other status, whether "citizen" or "resident" does not accomplish this. This is why it is important to define and understand what it means.

6 4.1 STATUTORY "nonresident alien" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B)

7 The STATUTORY term "nonresident alien" is defined as follows:

8	26 U.S. Code § 7701 - Definitions
9	(b)Definition of resident alien and nonresident alien
10	(1)IN GENERAL
11	(B)Nonresident alien
23	An individual is a nonresident alien if such individual is neither a citizen of the United States nor a resident of the United States (within the meaning of subparagraph (A)).

The first thing we notice about the above is that it describes what a statutory "nonresident alien" IS NOT, and not what it IS. A true legal definition defines a term so as to expressly describe ALL things that are INCLUDED rather than EXCLUDED. You can tell that they don't want you to be able to PROVE in court that you are a "nonresident alien" because the term is NOT even legally defined! Proof that this is not a definition can be had by simply looking over all the historical versions of the Form 1040NR and Form W-8 and looking at all the entity types that can claim it. At present, just examining these IRS

¹⁹ forms, we see that the following and more are allowed to claim "foreign person" or file "nonresident alien":

- 20 1. Single.
- 21 2. Married filing separately.
- 22 3. Qualifying surviving spouse
- 23 4. Trusts.
- 5. Estates.
- 25 6. Beneficial owners.

NONE of the above entity types are even listed in the NON-DEFINITION of a STATUTORY "nonresident alien" above.
They are there on a whim and can include whatever the IRS subjectively wants. The important thing to remember, however, is that IRS has NO PERSONAL jurisdiction over ANY of the above entity types. By that we mean NONE of them can be prosecuted for a tax crime or be targeted for penalties:

	"In the case of the federal government where the individual is either a United States citizen or an alien residing in the taxing jurisdiction, the tax under section 1 of the Code is based upon jurisdiction over the person; where the individual is an alien [LEGISLATIVELY OR CONSTITUTIONALLY "foreign", INCLUDING states of the Union] not residing in the taxing jurisdiction [the "geographical United States", meaning the District of Columbia per 26 U.S.C. $7701 (a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. $110(d)], the tax under section 871 of the Code is based upon jurisdiction over the [PUBLIC] property or income of the nonresident individual [GEOGRAPHICALLY and PHYSICALLY] located or earned in the taxing jurisdiction"
	[Great Cruz Bay, Inc., St. John v. Wheatley, 495 F.2d. 301, 307 (3d Cir. 1974)]
The term "r	nonresident alien INDIVIDUAL" is defined as follows:
	26 C.F.R. § 1.1441-1 - Requirement for the deduction and withholding of tax on payments to foreign persons.
	(c) Definitions.
	The following definitions apply for purposes of sections 1441 through 1443, 1461, and regulations under those sections. For definitions of terms used in these regulations that are defined under sections 1471 through 1474, see subparagraphs (43) through (56) of this paragraph.
	(3) Individual—

1		(i) Alien individual.
2 3		The term alien individual means an individual who is not a citizen or a national of the United States . See § 1.1 – $I(c)$.
4		(ii) Nonresident alien individual.
F		The term nonresident alien individual means persons described in section 7701(b)(1)(B), alien individuals who
5 6		are treated as nonresident aliens pursuant to § 301.7701(b)–7 of this chapter for purposes of computing their
7		U.S. tax liability , or an alien individual who is a resident of Puerto Rico , Guam, the Commonwealth of Northern
8		Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or American Samoa as determined under $ 301.7701(b) -1(d) of this
9		chapter. An alien individual who has made an election under section $6013(g)$ or (h) to be treated as a resident of
10 11		the United States is nevertheless treated as a nonresident alien individual for purposes of withholding under chapter 3 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.
12	The term "United	l States" as used above is defined as follows:
13		26 U.S. Code § 7701 - Definitions
14 15		(a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—
16		(9)UNITED STATES
17		The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States and the District of
18		Columbia.
19		(10)STATE
20 21		The term " State " shall be construed to include the District of Columbia, where such construction is necessary to carry out provisions of this title.
23		26 C.F.R. §301.7701-7 - Trusts-domestic and foreign.
24		$301.7701-7 Trusts—domestic and foreign.
25		(c) The court test—
26		(1) Safe harbor.
27		A trust satisfies the court test if—
28		(i) Court.
29		The term court includes any federal, state, or local court.
30		(ii) The United States.
31		The term the United States is used in this section [section 7701] in a geographical sense. Thus, for purposes of the court test the United States includes only the States and the District of Columbia Section 7701(a)(0).
32 33		the court test, the United States includes only the States and the District of Columbia. See section 7701(a)(9). Accordingly, a court within a territory or possession of the United States or within a foreign country is not a
33 34		court within the United States .
36		TITLE 4 - FLAG AND SEAL, SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE STATES
37		CHAPTER 4 - THE STATES
38		Sec. 110. Same; definitions
39		(d) The term "State" includes any Territory or possession of the United States.

26 U.S.C. §872(b)(8) identifies "possessions" indicated above as a "foreign country" and thus not part of the statutory 1 geographical "United States". Thus, statutory "U.S. nationals" under 8 U.S.C. §1408 such as American Samoa and Swain's 2 Island are "nonresident aliens". 26 U.S.C. §2209 also identifies even statutory "citizens of the united States" under 8 U.S.C. 3 $1401 born in Puerto Rico as "nonresident not a citizen of the United States" and therefore "nonresident aliens" also. 4 Therefore, the statutory geographical "United States" in the term "citizen of the United States" within the Internal Revenue 5 Code does not include anything BUT the District of Columbia and no part of the exclusive jurisdiction of any state of the 6 Union. The term "United States" cannot be extended by the consent of the reader either, because that would unconstitutionally 7 enlarge a definition and allow the reader to in effect exercise a legislative function reserved only to Congress. 8 "When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's 9 ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of 10 the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule, 11 `a definition which declares what a term "means"... excludes any meaning that is not stated'"); Western Union 12 Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935) 13 (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n. 14 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S. 943] 15 (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General's 16 restriction -- "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary." 17 [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)] 18 "It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term. Colautti v. 19 Franklin, 439 U.S. 379, 392, and n. 10 (1979). Congress' use of the term "propaganda" in this statute, as indeed 20 in other legislation, has no pejorative connotation. [19] As judges, it is our duty to [481 U.S. 485] construe 21 legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has 22 not even read it." 23 [Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484 (1987)] 24

> "As a rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means"... excludes any meaning that is not stated"" [Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 (1979), n. 10]

26 C.F.R. §301.7701-7 - Trusts—domestic and foreign. 28 §301.7701-7 Trusts-domestic and foreign. 29 (c) The court test— 30 (1) Safe harbor. 31 A trust satisfies the court test if-32 (i) Court. 33 34 The term court includes any federal, state, or local court. (ii) The United States. 35 The term the United States is used in this section [section 7701] in a geographical sense. Thus, for purposes of 36 the court test, the United States includes only the States and the District of Columbia. See section 7701(a)(9). 37 Accordingly, a court within a territory or possession of the United States or within a foreign country is not a 38 court within the United States. 39 Lower case "states" are legislatively foreign, and these states include constitutional states of the Union and possessions: 40 "It is to be noted that the statute [3] differentiates between States of the United States and foreign states by 41 the use of a capital S for the word when applied to a State of the United States. Subdivision (c), therefore, in 42 43 dealing with the place of incorporation refers only to a corporation incorporated in a State of the United States. When subdivision (c) goes on to deal with principal place of business it refers to the same corporation and thus 44 45 only to a corporation incorporated in a State of the United States. The subdivision is not susceptible of the construction as if it read 'all corporations shall be deemed citizens of the States by which they have been 46 47 incorporated and of the States where they have their principal places of business.' Unless a corporation is incorporated by a State of the United States it will not be deemed a citizen of the State where it has its principal 48 49 place of business.

Note that the above statutory geographical "United States" does not EXPRESSLY include areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional states of the Union. Therefore, per the Rules of Statutory Construction and Interpretation, they are PURPOSEFULLY excluded:

42	26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1 - Resident alien.
43	(c) Substantial presence test—

(1) In general

1	(1) In general.
2	An alien individual is a resident alien if the individual meets the substantial presence test. An individual satisfies
3	this test if he or she has been present in the United States o n at least 183 days during a three year period that
4	includes the current year. For purposes of this test, each day of presence in the current year is counted as a full
5	day. Each day of presence in the first preceding year is counted as one-third of a day and each day of presence
6	in the second preceding year is counted as one-sixth of a day. For purposes of this paragraph, any fractional
7	days resulting from the above calculations will not be rounded to the nearest whole number. (See § 301.7701(b)–
8	9(b)(2) for transitional rules for calendar years 1985 and 1986.)
9	(2) Determination of presence—
10	(i) Physical presence.
11	For purposes of the substantial presence test, an individual shall be treated as present in the United States on
12	any day that he or she is physically present in the United States at any time during the day. (But see § 301.7701(b)–
13	3 relating to days of presence that may be excluded.)
14	(ii) United States.
15	For purposes of section 7701(b) and the regulations thereunder, the term United States when used in a
16	geographical sense includes the states and the District of Columbia. It also includes the territorial waters of the
17	United States and the seabed and subsoil of those submarine areas which are adjacent to the territorial waters
18	of the United States and over which the United States has exclusive rights, in accordance with international law,
19	with respect to the exploration and exploitation of natural resources. It does not include the possessions and
20	territories of the United States or the air space over the United States .
21	(3) Current year.
22	The term current year means any calendar year for which an alien individual is determining his or her resident
23	status.
24	(4) Thirty-one day minimum.
25	If an individual is not physically present for more than 30 days during the current year, the substantial presence
26	test will not be applied for that year even if the three-year total is 183 or more days. For purposes of the
27	substantial presence test, it is irrelevant that an individual was not present for more than 30 days in the first or
28	second year preceding the current year.
29	Thus, the statutory geographical "United States" for the purposes of the presence test applicable ONLY to "aliens" and never
30	citizens or nationals expressly includes the legislatively foreign "states", meaning the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional
31	states of the Union.
32	NOTE that citizens and nationals are not subject to the presence test. Thus, it is IMPOSSIBLE for them to be "resident in the United States", INCLUDING both federal territory within the exclusive jurisdiction of Congress AND areas within the
34	exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional states. Thus, the only way to accurately describe BOTH "citizens", "nationals", and
35	"U.S. persons" is as "nonresidents" for the purpose of the entire Internal Revenue Code. The ONLY status in the Internal
36	Revenue Code which is associated with BEING a "nonresident" is "nonresident alien" as defined in this section. Courts have
37	been known to FALSELY state that citizens and nationals can be "resident in the United States" because they want to hide
38	Third Rail issues.
39	NOTE also that although "nationals" are not expressly included in the definition of "nonresident alien":

- The so-called "definition" of "nonresident alien" is not a definition at all, because it defines what it IS NOT, and not 1. 40 what it IS. In order to be a true legal definition, it would need to expressly define ALL the things that are included. 41 The government doesn't provide a valid legal definition of "nonresident alien" because they clearly DO NOT want you 42 to know all the things that are included or allowed. 43
- "Citizens" not domiciled in the statutory geographical "United States" are nonresidents. People in this condition are 44 2. often called "U.S. nationals" when abroad, but can also be called "U.S. nationals" when domiciled outside the statutory 45 geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) as well. This is the condition of everyone born 46 within and domiciled or present within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional "State", for instance. 47
- 3. The Department of State confirms that all "citizens" are also "nationals" and "U.S. nationals". 48

b. National vs. citizen:
While most people and countries use the terms "citizenship" and "nationality" interchangeably, U.S. law differentiates between the two. Under current law all U.S. citizens are also U.S. nationals, but not all U.S. nationals are U.S. citizens. The term "national of the United States", as defined by statute (INA 101 (a)(22) (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(22)) includes all citizens of the United States, and other persons who owe allegiance to the United States but who have not been granted the privilege of citizenship:
(1) Nationals of the United States who are not citizens owe allegiance to the United States and are entitled to the consular protection of the United States when abroad, and to U.S. documentation, such as U.S. passports with

U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) while not be a STATUTORY "U.S. non-citizen national" under 8 U.S.C. §1408 by having a domicile and presence OUTSIDE the statutory geographical "United States" under any title of the U.S. Code OTHER than Title 8.
 Title 8 is POLITICAL law. Every other Title of the Code other than Title 18 is CIVIL statutory law that regulates PRIVILEGES available only to officers and domiciliaries within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government.

 Congress CANNOT regulate or control the civil statutory status of those domiciled outside of its exclusive jurisdiction, such as STATUTORY "citizen" under 8 U.S.C. §1401 and it is CIVIL STATUTORY status, not POLITICAL status that is the origin of the ability to tax within status of the Union.

6	question whether the domicile of the father was in England or in Scotland, he being in either alternative a British
7	subject. Lord Chancellor Hatherley said: 'The question of naturalization and of allegiance is distinct from that
8	of domicile.' Page 452. Lord Westbury, in the passage relied on by the counsel for the United States, began by
9	saying: The law of England, and of almost all civilized countries, ascribes to each individual at his birth two
10	distinct legal states or conditions,—one by virtue of which he becomes the subject [NATIONAL] of some
11	particular country, binding him by the tie of natural allegiance, and which may be called his political status;
12	another by virtue of which he has ascribed to him the character of a citizen of some particular country, and as
13	such is possessed of certain municipal rights, and subject to certain obligations, which latter
14	character is the civil status or condition of the individual, and may be
15	quite different from his political status. 'And then, while maintaining that the civil status is
16	universally governed by the single principle of domicile (domicilium), the criterion established by international
17	law for the purpose of determining civil status, and the basis on which 'the personal rights of the party—that
18	is to say, the law which determines his majority or minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy—
19	must depend,' he yet distinctly recognized that a man's political status, his country (patria), and his
20	'nationality ,—that is, natural allegiance, '—'may depend on different laws in different countries.' Pages 457, 460.
21	He evidently used the word 'citizen,' not as equivalent to 'subject,' but rather to 'inhabitant'; and had no thought
22	of impeaching the established rule that all persons born under British dominion are natural-born subjects.

47 4.2 NONSTATUTORY "nonresident alien"

In addition to STATUTORY "nonresident aliens" described but not defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B), we also have STATUTORY "alien individuals" as defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) (neither citizens nor nationals) who are NOT "resident aliens" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A) because they do not meet the presence test. IRS tries to conflate or equivocate about these people by ALSO calling them "nonresident aliens" but technically, these people are aliens who are non-resident. Below is an example of this deception from the IRS website:

Nonresident aliens 3 An alien is any individual who is not a U.S. citizen or U.S. national. A nonresident alien is an alien who has 4 not passed the green card test or the substantial presence test. 5 If you are a nonresident alien at the end of the tax year, and your spouse is a resident alien, your spouse can 6 choose to treat you as a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes and file Form 1040 using the filing status "Married 7 Filing Jointly. 8 [Nonresident aliens, IRS Website; https://www.irs.gov/individuals/international-taxpayers/nonresident-aliens] 9 The context for the above is "International taxpayers", which means foreign nationals. This is NOT the only context for the 10 term "nonresident alien". States of the Union, like foreign COUNTRIES, are also legislatively foreign because of the 11 separation of powers between the states and the federal government under the Constitution. To avoid confusion, the above 12 article should have referred to these people by any one of the following names: 13 1. NON-STATUTORY "nonresident aliens". 14 "Aliens who are non-resident". 2. 15 "Non-resident aliens". 3. 16 Courts seem to recognize the distinctions between STATUTORY "nonresident aliens" and NONSTATUTORY "nonresident 17 aliens" such as the following court: 18 "According to Ms. Walby, she "became a non-resident alien (a.k.a. U.S. National)" by the act of submitting the 19 affidavit. Compl. Ex. [6] 1 at 2; Compl. Ex. 2 at 4.' 20 [Walby v. United States, 144 Fed.Cl. 1, 122 A.F.R.T.2d (RIA) 2019-5227 (2019)] 21 The above sort of equivocation and obfuscation seems designed to deceive the average American National into believing that 22 they cannot file as a STATUTORY "nonresident alien" and therefore, that the ONLY choice of status they have is either 23 STATUTORY "citizen" or STATUTORY "resident". 24 The ONLY type of "nonresident alien" described in this document is the STATUTORY type because we only talk about 25 "nationals", whether statutory or common law, who are "non-resident" to the statutory geographical "United States". 26 This type of equivocation and deception by the IRS between STATUTORY "nonresident aliens" and NONSTATUTORY 27 "nonresident aliens" is also found in the Treasury Regulations, as is explained in the next section. 28 4.3 Proving that you are a "nonresident alien" 29 As we previously pointed out, the description of a "nonresident alien" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) is a NON-DEFINITION. 30 It describes what a STATUTORY "nonresident alien" IS NOT, and not what it IS: 31 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) Nonresident alien 32 An individual is a nonresident alien if such individual is neither a citizen of the United States nor a resident of 33 the United States (within the meaning of subparagraph (A)). 34 The fact that the above is a NON-DEFINITION is problematic, because it is nearly impossible to "prove a negative", as the 35 following Tax Court ruling points out: 36 "..the taxpayer can not be left in the unpardonable position of having to prove a negative" 37 [Elkins v. United States, 364 U.S. 206, 218, 80 S.Ct. 1437, 1444, 4 L.Ed.2d. 1669 (1960) ; Flores v. U.S., 551 38 F.2d. 1169, 1175 (9th Cir. 1977); Portillo v. CIR, 932 F.2d. 1128 (Court of Appeals, 5th Circuit 1991), Affirming, 39 reversing and remanding 58 TCM 1386, Dec 46, 373 (M), TC Memo, 1990-68 [91-2 USTC P50, 304]; 40 Weimerschirch [79-1 USTC P9359], 596 F.2d. at 361] 41 We would argue that the above explains EXACTLY why the term "nonresident alien" is described the way it is in 26 U.S.C. 42 §7701(b)(1)(B), which is to make filing with the status impossible to defend, prove, or justify in court! 43

1	We must also ask ourselves wh	wWE have the burden of	proving ANYTHING wh	en accused of a tax liability:
1	We must unso usk ourserves win	y will have the burden of	proving man run to win	en deedsed of a tax hability.

- 2 1. Our legal system is based on INNOCENT until proven guilty.
- The GOVERNMENT is the moving party that has that burden of proof, not YOU, when asserting or enforcing a tax liability.
- 5 3. To be "innocent" means being a "non-citizen", a "nonresident", and a "nontaxpayer" until THEY prove that you are 6 NOT any of these things with a preponderance of probative credible evidence.

Yet being the lazy usurpers they are, they flip the above burden or proof upside down and try to force YOU to prove a NEGATIVE, which is nearly impossible. HYPOCRISY!

9 Those who therefore want to file as a "nonresident alien" are sometimes tasked by courts with the "unpardonable", 10 exasperating, and unfortunate burden of proving a negative:

- 11
 "An individual is a nonresident alien if such individual is neither a citizen of the United States nor a resident of the United States (within the meaning of subparagraph A)." 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B). Subparagraph (A) defines

 12

 13 a resident "alien individual." Plaintiff has submitted no proof demonstrating that he is neither a citizen nor a resident of the United States."

First, the Defendant cites United States v. Slater, 545 F.Supp. 179 (D. Del. 1982), for the proposition that the IRS cannot enforce a tax liability if a defendant can prove he is not a citizen [*6] of the United States. The Slater decision, however, is of no benefit to the Defendant. In Slater, the defendant objected to a summons issued by the IRS which directed the defendant to appear and produce tax records. Specifically, the defendant argued that he was not a "person" within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code and thus not liable to pay federal taxes. The court quickly disposed of the defendant's argument, noting:

Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Act of 1954, Title 26 of the United States Code, was enacted in accordance with Congress' constitutional power to lay and collect an income tax. There is a tax imposed, in 26 U.S.C. §1, on the income of "every individual." No provision exists in the tax code exempting from taxation persons who, like Slater, characterize themselves as somehow standing apart from the American polity, and the defendant cites no authority supporting his position. Slater's protestations to the effect that he derives no benefit from the United States government have no bearing on his legal obligation to pay income taxes. Unless the defendant can establish that he is not a citizen of the United States, the IRS possesses authority to attempt to determine his federal tax liability.

the court granted the IRS's motion to enforce its summons. Id. at 183 .

Most people, like the above criminal defendant Macalpine, respond like a deer in the headlights when presented with the impossible burden or proving a negative, which is that they are NEITHER a STATUTORY "citizen" (26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c)) nor a STATUTORY "resident" (alien, 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A)).

It's easy to prove that one is not a "resident" (alien, 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A)) by simply producing your birth certificate or passport. It's harder, however, to prove that you are not THE STATUTORY "citizen" made "LIABLE TO" rather than "LIABLE FOR" the income tax in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c).

How might one go about proving they are NOT the "citizen" made subject to the income tax in the simplest possible way?
 Our approach is to start with the definition of this STATUTORY "citizen" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c):

- 45 26 C.F.R. § 1.1-1 Income tax on individuals.
- 46 § 1.1-1 Income tax on individuals.
- 47 (c) Who is a citizen.

For other rules governing the acquisition of citizenship, see chapters 1 and 2 of title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1401–1459). For rules governing loss of citizenship, see sections 349 to 357, inclusive, of such Act (8 U.S.C. 1481–1489), Schneider v. Rusk, (1964) 377 U.S. 163, and Rev. Rul. 70–506, C.B. 1970–2, 1. For rules pertaining to persons who are nationals but not citizens at birth, e.g., a person born in American Samoa, see section 308 of such Act (8 U.S.C. 1408). For special rules applicable to certain expatriates who have lost citizenship with a principal purpose of avoiding certain taxes, see section 877. A foreigner who has filed his declaration of intention of becoming a citizen but who has not yet been admitted to citizenship by a final order of a naturalization court is an alien.

Next, we must visit the definition of "national and citizen of the United States at birth" in 8 U.S.C. §1401, which is within the range of statutes cited above. What we are looking for is some mention of the CONSTITUTIONAL geographical "United States" or the Fourteenth Amendment, such that the "citizen" they are describing EXPRESSLY includes CONSTITUTIONAL citizens.

11	8 U.S. Code § 1401 - Nationals and citizens of United States at birth
12	The following shall be nationals and citizens of the United States at birth:
13	(a) a person born in the United States , and subject to the jurisdiction thereof;
14	(b) a person born in the United States to a member of an Indian, Eskimo, Aleutian, or other aboriginal tribe:
15	Provided, That the granting of citizenship under this subsection shall not in any manner impair or otherwise
16	affect the right of such person to tribal or other property;
17	(c) a person born outside of the United States and its outlying possessions of parents both of whom are citizens
18	of the United States and one of whom has had a residence in the United States or one of its outlying possessions,
19	prior to the birth of such person;
20	(d) a person born outside of the United States and its outlying possessions of parents one of whom is a citizen of
21	the United States who has been physically present in the United States or one of its outlying possessions for a
22	continuous period of one year prior to the birth of such person, and the other of whom is a national, but not a
23	citizen of the United States ;
24	(e) a person born in an outlying possession of the United States of parents one of whom is a citizen of the United
25	States who has been physically present in the United States or one of its outlying possessions for a continuous
26	period of one year at any time prior to the birth of such person;
27	(f) a person of unknown parentage found in the United States while under the age of five years, until shown,
28	prior to his attaining the age of twenty-one years, not to have been born in the United States;
29	(g) a person born outside the geographical limits of the United States and its outlying possessions of parents one
30	of whom is an alien , and the other a citizen of the United States who, prior to the birth of such person, was
31	physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than
32	five years, at least two of which were after attaining the age of fourteen years: Provided, That any periods of
33	honorable service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or periods of employment with the United States
34	Government or with an international organization as that term is defined in section 288 of title 22 by such citizen
35	parent, or any periods during which such citizen parent is physically present abroad as the dependent unmarried
36	son or daughter and a member of the household of a person (A) honorably serving with the Armed Forces of the
37	United States , or (B) employed by the United States Government or an international organization as defined in
38	section 288 of title 22, may be included in order to satisfy the physical-presence requirement of this paragraph.
39	This proviso shall be applicable to persons born on or after December 24, 1952, to the same extent as if it had
40	become effective in its present form on that date; and
41	(h) a person born before noon (Eastern Standard Time) May 24, 1934, outside the limits and jurisdiction of the
42	United States of an alien father and a mother who is a citizen of the United States who, prior to the birth of such
43	person, had resided in the United States.

45 I. Ge	ographically define "United States" to EXPRESSLY include areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of co

 Geographically define "United States" to EXPRESSLY include areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of constitutional statues of the Union. If these areas are NOT expressly described, then they are "purposefully excluded" per the Rules of Statutory Construction and Interpretation.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10		"When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means" excludes any meaning that is not stated"); Western Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152, and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S. 943] (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General's restriction "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary." [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]
11 12 13 14 15 16		"It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term. Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 , 392, and n. 10 (1979). Congress' use of the term "propaganda" in this statute, as indeed in other legislation, has no pejorative connotation. [19] As judges, it is our duty to [481 U.S. 485] construe legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has not even read it." [Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484 (1987)]
17 18		"As a rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means" excludes any meaning that is not stated"" [Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 (1979), n. 10]
19 20	2. 3.	Actually, and expressly invoke or mention the Fourteenth Amendment as the origin of the status. Use the same language as the Fourteenth Amendment to describe the status:
21 22		Fourteenth Amendment of the US Constitution Rights Guaranteed: Privileges and Immunities of Citizenship, Due Process, and Equal Protection
23		Section 1. Rights Guaranteed
24 25 26 27 28		All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and the State wherein they reside . No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.
29	Let	's now apply the above burden of proof:
30 31 32	1.	The geographical definitions with Title 8 of the U.S. Code do NOT expressly include the exclusive jurisdiction of the Constitutional States of the Union and thus they are PURPOSEFULLY excluded per the Rules of Statutory Construction and Interpretation:
33		8 U.S. Code § 1101 - Definitions
34		(a)As used in this chapter—
35 36		(36) The term " State " includes the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico , Guam, the Virgin Islands of the United States , and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands.
37 38 39		(38) The term " United States ", except as otherwise specifically herein provided, w hen used in a geographical sense, means the continental United States , Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands of the United States , and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands.
40 41		 The "chapter" mentioned above does include 8 U.S.C. §1401. The term "continental United States" is defined as follows:
42 43 44 45		TITLE 8ALIENS AND NATIONALITY CHAPTER IIMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE PART 215CONTROLS OF ALIENS DEPARTING FROM THE UNITED STATES Section 215.1: Definitions
46 47		(f) The term continental United States means the District of Columbia and the several [STATUTORY] States , except Alaska and Hawaii.

1 2	1.3. The "States" mentioned above are described in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(38) as NOT expressly including areas within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Constitutional geographical states of the Union.
3	1.4. The only anomaly is the mention of Alaska and Hawaii in the STATUTORY definition of "United States" at 8
4	U.S.C. §1101(a)(38).
5	1.4.1. Everything else is the federal zone.
6	1.4.2. We also know that Alaska and Hawaii were the last two states of the Union added, and that they became
7	states of the Union on January 3, 1959 and August 21, 1959 respectively. It could be that the definition of
8	"United States" was not properly updated to remove these TERRITORIAL states from the definition after they joined.
9	1.4.3. An examination of the legislative notes under the definition of "United States" in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(38)
10	reveals that no changes to the statutory definition of "United States" were made after Alaska and Hawaii
11
12	joined the constitutional Union. This indicates that the definition was not properly updated after they joined.
13	See:
14	https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/8/1101
15	1.4.4. After Alaska and Hawaii joined in 1959, what should have happened is that they were:
16	1.4.4.1. Removed from the definition of STATUTORY "State" in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(36).
17	1.4.4.2. Added to the definition of the STATUTORY "United States" in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(38).
18	1.4.4.3. Added to the definition of "continental United States" in 8 C.F.R. §215.1.
19	1.4.5. The legislative history of 8 U.S.C. §1101 and 8 C.F.R. §215.1 above indicates that NONE of the things
20	required to be done when Alaska and Hawaii joined were actually done. Thus, they continue to LOOK like
21	territories rather than constitutional states for the purposes of nationality and citizenship at least based on the
22	current condition of Title 8.
23	1.5. Based on all the above, it appears that there is some statutory DECEPTION surrounding the geographical limits
24	of the STATUTORY "State" and "United States". More on this deception at:
	Tax Deposition Questions, Section 14: Citizenship, We the People Foundation for Constitutional Education
	https://truthintaxationhearings.famguardian.org/IRSDeposition/Section%2014.htm
25	2. 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) does use the same language as the Fourteenth Amendment.
26	8 U.S. Code § 1401 - Nationals and citizens of United States at birth
27	The following shall be nationals and citizens of the United States at birth:
28	(a) a person born in the United States , and subject to the jurisdiction thereof:
29 30	3. Next we see that the Fourteenth Amendment is NOT expressly invoked in 8 U.S.C. §1401(a) for its authority, and thus is presumed to originate instead from the exclusive authority of Congress to manage government property and territory
31	instead of its relationship to the states of the Union.
51	instead of its foldionship to the states of the onion.
32	Next, we must look at case law distinguishing CONSTITUTIONAL (Fourteenth Amendment) and STATUTORY (8 U.S.C
33	$1401). The GEOGRAPHY we are talking about citizenship within is the STATUTORY geographical "United States" in 26
34	U.S.C. 7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) versus the exclusive jurisdiction of CONSTITUTIONAL states of the Union. Since the
35	STATUTORY geographical "United States" in Section 7701 includes only the District of Columbia, the caselaw must address
36	the citizenship of those types of "citizens" within the Internal Revenue Code. The following cases are instructive:
37	"The 1 st section of the 14 th article [Fourteenth Amendment], to which our attention is more specifically invited,
38	opens with a definition of citizenship—not only citizenship of the United States[], but citizenship of the states.
39	No such definition was previously found in the Constitution, nor had any attempt been made to define it by act
40	of Congress. It had been the occasion of much discussion in the courts, by the executive departments and in the
41	public journals. It had been said by eminent judges that no man was a citizen of the United States[] except
42	as he was a citizen of one of the states composing the Union. Those therefore, who had been born and resided always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States[*], were not citizens.
43 44	always in the District of Columbia or in the territories, though within the United States [*], were not citizens. Whether this proposition was sound or not had never been judicially decided."
44 45	[Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873)]
46	"Finally, this Court is mindful of the years of past practice in which territorial citizenship has been treated as
47	a statutory [PRIVILEGE!], and not a constitutional, right. In the unincorporated territories of Puerto Rico,
48	Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands, birthright citizenship was conferred upon
49	their inhabitants by various statutes many years after the United States acquired them. See Amicus Br. at 10-
50	11. If the Citizenship Clause guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes
51 52	would have been unnecessary. While longstanding practice is not sufficient to demonstrate constitutionality. such a practice requires special scrutiny before being set aside. See, e.g., Jackman v. Rosenbaum Co., 260 U.S.
54	suon a praemo reganos specialiser anny dejore denig ser asate, bee, e.g., Jackhall V. Rosendaum Co., 200 O.b.

22, 31 (1922) (Holmes, J.) ("If a thing has been practiced for two hundred years by common consent, it will need a strong case for the Fourteenth Amendment to affect it[.]"); Walz v. Tax Comm'n, 397 U.S. 664, 678 (1970) ("It is obviously correct that no one acquires a vested or protected right in violation of the Constitution by long use Yet an unbroken practice . . . is not something to be lightly cast aside."). And while Congress cannot take away the citizenship of individuals covered by the Citizenship Clause, it can bestow citizenship upon those not within the Constitution's breadth. See U.S. Const, art. IV, § 3, cl. 2 ("Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory belonging to the United States[]."); id. at art. I, § 8, cl. 4 (Congress may "establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization"). To date, Congress has not seen fit to bestow birthright citizenship upon American Samoa, and in accordance with the law, this Court must and will respect that choice_16 [Tuaua v. U.S.A, 951 F.Supp.2d. 88 (2013)]

We can see from the above cases that:

- Citizens of the District of Columbia are NOT CONSTITUTIONAL citizens within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment. This geographical area is the ONLY geographical area expressly included in the statutory geographical "United States" within the Internal Revenue Code, at least by default.
- ¹⁶ 2. From Tuaua above, we see that STATUTES describing citizenship are UNNECESSARY among those who are
- 17 CONSTITUTIONAL (Fourteenth Amendment) citizens.

"If the Citizenship Clause [of the FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT] guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes would have been unnecessary."

- 20 3. Thus, according to the D.C. District Court, from whom U.S. Supreme Court justices are usually selected:
 - 3.1. The CONSTITUTION (Fourteenth Amendment) does NOT confer any kind of citizenship to people in unincorporated territories, including the District of Columbia.
 - 3.2. If the Constitution in the Fourteenth Amendment prescribes citizenship by birth, no statute, INCLUDING 8 U.S.C. §1401, is necessary to CONFER such citizenship.
 - 3.3. Thus, to confer "citizen" status to people in the STATUTORY geographical United States defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) such as the District of Columbia, ONLY statutes can do so.

Next, we must look at whether the STAUTORY "citizen" mentioned in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) is a POLITICAL citizen or a
 DOMICILED/CIVIL citizen:

29 1. There are TWO components of citizenship: NATIONALITY and DOMICILE.

In Udny v. Udny (1869) L. R. 1 H. L. Sc. 441, the point decided was one of inheritance, depending upon the 30 question whether the domicile of the father was in England or in Scotland, he being in either alternative a British 31 subject. Lord Chancellor Hatherley said: 'The question of naturalization and of allegiance is distinct from that 32 of domicile.' Page 452. Lord Westbury, in the passage relied on by the counsel for the United States, began by 33 saying: The law of England, and of almost all civilized countries, ascribes to each individual at his birth two 34 distinct legal states or conditions,—one by virtue of which he becomes the subject [NATIONAL] of some 35 particular country, binding him by the tie of natural allegiance, and which may be called his political status; 36 another by virtue of which he has ascribed to him the character of a citizen of some particular country, and as 37 such is possessed of certain municipal rights, and subject to certain obligations, which latter 38 character is the civil status or condition of the individual, and may be 39 quite different from his political status. 'And then, while maintaining that the civil status is 40 universally governed by the single principle of domicile (domicilium), the criterion established by international 41 law for the purpose of determining civil status, and the basis on which 'the personal rights of the party-that 42 is to say, the law which determines his majority or minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy-43 must depend,' he yet distinctly recognized that a man's political status, his country (patria), and his 44 'nationality,—that is, natural allegiance,'—'may depend on different laws in different countries.' Pages 457, 460. 45 He evidently used the word 'citizen,' not as equivalent to 'subject,' but rather to 'inhabitant'; and had no thought 46 of impeaching the established rule that all persons born under British dominion are natural-born subjects. 47 [United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649, 18 S.Ct. 456, 42 L.Ed. 890 (1898) ;SOURCE: 48 http://scholar.google.com/scholar_case?case=3381955771263111765] 49

50 2. NATIONALITY deals with POLITICAL status.

- 51 3. DOMICILE deals with CIVIL and STATUTORY status.
- 4. Courts derive CIVIL jurisdiction based on your DOMICILE pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17.
- 5. The origin of CIVIL statutory jurisdiction has NOTHING TO DO with your nationality or political status.

- 6. The STATUTORY "national and citizen of the United States at birth" at 8 U.S.C. §1401 recognizes these TWO components of citizenship:
 - 6.1. "national" is the political status.
 - 6.2. "citizen" is the CIVIL statutory status.
- Real constitutional Courts CANNOT deal with "political questions", meaning they cannot entertain cases involving ONLY one's political status or nationality, except possibly to CONFER such nationality under the rules of naturalization. See: Political Jurisdiction, Form #05.004 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/PoliticalJurisdiction.pdf

The people of a state, in their collective capacity, considered as the party wronged by a criminal deed; the public; as in the title of a cause, "The State vs. A.B."

[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1407]

"State" means PEOPLE, not GOVERNMENTS. "Domicile" means allegiance to the CIVIL government protecting a territory and not necessarily the "State" it serves. Domicile is voluntary, NATIONALITY often isn't. You don't get to choose where you are BORN. This is explained in:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf

Since according to the Declaration of Independence, all just government authority derives from CONSENT, and an act of birth is not an act of consent, then domicile which is voluntary always has to be a prerequisite for tax liability or else unconstitutional slavery is the result, in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment. This is exhaustively proven above. Courts have also agreed with this assessment:

34	"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit
35	or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth
36	Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally
37	reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously
38	includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of
39	property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration
40	being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located."
41	[Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]
42	"This right to protect persons having a domicile, though not native-born or naturalized citizens, rests on the

- Based on this exhaustive analysis and evidence presented, we can therefore safely conclude that:
- 1. The basis for income tax is ALWAYS domicile, and not NATIONALITY.
- ³ 2. Domicile is ALWAYS geographical.
- 3. NATIONALITY after birth is NOT GEOGRAPHICAL. It affixes to someone at the time of birth and does not change based on location.
- 4. Nationality is equivalent to allegiance. See 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21).
- 5. NATIONALITY is the basis for issuing a USA passport, not DOMICILE. 22 U.S.C. §212.
- 6. Nationality establishes one's POLITICAL status and ELIGIBILITY for membership in a political community.

"There cannot be a nation without a people. The very idea of a political community, such as a nation is, implies an [88 U.S. 162, 166] association of persons for the promotion of their general welfare. Each one of the persons associated becomes a member of the nation formed by the association. He owes it allegiance and is entitled to its protection. Allegiance and protection are, in this connection, reciprocal obligations. The one is a compensation for the other; allegiance for protection and protection for allegiance.

- "For convenience it has been found necessary to give a name to this membership. The object is to designate by a title the person and the relation he bears to the nation. For this purpose the words 'subject,' 'inhabitant,' and 'citizen' have been used, and the choice between them is sometimes made to depend upon the form of the government. Citizen is now more commonly employed, however, and as it has been considered better suited to the description of one living under a republican government, it was adopted by nearly all of the States upon their separation from Great Britain, and was afterwards adopted in the Articles of Confederation and in the Constitution of the United States[]. When used in this sense it [the word
 - "citizen"] is understood as conveying the idea of membership of a nation, and nothing more."
 - "To determine, then, who were citizens of the United States[] before the adoption of the amendment it is necessary to ascertain what persons originally associated themselves together to form the nation, and what were afterwards admitted to membership." [Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. 162 (1874)]
- Birth alone does not make one a member of a political community. That would be a violation of the First Amendment.
 Some form of consent BEYOND birth is necessary to establish such membership. That consent manifests itself by a VOLUNTARY civil domicile within a specific geographical locale. If one does not choose or does not WANT a domicile, they would be described as any one of the following:
 - 7.1. "Stateless person".
 - 7.2. "Nonresident".
 - 7.3. "Transient foreigner".
 - 7.4. "In transitu".
- 8. Consistent with the above, you cannot register to vote or serve on jury duty WITHOUT a voluntary civil domicile.
- Because political participation is predicated upon DOMICILE and not NATIONALITY, and because obligation to pay income tax ATTACHES to DOMICILE and not NATIONALITY, then in effect, the income tax functions as the equivalent of an UNCONSTITUTIONAL POLL TAX. See:
 - Proof of Facts: That the Income Tax is an UNCONSTITUTIONAL Poll Tax, SEDM https://sedm.org/proof-that-the-income-tax-is-a-poll-tax/
- 10. The "citizens" and "residents" described in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1 as persons "LIABLE TO" rather than "LIABLE FOR" the income tax have in common a VOLUNTARY CIVIL DOMCILE within the statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10).
- ⁴² 11. You can only have ONE domicile at a time.
 - 11.1. The separation of powers doctrine forbids state and federal civil jurisdiction to overlap geographically. See: Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/SeparationOfPowers.pdf
- 44 11.2. Thus, you can only owe income tax to ONE entity at a time absent your consent: State or Federal.
- 45 11.3. You can therefore owe income tax based on domicile to ONE of the two entities. Only if you CONSENT to be a 46 "taxpayer" in the one you are not domiciled within can you be liable to income tax to that party.
- 47 12. The description (but not "definition") of "nonresident alien" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) could have been VASTLY
- 48 simplified by stating the following without losing any degree of accuracy:

26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) Nonresident alien

An individual is a nonresident alien if such individual $\underline{is not domiciled in the statutory geographical United States}$ (within the meaning of subparagraph (A)).

13. The Treasury Department did not write the definition as above because they didn't want to make the exit door to the income tax scam too obvious. Doing so would render their revenue almost zero and their services unnecessary:

- 14. To DISGUISE and disable the exit door to the scam income tax system, the Treasury therefore:
 - 14.1. Added "alien" to the end of the term "nonresident" so that most Americans would not think that it includes them. 14.2. Made the description of "nonresident alien" into a NEGATIVE by describing what it IS NOT, rather than what it
 - IS, which is simply someone NOT DOMICILED within the statutory geographical "United States".
 - 14.3. Used the word "citizenship" to describe the type of "citizen" subject to income tax. "citizenship" is usually synonymous with DOMICILE in federal court:

"Citizenship and domicile are substantially synonymous. Residency and inhabitance are too often confused with the terms and have not the same significance. Citizenship implies more than residence. It carries with it the idea of identification with the state and a participation in its functions. As a citizen, one sustains social, political, and moral obligation to the state and possesses social and political rights under the Constitution and laws thereof. Harding v. Standard Oil Co. et al. (C.C.) 182 F. 421; Baldwin v. Franks, 120 U.S. 678, 7 S.Ct. 763, 32 L.Ed. 766; Scott v. Sandford, 19 How. 393, 476, 15 L.Ed. 691." [Baker v. Keck, 13 F.Supp. 486 (1936)]

14.4. Avoided using the terms "nationality" or "domicile" to describe the "citizen" that is the subject of the tax so that the reader cannot quickly determine the exact ORIGIN of the liability to tax. They want people to FALSELY believe that an act of BIRTH which is not voluntary is the origin of tax liability and that death and taxes are therefore UNAVOIDABLE, except possibly by expatriation.

- 1.1. Refuse to issue you state identification which is mandatory in order to conduct large financial transactions. State identification then always has DOMICILE bundled with it. If you refuse state identification, you in effect are targeted with what politicians call "economic sanctions" at an international level. The ONLY way to prevent this sort of malicious destruction of constitutional rights is to ensure that the state issues identification to BOTH domiciliaries and NONRESIDENTS as well and does not make domicile a prerequisite to obtaining any kind of identification.
 - 1.2. "Cancel you" or punish you financially if you refuse to legally or politically associate with a domicile or by becoming a political citizen.
 - 1.3. Deprive you of work unless you sign a Form W-4 falsely declaring you are a government public officer "employee" under 26 U.S.C. §3401(c).
 - 1.4. Reject your W-8SUB, Form #04.231 protecting your freedom and autonomy and threaten to not hire or fire you or not promote you if you insist on filing it.
 - 1.5. "Dox" you so that people will come to your house and deny you business privately.
 - 1.6. Involuntarily expatriate dissidents like England does to terrorists. This is illegal in this country per Afroyim v. Rusk, 387 U.S. 253 (1967).
- 2. Indoctrination.
 - 2.1. LIE to the public in your publications using mainly logical fallacies, equivocation, and disclaimers of all liability for telling the truth. The courts and the IRS both agree that you can't rely on the accuracy of anything they say or publish, including on their forms, unless THEY sign under penalty of perjury, which of course they would NEVER do. See:
 - 2.1.1. Reasonable Belief About Income Tax Liability, Form #05.007 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ReasonableBelief.pdf
 - 2.1.2. Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/LegalDecPropFraud.pdf
- 2.2. Judicially invent an arbitrary doctrine NOT found in the constitution (unconstitutional) called "sovereign immunity" so that the government is completely immune from lawsuit against it for violations of constitutional rights. This has the effect of repealing all constitutional protections in suits against the government collective. It also demoralizes people from seeking judicial remedy for violations of rights. See:

Rebutted False Arguments About Sovereignty, Form #08.018, Section 2.1 https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/RebFalseArgSovereignty.pdf

- 2.3. Annually, parade a famous personality into the public square who refuses to volunteer to become a STATUTORY domiciled "citizen" or "resident". This amounts to public terrorism no unlike public executions that the Muslims routinely engage in. Wesley Snipes is one such example. And by the way, he used SEDM materials in his defense!
- 2.4. Flood you with FALSE legal and government propaganda to make you think that it's legal to make you a slave without your consent.
 - 2.5. Filter the media so you aren't allowed to learn Third Rail Issues in this document.
- 2.6. Illegally enjoin organizations like ours to shut them up about Third Rail Issues such as those in this document.
- 2.7. Remove civics and legal education from all public schools so that the average American is helpless in court and has to hire a priest of a civil religion called an "attorney" to represent not them, but the straw man office they have been compelled at gunpoint to fill called civil statutory "citizen" or "resident". These attorneys will never talk about the Third Rail Issues in this document because they fear losing their license and literally starving to death. See:

		Third Rail Government Issues , Form #08.032
		https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/ThirdRailIssues.pdf
2	3.	Identity alteration.
3		3.1. Call EVERYONE a statutory "taxpayer", "citizen", and "resident" and treat them like one, even though all these
4		statuses are voluntary. This is called "marketing". See:
		Your Rights as a "Nontaxpayer", Publication 1a, Form #08.008
		https://sedm.org/LibertyU/NontaxpayerBOR.pdf
5		3.2. Change your legal status to that of a VOLUNTARY DOMICILIARY so that you can be controlled and regulated
6		with civil statutory law.
7		3.3. Because you VOLUNTEERED for the civil status by "electing" a civil domicile, you are by definition a
8		STATUTORY civil "citizen" and "resident". You can't become one any other way.
9		3.4. Because you volunteered for the civil statutory status of "citizen" and "resident", they can attach ANY obligation
10		they want without compensation. This is because you cannot claim an injury for anything you consent to. You
11		have no standing in court to do so as described in:
		Requirement For Consent , Form #05.002
		https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Consent.pdf
12	The	e BIBLICAL version of the above is:
13	1.	Isolation. Jeremiah 1. The Israelites were placed in exile and isolated from their people. In modern times, this is what
14		the "cancel culture" does: Cut people off economically from their support system until they assimilate into the group
15	_	that is attacking them.
16	2.	Indoctrination. Dan 1:1-4. The Israelites were taught to believe and think like the conquerors. In modern times, this is
17		done with legal deception and media propaganda. See:
		Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
		https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/LegalDecPropFraud.pdf
18	3.	Compelled to accept the King's privileges. Dan. 1:5. This is done to keep them in fear of losing something they value
19		so that they will not disobey. In modern times, this is done with benefits, privileges, and franchises. See:
		Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
		https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Franchises.pdf
20	4.	Identity alteration. Dan. 1:7. The captives were renamed. The names were created by the conqueror and whatever they
21		create they literally own as property. In modern times, this is done by assigning fictional civil statuses to people, such
22		as "person", "citizen", "resident", etc. to in effect appoint them into service of the government under a state sponsored
23		franchise. See:

Now that you understand how the IDENTITY THEFT program of the usurpers works in destroying the separation of powers and enslaving us all, you will understand the following warning at the bottom of the opening page of the SEDM website:

29 30 31 "People of all races, genders, political beliefs, sexual orientations, and nearly all religions are welcome here. All are treated equally under REAL "law". The only way to remain truly free and equal under the civil law is to avoid seeking government civil services, benefits, property, special or civil status, exemptions, privileges, or special treatment. All such pursuits of government services or property require individual and lawful consent to a franchise and the surrender of inalienable constitutional rights AND EQUALITY in the process, and should therefore be AVOIDED. The rights and equality given up are the "cost" of procuring the "benefit" or property from the government, in fact. Nothing in life is truly "free". Anyone who claims that such "benefits" or property should be free and cost them nothing is a thief who wants to use the government as a means to STEAL on his or her behalf. All just rights spring from responsibilities/obligations under the laws of a higher power. If that higher power is God, you can be truly and objectively free. If it is government, you are guaranteed to be a slave because they can lawfully set the cost of their property as high as they want as a Merchant under the U.C.C. If you want it really bad from people with a monopoly, then you will get it REALLY bad. Bend over. There are NO constitutional limits on the price government can charge for their monopoly services or property. Those who want no responsibilities can have no real/PRIVATE rights, but only privileges dispensed to wards of the state which are disguised to LOOK like unalienable rights. Obligations and rights are two sides of the same coin, just like self-ownership and personal responsibility. For the biblical version of this paragraph, read 1 Sam. 8:10-22. For the reason God answered Samuel by telling him to allow the people to have a king, read Deut. 28:43-51, which is God's curse upon those who allow a king above them. Click Here (https://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/HowScCorruptOurRepubGovt.htm) for a detailed description of the legal, moral, and spiritual consequences of violating this paragraph." 4.4 Proof that the "citizen of the United States" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) is a GEOGRAPHICAL citizen and not a 30 POLITICAL or FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT citizen

The definition of "United States" as used in the phrase "citizen of the United States", is defined as follows. Note that CONSTITUTIONAL states of the Union are purposefully excluded per the rules of statutory construction.

- 33 26 U.S. Code § 7701 Definitions
 - (a)When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—
- 36 (9)UNITED STATES
 - The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States and the District of Columbia.
- 39 (10)STATE
 - The term "State" shall be construed to include the District of Columbia, where such construction is necessary to carry out provisions of this title.
- 43 4 U.S. Code § 110 The States
 - (d) The term "State" includes any Territory or possession of the United States.

26 U.S.C. §872(b)(8) identifies "possessions" indicated above as a "foreign country" and thus not part of the statutory geographical "United States". Thus, statutory "U.S. nationals" under 8 U.S.C. §1408 such as American Samoa and Swain's Island are "nonresident aliens". 26 U.S.C. §2209 also identifies even statutory "citizens of the united States" under 8 U.S.C.
§1401 born in Puerto Rico as "nonresident not a citizen of the United States" and therefore "nonresident aliens" also.

Therefore, the statutory geographical "United States" in the term "citizen of the United States" within the Internal Revenue Code does not include anything BUT the District of Columbia and no part of the exclusive jurisdiction of any state of the Union. The term "United States" cannot be extended by the consent of the reader either, because that would unconstitutionally enlarge a definition and allow the reader to in effect exercise a legislative function reserved only to Congress.

6	ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition of
7	the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a rule,
8	`a definition which declares what a term "means" excludes any meaning that is not stated'"); Western Union
9	Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96 (1935)

12	(THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney General's
13	restriction "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
14	[Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]

16	Franklin, 439 U.S. 379 , 392, and n. 10 (1979). Congress' use of the term "propaganda" in this statute, as indeed
17	in other legislation, has no pejorative connotation. [19] As judges, it is our duty to [481 U.S. 485] construe
18	legislation as it is written, not as it might be read by a layman, or as it might be understood by someone who has not even read it."

23	These inferences are also consistent with the definition of "United State" in the regulations under I.R.C. §7701:

6	"While the term 'territory' is often loosely used, and has even been construed to include municipal subdivisions
7	of a territory, and 'territories of the' United States is sometimes used to refer to the entire domain over which the
8	United States exercises dominion, the word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization, has a
9	distinctive, fixed, and legal meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and the term 'territory'
10	or 'territories' does not necessarily include only a portion or the portions thereof which are organized and exercise government functions under acts of congress. The term 'territories' has been defined to be political
11 12	subdivisions of the outlying dominion of the United States, and in this sense the term 'territory' is not a description
12	of a definite area of land but of a political unit governing and being governed as such. The question whether a
14	particular subdivision or entity is a territory is not determined by the particular form of government with which
15	it is, more or less temporarily, invested.

The above is the presence test for ONLY "alien individuals" and never citizens nor nationals nor Fourteenth Amendment (citizens of the United States". Unlike Fourteenth Amendment citizens, Congress has jurisdiction over aliens within the legislatively foreign Constitutional states as a foreign affairs function. Therefore, the "citizen" the tax is imposed upon is a

- 1 STATUTORY privileged fiction domiciled on federal territory and not a POLITICAL or CONSTITUTIONAL Fourteenth
- 2 Amendment citizen born within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state.
- ³ Bing ChatGPT attempts to LIE about this subject, as you can see from the article below:

- ⁴ Individual has a VERY specific meaning depending on context:
- 5 1. DOMESTIC TAXATION: an alien that satisfies the presence test in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1).
- FOREIGN TAXATION: A "qualified individual" acting as an alien in a foreign country and coming under a tax treaty under the presence test at 26 C.F.R. §1.911-1(c). This person claims the VOLUNTARY status of "citizen of the
- 8 United States" as United States is defined geographically and not corporately in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and includes no 9 part of a state of the Union.

It is therefore IMPOSSIBLE to BE a statutory "individual" without being a privileged alien, either at home or abroad and there is NO presence test for those NOT acting as aliens in some capacity. Thus, all citizens and nationals DOMESTICALLY are ALWAYS nonresidents.

Notice that "citizen" used in 26 C.F.R. §1.911-2 is GEOGRAPHICAL. In Walby v. United States, 144 Fed.Cl. 1, 122 13 A.F.R.T.2d (RIA) 2019-5227 (2019), the Court of Claims INCORRECTLY treated what it admitted was Fourteenth 14 Amendment citizen as an ALIEN by INCORRECTLY applying the presence test in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1) that only applies 15 to "alien individuals". This was either FRAUD or an indirect admission that constitutional citizens are not "nationals" from 16 the perspective of I.R.C. "national" used in the definition of "alien individual" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) is nowhere 17 HOWEVER, "national" means ALLEGIANCE, and that allegiance is to the GOVERNMENT and not the defined. 18 sovereigns in the states of the Union. So, it's a different kind of allegiance than that resulting from constitutional citizenship. 19 And remember that allegiance is NONGEOGRAPHICAL ALWAYS, unlike "citizen" status which is always 20 GEOGRAPHICAL. 21

32 5 Nonresident Alien v. U.S. Person³

This ministry takes the position that the only acceptable method of filing is Form 1040NR or Form 1040NR-EZ. Most Americans, on the other hand, if they file, will file a Form 1040. The following subsections will show you the differences between how most Americans normally file, and how members of this ministry must file so you see the changes that are ahead if you want to be compliant.

We would argue that the main reason most Americans file the Form 1040 is legal ignorance and the fact that it is much simpler than the Form 1040NR. This is a VERY costly approach in terms of money and freedom.

5.2 How does a STATUTORY "U.S. Person" become a "Nonresident Alien"?

A STATUTORY "U.S. Person" ceases to have that status when they terminate their domicile on federal territory, which is called the "United States" in federal statutes:

your domicile at any time. If you don't have a domicile in a specific place, then you are a "non-resident non-person" under the civil and tax statutes of that place. Domicile is exhaustively described in the following memorandum of law on our site:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002 https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

The law of domicile is the exclusive means of determining one's "civil status" under the civil statutory laws of a given territory:

It may be laid down that the, status- or, as it is sometimes called, civil status, in contradistinction to political status - of a person depends largely, although not universally, upon domicil. The older jurists, whose opinions are fully collected by Story I and Burge, maintained, with few exceptions, the principle of the ubiquity of status, conferred by the lex domicili with little qualification. Lord Westbury, in Udny v. Udny, thus states the doctrine broadly: "The civil status is governed by one single principle, namely, that of domicil, which is the criterion established by law for the purpose of determining civil status. For it is on this basis that the personal rights of the party - that is to say, the law which determines his majority and minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy-must depend." Gray, C. J., in the late Massachusetts case of Ross v. Ross, speaking with special reference to capacity to inherit, says: "It is a general principle that the status or condition of a person, the relation in which he stands to another person, and by which he is qualified or made capable to take certain rights in that other's property, is fixed by the law of the domicil; and that this status and capacity are to be recognized and upheld in every other State, so far as they are not inconsistent with its own laws and policy." [A Treatise on the Law of Domicil, National, Quasi-National, and Municipal, M.W. Jacobs, Little, Brown, and Company, 1887, p. 89]

We have already established that civil law attaches to one's VOLUNTARY choice of civil domicile. Civil law, in turn, enforces and thereby delivers certain "privileges" against those who are subject to it. In that sense, the civil law acts as a voluntary franchise or "protection franchise" that is only enforceable against those who voluntarily consent to avail themselves of its "benefits" or "protections". Those who voluntarily and consensually avail themselves of such "benefits" and who are therefore SUBJECT to the "protection franchise" called domicile, in turn, are treated as public officers within the government under federal law, as is exhaustively established in the following memorandum:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

The key thing to understand about all franchises is that the Congressionally created privileges or "public rights" they enforce attach to specific STATUSES under them. An example of such statuses include:

40 1. "Person" or "individual".

41 2. "Alien"

42 3. "Nonresident alien"

Proof that American Nationals are Nonresident Aliens Copyright Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry, http://sedm.org Form 09.081, Rev. 12-20-2023

- 4. "Driver" under the vehicle code of your state.
- ² 5. "Spouse" under the family code of your state.
- ³ 6. "Taxpayer" under the Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14).
- 4 7. "Citizen", "resident", or "inhabitant" under the civil laws of your state.
- 5 The above civil statutory statuses:
- Are contingent for their existence on a DOMICILE in the geographical place or territory that the law applies to.
 Hence, a "nonresident alien" or even "alien" civil status within the Internal Revenue Code, for instance, only applies if one is PHYSICALLY PRESENT on federal territory or consensually domiciled there. If you are not physically on
- federal territory and not domiciled there and not representing a public office domiciled there, you CANNOT be ANYTHING under the Internal Revenue Code.
- 11 2 Are TEMPORARY, because your domicile can change.
- 12 3 Extinguish when you terminate your domicile and/or your presence in that place.
- Are the very SAME "statuses" you find on ALL government forms and applications, such as voter registrations, drivers' license applications, marriage license applications, etc. The purpose of filling out all such applications is to CONTRACT to PROCURE the status indicated on the form and have it RECOGNIZED by the government grantor who created the privileges you are pursuing under the civil law franchises that implement the form or application.
- ¹⁷ The ONLY way to AVOID contracting into the civil franchise if you are FORCED to fill out government forms is to:
- Define all terms on the form in a MANDATORY attachment so as to EXCLUDE those found in any government law.
 Write above your signature the following:

"Not valid, false, fraudulent, and perjurious unless accompanied by the SIGNED attachment entitled ______, consisting of ___pages."

- 22 2. Indicate "All rights reserved, U.C.C. §1-308" near the signature line on the application.
- 23 3. Indicate "Non assumpsit" on the application, or scribble it as your signature.
- 24 4. Indicate "duress" on the form.
- Resubmit the form after the fact either in person or by mail fixing the application to indicate duress and withdraw your consent.
- 6. Ask the government accepting the application to indicate that you are not qualified because you do not consent and consent is mandatory. Then show that denial to the person who is trying to FORCE you to apply.
- 29 7. Submit a criminal complaint against the party instituting the duress to get you to apply.
- 8. Notify the person instituting the unlawful duress that they are violating your rights and demand that they retract their demand for you to apply for something.
- Below is an authority proving this phenomenon as explained by the U.S. Supreme Court:

34	question whether the domicile of the father was in England or in Scotland, he being in either alternative a British
35	subject. Lord Chancellor Hatherley said: 'The question of naturalization and of allegiance is distinct from that
36	of domicile.' Page 452. Lord Westbury, in the passage relied on by the counsel for the United States, began by
37	saying: "The law of England, and of almost all civilized countries, ascribes to each individual at his birth two
38	distinct legal states or conditions,—one by virtue of which he becomes the subject [NATIONAL] of some
39	particular country, binding him by the tie of natural allegiance, and which may be called his political status;
40	another by virtue of which he has ascribed to him the character of a citizen of some particular country, and as
41	such is possessed of certain municipal rights, and subject to certain obligations, which latter character is the
42	civil status or condition of the individual, and may be quite different from his political status.' And then, while
43	maintaining that the civil status is universally governed by the single principle
44	of domicile (domicilium), the criterion established by international law
45	for the purpose of determining civil status, and the basis on which 'the
46	personal rights of the party—that is to say, the law which determines his
47	majority or minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy—
48	must depend, ' he yet distinctly recognized that a man's political status, his
49	country (patria), and his 'nationality,—that is, natural allegiance,'—'may
50	depend on different laws in different countries.' Pages 457, 460. He evidently used the

The highest exercise of your right to sovereignty is the right to determine and enforce the STATUS you have CONSENSUALLY and VOLUNTARILY acquired under the civil laws of the community you are in. Anyone who tries to associate a CIVIL statutory status with you absent your DEMONSTRATED, EXPRESS, WRITTEN consent is: Violating due process of law. STEALING property or rights to property from you. The "rights" or "public rights" that attach to the statu the measure of WHAT is being "stolen". Exercising eminent domain without compensation against otherwise PRIVATE property in violation of th constitution. The property subject to the eminent domain are all the rights that attach to the status they are FORCING upon you. Kidnapping your legal identity and moving it to a foreign state, if the STATUS they impute to you arises the laws of a foreign state. This, in turn is an act of INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM in criminal violation U.S.C. §2331(1)(B)(iii). All de jure government civil law is TERRITORIAL in nature and attaches ONLY to the territory upon which th EXCLUSIVE or GENERAL jurisdiction. following means is acting in a purely private, commercial capacity using PRIVATE and not PUBLIC LAW and the 2 statutes then devolve essentially into an act of PRIVATE contracting. Methods of acting in such a capacity include, 3 but are not limited to the following devious methods by dishonest and criminal and treasonous public servants: 4 7.1. Treating EVERYONE as "persons" or "individuals" under the franchise statutes, INCLUDING those outside of 5 their territory. 6 7.2. Saying that EVERYONE is eligible for the franchise, no matter where they PHYSICALLY are, including in 7 places OUTSIDE of their exclusive or general jurisdiction. 8 7.3. Waiving the domicile prerequisite as a matter of policy, even though the statutes describing it require that those 9 who participate must be "citizens", "residents", or "inhabitants" in order to participate. The Social Security does 10 this by unconstitutional FIAT, in order to illegally recruit more "taxpayers". 11 8. When any so-called "government" waives the domicile prerequisite by the means described in the previous step, the 12 following consequences are inevitable and MANDATORY: 13 8.1. The statutes they seek to enforce are "PRIVATE LAW". 14 8.2. It is FRAUD to call the statutes "PUBLIC LAW" that applies equally to EVERYONE. 15 "Municipal law, thus understood, is properly defined to be "a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme 16 power in a state, commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong.' 17 [...] 18 It is also called a rule to distinguish it from a compact or agreement; for a compact is a promise proceeding 19 from us, law is a command directed to us. The language of a compact is, "I will, or will not, do this"; that of a 20 21 law is, "thou shalt, or shalt not, do it." It is true there is an obligation which a compact carries with it, equal in point of conscience to that of a law; but then the original of the obligation is different. In compacts we 22 ourselves determine and promise what shall be done, before we are obliged to do it; in laws. we are obliged to 23 act without ourselves determining or promising anything at all. Upon these accounts law is defined to be "a 24 rule.' 25 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 4] 26 8.3. They agree to be treated on an equal footing with every other PRIVATE business. 27 8.4. Their franchises are on an EQUAL footing to every other type of private franchise such as MacDonald's 28 franchise agreements. 29 8.5. They implicitly waive sovereign immunity and agree to be sued in the courts within the extraterritorial 30 jurisdiction they are illegally operating under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), 28 U.S.C. Part IV, 31 Chapter 97. Sovereign immunity is ONLY available as a defense against DE JURE government activity in the 32 PUBLIC interest that applies EQUALLY to any and every citizen. 33 8.6. They may not enforce federal civil law against the party in the foreign jurisdiction that they are illegally offering 34 the franchise in. 35 8.7. If the foreign jurisdiction they are illegally enforcing the franchise within is subject to the constraint that the 36 members of said community MUST be treated equally under the requirements of their constitution, then the 37 franchise cannot make them UNEQUAL in ANY respect. This would be discrimination and violate the 38 fundamental law. 39 Consistent with the above, below is how the U.S. Supreme Court describes attempts to enforce income taxes against 40 NONRESIDENT parties domiciled in a legislatively foreign state, such as either a state of the Union or a foreign country: 41 42 "The power of taxation, indispensable to the existence of every civilized government, is exercised upon the assumption of an equivalent rendered to the taxpayer in the protection of his person and property, in adding 43 to the value of such property, or in the creation and maintenance of public conveniences in which he shares --44 such, for instance, as roads, bridges, sidewalks, pavements, and schools for the education of his children. If the 45 taxing power be in no position to render these services, or otherwise to benefit the person or property taxed, 46 and such property be wholly within the taxing power of another state, to which it may be said to owe an 47 48 allegiance, and to which it looks for protection, the taxation of such property within the domicil of the owner partakes rather of the nature of an extortion than a tax, and has been repeatedly held by this Court to be 49 beyond the power of the legislature, and a taking of property without due process of law. Railroad Company v. 50 Jackson, 7 Wall. 262; State Tax on Foreign-Held Bonds, 15 Wall. 300; Tappan v. Merchants' National Bank, 51 19 Wall. 490, 499; Delaware &c. R. Co. v. Pennsylvania, 198 U.S. 341, 358. In Chicago &c. R. Co. v. Chicago, 52 166 U.S. 226, it was held, after full consideration, that the taking of private property [199 U.S. 203] without 53 compensation was a denial of due process within the Fourteenth Amendment. See also Davidson v. New 54 Orleans, 96 U.S. 97, 102; Missouri Pacific Railway v. Nebraska, 164 U.S. 403, 417; Mt. Hope Cemetery v. 55 Boston, 158 Mass. 509, 519." 56

An example of how the government cannot assign the statutory status of "taxpayer" upon you per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14) is found in 28 U.S.C. §2201(a), which reads:

4	United States Code
5	TITLE 28 - JUDICIARY AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURE
6	PART VI - PARTICULAR PROCEEDINGS
7 8	CHAPTER 151 - DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS Sec. 2201. Creation of remedy
0	sec. 2201. Creation of remeay
9	(a) In a case of actual controversy within its jurisdiction, except with respect to Federal taxes other than
10	actions brought under section 7428 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, a proceeding under section 505 or
11	1146 of title 11, or in any civil action involving an antidumping or countervailing duty proceeding regarding a
12	class or kind of merchandise of a free trade area country (as defined in section $516A(f)(10)$ of the Tariff Act of
13	1930), as determined by the administering authority, any court of the United States, upon the filing of an
14	appropriate pleading, may declare the rights and other legal relations of any interested party seeking such
15	declaration , whether or not further relief is or could be sought. Any such declaration shall have the force and effect of a final judgment or decree and shall be reviewable as such.
16	effect of a final judgment of decree and shall be reviewable as such.
17	Consistent with the federal Declaratory Judgments Act, 28 U.S.C. §2201, federal courts who have been petitioned to declare
18	a litigant to be a "taxpayer" have declined to do so and have cited the above act as authority:
19	Specifically, Rowen seeks a declaratory judgment against the United States of America with respect to "whether
20	or not the plaintiff is a taxpayer pursuant to, and/or under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14)." (See Compl. at 2.) This
20	Court lacks jurisdiction to issue a declaratory judgment "with respect to Federal taxes other than actions
22	brought under section 7428 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986," a code section that is not at issue in the
23	instant action. See 28 U.S.C. §2201; see also Hughes v. United States, 953 F.2d. 531, 536-537 (9th Cir. 1991)
24	(affirming dismissal of claim for declaratory relief under § 2201 where claim concerned question of tax liability).
25	Accordingly, defendant's motion to dismiss is hereby GRANTED, and the instant action is hereby DISMISSED.
26	[Rowen v. U.S., 05-3766MMC. (N.D.Cal. 11/02/2005)]
27	The implications of the above are that:
28	1. The federal courts have no lawful delegated authority to determine or declare whether you are a "taxpayer".
29	2. If federal courts cannot directly declare you a "taxpayer", then they also cannot do it indirectly by, for instance:
	2.1. Presuming that you are a "taxpayer". This is a violation of due process of law that renders a void judgment.
30	Presumptions are not evidence and may not serve as a SUBSTITUTE for evidence.
32	2.2. Calling you a "taxpayer" before you have called yourself one.
33	2.3. Arguing with or penalizing you if you rebut others from calling you a "taxpayer".
34 35	2.4. Quoting case law as authority relating to "taxpayers" against a "nontaxpayer". That's FRAUD and it also violates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).
36	2.5. Quoting case law from a franchise court in the Executive rather than Judicial branch such as the U.S. Tax Court
37	against those who are not franchisees called "taxpayers".
38	2.6. Treating you as a "taxpayer" if you provide evidence to the contrary by enforcing any provision of the I.R.C.
39	Subtitle A "taxpayer" franchise agreement against you as a "nontaxpayer".
40	"Revenue Laws relate to taxpayers [instrumentalities, officers, employees, and elected officials of the national
41	Government] and not to non-taxpayers [non-resident non-persons domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of
42	a state of the Union and not subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the national Government]. The latter are
43	without their scope. No procedures are prescribed for non-taxpayers and no attempt is made to annul any of
44	their Rights or Remedies in due course of law."
45	[Economy Plumbing & Heating v. U.S., 470 F.2d. 585 (1972)]
46	Authorities supporting the above include the following:
47	"It is almost unnecessary to say, that what the legislature cannot do directly, it cannot do indirectly. The stream
48	can mount no higher than its source. The legislature cannot create corporations with illegal powers, nor grant
49	unconstitutional powers to those already granted."

We do not claim our methods or processes make people "exempt". Please do not confuse "exempt" with "excluded". Below is an excerpt from our Member Agreement proving this:

- 38 SEDM Member Agreement
 - 1.1 My Status and Standing

13. By seeking the information and services of SEDM, I do not seek to "exempt" my earnings from taxation or to reduce my existing tax liability as a "taxpayer" through deductions or exemptions, but rather to EXCLUDE earnings that never were subject to taxation to begin with under 26 U.S.C. §872(b). In that sense, I am not seeking a "tax shelter", which is a device used by a statutory "taxpayer" to REDUCE an existing liability. Pursuant to 26 C.F.R. §1.6662-4(b)(2)(ii), neither SEDM nor I can therefore be subject to accuracy related penalties for tax shelters.

		"Initially, it is important to bear in mind the distinction between a tax exclusion and a tax exemption. Tax exemptions are items which the tax payer is entitled to excuse from the operation of a tax and, as such, are to be strictly construed against the tax payer. Tax exclusions, on the other hand, are items which were not intended to be taxed in the first place and, thus, to the extent there is any doubt about the meaning of the statutory language, exclusionary provisions are to be strictly construed against the taxing body. In fact, tax laws in general (with the exception of exemption clauses) are construed in favor of the tax payer and against imposition of the tax unless the legislative intent is clear and unambiguous."

1.	Not	domiciled on federal territory and not representing a corporate or governmental office that is so domiciled under
	Fede	ral Rule of Civil Procedure 17. See Form #05.002 for details.
2.		engaged in a public office within any government. This includes the civil office of "person", "individual",

4.	Obli	gations and Rights in relation to Governments:
	4.1.	Waives any and all privileges and immunities of any civil status and all rights or "entitlements" to receive "benefits" or "civil services" from any government. It is a maxim of law that REAL de jure governments (Form #05.043) MUST give you the right to not receive or be eligible to receive "benefits" of any kind. See Form
		#05.040 for a description of the SCAM of abusing "benefits" to destroy sovereignty. The reason is because they MUST guarantee your right to be self-governing and self-supporting:
		Invito beneficium non datur.
		No one is oblight to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be

	4.2.	Because they are not in receipt of or eligible to receive property or benefits from the government, they owe no
		CIVIL STATUTORY obligations to that government or any STATUTORY "citizen" or STATUTORY

- 4.3. Because they owe no statutory civil obligations, the definition of "justice" REQUIRES that they MUST be left alone by the government. See Form #05.050 for a description of "justice".

- 5.1. STATUTORY "citizen" and "resident" are PUBLIC OFFICES and fictions of law within the national government and not human beings. Whenever CIVIL STATUTORY obligations (Form #12.040) attach to a civil status (Form #13.008) such as "citizen", "resident", or "person", then the civil or legal status has to be voluntary or else unconstitutional involuntary servitude is the result in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment. President Obama even admitted that "citizen" is a public office in his Farewell Address. See SEDM Exhibit #01.018 for proof. You have a RIGHT to not be an officer of the government WITHOUT even PAY! They even make you PAY for the privilege with income taxation, because the tax is imposed upon STATUTORY "citizen" and "resident" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(a). Who else can institute SLAVERY like that and why can't you do that to THEM if we are all REALLY equal (Form #05.033) as the Constitution requires?
 - 5.2. Does NOT identify as a STATUTORY "citizen" (8 U.S.C. §1401 and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c)), "resident" (alien under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A)), "U.S. citizen" (not defined in any statute), "U.S. resident" (not defined in any statute), or "U.S. person" (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30)).
 - 5.3. Identifies themself as a "national" per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) and per common law by virtue of birth or naturalization within the CONSTITUTIONAL "United States".
 - 5.4. Is NOT an "alien individual" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) because a "national" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) or "U.S. national" under 22 C.F.R. §51.1 owing allegiance to a state of the Union and not the national or federal government. Thus, they are not subject to the presence test under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b) and may not lawfully be kidnapped into exclusive national government jurisdiction as a privileged alien "resident" or have a privileged "residence" (26 C.F.R. §1.871-2(b)) within the EITHER the statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. $\frac{87701}{(a)}(9)$ and (a)(10) or "United States*" the COUNTRY in 26 C.F.R. $\frac{8301.7701(b)-1}{(c)}(2)$.
- 5.5. Is legislatively but not constitutionally "foreign" and "alien" to the national government by virtue of not having a domicile (for nationals under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21)) or "residence" (for "alien individuals" under 26 C.F.R. $1.871-2(b)) within the exclusive legislative jurisdiction of the national government. The words "foreign" and "alien" by themselves are NOT defined within the Internal Revenue Code. This is MALICIOUSLY deliberate so as to DECEIVE the American public in states of the Union into FALSELY declaring a domicile or residence within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government. By using "and subject to ITS jurisdiction" after the word "citizen" in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c), the average American in states of the Union is deceived using equivocation into VOLUNTEERING for a civil STATUTORY office under the Secretary of the Treasury called "citizen" and "resident" subject to exclusive national government jurisdiction. The "citizen" in this regulation is NOT the POLITICAL citizen mentioned in the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, but a STATUTORY citizen legislatively created and owned by Congress and thus a PRIVILEGE. Those in states of the Union who have neither a domicile nor residence within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government and are not "subject to ITS jurisdiction" and who FALSELY CLAIM on a government form (Form #12.023) such as a W-9 that they are STATUTORY "U.S. persons" have in practical effect VOLUNTEERED to become privileged STATUTORY "taxpayers" and uncompensated officers of the national government EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD who are on duty 24 hours a day, 7 days a week per 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(a)! The corrupt, covetous government WANTS this process of volunteering to be invisible in order to VICTIMIZE the Americans into becoming surety to pay off an endless mountain of public debt that there is NO LIMIT on. That's criminal peonage in violation of 18 U.S.C. $1581 if you knew you could unvolunteer and aren't allowed to. It's also criminal human trafficking. You can't UNVOLUNTEER and leave the system until you know HOW you volunteered in the first place. See "Hot Issues: Invisible Consent*" for details on how your consent was procured INVISIBLY. That process of volunteering to pay income tax that state nationals don't owe is exhaustively described in: How State Nationals Volunteer to Pay Income Tax, Form #08.024; https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/HowYouVolForIncomeTax.pdf.

46 Earnings originate from outside: 6. 47

- 6.1. The STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) (federal zone) and 6.2. The U.S. government federal corporation as a privileged legal fiction.
- 49 Thus, their earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from "gross income" under 26 U.S.C. §871 50 and are a "foreign estate" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(31). See 26 U.S.C. §872 and 26 C.F.R. §1.872-2(f) and 26 C.F.R. 51 §1.871-7(a)(4) and 26 U.S.C. §861(a)(3)(C)(i) for proof. 52
- Earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from STATUTORY "wages" as defined in 26 U.S.C. 53 7. §3401(a) because all services performed outside the STATUTORY "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. 54 §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) (federal zone) and the CORPORATION "United States" as a legal fiction. Therefore, not 55 subject to "wage" withholding of any kind for such services per: 56
 - 7.1. 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(a)(6)-1(b) in the case of income tax.

- 7.2. 26 C.F.R. $31.3121(b)-3(c)(1) in the case of Social Security.
- Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting under: 8.
- 8.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(b)(5)(i).
- 8.2. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(e)(1)(ii)(A)(1).
- 8.3. 26 C.F.R. §1.6041-4(a)(1).

- 9. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from backup withholding because earnings are not reportable by 26 6 U.S.C. §3406 and 26 C.F.R. §31.3406(g)-1(e). Only "reportable payments" are subject to such withholding.
 - 10. Because they are EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting and therefore withholding, they have no "taxable income".
 - 10.1. Only reportable income is taxable.
 - 10.2. There is NO WAY provided within the Internal Revenue Code to make earnings not connected to a statutory "trade or business"/public office (Form #05.001) under 26 U.S.C. §6041 reportable.
 - 10.3. The only way to make earnings of a nonresident alien not engaged in the "trade or business" franchise taxable under 26 U.S.C. §871(a) is therefore only when the PAYOR is lawfully engaged in a "trade or business" but the PAYEE is not. This situation would have to involve the U.S. government ONLY and not private parties in the states of the Union. The information returns would have to be a Form 1042s. It is a crime under 18 U.S.C. §91 for a private party to occupy a public office or to impersonate a public office, and Congress cannot establish public offices within the exclusive jurisdiction of the states of the Union to tax them, according to the License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 68 S.Ct. 331 (1866).
- 11. Continue to be a "national of the United States*" (Form #05.006) and not lose their CONSTITUTIONAL citizenship 20 while filing form 1040NR. See 26 U.S.C. §873(b)(3). They do NOT need to "expatriate" their nationality to file as a 21 "nonresident alien" and will not satisfy the conditions in 26 U.S.C. §877 (expatriation to avoid tax). Expatriation is loss 22 of NATIONALITY, and NOT loss of STATUTORY "citizen" status under 8 U.S.C. §1401. 23
- 12. If they submit the SEDM Form W-8SUB, Form #04.231 to control withholding and revoke their Form W-4, then they: 12.1. Can submit SSA Form 7008 to correct your SSA earnings to zero them out. See SEDM Form #06.042. 25
 - 12.2. Can use IRS Form 843 to request a full refund or abatement of all FICA and Medicare taxes withheld if the employer or business associate continues to file W-2 forms or withhold against your wishes. See SEDM Form #06.044.
- 13. Are eligible to replace the SSN with a TEMPORARY International Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) that 29 expires AUTOMATICALLY every year and is therefore NOT permanent and changes. If you previously applied for an 30 SSN and were ineligible to participate, you can terminate the SSN and replace it with the ITIN. If you can't prove you 31 were ineligible for Social Security, then they will not allow you to replace the SSN with an ITIN. See: 32

- 14. Must file the paper version of IRS Form 1040NR, because there are no electronic online providers that automate the 40 preparation of the form or allow you to attach the forms necessary to submit a complete and accurate return that correctly reflects your status. This is in part because the IRS doesn't want to make it easy or convenient to leave their 42 slave plantation.

6 7	They are "non-persons" BY VIRTUE of not benefiting from any civil statutory privilege and therefore being "PRIVATE". By "privilege", we mean ANY of the things described in 5 U.S.C. 553 (a)(2):
8	5 U.S. Code § 553 - Rule making
9	(a)This section applies, according to the provisions thereof, except to the extent that there is involved—
10	[]
11	(2) a matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or
12	contracts.
13 14	The above items all have in common that they are PROPERTY coming under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution that is loaned or possessed or granted temporarily to a human being with legal strings attached. Thus, Congress has direct
14	legislative jurisdiction not only over the property itself, but over all those who USE, BENEFIT FROM, or HAVE such
16	property physically in their custody or within their temporary control. We remind the reader that Congress enjoys control over their own property NO MATTER WHERE it physically is, including states of the Union, and that it is the MAIN source
17	of their legislative jurisdiction within the exclusive jurisdiction of Constitutional states of the Union!:
18	of their registrative jurisdiction within the exclusive jurisdiction of Constitutional states of the Onion.
10	United States Constitution
19 20	Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2
20
21	The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory
22	or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to
23	Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.
25	"The Constitution permits Congress to dispose of and to make all needful rules and regulations respecting
26	the territory or other property belonging to the United States. This power applies as well to territory
27	belonging to the United States within the States, as beyond them. It comprehends all the public domain,
28 29	wherever it may be. The argument is, that the power to make 'ALL needful rules and regulations' 'is a power of legislation,' 'a full legislative power;' 'that it includes all subjects of legislation in the territory,'
29 30	and is without any limitations, except the positive prohibitions which affect all the powers of Congress.
31	Congress may then regulate or prohibit slavery upon the public domain within the new States, and such a
32	prohibition would permanently affect the capacity of a slave, whose master might carry him to it. And why not?
33	Because no power has been conferred on Congress. This is a conclusion universally admitted. But the power to
34	'make rules and regulations respecting the territory' is not restrained by State lines, nor are there any
35	constitutional prohibitions upon its exercise in the domain of the United States within the States; and
36	whatever rules and regulations respecting territory Congress may constitutionally make are supreme, and
37 38	are not dependent on the situs of 'the territory.'" [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393, 509-510 (1856)]
39	By property, we mean all the things listed in 5 U.S.C. $$553$ (a)(2) such as SSNs (property of the government per 20 C.F.R.
40	§422.103(d)), contracts (which are property), physical property, chattel property, "benefits", "offices", civil statuses,
41	privileges, civil statutory remedies, etc. A "public office" is, after all, legally defined as someone in charge of the PROPERTY
42	of the "public",
	1 /
43	" Public office . The right, authority, and duty created and conferred by law, by which for a given period, either
44	fixed by law or enduring at the pleasure of the creating power, an individual is invested with some portion of the
45	sovereign functions of government for the benefit of the public. Walker v. Rich, 79 Cal.App. 139, 249 P. 56, 58.
46	An agency for the state, the duties of which involve in their performance the exercise of some portion of the
47	sovereign power, either great or small. Yaselli v. Goff, C.C.A., 12 F.2d. 396, 403, 56 A.L.R. 1239; Lacey v. State,
48	13 Ala.App. 212, 68 So. 706, 710; Curtin v. State, 61 Cal.App. 377, 214 P. 1030, 1035; Shelmadine v. City of

50 51	P.2d. 483, 486. Where, by virtue of law, a person is clothed, not as an incidental or transient authority, but for such time as de- notes duration and continuance, with Independent power to control the property of
51 52	the public, or with public functions to be exercised in the supposed interest of the people, the service to be

1	compensated by a stated yearly salary, and the occupant having a designation or title, the position so created is
2	a public office. State v. Brennan, 49 Ohio.St. 33, 29 N.E. 593.
3	[Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1235]

Even the public office ITSELF is property of the national government, so those claiming any civil statutory status are claiming a civil office within the government. It is otherwise unconstitutional to regulate private property or private rights. The only way you can surrender your private status is to voluntarily adopt an office or civil status or the "benefits", "rights", or privileges attaching to said office or status, as we prove in:

What Congress is doing is abusing its own property to in effect create "de facto public offices" within the government, in violation of 4 U.S.C. ³⁷², as is proven in:

Challenge to Income Tax Enforcement Authority Within Constitutional States of the Union, Form #05.052 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-Memlaw/ChallengeToIRSEnforcementAuth.pdf

This is how we describe the reason why people should avoid privileges and thereby avoid possession, custody, use, or benefit" of government/public property on the opening page of our site:

> "People of all races, genders, political beliefs, sexual orientations, and nearly all religions are welcome here. All are treated equally under REAL "law". The only way to remain truly free and equal under the civil law is to avoid seeking government civil services, benefits, property, special or civil status, exemptions, privileges, or special treatment. All such pursuits of government services or property require individual and lawful consent to a franchise and the surrender of inalienable constitutional rights AND EQUALITY in the process, and should therefore be AVOIDED. The rights and equality given up are the "cost" of procuring the "benefit" or property from the government, in fact. Nothing in life is truly "free". Anyone who claims that such "benefits" or property should be free and cost them nothing is a thief who wants to use the government as a means to STEAL on his or her behalf. All just rights spring from responsibilities/obligations under the laws of a higher power. If that higher power is God, you can be truly and objectively free. If it is government, you are guaranteed to be a slave because they can lawfully set the cost of their property as high as they want as a Merchant under the U.C.C. If you want it really bad from people with a monopoly, then you will get it REALLY bad. Bend over. There are NO constitutional limits on the price government can charge for their monopoly services or property. Those who want no responsibilities can have no real/PRIVATE rights, but only privileges dispensed to wards of the state which are disguised to LOOK like unalienable rights. Obligations and rights are two sides of the same coin, just like self-ownership and personal responsibility. For the biblical version of this paragraph, read 1 Sam. 8:10-22. For the reason God answered Samuel by telling him to allow the people to have a king, read Deut. 28:43-51, which is God's curse upon those who allow a king above them. Click Here (https://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/HowScCorruptOurRepubGovt.htm) for a detailed description of the legal, moral, and spiritual consequences of violating this paragraph." [SEDM Opening Page; http://sedm.org]

"Non-resident Non-Person" or "non-person" are synonymous with "transient foreigner", "in transitu", and "stateless" (in relation to the national government). We invented this term. The term does not appear in federal statutes because statutes cannot even define things or people who are not subject to them and therefore foreign and sovereign. The term "nonindividual" used on this site is equivalent to and a synonym for "non-person" on this site, even though STATUTORY "individuals" are a SUBSET of "persons" within the Internal Revenue Code. Likewise, the term "private human" is also synonymous with "non-person". Hence, a "non-person":

- Retains their sovereign immunity. They do not waive it under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), 28
 U.S.C. Chapter 97 or the longarm statutes of the state they occupy.
- 2. Is protected by the United States Constitution and not federal statutory civil law.
- May not have federal statutory civil law cited against them. If they were, a violation of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17 and a constitutional tort would result if they were physically present on land protected by the United States Constitution within the exterior limits of states of the Union.
- 4. Is on an equal footing with the United States government in court. "Persons" would be on an UNEQUAL, INFERIOR, and subservient level if they were subject to federal territorial law.
- Don't expect vain public servants to willingly admit that there is such a thing as a human "non-person" who satisfies the above criteria because it would undermine their systematic and treasonous plunder and enslavement of people they are supposed to be protecting. However, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that the "right to be left alone" is the purpose of the constitution. Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438. A so-called "government" that refuses to leave you alone or respect or protect your sovereignty and equality in relation to them is no government at all and has violated the purpose of its creation described in the Declaration of Independence. Furthermore, anyone from the national or state government who refuses to enforce this status, or who imputes or enforces any status OTHER than this status under any law system other than the common law is:
- 1. "Purposefully availing themselves" of commerce within OUR jurisdiction.
- STEALING, where the thing being STOLEN are the public rights associated with the statutory civil "status" they are presuming we have but never expressly consented to have.

- Engaging in criminal identity theft, because the civil status is associated with a domicile in a place we are not 3. physically in and do not consent to a civil domicile in. 2
- 4. Consenting to our Member Agreement. 3
- 5. Waiving official, judicial, and sovereign immunity. 4
- 6. Acting in a private and personal capacity beyond the statutory jurisdiction of their government employer. 5
- Compelling us to contract with the state under the civil statutory "social compact". 7. 6
- 8. Interfering with our First Amendment right to freely and civilly DISASSOCIATE with the state. 7
- 9. Engaged in a constitutional tort. 8

If freedom and self-ownership or "ownership" in general means anything at all, it means the right to deny any and all others, 9 including governments, the ability to use or benefit in any way from our body, our exclusively owned private property, and 10 our labor. 11

"We have repeatedly held that, as to property reserved by its owner for private use, "the right to exclude [others 12 is] `one of the most essential sticks in the bundle of rights that are commonly characterized as property.' "Loretto 13 v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419, 433 (1982), quoting Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 14 U.S. 164, 176 (1979). " 15 [Nollan v. California Coastal Comm'n, 483 U.S. 825 (1987)] 16 17 "In this case, we hold that the "right to exclude," so universally held to be a fundamental element of the property 18 right,[11] falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without compensation. 19 20 [Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979)] 21 FOOTNOTES: 22 [11] See, e. g., United States v. Pueblo of San Ildefonso, 206 Ct.Cl. 649, 669-670, 513 F.2d. 1383, 1394 (1975); 23 United States v. Lutz, 295 F.2d. 736, 740 (CA5 1961). As stated by Mr. Justice Brandeis, "[a]n essential element 24 of individual property is the legal right to exclude others from enjoying it." ANSWER: Yes, in the context of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. QUESTION: Were you born in a foreign country?

ANSWER: No. See block 2 of the W-8SUB, Form #04.231.

3. QUESTION: Do you have a foreign passport?

ANSWER: No. See block 9 of the W-8SUB, Form #04.231. The states of the Union are legislatively but not constitutionally "foreign" with respect to the national government due to the separation of powers, but they don't issue their own unique passports. Some used to.

4. QUESTION: How can you be a "nonresident alien" if you were born in a state of the Union?

ANSWER: 22 C.F.R. §51.1 identifies everyone eligible to receive a USA passport such as people in constitutional states of the Union as "U.S. nationals". The IRS website says "U.S. nationals" are "nonresident aliens":

- 4.1. Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M), Section 3.38.147.2 and 3.38.147.3.1 through 3.38.147.3.12 discusses "international taxpayers" and "nonresident aliens"; https://www.irs.gov/irm/part3/irm_03-038-147r#idm139636844616640.
- 4.2. I.R.M. 3.38.147.3.1(10) INCORRECTLY defines all "nonresident aliens" as including only aliens. HOWEVER, the IRS Form 1040NR instructions at I.R.M. 3.38.147.3.3 (01-01-2022), 3.38.147.3.4 (01-01-2020), 3.38.147.3.5 (11-19-2019), and 3.38.147.8.3.1 (01-01-2022) identify "U.S. nationals" as "nonresident aliens".
- 4.3. Further, the IRS Form 1040NR for years 1984 through 2017 itself recognized Americans living abroad in Mexico and Canada as "U.S. nationals". See:
 - Tax Return History: Citizenship, https://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Citizenship/TaxReturnHistory-Citizenship.htm
- 4.4. I.R.M. 3.38.147.3.1(1) and 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) identify an "alien individual" as someone who is NEITHER a "citizen" nor a "national". "U.S. nationals" from states of the Union do not satisfy this criterion and therefore are not "aliens" within the Internal Revenue Code for the purposes of withholding. This also proves that the definition of "nonresident alien" in I.R.M. 3.38.147.3.1(10) is incomplete and needs to have "U.S. nationals"
 ADDED to it. I think IRS incorrectly defines "nonresident alien" on their website to DECEIVE the average American into filing the WRONG tax return, the 1040, which makes them a WORLDWIDE SLAVE to pay off public debt in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.
- 49 5. QUESTION: How can you be a "foreign person" if you live and/or were born in the United States?
- 50 ANSWER: The statutory geographical definition of "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) does not expressly include states of the Union. Most people falsely presume that the geographical "United States" in the context of the Internal Revenue Code includes states of the Union. The geographical term "United States" in the context of the constitution and the term "United States" as used in the Internal Revenue Code are not equivalent and mutually exclusive. We refer to these respectively as the CONSTITUTIONAL "United States" and the STATUTORY "United States". EACH of these two is legislatively "foreign" with respect to the OTHER because of the separation of powers. The term "United States" can also be used to refer to the government, but I'm not consensually serving within that context as a statutory "employee" or officer 1 in the context of this transaction either per 5 U.S.C. §2105. See Tex-Air Helicopters, Inc. v. Galveston County Appraisal 2 Review Board, 76 S.W.3d. 575, 585 (Tex. App. 2002) as an example of interpreting terms in their "legal context" instead of 3 their geographical context. Those who (1) are NOT domiciled within or consensually doing business within the geographical 4 "United States", or (2) who DO NOT have "effectively connected" earnings from WITHIN the "United States" federal 5 corporation as an officer but who NEVERTHELESS mistakenly CLAIM that either they or their earnings are from this place 6 or fictional corporation on a tax form, by default are, through their usually legally ignorant actions, effectively donating their 7 earnings to a public office, public use, and public purpose as a result, often unknowingly. The result is that such earnings are 8 "effectively connected" to the voluntary "trade or business" excise taxable franchise. I just don't happen to be someone 9 STUPID enough to do that and shouldn't be punished or denied an account or a business opportunity for not being STUPID. 10 And such a mistake by most people in doing this, by the way, doesn't constitute "CONSENT" as legally defined either, so 11 it's not really a lawful conversion from PRIVATE to PUBLIC in such a case either. See: 12

15 The "Trade or Business" Scam

16 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/TradeOrBusScam.pdf.

17 6. QUESTION: Isn't a "nonresident alien" just an "alien" who is "nonresident"?

ANSWER: Absolutely not! "Nonresident alien" is legally described but NOT "defined" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) as 18 "neither a citizen of the United States nor a resident of the United States (within the meaning of subparagraph (A))". That 19 description describes what a "nonresident alien" is NOT, but not what it IS, so its not a legal definition. What STATUTORY 20 "citizens and residents" have in common is a domicile within the STATUTORY geographical "United States" defined in 26 21 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) as federal territory not within the exclusive jurisdiction of any 22 constitutional state of the Union. 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) is a DESCRIPTION rather than a LEGAL DEFINITION because 23 a real legal definition would EXPRESSLY list all things that are included and the Rules of Statutory Construction and 24 Interpretation would exclude everything NOT expressly listed. The reason they don't provide a real LEGAL DEFINITION 25 of "nonresident alien" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) is because they don't want the average American to realize that they TOO 26 are included in the definition. There are lots of things listed on the 1040NR return NOT INCLUDED in the description of 27 "nonresident alien" at 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) and those are permitted, as a national born in state of the Union. Financial 28 institutions and companies have NO LEGAL AUTHORITY make up their own definition of "nonresident alien" and they 29 must use this statutory description provided. If they don't observe this limitation, then they are, in effect, exercising legislative 30 functions reserved ONLY to the LEGISLATIVE BRANCH in violation of the separation of powers doctrine, and worst yet, 31 doing so as a NON-GOVERNMENTAL entity. Since "nationals" such as those born in constitutional states are not 32 purposefully excluded and since the description in 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B) is NOT a legal definition, financial institutions 33 and companies cannot arbitrarily exclude these things. 34

- There are four possible citizenship statuses one can have: alien, national, citizen, and resident. The first two are a product of 35 birth and are found in the CONSTITUTION in the case of states of the Union. The last two are a product of CHOICE and 36 CONSENT and are STATUTORY. Those who consent to NOTHING in terms of government become either "aliens" or 37 "nationals", both of which are a product of BIRTH rather than CHOICE. Everyone born in a country is a "national" of that 38 country, whether they want to be or not. When you get a passport, in fact, you can't get one WITHOUT "allegiance" as 39 required to 22 U.S.C. §212, and the citizenship status associated with ONLY ALLEGIANCE and NOT CHOICE is that of a 40 "national", which is described in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21). A U.S.A. passport is legal evidence of NATIONALITY and 41 "NATIONAL" status, not STATUTORY "citizen" status under the Internal Revenue Code at 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c). The 42 "citizen" mentioned in this regulation is, in fact, a STATUTORY citizen (territorial), not a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen born 43 in a state of the Union under the Fourteenth Amendment and the original constitution. 44
- 45 7. QUESTION: Doesn't the presence test make you a "resident" because it includes states of the Union and your address is 46 or might be within a constitutional state of the Union?
- ANSWER: The presence test located at 26 U.S.C. §7701(b) only pertains to "ALIEN INDIVIDUALS" (meaning people who are NEITHER STATUTORY "citizen" nor "nationals"), which this submission clearly proves that I am not as someone born in a constitutional state who is a "national" per 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) and a "U.S. national" per 22 C.F.R. §51.1 such as myself. In the case of aliens ONLY for the purposes of the PRESENCE TEST ONLY, the geographical "United States" includes states of the Union. This is recognized in 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(c)(2), which says of "ALIEN INDIVIDUALS"

 ONLY and not "nationals" or people born in the country the following:

26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(c)(2) 3 (2) Determination of presence-4 (i) Physical presence. 5 For purposes of the substantial presence test, an [alien per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)] individual shall be treated as 6 present in the United States on any day that he or she is physically present in the United States at any time during the day. (But see §301.7701(b)-3 relating to days of presence that may be excluded.) 8 (ii) United States. 9 For purposes of section 7701(b) and the regulations thereunder, the term United States when used in a 10 geographical sense includes the states and the District of Columbia. It also includes the territorial waters of 11 the United States and the seabed and subsoil of those submarine areas which are adjacent to the territorial 12 waters of the United States and over which the United States has exclusive rights, in accordance with 13 international law, with respect to the exploration and exploitation of natural resources. It does not include 14 the possessions and territories of the United States or the air space over the United States. 15 The statutory geographical definition of "United States" at 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) and 4 U.S.C. §110(d) supersedes 16 this for all purposes OTHER than the presence test. 17 8. QUESTION: Prove to me as simply as possible that the STATUTORY "citizen" mentioned in the Internal Revenue Code 18 (26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c)) is not a Fourteenth Amendment "citizen of the United States" (states of the Union ONLY) 19 ANSWER: Evidence in support: 20 8.1. For STATUTORY purposes, "citizen" is always geographical rather than political. This is because the statutes 21 only apply to those domiciled in the forum per Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) and domicile is always 22 geographical and never political. 23 8.2. The ONLY STATUTORY definition of "U.S. citizen" at 26 U.S.C. §3121(e) does not include states of the Union. 24 Per the rules of statutory construction and interpretation, they are therefore PURPOSEFULLY EXCLUDED. 25 8.3. The regulation imposing the income tax at 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) does not mention the Fourteenth Amendment, and 26 thus purposefully excludes CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens of the United States (states of the Union ONLY per the 27 rules of statutory construction. 28 8.4. Since the liability to tax under 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) attaches to the civil statutory status of "citizen" and "resident", 29 and slavery is a criminal offense and a violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, the thing liable described in that 30 regulation cannot be a human being, but an office within the national government created by act of Congress and 31 property of Congress. The U.S. Supreme Court acknowledged that the office of "citizen" is an AGENT of the 32 government: "Under either system, the term used is designed to apply to man in his individual character and to his 33 natural capacities -- to a being or agent [PUBLIC OFFICER!] possessing social and political rights and 34 sustaining social, political, and moral obligations. It is in this acceptation only, therefore, that the term 35 'citizen', in the article of the Constitution, can be received and understood." Rundle v. Delaware & Raritan 36 Canal Company, 55 U.S. 80, 99 (1852). Being a STATUTORY "citizen" is a PRIVILEGE that must be 37 VOLUNTARY or else slavery and theft are the result. That fact is acknowledged by the U.S. Supreme Court as 38 follows: "The citizen cannot complain, because he has voluntarily submitted himself to such a form of 39 government." United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542 (1875). It can't be voluntary unless there is a way to 40 UNVOLUNTEER or remove consent. By removing consent to the PRIVILEGE and BENEFIT of STATUTORY 41 "citizen" status, we unvolunteer. To be subject to the obligations of the office of STATUTORY "citizen" in 26 42 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c), one must therefore VOLUNTEER, and I choose NOT to volunteer. I therefore avoid the civil 43 statutory privileges, "benefits", and corresponding civil obligations attached to the office of "citizen" and fall back to 44 a mere unprivileged "U.S. national" by doing so. The corrupt and covetous government doesn't WANT you to 45 unvolunteer, but they have to give you this option or else they cease to act consistent with the Constitution and 46 implement slavery and human trafficking. 47 8.5. The regulation imposing the income tax at 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) QUALIFIES the TYPE of POLITICAL "citizen" it 48 mentions as "subject to ITS jurisdiction" rather than: 49 a. "Subject to THEIR jurisdiction" (states of the Union) as the constitution does in the Thirteenth Amendment. 50 b. "subject to THE jurisdiction" (political jurisdiction) as used in the Fourteenth Amendment and by the U.S. 51 Supreme Court in U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649, 18 S.Ct. 456, 42 L.Ed. 890 (1898). 52 The only way one can be "subject to ITS jurisdiction" is to: (1) be physically present on federal territory or; (2) to 53

ACTUALLY and LAWFULLY work for the government as a public officer and statutory "employee" per 5 U.S.C. §2105. Thus, it uses the statutory geographical "United States" defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) as the locality this "citizen" is domiciled (as a national), physically present (as an ALIEN/foreign national), or working WITHIN as a fiction of law or public officer. That locality, in turn, can only be within the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government and not within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state. The CONSTITUTIONAL "United States" includes states of the Union and excludes territory under the exclusive jurisdiction of the national government. These two CIVIL jurisdictions can NEVER overlap because of the separation of powers at the heart of the constitution. See: Why the Fourteenth Amendment is Not a Threat to Your Freedom, Form #08.015; https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/FourteenthAmendNotProb.pdf.

- 8.6. The regulation imposing the income tax at 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) references 8 U.S.C. §1401-1459 for the meaning of "citizen". Title 8 of the U.S. Code only addresses territorial citizens, not constitutional citizens. NOWHERE in Title 8 of the U.S. Code is the Fourteenth Amendment even mentioned.
- 8.7. Among the few remaining statutory "citizens" at this time are those from Puerto Rico, but even THESE STATUTORY "U.S. citizens" (under 8 U.S.C. §1401 and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c)) are identified in 26 U.S.C. §2209 as "nonresident not a citizen of the United States" and therefore "nonresident aliens" also!

8.8. The D.C. Circuit court indicated that statutes aren't even necessary and that the Constitution alone is sufficient for determining citizenship of those not born in exclusive federal jurisdiction. Recall that the Constitution is "self-executing" and needs no statutes to enforce. City of Boerne v. Flores, 521 U.S. 507 (1997). "Finally, this Court is mindful of the years of past practice in which territorial citizenship has been treated as a statutory [PRIVILEGE! 8 U.S.C. §1401], and not a constitutional, right [Fourteenth Amendment]. In the unincorporated territories of Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands, birthright citizenship was conferred upon their inhabitants by various statutes many years after the United States acquired them. See Amicus Br. at 10-11. If the Citizenship Clause [of the Fourteenth Amendment]

- guaranteed birthright citizenship in unincorporated territories, these statutes [8 U.S.C. §1401-1459 mentioned in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c)] would have been unnecessary." Tuaua v. U.S.A. 951 F.Supp.2d. 88 (2013).
- 8.9. The following document PROVES that the "citizen" and "resident" made "liable TO" rather than "liable FOR" the income tax in 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c) can ONLY be an office within the Department of the Treasury serving under the Secretary of the Treasury and therefore NOT ONLY the parties described 8 U.S.C. §1401. See:

- a. Those born in the COUNTRY "United States" (nationals) who have no domicile in the statutory geographical "United States", which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701 (a)(9) and (a)(10) as the District of Columbia and NO part of any state of the Union. This geographical area is referred to in 18 U.S.C. §7 as "special maritime jurisdiction". OR
- b. Aliens (foreign nationals) who have no "residence" in the COUNTRY United States. By "residence", I mean the ABODE of a foreign national from another country while visiting any part of the COUNTRY "United States" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b) and 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(c)(2). 26 C.F.R. §1.871-2 says that ONLY "alien individuals" (foreign nationals) can have a "residence". STATUTORY "citizens" therefore cannot be statutory "individuals" or "resident" while present anywhere in the COUNTRY because they are NOT subject to the "presence test" found in 26 U.S.C.
- ⁵² §7701(b) and 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(c)(2).

The most OBVIOUS evidence that "alien" doesn't mean what most people erroneously think of as someone born in a foreign 1 country is found in the IRS instructions on preparing the 1040NR return, which also acknowledge "U.S. nationals". In 2 common English, an "alien" is classically defined, however, as someone who is a FOREIGN national born in another country. 3

That is also the definition in 26 C.F.R. 1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) for "alien individuals", in fact, which defines it as someone who is 4

NEITHER a "citizen nor a national". This anomaly of putting "alien" in the term "nonresident alien" while ALSO including 5

"U.S. nationals" in that category is what got us interested in this subject to begin with. 6

Let me explain further: Income tax described in Title 26, Subtitles A and C is based ENTIRELY on DOMICILE (for nationals) or RESIDENCE (for aliens), and not NATIONALITY. The U.S. Supreme Court recognized this in Lawrence v. 8 State Tax Commission, 286 U.S. 276 (1932) when it held: "The obligation of one domiciled within a state to pay taxes 9 there, arises from unilateral action of the state government in the exercise of the most plenary of sovereign powers, that 10 to raise revenue to defray the expenses of government and to distribute its burdens equably among those who enjoy its benefits. Hence, domicile in itself establishes a basis for taxation. Enjoyment of the privileges of residence within the state, and the attendant right to invoke the protection of its laws, are inseparable from the responsibility for sharing the costs of 13 government. See Fidelity & Columbia Trust Co. v. Louisville, 245 U.S. 54, 58; Maguire v. Trefry, 253 U.S. 12, 14, 17; 14 Kirtland v. Hotchkiss, 100 U.S. 491, 498; Shaffer v. Carter, 252 U.S. 37, 50." State courts have added to this ruling that 15 a national born in the "United States" the COUNTRY could escape income taxation ENTIRELY simply by not 16 declaring a voluntary domicile! See Barhydt v. Cross, 156 Iowa 271 (1912). 17

The federal income tax behaves as the equivalent of a state income tax for the District of Columbia and its 18 STATUTORY (territorial) but not CONSTITUTIONAL (Fourteenth Amendment) citizens as held by the U.S. 19 Supreme Court in Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901). In that case, the Supreme Court held: "It was insisted that 20 Congress could act in a double capacity: in one as legislating [182 U.S. 244, 260] for the states; in the other as a local 21 legislature for the District of Columbia. In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levying direct taxes might 22 be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could not legislate 23 for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and excises,' which 'shall 24 be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the United States [described in the 25 Constitution]. It was held that the grant of this power was a general one without limitation as to place, and consequently 26 extended to all places over which the government extends; and that it extended to the District of Columbia as a constituent 27 part of the United States." This case is the very reason the term "United States" is defined geographically as the District of 28 Columbia ONLY 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10). 29

Consistent with the above, the terms "alien" or "foreign" alone are NOWHERE defined in the Internal Revenue Code. 30 "domestic" is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(4) relative to a corporation or partnership only as being organized under the 31 laws of the exclusive jurisdiction of a STATUTORY "State" or the STATUTORY geographical "United States" and not a 32 constitutional state. IRS would SPILL THE BEANS and destroy nearly all their revenue by simply defining these terms 33 accurately or even admitting the definitions provided here. That is why "alien" and "foreign" without a prefix or suffix are 34 NEVER defined. "foreign" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(5) is only defined in relation to corporations, because the "United States" 35 itself is a foreign corporation with respect to a state of the Union as described in the Corpus Juris Secundum Legal 36 Encyclopedia. "foreign" is never defined geographically. Any "alien individual" physically within the COUNTRY "United 37 States" is the ONLY party with a "residence" mentioned in the Internal Revenue Code or implementing regulations at 26 38 C.F.R. §1.871-2. This "alien individual", however, is not a "resident alien" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A) because they must 39 have a green card and ASK/CONSENT to be a "resident alien". Further, anyone serving in an office within the "United 40 States" federal corporation is also "domestic" and a source "WITHIN the United States" for the purposes of income sourcing 41 rules and is described in 26 U.S.C. §871(b) in the case of STATUTORY "nonresident aliens" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(B). 42 Anyone such as those born in states of the Union who is "alien" (foreign domicile and no STATUTORY "residence" as an 43 "alien individual") receiving payments from EITHER the "United States" federal corporation (28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A)) or 44 from the statutory geographical "United States" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) then is receiving "U.S. source" 45 income under 26 U.S.C. §871(a). So, unless a STATUTORY "nonresident alien" works WITHIN the "United States" federal 46 corporation as a public officer or receives payments from that corporation or from the District of Columbia, they can earn no 47 "U.S. source" income except by MISTAKE or CONSENT. Any other interpretation of 26 U.S.C. §871 would produce a 48 DIRECT interference with the right to contract of multiple parties if both parties to any financial transaction were private and 49 constitutionally protected and not subject to exclusive federal jurisdiction. It would also be THEFT and an unconstitutional 50 taking in violation of the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause. 51

Only STATUTORY "alien individuals" are defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(c)(3)(i) and they are defined as: "The term alien 52 individual means an individual who is not a citizen or a national of the United States. See Sec. 1.1-1(c)." The "citizen" 53

mentioned in this definition is a statutory TERRITORIAL (Puerto Rico) citizen, not a state citizen born in a constitutional 1 state. The "national" mentioned in this definition is that defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22)(A) and 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) 2 (state citizens). Within that definition of "individual", the only way that those born anywhere in the COUNTRY "United 3 States" can become STATUTORY "individuals" is when they have a "tax home" abroad per 26 U.S.C. §911(d). "Tax home" 4 in that scenario doesn't mean domicile or even "residence" as defined in 26 C.F.R. §1.871-2 for "alien individuals" ONLY, 5 but the place a CONSENTING STATUTORY "citizen" temporarily resides while representing the civil statutory office of 6 "citizen" and "resident" within the department of the Treasury. You cannot be an "alien individual" and a "national" at the 7 same time. You can, however, be "alien" and "foreign" in the sense of the Internal Revenue Code by (1) Not having a 8 domicile in the statutory geographical United States as a "national" or (2) not having a "residence" anywhere in the 9 COUNTRY "United States" as an "alien individual" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b) and 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-1(c)(2). 10

I know this might sound confusing to the uninitiated who have no legal training, but I assure you it is ABSOLUTELY correct 11 and a product of YEARS of studying how the IRS deliberately deceives the public in order to maximize its revenue 12 ILLEGALLY. It has also been verified by retired U.S. SUPREME COURT JUSTICES! IRS deceives mainly by legal 13 "words of art", "equivocation" of geographical terms, OMISSION in defining key terms (such as "foreign" or "alien"), and 14 being unaccountable for the accuracy of anything it says or writes. Why would you trust them at all rather than reading the 15 laws mentioned here and verifying the truth yourself like any conscientious freedom minded American would? Deception 16 of the IRS, the courts, and even the legal profession on the jurisdictional issues discussed herein is exhaustively described in 17 the following FREE document which I encourage you to read as I have and to refer your loved ones to: 18

10. QUESTION: My computer system does not allow me to enter people with U.S.A. passports as "foreign person" if you have a United States passport. How can I do it?

ANSWER: See block 6 of the W-8SUB, Form #04.231. Select "OTHER" for the country and then enter "USA".

11. QUESTION: How can you NOT be subject to reporting as a "foreign person""?

ANSWER: Legal terms should NEVER be PRESUMED to have an ordinary meaning when a statutory definition is provided.
 The term "trade or business" is a "word of art" defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office". Only those engaged in such an office are subject to reporting under 26 U.S.C. §6041(a). This INCLUDES "foreign persons" who ²⁸ file a Form W-8SUB and who would otherwise be the target of IRS Form 1042s reporting.

12. QUESTION: How can you not be subject to withholding as a "foreign person" under 26 U.S.C. §1441 (passive earnings under 26 U.S.C. §871(a)) and 26 U.S.C. §3406 (backup withholding for employment under 26 U.S.C. §871(b))?

ANSWER: Earnings subject to withholding must originate from the STATUTORY geographical "United States" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) or from the U.S. government federal corporation and in my case they do not. I do not maintain a physical office in THE "United States" or a public office their either. Therefore, I am "foreign". The fact that you might THINK that YOU are subject to withholding WITHOUT your consent does not make it so. I must rely on facts as they really are on my withholding forms, and not what YOU THINK they are or even WANT them to be.

³⁶ 13. QUESTION: Does the IRS recognize what you have said here?

ANSWER: Of course. They accept 1040-NRs all the time from people in states of the Union, called the CONSTITUTIONAL 37 "United States". I'd be happy to show you a return they have accepted if I have one and you don't believe me. They understand 38 that slavery in this country is ILLEGAL EVERYWHERE, including in the STATUTORY "United States" under the 39 Thirteenth Amendment. As a consequence, the IRS knows that anything that carries a civil obligation which does not injure 40 others must be voluntary and avoidable. This includes the civil status of "citizen" and "resident", who are made LIABLE TO 41 rather than LIABLE FOR the tax in 26 C.F.R. $1.1-1(a) on their WORLDWIDE earnings. Is slavery and human trafficking 42 throughout the ENTIRE WORLD lawful? The process of volunteering occurs based on the CIVIL STATUS one 43 VOLUNTARILY CHOOSES for themselves, such as "foreign person", "U.S. Person", "citizen", "resident", etc. As the only 44 owner of yourself and a non-slave, you are the only one who can decide what civil status you want to have in relation to all 45 others, both legally and politically, including "foreign person" or "U.S. Person". To disallow you from doing this would be a 46 violation of your First Amendment right of political and legal association or lack thereof and a violation of your right to 47

1 contract or not contract. They don't want to advertise these facts for obvious reasons, but when push comes to shove and they

the earnings of those born and domiciled in the constitutional states of the Union.

- ⁴ 14. QUESTION: Why don't more Americans do this?
- 5 ANSWER: Because very few Americans actually read the law, including members of the legal profession. But the law is on
- ⁶ your side if you read it and follow it! It's not immoral or harmful to you or anyone else to just read the law and FOLLOW
- 7 it. The U.S. Supreme Court has even implied that those who don't read and understand the law are bad citizens. I'd like to
- 8 encourage you to do that for yourself.
- 9 15. QUESTION: So, people have to volunteer for income tax as someone in a state of the Union or the CONSTITUTIONAL
 "United States"?

- 16. QUESTION: Why doesn't anyone in the government or the legal profession want me to know these things and why do they refuse to talk about these things in their publications?
- ANSWER: Because they are all "Third Rail" issues which threaten the revenue, security, or profitability of the government or those in bed with them receiving privileges. A "Third Rail" issue is anything that will get you NOT HIRED, FIRED, NOT PROMOTED, or "CANCELLED" if you bring it up in a business setting because it damages revenue. The love of money that is behind such issues, by the way, the Bible identifies as the ROOT OF ALL EVIL. 1 Tim. 6:10.
- ³⁹ 17. QUESTION: How can I learn more about this subject myself? There are obviously lots of things that the government

- 2 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/NonresidentNonPersonPosition.pdf
- ³ For the purposes of the above documents, the term "non-person" has a custom definition. It does NOT mean that I am NOT a CONSTITUTIONAL "person", which is always a human being with CONSTITUTIONAL and COMMON LAW rights. 4 That custom definition can be examined in section 2.1 of the last document listed above. The statutory definition of "person" 5 when duties are owed to any government presupposes that those to whom it refers are exercising agency or office on behalf 6 of the government corporation, which I am not in this case. Anyone handling government property, such as a STATUTORY 7 SSN or TIN, must do so as an agent or officer of the government, which is why I can't provide you with a STATUTORY 8 identifying number either in this case. See Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the Constitution, 5 U.S.C. §553(a)(2) and 44 9 U.S.C. §1505(a) for the origin of Congress' authority to legislate DIRECTLY upon the public, which depends primarily on 10 whether one is handling government property or engaging in contracts or employment with the government. Absent such 11 authority in this case proven WITH court admissible evidence, I am protected by the Constitution and cannot be regulated in 12 the conduct of my private, constitutionally protected affairs such as this transaction and must be left alone as a matter of 13 justice and law. 14

18. QUESTION: I'd like to involve the corporate counsel or CPA. Would you be willing to meet with them to discuss this further, because I am not a lawyer, paralegal, or tax practitioner?

ANSWER: Absolutely. I'd be happy to meet, discuss, and defend anything appearing in this withholding form. I have absolutely nothing to hide and am doing my VERY BEST to obey the law as I understand it. I will bring one or more witnesses to the meeting and reserve the right to do an audio or video recording of the entire meeting. Calling such a meeting shall constitute constructive/implied consent to recording if the meeting is conducted in a one-party state.

21 CONCLUSIONS:

NOW do you understand why the IRS SPINS the word "nonresident alien" by not including "U.S. nationals", and why they don't want to admit that people in states of the Union are "U.S. nationals" even though abundant authorities available elsewhere exhaustively prove otherwise? It's a "Third Rail Issue" that would adversely impact their revenue. They are in business to "service" people and not actually protect their freedom or private property. That means you better either get good at bending over or start reading and following the law so you don't have to anymore. All of this legal subterfuge with "words of art" is just a trap (what judges call a "springe") to recruit more "customer" volunteers as described in:

The following subsections apply the laws of property to fix who has the burden or proof and what that burden of proof is in this proceeding. A failure by the government to satisfy its burden of proof in this case results in the admission that they are a thief and that the rules they are enforcing are being misapplied against property that is absolutely owned, constitutionally 1 protected PRIVATE property. The laws of property being applied are documented in: 2

7.1 Authority to write definitions and prove compliance with them 7

The ability and authority to write a definition that affects, controls, or deprives others of property presupposes a shared or 8 absolute OWNERSHIP interest in the property affected by the definition. This is an outgrowth of the most essential aspect 9 of property ownership, which is the right to EXCLUDE others and to CONTROL the use of the thing or res. 10

11	"We have repeatedly held that, as to property reserved by its owner for private use, "the right to exclude [others
12	is] `one of the most essential sticks in the bundle of rights that are commonly characterized as property.'_"
13	Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419, 433 (1982), quoting Kaiser Aetna v. United
14	States, 444 U.S. 164, 176 (1979). "
15	[Nollan v. California Coastal Comm'n, 483 U.S. 825 (1987)]
16
17	"In this case, we hold that the "right to exclude," so universally held to be a fundamental element of the
18	property right, ^[11] falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without
19	compensation."
20	[Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979)]
21	[11] See, e. g., United States v. Pueblo of San Ildefonso, 206 Ct.Cl. 649, 669-670, 513 F.2d. 1383, 1394 (1975);
22	United States v. Lutz, 295 F.2d. 736, 740 (CA5 1961). As stated by Mr. Justice Brandeis, "[a]n essential element
22 23	of individual property is the legal right to exclude others from enjoying it." International News Service v.
23	Associated Press, 248 U.S. 215, 250 (1918) (dissenting opinion).
24	Associated 17655, 240 0.5, 215, 250 (1710) [assenting opinion] .

If my property is private, absolutely owned, and protected by the constitution, then I as the absolute owner have the exclusive 25 right to exclude any and all others, INCLUDING governments under rules of equity, from using, benefitting from, taxing, or 26 regulating all such property. 27

Likewise, the government has similar rights with its own PUBLIC property managed by the Constitution as a trust indenture. 28 Among that PUBLIC property is the civil statutory protection franchise or "code" called the CIVIL law. The PUBLIC rights 29 it instantiates are PROPERTY legislatively created and therefore OWNED by its creator. As the owner of such PUBLIC 30 rights, also called "publici juris", the sovereign Legislature has the undoubted authority to define the rights it has created, to 31 impose UNLIMITED taxation and regulation on all those who use or enjoy those rights or enforce them in a court of law, 32 and even to DEFINE burdens of proof and presumptions connected with the exercise of those PUBLIC rights. Here is the 33 34 proof:

"The distinction between public rights and private rights has not been definitively explained in our preced Nor is it necessary to do so in the present cases, for it suffices to observe that a matter of public rights mu a minimum arise "between the government and others." Ex parte Bakelite Corp., supra, at 451, 49 S.C.
413. In contrast, "the liability of one individual to another under the law as defined," Crowell v. Ber supra, at 51, 52 S.Ct., at 292, is a matter of private rights. Our precedents clearly establish that controversies in the former category may be removed from Art. III courts and delegated to legislative courts administrative agencies for their determination. See Atlas Roofing Co. v. Occupational Safety and H.
Review Comm'n, 430 U.S. 442, 450, n. 7, 97 S.Ct. 1261, 1266, n. 7, 51 L.Ed.2d. 464 (1977); Crowell v. Ber

Although Crowell and Raddatz do not explicitly distinguish between rights created by Congress [PUBLIC RIGHTS] and other [PRIVATE] rights, such a distinction underlies in part Crowell's and Raddatz' recognition of a critical difference between rights created by federal statute and rights recognized by the Constitution. Moreover, such a distinction seems to us to be necessary in light of the delicate accommodations required by the principle of separation of powers reflected in Art. III. The constitutional system of checks and balances is designed to guard against "encroachment or aggrandizement" by Congress at the expense of the other branches of government. Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S., at 122, 96 S.Ct., at 683. But when Congress creates a 2 3 statutory right [a "privilege" or "public right" in this case, such as a "trade or business"], it clearly has the discretion, in defining that right, to create presumptions, or assign burdens of proof, or prescribe remedies; it 4 5 may also provide that persons seeking to vindicate that right must do so before particularized tribunals created to perform the specialized adjudicative tasks related to that right. FN35 Such provisions do, in a sense, affect 6 7 the exercise of judicial power, but they are also incidental to Congress' power to define the right that it has created. No comparable justification exists, however, when the right being adjudicated is not of congressional 8 creation. In such a situation, substantial inroads into functions that have traditionally been performed by the 9 Judiciary cannot be characterized merely as incidental extensions of Congress' power to define rights that it 10 has created. Rather, such inroads suggest unwarranted encroachments upon the judicial power of the United 11 States, which our Constitution reserves for Art. III courts. 12 [Northern Pipeline Const. Co. v. Marathon Pipe Line Co., 458 U.S. 50, 102 S.Ct. 2858 (1983)] 13 From the above, we can see that so long as the PROPERTY subject to adjudication is PUBLIC and owned by the government, 14 they are the only ones who can not only write definitions, but also impose an obligation to satisfy ANY burden of proof at all 15 that deviates from that found in the common law itself! Under the common law, the moving party is the only one with the 16 burden of proof. The obligation of the moving party to satisfy the burden of proof is codified in the Administrative Procedures 17 Act at 5 U.S.C. 556(d), in fact, and that burden of proof must be satisfied in the context of RULES and DEFINITIONS written 18 by the OWNER and CREATOR of the PUBLIC right being vindicated. 19 7.2 Government as moving party has no authority to WRITE definitions that affect PRIVATE property that is 20 the subject of this proceeding 21 These considerations mean that in the case of absolutely owned private property protected by the Bill of Rights, the 22 government LOSES the right to write any definition that adversely impairs that right or deprives me of the use, enjoyment, 23 or any aspect of control over the property so long as it is not used to harm others. 24 "Under basic rules of construction, statutory laws enacted by legislative bodies cannot impair rights given under 25 26 a constitution. 194 B.R. at 925. [In re Young, 235 B.R. 666 (Bankr.M.D.Fla., 1999)] 27 Acting contrary to these principles of equity and common law is an unconstitutional taking in violation of the Fifth 28 Amendment. The legal definition of "ownership" all our inferences so far: 29 Ownership. Collection of rights to use and enjoy property, including right to transmit it to others. Trustees of 30 Phillips Exeter Academy v. Exeter, 92 N.H. 473, 33 A.2d. 665, 673. The complete dominion, title, or proprietary 31 right in a thing or claim. The entirety of the powers of use and disposal allowed by law. 32 33 The right of one or more persons to possess and use a thing to the exclusion of others. The right by which a thing belongs to someone in particular, to the exclusion of all other persons. The exclusive right of possession, 34 enjoyment, and disposal; involving as an essential attribute the right to control, handle, and dispose. 35 Ownership of property is either absolute or qualified. The ownership of property is absolute when a single 36 37 person has the absolute dominion over it, and may use it or dispose of it according to his pleasure, subject only to general laws. The ownership is qualified when it is shared with one or more persons, when the time of 38 enjoyment is deferred or limited, or when the use is restricted. Calif. Civil Code, §§678-680. 39 There may be ownership of all inanimate things which are capable of appropriation or of manual delivery; of all 40 domestic animals; of all obligations; of such products of labor or skill as the composition of an author, the 41 goodwill of a business, trademarks and signs, and of rights created or granted by statute. Calif. Civil Code, §655. 42 43 In connection with burglary, "ownership" means any possession which is rightful as against the burglar. See also Equitable ownership; Exclusive ownership; Hold; Incident of ownership; Interest; Interval ownership; 44 Ostensible ownership; Owner; Possession; Title. 45 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1106] 46 The definition of "Property" also confirms that CONSTITUTIONAL or PRIVATE rights are PROPERTY. The Bill of Rights 47 in effect describes the ORIGIN of absolutely owned, private property. 48 Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict 49 legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat 50 & Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc. Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable 51

12	"People of all races, genders, political beliefs, sexual orientations, and nearly all religions are welcome here. All
	seeking government civil services, benefits, property, special or civil status , exemptions, privileges, or special
15	treatment. All such pursuits of government services or property require individual and lawful consent to a
16	franchise and the surrender of inalienable constitutional rights AND EQUALITY in the process, and should
17	therefore be AVOIDED. The rights and equality given up are the "cost" of procuring the "benefit" or property
18	from the government, in fact. Nothing in life is truly "free". Anyone who claims that such "benefits" or property
19	should be free and cost them nothing is a thief who wants to use the government as a means to STEAL on his or
20	her behalf. All just rights spring from responsibilities/obligations under the laws of a higher power. If that higher
21	power is God, you can be truly and objectively free. If it is government, you are guaranteed to be a slave because
22	they can lawfully set the cost of their property as high as they want as a Merchant under the U.C.C. If you want
23	it really bad from people with a monopoly, then you will get it REALLY bad. Bend over. There are NO
24	constitutional limits on the price government can charge for their monopoly services or property. Those who want
25	no responsibilities can have no real/PRIVATE rights, but only privileges dispensed to wards of the state which
26	are disguised to LOOK like unalienable rights. Obligations and rights are two sides of the same coin, just like
27	self-ownership and personal responsibility. For the biblical version of this paragraph, read 1 Sam. 8:10-22 .
28	For the reason God answered Samuel by telling him to allow the people to have a king, read Deut. 28:43-51,

0		approx
9	The	e rules for converting PRIVATE to PUBLIC property or rights are clearly defined by the U.S. Supreme Court. To wit:
10		"Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights,- 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
11		and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
12		man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations:
13		[1] First, that he shall not use it to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must
14		use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL SECURITY, Medicare, and
15		every other public "benefit"];
16		[2] second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and
17		[3] third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due compensation."
17 18		[5] Inna, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take a upon payment of the compensation. [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

I am not aware of any expression in writing of my intention to convert ANY of my PRIVATE, absolutely owned property protected by the Bill of Rights, including my entire body, and all my physical property, from PRIVATE and absolutely owned to PUBLIC as required by the above rules. Neither do I, as absolute owner of myself under the Thirteenth Amendment, authorize any acquisition of my consent to do so in any form OTHER than IN WRITING.

7.6 Civil statutory codes including the tax code are a property management agreement or contract

The Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A and C are therefore merely franchise "rules" or "privileges" under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 for managing PUBLIC property wherever it is found on the entire earth. This is exhaustively proven in:

Why the Federal Income Tax is a Privilege Tax Upon Government Property, Form #04.404 https://sedm.org/product/why-the-federal-income-tax-is-a-privilege-tax-on-government-property-form-04-404/

HOWEVER, the public property management contract that is the Internal Revenue Code cannot lawfully be applied until the government proves that PRIVATE property was lawfully and consensually donated to a public use, a public purpose, and a public office by its original PRIVATE owner BEFORE it is invoked or enforced. Otherwise, there is a Fifth Amendment Taking in which mandatory compensation and restitution is due and owing by said government.

³⁰ The conversion of property managed by the Internal Revenue Code property management franchise must be consistent with the conditions prescribed above in Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892).

The mechanism to recruit people to volunteer for or consent to the "trade or business"/public office franchise is documented in:

How State Nationals Volunteer to Pay Income Tax, Form #08.024 https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/HowYouVolForIncomeTax.pdf

7.7 Cerrtification that I.R.C. Property management contract or agreement doesn't apply

In STATISFYING those rules, I hereby certify the following facts under penalty of perjury:

1. Third Party Financial Fiduciaries:

- 1.1. Third parties in custody of my financial assets are not the OWNERS. They are mere fiduciaries for the actual owner and Principal, which is me.
- 1.2. Because third party financial fiduciaries are NOT the owners, they have no authority to CONVERT the status of the property from PRIVATE to PUBLIC by filing a usually FALSE report such as an information return that alleges a connection to "the functions of a public office" under 26 U.S.C. §6041. All such reports are mere "lay legal opinions" that furnish NO EVIDENCE of such a conversion from PRIVATE to PUBLIC.

2. Companies I work for:

- 2.1. Any companies I work for are not AGENTS of the government, but acting in a private capacity. They cannot contract on behalf of the government in such a way as to cause me to surrender any constitutional or private right or private property interest TO said government.
 - 2.2. Even being mere "employers" who applied for an EIN doesn't MAKE those companies PUBLIC in nature, except to the extent that they are TRANSFEREES and BAILEES of funds CONSENTUALLY withheld from the original owner who EARNED them with his or her LABOR.
 - 2.3. Any interference with the PRIVATE right to contract between me and private companies by inserting CIVIL LEGAL obligations to one or more parties is a direct interference with my right to contract. Governments are established to PROTECT your right to contract, not INVADE it and become party to every contract.
- 19 3. Status of acceptance of government benefit, privilege, or civil statutory protection:
 - 3.1. I hereby REJECT any and all civil statutory benefits, privileges, and protections upon the relationships documented above in this list. The ONLY protection I seek is criminal and common law protection under rules of equity and common law. The franchise only benefits the government ANYWAY and never me.
 - 3.2. It is my right to reject said civil statutory benefits, privileges, and protections since this is an exercise of my "right to exclude" any and all others from interfering with my relationships as absolute owner of myself.
- The result of all the above in rejecting any and all civil statutory benefits, privileges, and protections is simply to be LEFT alone by government, which is the very definition of "justice" as legally defined:

"The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They 27 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a 28 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect 29 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the 30 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized 31 32 men.' [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting); see also Washington v. Harper, 33 494 U.S. 210 (1990)] 34 35 PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly's translation), chap. 9. 36 "Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing the 37 lives and interests of others, and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This virtue 38 springs from the individual's respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The different 39 spheres of interests may be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended individual 40 life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or 41 the possibility of fashioning one's life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise 42 to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition.... To violate the rights, 43 to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the 44 neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the individual's own 45 life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong yourself, and 46 47 permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and protect the right. [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 2] 48 Since LEAVING ME ALONE from a civil statutory protection franchise perspective costs the government nothing, then 49 there can be no equitable or quid pro quo or "quasi-contractual" obligation to pay for ANYTHING. 50

51 Would YOU hire a security guard in the District of Columbia who insisted on transferring the property to be protected or any 52 portion thereof over to them and required you to rent your own property back from them? Only an IDIOT would.

7.8 Government's Definitions Don't Apply In This Case and Government's Burden of Proof BEFORE I have to 4 satisfy YOUR definition that I am a "nonresident alien" under the I.R.C. public property mangement franchise

In this case, HOWEVER, NO SUCH PUBLIC PROPERTY is involved. The government is the moving party asserting and 6 even enforcing an obligation ILLEGALLY against PRIVATE property. Such an obligation is PUBLIC PROPERTY being 7 TAKEN from me as the absolute and PRIVATE owner of myself in violation of the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment. 8 As a bare minimum, government as moving party moving to ENFORCE has at least an obligation to prove one or more of 9 the following BEFORE it can have any authority whatsoever to compel me to prove ANYTHING. 10

- That government was the OWNER of the property targeted for the enforcement. 1. 11
- That if government is not the owner, that I consented in writing to a PUBLIC LEGAL STATUS or PUBLIC CIVIL 2. 12
- STATUS that makes them the INDIRECT owner of the property. Property held by an officer or agent of the 13 government is property held by the government as Principal. 14
- That I VOLUNTARILY INVOKED the benefits of that PUBLIC LEGAL/CIVIL STATUS in the context of this 3. 15 specific proceeding. Such civil statutory franchise statuses include "taxpayer", "person", "citizen", "resident", etc. as 16 YOU define them, which definitions I reject any and all benefit of. I certify that I have NOT and DO NOT. 17

4. That the franchise mark, being the SSN or TIN, must then VOLUNTARILY be attached to both the LEGAL STATUS 18 and the otherwise PRIVATE PROPERTY that is the target of enforcement. This voluntary attachment serves as legal 19 evidence that it has lawfully and consensually been donated by its original PRIVATE owner to a PUBLIC use, a 20 PUBLIC purpose, and a PUBLIC office in order to procure the BENEFITS of the civil statutory protection franchise. 21

- That any forms for correspondence in your possession invoking the NAME of the franchise mark also invoke the 5. 23 STATUTORY definition of the name and thus the RULES you prescribed and defined rather than MY rules. In my 24 case, all such marks are hereby defined by the rules prescribed below and your definitions are REJECTED. Thus, I 25
- remain the only one who can "write rules or definitions" affecting said property: 26 Why It is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a Taxpayer Identification Number, Form #04.205 https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/2-Withholding/WhyTINIllegal.pdf
- That if none of the above are satisfied, then an injury must be proven justifying collection of the proceeds for damages. 6. 27 Not that the FAILURE to request or use a BENEFIT or public right or privilege does not form the basis for an injury. I 28 have an absolute right to reject any and all benefits because the inevitable result is SLAVERY and a conversion of my 29 status from CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVATE person to STATUTORY PUBLIC person. 30

To summarize the above simply: When someone STEALS from you, whether administratively or not, the least they must do 31 before you have to do anything is prove that they are the owner before they took it. Satisfying that burden of proof thus 32 proves that they are NOT the thief they are acting as. 33

- Only AFTER the above burden of proof is met by the government does the following apply to this case or my circumstances: 34
 - "These general rules are well settled:

(1) That the United States, when it creates rights in individuals against itself [a "public right", which is a euphemism for a "franchise" to help the court disguise the nature of the transaction], is under no obligation to provide a remedy through the courts. United States ex rel. Dunlap v. Black, 128 U.S. 40, 9 Sup.Ct. 12, 32 L.Ed. 354; Ex parte Atocha, 17 Wall. 439, 21 L.Ed. 696; Gordon v. United States, 7 Wall. 188, 195, 19 L.Ed. 35; De Groot v. United States, 5 Wall. 419, 431, 433, 18 L.Ed. 700; Comegys v. Vasse, 1 Pet. 193, 212, 7 L.Ed. 108.

MacVeagh, 214 U.S. 124, 29 Sup.Ct. 556, 53 L.Ed. 936; McLean v. United States, 226 U.S. 374, 33 Sup.Ct. 122, 57 L.Ed. 260; United States v. Laughlin (No. 200), 249 U.S. 440, 39 Sup.Ct. 340, 63 L.Ed. 696, decided April 14, 1919." [U.S. v. Babcock, 250 U.S. 328, 39 S.Ct. 464 (1919)]

Notice the statement "that remedy is exclusive". It is exclusive because the government is the Creator and therefore OWNER of the absolutely owned PUBLIC right being vindicated in its tribunals. The use of the word "exclusive" is a reflection of the government's exercise of the "right to exclude" aspect of its absolute ownership over the civil statutory PUBLIC right being vindicated. They can prescribe any obligation they want in that scenario, including the right to eliminate ALL judicial remedies whatsoever!

Take your public property and SHOVE IT. I'm the only owner of the property involved in this proceeding so I am the one who makes ALL THE RULES, just like the government does over its property. I am unwilling and unable to essentially RENT out your public property in the form of rights and privileges because the rent is too high and it's an adhesion contract anyway offered by a corporate monopoly.

¹⁶ Under principles of equity, you must respect this EQUAL right. All men, and all creations of men are EQUAL. If I can't ¹⁷ approach you in equity as an equal, then this tribunal is little more than a church, the judge is the priest, the attorneys are the ¹⁸ deacons, and hearings are the worship services. Such a scenario would be an unconstitutional establishment of a state-¹⁹ sponsored church in violation of the First Amendment.

Any government or judicial officer who permits or compels an UNEQUAL relationship between human beings and itself or forbids self governance through private property is a socialist government that inevitably becomes corrupted, is de facto, and self-destructs as described below. Anyone who promotes that self destruction is engaging in TREASON:

29 8 How Governments HIDE or OBFUSCATE this information

Many different methods are employed by the national and state governments to hide or obfuscate the information contained in this document beyond those already mentioned. The following subsections shall document the ones we know of, but there are likely many more. We don't have the space to cover these tactics in depth here, but we will provide pointers to other sources when available if you want to study them more deeply.

34 8.1 Definition of "United States" in the I.R.C.

- ³⁵ The statutory geographical "United States" is legally defined as:
- 36
 26 U.S. Code § 7701 Definitions

 37
 (a)When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

 39
 (9)UNITED STATES

 40
 The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States and the District of Columbia.

1		(10)STATE
2 3		The term " State " shall be construed to include the District of Columbia, where such construction is necessary to carry out provisions of this title.
4 5 6 7 8 9	corj mea LE0 Stat	WEVER, in most cases, "United States" is NOT used in its GEOGRAPHICAL sense, but its LEGAL sense as a federal poration. By "sense" we mean "CONTEXT". To be WITHIN the LEGAL rather than GEOGRAPHICAL "United States" ans to be an OFFICER of the federal corporation "United States" as defined in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A). The fact that GAL and the GEOGRAPHICAL contexts are not expressly identified and not explained in each use of the term "United tes" is malicious and deliberate, in order to make the process of procuring your consent to JOIN the federal corporation //ISIBLE and product of IGNORANCE rather than INFORMED CHOICE. Such tactics are further explored in:
10 11 12 13		Hot Issues: Invisible Consent *, SEDM https://sedm.org/invisible-consent/ Avoiding Traps in Government Forms Course , Form #12.023 https://sedm.org/LibertyU/AvoidingTrapsGovForms.pdf
14 15 16 17	abo nati	's further explore why even the GEOGRAPHICAL definition of "United States" above is deliberately deceptive. "State" ve is defined as the District of Columbia, which makes sense per 4 U.S.C. §72, since the tax is upon OFFICES within the onal government rather than the people occupying them. But what does the term "the States" mean in that context, ause that term is never expressly defined? Here are a few facts to clarify this confusion:
18	1.	The default definition of "The STATES" is provided in 4 U.S.C. §110(d) as:
19		4 U.S. Code §110 – The States
20		(d) The term "State" includes any Territory or possession of the United States.
21 22	2.	The term "foreign country" is defined in the regulations at 26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-2(b) as INCLUDING "The States" above:
23		26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-2 - Closer connection exception.
24		(b) Foreign country.
25 26 27 28 29 30 31		For purposes of section 7701(b) and the regulations thereunder, the term "foreign country" when used in a geographical sense includes any territory under the sovereignty of the United Nations or a government other than that of the United States. It includes the territorial waters of the foreign country (determined in accordance with the laws of the United States), and the seabed and subsoil of those submarine areas which are adjacent to the territorial waters of the foreign country has exclusive rights, in accordance with international law, with respect to the exploration and exploitation of natural resources. It also includes the possessions and territories of the United States.
32 33	3.	The term "United States" is legally defined in the regulations as EXCLUDING "The States" in 4 U.S.C. §110(d) above also:
34		26 C.F.R. §301.7701-7 - Trusts—domestic and foreign.
35		(3) Definitions.
36		The following definitions apply for purposes of this section:
37		(i) Court.
38		The term court includes any federal, state, or local court.
39		(ii) The United States.
40 41		The term the United States is used in this section in a geographical sense. Thus, for purposes of the court test, the United States includes only the States and the District of Columbia. See section $7701(a)(9)$. Accordingly, a court

1 2		within a territory or possession of the United States or within a foreign country is not a court within the United States.
3 4		Note in the above that "state" is lower case, implying that it is legislatively FOREIGN in respect to the sovereignty enacting the above interpretive regulation. Note also that the CONSTITUTIONAL status of the Union are
5		NOWHERE mentioned and are therefore purposefully excluded under the rules of statutory construction.

	Again, there is no liberty, if the judiciary power be not separated from the legislative and executive. Were it joined with the legislative, the life and liberty of the subject would be exposed to arbitrary control; for the judge would be then the legislator. Were it joined to the executive power, the judge might behave with violence and oppression [sound familiar?].
	oppression (sound jumiliar :).
	There would be an end of everything, were the same man or the same body, whether of the nobles or of the people, to exercise those three powers, that of enacting laws, that of executing the public resolutions, and of trying the causes of individuals."

	In what a situation must the poor subject be in those republics! The same body of magistrates are possessed, as executors of the laws, of the whole power they have given themselves in quality of legislators. They may plunder the state by their general determinations; and as they have likewise the judiciary power in their hands, every private citizen may be ruined by their particular decisions,"

28 29 30	"A foreign corporation is one that derives its existence solely from the laws of another state, government, or country, and the term is used indiscriminately, sometimes in statutes, to designate either a corporation created by or under the laws of another state or a corporation created by or under the laws of a foreign country."

In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levying direct taxes might be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could not legislate for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and excises,' which 'shall be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the United States [described in the Constitution]. The income tax is NON-GEOGRAPHICAL because the "United States Inc." federal corporation is not physical and not geographical, but VIRTUAL. The GOVERNMENT extends wherever its OFFICES and PROPERTY extend, including OUTSIDE Of the District of Columbia. You therefore have to JOIN the national government as one of its OFFICERS called a STATUTORY "citizen", "resident", "person", or "taxpayer" before you become subject to the income tax. When you JOIN the government by pursuing one of these CIVIL STATUTORY offices, you:

- 13 1. Are LEGALLY within the "United States" federal corporation defined in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A) as its officer.
- Are NOT PHYSICALLY within the "United States" as GEOGRAPHICALLY defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10).
- Barbon 16
 Barbon 3. Have been "assimilated" into the corporation usually without your knowledge or express consent. Welcome to The Matrix, NEO!
- 18 4. Then become "domestic" as legally defined:

22 (4)DOMESTIC

The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State unless, in the case of a partnership, the Secretary provides otherwise by regulations.

- ²⁶ 5. Are party to a PARTNERSHIP between the OFFICE and the OFFICER filling said office.
 - 5.1. The OFFICE and the OFFICER have SEPARATE domiciles that need not overlap.
 - 5.2. The CIVIL law that applies to any disputes regarding the exercise of the office is documented as the place of DOMICH E of the OFFICE rather than the OFFICE window Federal Puls of Civil Procedure 17
 - DOMICILE of the OFFICE rather than the OFFICER under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17.
- Usually unknowingly adopt a GEOGRAPHICAL "tax home" for the OFFICE in the District of Columbia (the statutory geographical "United States" in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10)) that is not the same as your own locate or domicile:

32	26 C.F.R. §301.7701(b)-2 - Closer connection exception
33	(c) Tax home—
34	(1) Definition.
35	For purposes of section 7701 (b) and the regulations under that section, the term "tax home" has the same
36	meaning that it has for purposes of section $162(a)(2)$ (relating to travel expenses while away from home). Thus,
37	an individual's tax home is considered to be located at the individual's regular or principal (if more than one
38	regular) place of business. If the individual has no regular or principal place of business because of the nature
39	of the business, or because the individual is not engaged in carrying on any trade or business within the meaning
40	of section 162(a), then the individual's tax home is the individual's regular place of abode in a real and substantial
41	sense.
42	(2) Duration and nature of tax home.
43	The tax home maintained by the alien individual must be in existence for the entire current year. The tax home
44	must be located in the same foreign country for which the individual is claiming to have the closer connection
45	described in paragraph (d) of this section.

7. Become a "U.S. source" of "gross income" owned entirely by the national government because it was earned by the OFFICE rather than the human being VOLUNTARILY FILLING said office. You are NOT the owner of the statutory "gross income" at that point, and reclaiming ANY PORTION of it for your own personal use is a PRIVILEGE rather than a RIGHT. The fact that most people don't know these things does not change the reality of what is actually happening from a legal perspective.

The way that you JOIN the government is therefore to pursue the PRIVILEGES or BENEFITS of a civil statutory OFFICE within the government. This is typically done by filing the USUALLY FALSE form declaring such status that you do not ALREADY legally have, and therefore LITERALLY "electing" yourself into said office. See:

9 8.4 No definition of "alien" in I.R.C.

There is NO definition of "alien" within the entire Internal Revenue Code Subtitles A and C. The Treasury Regulations that implement the Internal Revenue Code come close to a definition, but only in the context of STATUTORY "individuals":

26 C.F.R. § 1.1441-1 - Requirement for the deduction and withholding of tax on payments to foreign persons. 12 13 (c) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of sections 1441 through 1443, 1461, and regulations under those 14 sections. For definitions of terms used in these regulations that are defined under sections 1471 through 1474, 15 see subparagraphs (43) through (56) of this paragraph. 16 17 (3) Individual— (i) Alien individual. 18 The term alien individual means an individual who is not a citizen or a national of the United States. See § 1.1-19 1(c). 20

So, an "alien individual" is someone who is NEITHER a STATUTORY "citizen", nor a STATUTORY "national". And by STATUTORY, we mean DOMICILE rather than NATIONALITY. This would exclude those who are issued USA passports, OBVIOUSLY, because they are called "U.S. nationals":

8.5 The Domicile CIVIL STATUTORY Protection Contract/Compact and the definition of "taxpayer" in tax trade publications⁸

⁶ A "nonresident alien" is merely anyone who doesn't have a CIVIL DOMICILE within the exclusive jurisdiction of Congress.

The way the INTERNAL Revenue Code is implemented, all "taxpayers" are offices in the government domiciled in the District of Columbia. We prove this in:

Challenge to Income Tax Enforcement Authority Within Constitutional States of the Union, Form #05.052 https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/ChallengeToIRSEnforcementAuth.pdf

So, the word "INTERNAL" in the "INTERNAL Revenue Code" means WITHIN the United States government, not within the statutory geographical United States. And the domicile that is taxed is that of the office they fool you into volunteering for by equivocation to make the tax look like its on your NATIONALITY rather than your DOMICILE. That DECEPTIVE process of volunteering is described in:

² process of voluncering is described in.

How State Nationals Volunteer to Pay Income Tax, Form #08.024 https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/HowYouVolForIncomeTax.pdf

- 13 This section describes how even domicile is obfuscated to confuse you.
- ¹⁴ The U.S. Supreme Court describes the relationship of domicile to taxation as follows:

"Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located." [Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, 347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

The first thing to notice about the above ruling is that the essence of being a "citizen" is one's domicile, not just their place of birth or naturalization or the NATIONALITY these two things produce. "Domicile" establishes your LEGAL status within a municipal government while "nationality" (being a "national") establishes your POLITICAL status and association with a specific nation under The Law of Nations.

"Nationality. That quality or character which arises from the fact of a person's belonging to a nation or state. Nationality determines the political status of the individual, especially with reference to allegiance; while domicile determines his civil status. Nationality arises either by birth or by naturalization. See also Naturalization." [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1025]

The U.S. Supreme Court admitted that an alien with a domicile in a place is treated as a native or naturalized "citizen" in nearly every respect. We call this type of "citizen" simply a "domiciled citizen" to distinguish it from anything resembling nationality. Note that they use the phrase "This right to protect persons having a domicile", meaning they DON'T have a right to protect people who choose NOT to have a domicile and therefore are UNABLE to render protection because they can ONLY "govern" people who consent to be governed by choosing a domicile within their protection.

"This right to protect persons having a domicile, though not native-born or naturalized citizens, rests on the firm foundation of justice, and the claim to be protected is earned by considerations which the protecting power

is not at liberty to disregard. Such domiciled citizen pays the same price for his protection as native-born or naturalized citizens pay for theirs. He is under the bonds of allegiance to the country of his residence, and, if he breaks them, incurs the same penalties. He owes the same obedience to the civil laws. His property is, in the same way and to the same extent as theirs, liable to contribute to the support of the Government. In nearly all respects, his and their condition as to the duties and burdens of Government are undistinguishable." [Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698 (1893)]

Note also the key role of the word "intention" within the meaning of domicile. A person can have many "abodes", which are 7 the place they temporarily "inhabit", but only one legal "domicile". You cannot have a legal "domicile" in a place without 8 also having an intention (also called "consent") to live there "permanently", which implies allegiance to the people and the 9 laws of that place. 10

"Allegiance and protection [by the government from harm] are, in this connection, reciprocal obligations. The one is a compensation for the other; allegiance for protection and protection for allegiance. [Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. (21 Wall.) 162, 166-168 (1874)]

What the U.S. Supreme Court essentially is describing above is a contract to procure the civil protection of a specific 14 government, and it is giving that contract a name called "domicile". What makes the contract binding is the fact that each 15 party to the contract both gives and receives specific and measurable "consideration". You manifest your consent to the 16 contract by voluntarily calling yourself a "subject", "inhabitant", "citizen", or "resident", all of which have in common a 17 domicile within the jurisdiction that those terms relate to. You give "allegiance" and the support (e.g. "taxes") that go with 18 that allegiance, and in return, the government has an implied legal duty to protect and serve you. All contracts require both 19 mutual consent and mutual consideration. Without both demonstrated elements, the contract is unenforceable. The contract 20 is therefore only enforceable if both parties incur reciprocal duties that are enforceable in court as "rights". Below is how the 21 U.S. Supreme Court again describes this "protection contract": 22

The reason why States are "bodies politic and corporate" is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can 23 act only through its agents, "[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can 24 command only by laws." Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black's 25 Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) ("[B]ody politic or corporate": "A social compact by which the whole people 26 covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws 27 for the common good"). As a "body politic and corporate," a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act's 28 29 definition of a "person." 30

[Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich., 1989)]

The interesting thing about allegiance is that in every circumstance where you try to document it on a government form, the 31 covetous government tries to create the false impression that it must be PERMANENT, so that you can't choose WHEN and 32 under what circumstances you have it or under what circumstances you want protection and have to pay for protection. In 33 other words, you aren't allowed to request protection for specific circumstances and you have to give them essentially a blank 34 check and make the relationship permanent. Here are some examples: 35

1. Most government forms ask for your "Permanent address", meaning the place where your allegiance is permanent and 36 not temporary. 37

The term "national of the United States*" is defined in 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(22) as someone who owes "permanent 2. 38 allegiance" to the "United States" government. These people include both state nationals (8 U.S.C. 39 $1101(a)(22)(B)), statutory citizens (8 U.S.C. $1101(a)(22)(A)), and those in outlying possessions (8 U.S.C. 40

§1101(a)(22)(B)). 41

12	8 U.S.C. §1101 Definitions [for the purposes of citizenship]
13	(a) As used in this chapter—
14	(22) The term "national of the United States" means
15	(A) a citizen of the United States, or
46	(B) a person who, though not a citizen of the United States, owes permanent allegiance to the United States.

8 U.S.C. §1436 requires that the only way a resident of an outlying possession may be naturalized to become a 3. 47 STATUTORY "non-citizen national of the United States" is to have "permanent allegiance". 48

We must remember, however, that for the purposes of Title 8, even the word "permanent" is not really permanent and can be withdrawn by you on a whim.

o	When might you want to withdraw your allegiance and the CIVIL statutory protection that goes with it? How about if you
8 9	are going abroad and DO NOT want Uncle Sam's protection or the bill (taxes) that go with that protection. Some people,
10	including us, even fill out their DS-11 Passport Application to indicate that they waive any and all claim to protection of the national government while they are abroad and thereby temporarily WITHDRAW their allegiance while abroad. Why would 11
12	they do this? Because they don't want to be "privileged" or in receipt of any government "benefit" that could lead essentially
13	to them having to hand Uncle a blank check to steal ANYTHING they have. What gives them the right to demand "taxes"
14	of a STATUTORY "citizen" while they are abroad? The answer is that such "citizen" is an officer of the government
15	managing government property. THAT property is ALL of his/her property! Here is the proof:
16	The Law of Nations, Book II: Of a Nation Considered in Her Relation to Other States
17	§ 81. The property of the citizens is the property of the nation, with respect to foreign nations.
18	Even the property of the individuals is, in the aggregate, to be considered as the property of the nation, with
18	respect to other states. It, in some sort, really belongs to her, from the right she has over the property of her
20	citizens, because it constitutes a part of the sum total of her riches, and augments her power. She is interested in
21	that property by her obligation to protect all her members. In short, it cannot be otherwise, since nations act and
22	treat together as bodies in their quality of political societies, and are considered as so many moral persons. All
23	those who form a society, a nation being considered by foreign nations as constituting only one whole, one single
24	person, — all their wealth together can only be considered as the wealth of that same person. And this is to true,
25	that each political society may, if it pleases, establish within itself a community of goods, as Campanella did in
26	his republic of the sun. Others will not inquire what it does in this respect: its domestic regulations make no
27	change in its rights with respect to foreigners nor in the manner in which they ought to consider the aggregate of
28	its property, in what way soever it is possessed.

32	The above document is the document upon which the Founding Fathers wrote the Constitution. It is even mentioned in
33	Article I of the Constitution. The implications of the above document are that calling yourself a "citizen" makes you a
34	presumed officer of the government holding temporary title to government property, which is ALL of your property while
35	you are abroad and being protected by the nation you are a "member" or STATUTORY "citizen" of. The implication is that:
	j
36	1. If you want to own property at all while abroad and have it protected by the national government, you must consent to
37	become an officer of the government called a "citizen" and effectively convert or transmute all your property to
38	PUBLIC property. The U.S. Supreme Court, in fact, has defined such a "citizen" as an officer of the government:
39	"Under our own systems of polity, the term 'citizen', implying the same or similar relations to the government and
40	to society which appertain to the term, 'subject' in England, is familiar to all. Under either system, the term used
41	is designed to apply to man in his individual character and to his natural capacities to a being or agent [of
42	government, also called a PUBLIC OFFICER!] possessing social and political rights and sustaining social.
43	political, and moral obligations. It is in this acceptation only, therefore, that the term 'citizen', in the article of the Constitution and he received and understood. When distributing the indicide power, that article extends it
44	the Constitution, can be received and understood. When distributing the judicial power, that article extends it to controversies between 'citizens' of different states. This must mean the natural physical beings composing
45 46	to controversies between citizens of aliferent states. Ints must mean the natural physical beings composing those separate communities, and can by no violence of interpretation be made to signify artificial, incorporeal,
40 47	theoretical, and invisible creations. A corporation, therefore, being not a natural person, but a mere creature
48	of the mind, invisible and intangible, cannot be a citizen of a state, or of the United States, and cannot fall
49	within the terms or the power of the above mentioned article, and can therefore neither plead nor be impleaded
50	in the courts of the United States."

52	2. You must share ownership with the government if you want to be a STATUTORY "citizen" and receive the

You must share ownership with the government if you want to be a STATUTORY "citizen" and receive the "benefit"/franchise of the government's CIVIL STATUTORY protection WHILE ABROAD.

- You aren't allowed by law to ABSOLUTELY own ANY private property while abroad. The essence of ownership is "the right to exclude", according to the U.S. Supreme Court. See Nollan v. California Coastal Comm'n, 483 U.S. 825 (1987) and Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979).⁹ That means you aren't allowed to exclude the government from using or benefitting from the use of the property and the government is the REAL owner. Would you hire a security guard called "government" if the cost of the protection was to transfer ownership TO the security guard? NOT! Hence, this is what we call a "supernatural power" that makes the government literally a pagan deity over all property.
- The GOVERNMENT gets to determine how much of the property you want protected THEY own or control, and how much is left over for you. That is because they write the laws that regulate the use of all PUBLIC property. You are a mere equitable rather than absolute owner of the property.

The sharing of ownership in legal terms is called a "moiety". With these factors in mind, why the HELL would anyone want to call themselves a STATUTORY "citizen"? Isn't the purpose of forming government to protect PRIVATE property and PRIVATE rights? Isn't the ability to own property the essence of "happiness" itself according to the Declaration of Independence? How can you be "happy" if you have to share ownership of EVERYTHING with the government and turn EVERYTHING you own essentially into PUBLIC property to have any protection at all? For details on sharing ownership with the government, see:

Separation Between Public and Private Course, Form #12.025 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

Obviously, the "price" of government protection is too high, and therefore a rational and informed person would have to conclude that having "allegiance" and requesting "protection" from the government as a security guard over their property is something that they should NOT want. So how do we withdraw that allegiance and our request for protection? A good place to start is studying the laws on passports.

On the other hand, when obtaining a USA passport, one only needs "allegiance" and no requirement for permanence is mandated, other than, of course, the Address field on the DS-11 Form, which asks for a "permanent address". If you don't fill out anything in that field because your allegiance is temporary and you DO NOT WANT their protection, then you can make your allegiance temporary and changeable.

25 26 27 "No passport shall be granted or issued to or verified for any other persons than those owing allegiance, whether citizens or not, to the United States." [22 U.S.C. §212]

28 See the following for details on how to WITHDRAW allegiance when abroad in the passport application process:

Getting a USA Passport as a "State National", Form #10.013 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

29 Now let's look at the domicile "protection contract" or "protection franchise" a little closer. Does it meet all the requisite legal elements of a legally enforceable contract? In fact, after you declare your exclusive allegiance to the "state" by declaring a "domicile" within that state so that you can procure "protection", ironically, the courts continue to forcefully insist that your public SERVANTS STILL have NO LEGAL OBLIGATION to protect you! This is what Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the

[&]quot;In this case, we hold that the "right to exclude," so universally held to be a fundamental element of the property right,[11] falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without compensation." [Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979)]

^[11] See, e. g., United States v. Pueblo of San Ildefonso, 206 Ct.Cl. 649, 669-670, 513 F.2d. 1383, 1394 (1975); United States v. Lutz, 295 F.2d. 736, 740 (CA5 1961). As stated by Mr. Justice Brandeis, "[a]n essential element of individual property is the legal right to exclude others from enjoying it." International News Service v. Associated Press, 248 U.S. 215, 250 (1918) (dissenting opinion).

mouth, the courts, proving that police officers cannot be sued if they fail to come to your aid after you call them when you

Do You Have a Right to Police Protection?, Family Guardian Fellowship http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Crime/Articles/PoliceProtection.htm

Consequently, the "protection contract" is unenforceable as a duty upon you because it imposes no reciprocal duty upon the 3 government. On the one hand, the government throws people in jail for failing to pay for protection in the form of "taxes", 4 while on the other hand, it refuses to prosecute police officers for failing to provide the protection that was paid for, even 5 though their willful or negligent refusal to protect us could have far more injurious and immediate effects than simply failing 6 to pay for protection. This is a violation of the equal protection of the laws. If it is a crime to not pay for protection, then it 7 ought to equally be a crime to not provide it! Who would want to live in a country or be part of a "state" that would condone 8 such hypocrisy? That is why we advocate "divorcing the state". It is precisely this type of hypocrisy that explains why 9 prominent authorities will tell you that taxes are not "contractual": because the courts treat it like a contract and a criminal 10 matter to not pay taxes for "taxpayers", but refuse to hold public servants equally liable for their half of the bargain, which is 11 protection: 12

13"A tax is not regarded as a debt in the ordinary sense of that term, for the reason that a tax does not depend upon14the consent of the taxpayer and there is no express or implied contract to pay taxes. Taxes are not contracts15between party and party, either express or implied; but they are the positive acts of the government, through its16various agents, binding upon the inhabitants, and to the making and enforcing of which their personal consent17individually is not required."18[Cooley, Law of Taxation, Fourth Edition, pp. 88-89]

The above is a deception at best and a LIE at worst. A "taxpayer" is legally defined as a person liable, and it is true that for such a person, taxes are not consensual and in no way "voluntary". HOWEVER, the choice about whether one wishes to BECOME a "taxpayer" as legally defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14) is based on domicile and the excise taxable activities one voluntarily engages in, both of which in fact ARE voluntary actions and choices. By their careful choice of words, they have misrepresented the truth so they could get into your pocket. What else would you expect of greedy LIARS, I mean "lawyers"? We would also like to take this opportunity to clarify for whom taxes are "voluntary" in order to further clarify the title of this document:

- 1. Income taxes under I.R.C. Subtitle A are not voluntary for "taxpayers".
- 27 2. Income taxes under I.R.C. Subtitle A are not voluntary for everyone, because some subset of everyone are "taxpayers".
- Income taxes under I.R.C. Subtitle A are voluntary for those who are "nontaxpayers", who we define here as those persons who are NOT the "taxpayer" defined in 26 U.S.C. §§7701(a)(14) and 1313.
- "Revenue Laws relate to taxpayers [officers, employees, instrumentalities, and elected officials of the Federal Government] and not to non-taxpayers [American Citizens/American Nationals not subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal Government]. The latter are without their scope. No procedures are prescribed for non-taxpayers and no attempt is made to annul any of their Rights or Remedies in due course of law."
 [Economy Plumbing & Heating v. U.S., 470 F.2d. 585 (1972)]
- 35 Some other points to consider about this "Raw Deal" scam:
- 1. You can't be a statutory "citizen" or a "resident" without having a legally enforceable right to protection.
- Since the government won't enforce the rendering of the ONLY consideration required to make you a "citizen" or a "resident", then the protection contract is unenforceable and technically, you can't lawfully therefore call yourself a
 "citizen".
- 3. Since you can't be a member of a "state" without being a "citizen", then technically, there is no de jure "state", no de jure government that serves this "state", and no "United States". It's just "US", friends, cause there ain't no "U.S."!
- 4. The implication is that your government has legally abandoned you and you are an orphan, because they didn't complete their half of the protection contract bargain. Without a government, God is back in charge. The Bible says He owns the earth anyway, which leaves us as "nonresidents" and "transient foreigners" in respect to any jurisdiction that claims to be a "government" because we know they're lying.
- 5. The Bible says of this "Raw Deal" the following: You've been HAD, folks!

For thus says the LORD: "You have sold yourselves for nothing, And you shall be redeemed without money." [Isaiah 52:3, Bible, NKJV]

The U.S. Supreme Court has also held that "allegiance" is completely incompatible with any system of "citizenship" in a republican form of government, and that it is "repulsive". Ironically, allegiance is exactly what we currently base our system of citizenship on in this country. Apparently, this is yet one more symptom that the U.S. government has become corrupted.

5	or endensing on in and country. Apparently, and is yet one more symptom that the close government has become corrupted.
4	"Yet, it is to be remembered, and that whether in its real origin, or in its artificial state, allegiance, as well as
5	fealty, rests upon lands, and it is due to persons. Not so, with respect to Citizenship, which has arisen from the
6	dissolution of the feudal system and is a substitute for allegiance, corresponding with the new order of things.
7	Allegiance and citizenship, differ, indeed, in almost every characteristic. Citizenship is the effect of compact
8	[CONTRACT!]; allegiance is the offspring of power and necessity. Citizenship is a political tie; allegiance is
9	a territorial tenure. Citizenship is the charter of equality; allegiance is a badge of inferiority. Citizenship is
10	constitutional; allegiance is personal. Citizenship is freedom; allegiance is servitude. Citizenship is communicable; allegiance is repulsive. Citizenship may be relinquished; allegiance is perpetual. With such
11 12	essential differences, the doctrine of allegiance is inapplicable to a system of citizenship; which it can neither
12	serve to controul, nor to elucidate. And yet, even among the nations, in which the law of allegiance is the most
14	firmly established, the law most pertinaciously enforced, there are striking deviations that demonstrate the
15	invincible power of truth, and the homage, which, under every modification of government, must be paid to the
16	inherent rights of man The doctrine is, that allegiance cannot be due to two sovereigns; and taking an oath
17	of allegiance to a new, is the strongest evidence of withdrawing allegiance from a previous, sovereign"

20	upct/html/historics/USSC_CR_0003_0133_ZS.html]
21	Consequently, we must conclude that allegiance to anything but God is therefore to be avoided at all costs. Notice also that
21	they say that citizenship is the effect of "compact", which is a type of contract. If "domicile" is the basis of citizenship, and citizenship is the effect of "compact", then "domicile" amounts to the equivalent of a "contract". This leads us right back to 23
24	the conclusion that the voluntary choice of one's "domicile" is a "contract" to procure man-made protection and fire God as
25	our protector:
26	" Compact , n. An agreement or contract between persons, nations, or states. Commonly applied to working
20	agreements between and among states concerning matters of mutual concern. A contract between parties, which
28	creates obligations and rights capable of being enforced and contemplated as such between the parties, in their
29	distinct and independent characters. A mutual consent of parties concerned respecting some property or right
30	that is the object of the stipulation, or something that is to be done or forborne. See also Compact clause;
31	Confederacy; Interstate compact; Treaty."
32	[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 281]
22	The Bible is consistent with the Supreme Court above in its disdain for "allegiance". It has a name for those expressing
33
34	"allegiance": It is called an "oath". When a person becomes a naturalized citizen of the United States, he must by law (see $\underline{8}$
35	U.S.C. §1448) take an "oath" of "allegiance" and be "sworn in". When a person signs an income tax return, he must swear
36	a perjury oath. Jesus, on the other hand, commanded believers not to take "oaths" to anything but God, and especially not to
37	earthly Kings, and said that doing otherwise was essentially Satanic:
20	"Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, "You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths
38 39	to the Lord.' But I say to you, do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth,
40	for it is footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Nor shall you swear by your head,
41	because you cannot make one hair white or black. But let your "Yes,' be "Yes,' and your "No,' "No,' For whatever
42	is more than these is from the evil one [Satan]."
43	[Matt. 5:33-37 , Bible, NKJV]
	Cod also commended us to take onthe ONLY in His name and no others.
44	God also commanded us to take oaths ONLY in His name and no others:
15	"You shall fear the LORD your God and serve [only] Him, and shall take oaths in His name."
45 46	[Deut. 6:13, Bible, NKJV]
47	"If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break
48	his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth."
49	[Numbers 30:2, Bible, NKJV]
50	Israel's first King, Saul, in fact, distressed the people because one of his first official acts was to try to put the people under
51	oath to him instead of God.
52	"And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had placed the people under oath"
53	[1 Sam. 14:24 , Bible, NKJV]
	$[\underline{15}am, \underline{14}, \underline{24}, bbbe, 100, 100, 100, 100, 100, 100, 100, 10$
	[1 5un, 14.24 , bloc, 14634]

God's response to the Israelites electing a King/protector to whom they would owe "allegiance", in fact, was to say that they sinned:

Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations [and be OVER them]".

But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And the Lord said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me [God], that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods [Kings, in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them."

So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king. And he said, "This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take [STEAL] your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots. He will appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. He will take [STEAL] your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers. And he will take [STEAL] the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants. He will take [STEAL] to ur male servants, your female servants, your finest young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work [as SLAVES]. He will take [STEAL] a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants. And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not hear you in that day."

24Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us,25that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."26[1 Sam. 8:4-20, Bible, NKJV]

Notice above the repeated words "He [the new King] will take...". God is really warning them here that the King they elect will STEAL from them, which is exactly what our present day government does! Some things never change, do they?

Since God clearly states that it violates His law to have a king ABOVE you, then by implication, Christians are FORBIDDEN by His sacred law from becoming a "subject" under any civil statutory law system that allows any government or civil ruler to engage in any of the following types of anarchy, lawlessness, or superiority:

1. Are superior in any way to the people they govern UNDER THE LAW.

- Are not directly accountable to the people or the law. They prohibit the PEOPLE from criminally prosecuting their own crimes, reserving the right to prosecute to their own fellow criminals. Who polices the police? THE CRIMINALS.
- Enact laws that exempt themselves. This is a violation of the Constitutional requirement for equal protection and equal treatment and constitutes an unconstitutional Title of Nobility in violation of Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8 of the United States Constitution.
- Only enforce the law against others and NOT themselves, as a way to protect their own criminal activities by persecuting dissidents. This is called "selective enforcement". In the legal field it is also called "professional courtesy". Never kill the goose that lays the STOLEN golden eggs.
- Break the laws with impunity. This happens most frequently when corrupt people in government engage in "selective enforcement", whereby they refuse to prosecute or interfere with the prosecution of anyone in government. The Department of Justice (D.O.J.) or the District Attorney are the most frequent perpetrators of this type of crime.
- Are able to choose which laws they want to be subject to, and thus refuse to enforce laws against themselves. The most frequent method for this type of abuse is to assert sovereign, official, or judicial immunity as a defense in order to protect the wrongdoers in government when they are acting outside their delegated authority, or outside what the definitions in the statutes EXPRESSLY allow.
- Impute to themselves more rights or methods of acquiring rights than the people themselves have. In other words, who are the object of PAGAN IDOL WORSHIP because they possess "supernatural" powers. By "supernatural", we mean that which is superior to the "natural", which is ordinary human beings.
- Scalar and protect their own sovereign immunity, but refuse to recognize the same EQUAL immunity of the people from whom that power was delegated to begin with. Hypocrites.
- Abuse sovereign immunity to exclude either the government or anyone working in the government from being subject to the laws they pass to regulate everyone ELSE'S behavior. In other words, they can choose WHEN they want to be a statutory "person" who is subject, and when they aren't. Anyone who has this kind of choice will ALWAYS corruptly exclude themselves and include everyone else, and thereby enforce and implement an unconstitutional "Title of Nobility" towards themself. On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court has held the following:

3	Noonity towards memsen. On this subject, the 0.5. Supreme Court has need the following.
4	"No man in this country [including legislators of the government as a legal person] is so high that he is above
4	the law. No officer of the law may set that law at defiance with impunity. All the officers of the government,
5
6	from the highest to the lowest, are creatures of the law and are bound to obey it. It is the only supreme power
7	in our system of government, and every man who by accepting office participates in its functions is only the more
8	strongly bound to submit to that supremacy, and to observe the limitations which it imposes upon the exercise of
9	the authority which it gives," 106 U.S., at 220. "Shall it be said that the courts cannot give remedy when the
10	Citizen has been deprived of his property by force, his estate seized and converted to the use of the government
11	without any lawful authority, without any process of law, and without any compensation, because the president
12	has ordered it and his officers are in possession? If such be the law of this country, it sanctions a tyranny which
13	has no existence in the monarchies of Europe, nor in any other government which has a just claim to well-
14	regulated liberty and the protection of personal rights," 106 U.S., at 220, 221.

18	even exist or earn a living to support oneself.
19	11. Can tax and spend any amount or percentage of the people's earnings over the OBJECTIONS of the people.
	12. Can print, meaning illegally counterfeit, as much money as they want to fund their criminal enterprise, and thus to be

22	13. Deceive and/or lie to the public with impunity by telling you that you can't trust anything they say, but force YOU to
23	sign everything under penalty of perjury when you want to talk to them. 26 U.S.C. §6065.
24	Jesus Himself agreed that we cannot allow civil rulers to be ABOVE us in any way, when He said:
24	Jesus minisch agreed that we cannot anow ervin fulers to be ADO VE us in any way, when the said.
25	"You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over
26	them. Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.
27	And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave— just as the Son of Man did not come to be
28	served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
29	[Matt. 20: 25-28, Bible , NKJV . See also Mark 10:42-45]
27
30	Jesus' words above are very descriptive of the RESULT of allowing rulers to be ABOVE those they serve:
31	1. He identifies his reference as referring to civil rulers.
32
33	exercised are "supernatural". "Super" means ABOVE and "natural" means above you, who are a natural human being.
34	3. The phrase "Lord it over" means that they in effect are "gods" who are OVER or ABOVE those who "worship" them
35	by obeying their man-made STATUTES or CIVIL CODES. The source of law in any society is, in fact, the god of that
36	society.
37	The nature and substance of any government that violates the above admonition of Jesus is described in the following:

38	ONLY when the people are indeed EQUAL in every way to those in the government can anyone be truly FREE in any sense

It may be laid down that the, status- or, as it is sometimes called, civil status, in contradistinction to political status - of a person depends largely, although not universally, upon domicil. The older jurists, whose opinions are fully collected by Story I and Burge, maintained, with few exceptions, the principle of the ubiquity of status, conferred by the lex domicili with little qualification. Lord Westbury, in Udny v. Udny, thus states the doctrine broadly: "The civil status is governed by one single principle, namely, that of domicil, which is the criterion established by law for the purpose of determining civil status. For it is on this basis that the personal rights of the party - that is to say, the law which determines his majority and minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy-must depend." Gray, C. J., in the late Massachusetts case of Ross v. Ross, speaking with special reference to capacity to inherit, says: "It is a general principle that the status or condition of a person, the relation in which he stands to another person, and by which he is qualified or made capable to take certain rights in that other's property, is fixed by the law of the domicil; and that this status and capacity are to be recognized and upheld in every other State, so far as they are not inconsistent with its own laws and policy." [A Treatise on the Law of Domicil, National, Quasi-National, and Municipal, M.W. Jacobs, Little, Brown, and Company, 1887, p. 89]

20 2. The term "civil status", which is actually a legislatively granted CIVIL privilege.

22	question whether the domicile of the father was in England or in Scotland, he being in either alternative a British
23	subject. Lord Chancellor Hatherley said: " The question of naturalization and of allegiance is distinct from that
24	of domicile.' Page 452. Lord Westbury, in the passage relied on by the counsel for the United States, began by
25	saying: ' The law of England, and of almost all civilized countries, ascribes to each individual at his birth two
26	distinct legal states or conditions,—one by virtue of which he becomes the subject [NATIONAL] of some
27	particular country, binding him by the tie of natural allegiance, and which may be called his political status;
28	another by virtue of which he has ascribed to him the character of a citizen of some particular country, and as
29	such is possessed of certain municipal rights, and subject to certain obligations, which latter character is the
30	civil status or condition of the individual, and may be quite different from his political status.' And then, while
31	maintaining that the civil status is universally governed by the single principle
32	of domicile (domicilium), the criterion established by international law
33	for the purpose of determining civil status, and the basis on which 'the
34	personal rights of the party—that is to say, the law which determines his
35	majority or minority, his marriage, succession, testacy, or intestacy—
36	must depend, ' he yet distinctly recognized that a man's political status, his
37	country (patria), and his 'nationality,—that is, natural allegiance,'—'may
38	depend on different laws in different countries.' Pages 457, 460. He evidently used the
39	word 'citizen,' not as equivalent to 'subject,' but rather to 'inhabitant'; and had no thought of impeaching the
40	established rule that all persons born under British dominion are natural-born subjects.
41	[United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649, 18 S.Ct. 456, 42 L.Ed. 890 (1898) ;

	3. The fact that both OBLIGATIONS and PRIVILEGES attach to all "civil statuses" called "offices".
43
43 44	"Is it a franchise? A franchise is said to be a right reserved to the people by the constitution, as the elective individuals, as a public office. Corporations, or bodies politic are the most usual franchises known to our laws. [People v. Ridgley, 21 III. 65, 1859 WL 6687, 11 Peck 65 (III., 1859)]

The fact that OBLIGATIONS and PRIVILEGES constitute PROPERTY under the LAWS of property. The entire constitution, for instance, is almost SILENT on the subject of property and mentions it in only ONE place: Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2. See:

5. The nature of all CIVIL statutory statuses as an OFFICE within the government grantor of the privilege.

1		privilege \ 'priv-lij, 'pri-və-\ noun
2		[Middle English, from Anglo-French, from Latin privilegium law for or against a private person, from privus
3		private + leg-, lex law] 12th century: a right or immunity granted as a peculiar benefit, advantage, or favor:
4		prerogative especially: such a right or immunity attached specifically to a position or an office

8	6.	The purpose of ALL governments to CONTROL the civil status of those they "govern" as "subjects".
9		The several States of the Union are not, it is true, in every respect independent, many of the rights and powers
10		which originally belonged to them being now vested in the government created by the Constitution. But, except
11		as restrained and limited by that instrument, they possess and exercise the authority of independent States, and
12		the principles of public law to which we have referred are applicable to them. One of these principles is, that
13		every State possesses exclusive jurisdiction and sovereignty over persons and property within its territory. As a
14		consequence, every State has the power to determine for itself the civil status and capacities of its inhabitants;
15		to prescribe the subjects upon which they may contract, the forms and solemnities with which their contracts
16		shall be executed, the rights and obligations arising from them, and the mode in which their validity shall be
17		determined and their obligations enforced; and also to regulate the manner and conditions upon which
18		property situated within such territory, both personal and real, may be acquired, enjoyed, and transferred. The
19		other principle of public law referred to follows from the one mentioned; that is, that no State can exercise direct
20		jurisdiction and authority over persons or property without its territory. Story, Confl. Laws, c. 2; Wheat. Int. Law,
21		pt. 2, c. 2. The several States are of equal dignity and authority, and the independence of one implies the exclusion
22 23		of power from all others. And so it is laid down by jurists, as an elementary principle, that the laws of one State have no operation outside of its territory, except so far as is allowed by comity; and that no tribunal established
23 24		by it can extend its process beyond that territory so as to subject either persons or property to its decisions. "Any
24		exertion of authority of this sort beyond this limit," says Story, "is a mere nullity, and incapable of
26		binding 723*723 such persons or property in any other tribunals." Story, Confl. Laws, sect. 539.
27		But as contracts made in one State may be enforceable only in another State, and property may be held by non-
28		residents, the exercise of the jurisdiction which every State is admitted to possess over persons and property
29		within its own territory will often affect persons and property without it. To any influence exerted in this way by
30		a State affecting persons resident or property situated elsewhere, no objection can be justly taken; whilst any
31		direct exertion of authority upon them, in an attempt to give ex-territorial operation to its laws, or to enforce an
32		ex-territorial jurisdiction by its tribunals, would be deemed an encroachment upon the independence of the State
33		in which the persons are domiciled or the property is situated, and be resisted as usurpation.
34		Thus the State, through its tribunals, may compel persons domiciled within its limits to execute, in pursuance of
35		their contracts respecting property elsewhere situated, instruments in such form and with such solemnities as to
36		transfer the title, so far as such formalities can be complied with; and the exercise of this jurisdiction in no manner interfaces with the supreme control over the property by the State within which it is situated. Bown we have
37 38		interferes with the supreme control over the property by the State within which it is situated. Penn v. Lord Baltimore, 1 Ves, 444: Massie v. Watts, 6 Cranch, 148; Watkins v. Holman, 16 Pet, 25; Corbett v. Nutt, 10 Wall.
38 39		Ballimore, 1 ves. 444, Massie v. Walls, 0 Cranch, 148, Walkins v. Holman, 10 Fel. 25, Corbert v. Null, 10 Wall. 464.
40		So the State, through its tribunals, may subject property situated within its limits owned by non-residents to the
40		payment of the demand of its own citizens against them; and the exercise of this jurisdiction in no respect infringes
42		upon the sovereignty of the State where the owners are domiciled. Every State owes protection to its own citizens;
43		and, when non-residents deal with them, it is a legitimate and just exercise of authority to hold and appropriate
44		any property owned by such non-residents to satisfy the claims of its citizens. It is in virtue of the State's
45		jurisdiction over the property of the non-resident situated within its limits that its tribunals can inquire into that
46		non-resident's obligations to its own citizens, and the inquiry can then be carried only to the extent necessary to
47		control the disposition of the property. If the non-resident $\frac{724*724}{2}$ have no property in the State, there is nothing
48		upon which the tribunals can adjudicate.

12	10.	The fact that the income tax is really just a "rental fee" associated with the use, possession, or "benefit" of those
13		seeking such "benefit" or temporary possession. See:

We had to spend DECADES assembling the above specific information, because information about these subjects is so sparse. In most cases, we had to go back CENTURIES to find information on the above subjects, which is clearly censored from the public record to keep the average joe from unraveling the SCAM that is the income tax. Most of the above evidence had to be derived from REALLY old court cases or books on the common law that are no longer in print, for instance. None of these subjects are taught in law schools and there are EXTEMELY few if any contemporary publications on them, for good reason: They are very effective at unraveling the MATRIX we presently suffer under.

8.7 The Hague Convention HIDES the ONE portion that differentiates NATIONALITY from DOMICILE¹⁰

After World War II, countries got together in the Hague Convention and reached international agreements on the proper treatment of people everywhere. The United States was a party to that international agreement. Within that agreement is the following document:

Hague Convention Relating to the Settlement of the Conflicts Between the Law of Nationality and the Law of Domicile [Anno Domini 1955], SEDM Exhibit #01.008

Not surprisingly, the above article within the convention was written originally in FRENCH but is NOT available in or translated into ENGLISH. Why? Because English speaking governments obviously don't want their inhabitants knowing the distinctions between NATIONALITY and DOMICILE and how they interact with each other. The SEDM sister site has found a French speaking person to translate the article, got it translated, and posted it at the following location:

Hague Convention Relating to the Settlement of the Conflicts Between the Law of Nationality and the Law of Domicile [Anno Domini 1955], SEDM Exhibit #01.008 http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm

1 Your citizenship status is represented in the Social Security NUMIDENT record maintained by the Social Security Administration. The field called "CSP" within NUMIDENT contains a one character code that represents your citizenship

3 status. Valid CSP values are as follows:

4 Table 3: SSA NUMIDENT CSP Code Values

#	CSP Code Value	Statutory meaning	Constitutional meaning
1	А	U.S. citizen (per 8 U.S.C. §1401)	None
2	В	Legal Alien Allowed to Work	Alien (foreign national)
3	С	Legal Alien Not Allowed to Work	Alien (foreign national)
4	D	Other	"citizen of the United States" or "Citizen"

- 5 This information is DELIBERATELY concealed and obfuscated from public view by the following Social Security policies:
- The meaning of the CSP codes is NOT listed in the Social Security Program Operations Manual System (P.O.M.S.) online so you can't find out.

- 3. If you submit a Freedom Of Information Act (F.O.I.A.) request to SSA asking them what the CSP code means, they

 NOT allowed to know WHAT citizenship status they associate with you. See the following negative response:

- 4. The ONLY option they give you in block 5 entitled "CITIZENSHIP" are the following. They REFUSE to distinguish
 WHICH "United States" is implied in the term "U.S. citizen", and if they told the truth, the ONLY citizen they could lawfully mean is a STATUTORY "U.S. citizen" per 8 U.S.C. §1401 and NOT a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen, who is a

SSA Form SS-5 http://www.famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/Forms/Emancipation/ss-5.pdf

Those who are domiciled outside the statutory "United States" or in a constitutional state of the Union and who want to correct the citizenship records of the SSA must submit a new SSA Form SS-5 to the Social Security Administration (S.S.A.) and check "Other" in Block 5 pursuant to 20 C.F.R. §422.110(a). This changes the CSP code in their record from "A" to "B". If you go into the Social Security Office and try to do this, the local offices often will try to give you a run-around with the following abusive and CRIMINAL tactics:

- When you ask them about the meaning of Block 5, they will refuse to indicate whether the citizenship indicated is a CIVIL/STATUTORY status or a POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL status. It can't be both. It must indicate NATIONALITY or DOMICILE, but not BOTH.
- ³⁰ 2. They will first try to call the national office to ask about your status in Block 5.
- They will ABSOLUTELY REFUSE to involve you in the call or to hear what is said, because they want to protect the perpetrators of crime on the other end. Remember, terrorists always operate anonymously and they are terrorists. You should bring your MP3 voice record, insist on being present, and put the phone on speaker phone, and do EXACTLY the same thing they do when you call them directly by saying the following:
 - the same thing they do when you can them directly by saying the following.
- 35 36

"This call is being monitored for quality assurance purposes, just like you do to me without my consent ALL THE TIME."

- After they get off the phone, they will refuse to tell you the full legal name of the person on the other end of the call to protect those who are perpetuating the fraud.
 - 5. They will tell you that they want to send your SSA Form SS-5 to the national office in Baltimore, Maryland, but refuse

1 2		to identify EXACTLY WHO they are sending it to, because they don't want this person sued personally as they should be.
2 3 4	6.	The national office will sit on the form forever and refuse to make the change requested, and yet never justify with the law by what authority they:
4 5		6.1. Perpetuate the criminal computer fraud that results from NOT changing it.
6		6.2. Perpetuate the criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §911 by NOT changing it.
7	7.	They will allow you to change ANYTHING ELSE on the form without their permission, but if you want to change
8	/.	your CITIZENSHIP, they essentially interfere with it illegally and criminally.
9	The	e reason they play all the above obfuscation GAMES and hide or classify information to conceal the GAMES is because
10		y want to protect what they certainly know are the following CRIMES on their part and that of their employees:
11	1.	They can't offer federal benefits to CONSTITUTIONAL but not STATUTORY citizens with a domicile outside of federal territory. If they do, they would be criminally violating 18 U.S.C. §911.
12	2.	They can't pay public monies to PRIVATE parties, and therefore you CANNOT apply with the SS-5 for a "benefit"
13	۷.	unless you are a public officer ALREADY employed with the government. If they let PRIVATE people apply, they
14 15		are conspiring to commit the crime of impersonating a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912.
15	3.	They aren't allowed to offer or enforce any government franchise within the borders of a Constitutional but not
17	5.	STATUTORY state of the Union, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court, so they have to make you LOOK like a
18		STATUTORY citizen, even though you aren't, in order to expand their Ponzi Scheme outside their GENERAL
19		jurisdiction and into legislatively foreign states.
20		"Congress cannot authorize [LICENSE, using a de facto license number called a "Social Security Number"] a

23 24		e only status a state domiciled CONSTITUTIONAL but not STATUTORY citizen can put on the form is "Other" or "Legal CATUTORY] Alien Allowed to Work". The instructions say the following about the "Other" option:
25 26		"If you check "Other", you need to provide proof that you are entitled to a federally-funded benefit for which Social Security number is required as a condition for you to receive payment."
27	In a	answer to the above query in connection with the "Other" option, we suggest:
28		"DO NOT seek any federally funded benefit. I want a NONtaxpayer number that entitles me to ABSOLUTELY
29		NOTHING as a NONRESIDENT not subject to federal law and NOT qualified to receive benefits of any kind. I
30		am only applying because:
31		1. I am being illegally compelled to use a number I know I am not qualified to ask for.
32		2. The number was required as a precondition condition of PRIVATE employment or opening a PRIVATE
33		financial account by a NONRESIDENT ALIEN who is NOT a "U.S. citizen" or "U.S. person" and who is NOT
34		required to have or use such a number by 31 C.F.R. §306.10, 31 C.F.R. §1020.410(b)(3)(x), and IRS Pub. 515.
35		I ask that you criminally prosecute them under 42 U.S.C. §408(a)(8) for doing so AND provide a statement on
36		SSA letterhead indicating that I am NOT eligible that I can show them. Furthermore, if you do have any numbers
37		on file connected with my name, I ask that they be rescinded permanently from your records."
38	The	en you may want to attach the following forms to the application to ENSURE that they reject your application and TELL
39		that you are NOT eligible so you can show it to the person who is COMPELLING you to use a number:
