NOTE: The purpose of a response letter is NOT to reduce your tax liability or violate any law, but to lawfully assert and defend your constitutional rights, expose violations of law by the government, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances as authorized by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. Our response letters are only available to those who are "nontaxpayers", which we define as private human beings and not statutory "persons" who are NOT subject to Internal Revenue Code Subtitle A, and who consent unconditionally to and comply fully with our SEDM Fellowship Member Agreement. Since our items are not available to statutory "taxpayers", then it is impossible and irrational to describe them as "tax shelters" or to reduce the liability of those who might read them or unlawfully interfere with the proper or lawful administration of the tax codes by using them. None of the materials available on this website are authorized to be used to accomplish any commercial purpose that might subject us to government regulation. See our Response Letter Frequently Asked Questions, #22 for details. The content of this page and everything available through it are covered by our Disclaimer.

1. Letter and Notice Number Placement

All letter and notice numbers appear in either the upper right or lower right corner of the the state tax notice you received. Look on your letter in this location and then scan down the list on the left-hand side for the number of your correspondence to find out what it is. When you locate the notice or letter number that matches the one you received, if the notice or letter number has a blue underline, you can click on it to see a sample of the notice or letter.

▲ Go to beginning

3. Obtaining an Automated Response Letter

After you find the notice or letter number that corresponds to the one you received, look in the second column below to find out if we have a responsive letter. If we do, you will see the words "Get Response" in the second column. Click on this phrase on the row that corresponds to your letter and you will be taken to the response letter you need. Then just add it to your cart, and checkout.

NOTE:

1. If the State Letter or notice you received does not appear on this page, the item you need is the "New State Response letter". Please do not send us new notices to write responses to if they are targeted towards businesses, because we only help human beings and not statutory "persons", "individuals", artificial entities, or businesses of any kind.
2. If you find that the notice or letter you received does have a response in the list below but your letter is not exactly the same as the sample we provide and you have questions about whether our response letter would be suitable BEFORE you get it, then please:
  - Write down your question or concern onto a Fax Cover Sheet, Form #01.005.
  - Scan the fax cover sheet and the tax notice into your scanner. Preferably turn it into ONE pdf or multiple image files if you don't have PDF software.
  - Submit the PDF through our Contact Us page as an attachment.
  - You will then be contacted thereafter via either email or phone to answer your question about the suitability of the response letter we offer. If the letter we offer isn't suitable, you will be told if or when a modified response letter will be available that addresses your concerns.

In the first column of the table below, click on the blue state name with the yellow background if you want to see all the offerings and information only for that state. States that are not blue do not have a personal income tax. To see a sample of the notice for which a response is available, click on the notice name or number in the left column. This will display the original notice in Adobe Acrobat format. If a response is available, a hotlink that says "Get response" will appear in the "Get response letter" column.
