If a taxpayer neglects or refuses to file a tax return, there are administrative remedies available to the Service to secure a return. These remedies are found in the:

- Internal Revenue Code (IRC)
- Treasury Regulations
- Delegation Orders

IRC section 6020(b), Execution of Return by Secretary, states:

1. Authority of Secretary to Execute Return — If any person fails to make any return required by any internal revenue law or regulation made thereunder at the time prescribed therefore, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the Secretary shall make such return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise.

Treasury Regulation 301.6020-1(b) grants authority to Internal Revenue Service revenue officers or other employees to prepare returns for a taxpayer based on the employee’s knowledge and information.

The authority granted the Secretary to execute returns is further granted by Delegation Order 5-2 (Rev. 2) to: Internal Revenue Agents; Tax Compliance Officers; Tax Auditors; GS-09 Revenue Officers and Revenue Officer Examiners; Compliance Services Collection Operations Managers; Campus Automated Substitute for Return Operations Managers; Campus Examination Operation Managers; GS-09 Campus Examination Revenue Agents; GS-09 Campus Examination Tax Compliance Officers; Campus Examination Managers; GS-09 Individual Tax Advisory Specialists; GS-11 Bankruptcy Advisors; GS-09 Bankruptcy Specialists; Indian Tribal Government Specialists; Federal State and Local Government Specialists; Tax Exempt Bonds Specialists; Collection Centralized Case Processing Managers; Senior Employment Tax Specialists; Employment Tax: Tax Examining Technicians; Estate Tax Examiners and Estate Gift Tax Managers.

Authority

Introduction

Show slide #T -4 and discuss the sources of administrative authority used to promote compliance.

Internal Revenue Code

Review the language of IRC section 6020(b) and paraphrase it for the participants.

Point out that the Code, Treas. Regs. and Delegation Orders allow for the preparation of any return. It is the IRM that defines which returns can be prepared by which employee category.

Delegation Order

Explain that delegation orders grant revenue officers or other employees authority to perform certain duties. In the case of IRC section 6020(b), employees in these positions are allowed to prepare returns if the taxpayer fails to comply.

Applicable Returns

Review the types of returns that journey level revenue officers (grade 9 or above) are authorized to prepare. Tell the participants that their on-the-job instructors will assist them with IRC section 6020(b) referrals.

When you recommend an assessment under IRC section 6020(b), you will prepare all the returns necessary for full compliance. If a return will become due during the time other returns are being processed under IRC section 6020(b), prepare that return as well.

The IRC section 6020(b) process provides for written notice to the taxpayer of our intent to file returns on their behalf. Letter 1085(DO), 30-Day Letter, Proposed IRC 6020(b) Assessment, provides this notice. Taxpayers have 30 days from the date you mail the proposed assessment to respond to the Letter 1085(DO).

Example

Helen Paine has not yet filed Forms 941 for the first and second quarters of the year. She has four employees.

You send proposed assessments to Ms. Paine on October 20. You must include the current third quarter return which is due on October 31 as well as the returns for the two delinquent periods. Ms. Paine has until November 19 to respond.

Timeline:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1st Quarter</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>due 04/30</td>
<td>due 07/31</td>
<td>10/20</td>
<td>due 04/30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All three periods are included with the Letter 1085(DO) since the third quarter will become due while the other returns are processed under IRC section 6020(b) procedures.

Compliance Issues

Direct the participants to remove the following from their Forms Package.

- Letter 1085(DO), 30-Day Letter, Proposed IRC 6020(b) Assessment

Discuss the example. Emphasize the timeline that shows the three returns needed for full compliance. Stress that the third quarter return is included on Letter 1085(DO) because it will become due during the 30-day notice period.

The Letter 1085(DO) is discussed in more detail later in this lesson.
First Contact

Field Call Required

A field call is to obtain information and ensure that the entity is liable for the return is required before using IRC 6020(b) authority.

Required First Contact Actions

If, on your first field contact, the taxpayer does not immediately file the delinquent returns, and does not indicate that the returns were not due:

∞ set a specific date for filing

∞ secure sufficient information so an accurate return can be prepared if the taxpayer fails to file by the specified date such as:
  o Total wages, number of employees and tax withheld (Forms 941, 944 and 943)
    Note: Do not ask to review the taxpayer's records for this information.
  o Name of states in which wages were paid (Form 940).
  o Number of partners in the partnership, their names, addresses, social security numbers/employer identification number, each partner's interest percentage in the partnership, and the partnership's gross income (Form 1065/K-1). If possible, obtain copies of the partnership agreement and copy of the last filed Form 1065.

∞ advise the taxpayer that the IRS can consider their refusal to file as willful neglect and subject to the trust fund recovery penalty, criminal penalties or both,

∞ explain the trust fund recovery penalty, if applicable.

∞ advise the taxpayer that if the returns are not filed voluntarily, they will be prepared and filed under the authority of IRC section 6020(b).

A summons is not required before using IRC 6020(b) procedures; however, in some cases, a summons may be the appropriate action if you cannot establish an estimated amount of tax liability, and the taxpayer is being uncooperative.

Emphasize to the participants they should

- set a deadline, and
- explain the consequences of failing to file the return.

Sources of Information

It is important to secure as much information as possible on the first contact. To prepare a return under IRC section 6020(b), enough information must be obtained from the taxpayer or other sources to provide a complete explanation of the basis for the assessment amount.

The taxpayer generally has the most accurate information, but if the taxpayer does not provide the information, other sources are available, including:

- state employment commission and municipal records.
- State Reverse File Matching Initiative (SRFMI) data.
- W-2/W-3 information on BMFOLU, prior tax return information provided from TRDBV and TXMOD on IDRS.
Show slide #T-7 and review sources of information for return preparation under section 6020(b)

Ask the participants:

What other sources of information might be available?

Possible Responses:

- State tax returns
- Employees
- Income tax or partnership returns
- Department of Labor
First Contact Role Play

First Contact Role Play

Purpose

The role play allows the participants to practice securing information needed for IRC section 6020(b) assessment of Form 941 during the first contact interview.

Time

20 minutes

Props

Taxpayer seated at desk or table.

Directions

Request volunteers or select two participants. Participant #1 is the revenue officer. Participant #2 is the taxpayer. If time permits, request several participants play the roles of revenue officer and taxpayer. Give each role player one of the handouts that follow.

Remind the participants that in the role play taxpayer's rights need to be observed. It is good practice for participants to introduce themselves, ask about Publication 1, and perform the other basic interview tasks in a role play.

During the role play, ask the other participants to complete the observer checklist in the coursebook.

After the role play, debrief the group using the following questions.

1. What types of information did the revenue officer secure?
2. Did the revenue officer obtain enough information to complete a return if the taxpayer does not file?
3. Was a specific and reasonable deadline set for filing the returns?
4. Was the taxpayer advised of the consequences of not filing? What are the consequences?

Employment Tax Returns

Introduction

Revenue officers are delegated the authority to prepare employment tax returns, including:

- Form 940, Employer’s Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return
- Form 941, Employer’s Quarterly Federal Tax Return
- Form 943, Employer’s Annual Federal Tax Return for Agricultural Employees
- Form 944, Employer’s Annual Federal Tax Return
- Form CT-1, Employer’s Annual Railroad Retirement Tax Return

Correct Amount of Wages Paid

It is important to identify the type of return and secure estimates of the tax liability. The amount of tax due is directly based on the amount of wages paid. This is the most important information needed to complete employment tax returns. The wage information must be as accurate as possible.

Records Are Unavailable

If the taxpayer cannot provide the information you need to estimate the payroll, make note of:

- the number of employees,
- the wages paid by hour,
- the number of hours and days the employees work, including overtime,
- any business expansion since the last returns were filed, and
- any recent changes to the operation.

Employment Tax Returns

Introduction
Emphasize that revenue officers are delegated authority to prepare employment tax returns.

Correct Amount of Wages Paid
Stress that since the amount of tax due is directly based on the amount of wages paid, it is important to accurately determine this figure.

Records Are Unavailable
Show slide #T-8 and stress the importance of observing the taxpayer’s place of business during the field call. Remind the participants to take detailed notes.

Third Party Sources

If the taxpayer refers you to an accountant for their records, secure the accountant's

∞ name,
∞ address, and
∞ telephone number.

Sometimes you cannot get sufficient information from either the taxpayer or the accountant. Third party information may be available from the employees themselves or neighboring businesses.
Point out that a power of attorney (POA) is not needed to secure information only.

Ask the participants:

Can you think of any other third party sources that might provide information?

Possible Responses:

- Payroll clerks
- Timekeepers
- Bookkeepers
- Outside return preparers
Computing the Tax Liability

Form 941

When information for withholding is not available, then compute the withheld income tax by taking 20 percent of the gross wages.

The Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA) rate is set by law. The rate for a particular period is given on the tax return. You can also find the FICA rate in Document 6209, IRS Processing Codes and Information. With this information, you can now complete an employment tax return.

Example

Gibson's Carwash furnished you with the payroll records that indicate gross wages paid, but not the amount withheld.

The records show the following:

- 24 employees who each work 20 hours weekly.
- Six employees who each work 40 hours weekly.
- All employees were paid $6.00 an hour.
- Four managers were each paid $500 a week.

To determine the amount of Federal income tax withheld for one quarter, compute the total weekly payroll, then the quarterly payroll:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Employees</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Rate</th>
<th>Gross Payroll</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>24</td>
<td>20 hrs.</td>
<td>$6.00</td>
<td>$2,880</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>40 hrs.</td>
<td>$6.00</td>
<td>$1,440</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>week</td>
<td>$500.00</td>
<td>$2,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Weekly payroll  $6,320
Weeks per quarter  x 13
Quarterly payroll  $82,160

Compute the withholding for the quarter as follows:

$82,160 × 20% = $16,432

Computing the Tax Liability

Form 941

Direct the participants to remove the following from their Forms Package.

※ Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return

Discuss the example. Explain that once the revenue officer determines the gross wages paid in a quarter, they can compute the withholding and FICA amounts.

Emphasize:

※ a quarter has 13 weeks,
※ if the actual withholding amount is not known, compute it using 20 percent of the gross wages,
※ compute FICA at the applicable rate for the year of the Form 941.

Use the same amount of gross quarterly payroll to determine the FICA tax liability with the social security rate of 12.4% and the Medicare rate of 2.9%.

If you do not have actual wage amounts for the Del Ret period, try to obtain state wage information or research SRFMI data. When you do not have the actual wage amount, you can use internal sources such as CC BMFOLI and CC BMFOLR to locate the last period satisfied (LPS).

Use the wage information amount from the LPS increased by an inflation factor of 2.5 percent times the number of quarters between the LPS and the Del Ret period.

Example

If the LPS Form 941 filed was 6/30/2008 reflecting wages of $10,000, the wage amount to be used for 9/30/2008 would be $10,250.

<table>
<thead>

Form 941 (continued)

Ask the participants:

Based on the example and using the Form 941:

What amount is entered on Form 941, line 2?

Correct Answer:

The total wages that we computed, $82,160.

What amount is entered on Form 941, line 3?

Correct Answer:

The withholding amount we computed at 20 percent of the wages, $16,432.

What amount is entered on Form 941, line 5d?

Correct Answer:

Using the social security rate of 12.4%, and the Medicare rate of 2.9%, the FICA amount on wages of $82,160 would be $12,570.48.

Inflation Factor

Emphasize that an inflation factor is used to determine wage information when you do not have the actual wage amount.

Internal sources such as CC BMFOLI and CC BMFOLR will provide the last period satisfied (LPS).

Review the example. Point out that the inflation factor is added to the LPS wage amount. The inflation factor compounds by the number of quarters between the Del Ret and the LPS.

Form 940

To prepare a Form 940, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment Tax Return, use the same method to calculate the total wage information for all four quarters.

The FUTA (Federal Unemployment Tax Act) tax rate is 6.2 percent. The tax applies to the first $7,000 that the employer pays to each employee in wages during the year.

A credit can be taken against the FUTA tax for amounts that the employer paid into state unemployment funds. The credit cannot be more than 5.4 percent of taxable wages.

Complete the return by following the directions for computing the Form 940.

Example

At Gibson’s Carwash gross payroll for six employees was $1,440 a week. Gross payroll for four managers was $2,000 a week and gross payroll for one summer helper was $6000. The FUTA tax is computed as follows:

Partnership Return

Form 1065

Form 1065, U.S. Partnership Return of Income, is an “information only” return. This means that it is not a taxable return. The Form 1065 provides a report of a partnership’s financial operations and each partner’s share of income or credit. Partners are responsible for reporting this information on their own Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Civil Penalty

The penalty for the failure to file a Form 1065 is charged for each month (or part of a month) that the failure continues.

∞ For returns due before December 21, 2007, the penalty is $50 per person who was a partner in the partnership at any time during the year, for each month or part of a month the return is late or incomplete, for up to five (5) months.

∞ For returns due after December 20, 2007 and before 1/1/2009, the penalty changed to $85 per partner. (For returns with tax periods beginning in 2008, the penalty is increased by $1 per person for each month the return is late or incomplete), the penalty can be charged for up to twelve (12) months.

The penalty for each month is calculated by multiplying the applicable base penalty rate by the number of persons who were a partner in the partnership at any time during the taxable year.

∞ For returns due before December 21, 2007, the base penalty rate is $50.
∞ For returns due after December 20, 2007, but before January 1, 2009, the base penalty rate is $85.
∞ For returns due after December 31, 2008 the base penalty rate is $89, if the taxable year does not begin in 2008 and the taxable year does not begin after December 31, 2009.
∞ For returns due after December 31, 2008, the base penalty is $90 if the taxable year begins in 2008.
∞ For returns with tax periods beginning after December 31, 2009, the base penalty rate is $195.

A person is a partner for penalty calculation purposes if the person was a partner for any portion of the year (returns required to be filed after December 20, 2007). A partner is included in the total number of partners, even if only a partner for a portion of the year.
Partnership Return

Form 1065

Ask the participants:

What is the purpose of an “information only” return?

Correct Answer:

The purpose of the return is to furnish information, not to report a tax.

What are other examples of “information only” returns?

Possible Responses:

- Form 1120S
- Form W-2
- Form W-3
- Form 1099

Civil Penalty

Discuss the example. Explain that the referral process involves a civil penalty because there is no tax due on a Form 1065.

Partnership Return, Continued

Example

John Harris, Christine Drew and Thomas Harper formed a partnership January 1, 2008. After the first year they did not file a Form 1065. They are the general partners. There are twelve limited partners.

The return was due April 15, 2009. It is now December 4. The penalty amount would be:

$89 per month × 8 months × 15 partners = $10,680

How to Prepare

Form 1065 does not require any calculations. Prepare the Form 1065 under IRC section 6020(b) by providing:

- the name of the partnership,
- its address,
- employer identification number (EIN), and
- the number of partners.

After the IRC section 6020(b) process is completed, the penalty is assessed against the partnership when the return posts to the Master File (MF).

Partnership Penalty Nonassertion

Revenue Procedure 84-35 provides a reasonable cause safe harbor for certain small partnerships. Under this procedure, a domestic partnership comprised of 10 or fewer partners, each of whom is a natural person (other than a nonresident alien) and each of whom has fully reported his or her share of the income, deductions, and credits of the partnership on timely filed income tax returns, is considered to have met the reasonable cause test and is not subject to the penalty.

If a partnership of 10 or fewer partners fails to qualify for relief under Revenue Procedure 84-35, the partnership may still show reasonable cause for failure to file a timely and complete return (see Revenue Procedure 84-35, § 3.03).

Section 6020(b) Referral

Administrative Process

If the taxpayer fails to file the delinquent returns by the specified date, your next step is to prepare returns under IRC section 6020(b) authority. The referral includes:

- two sets of each prepared return,
- blank copies of the tax returns,
- Form 5604, Section 6020(b) Action Sheet,
- Letter 1085(DO), 30-Day Letter, Proposed IRC 6020(b) Assessment, for employment and excise tax returns,
- Letter 1616(DO), 30-Day Letter, Proposed IRC 6020(b) Assessment, Partnership Return, for partnership returns, and
- a return envelope. Do not use a postage-paid envelope.

Prepare Returns

Each set of the prepared returns includes an original and a copy of the return.

- Mail one set to the taxpayer, with a blank form for each return prepared.
- Retain the other set in your case file for use if the taxpayer fails to respond to your notice of proposed assessment.

The returns should be prepared based on the most accurate information available. The gross payroll or approximation of the gross payroll, will be the basis of computing the withheld tax, social security and Medicare taxes due. If there are no figures available for tax withheld, multiply the gross wages by 20 percent and use that figure.

Form 5604

Form 5604, Section 6020(b) Action Sheet, is used to initiate returns under the authority of IRC 6020(b). Fully document the ICS history with a complete explanation of the basis for the assessment(s). The explanation should include information such as wages paid, income tax withheld, FTD's or payments, and any calculations or other information used to establish the correct liability for each tax period. This information is important because it could be used later if the taxpayer requests an appeal, files suit, or files Form 911, Request for Taxpayer Advocate Service Assistance (And Application for Taxpayer Assistance order).

Refer the participant to Letter 1085(DO), 30-Day Letter, Proposed IRC 6020(b) Assessment, provided earlier in the lesson.

Prepare Returns

Discuss what is meant by a set of returns. Explain that if the taxpayer signs and returns the original set, the taxpayer will still have a copy. Likewise, if the revenue officer sends the original forward for assessment because the taxpayer failed to respond, there is a copy for the case file.

Form 5604

Briefly discuss Form 5604, Section 6020(b) Action Sheet. Emphasize that the explanation of the computation is important if the taxpayer disputes the amount.

Completing Form 5604

Section 1 of Form 5604 includes:

- Basic taxpayer information including name, address, and TIN
- Date of field call
- Date returns sent to taxpayer
- Revenue officer's name and signature
- Each tax period and the type of tax.

A short narrative explains your basis for assessment and pertinent information. For example, if you prepare the return from state employment commission information, put a statement to that effect on Form 5604.

If the liability is based on prior quarterly information or the last return filed information on the Del Ret, state what other information was secured to clearly establish that a liability exists.

Sections II and III are discussed later in this section.

- mail additional information to you or request a further discussion with you.
- request an appeals conference. The appeal rights are explained in detail in Publication 5.

Referrals to the Employment Tax Examination Program

You may encounter an in-business taxpayer who claims to no longer have employees. If the business is essentially the same as when the taxpayer filed employment tax returns, ask the taxpayer how the business is functioning without employees.

If you observe people who appear to be employees, ask what their relationship is to the business. If the taxpayer tells you the business now uses only independent contractors or consultants, you may have a situation that requires closer scrutiny.

You learned earlier there are:

- criteria for determining whether or not an employer-employee relationship exists.
- general rules that establish that someone is an independent contractor instead of an employee.
- three primary categories of evidence that show the right of the employer to direct and control the worker.

If the circumstances you observe indicate a reasonable assumption that an employer-employee relationship exists, you should refer your case to an employment tax specialist.

Secure as much information as possible such as:

- the number of people under contract,
- the number of hours they work,
- the amount paid to each contractor, or
- any other pertinent data relative to employment.

Using this information, prepare a referral memorandum for the Employment Tax Examination (ETE) program coordinator for further investigation. IRM 5.1.11.7.5 provides procedures for closing the Del Ret as a referral to Examination.
Referrals to the Employment Tax Examination Program

Employees Changed to Independent Contractors

Advise the participants they should carefully question an in-business taxpayer who claims to have no employees. Use the question below or conduct a brief demonstration to reinforce the importance of gathering information.

Ask the participants:

What are some questions you would ask an in-business taxpayer who claims to have no employees?

Possible Responses:

- Who makes your product, or provides your service?
- How many people do you have under contract?
- How many hours do these people work each week?
- How do they report their time?
- How much do you pay them?
- How did you select them?
- Do they provide their own tools or supplies?
- What do you do if you are unhappy with their services?
- Do you or someone else supervise them?

Consider conducting a demonstration of a brief interview between a revenue officer and an in-business taxpayer. Ask a co-instructor to assist you. You can use the questions provided above or your own questions.

Employer-Employee Relationship

Remind the participants that Publication 15, Circular E, identifies the criteria that help determine if an employer-employee relationship exists.

Referral to Employment Tax Examiners

Briefly discuss the Employment Tax Examination (ETE) program. Advise the participants that referrals will be made to the ETE program coordinator depending on the area procedures.
Module T — Lesson 1 — Exercise

Question 1

Module T — Lesson 1 — Exercise

Instructions

Direct the participants to work individually for 15 minutes to complete the exercise. Participants should be prepared to cite where they found the answer to the question and to justify their responses.

Ask the participants to access Job Services on ICS. Explain that for the purposes of this exercise, the quarter ending June 30, 2009 is the only one to be addressed. For the purpose of this training exercise, only one delinquent period will be used. Advise the class that all the periods would be addressed in an on-the-job situation.

Answers

Reconvene the class and review the answers as a large group discussion. Ask the participants to volunteer answers and discuss why they answered as they did. This activity should take no longer than 10 minutes.
Question 3

Access Job Services from the ICS training database. Using the following information, prepare Form 941, Letter 1085, and Form 5604 using ICS and templates.

It is now November 26, 2012 and Ms. Walker did not send the returns. Ms. Walker did tell you she used a payroll service, A-1 Payroll. You call A-1 Payroll and they provide you with the following information.
